

CHAP. XIV.

An Act to establish the Boundary Line between the towns of South Hadley and Granby, in the county of Hampshire.

BE it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, That from and after the passing of this act, the boundary line between the towns of South Hadley and Granby in the county of Hampshire, shall forever be known, fixed and established as follows, viz :—Beginning at Boundary Line. a pine tree, now a boundary between said towns, standing in the northerly line of the town of Springfield, thence running north seven degrees west to Stony Brook, then down said Brook on the line of 1768, until it intersects a line running from said pine tree north, eleven degrees west, to Church's road, thence on said line of north eleven degrees west to Church's road, thence running north, five degrees twenty-nine minutes east, six hundred and ten rods, to the county road leading from South Hadley meeting house, over Mount Holyoke, to the town of Amherst, passing west of the dwelling house of Eleazer Nash and Nathaniel Nash, between the house lot of said Nash's, and the lot of Seth Moody, where the corners of said lots meet on said road, to the north side of the same road, thence following said road on the north and westerly side thereof to the southerly line of Amherst. The said town of South Hadley, being on the westerly side of said line, and the town of Granby being on the easterly side of said line. And the above described line shall forever hereafter be fixed and established to be the true boundary line between the said towns, in all respects, and to all intents and purposes, any law or usage to the contrary notwithstanding.
