

to be in each instance in addition to the amounts already appropriated in said items.

SECTION 10A. In the case of the reorganization of any department, or of the transfer of any function to or from any department, required by any act becoming effective during the fiscal year ending June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and fifty-four, the governor with the approval of the council, and upon recommendation of the budget commissioner and the head of the department so reorganized or the heads of the departments to and from which such function is transferred, may from time to time by transfer or otherwise make allocations for personal services and expenses to be incurred by such agents and agencies as shall exercise the powers and perform the duties given to them by such act, from the unexpended balance of the appropriations made available for the said fiscal year for the said transferred function or for any agency which by such act is abolished or merged with one or more other agencies or whose functions are reduced; and in connection with such allocations may transfer the permanent positions provided for in the said appropriations.

SECTION 11. This act shall take effect as of July first, nineteen hundred and fifty-three.

Approved July 4, 1953.

AN ACT RELATIVE TO THE TERMS OF CERTAIN BONDS AND NOTES TO BE ISSUED BY THE COMMONWEALTH. Chap. 676

Whereas, The deferred operation of this act would cause great inconvenience in the issues of bonds and notes to carry out the purposes of various acts passed at the current session of the general court, therefore it is hereby declared to be an emergency law, necessary for the immediate preservation of the public safety and convenience.

Emergency preamble.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

SECTION 1. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the notes which the state treasurer is authorized to issue under section two of chapter four hundred and sixty-seven of the acts of the current year, further extending the opportunity to cities and towns to borrow under the act creating the emergency finance board, shall be issued for maximum terms of years to expire not later than June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and fifty-eight, as recommended by the governor in a message to the general court, dated July third, nineteen hundred and fifty-three, in pursuance of section 3 of Article LXII of the amendments to the constitution of the commonwealth.

SECTION 2. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the bonds which the state treasurer is authorized to issue under section ten of chapter four hundred and forty of the acts of the current year, further providing suitable recognition of certain residents of Massachusetts who have served in the armed forces of the United States during hosilities in Korea, shall be issued for maximum terms of ten years, as recommended by the governor in a message to the general court, dated July third, nineteen hundred and fifty-three, in pursuance of section 3 of Article LXII of the amendments to the constitution of the commonwealth.

SECTION 3. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the bonds which the state treasurer is authorized to issue under chapter six hundred and sixty of the acts of the current year, to provide for a special capital outlay program for the commonwealth, shall be payable not earlier than July first, nineteen hundred and fifty-four nor later than June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and sixty-eight, as recommended by the governor in a message to the general court, dated July third, nineteen hundred and fifty-three, in pursuance of section 3 of Article LXII of the amendments to the constitution of the commonwealth.

SECTION 4. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the bonds which the state treasurer is authorized to issue under section two of chapter six hundred and forty-two of the acts of the current year, providing additional funds to cover the cost of sewerage works within the south metropolitan sewerage district, shall be issued for maximum terms of thirty years, as recommended by the governor in a message to the general court, dated July third, nineteen hundred and fifty-three, in pursuance of section 3 of Article LXII of the amendments to the constitution of the commonwealth.

SECTION 5. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the bonds which the state treasurer is authorized to issue under chapter six hundred and fifty-one of the acts of the current year, relative to the alleviation of the financial burden imposed on cities, towns and counties by the nineteen hundred and fifty-three tornado, shall be payable not earlier than July first, nineteen hundred and fifty-four, nor later than June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and sixty-three, as recommended by the governor in a message to the general court, dated July third, nineteen hundred and fifty-three, in pursuance of section 3 of Article LXII of the amendments to the constitution of the commonwealth.

SECTION 6. Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, the bonds which the state treasurer is authorized to issue under chapter six hundred and seventy-three of the acts of the current year, to provide for the erection and maintenance of certain recreational facilities in the Salisbury Beach Reservation, shall be issued for maximum terms of twenty years, and shall be payable not earlier than July first, nineteen hundred and fifty-four, nor later than June thirtieth, nineteen hundred and seventy-three, as recommended by the governor in a message to the general court, dated July third, nineteen hundred and fifty-three, in pursuance of section 3 of Article LXII of the amendments to the constitution of the commonwealth.
