Chap. 429 AN ACT RELATIVE TO THE KEEPING OF CERTAIN RECORDS BY FUR BUYERS.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

G. L. (Ter. Ed.), 131, § 103, etc., amended.

Section 103 of chapter 131 of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking out the tenth paragraph, as appearing in section 2 of chapter 599 of the acts of 1941, and inserting in place thereof the following paragraph: —

Certain records, when kept and filed.

An accurate account of all dealings subject to this section shall be kept by each licensee hereunder, on a form prescribed by the director, of all persons from whom skins have been obtained, or to whom skins have been sold or otherwise disposed of, including names, post office addresses, trap registration numbers or fur license dealer's numbers, either or both as the case may be; or in the case of a non-registered landowner trapping on his own property, his name and post office address; and a copy of such portions of the records so kept, as may be required by the director, shall be filed with him not later than April first of each calendar year; provided, however, that the director shall not require that the names of persons so dealt with be submitted to him in said report; and provided, further, that such records of skins sold or otherwise disposed of shall not require a detailed accounting of the disposition of individual skins. Said records shall be open for inspection at all reasonable times by the director or his authorized agents and by the director of the division of law enforcement or his authorized agents.
