SENATE . . . . No. 274

To accompany the petition of Samuel H. Wragg that provision be made for the publication of the proceedings at the extra session of the General Court convened for the observance of the tercentenary of the establishment of the General Court. Rules of the two branches, acting concurrently.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Thirty-One.

Resolve relative to the Publication of the Proceedings at the Extra Session of the General Court convened for the Observance of the Tercentenary of the Establishment of the General Court.

Resolved, That, subject to appropriation, a sum not exceeding dollars, may be expended, under the direction of the committees on rules of the two branches of the general court, acting concurrently, for the purpose of publishing, in suitable form, a volume containing the proceedings of the extra session of the general court convened on the twentieth day of October, nineteen hundred and thirty, for the purpose of observing the three hundredth anniversary of the establishment of the general court, including such other material as may be deemed appropriate. The said volume shall be distributed in such manner as the said committees, acting as aforesaid, may determine.
