

Chap.161 AN ACT MAKING FURTHER EXEMPTIONS FROM THE LAW RELATING TO CHARTER OR SPECIAL BUS SERVICE.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

G. L. (Ter. Ed.), 159A, § 11A, etc., amended.

"Charter service" or "special service" not to include certain motor vehicles.

The third paragraph of section 11A of chapter 159A of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking out the third sentence, as appearing in chapter 501 of the acts of 1950, and inserting in place thereof the following:— The terms "charter service" or "special service" shall not include the operation of a motor vehicle actually used for the transportation of school children under a contract with a municipality or municipal board, or for the transportation of school children in a school bus, as defined in section one of chapter ninety, to or from events of public interest, or the operation of a motor vehicle actually used for the transportation of school children to and from school; provided, that the authorities of such school shall have entered into a written agreement with the owner of the motor vehicle for the furnishing of such transportation; or the operation of a motor vehicle so used and owned and operated by such authorities; or the operation of sight-seeing automobiles licensed under chapter three hundred and ninety-nine of the acts of nineteen hundred and thirty-one.

Approved March 15, 1951.

Chap.162 AN ACT RELATIVE TO THE DISPOSITION OF CERTAIN PROPERTY OF CERTAIN PATIENTS AND INMATES AT LONG ISLAND HOSPITAL IN THE CITY OF BOSTON.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

SECTION 1. Upon the death of a person who at any time during his life has been, or shall have been, a patient or inmate at the Long Island Hospital in the city of Boston, any money, goods or other property of such person in the possession of the commissioner of institutions of said city or any person claiming by, through or under such commissioner, whether such money, goods or other property came into such possession before or after the death of the patient or inmate, shall be paid or delivered to the legal representative of the patient or inmate; provided, however, that if the value of such money, goods and other property does not exceed five hundred dollars and there has been no demand therefor by a duly appointed executor or administrator, payment or delivery may be made, in the discretion of said commissioner, after the expiration of one month from the death of such patient or inmate, to the husband, widow or next of kin of such patient or inmate. Payments and deliveries made as provided in this act shall discharge the liability of said city, said commissioner, and their servants and agents, to all persons with respect to such money, goods or other property. Nothing herein contained shall be con-
