Chapter 78. AN ACT DIRECTING THE STATE-BOSTON RETIREMENT
BOARD TO RETIRE FRANCIS X. FOLEY A POLICE OFFI-CER OF THE CITY OF BOSTON.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

SECTION 1. Notwithstanding the provisions of any general or special law to the contrary and in order to promote the public good, the State-Boston Retirement Board is hereby authorized and directed to retire Francis X. Foley, a police officer of the city of Boston, who, as a result of injuries sustained while in the performance of his duties on October twenty-eight, nineteen hundred and ninety-one, is totally and permanently incapacitated from further service as a police officer. Said Francis X. Foley of the FE01 bomb technicians was seriously wounded and his partner killed when a suspected explosive device they were called to examine suddenly detonated near them. The annual amount of pension payable to Francis X. Foley shall be fixed in an amount equal to the regular rate of compensation which would have been paid had he continued in service as a police officer of said city at the grade held by him at the time of his retirement. Such retirement shall become effective as of the date following the last day on which he received regular compensation. Upon such retirement the State-Boston Retirement Board shall forthwith pay to him the amount credited to him as accumulated total deductions in the annuity savings of the State-Boston Retirement System.

SECTION 2. Said Francis X. Foley shall be entitled to receive such indemnifi-cation for all hospital, medical and related expenses that have been or may be, incurred after the date of his retirement as a result of the injuries sustained by him while in the performance of his duties, according to the provisions of chapter forty-one of the General Laws.

SECTION 3. Upon the death of said Francis X. Foley, if Claire V. Foley his wife survives him, the State-Boston Retirement Board shall pay to her so long as she remains unmarried, an annuity in the amount of three-fourths of the amount of the pension payable to him, per month at the time of his death. If, said Claire V. Foley remarries, said city shall pay, in lieu of the aforesaid annuity to her, an annuity of five hundred and twenty dollars per month to her.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect upon its passage.

Approved June 23, 1992.

Chapter 79. AN ACT RELATIVE TO CERTAIN SCHOOL BONDS TO BE ISSUED BY THE CITY OF HAVERHILL.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

SECTION 1. Any bonds issued by the city of Haverhill for the city school projects for which an exemption from the provisions of proposition two and one-half, so-called, was approved by the voters on November seventh, nineteen hundred and eighty-nine may be secured in part by state school construction grant payments held in trust under this act. Upon certification to the state treasurer by the city treasurer that the bonds, or any portion thereof, have been issued and that a trust agreement has been entered into in accordance with section two, the state treasurer shall annually pay directly to the trustee the proceeds of any applicable construction grant approved pursuant to chapter six hundred and forty-five of the acts of nineteen hundred and forty-eight. The trustee shall hold those proceeds in trust and apply them solely to pay the principal of and interest on the bonds issued by the city.

SECTION 2. In order to secure any such bonds the city treasurer, with the approval of the mayor, may appoint a corporate trustee, which may be any trust company or bank having the powers of a trust company within the commonwealth, and may execute a trust agreement in such form as they determine to be necessary or appropriate. Any funds held in trust under this act may be invested in accordance with the provisions of section fifty-four of chapter forty-four of the General Laws, and the trust agreement may provide that any investment earnings shall be applied to pay project costs, debt service on bonds issued by the city for the projects or trustee's fees and other related expenses. At least five days prior to each date on which a payment of principal or interest is due on bonds issued for the projects,
