

of making a turnpike road, to begin near the River Bridge, a few rods south of Richardson's tavern, in the west part of Sterling; thence in nearly a straight course to the Cookshire school-house, in said Sterling; thence to the southwardly end of Shakum pond, by the houses of Cyrus Belknap and John Smith; thence near the houses of Jacob Stone and Levi Howe, junior, to Nashua River; thence to the road leading from Sawyer's mills to Berlin meeting-house, near Berlin line, and near the guide board on the road; and shall have all the powers and privileges, and shall also be subject to all the duties, requirements, and penalties, contained in "an act, entitled an act defining the general powers and duties of Turnpike Corporations," and the several acts in addition thereto.

Course of the road.

[Approved by the Governor, June 18, 1825.]

CHAP. XIV.

An Act making provision for holding an additional term of the Supreme Judicial Court, in the County of Franklin.

SEC. 1. BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this act, a term of the Supreme Judicial Court, to be holden by one or more of the Justices thereof, shall be annually holden at Greenfield, within and for the County of Franklin, on the first Tuesday of September.

Additional annual term.

SEC. 2. Be it further enacted, That all writs, appeals, recognizances, processes, and every other matter and thing, of what kind soever the same may be, returnable to, or now pending in the Supreme Judicial Court, at the term thereof already established in said county; and all parties and persons required, before the passing of this act, to appear and attend at the term aforesaid, shall be returned to, entered, appear, attend and have day, be tried and determined in said Court, at the term established by this act, pursuant to the true intent and meaning thereof.

Writs, &c. and persons, returnable, & have day.

[Approved by the Governor, June 18, 1825.]

CHAP. XV.

An Act to incorporate the Congregational Church in Purchase Street, in the City of Boston.

Persons incorporated.

SEC. 1. BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, That John Davis, Lewis Tappan, Henry H. Fuller, and Charles G. Loring, and all others who may associate with them, and their successors, be, and they are hereby, incorporated as a religious society, by the name of the Congregational Church in Purchase Street, in the City of Boston, with all the privileges, powers and immunities to which other religious societies in this Commonwealth are entitled, by the laws and constitution thereof.

May purchase estate.

SEC. 2. Be it further enacted, That the said society shall be capable, in law, to purchase, hold, and dispose of any estates, real or personal, for the use of said society, the annual income of all which, shall not exceed five thousand dollars.

Two of petitioners to call meeting.

SEC. 3. Be it further enacted, That any two of the above named persons hereby are authorized to notify the first meeting of the members of the said Corporation, by advertising the time and place thereof, in one or more of the public newspapers,