

CHAP. XLIX.

An act confirming the laying out the road of the Housatonic Turnpike Corporation, at and near the line of the State of New-York.

WHEREAS by an act passed on the eighth day of March last past, the Housatonic Turnpike Corporation were authorized to make alterations in the laying out of their road, upon a certain condition expressed in these words, that is to say, "Provided notwithstanding, that nothing in this act, shall be construed to authorize the said corporation or Committee to alter the location of the said road at either extremity of the same." Whereas the Committee upon viewing the said road did conceive it proper that the same should terminate at the extremity thereof where the same intersects the line of the State of New-York, a few rods south of the place whereupon the said line it had formerly terminated by a previous location thereof. And the said Committee did thereupon report to the Court of Sessions for the county of Berkshire the said alteration, and the said report was by the said Court accepted :

Preamble.

BE it therefore enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives, in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, That the alteration in the location of the Housatonic Turnpike Road, at and near the line of the State of New-York, and the acceptance thereof by the Court of Sessions for the county of Berkshire, be and the same hereby is confirmed and established, to all intents and purposes, as if the said recited condition had not been in the act aforesaid.

[This act passed Feb. 27, 1809.]
