Chap. 297. AN ACT RELATIVE TO THE PROCESSOR'S LIEN ON SYNTHETIC FIBERS AND CERTAIN OTHER MATERIALS, AND THE ENFORCEMENT THEREOF.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

Chapter 255 of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking out section 31B, as appearing in the Tercentenary Edition, and inserting in place thereof the following section:—

Section 31B. If any part of the amount for which goods are held under said lien remains unpaid for a period of ten days after the earliest item of said amount becomes due and payable, the lienor may sell said goods at public auction, first publishing a notice of the time and place of said sale once in each of two successive weeks in a newspaper published in the town, if any, otherwise in the county, in which said goods are situated, the last publication to be not less than five days prior to the sale and, if the residence or business address of the owner of said goods is known or can be ascertained, sending by registered mail a copy of such notice to said owner at such address at least five days before the day of sale; provided, that if said goods are readily divisible, no more thereof shall be so sold than is necessary to discharge the underlying indebtedness and cover the expenses of the sale. The proceeds of said sale shall be applied to the payment of said indebtedness and said expenses and the balance, if any, shall be paid to the owner or person entitled thereto. The remedy herein provided to enforce said lien shall be in addition to any other provided by law.

Approved May 13, 1970.

Chap. 298. AN ACT PROVIDING THAT PAROLE PERMITS MAY BE GRANTED BY THE PAROLE BOARD TO PRISONERS SENTENCED BY THE SUPERIOR COURT TO JAILS OR HOUSES OF CORRECTION.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

Chapter 127 of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking out section 128, as most recently amended by section 3 of chapter 765 of the acts of 1960, and inserting in place thereof the following section:—

Section 128. Subject to other provisions of law, parole permits, in this chapter also referred to as permits to be at liberty, may be granted as follows:—to prisoners in the correctional institutions of the commonwealth or transferred therefrom to jails or houses of correc-
