
(3) be entitled if he resided in student housing to receive refunds on a pro rata basis for the remainder of the semester. In order to receive such refund he shall notify the appropriate authorities of the institution that he has been called to active service. The notification date, or the date that he leaves student housing for active service, whichever is the later, shall be used to determine the pro rata reduction;

(4) be entitled to receive refunds on a pro rata basis for the remainder of the semester for any campus fees he has paid to the institution, including, but not limited to, meal plans;

(5) provide to the registrar or dean of students, as soon as possible, but not later than three months from the date of his release from active service, a copy of the order to active service in order to receive any of the benefits provided in this section; and

(6) be given priority in enrollment in the program of his choice upon return to the institution for the two semesters immediately following his discharge from active service or from hospitalization due to his active service.

The president of such institution may waive or suspend in regard to a student covered by this section any institutional policy or regulation that negatively impacts a student in his withdrawal or subsequent readmission to the institution due to a call to active service.

For purposes of this section, the term "active service" shall not include active duty for training in the army national guard or air national guard or as a reservist in the armed forces of the United States.

SECTION 6. Nothing contained in this act shall be deemed to affect or impair any other rights which a person eligible under this act may have pursuant to any other general or special law or any federal law.

SECTION 7. Sections one and two and sections four to six, inclusive shall take effect as of August second, nineteen hundred and ninety.

Approved July 7, 1991.

Chapter 111. AN ACT DESIGNATING A PORTION OF STATE HIGHWAY ROUTE 107 IN THE CITY OF REVERE IN MEMORY OF RICHARD STANCHI.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

The portion of state highway route 107 in the city of Revere, beginning at Brown circle and extending to the Saugus line, shall be designated and known as the Richard Stanchi Memorial Highway, in memory of Richard Stanchi, a state department of public works employee who was killed in the line of duty. Suitable markers bearing such designation shall be erected thereat by the department of public works in compliance with the standards of said department.

Approved July 8, 1991.
