6. William White, and Susanna his wife; and one son called Job, and one borne, a shipboard called Perigene; 2. servants, named William Holbeck, and Edward Thorne.

8. Hopkins, William Hopkins, and Elizabeth his wife; and 2. children, called Giles, and Constantia a daughter, both by a former wife. And 2. more, by this wife, called Damaris, and Oceans, the last was borne at sea. And 2. servants, called Edward Dity, and Edward Linster.

1. Richard Warren, but his wife and children were left behind and came afterwards.

4. John Filliston, and Ellen his wife; and 2. sons, John, and Francis.

Edward Tillie, and Ann his wife; and 2. children, that were their kinsmen; Henry Sampson, and Humility Cooper.

3. John Tillie, and his wife, and Elizabeth their daughter.
John Alerton, and Thomas Fullerton were both hired the 1st of July, and 1st of August, for the latter to go in a ship to the West Indies, and 1st of September, and were to go back (being a seaman) for the help of others behind. But they both died here, before the ship returned.

There were also other 2-seamen hired to stay a year here in the country, William Freeman, and one Ely, but when their time was out they both returned.

These being about a hundred souls came over in this ship, and began this work, which God hath hitherto blessed. Let his holy name have praise, and seeing it hath pleased him to give me to see 30 years completed, since these beginnings, and that the great works of his providence are to be observed. I have thought it not unworthy my pains, to take a view of the decreasings, & increasings of these persons, and such changes as hath past over them in these thirty years. It may be of some use to such as come after, but however I have written in my own benefit.

I will therefore take them in order as they lay.

in Carter and his wife, dyed the 1st of January, he in the 1st spring, she in the 1st summer; all his man Roger, and 3 little boys Jasper, dyed before either of them of small pox, infection, delirious fever, returned to her friend. He proved not very well, and died in England. His servant boy Nathan, after more than 20 years stay in this country went into England, and from thence to the South Sea islands, he was with some others, was captured for want of food. His other servant married a dyer a year or two after here in this place.

His servant John Howell married the daughter of John Gillis, Elizabeth, and they are both now living; and have 10 children now all living, and their eldest daughter hath 4 children.
And the elder son, one, all living and other of them children are able. So 15 are come of them.

Brewster lived to a very old age; about 80. He was when he dyed, having lived some 23 or 24 years here in this country. Although his wife dyed long before, yet she dyed aged. His son was the eldest son, to make an unmarried, his son, the son, for this year, 1690, and dyed & left 4 children, now living. His children which came over before him are dead but have left sundry children alive. His eldest son is still living, and hath 9 or 10. Children, one married, who hath a child, or 2.

Richard more is his brother the first winter; but he is married, and hath 4 or 5. Children, all living.

Ed: Winslow, his wife dyed the first winter, and he married with the widow of Mr. White, and hath 2 children living by her, married, besides a daughter who died a child. His servants dyed, as also the little girls, soon after the ships arrived. But his man George Scott is still living, and hath 8 children.

William Bradford, his wife dyed soon after their arrival, and he married again, and hath 4 children, whereof are married. Who dyed 3 of May, 1656.

Allerton, his wife dyed with the first, and his servant of John Hopkins, his son, is married in England but I know not how many children he hath. His daughter remembers is married at Salem 3, and hath 3 or 4 children living, and his daughter married here, and hath 4 children. Him she married again with a daughter of Mr. Brewster, and hath one son living by her but she is long since dead. And he is married again, and hath left this place long ago. So of account his increase to be 8 besides his sons in England.

No fuller, his servant dyed at sea, and after his wife came over, he had two children by her, which are living and grown up to years. But he dyed some 15 years ago.

John Craskton dyed in the first sickness, and about some 5 or 6 years after his son died, having lost him. Self in my modes, his became frozen, which put him into a fever, of which he died.

Captain Steadman, his wife dyed in the first sickness, and he married again, and hath 4. Children living, and some are dead. Who dyed 3 of October, 1655.

No Martin, he and all his died in the first infection, not long after the arrival.

No Molines, and his wife, his son, his servant dyed the first winter. Only his daughter, Priscilla survived, and married with John Alden, who are both living, and have 11 children. And their eldest daughter is married, and hath five children. See Mr. Memorial p. 22.

Mr. White, and his 2. servants dyed soon after their landing. His wife married with Mr. Winslow (as is before noted) His 2. sons are married, and resolved hath 5 Children, perigrine torn, all living, so their increase are 7.

Hopkins, and his wife are now both dead; but they lived above 20 years in this place, and had one son, and 4. daughters borne here. They one become a seaman, and dyed at Barbadoes, one daughter dyed here, and 2. are married, one of them hath 2. Children, one is yet to marry, so their increase, which still survives, are 5. But his son Giles is married, and hath 4 children.
his daughter Constantia, is also married, and hath 12 children all of them living, and one of them married.

... Richard Warren lived some 4 or 5 years, and had his wife come over to him, by whom he had 2 sons before died, and one of them is married, and hath 2 children so his increase is 4. But he had 5 daughters move came over with his wife, who are all married, & have many children.

... Thomas Rogers died in the first sickness, but his son Joseph is still living, and is married, and hath 6 children. The rest of Thomas Rogers came over & are married, & have many children.

... Thomas Tinker, and his wife, and none, all died in the first sickness.

... And so did John Rigdale, and his wife.

... James Chilton, and his wife also died in the first sickness, but their daughter Mary is still living, and hath 9 children, and one daughter is married, & hath a child, so their increase is 10.

... Edward Fuller, and his wife died soon after they came ashore, but their son Samuel is living, & married, and hath 4 children or more.

John Turner, and his 2 sons all died in the first sickness. But he hath a daughter still living at Salem, and married, and approved of.

Francis Eaton, his first wife died in the general sickness, and he married again to a 2nd wife, and he married the 3rd, and had by her 3 children, one of them is married, & hath 2 children, the other are living, but one of them is an idiot. He died about 18 years ago, his son Samuel, who came over a sucking child is also married, & hath a child.

... Moses Fletcher, Thomas Williams, Digieir pease, John Goodman, Edmond Margeson, Richard Brittleige, Richard Jarke.

All these died soon after their arrival, in the general sickness, that before. But Digier pease had his wife & children sent hither afterwards, she being no Allerton's sister. But the rest left no posterity here.

... Richard Cardinaux became a seaman, and died in England, or at sea.

... Gilbert Hinslom after diverse years abroad here, returned into England and dyed there.

... Peter Browne married twice, by his first wife he had 2 children, who are living, & both of them married, & the one of them hath 2 children. By his second wife, he had 2 more, he diedy about 16 years since.
Thomas English, and John Fletcher, died in the general sickness.
John Fletcher married with Priscilla, his medicine his daughter, and was by her, his before related.

Edward Dut, a servant of Capt. John Smith in the first ship. After he was at liberty went to Virginia, and there died. Edw. Dut by a second wife hath 7 children. and both he and they are living.

Of these 100 persons which came first over in the first ship together the greater part died in the general mortality, and most of them in 2 or 3 months time. And for those which survived though some were ancient, and others left their place and country, yet those few remaining are above 100 persons, in this 30 years, and are now living in this present year 1650. Besides many of their children which are dead and come not within this account, and of the old stock of one, or other, there are yet living in this present year 1650, more than 50 persons.

Let the Lord have his praise, who is the High preserver of men.

Twelve persons living of the old stock this present year 1679.

Two persons living that came over in the first ship 1620 this present year 1650.

Resolved Dut and Mary Chisman, the daughter of John Alderton and John Good. The son of Capt. Thomas Cook of James in the first ship is still living in the present year 1650. Ed. Mary Chisman is still living this present year 1650.
