Tercentenary Edition of the General Laws of the Massachusetts.

INTRODUCTION.

As directed by chapter 39 of the Resolves of 1929, chapter 58 of the Resolves of 1930 and chapters 67 and 68 of the Resolves of 1931, the undersigned, counsel, respectively, to the Senate and to the House of Representatives, have prepared for publication this tercentenary edition of the General Laws of 1921, as amended prior to January 1, 1932.

It is to be noted that this edition is not a revision of the general statutes of the commonwealth, enacted as a unit by the General Court, as were the revisions known as the Revised Statutes of 1836, the General Statutes of 1860, the Public Statutes of 1882, the Revised Laws of 1902 and the General Laws of 1921.

At the special session of 1920, the General Court enacted chapter 640 (now General Laws, chapter 3, sections 51 to 55, inclusive), establishing the plan known as the "continuous consolidation of the general statutes", providing for the offices of counsel to the Senate and to the House of Representatives and directing that they "shall, so far as possible, draft all bills proposed for legislation as general statutes in the form of specific amendments of or additions to the General Laws". One of the principal purposes of said chapter 640 was to make provision for maintaining the general statutes of the commonwealth in such form that new editions might readily be prepared for publication at periodic intervals, without the delay, inconvenience and expense incident to a general consolidation or revision as theretofore conducted, involving the appointment of a highly paid revision commission and a recess committee of the only kind now entitled to compensation under the constitution and also the calling of a special session of the General Court. In the preparation of the tercentenary edition for publication, this purpose has been achieved.

In anticipation of the preparation of this edition, the undersigned have also reviewed the General Laws and amendments thereof in order to comply with mandates of the General Court, directing them to make recommendations for the correction of errors, omissions, inconsistencies and imperfections therein which may come to their attention, accompanied by drafts of legislation to carry such recommendations into effect. These recommendations and accompanying drafts of legislation appear in the reports of the counsel to the Senate and to the House of Representatives filed with the clerk of the House of Representatives and printed as House Document 1360 of 1930 and House Documents 1324, 1370 and 1650 of 1931. Chapters 301, 394 and 426 of the Acts of 1931 were based upon the foregoing reports.

The marginal notations opposite the several sections of the General Laws have been revised to include citations of decisions of the Supreme Judicial Court rendered since the publication of the General Laws, concluding with those contained in Volume 273 of the Massachusetts Reports.

WE the people of the United States, in order to form a more perfect union, establish justice, insure domestic tranquillity, provide for the common defence, promote the general welfare, and secure the blessings of liberty to ourselves and our posterity, do ordain and establish this CONSTITUTION for the United States of America.

ARTICLE I.

SECT. 1. All legislative powers herein granted shall be vested in a congress of the United States, which shall consist of a senate and house of representatives.

SECT. 2. The house of representatives shall be composed of members chosen every second year by the people of the several states, and the electors in each state shall have the qualifications requisite for electors of the most numerous branch of the state legislature.

No person shall be a representative who shall not have attained to the age of twenty-five years, and been seven years a citizen of the United States, and who shall not, when elected, be an inhabitant of that state in which he shall be chosen.

Representatives and direct taxes shall be apportioned among the several states which may be included within this Union, according to their respective numbers, which shall be determined by adding to the whole number of free persons, including those bound to service for a term of years, and excluding Indians not taxed, three-fifths of all other persons. The actual enumeration shall be made within three years after the first meeting of the congress of the United States, and within every subsequent term of ten years, in such manner as they shall by law direct. The number of representatives shall not exceed one for every thirty thousand, but each state shall have at least one representative; and until such enumeration shall be made, the state of New Hampshire shall be entitled to choose three, Massachusetts eight, Rhode Island and Providence Plantations one, Connecticut five, New York six, New Jersey four, Pennsylvania eight, Delaware one, Maryland six, Virginia ten, North Carolina five, South Carolina five, and Georgia three.

When vacancies happen in the representation from any state, the executive authority thereof shall issue writs of election to fill such vacancies.

The house of representatives shall choose their speaker and other officers; and shall have the sole power of impeachment.

SECT. 3. [The senate of the United States shall be composed of two senators from each state, chosen by the legislature thereof, for six years; and each senator shall have one vote.]

Amendment XVII a substitute for this paragraph.

Immediately after they shall be assembled in consequence of the first election, they shall be divided as equally as may be into three classes. The seats of the senators of the first class shall be vacated at the expiration of the second year, of the second class at the expiration of the fourth year, and of the third class at the expiration of the sixth year, so that one-third may be chosen every second year; [and if vacancies happen by resignation, or otherwise, during the recess of the legislature of any state, the executive thereof may make temporary appointments until the next meeting of the legislature, which shall then fill such vacancies.]

No person shall be a senator who shall not have attained to the age of thirty years, and been nine years a citizen of the United States, and who shall not, when elected, be an inhabitant of that state for which he shall be chosen.

The vice-president of the United States shall be president of the senate, but shall have no vote, unless they be equally divided.

The senate shall choose their other officers, and also a president pro tempore, in the absence of the vice-president, or when he shall exercise the office of president of the United States.

The senate shall have the sole power to try all impeachments. When sitting for that purpose, they shall be on oath or affirmation. When the president of the United States is tried, the chief justice shall preside; and no person shall be convicted without the concurrence of two-thirds of the members present.

Judgment in cases of impeachment shall not extend further than to removal from office, and disqualification to hold and enjoy any office of honor, trust or profit under the United States: but the party convicted shall nevertheless be liable and subject to indictment, trial, judgment and punishment, according to law.

SECT. 4. The times, places and manner of holding elections for senators and representatives, shall be prescribed in each state by the CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES.

One session in each year. 239 Mass. 663.

legislature thereof; but the congress may at any time by law make or alter such regulations, except as to the places of choosing senators.

The congress shall assemble at least once in every year, and such meeting shall be on the first Monday in December, unless they shall by law appoint a different day.

Sect. 5. Each house shall be the judge of the elections, returns and qualifications of its own members, and a majority of each shall constitute a quorum to do business; but a smaller number may adjourn from day to day, and may be authorized to compel the attendance of absent members, in such manner, and under such penalties as each house may provide.

Each house may determine the rules of its proceedings, punish its members for disorderly behavior, and, with the concurrence of two-thirds, expel a member.

Each house shall keep a journal of its proceedings, and from time to time publish the same, excepting such parts as may in their judgment require secrecy; and the yea and nay of the members of either house on any question shall, at the desire of one-fifth of those present, be entered on the journal.

Neither house, during the session of congress, shall, without the consent of the other, adjourn for more than three days, nor to any other place than that in which the two houses shall be sitting.

Sect. 6. The senators and representatives shall receive a compensation for their services, to be ascertained by law, and paid out of the treasury of the United States. They shall in all cases, except treason, felony and breach of the peace, be privileged from arrest during their attendance at the session of their respective houses, and in going to and returning from the same; and for any speech or debate in either house, they shall not be questioned in any other place.

No senator or representative shall, during the time for which he was elected, be appointed to any civil office under the authority of the United States, which shall have been created, or the emoluments whereof shall have been increased during such time; and no person holding any office under the United States, shall be a member of either house during his continuance in office.

Sect. 7. All bills for raising revenue shall originate in the house of representatives; but the senate may propose or concur with amendments as on other bills.

Every bill which shall have passed the house of representatives and the senate, shall, before it become a law, be presented to the president of the United States; if he approve he shall sign it, but if not he shall return it, with his objections to that house in which it shall have originated, who shall enter the objections at large on their journal, and proceed to reconsider it. If after such reconsideration two-thirds of that house shall agree to pass the bill, it shall be sent, together with the objections, to the other house, by which it shall likewise be reconsidered, and if approved by two-thirds of that house, it shall become a law. But in all such cases the votes of both houses shall be determined by yeas and nays, and the names of the persons voting for and against the bill shall be entered on the journal of each house respectively. If any bill shall not be returned by the president within ten days (Sundays excepted) after it shall have been presented to him, the same shall be a law, in like manner as if he had signed it, unless the congress by their adjournment prevent its return, in which case it shall not be a law.
Every order, resolution, or vote to which the concurrence of the senate and house of representatives may be necessary (except on a question of adjournment) shall be presented to the president of the United States; and before the same shall take effect, shall be approved by him, or being disapproved by him, shall be repassed by two-thirds of the senate and house of representatives, according to the rules and limitations prescribed in the case of a bill.

Sect. 8. The congress shall have power — to lay and collect taxes, duties, imposts and excises, to pay the debts and provide for the common defence and general welfare of the United States; but all duties, imposts and excises shall be uniform throughout the United States; — to borrow money on the credit of the United States; — to regulate commerce with foreign nations, and among the several states, and with the Indian tribes; — to establish an uniform rule of naturalization, and uniform laws on the subject of bankruptcies throughout the United States; — to coin money, regulate the value thereof, and of foreign coin, and fix the standard of weights and measures; — to provide for the punishment of counterfeiting the securities and current coin of the United States; — to establish post offices and post roads; — to promote the progress of science and useful arts, by securing for limited times to authors and inventors the exclusive right to their respective writings and discoveries; — to constitute tribunals inferior to the supreme court; — to define and punish piracies and felonies committed on the high seas, and offences against the law of nations; — to declare war, grant letters of marque and reprisal, and make rules concerning captures on land and water; — to raise and support armies, but no appropriation of money to that use shall be for a longer term than two years; — to provide and maintain a navy; — to make rules for the government and regulation of the land and naval forces; — to provide for calling forth the militia to execute the laws of the Union, suppress insurrections, and repel invasions; — to provide for organizing, arming, and disciplining the militia, and for governing such part of them as may be employed in the service of the United States, reserving to the states respectively, the appointment of the officers, and the authority of training the militia according to the discipline prescribed by congress; — to exercise exclusive legislation in all cases whatsoever, over such district (not exceeding ten miles square) as may, by cession of particular states, and the acceptance of congress, become the seat of the government of the United States, and to exercise like authority over all places purchased by the consent of the legislature of the state in which the same shall be, for the erection of forts, magazines, arsenals, dock yards, and other needful buildings; — and to make all laws which shall be necessary and proper for carrying into execution the foregoing powers, and all other powers vested by this constitution in the government of the United States, or in any department or officer thereof.

Sect. 9. The migration or importation of such persons, as any of the states now existing shall think proper to admit, shall not be prohibited by the congress prior to the year one thousand eight hundred and eight, but a tax or duty may be imposed on such importation, not exceeding ten dollars for each person.

The privilege of the writ of habeas corpus shall not be suspended, unless when in cases of rebellion or invasion the public safety may require it.

No bill of attainder or ex post facto law shall be passed.
No capitation, or other direct tax, shall be laid, unless in proportion to the census or enumeration hereinbefore directed to be taken.

No tax or duty shall be laid on articles exported from any state.

235 Mass. 572. 242 Mass. 47. 244 Mass. 530.

No preference shall be given by any regulation of commerce or revenue to the ports of one state over those of another; nor shall vessels bound to, or from, one state, be obliged to enter, clear or pay duties in another.

No money shall be drawn from the treasury, but in consequence of appropriations made by law; and a regular statement and account of the receipts and expenditures of all public money shall be published from time to time.

No title of nobility shall be granted by the United States; and no person holding any office of profit or trust under them shall, without the consent of the congress, accept of any present, emolument, office or title, of any kind whatever, from any king, prince, or foreign state.

SECT. 10. No state shall enter into any treaty, alliance, or confederacy; grant letters of marque and reprisal; coin money; emit bills of credit; make any thing but gold and silver coin a tender in payment of debts; pass any bill of attainder, ex post facto law, or law impairing the obligation of contracts, or grant any title of nobility.

No state shall, without the consent of the congress, lay any impost or duties on imports or exports, except what may be absolutely necessary for executing its inspection laws: and the net produce of all duties and imposts, laid by any state on imports or exports, shall be for the use of the treasury of the United States; and all such laws shall be subject to the revision and control of the congress. No state shall, without the consent of congress, lay any duty of tonnage, keep troops, or ships of war in time of peace, enter into any agreement or compact with another state, or with a foreign power, or engage in war, unless actually invaded, or in such imminent danger as will not admit of delay.

ARTICLE II.

SECT. 1. The executive power shall be vested in a President of the United States of America. He shall hold his office during the term of four years, and, together with the vice-president, chosen for the same term, be elected, as follows:

Each state shall appoint, in such manner as the legislature thereof may direct, a number of electors, equal to the whole number of senators and representatives to which the state may be entitled in the congress; but no senator or representative, or person holding an office of trust or profit under the United States, shall be appointed an elector.

The electors shall meet in their respective states, and vote by ballot for two persons, of whom one at least shall not be an inhabitant of the same state with themselves. And they shall make a list of all the persons voted for, and of the number of votes for each; which list they shall sign and certify, and transmit sealed to the seat of the government of the United States, directed to the president of the senate. The president of the senate shall, in the presence of the senate and house of representatives, open all the certificates, and the votes shall then be counted. The person having the greatest number of votes shall be the president, if such number be a majority of the whole number of electors appointed; and if there be more than one who have such majority, and have an equal number of votes, then the house of representatives shall immediately choose by ballot one of them for president; and if no person have a majority, then from the five highest on the list the said house shall in like manner choose the president. But in choosing the president, the votes shall be taken by states, the representation from each state having one vote; a quorum for this purpose shall consist of a member or members from two-thirds of the states, and a majority of all the states shall be necessary to a choice. In every case, after the choice of the president, the person having the greatest number of votes of the electors shall be the vice-president. But if there should remain two or more who have equal votes, the senate shall choose from them by ballot the vice-president.

The congress may determine the time of choosing the electors, and the day on which they shall give their votes; which day shall be the same throughout the United States.

No person except a natural born citizen, or a citizen of the United States, at the time of the adoption of this constitution, shall be eligible to the office of president; neither shall any person be eligible to that office who shall not have attained to the age of thirty-five years, and been fourteen years a resident within the United States.

In case of the removal of the president from office, or of his death, resignation, or inability to discharge the powers and duties of the said office, the same shall devolve on the vice-president, and the congress may by law provide for the case of removal, death, resignation, or inability, both of the president and vice-president, declaring what officer shall then act as president, and such officer shall act accordingly, until the disability be removed, or a president shall be elected.

The president shall, at stated times, receive for his services, a compensation, which shall neither be increased nor diminished during the period for which he shall have been elected, and he shall not receive within that period any other emolument from the United States, or any of them.

Before he enter on the execution of his office, he shall take the following oath or affirmation:

"I do solemnly swear (or affirm) that I will faithfully execute the office of president of the United States, and will to the best of my ability, preserve, protect and defend the constitution of the United States."

Sect. 2. The president shall be commander-in-chief of the army and navy of the United States, and of the militia of the several states, when called into the actual service of the United States; he may require the opinion, in writing, of the principal officer in each of the executive departments, upon any subject relating to the duties of their respective offices, and he shall have power to grant reprieves and pardons for offences against the United States, except in cases of impeachment.

He shall have power, by and with the advice and consent of the senate, to make treaties, provided two-thirds of the senators present concur; and he shall nominate, and by and with the advice and consent of the senate, shall appoint ambassadors, other public ministers and consuls, judges of the supreme court, and all other officers of the United States, whose appointments are not herein otherwise provided for, and which shall be established by law: but the congress may by law vest the appointment of such inferior officers, as they think proper, in the president alone, in the courts of law, or in the heads of departments.

The president shall have power to fill up all vacancies that may happen during the recess of the senate, by granting commissions which shall expire at the end of their next session.

Sect. 3. He shall from time to time give to the congress information of the state of the Union, and recommend to their consideration such measures as he shall judge necessary and expedient; he may, on extraordinary occasions, convene both houses, or either of them, and in case of disagreement between them, with respect to the time of adjournment, he may adjourn them to such time as he shall think proper; he shall receive ambassadors and other public ministers; he shall take care that the laws be faithfully executed, and shall commission all the officers of the United States.

Sect. 4. The president, vice-president, and all civil officers of the United States, shall be removed from office on impeachment for, and conviction of, treason, bribery, or other high crimes and misdemeanors.

ARTICLE III.

Sect. 1. The judicial power of the United States shall be vested in one supreme court, and in such inferior courts as the congress may from time to time ordain and establish. The judges, both of the supreme and inferior courts, shall hold their offices during good behavior, and shall, at stated times, receive for their services, a compensation, which shall not be diminished during their continuance in office.

Sect. 2. The judicial power shall extend to all cases, in law and equity, arising under this constitution, the laws of the United States, and treaties made, or which shall be made, under their authority; — to all cases affecting ambassadors, other public ministers, and consuls; — to all cases of admiralty and maritime jurisdiction; — to controversies to which the United States shall be a party; — to controversies between two or more states; — between a state and citizens of another state; — between citizens of different states; — between citizens of the same state claiming lands under grants of different states, and between a state, or the citizens thereof, and foreign states, citizens or subjects.

In all cases affecting ambassadors, other public ministers and consuls, and those in which a state shall be a party, the supreme court shall have original jurisdiction. In all the other cases before mentioned, the supreme court shall have appellate jurisdiction, both as to law and fact, with such exceptions, and under such regulations as the congress shall make.

The trial of all crimes, except in cases of impeachment, shall be by jury; and such trial shall be held in the state where the said crimes shall have been committed; but when not committed within any state, the trial shall be at such place or places as the congress may by law have directed.
CONSTITUTION OF THE UNITED STATES.

Sect. 3. Treason against the United States, shall consist only in levying war against them, or in adhering to their enemies, giving them aid and comfort. No person shall be convicted of treason unless on the testimony of two witnesses to the same overt act, or on confession in open court.

The congress shall have power to declare the punishment of treason, but no attainted of treason shall work corruption of blood, or forfeiture except during the life of the person attainted.

ARTICLE IV.

Sect. 1. Full faith and credit shall be given in each state to the public acts, records, and judicial proceedings of every other state. And the congress may by general laws prescribe the manner in which such acts, records and proceedings shall be proved, and the effect thereof.

Sect. 2. The citizens of each state shall be entitled to all privileges and immunities of citizens in the several states.

A person charged in any state with treason, felony, or other crime, who shall flee from justice, and be found in another state, shall, on demand of the executive authority of the state from which he fled, be delivered up to be removed to the state having jurisdiction of the crime.

No person held to service or labor in one state, under the laws thereof, escaping into another, shall, in consequence of any law or regulation therein, be discharged from such service or labor, but shall be delivered up on claim of the party to whom such service or labor may be due.

Sect. 3. New states may be admitted by the congress into this Union; but no new state shall be formed or erected within the jurisdiction of any other state; nor any state be formed by the junction of two or more states, or parts of states, without the consent of the legislatures of the states concerned as well as of the congress.

The congress shall have power to dispose of and make all needful rules and regulations respecting the territory or other property belonging to the United States; and nothing in this constitution shall be so construed as to prejudice any claims of the United States, or of any particular state.

Sect. 4. The United States shall guarantee to every state in this Union a republican form of government, and shall protect each of them against invasion, and on application of the legislature, or of the executive (when the legislature cannot be convened) against domestic violence.

ARTICLE V.

The congress, whenever two-thirds of both houses shall deem it necessary, shall propose amendments to this constitution, or, on the application of the legislatures of two-thirds of the several states, shall call a convention for proposing amendments, which, in either case, shall be valid to all intents and purposes, as part of this constitution, when ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the several states, or by conventions in three-fourths thereof, as the one or the other mode of ratification may be proposed by congress; provided that no amendment which may be made prior to the year one thousand eight hundred and eight shall in any manner affect the first and fourth clauses in the ninth section of the first article; and that no state, without its consent, shall be deprived of its equal suffrage in the senate.

ARTICLE VI.

All debts contracted and engagements entered into, before the adoption of this constitution, shall be as valid against the United States under this constitution, as under the confederation.

This constitution, and the laws of the United States which shall be made in pursuance thereof; and all treaties made, or which shall be made, under the authority of the United States, shall be the supreme law of the land; and the judges in every state shall be bound thereby, any thing in the constitution or laws of any state to the contrary notwithstanding.

The senators and representatives before mentioned, and the members of the several state legislatures, and all executive and judicial officers, both of the United States and of the several states, shall be bound by oath or affirmation, to support this constitution; but no religious test shall ever be required as a qualification to any office or public trust under the United States.

ARTICLE VII.

The ratification of the conventions of nine states, shall be sufficient for the establishment of this constitution between the states so ratifying the same.

ARTICLES

IN ADDITION TO AND AMENDMENT OF

The constitution of the United States of America, proposed by congress, and ratified by the legislatures of the several states, pursuant to the fifth article of the original constitution.

Art. I. Congress shall make no law respecting an establishment of religion, or prohibiting the free exercise thereof; or abridging the freedom of speech, or of the press; or the right of the people peaceably to assemble, and to petition the government for a redress of grievances.

Art. II. A well regulated militia, being necessary to the security of a free state, the right of the people to keep and bear arms shall not be infringed.

Art. III. No soldier shall, in time of peace, be quartered in any house, without the consent of the owner, nor in time of war, but in a manner to be prescribed by law.
ART. IV. The right of the people to be secure in their persons, houses, papers and effects, against unreasonable searches and seizures, shall not be violated, and no warrants shall issue, but upon probable cause, supported by oath or affirmation, and particularly describing the place to be searched, and the persons or things to be seized.

Right of search and seizure regulated.

ART. V. No person shall be held to answer for a capital, or otherwise infamous crime, unless on a presentment or indictment of a grand jury, except in cases arising in the land or naval forces, or in the militia, when in actual service in time of war or public danger; nor shall any person be subject for the same offence to be twice put in jeopardy of life or limb; nor shall be compelled in any criminal case to be a witness against himself, nor be deprived of life, liberty or property, without due process of law; nor shall private property be taken for public use, without just compensation.

Provisions concerning prosecutions, trials and punishments. Private property not to be taken for public use, without compensation.

ART. VI. In all criminal prosecutions, the accused shall enjoy the right to a speedy and public trial, by an impartial jury of the state and district wherein the crime shall have been committed, which district shall have been previously ascertained by law, and to be informed of the nature and cause of the accusation; to be confronted with the witnesses against him; to have compulsory process for obtaining witnesses in his favor, and to have the assistance of counsel for his defence.

ART. VII. In suits at common law, where the value in controversy shall exceed twenty dollars, the right of trial by jury shall be preserved, and no fact tried by a jury shall be otherwise re-examined in any court of the United States, than according to the rules of the common law.

Further provisions respecting criminal prosecutions. Right of trial by jury secured.

ART. VIII. Excessive bail shall not be required, nor excessive fines imposed, nor cruel and unusual punishments inflicted.

Bail, fines and punishments.

ART. IX. The enumeration in the constitution, of certain rights, shall not be construed to deny or disparage others retained by the people.

Rule of construction.

ART. X. The powers not delegated to the United States by the constitution, nor prohibited by it to the states, are reserved to the states respectively, or to the people.

Same subject.

ART. XI. The judicial power of the United States shall not be construed to extend to any suit in law or equity, commenced or prosecuted against one of the United States by citizens of another state, or by citizens or subjects of any foreign state.

Same subject.

ART. XII. The electors shall meet in their respective states, and vote by ballot for president and vice-president, one of whom, at least, shall not be an inhabitant of the same state with themselves; they shall name in their ballots the person voted for as president, and in distinct ballots the person voted for as vice-president, and they shall make distinct lists of all persons voted for as president, and of all persons voted for as vice-president, and of the number of votes for each, which lists they shall sign and certify, and transmit sealed to the seat of the government of the United States, directed to the president of the senate; — the president of the senate shall, in presence of the senate and house of representatives, open all the certificates and the votes shall then be counted; — the person having the greatest number of votes for president, shall be the president, if such number be a majority of the whole number of electors appointed; and if no person have such majority, then from the persons having the highest numbers not exceeding three on the list of those voted for as president, the house of representatives shall choose immediately, by ballot, the president. But in choosing the president, the votes shall be taken by states, the representation from each state having one vote; a quorum for this purpose shall consist of a member or members from two-thirds of the states, and a majority of all the states shall be necessary to a choice. And if the house of representatives shall not choose a president whenever the right of choice shall devolve upon them, before the fourth day of March next following, then the vice-president shall act as president, as in the case of the death or other constitutional disability of the president.

The person having the greatest number of votes as vice-president, shall be the vice-president, if such number be a majority of the whole number of electors appointed, and if no person have a majority, then from the two highest numbers on the list, the senate shall choose the vice-president; a quorum for the purpose shall consist of two-thirds of the whole number of senators, and a majority of the whole number shall be necessary to a choice.

But no person constitutionally ineligible to the office of president shall be eligible to that of vice-president of the United States.

Art. XIII. Sect. 1. Neither slavery nor involuntary servitude, except as a punishment for crime whereof the party shall have been duly convicted, shall exist within the United States, or any place subject to their jurisdiction.

Sect. 2. Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

Art. XIV. Sect. 1. All persons born or naturalized in the United States, and subject to the jurisdiction thereof, are citizens of the United States and of the state wherein they reside. No state shall make or enforce any law which shall abridge the privileges or immunities of citizens of the United States; nor shall any state deprive any person of life, liberty, or property, without due process of law, nor deny to any person within its jurisdiction the equal protection of the laws.
Sect. 2. Representatives shall be apportioned among the several states according to their respective numbers, counting the whole number of persons in each state, excluding Indians not taxed. But when the right to vote at any election for the choice of electors for president and vice-president of the United States, representatives in congress, the executive and judicial officers of a state, or the members of the legislature thereof, is denied to any of the male inhabitants of such state, being twenty-one years of age, and citizens of the United States, or in any way abridged, except for participation in rebellion or other crime, the basis of representation therein shall be reduced in the proportion which the number of such male citizens shall bear to the whole number of male citizens twenty-one years of age in such state.

Sect. 3. No person shall be a senator, or representative in congress, or elector of president and vice-president, or hold any office, civil or military, under the United States, or under any state, who, having previously taken an oath, as a member of congress, or as an officer of the United States, or as a member of any state legislature, or as an executive or judicial officer of any state, to support the constitution of the United States, shall have engaged in insurrection or rebellion against the same, or given aid or comfort to the enemies thereof. But congress may, by a vote of two-thirds of each house, remove such disability.

Sect. 4. The validity of the public debt of the United States, authorized by law, including debts incurred for payment of pensions and bounties for services in suppressing insurrection or rebellion, shall not be questioned. But neither the United States nor any state shall assume or pay any debt or obligation incurred in aid of insurrection or rebellion against the United States, or any claim for the loss or emancipation of any slave; but all such debts, obligations and claims shall be held illegal and void.

Sect. 5. The congress shall have power to enforce, by appropriate legislation, the provisions of this article.

Art. XV. Sect. 1. The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States, or by any state, on account of race, color, or previous condition of servitude.

Sect. 2. The congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

Art. XVI. The congress shall have power to lay and collect taxes on incomes, from whatever source derived, without apportionment among the several states, and without regard to any census or enumeration.

Art. XVII. The senate of the United States shall be composed of two senators from each state, elected by the people thereof, for six years; and each senator shall have one vote. The electors in each state shall have the qualifications requisite for electors of the most numerous branch of the state legislatures.

When vacancies happen in the representation of any state in the senate, the executive authority of such state shall issue writs of election to fill such vacancies: provided, that the legislature of any state may empower the executive thereof to make temporary appointments until the people fill the vacancies by election as the legislature may direct.

This amendment shall not be so construed as to affect the election or term of any senator chosen before it becomes valid as part of the constitution.
Art. XVIII. Sect. 1. After one year from the ratification of this article the manufacture, sale, or transportation of intoxicating liquors within, the importation thereof into, or the exportation thereof from the United States and all territory subject to the jurisdiction thereof for beverage purposes is hereby prohibited.

Sect. 2. The congress and several states shall have concurrent power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

Sect. 3. This article shall be inoperative unless it shall have been ratified as an amendment to the constitution by the legislatures of the several states, as provided in the constitution, within seven years from the date of the submission hereof to the states by the congress.

Art. XIX. The right of citizens of the United States to vote shall not be denied or abridged by the United States or by any state on account of sex.

Congress shall have power to enforce this article by appropriate legislation.

(Note. The constitution was adopted September 17, 1787, by the unanimous consent of the states present in the convention appointed in pursuance of the resolution of the congress of the confederation of February 21, 1787, and was ratified by the conventions of the several states, as follows, viz.: By convention of Delaware, December 7, 1787; Pennsylvania, December 12, 1787; New Jersey, December 18, 1787; Georgia, January 2, 1788; Connecticut, January 9, 1788; Massachusetts, February 6, 1788; Maryland, April 28, 1788; South Carolina, May 23, 1788; New Hampshire, June 21, 1788; Virginia, June 26, 1788; New York, July 26, 1788; North Carolina, November 21, 1788; Rhode Island, May 29, 1790.

The first ten of the amendments were proposed at the first session of the first congress of the United States, September 25, 1789, and were finally ratified by the constitutional number of states on December 15, 1791. The eleventh amendment was proposed at the first session of the third congress, March 5, 1794, and was declared in a message from the President of the United States to both houses of congress, dated January 8, 1798, to have been adopted by the constitutional number of states. The twelfth amendment was proposed at the first session of the eighth congress, December 12, 1803, and was adopted by the constitutional number of states in 1804, according to a public notice thereof by the secretary of state, dated September 25 of the same year.

The thirteenth amendment was proposed to the legislatures of the several states by the thirty-eighth congress on February 1, 1865, and was declared, in a proclamation of the secretary of state, dated December 18, 1865, to have been ratified by the legislatures of three-fourths of the states.

The fourteenth amendment was proposed to the legislatures of the several states by the thirty-ninth congress, on June 16, 1866.

On July 29, 1868, the secretary of state of the United States issued his certificate, setting out that it appeared by official documents on file in the department of state that said amendment had been ratified by the legislatures of the states of Connecticut, New Hampshire, Tennessee, New Jersey, Oregon, Vermont, New York, Ohio, Illinois, West Virginia, Kansas, Maine, Nevada, Missouri, Indiana, Minnesota, Rhode Island, Wisconsin, Pennsylvania, Michigan, Massachusetts, Nebraska and Iowa, and by newly established bodies avowing themselves to be and acting as the legislatures of the states of Arkansas, Florida, North Carolina, Louisiana, South Carolina and Alabama; that the legislatures of Ohio and New Jersey had since passed resolutions withdrawing the consent of those states to said amendment; that the whole number of states in the United States was thirty-seven, that the twenty-three states first above named and the six states next above named together, constituted three-fourths of the whole number of states, and certifying that if the resolutions of Ohio and New Jersey, ratifying said amendment were still in force, notwithstanding their subsequent resolutions, then said amendment had been ratified and so become valid as part of the constitution.

On July 21, 1868, Congress passed a resolution reciting that the amendment had been ratified by Connecticut, Tennessee, New Jersey, Oregon, Vermont, West Virginia, Kansas, Missouri, Indiana, Ohio, Illinois, Minnesota, New York, Wisconsin, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, Michigan, Nevada, New Hampshire, Massachusetts, Nebraska, Maine, Iowa, Arkansas, Florida, North Carolina, Alabama, South Carolina and Louisiana, being three-fourths of the several states of the Union, and declaring said fourteenth article to be a part of the constitution of the United States and making it the duty of the secretary of state to duly promulgate it as such.

On July 28, 1868, the secretary of state issued his certificate, reciting the above resolution, and stating that official notice had been received at the department of state that action had been taken by the legislatures of the states in relation to said amendments, as follows: "It was ratified in A.D. 1866, by Connecticut, June 30; New Hampshire, July 7; Tennessee, July 19; Oregon, September 19; Vermont, November 9. In A.D. 1867, by New York, January 10; Illinois, January 15; West Virginia, January 16; Kansas, January 18; Maine, January 19; Nevada, January 22; Missouri, January 26; Indiana, January 29; Minnesota, February 1; Rhode Island, February 7; Wisconsin, February 13; Pennsylvania, February 13; Michigan, February 15; Massachusetts, March 20; Nebraska, June 15. In A.D. 1868, by Iowa, April 3; Arkansas, April 6; Florida, June 9; Louisiana, July 9; and Alabama, July 13. "It was first ratified and the ratification subsequently withdrawn by New Jersey, ratified September 11, 1866, withdrawn April, 1868; Ohio, ratified January 11, 1867, and withdrawn January, 1868. "It was first rejected and then ratified by Georgia, rejected November 13, 1866, ratified July 21, 1868; North Carolina, rejected December 4, 1866, ratified July 4, 1868; South Carolina, rejected December 20, 1866, and ratified July 9, 1868. "It was rejected by Texas, November 1, 1866; Virginia, January 9, 1867; Kentucky, January 10, 1867; Delaware, February 7, 1867; and Maryland, March 23, 1867." And on said July 28, 1868, and in execution of the act proposing the amendment and of the concurrent resolution of Congress above mentioned and in pursuance thereof, the secretary of state directed that said amendment to the constitution be published in the newspapers authorized to promulgate the laws of the United States; and certified that it had been adopted in the manner above specified by the states named in said resolution, and that it "has become valid to all intents and purposes as a part of the constitution of the United States."

Subsequently it was ratified by Virginia, October 8, 1869, by Georgia, again February 2, 1870, and by Texas, February 18, 1870.

The fifteenth amendment was proposed to the legislatures of the several states by the forty-first congress on February 27, 1869, and was declared, in a proclamation of the secretary of state, dated March 30, 1870, to have been ratified by the constitutional number of states and to have "become valid to all intents and purposes as part of the constitution of the United States."

The sixteenth amendment was proposed to the legislatures of the several states by the sixty-first congress, at its first session, in 1909. On February 25, 1913, the secretary of state made proclamation to the effect that, from official documents on file in the department, it appeared that the amendment had been ratified by the legislatures of the states of Alabama, Kentucky, South Carolina, Illinois, Mississippi, Oklahoma, Maryland, Georgia, Texas, Ohio, Idaho, Oregon, Washington, California, Montana, Indiana, Nevada, North Carolina, Nebraska, Kansas, Colorado, North Dakota, Michigan, Iowa, Missouri, Maine, Tennessee, Arkansas, Wisconsin, New York, South Dakota, Arizona, Minnesota, Louisiana, Delaware and Wyoming, in all thirty-six; and, further, that the states whose legislatures had so ratified the said proposed amendment constituted three-fourths of the whole number of states in the United States; and, further, that it appeared from official documents on file in the department that the legislatures of New Jersey and New Mexico had passed resolutions ratifying the said proposed amendment. He further certified that the amendment had "become valid to all intents and purposes as a part of the constitution of the United States."

The seventeenth amendment was proposed to the legislatures of the several states by the sixty-second congress, at its second session, in 1912. On May 31, 1913, the secretary of state made proclamation to the effect that, from official documents on file in the department, it appeared that the amendment had been ratified by the legislatures of the states of Massachusetts, Arizona, Minnesota, New York, Kansas, Oregon, North
The eighteenth amendment was proposed to the legislatures of the several states by the sixty-fifth congress, at its second session, in 1917. On January 29, 1919, the acting secretary of state made proclamation to the effect that, from official documents on file in the department, it appeared that the amendment had been ratified by the legislatures of the states of Alabama, Arizona, California, Colorado, Delaware, Florida, Georgia, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Kansas, Kentucky, Louisiana, Maine, Maryland, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Mississippi, Montana, Nebraska, New Hampshire, North Carolina, North Dakota, Ohio, Oklahoma, Oregon, South Dakota, South Carolina, Texas, Utah, Virginia, Washington, West Virginia, Wisconsin and Wyoming; and, further, that the states whose legislatures had so ratified the said proposed amendment constituted three-fourths of the whole number of states in the United States. He further certified that the amendment had "become valid to all intents and purposes as a part of the constitution of the United States."

The nineteenth amendment was proposed to the legislatures of the several states by the sixty-sixth congress, at its first session, in 1919. On August 26, 1920, the secretary of state made proclamation that, from official documents on file in the department, it appeared that the amendment had been ratified by the legislatures of the states of Arizona, Arkansas, California, Colorado, Idaho, Illinois, Indiana, Iowa, Kansas, Kentucky, Maine, Massachusetts, Michigan, Minnesota, Missouri, Montana, Nebraska, Nevada, New Hampshire, New Jersey, New Mexico, North Dakota, New York, Ohio, Oklahoma, Oregon, Pennsylvania, Rhode Island, South Dakota, Tennessee, Texas, Utah, Washington, West Virginia, Wisconsin and Wyoming; and, further, that the states whose legislatures had so ratified the said proposed amendment constituted three-fourths of the whole number of states in the United States. He further certified that the amendment had "become valid to all intents and purposes as a part of the constitution of the United States."

PREAMBLE.

The end of the institution, maintenance, and administration of government, is to secure the existence of the body politic, to protect it, and to furnish the individuals who compose it with the power of enjoying in safety and tranquillity their natural rights, and the blessings of life: and whenever these great objects are not obtained, the people have a right to alter the government, and to take measures necessary for their safety, prosperity and happiness.

The body politic is formed by a voluntary association of individuals: it is a social compact, by which the whole people covenants with each citizen, and each citizen with the whole people, that all shall be governed by certain laws for the common good. It is the duty of the people, therefore, in framing a constitution of government, to provide for an equitable mode of making laws, as well as for an impartial interpretation, and a faithful execution of them; that every man may, at all times, find his security in them.

We, therefore, the people of Massachusetts, acknowledging, with grateful hearts, the goodness of the great Legislator of the universe, in affording us, in the course of His providence, an opportunity, deliberately and peaceably, without fraud, violence or surprise, of entering into an original, explicit, and solemn compact with each other; and of forming a new constitution of civil government, for ourselves and posterity; and devoutly imploring His direction in so interesting a design, do agree upon, ordain and establish the following Declaration of Rights, and Frame of Government, as the Constitution of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

PART THE FIRST.

A Declaration of the Rights of the Inhabitants of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

ARTICLE I. All men are born free and equal, and have certain natural, essential, and unalienable rights; among which may be reckoned the right of enjoying and defending their lives and liberties; that of acquiring, possessing, and protecting property; in fine, that of seeking and obtaining their safety and happiness.

Equal rights of all men.

II. It is the right as well as the duty of all men in society, publicly and at stated seasons to worship the SUPREME BEING, the great Creator and Preserver of the universe. And no subject shall be hurt, molested, or restrained, in his person, liberty, or estate, for worshipping God in the manner and season most agreeable to the dictates of his own conscience; or for his religious profession or sentiments; provided he do not disturb the public peace, or obstruct others in their religious worship.

See Amendments, Arts. XLVI and XLVIII.

III. [As the happiness of a people, and the good order and preservation of civil government, essentially depend upon piety, religion and morality; and as these cannot be generally diffused through a community, but by the institution of the public worship of God, and of public instructions in piety, religion and morality: Therefore, to promote their happiness and to secure the good order and preservation of their government, the people of this commonwealth have a right to invest their legislature with power to authorize and require, and the legislature shall, from time to time, authorize and require, the several towns, parishes, precincts, and other bodies politic, or religious societies, to make suitable provision, at their own expense, for the institution of the public worship of God, and for the support and maintenance of public Protestant teachers of piety, religion and morality, in all cases where such provision shall not be made voluntarily.]

And the people of this commonwealth have also a right to, and do, invest their legislature with authority to enjoin upon all the subjects an attendance upon the instructions of the public teachers aforesaid, at stated times and seasons, if there be any on whose instructions they can conscientiously and conveniently attend.

Provided, notwithstanding, that the several towns, parishes, precincts, and other bodies politic, or religious societies, shall, at all times, have the exclusive right of electing their public teachers, and of contracting with them for their support and maintenance.

And all moneys paid by the subject to the support of public worship, and of the public teachers aforesaid, shall, if he require it, be uniformly applied to the support of the public teacher or teachers of his own religious sect or denomination, provided there be any on whose instructions he attends; otherwise it may be paid towards the support of the teacher or teachers of the parish or precinct in which the said moneys are raised.

And every denomination of Christians, demeaning themselves peaceably, and as good subjects of the commonwealth, shall be equally under the protection of the law: and no subordination of any one sect or denomination to another shall ever be established by law.]

IV. The people of this commonwealth have the sole and exclusive right of governing themselves, as a free, sovereign, and independent state; and do, and forever hereafter shall, exercise and enjoy every power, jurisdiction, and right, which is not, or may not hereafter, be by them [expressly] delegated to the United States of America in Congress assembled.

V. All power residing originally in the people, and being derived from them, the several magistrates and officers of government, vested with authority, whether legislative, executive, or judicial, are their substitutes and agents, and are at all times accountable to them.

VI. No man, nor corporation, or association of men, have any other title to obtain advantages, or particular and exclusive privileges, distinct from those of the community, than what arises from the consideration of services rendered to the public; and this title being in nature neither hereditary, nor transmissible to children, or descendants, or relations by blood, the idea of a man born a magistrate, lawgiver, or judge, is absurd and unnatural.

VII. Government is instituted for the common good; for the protection, safety, prosperity and happiness of the people; and not for the profit, honor, or private interest of any one man, family, or class of men: Therefore the people alone have an incontestable, unalienable, and indefeasible right to institute government; and to reform, alter, or totally change the same, when their protection, safety, prosperity and happiness require it.

VIII. In order to prevent those, who are vested with authority, from becoming oppressors, the people have a right, at such periods and in such manner as they shall establish by their frame of government, to cause their public officers to return to private life; and to fill up vacant places by certain and regular elections and appointments.

IX. All elections ought to be free; and all the inhabitants of this commonwealth, having such qualifications as they shall establish by their frame of government, have an equal right to elect officers, and to be elected, for public employments.

X. Each individual of the society has a right to be protected by it in the enjoyment of his life, liberty and property, according to standing laws. He is obliged, consequently, to contribute his share to the expense of this protection; to give his personal service, or an equivalent, when necessary: but no part of the property of any individual can, with justice, be taken from him, or applied to public uses, without his own consent, or that of the representative body of the people. In fine, the people of this commonwealth are not controllable by any other laws than those to which their constitutional representative body have given their consent. And whenever the public exigencies require that the property of any individual should be appropriated to public uses, he shall receive a reasonable compensation therefor.

For certain public uses, see Amendments, Arts. XLIII, XLVII and LI.

Right to receive compensation for private property appropriated to public use not to be the subject of an initiative or referendum petition. See Amendments, Art. XLVIII, The Initiative, II, § 2.
XI. Every subject of the commonwealth ought to find a certain remedy, by having recourse to the laws, for all injuries or wrongs which he may receive in his person, property, or character. He ought to obtain right and justice freely, and without being obliged to purchase it; completely, and without any denial; promptly, and without delay; conformably to the laws.

247 Mass. 496.

XII. No subject shall be held to answer for any crimes or offences, until the same is fully and plainly, substantially and formally, described to him; or be compelled to accuse, or furnish evidence against himself. And every subject shall have a right to produce all proofs, that may be favorable to him; to meet the witnesses against him face to face, and to be fully heard in his defence by himself, or his counsel, at his election. And no subject shall be arrested, imprisoned, despoiled, or deprived of his property, immunities, or privileges, put out of the protection of the law, exiled, or deprived of his life, liberty, or estate, but by the judgment of his peers, or the law of the land.

Right of access to and protection in courts of justice not to be the subject of an initiative or referendum petition. See Amendments, Art. XLVIII, The Initiative, II, § 2.

And the legislature shall not make any law, that shall subject any person to a capital or infamous punishment, excepting for the government of the army and navy, without trial by jury.

Right of trial by jury not to be the subject of an initiative or referendum petition. See Amendments, Art. XLVIII, The Initiative, II, § 2.

XIII. In criminal prosecutions, the verification of facts in the vicinity where they happen, is one of the greatest securities of the life, liberty, and property of the citizen.

XIV. Every subject has a right to be secure from all unreasonable searches, and seizures, of his person, his houses, his papers, and all his possessions. All warrants, therefore, are contrary to this right, if the cause or foundation of them be not previously supported by oath or affirmation; and if the order in the warrant to a civil officer, to make search in suspected places, or to arrest one or more suspected persons, or to seize their property, be not accompanied with a special designation of the persons or objects of search, arrest, or seizure: and no warrant ought to be issued but in cases, and with the formalities prescribed by the laws.

246 Mass. 507.

Protection from unreasonable search not to be the subject of an initiative or referendum petition. See Amendments, Art. XLVIII, The Initiative, II, § 2.
XV. In all controversies concerning property, and in all suits between two or more persons, except in cases in which it has hitherto been otherwise used and practised, the parties have a right to a trial by jury; and this method of procedure shall be held sacred, unless in cases arising on the high seas, and such as relate to mariners' wages, the legislature shall hereafter find it necessary to alter it.

Right of trial by jury not to be the subject of an initiative or referendum petition. See Amendments, Art. XLVIII, The Initiative, II, § 2.

XVI. The liberty of the press is essential to the security of freedom in a state: it ought not, therefore, to be restrained in this commonwealth.

Liberty of the press.

Freedom of the press not to be the subject of an initiative or referendum petition. See Amendments, Art. XLVIII, The Initiative, II, § 2.

XVII. The people have a right to keep and to bear arms for the common defence. And as, in time of peace, armies are dangerous to liberty, they ought not to be maintained without the consent of the legislature; and the military power shall always be held in an exact subordination to the civil authority, and be governed by it.

Right to keep and bear arms.

Standing armies dangerous.

Military power subordinate to civil.

Moral qualifications for office.

XVIII. A frequent recurrence to the fundamental principles of the constitution, and a constant adherence to those of piety, justice, moderation, temperance, industry, and frugality, are absolutely necessary to preserve the advantages of liberty, and to maintain a free government. The people ought, consequently, to have a particular attention to all those principles, in the choice of their officers and representatives: and they have a right to require of their lawgivers and magistrates, an exact and constant observance of them, in the formation and execution of the laws necessary for the good administration of the commonwealth.

Moral obligations of lawgivers and magistrates.

XIX. The people have a right, in an orderly and peaceable manner, to assemble to consult upon the common good; give instructions to their representatives, and to request of the legislative body, by the way of addresses, petitions, or remonstrances, redress of the wrongs done them, and of the grievances they suffer.

Power to suspend the laws or their execution.

XX. The power of suspending the laws, or the execution of the laws, ought never to be exercised but by the legislature, or by authority derived from it, to be exercised in such particular cases only as the legislature shall expressly provide for.

Modified by the initiative and referendum. See Amendments, Art. XLVIII, I, Definition.

XXI. The freedom of deliberation, speech and debate, in either house of the legislature, is so essential to the rights of the people, that it cannot be the foundation of any accusation or prosecution, action or complaint, in any other court or place whatsoever.

Freedom of debate, etc., and reason therefor.

Freedom of speech not to be the subject of an initiative or referendum petition. See Amendments, Art. XLVIII, The Initiative, II, § 2.
XXII. The legislature ought frequently to assemble for the redress of grievances, for correcting, strengthening and confirming the laws, and for making new laws, as the common good may require.

XXIII. No subsidy, charge, tax, impost, or duties, ought to be established, fixed, laid, or levied, under any pretext whatsoever, without the consent of the people or their representatives in the legislature.

XXIV. Laws made to punish for actions done before the existence of such laws, and which have not been declared crimes by preceding laws, are unjust, oppressive, and inconsistent with the fundamental principles of a free government.

XXV. No subject ought, in any case, or in any time, to be declared guilty of treason or felony by the legislature.

XXVI. No magistrate or court of law, shall demand excessive bail or sureties, impose excessive fines, or inflict cruel or unusual punishments.

5 Gray, 482. 173 Mass. 322. 267 Mass. 496. 189 U. S. 311.

Protection from unreasonable bail not to be the subject of an initiative or referendum petition. See Amendments, Art. XLVIII, The Initiative, II, § 2.

XXVII. In time of peace, no soldier ought to be quartered in any house without the consent of the owner; and in time of war, such quarters ought not to be made but by the civil magistrate, in a manner ordained by the legislature.

XXVIII. No person can in any case be subject to law-martial, or to any penalties or pains, by virtue of that law, except those employed in the army or navy, and except the militia in actual service, but by authority of the legislature.

Protection from law-martial not to be the subject of an initiative or referendum petition. See Amendments, Art. XLVIII, The Initiative, II, § 2.

XXIX. It is essential to the preservation of the rights of every individual, his life, liberty, property, and character, that there be an impartial interpretation of the laws, and administration of justice. It is the right of every citizen to be tried by judges as free, impartial and independent as the lot of humanity will admit. It is, therefore, not only the best policy, but for the security of the rights of the people, and of every citizen, that the judges of the supreme judicial court should hold their offices as long as they behave themselves well; and that they should have honorable salaries ascertained and established by standing laws.

Tenure of their office, etc., not to be the subject of an initiative or referendum petition. See Amendments, Art. XLVIII, The Initiative, II, § 2. The Referendum, III, § 2.

XXX. In the government of this commonwealth, the legislative department shall never exercise the executive and judicial powers, or either of them: the executive shall never exercise the legislative and judicial powers, or either of them: the judicial shall never exercise the legislative and executive powers, or either of them: to the end it may be a government of laws and not of men.

For initiative and referendum, see Amendments, Art. XLVIII.

For organization of executive, etc., work of the Commonwealth in not more than twenty departments, see Amendments, Art. LXVI.
PART THE SECOND.

The Frame of Government.

The people, inhabiting the territory formerly called the Province of Massachusetts Bay, do hereby solemnly and mutually agree with each other, to form themselves into a free, sovereign, and independ-ent body politic, or state, by the name of The COMMONWEALTH OF MASSACHUSETTS.

CHAPTER I.

THE LEGISLATIVE POWER.

SECTION I.

The General Court.

ARTICLE I. The department of legislation shall be formed by two branches, a Senate and House of Representatives: each of which shall have a negative on the other. The legislative body shall assemble every year [on the last Wednesday in May, and at such other times as they shall judge necessary; and shall dissolve and be dissolved on the day next preceding the said last Wednesday in May:] and shall be styled, THE GENERAL COURT OF MASSACHUSETTS.

II. No bill or resolve of the senate or house of representatives shall become a law, and have force as such, until it shall have been laid before the governor for his revisal; and if he, upon such revision, ap-prove thereof, he shall signify his approbation by signing the same. But if he have any objection to the passing of such bill or resolve, he shall return the same, together with his objections thereto, in writing, to the senate or house of representatives, in whichsoever the same shall have originated; who shall enter the objections sent down by the governor, at large, on their records, and proceed to reconsider the said bill or resolve. But if after such reconsideration, two thirds of the said senate or house of representatives, shall, notwithstanding the said objections, agree to pass the same, it shall, together with the objections be sent to the other branch of the legislature, where it shall also be reconsidered, and if approved by two thirds of the members present, shall have the force of a law; but in all such cases, the votes of both houses shall be determined by yeas and nays; and the names of the persons voting for, or against, the said bill or resolve, shall be entered upon the public records of the commonwealth.

For right of governor to return bill or resolve for amendment, see Amendments, Art. LVI.
For disapproval or reduction by the governor of items in bills appropriating money, see Amendments, Art. LXIII, § 5.

And in order to prevent unnecessary delays, if any bill or resolve shall not be returned by the governor within five days after it shall have been presented, the same shall have the force of a law.

III. The general court shall forever have full power and authority to erect and constitute judicatories and courts of record, or other courts, to be held in the name of the commonwealth, for the hearing, trying and determining of all manner of crimes, offences, pleas, processes, General court may constitute judicatories, courts of record, etc.

For exception in case of adjournment of the general court within the five days, see Amendments, Art. I.

Bill may be passed by two thirds of each house, notwithstanding, 135 Mass. 594. 192 Mass. 15. 3 Op. A. G. 414.

Bill or resolve not returned within five days to be law.

For exception in case of adjournment of the general court within the five days, see Amendments, Art. I.
plaints, actions, matters, causes and things, whatsoever, arising or happening within the commonwealth, or between or concerning persons inhabiting, or residing, or brought within the same, whether the same be criminal or civil, or whether the said crimes be capital or not capital, and whether the said pleas be real, personal, or mixed; and for the awarding and making out of execution thereupon. To which courts and juries are hereby given and granted full power and authority, from time to time, to administer oaths or affirmations, for the better discovery of truth in any matter in controversy or depending before them.

IV. And further, full power and authority are hereby given and granted to the said general court, from time to time, to make, ordain, and establish, all manner of wholesome and reasonable orders, laws, statutes, and ordinances, directions and instructions, either with penalties or without; so as the same be not repugnant or contrary to this constitution, as they shall judge to be for the good and welfare of this commonwealth, and for the government and ordering thereof, and of the subjects of the same, and for the necessary support and defence of the government thereof; and to name and settle annually, or provide by fixed laws, for the naming and settling all civil officers within the said commonwealth; the election and constitution of whom are not hereafter in this form of government otherwise provided for; and to set forth the several duties, powers, and limits, of the several civil and military officers of this commonwealth, and the forms of such oaths or affirmations as shall be respectively administered unto them for the execution of their several offices and places, so as the same be not repugnant or contrary to this constitution; and to impose and levy proportional and reasonable assessments, rates, and taxes, upon all the inhabitants of, and persons resident, and estates lying, within the said commonwealth; and also to impose and levy, reasonable duties and excises, upon any produce, goods, wares, merchandise, and commodities, whatsoever, brought into, produced, manufactured, or being within the same; to be issued and disposed of by warrant, under the hand of the governor of this commonwealth for the time being, with the advice and consent of the council, for the public service, in the necessary defence and support of the government of the said commonwealth, and the protection and preservation of the subjects thereof, according to such acts as are or shall be in force within the same.

May impose taxes, etc., to be disposed of for defence, etc.

Valuation of estates once in ten years at least, while, etc.

And while the public charges of government, or any part thereof, shall be assessed on polls and estates, in the manner that has hitherto been practised, in order that such assessments may be made with equality, there shall be a valuation of estates within the commonwealth taken anew once in every ten years at least, and as much oftener as the general court shall order.

For the authority of the general court to charter cities and establish limited town meeting form of government, see Amendments, Arts. II and LXX.

For additional taxing power given to the general court, see Amendments, Arts. XLII and XLIV.

For the state wide referendum on bills and resolves of the general court, see Amendments, Art. XLI, which was annulled by Amendments, Art. XLVIII, General Provisions, VIII.

For the initiative and referendum, see Amendments, Art. XLVIII.

For the power given the general court to provide by law for absentee and compulsory voting, see Amendments, Arts. XLIV and LXI.

For the power given the general court to determine the manner of providing and distributing the necessaries of life, etc., during time of war, public distress, etc., by the commonwealth and the cities and towns therein see Amendments, Art. XLVII.

CHAPTER I.

SECTION II.

ARTICLE I. [There shall be annually elected, by the freeholders and other inhabitants of this commonwealth, qualified as in this constitution is provided, forty persons to be councillors and senators for the year ensuing their election; to be chosen by the inhabitants of the districts, into which the commonwealth may from time to time be divided by the general court for that purpose: and the general court in assigning the numbers to be elected by the respective districts, shall govern themselves by the proportion of the public taxes paid by the said districts; and timely make known to the inhabitants of the commonwealth, the limits of each district, and the number of councillors and senators to be chosen therein; provided that the number of such districts shall never be less than thirteen; and that no district be so large as to entitle the same to choose more than six senators.

And the several counties in this commonwealth shall, until the general court shall determine it necessary to alter the said districts, be districts for the choice of councillors and senators, (except that the counties of Dukes County and Nantucket shall form one district for that purpose) and shall elect the following number for councillors and senators, viz.: —

| Suffolk | Six |
| Essex   | Six |
| Middlesex | Five | | Hampshire | Four | | Plymouth | Three | | Barnstable | One |
| Bristol  | Three | | York | Two |
| Dukes County | One |
| and Nantucket | Five | | Cumberland | One |
| Lincoln | One |
| Berkshire | Two |

II. The senate shall be the first branch of the legislature; and the senators shall be chosen in the following manner, viz. there shall be a meeting on the [first Monday in April] [annually,] forever, of the inhabitants of each town in the several counties of this commonwealth; to be called by the selectmen, and warned in due course of law, at least seven days before the [first Monday in April,] for the purpose of electing persons to be senators and councillors; [and at such meetings every male inhabitant of twenty-one years of age and upwards, having a freehold estate within the commonwealth, of the annual income of three pounds, or any estate of the value of sixty pounds, shall have a right to give in his vote for the senators for the district of which he is] an inhabitant.] And to remove all doubts concerning the meaning of the word "inhabitant" in this constitution, every person shall be considered as an inhabitant, for the purpose of electing and being elected into any office, or place within this state, in that town, district or plantation where he dwelleth, or hath his home.

See also Amendments, Art. XXIII, which was annulled by Amendments, Art. XXVI.

The selectmen of the several towns shall preside at such meetings impartially; and shall receive the votes of all the inhabitants of such towns present and qualified to vote for senators, and shall sort and count them in open town meeting, and in presence of the town clerk, who shall make a fair record, in presence of the selectmen, and in open town meeting, of the name of every person voted for, and of the number of votes against his name: and a fair copy of this record shall be attested by the selectmen and the town clerk, and shall be sealed up, directed to the secretary of the commonwealth for the time being,
with a superscription, expressing the purport of the contents thereof, delivered by the town clerk of such towns, to the sheriff of the county in which such town lies, thirty days at least before [the last Wednesday in May] [annually:] or it shall be delivered into the sectary’s office seventeen days at least before the said [last Wednesday in May:] and the sheriff of each county shall deliver all such certificates by him received, into the secretary’s office, seventeen days before the said [last Wednesday in May.]

[And the inhabitants of plantations unincorporated, qualified as this constitution provides, who are or shall be empowered and required to assess taxes upon themselves toward the support of government, shall have the same privilege of voting for councillors and senators in the plantations where they reside, as town inhabitants have in their respective towns; and the plantation meetings for that purpose shall be held annually [on the same first Monday in April], at such place in the plantations respectively, as the assessors thereof shall direct;
which assessors shall have like authority for notifying the electors, collecting and returning the votes, as the selectmen and town clerks have in their several towns, by this constitution. And all other persons living in places unincorporated (qualified as aforesaid) who shall be assessed to the support of government by the assessors of an adjacent town, shall have the privilege of giving in their votes for councillors and senators in the town where they shall be assessed, and be notified of the place of meeting by the selectmen of the town where they shall be assessed, for that purpose accordingly.]

III. And that there may be a due convention of senators on the [last Wednesday in May] annually, the governor with five of the council, for the time being, shall, as soon as may be, examine the returned copies of such records; and fourteen days before the said day he shall issue his summons to such persons as shall appear to be chosen by [a majority of] voters, to attend on that day, and take their seats ac-

elections;
and shall, [on the said last Wednesday in May] [annually.] determine and declare who are elected by each district, to be senators [by a majority of votes; and in case there shall not appear to be the full number of senators returned elected by a majority of votes for any district, the deficiency shall be supplied in the following manner, viz.: The members of the house of representatives, and such senators as shall be declared elected, shall take the names of such persons as shall be found to have the highest number of votes in such district, and not elected, amounting to twice the number of senators wanting, if there be so many voted for; and out of these shall elect by ballot a number of senators sufficient to fill up the vacancies in such district; and in this manner all such vacancies shall be filled up in every district of the commonwealth; and in like manner all vacancies in the senate, arising by death, removal out of the state, or otherwise, shall be supplied as soon as may be, after such vacancies shall happen.]

V. Provided nevertheless, that no person shall be capable of being elected as a senator, [who is not seised in his own right of a freehold within this commonwealth, of the value of three hundred pounds at least, or possessed of personal estate to the value of six hundred pounds at least, or of both to the amount of the same sum, and] who has not been an inhabitant of this commonwealth for the space of five years immediately preceding his election, and at the time of his election, he shall be an inhabitant in the district for which he shall be chosen.

As to residence, see also Amendments, Arts. XXII and LXI.

VI. The senate shall have power to adjourn themselves, provided such adjournments do not exceed two days at a time.

See Amendments, Art. LII.

VII. The senate shall choose its own president, appoint its own officers, and determine its own rules of proceedings.

239 Mass. 603.

VIII. The senate shall be a court with full authority to hear and determine all impeachments made by the house of representatives, against any officer or officers of the commonwealth, for misconduct and mal-administration in their offices. But previous to the trial of every impeachment the members of the senate shall respectively be sworn, truly and impartially to try and determine the charge in question, according to evidence. Their judgment, however shall not extend further than to removal from office and disqualification to hold or enjoy any place of honor, trust, or profit, under this commonwealth: but the party so convicted, shall be, nevertheless, liable to indictment, trial, judgment, and punishment, according to the laws of the land.

IX. [Not less than sixteen members of the senate shall constitute a quorum for doing business.]

See Amendments, Arts. XXII and XXXII.

CHAPTER I.

Section III.

House of Representatives.

Article I. There shall be, in the legislature of this commonwealth, a representation of the people, [annually] elected, and founded upon the principle of equality.

For change to biennial elections, see Amendments, Art. LXIV, § 1.
II. [And in order to provide for a representation of the citizens of this commonwealth, founded upon the principle of equality, every corporate town containing one hundred and fifty ratable polls, may elect one representative: every corporate town, containing three hundred and seventy-five ratable polls may elect two representatives: every corporate town containing six hundred ratable polls, may elect three representatives: and proceeding in that manner, making two hundred and twenty-five ratable polls, the mean increasing number for every additional representative.

Provided nevertheless, that each town now incorporated, not having one hundred and fifty ratable polls, may elect one representative: but no place shall hereafter be incorporated with the privilege of electing a representative, unless there are within the same one hundred and fifty ratable polls.]

And the house of representatives shall have power from time to time to impose fines upon such towns as shall neglect to choose and return members to the same, agreeably to this constitution.

[The expenses of travelling to the general assembly, and returning home, once in every session, and no more, shall be paid by the government, out of the public treasury, to every member who shall attend as seasonably as he can, in the judgment of the house, and does not depart without leave.]

III. Every member of the house of representatives shall be chosen by written votes; [and for one year at least next preceding his election, shall have been an inhabitant of, and have been seised in his own right of a freehold of the value of one hundred pounds within the town he shall be chosen to represent, or any ratable estate to the value of two hundred pounds; and he shall cease to represent the said town immediately on his ceasing to be qualified as aforesaid.]

Property qualifications abolished by Amendments, Art. XIII.

IV. [Every male person, being twenty-one years of age, and resident in any particular town in this commonwealth for the space of one year next preceding, having a freehold estate within the same town, of the annual income of three pounds, or any estate of the value of sixty pounds, shall have a right to vote in the choice of a representative, or representatives for the said town.]

See also Amendments, Art. XXIII, which was annulled by Art. XXVI.

V. [The members of the house of representatives shall be chosen annually in the month of May, ten days at least before the last Wednesday of that month.]

Time of election changed by Amendments, Art. X, and changed again by Amendments, Art. XV.

VI. The house of representatives shall be the grand inquest of this commonwealth; and all impeachments made by them, shall be heard and tried by the senate.

VII. All money bills shall originate in the house of representatives; but the senate may propose or concur with amendments, as on other bills.

VIII. The house of representatives shall have power to adjourn themselves; provided such adjournment shall not exceed two days at a time.

IX. [Not less than sixty members of the house of representatives, shall constitute a quorum for doing business.]
X. The house of representatives shall be the judge of the returns, elections, and qualifications of its own members, as pointed out in the constitution; shall choose their own speaker; appoint their own officers, and settle the rules and orders of proceeding in their own house: They shall have authority to punish by imprisonment, every person, not a member, who shall be guilty of disrespect to the house, by any disorderly, or contemptuous behavior, in its presence; or who, in the town where the general court is sitting, and during the time of its sitting, shall threaten harm to the body or estate of any of its members, for any thing said or done in the house; or who shall assault any of them therefor; or who shall assault, or arrest, any witness, or other person, ordered to attend the house, in his way in going or returning; or who shall rescue any person arrested by the order of the house. And no member of the house of representatives shall be arrested, or held to bail on mesne process, during his going unto, returning from, or his attending the general assembly.

XI. The senate shall have the same powers in the like cases; and the governor and council shall have the same authority to punish in like cases. Provided that no imprisonment on the warrant or order of the governor, council, senate, or house of representatives, for either of the above described offences, be for a term exceeding thirty days.

And the senate and house of representatives may try, and determine, all cases where their rights and privileges are concerned, and which, by the constitution, they have authority to try and determine, by committees of their own members, or in such other way as they may respectively think best.

CHAPTER II.

EXECUTIVE POWER.

SECTION I.

ARTICLE I. There shall be a supreme executive magistrate, who shall be styled, The Governor of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts; and whose title shall be — His Excellency.

II. The governor shall be chosen [annually:] and no person shall be eligible to this office, unless at the time of his election, he shall have been an inhabitant of this commonwealth for seven years next preceding; [and unless he shall at the same time, be seized in his own right, of a freehold within the commonwealth of the value of one thousand pounds;} [and unless he shall declare himself to be of the Christian religion.]

See Amendments, Arts. VII and XXXIV.

III. Those persons who shall be qualified to vote for senators and representatives within the several towns of this commonwealth, shall, at a meeting to be called for that purpose, on the [first Monday of April] [annually,] give in their votes for a governor, to the selectmen, who shall preside at such meetings; and the town clerk, in the presence and with the assistance of the selectmen, shall, in open town meeting, sort and count the votes, and form a list of the persons voted for, with the number of votes for each person against his name; and shall make a fair record of the same in the town books, and a public declaration thereof in the said meeting; and shall, in the presence of the inhabitants, seal up copies of the said list, attested by him and the selectmen, and transmit the same to the sheriff of the county thirty days at least before the [last Wednesday in May]; and the sheriff shall transmit the same to the secretary's office, seventeen days at least before the said [last Wednesday in May]; or the selectmen may cause returns of the same to be made to the office of the secretary of the commonwealth, seventeen days at least before the said day; and the secretary shall lay the same before the senate and the house of representatives, on the [last Wednesday in May], to be by them examined: and in case of an election by a [majority] of all the votes returned, the choice shall be by them declared and published. But if no person shall have a [majority] of votes, the house of representatives shall, by ballot, elect two out of four persons who had the highest number of votes, if so many shall have been voted for, but, if otherwise, out of the number voted for; and make return to the senate of the two persons so elected; on which the senate shall proceed, by ballot, to elect one, who shall be declared governor.

IV. The governor shall have authority from time to time, at his discretion, to assemble and call together the councillors of this commonwealth for the time being; and the governor with the said councillors, or five of them at least, shall, and may, from time to time, hold and keep a council, for the ordering and directing the affairs of the commonwealth, agreeably to the constitution and the laws of the land.

V. The governor, with advice of council, shall have full power and authority, during the session of the general court to adjourn or prorogue the same to any time the two houses shall desire; [and to dissolve the same on the day next preceding the last Wednesday in May]; and, in the recess of the said court, to prorogue the same from time to time, not exceeding ninety days in any one recess; and to call it together sooner than the time to which it may be adjourned or prorogued, if the welfare of the commonwealth shall require the same: and in case of any infectious distemper prevailing in the place where the said court is next at any time to convene, or any other cause happening whereby danger may arise to the health or lives of the members from their attendance, he may direct the session to be held at some other, the most convenient place within the state.

[And the governor shall dissolve the said general court on the day next preceding the last Wednesday in May.]

VI. In cases of disagreement between the two houses, with regard to the necessity, expediency or time of adjournment, or prorogation, the governor, with advice of the council, shall have a right to adjourn or prorogue the general court, not exceeding ninety days, as he shall determine the public good shall require.

190 Mass. 616.

VII. [The governor of this commonwealth for the time being, shall be the commander in chief of the army and navy, and of all the military forces of the state, by sea and land; and shall have full power by himself, or by any commander, or other officer or officers, from time to time, to train, instruct, exercise and govern the militia and navy; and, for the special defence and safety of the commonwealth, to assemble in martial array, and put in warlike posture, the inhabitants thereof, and to lead and conduct them, and with them to encounter, repel, resist, expel and pursue, by force of arms, as well by sea as by land, within or without the limits of this commonwealth, and also to kill, slay and destroy, if necessary, and conquer, by all fitting ways, enterprises, and means whatsoever, all and every such person and persons as shall, at any time hereafter, in a hostile manner, attempt or enterprise the destruction, invasion, detriment, or annoyance of this commonwealth; and to use and exercise, over the army and navy, and over the militia in actual service, the law martial, in time of war or invasion, and also in time of rebellion, declared by the legislature to exist, as occasion shall necessarily require; and to take and surprise by all ways and means whatsoever, all and every such person or persons, with their ships, arms, ammunition and other goods, as shall, in a hostile manner, invade, or attempt the invading, conquering, or annoying this commonwealth; and that the governor be intrusted with all these and other powers, incident to the offices of captain-general and commander in chief, and admiral, to be exercised agreeably to the rules and regulations of the constitution, and the laws of the land, and not otherwise.

Provided, that the said governor shall not, at any time hereafter, by virtue of any power by this constitution granted, or hereafter to be granted to him by the legislature, transport any of the inhabitants of this commonwealth, or oblige them to march out of the limits of the same, without their free and voluntary consent, or the consent of the general court; except so far as may be necessary to march or transport them by land or water, for the defence of such part of the state, to which they cannot otherwise conveniently have access.]

VIII. The power of pardoning offences, except such as persons may be convicted of before the senate by an impeachment of the house, shall be in the governor, by and with the advice of council: but no charter of pardon, granted by the governor, with advice of the council before conviction, shall avail the party pleading the same, notwithstanding any general or particular expressions contained therein, descriptive of the offence or offences intended to be pardoned.

IX. All judicial officers, [the attorney-general,] the solicitor-general, [all sheriffs,] coroners, [and registers of probate,] shall be nominated and appointed by the governor, by and with the advice and consent of the council; and every such nomination shall be made by the governor, and made at least seven days prior to such appointment.

X. [The captains and subalterns of the militia, shall be elected by the written votes of the train band and alarm list of their respective companies, [of twenty-one years of age and upwards:] the field officers of regiments shall be elected by the written votes of the captains and subalterns of their respective regiments: the brigadiers shall be elected in like manner, by the field officers of their respective brigades: and such officers, so elected, shall be commissioned by the governor, who shall determine their rank.
The legislature shall, by standing laws, direct the time and manner of convening the electors, and of collecting votes, and of certifying to the governor, the officers elected.

The major-generals shall be appointed by the senate and house of representatives, each having a negative upon the other; and be commisioned by the governor.

And if the electors of brigadiers, field officers, captains or subalterns, shall neglect or refuse to make such elections, after being duly notified, according to the laws for the time being, then the governor, with advice of council, shall appoint suitable persons to fill such offices.

[And no officer, duly commissioned to command in the militia, shall be removed from his office, but by the address of both houses to the governor, or by fair trial in court-martial pursuant to the laws of the commonwealth for the time being.]

The commanding officers of regiments shall appoint their adjutants and quartermasters; the brigadiers their brigade-majors; and the major-generals their aids; and the governor shall appoint the adjutant-general.

The governor, with advice of council, shall appoint all officers of the continental army, whom by the confederation of the United States it is provided that this commonwealth shall appoint, as also all officers of forts and garrisons.

The divisions of the militia into brigades, regiments and companies, made in pursuance of the militia laws now in force, shall be considered as the proper divisions of the militia of this commonwealth, until the same shall be altered in pursuance of some future law.]

XI. No moneys shall be issued out of the treasury of this commonwealth, and disposed of (except such sums as may be appropriated for the redemption of bills of credit or treasurer's notes, or for the payment of interest arising thereon) but by warrant under the hand of the governor for the time being, with the advice and consent of the council, for the necessary defence and support of the commonwealth; and for the protection and preservation of the inhabitants thereof, agreeably to the acts and resolves of the general court.

Certain appropriations of money from treasury not to be subjects of initiative or referendum peti-

XII. All public boards, [the commissary-general,] all superintending officers of public magazines and stores, belonging to this commonwealth, and all commanding officers of forts and garrisons within the same, shall once in every three months, officially, and without requis-tion, and at other times, when required by the governor, deliver to him an account of all goods, stores, provisions, ammunition, cannon with their appendages, and small arms with their accoutrements, and of all other public property whatever under their care respectively; distinguishing the quantity, number, quality and kind of each, as particularly as may be; together with the condition of such forts and garrisons and the said commanding officer shall exhibit to the governor, when required by him, true and exact plans of such forts, and of the land and sea or harbor or harbors adjacent.

And the said boards, and all public officers, shall communicate to the governor, as soon as may be after receiving the same, all letters, despatches, and intelligences of a public nature, which shall be directed to them respectively.
XIII. As the public good requires that the governor should not be under the undue influence of any of the members of the general court, by a dependence on them for his support, that he should in all cases, act with freedom for the benefit of the public, that he should not have his attention necessarily diverted from that object to his private concerns — and that he should maintain the dignity of the commonwealth in the character of its chief magistrate, it is necessary that he should have an honorable stated salary, of a fixed and permanent value, amply sufficient for those purposes, and established by standing laws: and it shall be among the first acts of the general court, after the commencement of this constitution, to establish such salary by law accordingly.
Permanent and honorable salaries shall also be established by law for the justices of the supreme judicial court.
Compensation of judges not to be the subject of an initiative or referendum petition; see Amend-

And if it shall be found that any of the salaries aforesaid, so established, are insufficient, they shall, from time to time be enlarged as the general court shall judge proper.

CHAPTER II

Section II.

Lieutenant Governor.

ARTICLE I. There shall be [annually] elected a lieutenant governor of the commonwealth of Massachusetts, whose title shall be, His Honor, and who shall be qualified, in point of [religion,] [property,] and residence in the commonwealth, in the same manner with the governor: and the day and manner of his election, and the qualifications of the electors, shall be the same as are required in the election of a governor. The return of the votes for this officer, and the declaration of his election, shall be in the same manner: and if no one person shall be found to have [a majority] of all the votes returned, the vacancy shall be filled by the senate and house of representatives, in the same manner as the governor is to be elected, in case no one person shall have [a majority] of the votes of the people to be governor.

Election by plurality provided for by Amendments, Art. XIV.

II. The governor, and in his absence the lieutenant governor, shall be president of the council, but shall have no vote in council: and the lieutenant governor shall always be a member of the council except when the chair of the governor shall be vacant.

III. Whenever the chair of the governor shall be vacant, by reason of his death, or absence from the commonwealth, or otherwise, the lieutenant governor, for the time being, shall, during such vacancy, perform all the duties incumbent upon the governor, and shall have and exercise all the powers and authorities, which by this constitution the governor is vested with, when personally present.
CHAPTER II.

SECTION III.

Council, and the Manner of settling Elections by the Legislature.

ARTICLE I. There shall be a council for advising the governor in the executive part of government, to consist of [nine] persons besides the lieutenant governor, whom the governor, for the time being, shall have full power and authority, from time to time, at his discretion, to assemble and call together. And the governor, with the said councilors, or five of them at least, shall and may, from time to time, hold and keep a council, for the ordering and directing the affairs of the commonwealth, according to the laws of the land.

II. [Nine councilors shall be annually chosen from among the persons returned for councilors and senators, on the last Wednesday in May, by the joint ballot of the senators and representatives assembled in one room: and in case there shall not be found upon the first choice, the whole number of nine persons who will accept a seat in the council, the deficiency shall be made up by the electors aforesaid from among the people at large; and the number of senators left shall constitute the senate for the year. The seats of the persons thus elected from the senate, and accepting the trust, shall be vacated in the senate.]

III. The councilors, in the civil arrangements of the commonwealth, shall have rank next after the lieutenant governor.

IV. [Not more than two councilors shall be chosen out of any one district of this commonwealth.]

Superseded by Amendments, Art. XVI.

V. The resolutions and advice of the council shall be recorded in a register, and signed by the members present; and this record may be called for at any time by either house of the legislature; and any member of the council may insert his opinion, contrary to the resolution of the majority.

VI. [Whenever the office of the governor and lieutenant governor shall be vacant, by reason of death, absence, or otherwise, then the council, or the major part of them, shall during such vacancy have full power and authority to do, and execute, all and every such acts, matters and things, as the governor or the lieutenant governor might or could, by virtue of this constitution, do or execute, if they or either of them, were personally present.]

VII. [And whereas the elections appointed to be made by this constitution, on the [last Wednesday in May annually.] by the two houses of the legislature, may not be completed on that day, the said elections may be adjourned from day to day until the same shall be completed. And the order of elections shall be as follows: [the vacancies in the senate, if any, shall first be filled up:] the governor and lieutenant governor shall then be elected, provided there should be no choice of them by the people: and afterwards the two houses shall proceed to the election of the council.]
CHAPTER II.

SECTION IV.

SECRETARY, TREASURER, COMMISSARY, ETC.

ARTICLE I. [The secretary, treasurer and receiver-general, and the commissary-general, notaries public, and naval officers, shall be chosen annually, by joint ballot of the senators and representatives in one room. And that the citizens of this commonwealth may be assured, from time to time, that the moneys remaining in the public treasury, upon the settlement and liquidation of the public accounts, are their property, no man shall be eligible as treasurer and receiver-general more than five years successively.]

For provision as to election of secretary and treasurer and receiver-general, see Amendments, Arts. XVII and LXIV, § 1.

For provision as to appointment of notaries public, see Amendments, Arts. IV, LVII and LXIX, § 2.

Commissary-general, appointment, Amendments, Art. IV: abolished, Amendments, Art. LI.III.

Treasurer and receiver-general ineligible to election for more than three successive terms. See Amendments, Art. LXIV, § 2.

SECRETARY, ETC., BY WHOM AND HOW CHOSEN.

TREASURER, INELIGIBLE FOR MORE THAN FIVE SUCCESSIVE YEARS.

II. The records of the commonwealth shall be kept in the office of the secretary, who may appoint his deputies, for whose conduct he shall be accountable, and he shall attend the governor and council, the senate and house of representatives, in person, or by his deputies, as they shall respectively require.

CHAPTER III.

JUDICIARY POWER.

ARTICLE I. The tenure, that all commission officers shall by law have in their offices, shall be expressed in their respective commissions. All judicial officers, duly appointed, commissioned and sworn, shall hold their offices during good behavior, excepting such concerning whom there is different provision made in this constitution: provided nevertheless, the governor, with consent of the council, may remove them upon the address of both houses of the legislature.

Tenure of office, etc., of judges not to be the subject of an initiative or referendum petition. See Amendments, Art. XLVIII, The Initiative, II, § 2, and The Referendum, III, § 2.

For retirement of judicial officers, see Amendments, Art. LVIII.

II. Each branch of the legislature, as well as the governor and council, shall have authority to require the opinions of the justices of the supreme judicial court, upon important questions of law, and upon solemn occasions.

Tenure of all commissioned officers to be expressed.

Judicial officers to hold office during good behavior, except, etc.

But may be removed on address.

Justices of supreme judicial court to give opinions when required.

122 Mass. 600.

Justices of the peace; tenure of their office.

3 Cush. 564.

For removal of justices of the peace, see Amendments, Art. XXXVII.

III. In order that the people may not suffer from the long continuance in place of any justice of the peace, who shall fail of discharging the important duties of his office with ability or fidelity, all commissions of justices of the peace shall expire and become void, in the term of seven years from their respective dates; and upon the expiration of any commission, the same may, if necessary, be renewed, or another person appointed, as shall most conduce to the well-being of the commonwealth.

IV. The judges of probate of wills, and for granting letters of administration, shall hold their courts at such place or places, on fixed days, as the convenience of the people shall require; and the legislature shall, from time to time, hereafter appoint such times and places; until which appointments, the said courts shall be holden at the times and places which the respective judges shall direct.

V. All causes of marriage, divorce, and alimony, and all appeals from the judges of probate shall be heard and determined by the governor and council, until the legislature shall, by law, make other provision.

105 Mass. 325.
116 Mass. 315.

CHAPTER IV.
DELEGATES TO CONGRESS.

[The delegates of this commonwealth to the congress of the United States, shall, some time in the month of June annually, be elected by the joint ballot of the senate and house of representatives, assembled together in one room; to serve in congress for one year, to commence on the first Monday in November then next ensuing. They shall have commissions under the hand of the governor, and the great seal of the commonwealth; but may be recalled at any time within the year, and others chosen and commissioned, in the same manner, in their stead.]

CHAPTER V.

THE UNIVERSITY AT CAMBRIDGE, AND ENCOURAGEMENT OF LITERATURE, ETC.

Section I.
The University.

Article I. Whereas our wise and pious ancestors, so early as the year one thousand six hundred and thirty-six, laid the foundation of Harvard College, in which university many persons of great eminence have, by the blessing of God, been initiated in those arts and sciences, which qualified them for public employments, both in church and state: and whereas the encouragement of arts and sciences, and all good literature, tends to the honor of God, the advantage of the Christian religion, and the great benefit of this and the other United States of America — it is declared, that the President and Fellows of Harvard College, in their corporate capacity, and their successors in that capacity, their officers and servants, shall have, hold, use, exercise and enjoy, all the powers, authorities, rights, liberties, privileges, immunities and franchises, which they now have or are entitled to have, hold, use, exercise and enjoy: and the same are hereby ratified and confirmed unto them, the said president and fellows of Harvard College, and to their successors, and to their officers and servants, respectively, forever.

II. And whereas there have been at sundry times, by divers persons, gifts, grants, devises of houses, lands, tenements, goods, chattels, legacies and conveyances, heretofore made, either to Harvard College in Cambridge, in New England, or to the president and fellows of Harvard College, or to the said college, by some other description, under several charters successively: it is declared, that all the said gifts, grants, devises, legacies and conveyances, are hereby forever confirmed unto the president and fellows of Harvard College, and to their successors in the capacity aforesaid, according to the true intent and meaning of the donor or donors, grantor or grantors, devisor or devisors.

III. [And whereas, by an act of the general court of the colony of Massachusetts Bay passed in the year one thousand six hundred and forty-two, the governor and deputy-governor, for the time being, and all the magistrates of that jurisdiction, were, with the president, and a number of the clergy in the said act described, constituted the overseers of Harvard College: and it being necessary, in this new constitution of government to ascertain who shall be deemed successors to the said governor, deputy-governor and magistrates; it is declared, that the governor, lieutenant governor, council and senate of this commonwealth, are and shall be deemed, their successors, who with the president of Harvard College, for the time being, together with the ministers of the congregational churches in the towns of Cambridge, Watertown, Charlestown, Boston, Roxbury, and Dorchester, mentioned in the said act, shall be, and hereby are, vested with all the powers and authority belonging, or in any way appertaining to the overseers of Harvard College; provided, that] nothing herein shall be construed to prevent the legislature of this commonwealth from making such alterations in the government of the said university, as shall be conducive to its advantage and the interest of the republic of letters, in as full a manner as might have been done by the legislature of the late Province of the Massachusetts Bay.

CHAPTER V.

SECTION II.

The Encouragement of Literature, etc.

Wisdom, and knowledge, as well as virtue, diffused generally among the body of the people, being necessary for the preservation of their rights and liberties; and as these depend on spreading the opportunities and advantages of education in the various parts of the country, and among the different orders of the people, it shall be the duty of legislatures and magistrates, in all future periods of this commonwealth, to cherish the interests of literature and the sciences, and all seminaries of them; especially the university at Cambridge, public schools and grammar schools in the towns; to encourage private societies and public institutions, rewards and immunities, for the promotion of agriculture, arts, sciences, commerce, trades, manufactures, and a natural history of the country; to countenance and inculcate the principles of humanity and general benevolence, public and private charity, industry and frugality, honesty and punctuality in their dealings; sincerity, good humor, and all social affections, and generous sentiments among the people.
CHAPTER VI.

OATHS AND SUBSCRIPTIONS; INCOMPATIBILITY OF AND EXCLUSION FROM OFFICES; PECUNIARY QUALIFICATIONS; COMMISSIONS; WRITS; CONFIRMATION OF LAWS; HABEAS CORPUS; THE ENACTING STYLE; CONTINUANCE OF OFFICERS; PROVISION FOR A FUTURE REVISAL OF THE CONSTITUTION, ETC.

ARTICLE I. [Any person chosen governor, lieutenant governor, councillor, senator or representative, and accepting the trust, shall before he proceed to execute the duties of his place or office, make and subscribe the following declaration, viz. —

"I, A. B., do declare, that I believe the Christian religion, and have a firm persuasion of its truth; and that I am seised and possessed, in my own right, of the property required by the constitution as one qualification for the office or place to which I am elected."

And the governor, lieutenant governor, and councillors shall make and subscribe the said declaration, in the presence of the two houses of assembly; and the senators and representatives first elected under this constitution, before the president and five of the council of the former constitution, and forever afterwards before the governor and council for the time being.]

And every person chosen to either of the places or offices aforesaid, as also any person appointed or commissioned to any judicial, executive, military, or other office under the government, shall, before he enters on the discharge of the business of his place or office, take and subscribe the following declaration, and oaths or affirmations, viz. —

["I, A. B., do truly and sincerely acknowledge, profess and declare, that the Commonwealth of Massachusetts is, and of right ought to be, a free, sovereign and independent state; and I do swear, that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the said commonwealth, and that I will defend the same against traitorous conspiracies and all hostile attempts whatsoever: and that I do renounce and abjure all allegiance, subjection and obedience to the king, queen, or government of Great Britain, (as the case may be) and every other foreign power whatsoever: and that no foreign prince, person, prelate, state or potentate, hath, or ought to have, any jurisdiction, superiority, pre-eminence, authority, dispensing or other power, in any matter, civil, ecclesiastical or spiritual, within this commonwealth, except the authority and power which is or may be vested by their constituents in the congress of the United States: and I do further testify and declare, that no man or body of men hath or can have any right to absolve or discharge me from the obligation of this oath, declaration, or affirmation; and that I do make this acknowledgment, profession, testimony, declaration, denial, renunciation and abjuration, heartily and truly, according to the common meaning and acceptation of the foregoing words, without any equivocation, mental evasion, or secret reservation whatsoever — So help me, God."

"I, A. B., do solemnly swear and affirm, that I will faithfully and impartially discharge and perform all the duties incumbent on me as : according to the best of my abilities and understanding, agreeably, to the rules and regulations of the constitution, and the laws of this commonwealth — So help me, God."
Provided always, that when any person chosen or appointed as aforesaid, shall be of the denomination of the people called Quakers, and shall decline taking the said oath[s], he shall make his affirmation in the foregoing form, and subscribe the same, omitting the words "I do swear," "and abjure," "oath or," "and abjuration" in the first oath; and in the second oath, the words "swear and," and [in each of them] the words "So help me, God;" subjoining instead thereof, "This I do under the pains and penalties of perjury."

And the said oaths or affirmations shall be taken and subscribed by the governor, lieutenant governor, and councillors, before the president of the senate, in the presence of the two houses of assembly; and by the senators and representatives first elected under this constitution, before the president and five of the council of the former constitution; and forever afterwards before the governor and council for the time being; and by the residue of the officers aforesaid, before such persons and in such manner as from time to time shall be prescribed by the legislature.

II. No governor, lieutenant governor, or judge of the supreme judicial court, shall hold any other office or place, under the authority of this commonwealth, except such as by this constitution they are admitted to hold saving that the judges of the said court may hold the offices of justices of the peace through the state; nor shall they hold any other place or office, or receive any pension or salary from any other state or government or power whatever.

No person shall be capable of holding or exercising at the same time, within this state more than one of the following offices, viz. — judge of probate — sheriff — register of probate — or register of deeds — and never more than any two offices which are to be held by appointment of the governor, or the governor and council, or the senate, or the house of representatives, or by the election of the people of the state at large, or of the people of any county, military offices and the offices of justices of the peace excepted, shall be held by one person.

No person holding the office of judge of the supreme judicial court — secretary — attorney-general — solicitor-general — treasurer or receiver-general — judge of probate — [commissary-general — president, professor, or instructor of Harvard College] — sheriff — clerk of the house of representatives — register of probate — register of deeds — clerk of the supreme judicial court — clerk of the inferior court of common pleas — or officer of the customs, including in this description naval officers — shall at the same time have a seat in the senate or house of representatives; but their being chosen or appointed to, and accepting the same, shall operate as a resignation of their seat in the senate or house of representatives; and the place so vacated shall be filled up.

And the same rule shall take place in case any judge of the said supreme judicial court, or judge of probate, shall accept a seat in council; or any councillor shall accept of either of those offices or places.

And no person shall ever be admitted to hold a seat in the legislature, or any office of trust or importance under the government of this commonwealth, who shall, in the due course of law, have been convicted of bribery or corruption in obtaining an election or appointment.
III. [In all cases where sums of money are mentioned in this constitution, the value thereof shall be computed in silver at six shillings and eight pence per ounce: and it shall be in the power of the legislature, from time to time, to increase such qualifications, as to property, of the persons to be elected to offices, as the circumstances of the commonwealth shall require.]

IV. All commissions shall be in the name of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, signed by the governor and attested by the secretary or his deputy, and have the great seal of the commonwealth affixed thereto.

V. All writs issuing out of the clerk's office in any of the courts of law, shall be in the name of the Commonwealth of Massachusetts: they shall be under the seal of the court from whence they issue: they shall bear test of the first justice of the court to which they shall be returnable, who is not a party, and be signed by the clerk of such court.

VI. All the laws which have heretofore been adopted, used and approved in the Province, Colony or State of Massachusetts Bay, and usually practised on in the courts of law, shall still remain and be in full force, until altered or repealed by the legislature; such parts only excepted as are repugnant to the rights and liberties contained in this constitution.

VII. The privilege and benefit of the writ of habeas corpus shall be enjoyed in this commonwealth in the most free, easy, cheap, expeditious and ample manner; and shall not be suspended by the legislature, except upon the most urgent and pressing occasions, and for a limited time not exceeding twelve months.

VIII. The enacting style, in making and passing all acts, statutes and laws, shall be — "Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same."

IX. [To the end there may be no failure of justice, or danger arise to the commonwealth from a change of the form of government — all officers, civil and military, holding commissions under the government and people of Massachusetts Bay in New England, and all other officers of the said government and people, at the time this constitution shall take effect, shall have, hold, use, exercise and enjoy, all the powers and authority to them granted or committed, until other persons shall be appointed in their stead: and all courts of law shall proceed in the execution of the business of their respective departments; and all the executive and legislative officers, bodies and powers shall continue in full force, in the enjoyment and exercise of all their trusts, employments and authority; until the general court and the supreme and executive officers under this constitution are designated and invested with their respective trusts powers and authority.]

X. [In order the more effectually to adhere to the principles of the constitution, and to correct those violations which by any means may be made therein, as well as to form such alterations as from experience shall be found necessary — the general court which shall be in the year of our Lord one thousand seven hundred and ninety-five, shall issue precepts to the selectmen of the several towns, and to the assessors of the unincorporated plantations, directing them to convene the qualified voters of their respective towns and plantations, for the purpose of collecting their sentiments on the necessity or expediency of revising the constitution, in order to amendments.

And if it shall appear by the returns made, that two thirds of the qualified voters throughout the state, who shall assemble and vote in consequence of the said precepts, are in favor of such revision or amendment, the general court shall issue precepts, or direct them to be issued from the secretary's office to the several towns to elect delegates to meet in convention for the purpose aforesaid.

The said delegates to be chosen in the same manner and proportion as their representatives in the second branch of the legislature are by this constitution to be chosen.

XI. This form of government shall be enrolled on parchment and deposited in the secretary's office, and be a part of the laws of the land — and printed copies thereof shall be prefixed to the book containing the laws of this commonwealth, in all future editions of the said laws.

ARTICLES OF AMENDMENT.

Article I. If any bill or resolve shall be objected to, and not approved by the governor; and if the general court shall adjourn within five days after the same shall have been laid before the governor for his approbation, and thereby prevent his returning it with his objections, as provided by the constitution, such bill or resolve shall not become a law, nor have force as such.

See Const., Ch. I, Sect. I, Art. II.

Art. II. The general court shall have full power and authority to erect and constitute municipal or city governments, in any corporate town or towns in this commonwealth, and to grant to the inhabitants thereof such powers, privileges, and immunities, not repugnant to the constitution as the general court shall deem necessary or expedient for the regulation and government thereof and to prescribe the manner of calling and holding public meetings of the inhabitants, in wards or otherwise for the election of officers under the constitution, and the manner of returning the votes given at such meetings. Provided, that no such government shall be erected or constituted in any town not containing twelve thousand inhabitants, nor unless it be with the consent, and on the application of a majority of the inhabitants of such town, present and voting thereon, pursuant to a vote at a meeting duly warned and held for that purpose. And provided also, that all by-laws made by such municipal or city government shall be subject, at all times to be annulled by the general court.

Proviso. 112 Mass. 200.

Art. III. Every [male] citizen of twenty-one years of age and upwards, excepting paupers and persons under guardianship who shall have resided within the commonwealth one year, and within the town or district in which he may claim a right to vote, six calendar months next preceding any election of governor, lieutenant governor, senators, or representatives, [and who shall have paid, by himself or his parent, master or guardian, any state or county tax, which shall, within two years next preceding such election, have been assessed upon him in any town or district of this commonwealth; and also, every citizen who shall be, by law, exempted from taxation, and who shall be, in all other respects, qualified as above mentioned,] shall have a right to vote in such election of governor, lieutenant governor, senators and representatives; and no other person shall be entitled to vote in such election.

For educational qualification, see Amendments, Art. XX.
For provision as to those who have served in the army or navy in time of war, see Amendments, Arts. XXVIII and XXXI.
For absentee voting, see Amendments, Art. XLV.

ART. IV. Notaries public shall be appointed by the governor in the same manner as judicial officers are appointed, and shall hold their offices during seven years, unless sooner removed by the governor with the consent of the council, [upon the address of both houses of the legislature.]

See Amendments, Art. XXXVII.
For appointment of women as notaries public, see Amendments, Art. LVII and Art. LXIX, § 2.

[In case the office of secretary or treasurer of the commonwealth shall become vacant from any cause during the recess of the general court, the governor, with the advice and consent of the council, shall nominate and appoint, under such regulations as may be prescribed by law, a competent and suitable person to such vacant office, who shall hold the same until a successor shall be appointed by the general court.]

[Whenever the exigencies of the commonwealth shall require the appointment of a comissary-general, he shall be nominated, appointed and commissioned in such manner as the legislature may, by law, prescribe.

All officers commissioned to command in the militia may be removed from office in such manner as the legislature may, by law, prescribe.

Last two paragraphs of Art. IV annulled and superseded by Amendments, Art. LIII.

ART. V. [In the elections of captains and subalterns of the militia, all the members of their respective companies, as well those under as those above the age of twenty-one years, shall have a right to vote.]

This article annulled and superseded by Amendments, Art. LIII.

ART. VI. Instead of the oath of allegiance prescribed by the constitution, the following oath shall be taken and subscribed by every person chosen or appointed to any office, civil or military under the government of this commonwealth, before he shall enter on the duties of his office, to wit:

"I, A. B., do solemnly swear, that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and will support the constitution thereof. So help me God."

Provided, That when any person shall be of the denomination called Quakers, and shall decline taking said oath, he shall make his affirmation in the foregoing form, omitting the word "swear" and inserting instead thereof the word "affirm;" and omitting the words "So help me God," and subjoining, instead thereof, the words "This I do under the pains and penalties of perjury."

ART. VII. No oath, declaration or subscription, excepting the oath prescribed in the preceding article and the oath of office, shall be required of the governor, lieutenant governor, councillors, senators or representatives, to qualify them to perform the duties of their respective offices.
ART. VIII. No judge of any court of this commonwealth (except the court of sessions) and no person holding any office under the authority of the United States (postmasters excepted) shall, at the same time, hold the office of governor, lieutenant governor, or councillor, or have a seat in the senate or house of representatives of this commonwealth; and no judge of any court in this commonwealth (except the court of sessions) nor the attorney-general, solicitor-general, county attorney, clerk of any court, sheriff, treasurer and receiver-general, register of probate, nor register of deeds, shall continue to hold his said office after being elected a member of the Congress of the United States, and accepting that trust; but the acceptance of such trust by any of the officers aforesaid shall be deemed and taken to be a resignation of his said office; and judges of the courts of common pleas shall hold no other office under the government of this commonwealth, the office of justice of the peace and militia offices excepted.

ART. IX. [If, at any time hereafter, any specific and particular amendment or amendments to the constitution be proposed in the general court, and agreed to by a majority of the senators and two thirds of the members of the house of representatives present and voting thereon, such proposed amendment or amendments shall be entered on the journals of the two houses, with the yea and nay votes thereon, and referred to the general court then next to be chosen, and shall be published; and if, in the general court next chosen as aforesaid, such proposed amendment or amendments shall be agreed to by a majority of the senators and two thirds of the members of the house of representatives present and voting thereon; then it shall be the duty of the general court to submit such proposed amendment or amendments to the people: and if they shall be approved and ratified by a majority of the qualified voters voting thereon, at meetings legally warned and held for that purpose, they shall become part of the constitution of this commonwealth.]

ART. X. The political year shall begin on the first Wednesday of January instead of the last Wednesday of May, and the general court shall assemble every year on the said first Wednesday of January, and shall proceed at that session to make all the elections, and do all the other acts which are by the constitution required to be made and done at the session which has heretofore commenced on the last Wednesday of May. And the general court shall be dissolved on the day next preceding the first Wednesday of January, without any proclamation or other act of the governor. But nothing herein contained shall prevent the general court from assembling at such other times as they shall judge necessary, or when called together by the governor. [The governor, lieutenant governor and councillors, shall also hold their respective offices for one year next following the first Wednesday of January, and until others are chosen and qualified in their stead.]

[The meeting for the choice of governor, lieutenant governor, senators and representatives shall be held on the second Monday of November in every year; but meetings may be adjourned if necessary, for the choice of representatives, to the next day, and again to the next succeeding day, but no further. But in case a second meeting shall be necessary for the choice of representatives, such meetings shall be held on the fourth Monday of the same month of November.]

officers or persons whatever, that have reference to the last Wednesday of May, as the commencement of the political year, shall be so far altered as to have like reference to the first Wednesday of January.

This article shall go into operation on the first day of October next following the day when the same shall be duly ratified and adopted as an amendment of the constitution; — and the governor, lieutenant governor, councilors, senators, representatives and all other state officers, who are annually chosen, and who shall be chosen for the current year when the same shall go into operation, shall hold their respective offices until the first Wednesday of January then next following, and until others are chosen and qualified in their stead, and no longer — and the first election of the governor, lieutenant governor, senators and representatives to be had in virtue of this article shall be had conformably thereunto, in the month of November following the day on which the same shall be in force, and go into operation pursuant to the foregoing provision.

All the provisions of the existing constitution inconsistent with the provisions herein contained are hereby wholly annulled.]

Art. XI. Instead of the third article of the bill of rights, the following modification and amendment thereof is substituted.

"As the public worship of God and instructions in piety, religion and morality, promote the happiness and prosperity of a people and the security of a republican government; — therefore, the several religious societies of this commonwealth, whether corporate or unincorporate, at any meeting legally warned and holden for that purpose, shall ever have the right to elect their pastors or religious teachers, to contract with them for their support, to raise money for erecting and repairing houses for public worship, for the maintenance of religious instruction, and for the payment of necessary expenses; and all persons belonging to any religious society shall be taken and held to be members, until they shall file with the clerk of such society, a written notice, declaring the dissolution of their membership, and thenceforth shall not be liable for any grant or contract which may be thereafter made, or entered into by such society: — and all religious sects and denominations, demeaning themselves peaceably, and as good citizens of the commonwealth, shall be equally under the protection of the law; and no subordination of any one sect or denomination to another shall ever be established by law."

Art. XII. [In order to provide for a representation of the citizens of this commonwealth, founded upon the principles of equality a census of the ratable polls, in each city, town and district of the commonwealth, on the first day of May, shall be taken and returned into the secretary’s office, in such manner as the legislature shall provide, within the month of May, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, and in every tenth year thereafter, in the month of May, in manner aforesaid, and each town or city having three hundred ratable polls at the last preceding decennial census of polls may elect one representative, and for every four hundred and fifty ratable polls in addition to the first three hundred, one representative more. Any town having less than three hundred ratable polls shall be represented thus; the whole number of ratable polls, at the last preceding decennial census of polls, shall be multiplied by ten, and the product divided by three hundred, and such town may elect one representative as many years within ten years, as three hundred is contained in the product aforesaid.

Any city or town having ratable polls enough to elect one or more representatives, with any number of polls beyond the necessary number, may be represented as to that surplus number by multiplying such surplus number by ten and dividing the product by four hundred and fifty; and such city or town may elect one additional representative as many years within the ten years as four hundred and fifty is contained in the product aforesaid.

Any two or more of the several towns and districts may, by consent of a majority of the legal voters present at a legal meeting in each of said towns and districts respectively called for that purpose, and held previous to the first day of July in the year in which the decennial census of polls shall be taken, form themselves into a representative district, to continue until the next decennial census of polls, for the election of a representative or representatives, and such district shall have all the rights, in regard to representation, which would belong to a town containing the same number of ratable polls.

The governor and council shall ascertain and determine within the months of July and August, in the year of our Lord one thousand eight hundred and thirty-seven, according to the foregoing principles, the number of representatives, which each city, town and representative district is entitled to elect, and the number of years within the period of ten years then next ensuing, that each city, town and representative district may elect an additional representative, and where any town has not a sufficient number of polls to elect a representative each year then how many years within the ten years, such town may elect a representative, and the same shall be done once in ten years thereafter by the governor and council; and the number of ratable polls in each decennial census of polls, shall determine the number of representatives which each city, town and representative district may elect as aforesaid, and when the number of representatives to be elected by each city, town or representative district is ascertained and determined as aforesaid, the governor shall cause the same to be published forthwith for the information of the people and that number shall remain fixed and unalterable for the period of ten years. All the provisions of the existing constitution inconsistent with the provisions herein contained, are hereby wholly annulled.]

Art. XIII. [A census of the inhabitants of each city and town, on the first day of May, shall be taken, and returned into the secretary's office, on or before the last day of June, of the year one thousand eight hundred and forty, and of every tenth year thereafter, which census shall determine the apportionment of senators and representatives for the term of ten years. The several senatorial districts now existing shall be permanent. The senate shall consist of forty members: and in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty, and every tenth year thereafter, the governor and council shall assign the number of senators to be chosen in each district, according to the number of inhabitants in the same. But, in all cases, at least one senator shall be assigned to each district. The members of the house of representatives shall be apportioned in the following manner: Every town or city containing twelve hundred inhabitants, may elect one representative; and two thousand four hundred inhabitants shall be the mean increasing number which shall entitle it to an additional representative. Every town containing less... than twelve hundred inhabitants, shall be entitled to elect a representative as many times, within ten years, as the number one hundred and sixty is contained in the number of the inhabitants of said town. Such towns may also elect one representative for the year in which the valuation of estates within the commonwealth shall be settled. Any two or more of the several towns may, by consent of a majority of the legal voters present at a legal meeting, in each of said towns respectively, called for that purpose, and held before the first day of August, in the year one thousand eight hundred and forty, and every tenth year thereafter, form themselves into a representative district, to continue for the term of ten years; and such district shall have all the rights in regard to representation, which would belong to a town containing the same number of inhabitants. The number of inhabitants which shall entitle a town to elect one representative, and the mean increasing number, which shall entitle a town or city to elect more than one, and also the number by which the population of towns, not entitled to a representative every year, is to be divided, shall be increased respectively, by one tenth of the numbers above mentioned, whenever the population of the commonwealth shall have increased to seven hundred and seventy thousand, and for every additional increase of seventy thousand inhabitants, the same addition of one tenth shall be made, respectively, to the said numbers above mentioned. In the year of each decennial census, the governor and council shall, before the first day of September, apportion the number of representatives which each city, town, and representadive district is entitled to elect, and ascertain how many years within ten years, any town may elect a representative, which is not entitled to elect one every year; and the governor shall cause the same to be published forthwith. Nine councillors shall be annually chosen from among the people at large, on the first Wednesday of January, or as soon thereafter as may be, by the joint ballot of the senators and representatives assembled in one room, who shall, as soon as may be, in like manner, fill up any vacancies that may happen in the council, by death, resignation, or otherwise. No person shall be elected a councillor, who has not been an inhabitant of this commonwealth for the term of five years immediately preceding his election; and not more than one councillor shall be chosen from any one senatorial district in the commonwealth.]
No possession of a freehold or of any other estate shall be required as a qualification for holding a seat in either branch of the general court, or in the executive council.

Art. XIV. In all elections of civil officers by the people of this commonwealth, whose election is provided for by the constitution, the person having the highest number of votes shall be deemed and declared to be elected.

Art. XV. The meeting for the choice of governor, lieutenant-governor, senators and representatives, shall be held on the Tuesday next after the first Monday in November, [annually]; but in case of a failure to elect representatives on that day, a second meeting shall be held for that purpose on the fourth Monday of the same month of November.

For change to biennial elections, see Amendments, Art. LXIV, § 1.

Art. XVI. Eight councillors shall be [annually] chosen by the inhabitants of this commonwealth, qualified to vote for governor. The election of councillors shall be determined by the same rule that is required in the election of governor. The legislature, at its first session after this amendment shall have been adopted, and at its first session after the next state census shall have been taken, and at its first session after each decennial state census thereafter, shall divide the commonwealth into eight districts of contiguous territory, each containing a number of inhabitants as nearly equal as practicable, without dividing any town or ward of a city, and each entitled to elect one councillor: provided, however, that if, at any time, the constitution shall provide for the division of the commonwealth into forty senatorial districts, then the legislature shall so arrange the councillor districts that each district shall consist of five contiguous senatorial districts, as they shall be, from time to time, established by the legislature. No person shall be eligible to the office of councillor who has not been an inhabitant of the commonwealth for the term of five years immediately preceding his election. The day and manner of the election, the return of the votes, and the declaration of the said elections, shall be the same as are required in the election of governor. [Whenever there shall be a failure to elect the full number of councillors, the vacancies shall be filled in the same manner as is required for filling vacancies in the senate; and vacancies occasioned by death, removal from the state, or otherwise, shall be filled in like manner, as soon as may be after such vacancies shall have happened.] And that there may be no delay in the organization of the government on the first Wednesday of January, the governor, with at least five councillors for the time being, shall, as soon as may be, examine the returned copies of the records for the election of governor, lieutenant-governor, and councillors; and ten days before the said first Wednesday in January he shall issue his summons to such persons as appear to be chosen, to attend on that day to be qualified accordingly; and the secretary shall lay the returns before the senate and house of representatives on the said first Wednesday in January, to be by them examined; and in case of the election of either of said officers, the choice shall be by them declared and published; but in case there shall be no election of either of said officers, the legislature shall proceed to fill such vacancies in the manner provided in the constitution for the choice of such officers.

Art. XVII. The secretary, treasurer and receiver-general, auditor, and attorney-general, shall be chosen [annually,] on the day in November prescribed for the choice of governor; and each person then chosen as such, duly qualified in other respects, shall hold his office for the term of [one year] from the third Wednesday in January next thereafter, and until another is chosen and qualified in his stead. The qualification of the voters, the manner of the election, the return of the votes, and the declaration of the election, shall be such as are required in the election of governor. In case of a failure to elect either of said officers on the day in November aforesaid, or in case of the decease in the mean time of the person elected as such, such officer shall be chosen on or before the third Wednesday in January next thereafter from the two persons who had the highest number of votes for said offices on the day in November aforesaid, by joint ballot of the senators and representatives in one room; and in case the office of secretary, or treasurer and receiver-general, or auditor, or attorney-general, shall become vacant from any cause during an annual or special session of the general court, such vacancy shall in like manner be filled by choice from the people at large; but if such vacancy shall occur at any other time, it shall be supplied by the governor by appointment, with the advice and consent of the council. The person so chosen or appointed, duly qualified in other respects, shall hold his office until his successor is chosen and duly qualified in his stead. In case any person chosen or appointed to either of the offices aforesaid, shall neglect, for the space of ten days after he could otherwise enter upon his duties, to qualify himself in all respects to enter upon the discharge of such duties, the office to which he has been elected or appointed shall be deemed vacant. No person shall be eligible to either of said offices unless he shall have been an inhabitant of this commonwealth five years next preceding his election or appointment.

ART. XVIII. [All moneys raised by taxation in the towns and cities for the support of public schools, and all moneys which may be appropriated by the state for the support of common schools, shall be applied to, and expended in, no other schools than those which are conducted according to law, under the order and superintendence of the authorities of the town or city in which the money is to be expended; and such moneys shall never be appropriated to any religious sect for the maintenance exclusively of its own schools.]

This article superseded by Amendments, Art. XLVI.

ART. XIX. The legislature shall prescribe, by general law, for the election of sheriffs, registers of probate, [commissioners of insolvency,] and clerks of the courts, by the people of the several counties, and that district-attorneys shall be chosen by the people of the several districts, for such term of office as the legislature shall prescribe.

See Amendments, Art. XXXVI.

ART. XX. No person shall have the right to vote, or be eligible to office under the constitution of this commonwealth, who shall not be able to read the constitution in the English language, and write his name: — provided, however, that the provisions of this amendment shall not apply to any person prevented by a physical disability from complying with its requisitions, nor to any person who now has the right to vote, nor to any persons who shall be sixty years of age or upwards at the time this amendment shall take effect.

For other qualifications, see Amendments, Arts. III, XXVIII, XXX, XXXI, XXXII, XL.

ART. XXI. [A census of the legal voters of each city and town, on the first day of May, shall be taken and returned into the office of the secretary of the commonwealth, on or before the last day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven; and a census of the inhabitants of each city and town, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and of every tenth year thereafter. In the census aforesaid, a special enumeration shall be made of the legal voters; and in each city, said enumeration shall specify the number of such legal voters aforesaid, residing in each ward of such city. The enumeration aforesaid shall determine the apportionment of representatives for the periods between the taking of the census. The house of representatives shall consist of two hundred and forty members, which shall be apportioned, by the legislature, at its first session after the return of each enumeration as aforesaid, to the several counties of the commonwealth, equally, as nearly as may be, according to their relative numbers of legal voters, as ascertained by the next preceding special enumeration;
and the town of Cohasset, in the county of Norfolk, shall, for this purpose, as well as in the formation of districts, as hereinafter provided, be considered a part of the county of Plymouth; and it shall be the duty of the secretary of the commonwealth, to certify, as soon as may be after it is determined by the legislature, the number of representatives to which each county shall be entitled, to the board authorized to divide each county into representative districts. The mayor and aldermen of the city of Boston, the county commissioners of other counties than Suffolk,—or in lieu of the mayor and aldermen of the city of Boston, or of the county commissioners in each county other than Suffolk, such board of special commissioners in each county, to be elected by the people of the county, or of the towns therein, as may for that purpose be provided by law, shall, on the first Tuesday of August next after each assignment of representatives to each county, assemble at a shire town of their respective counties, and proceed, as soon as may be, to divide the same into representative districts of contiguous territory, so as to apportion the representation assigned to each county equally, as nearly as may be, according to the relative number of legal voters in the several districts of each county; and such districts shall be so formed that no town or ward of a city shall be divided therefor, nor shall any district be made which shall be entitled to elect more than three representatives. Every representative, for one year at least next preceding his election, shall have been an inhabitant of the district for which he is chosen, and shall cease to represent such district when he shall cease to be an inhabitant of the commonwealth. The districts in each county shall be numbered by the board creating the same, and a description of each, with the numbers thereof and the number of legal voters therein, shall be returned by the board, to the secretary of the commonwealth, the county treasurer of each county, and to the clerk of every town in each district, to be filed and kept in their respective offices. The manner of calling and conducting the meetings for the choice of representatives, and of ascertaining their election, shall be prescribed by law. [Not less than one hundred members of the house of representatives shall constitute a quorum for doing business; but a less number may organize temporarily, adjourn from day to day, and compel the attendance of absent members.]

Arr. XXII. [A census of the legal voters of each city and town, on the first day of May, shall be taken and returned into the office of the secretary of the commonwealth, on or before the last day of June, in the year one thousand eight hundred and fifty-seven; and a census of the inhabitants of each city and town, in the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-five, and of every tenth year thereafter. In the census aforesaid, a special enumeration shall be made of the legal voters, and in each city said enumeration shall specify the number of such legal voters aforesaid, residing in each ward of such city. The enumeration aforesaid shall determine the apportionment of senators for the periods between the taking of the census. The senate shall consist of forty members. The general court shall, at its first session after each next preceding special enumeration, divide the commonwealth into forty districts of adjacent territory, each district to contain, as nearly as may be, an equal number of legal voters, according to the enumeration aforesaid:—provided, however, that no town or ward of a city shall be divided therefor; and such districts shall be formed, as nearly as may be, without uniting two counties, or parts of two or more counties, Constitution of Massachusetts.

Qualifications of senators.

Each district shall elect one senator, who shall have been an inhabitant of this commonwealth five years at least immediately preceding his election, and at the time of his election shall be an inhabitant of the district for which he is chosen; and he shall cease to represent such senatorial district when he shall cease to be an inhabitant of the commonwealth.] [Not less than sixteen senators shall constitute a quorum for doing business; but a less number may organize temporarily, adjourn from day to day, and compel the attendance of absent members.]

Art. XXIII. [No person of foreign birth shall be entitled to vote, or shall be eligible to office, unless he shall have resided within the jurisdiction of the United States for two years subsequent to his naturalization, and shall be otherwise qualified, according to the constitution and laws of this commonwealth: provided, that this amendment shall not affect the rights which any person of foreign birth possessed at the time of the adoption thereof; and, provided, further, that it shall not affect the rights of any child of a citizen of the United States, born during the temporary absence of the parent therefrom.]

Art. XXIV. Any vacancy in the senate shall be filled by election by the people of the unrepresented district, upon the order of a majority of senators elected.

Art. XXV. In case of a vacancy in the council, from a failure of election or other cause, the senate and house of representatives shall, by concurrent vote, choose some eligible person from the people of the district wherein such vacancy occurs, to fill that office. If such vacancy shall happen when the legislature is not in session, the governor, with the advice and consent of the council, may fill the same by appointment of some eligible person.

Art. XXVI. The twenty-third article of the articles of amendment of the constitution of this commonwealth, which is as follows, to wit: — "No person of foreign birth shall be entitled to vote, or shall be eligible to office, unless he shall have resided within the jurisdiction of the United States, for two years subsequent to his naturalization, and shall be otherwise qualified according to the constitution and laws of this commonwealth: provided, that this amendment shall not affect the rights which any person of foreign birth possessed at the time of the adoption thereof; and provided, further, that it shall not affect the rights of any child of a citizen of the United States, born during the temporary absence of the parent therefrom," is hereby wholly annulled.

Art. XXVII. So much of article two of chapter six of the constitution of this commonwealth as relates to persons holding the office of president, professor or instructor of Harvard College is hereby annulled.

Art. XXVIII. No person having served in the army or navy of the United States in time of war, and having been honorably discharged from such service, if otherwise qualified to vote, shall be disqualified therefor on account of [being a pauper:] or [if a pauper] because of the non-payment of a poll tax.

Amended by Amendments, Art. XXXI.

Art. XXIX. The general court shall have full power and authority to provide for the inhabitants of the towns in this commonwealth more than one place of public meeting within the limits of each town for the election of officers under the constitution, and to prescribe the manner of calling, holding and conducting such meetings. All the provisions of the existing constitution inconsistent with the provisions herein contained are hereby annulled.

Art. XXX. No person, otherwise qualified to vote in elections for governor, lieutenant-governor, senators, and representatives, shall, by reason of a change of residence within the commonwealth, be disqualified from voting for said officers in the city or town from which he has removed his residence, until the expiration of six calendar months from the time of such removal.

For absentee voting provision, see Amendments, Art. XLV.

Art. XXXI. Article twenty-eight of the amendments of the constitution is hereby amended by striking out in the fourth line thereof the words “being a pauper”, and inserting in place thereof the words: — receiving or having received aid from any city or town, — and also by striking out in said fourth line the words “if a pauper”, so that the article as amended shall read as follows: Article XXVIII. No person having served in the army or navy of the United States in time of war, and having been honorably discharged from such service, if otherwise qualified to vote, shall be disqualified therefor on account of receiving or having received aid from any city or town, or because of the non-payment of a poll tax.

Art. XXXII. So much of article three of the amendments of the constitution of the commonwealth as is contained in the following words: “and who shall have paid, by himself, or his parent, master, or guardian, any state or county tax, which shall, within two years next preceding such election, have been assessed upon him, in any town or district of this commonwealth; and also every citizen who shall be, by law, exempted from taxation, and who shall be, in all other respects, qualified as above mentioned”, is hereby annulled.

Art. XXXIII. A majority of the members of each branch of the general court shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business, but a less number may adjourn from day to day, and compel the attendance of absent members. All the provisions of the existing constitution inconsistent with the provisions herein contained are hereby annulled.

Art. XXXIV. So much of article two of section one of chapter two of part the second of the constitution of the commonwealth as is contained in the following words: “and unless he shall at the same time, be seised in his own right, of a freehold within the commonwealth of the value of one thousand pounds”; is hereby annulled.

Art. XXXV. So much of article two of section three of chapter one of the constitution of the commonwealth as is contained in the following words: “The expenses of travelling to the general assembly, and returning home, once in every session, and no more, shall be paid by the government, out of the public treasury, to every member who shall attend as seasonably as he can, in the judgment of the house, and does not depart without leave”, is hereby annulled.

Art. XXXVI. So much of article nineteen of the articles of amendment to the constitution of the commonwealth as is contained in the following words “commissioners of insolvency”, is hereby annulled.

Provisions of Amendments, Art. XIX, relative to providing for election of commissioners of insolvency, annulled.

Art. XXXVII. The governor, with the consent of the council, may remove justices of the peace and notaries public.
Art. XXXVIII. Voting machines or other mechanical devices for voting may be used at all elections under such regulations as may be prescribed by law: provided, however, that the right of secret voting shall be preserved.

For compulsory voting, see Amendments, Art. L.XI.

Art. XXXIX. Article ten of part one of the constitution is hereby amended by adding to it the following words: — The legislature may by special acts for the purpose of laying out, widening or relocating highways or streets, authorize the taking in fee by the commonwealth, or by a county, city or town, or more land and property than are needed for the actual construction of such highway or street: provided, however, that the land and property authorized to be taken are specified in the act and are no more in extent than would be sufficient for suitable building lots on both sides of such highway or street, and after so much of the land or property has been appropriated for such highway or street as is needed therefor, may authorize the sale of the remainder for value with or without suitable restrictions.

Art. XL. Article three of the amendments to the constitution is hereby amended by inserting after the word "guardianship", in line two, the following: — and persons temporarily or permanently disqualifed by law because of corrupt practices in respect to elections.

Art. XLI. Full power and authority are hereby given and granted to the general court to prescribe for wild or forest lands such methods of taxation as will develop and conserve the forest resources of the commonwealth.

Art. XLII. [Full power and authority are hereby given and granted to the general court to refer to the people for their rejection or approval at the polls any act or resolve of the general court or any part or parts thereof. Such reference shall be by a majority yea and may vote of all members of each house present and voting. Any act, resolve, or part thereof so referred shall be voted on at the regular state election next ensuing after such reference, shall become law if approved by a majority of the voters voting thereon, and shall take effect at the expiration of thirty days after the election at which it was approved or at such time after the expiration of the said thirty days as may be fixed in such act, resolve or part thereof.]

Art. XLIII. The general court shall have power to authorize the commonwealth to take land and to hold, improve, sub-divide, build upon and sell the same, for the purpose of relieving congestion of population and providing homes for citizens: provided, however, that this amendment shall not be deemed to authorize the sale of such land or buildings at less than the cost thereof.

Art. XLIV. Full power and authority are hereby given and granted to the general court to impose and levy a tax on income in the manner hereinafter provided. Such tax may be at different rates upon income derived from different classes of property, but shall be levied at a uniform rate throughout the commonwealth upon incomes derived from the same class of property. The general court may tax income not derived from property at a lower rate than income derived from property, and may grant reasonable exemptions and abatements. Any class of property the income from which is taxed under the provisions of this article may be exempted from the imposition and levying of proportional and reasonable assessments, rates and taxes as at present authorized by the constitution. This article shall not be construed to limit the power of the general court to impose and levy reasonable duties and excises.

Art. XLV. The general court shall have power to provide by law for voting by qualified voters of the commonwealth who, at the time of an election, are absent from the city or town of which they are inhabitants in the choice of any officer to be elected or upon any question submitted at such election.

For compulsory voting, see Amendments, Art. LXI.

Art. XLVI. (In place of and substitution for article XVIII of the articles of amendment of the constitution.) Article XVIII, Section 1. No law shall be passed prohibiting the free exercise of religion.

Section 2. All moneys raised by taxation in the towns and cities for the support of public schools, and all moneys which may be appropriated by the commonwealth for the support of common schools shall be applied to, and expended in, no other schools than those which are conducted according to law, under the order and superintendence of the authorities of the town or city in which the money is expended; and no grant, appropriation or use of public money or property or loan of public credit shall be made or authorized by the commonwealth or any political division thereof for the purpose of founding, maintaining or aiding any school or institution of learning, whether under public control or otherwise, wherein any denominational doctrine is inculcated, or any other school, or any college, infirmary, hospital, institution, or educational, charitable or religious undertaking which is not publicly owned and under the exclusive control, order and superintendence of public officers or public agents authorized by the commonwealth or federal authority or both, except that appropriations may be made for the maintenance and support of the Soldiers' Home in Massachusetts and for free public libraries in any city or town, and to carry out legal obligations, if any, already entered into; and no such grant, appropriation or use of public money or property or loan of public credit shall be made or authorized for the purpose of founding, maintaining or aiding any church, religious denomination or society.

Section 3. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to prevent the commonwealth, or any political division thereof, from paying to privately controlled hospitals, infirmaries, or institutions for the deaf, dumb or blind not more than the ordinary and reasonable compensation for care or support actually rendered or furnished by such hospitals, infirmaries or institutions to such persons as may be in whole or in part unable to support or care for themselves.

Section 4. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to deprive any inmate of a publicly controlled reformatory, penal or charitable institution of the opportunity of religious exercises therein of his own faith; but no inmate of such institution shall be compelled to attend religious services or receive religious instruction against his will, or, if a minor, without the consent of his parent or guardian.

Section 5. This amendment shall not take effect until the October first next succeeding its ratification and adoption by the people.

This amendment not to be the subject of an initiative amendment. See Amendments, Art. XLVIII, The Initiative, II, § 2.
Art. XLVII. The maintenance and distribution at reasonable rates, during time of war, public exigency, emergency or distress, of a sufficient supply of food and other common necessaries of life and the providing of shelter, are public functions, and the commonwealth and the cities and towns therein may take and may provide the same for their inhabitants in such manner as the general court shall determine.

242 Mass. 508.

Art. XLVIII.

I. Definition.

Legislative power shall continue to be vested in the general court; but the people reserve to themselves the popular initiative, which is the power of a specified number of voters to submit constitutional amendments and laws to the people for approval or rejection; and the popular referendum, which is the power of a specified number of voters to submit laws, enacted by the general court, to the people for their ratification or rejection.

The Initiative.

II. Initiative Petitions.

Section 1. Contents. — An initiative petition shall set forth the full text of the constitutional amendment or law, hereinafter designated as the measure, which is proposed by the petition.

Section 2. Excluded Matters. — No measure that relates to religion, religious practices or religious institutions; or to the appointment, qualification, tenure, removal, recall or compensation of judges; or to the reversal of a judicial decision; or to the powers, creation or abolition of courts; or the operation of which is restricted to a particular town, city or other political division or to particular districts or localities of the commonwealth; or that makes a specific appropriation of money from the treasury of the commonwealth, shall be proposed by an initiative petition; but if a law approved by the people is not repealed, the general court shall raise by taxation or otherwise and shall appropriate such money as may be necessary to carry such law into effect.

Neither the eighteenth amendment of the constitution, as approved and ratified to take effect on the first day of October in the year nineteen hundred and eighteen, nor this provision for its protection, shall be the subject of an initiative amendment.

No proposition inconsistent with any one of the following rights of the individual, as at present declared in the declaration of rights, shall be the subject of an initiative or referendum petition: The right to receive compensation for private property appropriated to public use; the right of access to and protection in courts of justice; the right of trial by jury; protection from unreasonable search, unreasonable bail and the law martial; freedom of the press; freedom of speech; freedom of elections; and the right of peaceable assembly.

No part of the constitution specifically excluding any matter from the operation of the popular initiative and referendum shall be the subject of an initiative petition; nor shall this section be the subject of such a petition.
The limitations on the legislative power of the general court in the constitution shall extend to the legislative power of the people as exercised hereunder.

Section 3. Mode of Originating. — Such petition shall first be signed by ten qualified voters of the commonwealth and shall then be submitted to the attorney-general, and if he shall certify that the measure is in proper form for submission to the people, and that it is not, either affirmatively or negatively, substantially the same as any measure which has been qualified for submission or submitted to the people within three years of the succeeding first Wednesday in December and that it contains only subjects not excluded from the popular initiative and which are related or which are mutually dependent, it may then be filed with the secretary of the commonwealth. The secretary of the commonwealth shall provide blanks for the use of subsequent signers, and shall print at the top of each blank a description of the proposed measure as such description will appear on the ballot together with the names and residences of the first ten signers. All initiative petitions, with the first ten signatures attached, shall be filed with the secretary of the commonwealth not earlier than the first Wednesday of the September before the assembling of the general court into which they are to be introduced, and the remainder of the required signatures shall be filed not later than the first Wednesday of the following December.

Section 4. Transmission to the General Court. — If an initiative petition, signed by the required number of qualified voters, has been filed as aforesaid, the secretary of the commonwealth shall, upon the assembling of the general court, transmit it to the clerk of the house of representatives, and the proposed measure shall then be deemed to be introduced and pending.

Section 1. Reference to Committee. — If a measure is introduced into the general court by initiative petition, it shall be referred to a committee thereof, and the petitioners and all parties in interest shall be heard, and the measure shall be considered and reported upon to the general court with the committee's recommendations, and the reasons therefor, in writing. Majority and minority reports shall be signed by the members of said committee.

Section 2. Legislative Substitutes. — The general court may, by resolution passed by yea and nay vote, either by the two houses separately, or in the case of a constitutional amendment by a majority of those voting thereon in joint session in each of two years as hereinafter provided, submit to the people a substitute for any measure introduced by initiative petition, such substitute to be designated on the ballot as the legislative substitute for such an initiative measure and to be grouped with it as an alternative therefor.

IV. Legislative Action on Proposed Constitutional Amendments.

Section 1. Definition. — A proposal for amendment to the constitution introduced into the general court by initiative petition shall be designated an initiative amendment, and an amendment introduced by a member of either house shall be designated a legislative substitute or a legislative amendment.
SECTION 2. Joint Session.—If a proposal for a specific amendment of the constitution is introduced into the general court by initiative petition signed by not less than twenty-five thousand qualified voters, or if in case of a proposal for amendment introduced into the general court by a member of either house, consideration thereof in joint session is called for by vote of either house, such proposal shall, not later than the second Wednesday in June, be laid before a joint session of the two houses, at which the president of the senate shall preside; and if the two houses fail to agree upon a time for holding any joint session hereby required, or fail to continue the same from time to time until final action has been taken upon all amendments pending, the governor shall call such joint session or continuance thereof.

SECTION 3. Amendment of Proposed Amendments.—A proposal for an amendment to the constitution introduced by initiative petition shall be voted upon in the form in which it was introduced, unless such amendment is amended by vote of three-fourths of the members voting thereon in joint session, which vote shall be taken by call of the yeas and nays if called for by any member.

SECTION 4. Legislative Action.—Final legislative action in the joint session upon any amendment shall be taken only by call of the yeas and nays, which shall be entered upon the journals of the two houses; and an unfavorable vote at any stage preceding final action shall be verified by call of the yeas and nays, to be entered in like manner. At such joint session a legislative amendment receiving the affirmative votes of a majority of all the members elected, or an initiative amendment receiving the affirmative votes of not less than one-fourth of all the members elected, shall be referred to the next general court.

SECTION 5. Submission to the People.—If in the next general court a legislative amendment shall again be agreed to in joint session by a majority of all the members elected, or if an initiative amendment or a legislative substitute shall again receive the affirmative votes of at least one-fourth of all the members elected, such fact shall be certified by the clerk of such joint session to the secretary of the commonwealth, who shall submit the amendment to the people at the next state election. Such amendment shall become part of the constitution if approved, in the case of a legislative amendment, by a majority of the voters voting thereon, or if approved, in the case of an initiative amendment or a legislative substitute, by voters equal in number to at least thirty per cent of the total number of ballots cast at such state election and also by a majority of the voters voting on such amendment.

I. Legislative Action on Proposed Laws.

SECTION 1. Legislative Procedure.—If an initiative petition for a law is introduced into the general court, signed by not less than twenty thousand qualified voters, a vote shall be taken by yeas and nays in both houses before the first Wednesday of June upon the enactment of such law in the form in which it stands in such petition. If the general court fails to enact such law before the first Wednesday of June, and if such petition is completed by filing with the secretary of the commonwealth, not earlier than the first Wednesday of the following July nor later than the first Wednesday of the following August, not less than five thousand signatures of qualified voters, in addition to those signing such initiative petition, which signatures must have been obtained after the first Wednesday of June aforesaid, then the secretary of the commonwealth shall submit such proposed law to the people at the next state election. If it shall be approved by voters equal in number to at least thirty per cent of the total number of ballots cast at such state election and also by a majority of the voters voting on such law, it shall become law, and shall take effect in thirty days after such state election or at such time after such election as may be provided in such law.

Section 2. Amendment by Petitioners. — If the general court fails to pass a proposed law before the first Wednesday of June, a majority of the first ten signers of the initiative petition therefor shall have the right, subject to certification by the attorney-general filed as herein-after provided, to amend the measure which is the subject of such petition. An amendment so made shall not invalidate any signature attached to the petition. If the measure so amended, signed by a majority of the first ten signers, is filed with the secretary of the commonwealth before the first Wednesday of the following July, together with a certificate signed by the attorney-general to the effect that the amendment made by such proposers is in his opinion perfecting in its nature and does not materially change the substance of the measure, and if such petition is completed by filing with the secretary of the commonwealth, not earlier than the first Wednesday of the following July nor later than the first Wednesday of the following August, not less than five thousand signatures of qualified voters, in addition to those signing such initiative petition, which signatures must have been obtained after the first Wednesday of June aforesaid, then the secretary of the commonwealth shall submit the measure to the people in its amended form.

VI. Conflicting and Alternative Measures.

If in any judicial proceeding, provisions of constitutional amendments or of laws approved by the people at the same election are held to be in conflict, then the provisions contained in the measure that received the largest number of affirmative votes at such election shall govern. A constitutional amendment approved at any election shall govern any law approved at the same election.

The general court, by resolution passed as hereinbefore set forth, may provide for grouping and designating upon the ballot as conflicting measures or as alternative measures, only one of which is to be adopted, any two or more proposed constitutional amendments or laws which have been or may be passed or qualified for submission to the people at any one election: provided, that a proposed constitutional amendment and a proposed law shall not be so grouped, and that the ballot shall afford an opportunity to the voter to vote for each of the measures or for only one of the measures, as may be provided in said resolution, or against each of the measures so grouped as conflicting or as alternative. In case more than one of the measures so grouped shall receive the vote required for its approval as herein provided, only that one for which the largest affirmative vote was cast shall be deemed to be approved.
THE REFERENDUM.

I. When Statutes shall take Effect.

No law passed by the general court shall take effect earlier than ninety days after it has become a law, excepting laws declared to be emergency laws and laws which may not be made the subject of a referendum petition, as herein provided.

II. Emergency Measures.

A law declared to be an emergency law shall contain a preamble setting forth the facts constituting the emergency, and shall contain the statement that such law is necessary for the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, safety or convenience. [A separate vote shall be taken on the preamble by call of the yeas and nays, which shall be recorded, and unless the preamble is adopted by two-thirds of the members of each house voting thereon, the law shall not be an emergency law; but] if the governor, at any time before the election at which it is to be submitted to the people on referendum, files with the secretary of the commonwealth a statement declaring that in his opinion the immediate preservation of the public peace, health, safety or convenience requires that such law should take effect forthwith and that it is an emergency law and setting forth the facts constituting the emergency, then such law, if not previously suspended as hereinafter provided, shall take effect without suspension, or if such law has been so suspended such suspension shall thereupon terminate and such law shall thereupon take effect: but no grant of any franchise or amendment thereof, or renewal or extension thereof for more than one year shall be declared to be an emergency law.

III. Referendum Petitions.

SECTION 1. Contents.—A referendum petition may ask for a referendum to the people upon any law enacted by the general court which is not herein expressly excluded.

SECTION 2. Excluded Matters.—No law that relates to religion, religious practices or religious institutions; or to the appointment, qualification, tenure, removal or compensation of judges; or to the powers, creation or abolition of courts; or the operation of which is restricted to a particular town, city or other political division or to particular districts or localities of the commonwealth; or that appropriates money for the current or ordinary expenses of the commonwealth or for any of its departments, boards, commissions or institutions shall be the subject of a referendum petition.

SECTION 3. Mode of Petitioning for the Suspension of a Law and a Referendum thereon.—A petition asking for a referendum on a law, and requesting that the operation of such law be suspended, shall first be signed by ten qualified voters and shall then be filed with the secretary of the commonwealth not later than thirty days after the law that is the subject of the petition has become law. The secretary of the commonwealth shall provide blanks for the use of subsequent signers, and shall print at the top of each blank a description of the proposed law as such description will appear on the ballot together with the names and residences of the first ten signers. If such petition is completed by filing with the secretary of the commonwealth not later than ninety days after the law which is the subject of the petition has become law the signatures of not less than fifteen thousand qualified voters of the commonwealth, then the operation of such law shall be suspended, and the secretary of the commonwealth shall submit such law to the people at the next state election, if thirty days intervene between the date when such petition is filed with the secretary of the commonwealth and the date for holding such state election; if thirty days do not so intervene, then such law shall be submitted to the people at the next following state election, unless in the meantime it shall have been repealed; and if it shall be approved by a majority of the qualified voters voting thereon, such law shall, subject to the provisions of the constitution, take effect in thirty days after such election, or at such time after such election as may be provided in such law; if not so approved such law shall be null and void; but no such law shall be held to be disapproved if the negative vote is less than thirty per cent of the total number of ballots cast at such state election.

Section 4. Petitions for Referendum on an Emergency Law or a Law the Suspension of which is not asked for.—A referendum petition may ask for the repeal of an emergency law or of a law which takes effect because the referendum petition does not contain a request for suspension, as aforesaid. Such petition shall first be signed by ten qualified voters of the commonwealth, and shall then be filed with the secretary of the commonwealth not later than thirty days after the law which is the subject of the petition has become law. The secretary of the commonwealth shall provide blanks for the use of subsequent signers, and shall print at the top of each blank a description of the proposed law as such description will appear on the ballot together with the names and residences of the first ten signers. If such petition filed as aforesaid is completed by filing with the secretary of the commonwealth not later than ninety days after the law which is the subject of the petition has become law the signatures of not less than ten thousand qualified voters of the commonwealth protesting against such law and asking for a referendum thereon, then the secretary of the commonwealth shall submit such law to the people at the next state election, if thirty days intervene between the date when such petition is filed with the secretary of the commonwealth and the date for holding such state election. If thirty days do not so intervene, then it shall be submitted to the people at the next following state election, unless in the meantime it shall have been repealed; and if it shall not be approved by a majority of the qualified voters voting thereon, it shall, at the expiration of thirty days after such election, be thereby repealed; but no such law shall be held to be disapproved if the negative vote is less than thirty per cent of the total number of ballots cast at such state election.

General Provisions.

1. Identification and Certification of Signatures.

Provision shall be made by law for the proper identification and certification of signatures to the petitions hereinbefore referred to, and for penalties for signing any such petition, or refusing to sign it, for money or other valuable consideration, and for the forgery of signatures thereto. Pending the passage of such legislation all provisions of law relating to the identification and certification of signatures to petitions for the nomination of candidates for state offices or to penalties for the forgery of such signatures shall apply to the signatures to the petitions herein referred to. The general court may provide by law that no co-partnership or corporation shall undertake for hire or reward to circulate petitions, may require individuals who circulate petitions for hire or reward to be licensed, and may make other reasonable regulations to prevent abuses arising from the circulation of petitions for hire or reward.

II. Limitation on Signatures.

Not more than one-fourth of the certified signatures on any petition shall be those of registered voters of any one county.

III. Form of Ballot.

Each proposed amendment to the constitution, and each law submitted to the people, shall be described on the ballots by a description to be determined by the attorney-general, subject to such provision as may be made by law, and the secretary of the commonwealth shall give each question a number and cause such question, except as otherwise authorized herein, to be printed on the ballot in the following form:

In the case of an amendment to the constitution: Shall an amendment to the constitution (here insert description, and state, in distinctive type, whether approved or disapproved by the general court, and by what vote thereon) be approved? YES. NO.

In the case of a law: Shall a law (here insert description, and state, in distinctive type, whether approved or disapproved by the general court, and by what vote thereon) be approved? YES. NO.

IV. Information for Voters.

The secretary of the commonwealth shall cause to be printed and sent to each registered voter in the commonwealth the full text of every measure to be submitted to the people, together with a copy of the legislative committee's majority and minority reports, if there be such, with the names of the majority and minority members thereon, a statement of the votes of the general court on the measure, and a description of the measure as such description will appear on the ballot; and shall, in such manner as may be provided by law, cause to be prepared and sent to the voters other information and arguments for and against the measure.

V. The Veto Power of the Governor.

The veto power of the governor shall not extend to measures approved by the people.

VI. The General Court's Power of Repeal.

Subject to the veto power of the governor and to the right of referendum by petition as herein provided, the general court may amend or repeal a law approved by the people.
VII. Amendment declared to be Self-executing.

This article of amendment to the constitution is self-executing, but legislation not inconsistent with anything herein contained may be enacted to facilitate the operation of its provisions.

VIII. Articles IX and XLII of Amendments of the Constitution annulled.

Article IX and Article XLII of the amendments of the constitution are hereby annulled.

Amendments, Arts. IX and XLII relative to amending the constitution and referring acts or resolves to the people, annulled. 239 Mass. 349.

Art. XLIX. The conservation, development and utilization of the agricultural, mineral, forest, water and other natural resources of the commonwealth are public uses, and the general court shall have power to provide for the taking, upon payment of just compensation therefor, of lands and easements or interests therein, including water and mineral rights, for the purpose of securing and promoting the proper conservation, development, utilization and control thereof and to enact legislation necessary or expedient therefor.

Art. L. Advertising on public ways, in public places and on private property within public view may be regulated and restricted by law.

239 Mass. 349.

Art. LI. The preservation and maintenance of ancient landmarks and other property of historical or antiquarian interest is a public use, and the commonwealth and the cities and towns therein may, upon payment of just compensation, take such property or any interest therein under such regulations as the general court may prescribe.

Art. LII. The general court, by concurrent vote of the two houses, may take a recess or recesses amounting to not more than thirty days; but no such recess shall extend beyond the sixtieth day from the date of their first assembling.

Art. LIII. Article X of Section I of Chapter II of the constitution, the last two paragraphs of Article IV of the articles of amendment relating to the appointment of a commissary general and the removal of militia officers, and Article V of the articles of amendment are hereby annulled, and the following is adopted in place thereof: Article X. All military and naval officers shall be selected and appointed and may be removed in such manner as the general court may by law prescribe, but no such officer shall be appointed unless he shall have passed an examination prepared by a competent commission or shall have served one year in either the federal or state militia or in military service. All such officers who are entitled by law to receive commissions shall be commissioned by the governor.

Art. LIV. Article VII of Section I of Chapter II of the constitution is hereby annulled and the following is adopted in place thereof:

Article VII. The general court shall provide by law for the recruitment, equipment, organization, training and discipline of the military and naval forces. The governor shall be the commander-in-chief thereof, and shall have power to assemble the whole or any part of them for training, instruction or parade, and to employ them for the suppression of rebellion, the repelling of invasion, and the enforcement of the laws. He may, as authorized by the general court, prescribe from time to time the organization of the military and naval forces and make regulations for their government.

Art. LV. Article VI of Section III of Chapter II of the constitution is hereby annulled and the following is adopted in place thereof: Whenever the offices of governor and lieutenant-governor shall both be vacant, by reason of death, absence from the commonwealth, or otherwise, then one of the following officers, in the order of succession herein named, namely, the secretary, attorney-general, treasurer and receiver-general, and auditor, shall, during such vacancy, have full power and authority to do and execute all and every such acts, matters and things as the governor or the lieutenant-governor might or could lawfully do or execute, if they, or either of them, were personally present.

Art. LVI. The governor, within five days after any bill or resolve shall have been laid before him, shall have the right to return it to the branch of the general court in which it originated with a recommendation that any amendment or amendments specified by him be made therein. Such bill or resolve shall thereupon be before the general court and subject to amendment and re-enactment. If such bill or resolve is re-enacted in any form it shall again be laid before the governor for his action, but he shall have no right to return the same a second time with a recommendation to amend.

Art. LVII. Article IV of the articles of amendment of the constitution of the commonwealth is hereby amended by adding thereto the following words: — Women shall be eligible to appointment as notaries public. [Change of name shall render the commission void, but shall not prevent reappointment under the new name.]

See Amendments, Art. LXIX. § 2.

Art. LVIII. Article I of Chapter III of Part the Second of the constitution is hereby amended by the addition of the following words: — and provided also that the governor, with the consent of the council, may after due notice and hearing retire them because of advanced age or mental or physical disability. Such retirement shall be subject to any provisions made by law as to pensions or allowances payable to such officers upon their voluntary retirement.

Art. LIX. Every charter, franchise or act of incorporation shall forever remain subject to revocation and amendment.

239 Mass. 349, 356.

Art. LX. The general court shall have power to limit buildings according to their use or construction to specified districts of cities and towns.

Art. LXI. The general court shall have authority to provide for compulsory voting at elections, but the right of secret voting shall be preserved.

Art. LXII. Section 1. The credit of the commonwealth shall not in any manner be given or loaned to or in aid of any individual, or of any private association, or of any corporation which is privately owned and managed.

Section 2. The commonwealth may borrow money to repel invasion, suppress insurrection, defend the commonwealth, or to assist the United States in case of war, and may also borrow money in anticipation of receipts from taxes or other sources, such loan to be paid out of the revenue of the year in which it is created.

SECTION 3. In addition to the loans which may be contracted as before provided, the commonwealth may borrow money only by a vote, taken by the yeas and nays, of two-thirds of each house of the general court present and voting thereon. The governor shall recommend to the general court the term for which any loan shall be contracted.

SECTION 4. Borrowed money shall not be expended for any other purpose than that for which it was borrowed or for the reduction or discharge of the principal of the loan.

ART. LXIII. Section 1. Collection of Revenue. — All money received on account of the commonwealth from any source whatsoever shall be paid into the treasury thereof.

SECTION 2. The Budget. — Within three weeks after the convening of the general court the governor shall recommend to the general court a budget which shall contain a statement of all proposed expenditures of the commonwealth for the fiscal year, including those already authorized by law, and of all taxes, revenues, loans and other means by which such expenditures shall be defrayed. This shall be arranged in such form as the general court may by law prescribe, or, in default thereof, as the governor shall determine. For the purpose of preparing his budget, the governor shall have power to require any board, commission, officer or department to furnish him with any information which he may deem necessary.

SECTION 3. The General Appropriation Bill. — All appropriations based upon the budget to be paid from taxes or revenues shall be incorporated in a single bill which shall be called the general appropriation bill. The general court may increase, decrease, add or omit items in the budget. The general court may provide for its salaries, mileage, and expenses and for necessary expenditures in anticipation of appropriations, but before final action on the general appropriation bill it shall not enact any other appropriation bill except on recommendation of the governor. The governor may at any time recommend to the general court supplementary budgets which shall be subject to the same procedure as the original budget.

SECTION 4. Special Appropriation Bills. — After final action on the general appropriation bill or on recommendation of the governor, special appropriation bills may be enacted. Such bills shall provide the specific means for defraying the appropriations therein contained.

SECTION 5. Submission to the Governor. — The governor may disapprove or reduce items or parts of items in any bill appropriating money. So much of such bill as he approves shall upon his signing the same become law. As to each item disapproved or reduced, he shall transmit to the house in which the bill originated his reason for such disapproval or reduction, and the procedure shall then be the same as in the case of a bill disapproved as a whole. In case he shall fail so to transmit his reasons for such disapproval or reduction within five days after the bill shall have been presented to him, such items shall have the force of law unless the general court by adjournment shall prevent such transmission, in which case they shall not be law.

ART. LXIV. SECTION 1. The governor, lieutenant-governor, councilors, secretary, treasurer and receiver-general, attorney-general, auditor, senators and representatives, shall be elected biennially. The governor, lieutenant-governor and councilors shall hold their respective offices from the first Wednesday in January succeeding their election to and including the first Wednesday in January in the third year following their election and until their successors are chosen and qualified. The terms of senators and representatives shall begin with the first Wednesday in January succeeding their election and shall extend to the first Wednesday in January in the third year following their election and until their successors are chosen and qualified. The terms of the secretary, treasurer and receiver-general, attorney-general and auditor, shall begin with the third Wednesday in January succeeding their election and shall extend to the third Wednesday in January in the third year following their election and until their successors are chosen and qualified.

SECTION 2. No person shall be eligible to election to the office of treasurer and receiver-general for more than three successive terms.

SECTION 3. The general court shall assemble every year on the first Wednesday in January.

ART. LXV. No person elected to the general court shall during the term for which he was elected be appointed to any office created or the emoluments whereof are increased during such term, nor receive additional salary or compensation for service upon any recess committee or commission except a committee appointed to examine a general revision of the statutes of the commonwealth when submitted to the general court for adoption.

ART. LXVI. On or before January first, nineteen hundred twenty-one, the executive and administrative work of the commonwealth shall be organized in not more than twenty departments, in one of which every executive and administrative office, board and commission, except those officers serving directly under the governor or the council, shall be placed. Such departments shall be under such supervision and regulation as the general court may from time to time prescribe by law.

ART. LXVII. Article XLVIII of the Amendments to the Constitution is hereby amended by striking out, in that part entitled “II. Emergency Measures”, under the heading “The Referendum”, the words “A separate vote shall be taken on the preamble by call of the yeas and nays, which shall be recorded, and unless the preamble is adopted by two-thirds of the members of each House voting thereon, the law shall not be an emergency law; but” and substituting the following: — A separate vote, which shall be recorded, shall be taken on the preamble, and unless the preamble is adopted by two-thirds of the members of each House voting thereon, the law shall not be an emergency law. Upon the request of two members of the Senate or of five members of the House of Representatives, the vote on the preamble in such branch shall be taken by call of the yeas and nays. But

Art. LXVIII. Article III of the amendments to the constitution, as amended, is hereby further amended by striking out, in the first line, the word "male".

Amendments, Art. III, relative to qualifications of voters, amended to conform to Art. XIX of Amendments to U.S. Const.

Art. LXIX. Section 1. No person shall be deemed to be ineligible to hold state, county or municipal office by reason of sex.

Section 2. Article IV of the articles of amendment of the constitution of the commonwealth, as amended by Article LVII of said amendments, is hereby further amended by striking out the words "Change of name shall render the commission void, but shall not prevent reappointment under the new name", and inserting in place thereof the following words: — Upon the change of name of any woman, she shall re-register under her new name and shall pay such fee therefor as shall be established by the general court.

Art. LXX. Article II of the articles of amendment to the constitution of the commonwealth is hereby amended by adding at the end thereof the following new paragraph: — Nothing in this article shall prevent the general court from establishing in any corporate town or towns in this commonwealth containing more than six thousand inhabitants a form of town government providing for a town meeting limited to such inhabitants of the town as may be elected to meet, deliberate, act and vote in the exercise of the corporate powers of the town subject to such restrictions and regulations as the general court may prescribe; provided, that such establishment be with the consent, and on the application of a majority of the inhabitants of such town, present and voting thereon, pursuant to a vote at a meeting duly warned and holden for that purpose.

Art. LXXI. Article X XI of the articles of amendment is hereby annulled and the following is adopted in place thereof:

Article X XI. In the year nineteen hundred and thirty-five and every tenth year thereafter a census of the inhabitants of each city and town shall be taken and a special enumeration shall be made of the legal voters therein. Said special enumeration shall also specify the number of legal voters residing in each precinct of each town containing twelve thousand or more inhabitants according to said census and in each ward of each city. Each special enumeration shall be the basis for determining the representative districts for the ten year period beginning with the first Wednesday in the fourth January following said special enumeration; provided, that such districts as established in the year nineteen hundred and twenty-six shall continue in effect until the first Wednesday in January in the year nineteen hundred and thirty-nine.

The house of representatives shall consist of two hundred and forty members, which shall be apportioned by the general court, at its first regular session after the return of each special enumeration, to the several counties of the commonwealth, equally, as nearly as may be, according to their relative numbers of legal voters, as ascertained by said special enumeration; and the town of Cohasset, in the county of Norfolk, shall, for this purpose, as well as in the formation of districts as hereinafter provided, be considered a part of the county of Plymouth; and it shall be the duty of the secretary of the commonwealth to certify, as soon as may be after it is determined by the general court, the number of representatives to which each county shall be entitled, to the board authorized to divide such county into representative districts. The county commissioners or other body acting as such or, in lieu thereof, such board of special commissioners in each county as may for that purpose be provided by law, shall, within thirty days after such certification by the secretary of the commonwealth or within such other period as the general court may by law provide, assemble at a shire town of their respective counties, and proceed, as soon as may be, to divide the same into representative districts of contiguous territory and assign representatives thereto, so that each representative in such county will represent an equal number of legal voters, as nearly as may be; and such districts shall be so formed that no town containing less than twelve thousand inhabitants according to said census, no precinct of any other town and no ward of a city shall be divided therefor, nor shall any district be made which shall be entitled to elect more than three representatives. The general court may by law limit the time within which judicial proceedings may be instituted calling in question any such apportionment, division or assignment. Every representative, for one year at least immediately preceding his election, shall have been an inhabitant of the district for which he is chosen and shall cease to represent such district when he shall cease to be an inhabitant of the commonwealth. The districts in each county shall be numbered by the board creating the same, and a description of each, with the numbers thereof and the number of legal voters therein, shall be returned by the board, to the secretary of the commonwealth, the county treasurer of such county, and to the clerk of every city or town in such county, to be filed and kept in their respective offices. The manner of calling and conducting the elections for the choice of representatives, and of ascertaining their election, shall be prescribed by law.

Article XXII of the articles of amendment is hereby annulled and the following is adopted in place thereof:

Article XVII. Each special enumeration of legal voters required in the preceding article of amendment shall likewise be the basis for determining the senatorial districts and also the councillor districts for the ten year period beginning with the first Wednesday in the fourth January following such enumeration; provided, that such districts as established in the year nineteen hundred and twenty-six shall continue in effect until the first Wednesday in January in the year nineteen hundred and thirty-nine. The senate shall consist of forty members. The general court shall, at its first regular session after the return of each special enumeration, divide the commonwealth into forty districts of contiguous territory, each district to contain, as nearly as may be, an equal number of legal voters, according to said special enumeration; provided, however, that no town or ward of a city shall be divided therefor; and such districts shall be formed, as nearly as may be, without uniting two counties, or parts of two or more counties, into one district. The general court may by law limit the time within which judicial proceedings may be instituted calling in question such division. Each district shall elect one senator, who shall have been an inhabitant of this commonwealth five years at least immediately preceding his election, and at the time of his election.
shall be an inhabitant of the district for which he is chosen; and he shall cease to represent such senatorial district when he shall cease to be an inhabitant of the commonwealth.

The constitution of Massachusetts was agreed upon by delegates of the people, in convention, begun and held at Cambridge, on the first day of September, 1779, and continued by adjournments to the second day of March, 1780, when the convention adjourned to meet on the first Wednesday of the ensuing June. In the mean time the constitution was submitted to the people, to be adopted by them, provided two-thirds of the votes given should be in the affirmative. When the convention assembled, it was found that the constitution had been adopted by the requisite number of votes, and the constitution accordingly Resolved, "That the said Constitution or Frame of Government, shall take place on the last Wednesday of October next; and not before, for any purpose, save only for that of making elections, agreeable to this resolution." The first legislature assembled at Boston, on October 25, 1780.

The first nine Articles of Amendment were submitted, by delegates in convention assembled, November 15, 1820, to the people, and by them ratified and adopted April 9, 1821. The fifth Article was annulled by the fifty-third Article, and the ninth Article by the forty-eighth Article.

The tenth Article was adopted by the legislatures of the political years 1829–30 and 1830–31, and was approved and ratified by the people May 11, 1831.

The eleventh Article was adopted by the legislatures of the political years 1832 and 1833, and was approved and ratified by the people November 11, 1833.

The twelfth Article was adopted by the legislatures of the political years 1835 and 1836, and was approved and ratified by the people November 14, 1836.

The thirteenth Article was adopted by the legislatures of the political years 1839 and 1840, and was approved and ratified by the people April 6, 1840.

The general court of the year 1851 passed an act calling a third convention to revise the constitution. The Act was submitted to the people, and a majority voted against the proposed convention. On May 7, 1852, another act was passed calling upon the people to vote upon the question of calling a constitutional convention. A majority of the people having voted in favor of the proposed convention, election for delegates thereto took place in March, 1853. The convention met in the State House, in Boston, on May 4, 1853, and organized by choosing Nathaniel P. Banks, Jr., president, and William S.
Robinson and James T. Robinson, secretaries. On the 1st of August, this convention agreed to a form of constitution, and on the same day was dissolved, after having provided for submitting the same to the people, and appointed a committee to meet to count the votes, and to make a return thereof to the general court. The committee met at the time and place agreed upon, and found that the proposed constitution had been rejected.

The fourteenth, fifteenth, sixteenth, seventeenth, eighteenth and nineteenth Articles were adopted by the legislatures of the political years 1854 and 1855, and approved and ratified by the people May 23, 1855.

The twentieth, twenty-first and twenty-second Articles were adopted by the legislatures of the political years 1856 and 1857, and approved and ratified by the people on May 1, 1857. The twenty-first and twenty-second Articles were annulled by the seventy-first Article.

The twenty-third Article was adopted by the legislatures of the political years 1858 and 1859, and approved and ratified by the people May 9, 1859, and was annulled by the twenty-sixth Article.

The twenty-fourth and twenty-fifth Articles were adopted by the legislatures of the political years 1859 and 1860, and approved and ratified by the people May 7, 1860.

The twenty-sixth Article was adopted by the legislatures of the political years 1862 and 1863, and approved and ratified by the people April 6, 1863.
The twenty-seventh Article was adopted by the legislatures of the political years 1876 and 1877, and was approved and ratified by the people November 6, 1877.

The twenty-eighth Article was adopted by the legislatures of the political years 1880 and 1881, and was approved and ratified by the people November 8, 1881.

The twenty-ninth Article was adopted by the legislatures of the political years 1884 and 1885, and was approved and ratified by the people November 3, 1885.

The thirtieth and thirty-first Articles were adopted by the legislatures of the political years 1889 and 1890, and were approved and ratified by the people November 4, 1890.

The thirty-second and thirty-third Articles were adopted by the legislatures of the political years 1890 and 1891, and were approved and ratified by the people November 3, 1891.

The thirty-fourth Article was adopted by the legislatures of the political years 1891 and 1892, and was approved and ratified by the people November 8, 1892.

The thirty-fifth Article was adopted by the legislatures of the political years 1892 and 1893, and was approved and ratified by the people November 7, 1893.

The thirty-sixth Article was adopted by the legislatures of the political years 1893 and 1894, and was approved and ratified by the people November 6, 1894.

The thirty-seventh Article was adopted by the legislatures of the political years 1906 and 1907, and was approved and ratified by the people November 5, 1907.

The thirty-eighth Article was adopted by the legislatures of the political years 1909 and 1910, and was approved and ratified by the people November 7, 1911.

The thirty-ninth Article was adopted by the legislatures of the political years 1910 and 1911, and was approved and ratified by the people November 7, 1911.

The fortieth and forty-first Articles were adopted by the legislatures of the political years 1911 and 1912, and were approved and ratified by the people November 5, 1912.

The forty-second Article was adopted by the legislatures of the political years 1912 and 1913, and approved and ratified by the people November 4, 1913, and was annulled by the forty-eighth Article.

The forty-third and forty-fourth Articles were adopted by the legislatures of the political years 1914 and 1915, and were approved and ratified by the people November 2, 1915.

In his inaugural address to the general court of 1916, Governor McCall recommended that the question of revising the constitution, through a constitutional convention, be submitted to the people; and the general court passed a law (chapter 98 of the General Acts of 1916) to ascertain and carry out the will of the people relative thereto, the question to be submitted being "Shall there be a convention to revise, alter or amend the constitution of the commonwealth?" The people voted on this question at the annual election, held on November 7, casting 217,293 votes in the affirmative and 120,079 votes in the negative; and accordingly the governor on December 19, 1916, made proclamation to that effect, and, by virtue of authority contained in the act, called upon the people to elect delegates at a special election to be held on the first Tuesday in May, 1917. The election was on May 1. In accordance with the provisions of the act, the delegates met at the State House on June 6, 1917, and organized by choosing John L. Bates, president, and James W. Kimball, secretary. After considering and acting adversely on numerous measures that had been brought before it, and after providing for submitting to the people the forty-fifth, forty-sixth and forty-seventh Articles, at the state election of 1917, and the Article relative to the establishment of the popular initiative and referendum and the legislative initiative of specific amendments of the constitution (Article forty-eighth) at the state election of 1918, the convention adjourned on Wednesday, November 28, 1917, "until called by the president or secretary to meet not later than within ten days after the prorogation of the general court of 1918."
The forty-fifth, forty-sixth and forty-seventh Articles were submitted, by delegates in convention assembled, September 28, 1917, August 30, 1917, and October 11, 1917, respectively, to the people, and by them ratified and adopted November 6, 1917.

On Wednesday, June 12, 1918, the convention reassembled and resumed its work. Eighteen more articles (Articles forty-nine to sixty-six inclusive) were approved by the convention and were ordered to be submitted to the people. On Wednesday, August 21, 1918, the convention adjourned, "to meet, subject to call by the president or secretary, not later than within twenty days after the prorogation of the general court of 1919, for the purpose of taking action on the report of the special committee on rearrangement of the constitution."

The forty-eighth Article was submitted, by delegates in convention assembled, November 28, 1917, the forty-ninth Article, August 7, 1918, the fiftieth to the sixtieth Articles, inclusive, August 15, 1918, the sixty-first to the sixty-fourth Articles, inclusive, August 20, 1918, and the sixty-fifth and sixty-sixth Articles, August 21, 1918, to the people, and by them ratified and adopted November 5, 1918.

On Tuesday August 12, 1919, pursuant to a call of its president, the convention again convened. A rearrangement of the constitution was adopted, and was ordered to be submitted to the people for their ratification. On the following day, a sub-committee of the special committee on rearrangement of the constitution was "empowered to correct clerical and typographical errors and establish the text of the rearrangement of the constitution to be submitted to the people, in conformity with that adopted by the convention."

On Wednesday, August 13, 1919, the convention adjourned, sine die.

On Tuesday, November 4, 1919, the rearrangement was approved and ratified by the people.

(As to the effect of this action, see Opinion of the Justices, 233 Mass. 603, and Loring v. Young, 239 Mass. 349.)

The sixty-seventh Article was adopted by the legislatures of the political years 1920 and 1921, and was approved and ratified by the people on the seventh day of November, 1922.

The sixty-eighth and sixty-ninth Articles were adopted by the legislatures of the political years 1921 and 1923, and were approved and ratified by the people on the fourth day of November, 1924.

The seventieth Article was adopted by the legislatures of the political years 1924 and 1925, and was approved and ratified by the people on the second day of November, 1926.

The seventy-first Article was adopted by the legislatures of the political years 1928 and 1930, and was approved and ratified by the people on the fourth day of November, 1930.
NOTE.

Tables showing how the statutes of general application effective at the time of the taking effect of the General Laws on January 1, 1921, were disposed of in said General Laws may be found in the first volume of the General Laws (edition of 1920) on pages immediately following the original constitution of Massachusetts, and a table of changes showing the amendments of and additions to the said General Laws during the years 1921 to 1931, inclusive, appears in the volume containing the laws and resolves of the year 1931.

GENERAL LAWS

MASSACHUSETTS

[Tercentenary Edition]
The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

IN THE YEAR ONE THOUSAND NINE HUNDRED AND TWENTY

AN ACT

CONSOLIDATING AND ARRANGING

GENERAL STATUTES

COMMONWEALTH

Whereas, The deferred operation of this act would be inconsistent with its intent and purpose to consolidate and revise the general laws as of the thirty-first day of December, accordingly it should take effect before any general legislation enacted in the year nineteen hundred and twenty-one, and it is therefore declared to be an emergency law, necessary for the immediate preservation of the public convenience.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same:
PART I.
ADMINISTRATION OF THE GOVERNMENT.

TITLE I.
JURISDICTION AND EMBLEMS OF THE COMMONWEALTH,
THE GENERAL COURT, STATUTES AND PUBLIC DOCUMENTS.

Chapter 1. Jurisdiction of the Commonwealth and of the United States.
Chapter 2. Arms, Great Seal and Other Emblems of the Commonwealth.
Chapter 3. The General Court.
Chapter 4. Statutes.

CHAPTER 1.

JURISDICTION OF THE COMMONWEALTH AND OF THE UNITED STATES.

SECTION 1. All persons who are citizens of the United States and who are domiciled in this commonwealth are citizens thereof.

SECTION 2. The sovereignty and jurisdiction of the commonwealth shall extend to all places within its boundaries subject to the concurrent jurisdiction granted over places ceded to or acquired by the United States.

SECTION 3. The territorial limits of the commonwealth shall extend one marine league from its seashore at extreme low water mark. If an inlet or arm of the sea does not exceed two marine leagues in width between its headlands, a straight line from one headland to the other shall be equivalent to the shore line.

SECTION 4. The department of public works, in this chapter called the department, shall in the year nineteen hundred and thirty-five and in every fifth year thereafter inspect all monuments or other marks defining the location of the boundary lines of the commonwealth, and if any of them have been injured, displaced, removed or lost the department shall, in co-operation with persons duly authorized by the adjoining state, restore them or replace them with suitable stone monuments, and in the same manner set suitable stone monuments at points not properly marked where the state boundary is intersected by the boundary of any counties, cities or towns in the commonwealth or by a highway or railroad. If officers of adjoining states are required to make such inspection at other times, the department may co-operate with them.

SECTION 5. No person shall wilfully or maliciously disturb or injure, or, except as herein provided, remove, obliterate, deface or cover up any monument or mark designating the boundary line of the commonwealth. Any person desirous of removing and replacing any such monument or mark may apply in writing to the department, who may grant permission therefor under its supervision, first making provision for preserving the exact location of the original boundary or mark, and also giving notice to the adjoining state of the time and place at which proposed action is to be taken. The monument shall be reset in the identical location from which it was removed, or at a convenient distance thereof from the boundary line. A full description of any change in such monument or mark shall be recorded in the offices of the clerks of the contiguous towns, and a copy thereof shall be forwarded to the state secretary. Violation of this section shall be punished by a fine of not more than fifty dollars or by imprisonment for not more than six months.

SECTION 6. The department, with the approval of the governor and council, may, upon the application of an agent of the United States, in the name and behalf of the commonwealth, convey to the United States the title of the commonwealth to any tract of land covered by navigable waters and necessary for the purpose of erecting a lighthouse, beacon light, range light or other aid to navigation, or light keeper’s dwelling; but such title shall revert to the commonwealth if such land ceases to be used for such purpose.

SECTION 7. The United States shall have jurisdiction over any tract of land within the commonwealth acquired by it in fee for the following purposes: for the use of the United States bureau of fisheries, or for the erection of a marine hospital, custom office, post office, life-saving station, lighthouse, beacon light, range light, light keeper’s dwelling or signal for navigators; provided, that a suitable plan of such tract has been or shall be filed in the office of the state secretary within one year after such acquisition of title thereto. But the commonwealth shall retain concurrent jurisdiction with the United States in and over any such tract of land to the extent that all civil and criminal processes issuing under authority of the commonwealth may be executed thereon as if there had been no cession of jurisdiction, and exclusive jurisdiction over any such tract shall re vest in the commonwealth if such tract ceases to be used by the United States for such public purpose.
Section 8. In connection with their official duties persons employed 1 by the United States geological survey or coast survey, or by the de- 2 partment, may enter upon land and erect works, stations, buildings and 3 appurtenances; provided, that, in case of such entry or erection by 4 persons employed by the United States, it shall make adequate pro- 5 vision by law for compensation for any taking of property thereby.

Section 9. In case of entry by persons employed by the common- 1 wealth, it shall pay all damages thereby caused. In case of entry, not 2 constituting a taking, by persons employed by the United States, such 3 persons shall pay all such damages. If the parties interested cannot 4 agree upon the amount to be paid for damages under the preceding 5 section, such damages shall be determined and recovered under chapter 6 seventy-nine.

Section 10. Whoever wilfully injures, defaces or removes a signal, 1 monument, building or appurtenance erected, used or constructed under 2 the authority of the United States shall be punished by a fine of fifty 3 dollars, and be liable in tort to the United States for all damages so 4 sustained.

CHAPTER 2.

ARMS, GREAT SEAL AND OTHER EMBLEMS OF THE COMMONWEALTH.

Sect. 1. Arms of the commonwealth.
2. Official representation.
3. Great seal of the commonwealth.
4. Existing seal to be official.
5. Design for the flag of the common- 6 wealth.

Sect. 6. Display of the flags of the United States and of the commonwealth.
7. Flower of the commonwealth. Injury or destruction, when penalized.

Section 1. The arms of the commonwealth shall consist of a shield 1 having a blue field or surface with an Indian thercen, dressed in a 2 shirt and moccasins, holding in his right hand a bow, and in his left 3 hand an arrow, point downward, all of gold; and, in the upper corner 4 of the field, above his right arm, a silver star with five points. The 5 crest shall be a wreath of blue and gold, wherein, in gold, shall be a 6 right arm, bent at the elbow, clothed and ruffled, with the hand grasp- 7 ing a broadsword. The motto shall be "Ense petit placidam sub 8 libertate quietem."

Section 2. The coat-of-arms as drawn and emblazoned under 1 the direction of the state secretary in the year eighteen hundred and 2 ninety-eight and deposited in his office shall be the official represent- 3 ation of the arms of the commonwealth of Massachusetts, and all 4 designs of said coat-of-arms for official use shall conform strictly to 5 said representation.
SECTION 3. The great seal of the commonwealth shall be circular in form, bearing upon its face a representation of the arms of the commonwealth encircled with the inscription, "Sigillum Reipublicæ Massachusettensis." The colors of the arms shall not be an essential part of said seal, and an impression from a seal engraved according to said design, on any commission, paper or document shall be valid without such colors or the representation thereof by heraldic lines or marks.

SECTION 4. The seal of the commonwealth now in use in the office of the state secretary shall be the authorized seal so long as its use may be continued.

SECTION 5. The flag of the commonwealth shall bear on one side a representation of the arms of the commonwealth, as prescribed by sections one and two, upon a white field, and on the other side a blue shield bearing a representation of a green pine tree, upon a white field.

SECTION 6. The flag of the United States and the flag of the commonwealth shall be displayed on the main or administration building of each public institution of the commonwealth. The flags shall be of suitable dimensions and shall be flown every day when the weather permits.

SECTION 7. The mayflower (epigaea repens) shall be the flower or floral emblem of the commonwealth. Any person who pulls up or digs up the plant of the mayflower or any part thereof, or injures such plant or any part thereof except in so far as is reasonably necessary in procuring the flower therefrom, within the limits of any state highway or any other public way or place, or upon the land of another person without written authority from him, shall be punished by a fine of not more than fifty dollars; but if a person does any of the aforesaid acts while in disguise or secretly in the night time he shall be punished by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars.

Section 3. On said first Wednesday of January, between the hours of ten in the forenoon and twelve at noon, the persons so returned and admitted as members into the representatives' chamber shall be called to order by the oldest senior member present, who shall be the presiding officer of the house until a speaker is chosen or the house otherwise determines.

Section 4. A person having a certificate or other documentary evidence of his election as a representative who is not named on said lists may, after the house has been called to order, present such certificate or evidence to the presiding officer, or to the speaker if one has been chosen, who shall communicate the same to the house for its action thereon; but such person shall not take a seat as a member until permitted by the house.

Section 5. Whoever intends to present to the general court a petition for the incorporation of a city or town, for the annexation of one municipality to another, for the consolidation of two or more municipalities or for the division of an existing municipality, or for the incorporation or revival of a railroad, street railway, elevated railroad, canal, telephone, telegraph, water, gas, electric light, power or other public service corporation, for the amendment, alteration or extension of the charter or corporate powers or privileges, or for the change of name, of any such company, whether specially incorporated or organized under general laws, or for authority to take water for a water supply, or relative to building structures over navigable or tide waters, shall give notice of such petition by publishing a copy thereof once in each of three successive weeks in such newspapers as the state secretary, having regard to the locality of the interests involved in such petition, shall direct, the last publication to be made at least twenty-four days before the session at which the petition is to be presented. Such petition with a bill embodying in substance the legislation petitioned for shall be deposited on or before the third Saturday of December in the office of the state secretary, with proof of publication satisfactory to him, and he shall file said petition and bill forthwith with the clerk of the house of representatives, with his endorsement that the required publication has been made.

Every petition seeking as aforesaid the incorporation or revival or change of name of a public service corporation and every petition by or on behalf of such a corporation seeking as aforesaid legislation otherwise amending, altering or extending the charter or corporate powers or privileges of such a corporation shall be accompanied by a fee of twenty-five dollars which shall be paid to the commonwealth.

Section 6. Whoever intends to present to the general court a petition for the incorporation of a college, university or other educational institution with power to grant degrees, or for an amendment to the charter of any existing educational institution which will give it such power, shall on or before November first prior to its intended presentation deposit the same in the office of the department of education. The petitioners shall give notice of the petition by publishing a copy thereof once in each of three successive weeks in such newspapers as the commissioner of education may designate, the last publication to be made 10 at least twenty-four days before the session of the general court at which 11 the petition is to be presented; and the petitioners shall, on or before 12 the third Saturday of December, file with the said commissioner satis-
13 factory evidence that a copy of the petition has so been published, 14 together with a bill embodying in substance the legislation petitioned 15 for. Said commissioner shall file said petition and bill forthwith with 16 the clerk of the house of representatives, together with his recommenda-17 tions relative thereto.

1 Section 7. Whoever intends to present to the general court a 2 petition for the establishment or revival, or for the amendment, altera-
3 tion or extension of the charter or corporate powers or privileges, or for 4 the change of name, of any corporation, except a petition subject to the 5 provisions of section five or six, shall, on or before November first prior 6 to its intended presentation, deposit the same, together with a bill em-7 bodying in substance the legislation petitioned for, in the office of the 8 commissioner of corporations and taxation. The petition shall spec-9 ifically set forth the facts showing why the object sought cannot be 10 accomplished under the general laws, and if such a petition relates to a 11 corporation organized or to be organized for purposes of business or 12 profit, shall be accompanied by a fee of twenty-five dollars, which shall 13 be paid to the commonwealth. Said commissioner shall examine every 14 petition filed as aforesaid, and shall attach thereto a certificate or memo-15 randum stating whether or not, in his opinion, the object sought may be 16 accomplished under the general laws or whether the same requires 17 legislation. He may also insert in said memorandum any other rele-18 vant statement which, in his opinion, might be of assistance to the 19 general court in passing on the petition, and shall file the petition and 20 bill with the clerk of the house of representatives not later than the third 21 Saturday of December.

1 Section 8. Any petition to the general court, with the accompanying 2 bill, of any town for authority to borrow money outside the statutory 3 limit of indebtedness shall be transmitted by the committee of the general 4 court to which the same may be referred to the director of accounts for 5 information as to the financial condition of the town, and he shall as 6 soon as possible make a report thereon to said committee.

1 Section 9. Each member of the general court shall receive two thou-2 sand dollars for each regular annual session of the term for which he is 3 elected, and four dollars and twenty cents for every mile of ordinary 4 traveling distance from his place of abode to the place of sitting of the 5 general court. The president of the senate and the speaker of the house
6 of representatives shall each receive two thousand dollars additional 7 compensation.

1 Section 10. Each member of the general court chosen to fill a va-
2 cancy, or who resigns his seat during a regular annual session, shall be 3 entitled to a per diem compensation for the time of his membership at 4 the rate of two thousand dollars for each regular annual session, and 5 his mileage as provided in the preceding section.

1919, 273.
1872, 329, § 1.
1879, 78, § 11.
1931, 426, § 125.
Section 11. Each member of the general court shall be entitled to be paid two hundred dollars on account on the day preceding the last legislative day of each month; but such monthly payments in any year shall not exceed in the aggregate the compensation of the member for the annual session; and each member shall, on the last legislative day in which the general court is in session preceding the fifteenth day of each month, be entitled to receive an amount not exceeding the proportion then due at the rate of two hundred dollars monthly.

Section 12. The clerk of the senate and the clerk of the house of representatives shall each receive a salary of three thousand dollars, and each shall hold office until his successor is qualified.

Section 13. The clerks of the senate and house of representatives, subject to the approval of the senate and house, respectively, may each appoint an assistant clerk at a salary of two thousand dollars who, in the absence of the clerk, shall perform his duties unless a temporary clerk is chosen. Each clerk may remove the assistant clerk appointed by him. The clerk of the senate may also employ necessary clerical assistance at an annual expense of not more than fifteen hundred dollars, and the clerk of the house of representatives may also employ necessary clerical assistance at an annual expense of not more than forty-five hundred dollars.

Section 14. The chaplains of the senate and house shall each receive a salary of seven hundred and fifty dollars.

Section 15. The general court shall annually in January choose a sergeant-at-arms at a salary of four thousand dollars who shall hold office until removed or until another is chosen. He may be removed by the general court or, during its recess, may be suspended by the governor and council. If a vacancy or suspension occurs during such recess, the governor and council may appoint a person to perform the duties of the office until a new election.

Section 16. In case of the disability or necessary absence of the sergeant-at-arms, he may appoint, with the approval of the presiding officers of the two branches of the general court or, during its recess, of the governor, an assistant sergeant-at-arms to perform his duties during such disability or absence. His compensation shall be paid by the sergeant-at-arms, who shall be responsible for his fidelity and good conduct in office; but for misconduct or other sufficient cause he may be removed by the general court or, during its recess, by the governor and council.
Section 17. The sergeant-at-arms shall serve such processes and execute such orders as may be enjoined upon him by the general court or by either branch thereof, attend the members or clerks of either branch when they are charged with a message from one branch to the other or to the governor and council, maintain order among the spectators admitted into the chambers in which the respective branches hold their sessions, prevent the interruption of either branch or of the committees thereof, and shall have the control of, and superintendence over, his subordinate officers, taking care that they promptly perform their duties. In respect to any criminal offence committed in any part of the state house assigned to or used by either branch of the general court or any committee or officer thereof, or to any such offence committed against any member of the general court, including any member of a special commission composed in part of members of the general court, while acting within the commonwealth in his official capacity as such member, whether such offence is committed within the state house elsewhere than as aforesaid, or upon premises outside the state house while officially used by a committee of the general court or by such a special commission, the sergeant-at-arms, the doorkeepers and assistant doorkeepers of either branch thereof, and its general court officers shall have and exercise all the powers of police officers, and in respect to the service within the commonwealth of such processes and orders as may be enjoined upon them by the general court or either branch or by any committee of the general court or either branch, they shall have the powers of constables.

Section 18. There shall be a doorkeeper for each branch, each at a salary of twenty-seven hundred and fifty dollars, and such assistant doorkeepers as it may direct, each at a salary of twenty-two hundred and forty dollars; a postmaster at a salary of twenty-five hundred dollars; an assistant postmaster at a salary of fifteen hundred dollars; a porter in the lobby of the house of representatives at a salary of sixteen hundred and fifty dollars; general court officers, each at a salary of two thousand dollars; pages whose compensation shall be seven hundred dollars each for the regular annual session and a sum not exceeding three dollars for each day's service after such session; a clerk to take charge of the legislative document room at a salary of twenty-seven hundred and fifty dollars, an assistant clerk of said room at a salary of twenty-one hundred dollars, and such assistants therein as may be necessary, for whose fitness and good conduct the sergeant-at-arms shall be responsible.

Section 19. The number of doorkeepers, assistant doorkeepers, general court officers and pages of the senate and of the house shall not exceed forty-one in all.

Section 20. The sergeant-at-arms, doorkeepers, assistant doorkeepers, general court officers and pages, the postmaster and assistant postmaster, the clerks in the sergeant-at-arms' office, and the clerk, assistant postmaster, the court stenographers, and all other employees of the general court as may be necessary, shall be paid the compensation provided for in the acts of incorporation of the commonwealth of Massachusetts.
Section 21. The sergeant-at-arms shall, immediately after his election, with the approval of the presiding officers of the two branches of the general court, appoint such employees as are necessary to fill any existing vacancies in the employees provided for by section eighteen; and no employee provided for by said section, excepting pages, shall be removed except with the consent of the presiding officer of the branch to which he is assigned or of both branches if he is assigned to both. The sergeant-at-arms may appoint and remove such additional clerical and other assistants as the duties of his office may require, and, subject to sections forty-five to fifty, inclusive, of chapter thirty and the rules and regulations made thereunder, may fix their compensation.

Section 22. The journals, files and papers of the senate and of the house of representatives shall be in the custody of their respective clerks during each political year, and thereafter in the custody of the state secretary. The clerk of each branch shall at all times have access to the same. Copies of such journals, files and papers, certified by the clerk of the branch to which they originally appertained or by the state secretary, shall be evidence in like manner as the originals.

Section 23. Bills and resolves passed to be engrossed by the general court, and bills for which initiative petitions are completed under the constitution of the commonwealth, shall, under the direction of the state secretary, be fairly engrossed on parchment or parchment paper in a plain and legible handwriting, or written by a typewriting machine, without interlinear, and with a margin of not less than one inch on each side, and in engrossing bills for which initiative petitions are completed the enacting clause shall be in the form prescribed by section three of chapter four. Each sheet on which bills are engrossed or typewritten shall be eighteen inches long and thirteen inches wide, and each sheet on which resolves are engrossed or typewritten shall be fifteen inches long and ten inches wide. The secretary shall cause the acts and resolves of each session to be neatly and strongly bound in separate volumes of convenient size and lettered on the back with a designation of the contents and the legislative year. If such original engrossed acts or resolves are becoming illegible, he shall cause parchment or parchment paper copies thereof, similar to the originals, to be engrossed, and shall attest them. Such attested copies shall have the same force and effect as the originals.

Section 24. All proposed amendments to the constitution which have been agreed to in joint session of the two houses of the general court in the manner prescribed by the constitution shall be engrossed on parch-
Section 25. [Repealed, 1929, 41.]

1 Section 26. No periodicals, publications or books, other than those printed for the use of the general court, shall be ordered for members thereof at the expense of the commonwealth.

1 Section 28. A person shall not be excused from attending and testifying before either branch of the general court or before a committee thereof upon a subject referred to such committee on the ground that his testimony or evidence, documentary or otherwise, may tend to criminate him or subject him to a penalty or forfeiture; but he shall not be prosecuted or subjected to a penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any action, matter or thing concerning which he may be required to so testify or produce evidence, except for perjury committed in such testimony.

1 Section 29. Stenographic reports of hearings before legislative committees or special commissions made at the expense of the commonwealth shall, at the conclusion of the work of such committees or commissions, be deposited in the state library.

1 Section 30. Accounts for expenditures made or services rendered under an order of the general court or of either branch thereof, other than by legislative committees, may be approved by the president or the speaker, by the sergeant-at-arms, or by any other person to whose direction or supervision such expenditures or services have been specially intrusted.

1 Section 31. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, no joint committee of the general court shall, unless authorized by order of both branches, incur any expense to be paid by the commonwealth; and no committee of either branch shall, unless authorized by the branch to which it belongs, incur such expense.

1 Section 32. No committee of the general court shall, after the close of the regular session, incur any expense to be paid by the commonwealth unless there is an authorized appropriation therefor; nor shall a committee appointed to act during the recess of the general court incur any such expense after the recess.

R. L. 6, § 45.

1 Section 33. No hearing before a committee of the general court, or of either branch thereof, shall be advertised at the expense of the commonwealth in more than two newspapers published in any county, nor for the use of the general court, shall be ordered for members thereof at the expense of the commonwealth.

1 Section 28. A person shall not be excused from attending and testifying before either branch of the general court or before a committee thereof upon a subject referred to such committee on the ground that his testimony or evidence, documentary or otherwise, may tend to criminate him or subject him to a penalty or forfeiture; but he shall not be prosecuted or subjected to a penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any action, matter or thing concerning which he may be required to so testify or produce evidence, except for perjury committed in such testimony.

1 Section 29. Stenographic reports of hearings before legislative committees or special commissions made at the expense of the commonwealth shall, at the conclusion of the work of such committees or commissions, be deposited in the state library.

1 Section 30. Accounts for expenditures made or services rendered under an order of the general court or of either branch thereof, other than by legislative committees, may be approved by the president or the speaker, by the sergeant-at-arms, or by any other person to whose direction or supervision such expenditures or services have been specially intrusted.

1 Section 31. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, no joint committee of the general court shall, unless authorized by order of both branches, incur any expense to be paid by the commonwealth; and no committee of either branch shall, unless authorized by the branch to which it belongs, incur such expense.

1 Section 32. No committee of the general court shall, after the close of the regular session, incur any expense to be paid by the commonwealth unless there is an authorized appropriation therefor; nor shall a committee appointed to act during the recess of the general court incur any such expense after the recess.

R. L. 6, § 45.

1 Section 33. No hearing before a committee of the general court, or of either branch thereof, shall be advertised at the expense of the commonwealth in more than two newspapers published in any county, nor more than twice in any newspaper; and no hearing on a matter of special legislation affecting the interest of only a portion of the commonwealth shall be advertised in any newspapers except in those published daily in the county of Suffolk and in the localities directly interested therein, if there are any so published, otherwise in those published weekly. No hearing shall be advertised where the parties in interest can readily be reached by notices sent by mail.

SECTION 34. In all newspapers designated to advertise such hearings, the advertisements shall be uniformly printed in type not larger than nonpareil, set solid, and without display either in the headings or in the body of the advertisements.

SECTION 35. Advertisements of hearings shall be published only in newspapers designated by the chairman of the committee on the part of the senate or of the house of representatives and the clerk of the committee, subject to the approval of the committees on rules sitting jointly or acting concurrently, and in each case the order for the advertisement shall be signed by the chairman and clerk of the respective committees, who shall designate therein the newspapers in which such advertisement is to be published, designating daily papers whenever such are available, and shall file the same with the comptroller, who shall thereupon forward a copy to the newspapers so designated for publication and shall give the necessary directions to secure uniformity in the style and manner of publication, as provided in the preceding section. The comptroller shall certify all bills for publishing such advertisements, and shall annually, during the first week in April, report in detail to the general court the expenses incurred by the several committees under this section.

SECTION 36. Postage for committees of the general court shall be provided by the sergeant-at-arms, who shall be reimbursed therefor.
The printing, binding and procuring of stationery for the use of the senate and house of representatives shall be under the direction of the clerk of each branch, respectively, and shall be approved by him.

SECTION 37. Except as provided in the two preceding sections, no money shall be paid from the treasury for expenses incurred by committees of the general court unless, at the beginning of each month and at other convenient and necessary times during the session, the clerk of the committee prepares a schedule, on forms furnished by the comptroller, of the expenses incurred for which bills have been rendered, which shall be approved in writing by a majority of the members of the committee and transmitted to the comptroller. If a bill for an authorized expense incurred during a regular or special session of the general court is not rendered during such session so that it can be approved as aforesaid, the written approval of a majority of the members of the committee shall be sufficient to authorize the comptroller to certify it.

SECTION 38. Money appropriated for fees of witnesses before the general court may be paid to the sergeant-at-arms, who shall pay therefrom the legal fees due to witnesses summoned before committees authorized to send for persons and papers, upon the certificate of the chairman or other member authorized by the committee to certify.
6 such accounts, as soon as may be after said witnesses have been
7 charged, and in like manner shall pay the expense of taking depositions 8 authorized by such committees, and shall, within ten days after prorogation, return to the comptroller an account of such payments, and 9 repay to the state treasurer the unexpended balance of such money.
10 If witnesses are summoned in any session before an appropriation for 11 their payment has been made, the governor may draw his warrant for 12 an amount not exceeding the appropriation made in the preceding fiscal 13 year, and in no case exceeding three hundred dollars.

1 Section 39. The following terms, when used in this chapter, shall 2 have the following meanings:
3 "Legislative counsel", any person who for compensation appears at 4 any public hearing before any committee of the general court in regard
5 to proposed legislation, and who does no other acts in regard to the same
6 except such things as are necessarily incident to such appearance before 7 such a committee;
8 "Legislative agent", any person who for hire or reward does any act
9 to promote or oppose legislation except to appear at a public hearing 10 before a committee of the general court as legislative counsel.

1 Section 40. A person employing or agreeing to employ a person
2 to act as counsel or agent to promote or oppose, directly or indirectly,
3 legislation by the general court, or to act as legislative counsel or agent, 4 shall, within one week after such employment or agreement, cause the 5 name of such counsel or agent to be entered upon a docket as provided 6 in the following section; and such counsel or agent shall also enter his 7 name upon such docket. The termination of such employment may be 8 entered opposite to the name of such counsel or agent either by him or 9 by his employer.

1 Section 41. The sergeant-at-arms shall keep a docket in which shall 2 be entered the names of all who are employed as legislative counsel
3 and of all counsel who act or advise in relation to legislation. He shall 4 also keep a docket in which shall be entered the names of all who are 5 employed as legislative agents and of all persons employed for other 6 purposes rendering any services as such agents. Such entries shall in-7 clude the name and business address of the employer, the name, residence
8 and occupation of the employee, the date of the employment or agree-9 ment therefor, the duration of the employment, if it can be determined, 10 and the special subjects of legislation, if any, to which the employment 11 relates.

1 Section 42. A person employing any legislative counsel or agent
2 shall, as subjects of legislation are introduced which such counsel or 3 agent is to promote or oppose, make additional entries under the name of 4 such employer in the appropriate docket, stating such special employment
5 and specifically referring to the petitions, orders, bills or other subjects
6 of legislation to which it relates. Such entries shall also be made opposite
7 the names of such counsel or agent so that the entries opposite the name 8 of an employer shall show all the subjects of legislation relative to which 9 any counsel or agent is employed by him, and so that the entries opposite the name of every person employed shall show all the subjects of legislation with reference to which he is employed. No legislative committee shall allow a person to appear as counsel before it in respect to any description of the docket of legislative counsel against his name.

SECTION 43. No member of a state or district political committee shall act as legislative agent.

1911, 728, § 1. [Penalty, § 49.]

SECTION 44. No person shall be employed as a legislative counsel or agent for a compensation dependent upon the passage or rejection of proposed legislation or upon any other contingency connected with the action of the general court or of either branch or of a committee thereof.

A person whose name is entered upon the docket of legislative counsel shall not render service as legislative agent unless his name is also entered upon the docket of legislative agents.

SECTION 45. Every legislative counsel or agent shall, within ten days after entering his name upon a docket as hereinbefore provided, file with the sergeant-at-arms a written authority to act as such counsel or agent, signed by the person for whom he assumes to act.

R. L. 3, § 27. [Penalty, § 49.]

SECTION 46. The general court may, upon cause shown therefor, disbar a person from acting as a legislative counsel or agent; but a person against whom proceedings for disbarment are brought shall be allowed a hearing before a committee or otherwise as the general court may determine. No person who has been so disbarred shall be employed as legislative counsel or agent within three years after such disbarment.

SECTION 47. The dockets of legislative counsel and agents for each year shall be closed upon the prorogation of the general court, and the dockets for the ensuing year shall then be opened. Within thirty days after such prorogation, the sergeant-at-arms shall deposit in the office of the state secretary the dockets which have been so closed.

SECTION 48. Within thirty days after the prorogation of the general court, every person whose name appears upon the dockets so closed as an employer of any legislative counsel or agent shall render to the state secretary a complete and detailed statement, on oath, of all expenses incurred or paid in connection with the employment of legislative counsel or agents or with promoting or opposing legislation. When such expense is included in an employment by annual salary or retainer, the statement shall specify the amount of the salary or retainer apportioned therefor. In case such employment is without any such apportionment, then the total salary or retainer which includes such services shall be stated. Such statements shall be in such form as the state secretary may prescribe, and shall be open to public inspection.

SECTION 49. Violations of any provision of sections forty, forty-two, forty-three, forty-four and forty-eight shall be punished by a fine of not Penalties.
1909, 456, § 7.
3 less than one hundred nor more than one thousand dollars. Any person acting as legislative counsel or agent contrary to any provision of sections forty, forty-two, forty-three and forty-four shall, in addition to such fine, be disqualified from acting as legislative counsel or agent for three years from the date of conviction of such offence. Violation of section forty-five shall be punished by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars or by disqualification from acting as legislative counsel or agent for three years, or by both such fine and disqualification. The attorney general shall cause prosecutions to be instituted for violations of any provision of sections forty, forty-two to forty-five, inclusive, forty-seven and forty-eight.

1 Section 50. Sections thirty-nine to forty-nine, inclusive, shall not apply to the employment by a town of its solicitor or an assistant solicitor to represent it in any legislative proceeding; provided, that such solicitor or assistant solicitor receives no compensation for his services other than the regular salary attaching to his office.

CONTINUOUS CONSOLIDATION OF THE GENERAL STATUTES.

1 Section 51. The committees on rules of the senate and house of representatives shall each appoint a skilled person to act as counsel to the senate and house of representatives, respectively, at such compensation as the said committees may approve. The persons so appointed shall serve for the term of two years from the date of appointment, subject to the pleasure of the said committees. They shall, under the direction of the said committees, annually prepare a table of changes in the general statutes, an index to the acts and resolves, and shall from time to time, under the direction of the said committees or of the general court, consolidate and incorporate in the General Laws all new general statutes. They shall, from time to time, under like direction, make such additions and revisions in the index of the General Laws as may be necessary to insure its prompt publication in connection with future revisions of the statutes. The said committees may direct that copies of the index containing such additions and revisions be deposited, from time to time, in the office of the state secretary or elsewhere and made available for public use.

1 Section 52. The said counsel shall, under like direction, assist members and committees of the senate and house of representatives in drafting bills, and shall advise and assist the committees on bills in the third reading. They shall, so far as possible, draft all bills proposed for legislation as general statutes in the form of specific amendments of or additions to the General Laws.

1 Section 53. The said counsel may, from time to time, submit to the general court such proposed changes and corrections in the general statutes as they deem necessary or advisable, including recommendations for the repeal of such statutory provisions as have become obsolete or the reasons for the enactment of which have ceased to exist. If, in their opinion, the necessity of enacting special bills in relation to any particular subject of legislation may, without detriment to the public interest, be avoided in whole or in part by the enactment of general legislation, they shall from time to time submit to the general court drafts of such changes in or additions to the General Laws as will accomplish said purpose. They shall, as early as practicable after prorogation, file in the office of the state secretary a copy of all amendments of and additions to the General Laws, which shall be open to public inspection. They shall advise and assist as to the form of drafts of bills submitted to them in accordance with section thirty-three of chapter thirty.

Section 54. The said counsel may employ such legal and other assistance as may be necessary in the discharge of their duties, subject to the approval of the said committees on rules, and may expend with like approval such sums as may be necessary for office, printing and other expenses.

Section 55. The said counsel shall not be deemed to be executive or administrative officers within the meaning of the constitution, but shall serve directly under the general court. They and their assistants shall not be subject to chapter thirty-one.

CHAPTER 4.

STATUTES.

Section 1. A statute enacted by the general court which may be made the subject of a referendum petition and which is declared therein to be an emergency law, unless otherwise expressly provided therein, shall take effect as soon as it has the force of a law conformably to the constitution. A statute so enacted which may not be made the subject of such a petition and for which a different time of taking effect is not therein expressly provided shall take effect as soon as it has the force of a law so aforesaid; provided, that a statute so enacted which may not be made the subject of such a petition and which is to take effect upon its acceptance by a municipal or other corporation or by any board or officer thereof, unless otherwise expressly provided therein, shall, for the purpose of such acceptance only, take effect as soon as it has the force of a law so aforesaid.
1 Section 2. A resolve, unless otherwise expressly provided therein, shall take effect as soon as it has the force of a law conformably to the constitution.

1 Section 3. The enacting style of all measures submitted to the people in pursuance of an initiative petition for a law shall be: Be it enacted by the People, and by their authority.

1 Section 4. Wherever it is provided that a statute shall take effect upon its acceptance by a city or town, such acceptance shall, except as otherwise provided in such statute, be, in a city, by vote of the city council or, in a town, by vote of the inhabitants thereof at a town meeting.

1 Section 5. If an act or resolve is to take effect upon its acceptance by a municipal or other corporation, a return of the action taken by such corporation shall be made by its clerk to the state secretary within thirty days thereafter. If such act or resolve prescribes a time within which it may be accepted, and within the time limited it is rejected or no action is taken thereon, said clerk shall, within thirty days after the expiration of the time so limited, make a return to the state secretary, stating that such act or resolve was rejected or that no action was taken thereon.

1 Section 6. In construing statutes the following rules shall be observed, unless their observance would involve a construction inconsistent with the manifest intent of the law-making body or repugnant to the context of the same statute:

1919, 301, § 1. 194 Mass. 486.

5 First, The repeal of a statute shall not revive any previous statute, except in case of the repeal of a statute, after it has become law, by vote of the people upon its submission by referendum petition.

8 Second, The repeal of a statute shall not affect any punishment, penalty or forfeiture incurred before the repeal takes effect, or any suit, prosecution or proceeding pending at the time of the repeal for an offence committed, or for the recovery of a penalty or forfeiture incurred, under the statute repealed.

13 Third, Words and phrases shall be construed according to the common and approved usage of the language; but technical words and phrases and such others as may have acquired a peculiar and appropriate meaning in law shall be construed and understood according to such meaning.

17 Fourth, Words importing the singular number may extend and be applied to several persons or things, words importing the plural number

may include the singular, and words importing the masculine gender may include the feminine and neuter.

Fifth, Words purporting to give a joint authority to, or to direct any act by, three or more public officers or other persons shall be construed as giving such authority to, or directing such act by, a majority of such officers or persons.

Sixth, Wherever any writing is required to be sworn to or acknowledged, such oath or acknowledgment shall be taken before a justice of peace or notary public, or such oath may be dispensed with if the writing required to be sworn to contains or is verified by a written declaration under the provisions of section one A of chapter two hundred and sixty-eight.

Seventh, Wherever action by more than a majority of a city council is required, action by the designated proportion of the members of each branch thereof, present and voting thereon, in a city in which the city council consists of two branches, or action by the designated proportion of the members thereof, present and voting thereon, in a city having a single legislative board, shall be a compliance with such requirement.

Eighth, Wherever publication is required in a newspaper published in a city or town, it shall be sufficient, when there is no newspaper published therein, if the publication is made in a newspaper published in the county where the city or town is situated; and for this purpose a newspaper which by its title page purports to be printed or published in such city, town or county and which has a circulation therein, shall be deemed to have been published therein.

Ninth, Wherever a penalty or forfeiture is provided for a violation of any law, it shall be for each such violation.

Section 7. In construing statutes the following words shall have the meanings herein given, unless a contrary intention clearly appears:

"Annual meeting". R. S. 2, § 6, cl. 4. 1837, 52.

1 Section 7A. [Inserted, 1922, 151, § 1; amended (into a special act), 2 1931, 394, § 182.]

[Note. — The substance of this section has been inserted, by specific amendments, in the various sections of the General Laws to which it was applicable, and it has been trans- 1924, 360.

1 formed into a special act.]

1 Section 8. In construing any special act authorizing a city, town or 2 district to incur indebtedness for a specified purpose to a limited amount, such limitation of amount shall be deemed to apply only to the indebtedness authorized by the special act, and not to affect any other power which the city, town or district may have to incur indebtedness for said purpose under any other provisions of law; and in special acts authorizing loans to be payable by proportionate payments, such provision shall be construed to mean payments as nearly equal in amount as is possible without unreasonable fractions, but no payment of the principal shall be greater than any preceding payment.

Section 9. Except as otherwise provided, when the day or the last day for the performance of any act, including the making of any payment or tender of payment, authorized or required by statute or by contract, falls on Sunday or a legal holiday, the act may, unless it is specifically authorized or required to be performed on Sunday or on a legal holiday, be performed on the next succeeding business day.

Section 9A. In any written instrument, a recital that such instrument is sealed by or bears the seal of the person signing the same or is given under the hand and seal of the person signing the same, or that such instrument is intended to take effect as a sealed instrument, shall be sufficient to give such instrument the legal effect of a sealed instrument without the addition of any seal of wax, paper or other substance or any semblance of a seal by scroll, impression or otherwise; but the foregoing shall not apply in any case where the seal of a court, public office or public officer is expressly required by the constitution or by statute to be affixed to a paper, nor shall it apply in the case of certificates of stock of corporations. The word "person" as used in this section shall include a corporation, association, trust or partnership.

Section 9B. The impression or stamping of the established seal of a court, public office, public officer or corporation upon a paper shall be taken and held to be the seal of such court, public office, public officer or corporation, and valid in law to the same extent that an impression of such seal would be if made on wax or wafer attached to such paper.

Section 10. At two o'clock ante-meridian of the last Sunday in April of each year, the standard time in this commonwealth shall be advanced one hour, and at two o'clock ante-meridian of the last Sunday in September of each year the standard time in this commonwealth shall, by the retarding of one hour, be made to coincide with the mean astronomical time of the degree of longitude governing the zone wherein the commonwealth is situated, the standard official time of which is described as United States standard eastern time, so that between the last Sunday of April at two o'clock ante-meridian and the last Sunday in September at two o'clock ante-meridian in each year the standard time in this commonwealth shall be one hour in advance of the United States standard eastern time. And in all laws, statutes, orders, decrees, rules and regulations relating to the time of performance of any act by any officer or department of the commonwealth, or of any county, city, town or district thereof, or relating to the time in which any rights shall accrue or determine, or within which any act shall or shall not be performed by any person subject to the jurisdiction of the commonwealth, and in all 18 the public schools and in all institutions of the commonwealth, or of 19 any county, city, town or district thereof, and in all contracts or choses 20 in action made or to be performed in the commonwealth, it shall be 21 understood and intended that the time shall be United States standard 22 eastern time as changed by this section.

1 Section 11. Marginal references to statutes shall refer to general
2 acts, unless otherwise expressly noted.

Section 2. The state secretary shall, at the close of each regular session of the general court, collate and cause to be printed in a single volume the following:

(1) All acts and resolves passed at such session.

(2) All amendments to the constitution referred at such session to the next general court and all such amendments acted upon at such session and to be submitted to the people at the next state election.

(3) All acts and resolves passed at any special session of the general court, except a general revision of the statutes, and not theretofore published in any preceding annual volume.

(4) In the volume of the year immediately following a state election, all laws and constitutional amendments adopted by the people at said election, with the aggregate vote thereon, both affirmative and negative, arranged in such detail as the secretary may determine.

(5) A statement in bold type at the conclusion of each law as printed, or in a postscript at the end of the volume with a suitable reference to each law, as to which a petition asking for a referendum thereon has been filed prior to the publication of the volume, with a sufficient number of signatures to procure its submission to the people, together with a recital of the pertinent provisions of article forty-eight of the amendments to the constitution.

(6) In the volume of the year immediately following a state election, a statement showing what acts of the general court were submitted to the people at said election, with the total vote, affirmative and negative, on each measure, with a specific reference to such laws of the general court as have been so rejected.

(7) A table of changes in the general statutes and an index, to be prepared as provided in section fifty-one of chapter three.

Section 3. The state secretary shall determine the number of copies, not exceeding eleven thousand five hundred, of said volume required to be printed each year and shall, immediately after their publication, distribute such copies as follows:

To the clerk of the senate, for the use of the senate, twelve;

To the counsel to the senate, four;

To the clerk of the house of representatives, for the use of the house, twenty-four;

To the counsel to the house of representatives, four;

To each member of the general court and to the clerks of each branch thereof, two; and to each assistant clerk thereof, one;

To the state library, twenty-five;

To the governor, the lieutenant governor, the members of the executive council, the private secretary to the governor, the attorney general and his assistants, the adjutant general, every permanent state department, board and commission having an office and clerk and to such divisions thereof as in the opinion of the secretary require a copy for official use, the senators and representatives in congress from the commonwealth, the justices, clerks and registers of courts, such assistant clerks of courts for official use as the state secretary may designate, the reporter of 21 decisions, district attorneys, county commissioners, county treasurers, etc. 1922, 198, § 1. 1924, 492, § 1.
22 registers of deeds, medical examiners, sheriffs, city and town clerks, city treasurers, city auditors, town treasurers and town auditors of towns having a population of over twenty-five thousand as determined by the last preceding state or national census, the warden of the state prison, the superintendent of the Massachusetts reformatory, the superintendent of the reformatory for women, keepers of jails and houses of correction, superintendents of state hospitals, superintendents of the Lyman and industrial schools, superintendents of the state infirmary and the state farm, Harvard University and all incorporated colleges within the Commonwealth, the Massachusetts Historical Society, the New England Historic Genealogical Society, the Boston Athenaeum, the American Antiquarian Society in Worcester, the state normal schools, such free public libraries and branches thereof in the Commonwealth as the state secretary may designate, county law libraries, all incorporated law libraries and branch libraries maintained by them, veteran organizations having headquarters in the state house, the justices of the supreme court of the United States, the judges and clerks of the United States circuit court of appeals and district court for the district of Massachusetts, one each; to the clerks of the supreme judicial court and the superior court, a number sufficient to supply two copies at each place where regular or adjourned sessions of said courts are held;
23 To the state secretary for distribution to schools, societies and in certain important cases not otherwise provided for by law, one hundred;
24 To the secretary of state of the United States, and to the secretary of state of each of the United States for the use of such states, such number not exceeding four in each case, as such officials may request;
25 To the library of Congress, three;
26 To the justices or clerks of district courts, upon application in writing therefor, a number sufficient to supply not more than two copies for each court room where sessions of said courts are held;
27 To associate or special justices, trial justices, masters in chancery, assistant registers of deeds, assistant register of probate, assistant clerks of courts not otherwise provided for, justices of the peace to issue warrants and take bail, assistant district attorneys, members of state departments, boards and commissions, associate medical examiners, town treasurers and town auditors in towns not otherwise provided for, boards of town officials elected by the voters of their respective towns for the use of such towns, free public libraries not otherwise provided for, public schools and common schools in towns having no high school, upon application in writing therefor prior to February first next following the printing of said volume, one, each;
28 To each member of the general court ten, and upon application in writing filed prior to June first next following the printing of said volume, ten additional copies.
29 To each member of the general court at the session next following the passage of the acts and resolves in said volume, one copy, to be delivered at the beginning of such session.
30 After making the foregoing distribution or making provision therefor, the state secretary may sell copies at such price per copy, not less than the cost of printing, binding and paper, as shall be fixed by him.

1 Section 4. The state secretary shall also, at the close of each regular session of the general court, publish in pamphlet form such number of copies of the laws.
copies, not exceeding twenty thousand, as he may determine, of the acts and resolves passed and of any proposed amendments to the constitution passed during such session, and shall at his discretion apportion said copies, excepting one thousand which he may reserve in his office for general distribution, among the clerks of the several towns, to be de-levered by them to such inhabitants thereof as apply therefor.
He shall also, as soon as any act or resolve is passed, send a copy thereof to the following: each state department, officer, board or com-mision whose duties are affected by any such act or resolve, the clerks of the several towns, for the use of the inhabitants thereof, the justices, clerks and registers of courts, district attorneys, sheriffs, trial justices, judges of the peace authorized to issue warrants and take bail, county law libraries, and all incorporated law libraries and branch libraries maintained by them. He may also send copies to such persons as apply therefor, charging not less than the cost thereof.

Section 5. [Repealed, 1931, 426, § 130.]

Printing and Distribution of Documents, Etc.

Section 6. All reports required to be made by permanent state departments, officers and commissions shall, except as otherwise provided, be printed annually before the assembling of the general court, or as soon thereafter as possible. They shall be numbered in a series to be called public documents. The division of personnel and standardization shall designate the number of copies of each report to be printed, and none additional shall be printed at the expense of the commonwealth.

Section 7. The state secretary shall furnish to each town of the commonwealth, to be preserved in a public place therein, one copy of each of such reports included in the public document series as the town clerk may apply for. He shall furnish one copy of each of said reports to such public and other libraries as may apply therefor. If the supervisor of public records shall report to the state secretary that such town is unable to make suitable provision for the care and use of the documents, he may discontinue sending them to such town. Each member of the general court and of the executive department, the clerk of each branch of the general court and each reporter assigned to either branch may, upon a written request signed by him and delivered to the state secretary, receive a copy of any such document. Ten copies shall be placed in the state library for the use of the library and for exchange.

Section 8. When in the opinion of the director of the division of personnel and standardization, a state publication is not of sufficient public benefit to be distributed free of charge, he may declare such publication to be an official text book, case book or technical report; provided, that the status of such publication has not already been determined by the general court. An appeal from the decision of the di-Section 9. The state secretary shall annually procure copies of the proceedings of the annual encampments of the departments of Massachusetts, Grand Army of the Republic, United Spanish War Veterans, The American Legion and Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States, held in that year, with the general and special orders, circulars and other papers forming parts thereof, and shall cause the same to be kept as parts of the records of the commonwealth. He shall annually cause copies thereof, including in the case of those relating to the Grand Army of the Republic the portraits of the department officers and staff and of the executive committee of the national encampment, to be printed and bound; and shall cause one printed and bound copy of each to be sent to each town library in the commonwealth. He shall also send one copy of each volume relating to the Grand Army of the Republic to each Grand Army post, one copy of the volume relating to the United Spanish War Veterans to each camp of Spanish War Veterans, one copy of the volume relating to The American Legion to each post of the American Legion, and one copy of the volume relating to the Veterans of Foreign Wars to each post of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States, in the commonwealth. He shall cause the other copies of each to be distributed in the same manner as the annual report of the state secretary.

Section 10. One thousand copies of the journals of the senate and of the house of representatives shall be printed annually under the direction of the respective clerks thereof; and, unless the general court shall otherwise order, twelve hundred copies of the lists of members and committees shall be printed annually under the joint direction of said clerks.

The foregoing publications shall, under the direction of said clerks, be distributed as follows: one copy to each member of the general court, to each member of the executive department, to the clerk and assistant clerk of each branch of the general court, and to each reporter who is entitled to the privileges of the reporters' gallery in either branch; and ten copies to the state library for use therein and for exchange. The state secretary shall send to the members of the general court the journals to which they are entitled under the provision of this section, and he shall also send one copy of said journals to each free public library in the commonwealth.

The remaining copies of the foregoing publications shall be distributed at the discretion of the clerks of the two branches, preference being given to the members of the general court and to state officers.
Two thousand copies of the governor's annual address shall be printed, 20 of which fifteen hundred shall be for the general court and five hundred 21 for the governor.

Section 11. The clerks of the two branches shall in every odd- numbered year prepare a manual for the general court, of which not more than ten thousand five hundred copies shall be printed under their direction. These copies shall be delivered to the state secretary and by him distributed, so far as the edition will permit, as follows:

1. To the clerk of the senate, thirty;
2. To the counsel to the senate, four;
3. To the clerk of the house of representatives, thirty;
4. To the counsel to the house of representatives, four;
5. To each member of the general court, five, and upon written application an additional number, not exceeding twenty-five;
6. To the assistant clerk of each branch of the general court, thirty;
7. To the state library, sixty;
8. To the governor, the lieutenant governor, the members of the executive council, the private secretary to the governor, the attorney general and his assistants, the senators and representatives in congress from the commonwealth, the justices, clerks and registers of courts, such assistant clerks of courts as the state secretary may designate, the reporter of decisions, district attorneys, county commissioners, county treasurers, registers of deeds, medical examiners, sheriffs, city and town clerks, institutions under the supervision of the state departments of correction, education, mental diseases, public health and public welfare, Harvard University and all incorporated colleges within the commonwealth, the Massachusetts Historical Society, the New England Historic Genealogical Society, the Boston Athenæum, the American Antiquarian Society in Worcester, such free public libraries and branches thereof in the commonwealth as the state secretary may designate, and to such other free public libraries in the commonwealth making written application therefor, county law libraries, all incorporated law libraries in the commonwealth and branch libraries maintained by them, and to veteran organizations having headquarters in the state house, one, each;

9. To associate and special justices, assistant clerks of courts not otherwise provided for, and to reporters entitled to the privileges of the reporters' gallery in either branch of the general court, upon written application, one, each;

10. To each state department, board and commission, one, and upon written application an additional number, not exceeding five, for official use in such department, board or commission;

11. To the state secretary for distribution not otherwise provided for, fifty;

12. Three hundred copies to the sergeant-at-arms to be reserved under the direction of the clerks of both branches for the use of the general court at its next annual session and three hundred copies for the use of the next succeeding general court.

After making the foregoing distribution or making provision therefor, the state secretary shall place copies of the manual on sale to the public at twenty-five cents per copy. After December thirty-first of each even-numbered year copies of the manual remaining on hand may be distributed by the state secretary without charge.
1 Section 12. The committees on rules of the two branches, acting concurrently, shall publish during each regular session of the general court bulletins of committee hearings, and shall appoint the editor thereof and fix his compensation. The chairman of either of said committees shall approve bills for editing and printing said bulletins before they are sent to the comptroller for allowance. On receipt of two dollars from each applicant therefor the sergeant-at-arms shall mail to him copies of these bulletins.

1 Section 13. The sergeant-at-arms shall, as soon as they are published, mail copies of all printed and numbered bills, resolves and other documents pending before committees of the general court, to towns and persons who subscribe therefor and pay in advance the sum of ten dollars. The money received under this and the preceding section shall be paid monthly to the commonwealth.

1 Section 14. The state secretary shall furnish to every town the reports of the decisions of the supreme judicial court from time to time, as published, and shall furnish to every town hereafter incorporated a full set of said decisions, the index-digest thereof, a copy of the General Laws, and copies of all such books and documents in his office as shall have been previously furnished to towns by the commonwealth; but the clerk of such town shall first file with the secretary a certificate that the town has made suitable provision for the preservation and convenient use of such books and documents.

1 Section 15. A town which has once been furnished with such books and documents shall not again be supplied with the same at the expense of the commonwealth. Towns may effect insurance thereon for their own benefit.

1 Section 16. The state secretary shall, in the distribution of laws and documents to members of the general court, effect such exchanges among members as they shall direct; and he may employ such additional clerical or other assistance as may be necessary for the purpose. Copies of the laws and documents apportioned to members of the general court which remain undisposed of for three months after the end of the year in which they were issued shall revert to the commonwealth and be subject to general distribution.

1 Section 17. Delivery charges on documents forwarded to members of the general court and to free public libraries shall be prepaid by the commonwealth.

1 Section 18. The clerks of the two branches of the general court may, in every odd-numbered year, purchase three hundred and forty copies of a book containing portraits and biographical sketches of members of the general court and other state officers, lists of committees and such other information as the clerks approve. The clerks shall furnish one such copy to each such member and shall distribute the other copies as the committees on rules of the senate and house of representatives may direct. The clerks may expend therefor a sum not exceeding sixteen hundred dollars.

The governor may appoint a private secretary, an assistant private secretary, and such other assistants as may be necessary, who shall hold office during the pleasure of the governor, and shall receive such salaries as may be approved by the council, not exceeding the sum annually appropriated therefor by the general court.

Section 6. The governor, with the advice and consent of the council, may appoint an executive secretary, a stenographer, a messenger and an assistant messenger, each of whom shall hold office during the pleasure of the governor and council, shall perform the duties required of him by the governor or by the governor and council, and shall receive such salary as may be fixed by the governor and council, not exceeding the sum annually appropriated therefor by the general court.

Section 7. The printing, binding and procuring of stationery for the use of the council shall be under the direction of the executive secretary and shall be approved by him.

Section 8. An amount not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars shall be appropriated each year for carrying out sections twenty-five to thirty-three, inclusive, of chapter thirty-three, for the entertainment of the president of the United States and other distinguished guests while visiting or passing through the commonwealth, for extraordinary expenses not otherwise provided for, which the governor and council may deem necessary, and for transfer, upon the recommendation of the comptroller, with the approval of the governor and council, to such appropriations as have proved insufficient.

Section 9. The governor and council shall co-operate in behalf of the commonwealth in all scientific surveys made by the United States government of harbors, rivers, shores or waters within the commonwealth, and shall represent the commonwealth in relation to such surveys, and protect its interests therein.

Section 10. The governor may appoint state officers as delegates to represent the commonwealth at such conventions as may be held in any part of the United States for the purpose of considering questions of charity, reform, statistics, insurance and other matters affecting the welfare of the people. Their necessary expenses may be paid from such appropriations as the general court may make for the traveling and contingent expenses of such officers. No officer or employee of the commonwealth shall travel outside the commonwealth at public expense unless he has previously been authorized by the governor to leave the commonwealth, and in applying for such authorization the officer or Section 11. The governor and council may reimburse members of unpaid commissions, and citizens who may be sent officially to represent the commonwealth at national conventions, for such expenses as they may find reasonably necessary.

Section 12. The compensation of legal counsel and commissioners appointed by the governor shall, unless otherwise provided, be determined by the governor and council, who shall approve such claims before they are sent to the comptroller.

R. L. 6, § 52. 1931, 394, § 203.

Section 12A. The governor shall annually issue a proclamation calling for a proper observance of November eleventh as Armistice Day, in lasting recognition of the service and sacrifice of those sons and daughters of Massachusetts who served in the naval and military service of the United States during the World War and in thanksgiving for the termination of hostilities on the first Armistice Day, November eleventh, nineteen hundred and eighteen.

Section 13. The governor shall annually issue a proclamation setting apart February twelfth as Lincoln Day, and recommending that it be observed by the people with appropriate exercises in the public schools and otherwise, as he may see fit, to the end that the memory of the public service and private virtues of Abraham Lincoln may be perpetuated.

Section 14. The governor shall annually set apart June fourteenth as Flag Day, and shall issue his proclamation recommending that the day be observed by the people in the display of the flag and in such other ways as shall be in harmony with the general character of the day.

Section 14A. The governor shall annually set apart February fifteenth, the anniversary of the sinking of the United States battleship "Maine" in the harbor of Havana, Cuba, as Spanish War Memorial Day and Maine Memorial Day, and shall issue his proclamation recommending that the day be observed by the people in the display of the flag and by appropriate exercises in the public schools and elsewhere, commemorative of the services and sacrifices of the men who fought in the Spanish-American War.

Section 15. The governor shall annually issue a proclamation setting apart the last Saturday in April as Arbor Day, recommending its observance by the public in the planting of trees, shrubs and vines, particularly those attractive to birds, in the promotion of forest growth and culture, in the adornment of public and private grounds, places and ways, and in such other efforts and undertakings as shall harmonize with the general character of the day. He shall further recommend that the Friday preceding be observed in rural and suburban schools by exercises appropriate to Arbor and Bird Day.

Section 16. The staff of the commander-in-chief and all officers included in the organization of the land and naval forces of the commonwealth, including the adjutant general in his capacity as commissioner of war records under chapter two hundred and eleven of the acts of nineteen hundred and twelve and chapter one hundred and seven of the General Acts of nineteen hundred and nineteen, shall serve under the governor in his capacity as commander-in-chief.

Section 17. The armory commissioners, the art commission, the commission on administration and finance, the commissioner of state aid and pensions, the commissioners on uniform state laws, the public bequest commission, the state ballot law commission, the board of trustees of the Soldiers’ Home in Massachusetts and the trustees of the state library shall serve under the governor and council, and shall be subject to such supervision as the governor and council deem necessary or proper.

Armory Commissioners.

Section 18. The governor, with the advice and consent of the council, shall appoint a commissioner, who, together with the adjutant general and the chief quartermaster, shall be armory commissioners. The adjutant general shall serve without compensation; the chief quartermaster and the commissioner shall receive such pay for duty performed as the commander-in-chief shall order. In addition to these three persons, the senior officer of the troops to be quartered in any armory shall be a consulting armory commissioner during the period of the construction of the armory, but shall have no vote as such commissioner and shall serve without compensation other than reimbursement for expenses actually incurred in the performance of his duty.

Art Commission.

Section 19. There shall be an art commission for the commonwealth consisting of five members, who shall be citizens of the commonwealth. Upon the expiration of the term of office of any member thereof, his successor shall be appointed by the governor, with the advice and consent of the council, for five years. The commission shall serve without compensation, but shall be allowed such necessary expenses as may be approved by the governor and council, not exceeding one hundred dollars in amount, and shall have power to adopt its own rules and to elect such officers from its own members as may be deemed proper.

Section 20. There shall be submitted to the art commission for its approval in an advisory capacity any plan relative to the creation, acquisition, construction, erection or remodeling by the commonwealth of any work of art, accompanied by designs, descriptions, specifications, drawings or models sufficient to enable the commission to determine the 6 artistic character of such work of art. The commission shall file with 7 the governor, within thirty days after such submission, its opinion of 8 such proposed work of art together with such suggestions and recom-
9 mendations as it may deem proper. The term "work of art", as used 10 in this section, shall include any painting, portrait, mural decoration, 11 stained glass, statue, bas-relief, ornament, fountain or any other article 12 or structure of a permanent character intended for decoration or com-13 memoration.
14 Upon request of the governor, the commission shall act in an advisory 15 capacity relative to the artistic character of any building constructed, 16 erected or remodeled by the commonwealth, or upon land owned by the 17 commonwealth, and when, upon request of the governor, there shall be 18 submitted to said commission any plan relating to such construction, 19 erection or remodeling of any such building, accompanied by designs, 20 descriptions, specifications, drawings or models sufficient to enable the 21 commission to determine the artistic character of such building, the 22 commission shall file with the governor, within thirty days after such 23 submission, its opinion of such proposed building together with such 24 suggestions and recommendations as it may deem proper. The term 25 "building", as used in this section, shall include structures intended for 26 human occupation and use, and also bridges, arches, gates, walls or other 27 permanent structures of any character.
28 Said commission shall have the custody and care of all historical relics 29 in the state house, and of all works of art, as herein defined, erected or 30 maintained therein.

BOARD OF APPEAL.

1 Section 21. [Repealed, 1930, 416, § 2.]

COMMISSIONER OF STATE AID AND PENSIONS.

1 Section 22. There shall be an officer to be known as the commis-
2 sioner of state aid and pensions, who shall be appointed by the governor,
3 with the advice and consent of the council, for three years, at such salary, 4 not exceeding five thousand dollars, as the governor and council shall 5 determine. He shall devote his whole time to the duties of his office.
6 He shall be state agent for the settlement of pension, bounty, back pay, 7 compensation and other claims of citizens of the commonwealth against 8 the government of the United States, or of any state thereof, on account 9 of military or naval service, and he shall assist and advise war veterans, 10 and their dependents, heirs or legal representatives, with respect to the 11 filing, prosecution and settlement of such claims.

1909, 468, § 1. 1914, 407, § 1; 587, § 1. 1919, 190; 290,
1918, 164, § 1. 1923, 368, § 1. 1931, 324, § 1.

1 Section 23. The commissioner shall be allowed his traveling expenses
2 when necessary for him to visit the city of Washington, and may expend
3 for such purpose and for all other expenses necessary for the proper
4 performance of his duties such sums as are annually appropriated 5 therefor.

1909, 468, § 1. 1914, 587, § 1. 1918, 164, § 1. 1919, 190; 290, § 1.

2 council, shall appoint a deputy and a second deputy commissioner of state aid and pensions for three years, who shall devote their whole time to the duties of their offices. They shall receive such salaries as may be fixed by the commissioner of state aid and pensions, subject to the approval of the governor and council, and shall be subject to the direction and control of said commissioner. The deputy commissioner, or in case of a vacancy in his office or in his absence or disability the second deputy commissioner, shall perform the duties of said commissioner during his absence on account of disability or other cause.

Section 25. The commissioner, with the approval of the governor and council, may appoint a chief clerk and not more than eight other clerks and stenographers and twelve agents.

COMMISSIONERS ON UNIFORM STATE LAWS.

Section 26. There shall be a board of commissioners on uniform state laws, consisting of three suitable persons, who shall be appointed by the governor, with the advice and consent of the council, for five year terms. Within thirty days after the appointment of such commissioners, they shall meet and organize. The governor may remove for cause any or all of said commissioners.

Section 27. The commissioners shall examine subjects upon which uniformity of legislation in the various states of the United States is desirable, but which are outside of the jurisdiction of the congress of the United States; shall confer upon these matters with the commissioners appointed by other states for the same purpose; shall consider and draft uniform laws to be submitted for approval and adoption by the several states; and generally shall devise and recommend such other or further course of action as may tend to accomplish such purposes. They shall keep a record of their doings, and shall make an annual report.

Section 28. They shall serve without compensation, but each commissioner shall be paid by the commonwealth the amount of his actual traveling and other necessary expenses incurred in the discharge of his official duty, after an account thereof has been audited by the commissioners. They shall keep a full account of their expenditures. They may contribute each year a sum not exceeding one hundred dollars toward the expenses of the conference of commissioners on uniform state laws, the same to be paid from such appropriation for the expense of the commissioners as may be made by the general court.

PUBLIC BEQUEST COMMISSION.

Section 28A. There shall be a public bequest commission, consisting of the state secretary, the state treasurer and the commissioner of state aid and pensions, ex officio. Said officials shall receive no additional compensation for such service, but, with the approval of the governor and council, may employ and remove such assistants and fix their salaries, and may incur such other expenses, as may be necessary to render effective the provisions of this and the three following sections.
Section 28B. There is hereby established a public bequest fund, which shall be under the control of said commissioners, and which shall consist of any bequests, devises, contributions or other gifts to said fund or to said commission for the use of said fund. So much of the property provided to constitute said fund as aforesaid as consists of real property or of tangible personal property shall be sold by said commission, and the proceeds thereof shall become a part of said fund. The state treasurer shall be the custodian of said fund. The provisions of this and the two following sections and of all other provisions of law relative to said fund shall in all respects be subject to amendment, alteration and repeal by the general court.

Section 28C. When, and so long as, the principal of said fund amounts to five hundred thousand dollars, said commission, with the approval of the governor and council, may distribute, in accordance with its rules and regulations relative thereto, the income from said fund to such worthy citizens of the commonwealth, as, in its opinion, by reason of old age and need, are entitled thereto. No man under sixty-five and no woman under sixty shall be deemed to be entitled to assistance from such fund.

Section 28D. Said commission, subject to the approval of the governor and council, may make, and from time to time may alter and amend, rules and regulations governing payments under section twenty-eight C.

State Ballot Law Commission.

Section 29. There shall be a state ballot law commission, consisting of three persons, one of whom shall annually in June or July be appointed by the governor, with the advice and consent of the council, for three years from the succeeding August first. The governor, with the advice and consent of the council, may remove any member of the commission. There shall always be on said commission a member of each of the two leading political parties.

Section 30. No member of said commission shall hold any public office except that of justice of the peace or notary public, or be a candidate for public office, or member or employee of any political committee. If any member of the commission shall be nominated as a candidate for public office and shall not in writing decline said nomination within three days, he shall be deemed to have vacated his office as a member of said commission.

Section 31. The members of said commission shall each be paid such compensation for their services, not exceeding five hundred dollars annually, as the governor and council may determine; and the total expenditures by and on account of said commission shall not exceed the sum of two thousand dollars in any one year.

Section 32. It may summon witnesses, administer oaths, and require the production of books and papers at a hearing before it upon any matter within its jurisdiction. Witnesses shall be summoned in the same manner as to witnesses before courts of record.
TRUSTEES AND LIBRARIAN OF STATE LIBRARY.

Section 33. There shall be a board of trustees of the state library, consisting of the president of the senate and the speaker of the house of representatives, who shall be trustees ex officis, and three other persons appointed by the governor, with the advice and consent of the council, of whom one shall be appointed annually for three years from June first of the year in which he is appointed.

Section 34. Said trustees shall have the management and control of the state library and of the moneys appropriated therefor. They may sell or otherwise dispose of such books belonging to the library as they consider unsuitable for its purposes, and they may deposit any duplicate volumes for safe keeping and use in any town, city or college library in the commonwealth, upon such terms and conditions as they shall prescribe. They may make and enforce rules for the use of the library, and shall see that its rooms are properly prepared for the accommodation of persons permitted to use them.

Section 35. The governor, with the advice and consent of the council, shall appoint a librarian of the state library, who shall hold office during their pleasure and shall receive such salary as may be fixed by the trustees of said library with the approval of the governor and council.

Section 36. The trustees of the state library may expend such sums annually as the general court may appropriate for permanent assistants and clerks, for books, maps, papers, periodicals and other material for the library and for binding the same and for incidental expenses including binding their report. All accounts for the maintenance of the state library shall be approved by the trustees thereof or by such person as may be designated for the purpose in a vote of said trustees who shall, nevertheless, remain responsible for such approval.

Section 37. The trustees of the state library shall keep records of their doings, and shall make an annual report thereof, with a list of books, maps and charts lost, missing or acquired during the preceding fiscal year, specifying those obtained by exchange, gift or purchase, and such suggestions for the improvement of the library as they may deem proper.

Section 37A. The said trustees may receive in trust for the commonwealth any gift or bequest of money or securities for any purpose.
3 incident to the uses of the state library, and shall forthwith transfer any 4 money or securities so received to the state treasurer, who shall ad-
5 minister the same as provided by section sixteen of chapter ten.

STATE LIBRARY.
1 Section 38. The state library shall be in the state house, and shall 2 be kept open every day except Sundays and legal holidays for the use of 3 the governor, lieutenant governor, council, general court and such of-4 ficers of the government and other persons as may be permitted to use it.

1 Section 39. Unless otherwise provided, all books, maps, documents
2 and other publications belonging to the commonwealth for public use,
3 except such as by order of the respective departments of the government
4 are retained in the chambers of the senate and the house of representa-
5 tives or in the department of the state secretary, shall be deposited and 6 suitably arranged in the library.

BOARD OF TRUSTEES OF THE SOLDIERS' HOME IN MASSACHUSETTS.
1 Section 40. There shall be a board of trustees of the Soldiers' Home
2 in Massachusetts, consisting of seven persons, at least five of whom 3 shall be war veterans. Upon the expiration of the term of office of a 4 member, his successor shall be appointed by the governor, with the 5 advice and consent of the council, to serve for seven years. The governor 6 shall designate one of the members as chairman. The members shall 7 serve without compensation, but shall receive their necessary expenses
8 incurred in the discharge of their official duties.

1 Section 41. Said board of trustees shall have the management and 2 control of said home and all property, real and personal, belonging to 3 the commonwealth and occupied or used by said home, and shall hold 4 and administer in trust the property included in the "legacy fund" and 5 the "efforts accounts", if and when the transfer thereof to the common-6 wealth is effected pursuant to a decree of a court of competent juris-7 diction, and in accordance with the terms and conditions imposed by 8 such decree. In the management and control of said home as aforesaid, 9 said board of trustees shall have the same powers and perform the same 10 duties as are vested and imposed in the trustees of state hospitals under 11 the provisions of chapter one hundred and twenty-three, so far as 12 applicable.

[Note to §§ 40 and 41: — Effective December 1st, 1934; see 1931, 452, § 5.]

SECTION 1. Unless a contrary intention clearly appears, the following words shall have the following meanings:

"Commission", the commission on administration and finance.
"Finance committee", the committee of the executive council appointed to consider matters of finance.

SECTION 2. There shall be a commission on administration and finance, which shall serve directly under the governor and council
3 within the meaning of Article LXVI of the amendments to the constitution of the commonwealth.

1 Section 3. The commission shall consist of four commissioners, one of whom shall annually be appointed for a term of four years by the governor, with the advice and consent of the council. The governor shall designate one of said commissioners as chairman. The chairman shall receive such salary not exceeding seven thousand dollars, and each of the other commissioners, such salary not exceeding sixty-five hundred dollars, as the governor and council may determine. Each commissioner shall devote his entire time to the duties of his office.

1 Section 4. Said commission shall be organized in three bureaus, namely: a comptroller's bureau, a budget bureau and a purchasing bureau. Each bureau shall be in charge of a commissioner of the commission to be designated by the governor, with the advice and consent of the council, and to be known, respectively, as the comptroller, budget commissioner and state purchasing agent. Said purchasing agent shall give bond to the state treasurer in a sum to be fixed by the governor and council for the faithful performance of his duties and for the rendering of a proper account of all money entrusted to him for the use of the commonwealth. Any commissioner designated as aforesaid shall be a person of ability and extended experience in the line of work required in his bureau.

1 Section 5. There shall be directly under the commission a division of personnel and standardization, in charge of a director of personnel and standardization.

1 Section 6. The commission shall, with the approval of the governor and council, appoint, and fix the salary of, the director of personnel and standardization and may, with like approval, remove him. The commission may, subject to the approval of the governor and council, appoint and fix the salaries of such number of deputies as the governor and council shall approve; and it may, with like approval, remove them. It may also employ such other persons as the work of the commission may require and remove them. The commission may expend such sums of money for expenses, including traveling expenses of its officers and employees, as the general court may appropriate.

1 Section 7. The commission shall inquire into the business affairs of the commonwealth and the laws governing them, and shall consider the possibility of promoting economy and efficiency and avoiding useless labor and expense therein. It shall recommend to the governor and council and to the general court, if in session, such measures as in its judgment will tend to accomplish this result. It shall consider and report upon the following questions among others: changes in the laws relating to matters of finance, reorganization, consolidation or coordination of departments and institutions, changes in methods of administration, classification of employees, fixing maximum and minimum salaries and standardizing vacations.
Section 8. On the request of either branch of the general court or of the ways and means committee of either branch, or of the governor, or of the council, or of the finance committee, the commission shall make a report of such of the estimates of departments, officers and commissions made to the budget commissioner under sections three and four of chapter twenty-nine as may be required, and it may make recommendations relative thereto.

Section 9. On request of either branch of the general court or of the ways and means committee of either branch, or of the governor, or of the finance committee, the commission shall make a special examination of, and give to them any information in its possession relative to, any matter affecting the management or finances of any department, officer, commission or undertaking which receives an annual appropriation of money from the commonwealth, including annual appropriations to be met by assessments.

Section 10. The commission may make a special examination of the management or finances of any department, officer, commission or undertaking which receives annual appropriations of money from the commonwealth, including annual appropriations to be met by assessments, and may report thereon from time to time to the governor and council and to the general court, if in session.

Section 11. Whenever requested to make a special examination under section nine, or after first obtaining the approval of the governor or of the finance committee in making a special examination under the preceding section, any commissioner or the director of personnel and standardization may require the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of all books, papers, contracts and documents relating thereto. Witnesses shall be summoned in the same manner and shall be paid the same fees as witnesses before the superior court. The commission may prescribe rules and regulations for the conduct of hearings, and any commissioner or said director may administer oaths to witnesses or take their affirmation. If any person summoned and paid as a witness refuses to attend, or to be sworn or to affirm, or to answer any question, or to produce any book, contract, document or paper pertinent to the matter before any commissioner or said director, a justice of the supreme judicial or the superior court, upon application by said commissioner or director, may issue an order requiring such person to appear before said commissioner or director, and to produce his books, contracts, documents and papers and to give evidence touching the matter in question. Failure to obey such an order of the court may be punished by the court as a contempt thereof. Any person summoned and paid who refuses to attend, or to be sworn or to affirm, or to answer any proper question, or to produce any book, contract, document or paper, pertinent to the matter before any commissioner or said director, and any person who wilfully interrupts or disturbs any hearing, or who is disorderly thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not more than fifty dollars or by imprisonment for not more than one month, or both. Upon application by any commissioner or said director, commissions to take depositions of persons without the commonwealth may be issued by a justice of the supreme judicial or the superior court, to 30 be used in hearings before any commissioner or said director, and all laws 31 and rules relating to such commissions in civil actions shall apply to 32 commissions issued hereunder. This section shall not be construed to 33 compel any person to give any testimony or to produce any evidence, 34 documentary or otherwise, which may tend to incriminate him.

1 Section 12. In making any examination or investigation author-
2 ized under this chapter, any commissioner or the director of personnel
3 and standardization may require the production of books, papers, con-4 tracts and documents relating to any matter within the scope of such 5 examination or investigation.

1 Section 13. The comptroller shall examine all accounts and de-
2 mands against the commonwealth, excepting those for the salaries of 3 the governor and of the justices of the supreme judicial court, for the 4 pay rolls of the executive council and members of the general court, and 5 those due on account of the principal or interest of a public debt. He 6 may require affidavits that articles have been furnished, services ren-7 dered and expenses incurred, as claimed. Such affidavit for any in-8 stitution shall be made by the disbursing officer thereof. The com-9 troller shall make a certificate specifying the amount due and allowed on 10 each account or demand so examined, the name of the person to whom 11 such amount is payable, the law authorizing the same and the head of 12 expenditure to which it is chargeable. If the general court, by express 13 statute, authorizes a department or public officer to approve accounts or 14 demands against the commonwealth, and an appropriation therefor has 15 been made, the comptroller shall, when such accounts or demands have 16 been properly approved, promptly audit and certify such an amount, 17 not exceeding the appropriation therefor, as he may deem correct; and 18 if it appears to him that there are improper charges in said accounts or 19 demands he shall report the same to the governor and council, with a 20 separate certificate therefor. But he shall not certify any bill for print-21 ing incurred in violation of section six of chapter five. He shall keep 22 copies of all such certificates and transmit the originals to the governor, 23 who, with the advice and consent of the council, may issue his warrant 24 to the state treasurer for the amount therein specified as due.

1 Section 14. All original bills and vouchers on which money has 2 been or may be paid from the treasury upon the certificate of the com-
3 troller or the warrant of the governor shall be kept in the comptroller’s 4 office; and all departments, officers or commissions authorized to make 5 contracts under which money may be payable from the treasury shall 6 file with the comptroller certified copies thereof.

1 Section 15. The comptroller shall cause all the printing under the 2 state printing contract to be examined and measured, and no bill for 3 printing shall be allowed unless it is in strict conformity with such con-4 tract. He may employ an expert in printing to examine the bills for 5 printing under such contract and perform such other clerical assistance 6 as the comptroller may require.

1 Section 16. He shall design and install a new accounting system
2 for the commonwealth as provided by chapter five hundred and forty-3 five of the acts of nineteen hundred and twenty-two and prescribe the requisite forms and books of account to be used by each department, office, commission and institution of the commonwealth. After such installation, no form or book of account other than that prescribed as aforesaid shall be used without the approval of the comptroller. He may revise such forms, books or system from time to time. He shall prepare and distribute a book of instructions covering the use and application of said new accounting system for the guidance of the accounting personnel in the various departments, offices, commissions and institutions of the commonwealth.

SECTION 17. He shall keep all general books of account and determine the extent and character of subsidiary accounts to be kept by all departments, offices, commissions and institutions of the commonwealth. He shall have full authority to prescribe, regulate and make changes in the methods of keeping and rendering accounts. He shall establish in each such department, office, commission and institution a proper system of accounts, which shall be uniform so far as is practicable, and a proper system of accounting for stores, supplies, materials and products, and may provide, where he deems it necessary, for a continuing inventory thereof. He shall provide such safeguards and systems of checking as will ensure, so far as possible, the proper collection of all revenue due the commonwealth; and, where he deems it necessary, shall provide that forms and receipts shall be numbered consecutively, making each such department, officer, commission or institution responsible for their use or cancellation.

SECTION 18. The comptroller shall keep a distinct account, under appropriate heads, of all public receipts and expenditures. He shall keep a like account of the school fund and of other public property and of all debts and obligations due to and from the commonwealth; and for such purpose he shall have free access to the books and papers of the several departments, offices, commissions and institutions.

SECTION 19. He shall verify all accounting statements included in reports of departments, offices and commissions, other than the commission on administration and finance, before the publication of such reports. No such report shall be published by any such department, office or commission until such statements are so verified and approved.

SECTION 20. The comptroller’s bureau shall be properly equipped and shall furnish, when required, all accounting statements relating to the financial status, funds, reserves, appropriation control and cost of operation of the commonwealth at the end of the state fiscal year and at intermediate monthly periods when such information is needed in effecting economies before appropriations have been exhausted, or for other purposes.

SECTION 21. In the exercise of the budget commissioner’s functions relative to the preparation of the budget, the records, resources and full co-operation of the comptroller’s bureau shall be available.

1922, 545, § 5. 1923, 362, § 1.

SECTION 22. The commissioners of the commission, sitting as a board, shall, subject to the approval of the governor and council, make 3 rules, regulations and orders which shall regulate and govern the manner
4 and method of the purchasing, delivering and handling of, and the con-
5 tracting for, supplies, equipment and other property for the various 6 state departments, offices and commissions, except when they are for 7 legislative or military purposes. Such rules, regulations and orders 8 shall be of general or limited application, and shall, so far as practicable, 9 be uniform, shall be in conformity with existing laws relative to the pur-
10 chase of articles and materials made by inmates of penal institutions
11 and articles and supplies made by the blind except that such purchase
12 shall be made by or under the direction of the state purchasing agent
13 subject, however, to such approval by the board as would be required
14 if the purchase were made from some other source, and shall include 15 provision for the following:
16 (1) The advertisement for and the receipt of bids for supplies and 17 other property and the stimulation of competition with regard thereto;
18 (2) The purchase of supplies and other property without advertise-19 ment or the receipt of bids, where the amount involved will not exceed 20 five hundred dollars, when, in the judgment of the state purchasing agent, 21 it is expedient;
22 (3) The purchase of supplies and other property without competition, 23 in cases of emergency requiring immediate action;
24 (4) The purchasing of or contracting for certain supplies, equipment 25 and other property by long or short term contracts, or by purchases or 26 contracts made at certain seasons of the year, or by blanket contracts
27 or orders covering the requirements of one or more departments, offices 28 and commissions;
29 (5) Prescribing the times for submitting estimates for various supplies, 30 equipment and other property;
31 (6) Regulations to secure the prompt delivery of commissary and other 32 necessary supplies;
33 (7) Standardization of forms for estimates, orders and contracts;
34 (8) Standardization of specifications for purchasing supplies, equip-35 ment and other property;
36 (9) Standardization of quality, grades and brands to eliminate un-
37 necessary number of commodities or of grades or brands of the same 38 commodity;
39 (10) The purchase of supplies and other property locally, upon per-40 mission, specific or otherwise, of the state purchasing agent;
41 (11) The use and disposal of the products of state institutions;
42 (12) Disposal of obsolete, excess and unsuitable supplies, salvage and 43 waste material and other property and the transfer of same to other 44 departments, offices and commissions;
45 (13) Storage of surplus supplies, equipment and other property not 46 needed for immediate use;
47 (14) The testing of commodities or supplies or samples thereof;
48 (15) Hearings on complaints in respect to the quality, grade or brand 49 of commodities or supplies;
50 (16) The waiver of rules in special cases.
51 (17) A preference in the purchase of supplies and materials, other 52 considerations being equal, in favor of supplies and materials manu-53 factured and sold within the commonwealth.
54 Rules, regulations and orders made under this section shall not re-55 strict otherwise than as provided in this section the several state de-56 partments, offices and commissions as to the quantity of supplies, equipment or other property which may be purchased or contracted for, for them, or as to the nature thereof.

A copy of the rules, regulations and orders issued under this section and at the time being in force shall be delivered or mailed to any person on request, and the commission shall annually give public notice by advertisement inviting such requests and inviting all persons who desire to bid on state supplies, materials or contracts so to signify in writing by sending their names and addresses to the office of the commission with a statement of the class or classes of supplies, materials or contracts on which they desire opportunity to bid. The state purchasing agent, under the direction of the commission, shall maintain a classified list of all persons so signifying such desire and shall make such use of the same for the stimulation of competition as shall be provided by said rules and regulations, having in view the time of delivery, the quantity required, the locality in which delivery is to be made, and any other special circumstances of the case.

For the information of the public and of prospective bidders, the state purchasing agent shall keep and maintain a public list or bulletin enumerating the supplies and materials to be purchased or contracted for and the dates on which bids for the same will be received.

Bids shall be opened in public.

SECTION 23. Any appointed officer failing to comply with any rule, regulation or order made under the preceding section may, after a hearing before the governor and council given to the official concerned, be removed by them.

SECTION 24. The state purchasing agent shall be provided with quarters in the state house and shall establish a supply office therein. He shall keep on hand a reasonable quantity of office stationery and supplies for the use of executive and administrative departments and offices. He may maintain a proper laboratory for the purpose of testing commodities or samples thereof, or may make use of existing facilities suitable for such purpose.

SECTION 25. The state purchasing agent shall advise with the several state institutions that make or are able to make products suitable for the needs of state departments, offices and commissions, and with the heads of such departments, offices and commissions, with a view to ascertaining how best to improve or change such products or the quality or price thereof so as to meet the needs of such state departments, offices and commissions, and may make to such institutions such recommendations relating thereto as seem best.

SECTION 26. In order best to carry out the provisions of the four preceding sections, and sections fifty-one and fifty-two of chapter thirty, there shall be established an advisory standardization board, consisting of the state purchasing agent as its head and such representatives of the several departments, offices and commissions most affected by said provisions as shall be designated by the heads thereof. Said board shall consider and advise as to the needs of the various state activities, how far they can be reasonably harmonized and covered by standard speci-9 fications, and what, if any, materials are so lacking in importance or 10 uniformity as to warrant blanket authorization for their local purchase.

1 Section 27. The state purchasing agent shall furnish to the super-
2 intendent of the Massachusetts reformatory such of the paper used in 3 the execution of the contract for state printing as he may need to fill 4 any order for printing received from any department of the common-5 wealth for printing not included in said contract.

1 Section 28. The division of personnel and standardization may carry 2 on, under the direction of the commission, departmental research, tend-3 ing to greater co-ordination and standardization of administration, in-4 cluding the making of examinations and investigations, and recommen-5 dations based thereon.
6 It may provide technical advisers to undertake engineering investiga-
7 tions in behalf of such departments, offices and commissions as are 8 not organized to do such work.

1 Section 29. All departments, officers and commissions before en-
2 tering upon the preparation of any annual or special report, document or 3 other publication issued by or on behalf of the commonwealth shall 4 submit careful statements of the scope, and estimates of the size, of 5 such publication to the division of personnel and standardization which 6 shall examine them and define the form and extent of such publication, 7 determining the number of pages to which it may extend and whether 8 it shall include maps, plans, photogravures, woodcuts or other illus-9 trations; and no such publication shall be printed unless it bears the cer-10 tified approval of said division. An appeal may be taken from any 11 decision of said division hereunder to the finance committee, whose de-12 cision shall be final. This section shall not apply to publications issued 13 by the officers of either branch of the general court, or issued under 14 special authority given by the general court, or to the regular annual 15 reports of the attorney general, state treasurer, state auditor or state
16 secretary, or to reports of capital trials prepared by the attorney general 17 under section eleven of chapter twelve, or to publications prepared by 18 the state secretary in conformity with sections two and four of chapter 19 five.

1 Section 30. The division shall collect at least once in every fiscal 2 year such information relative to certain officials and employees of the 3 commonwealth as shall be furnished to it under section thirty-eight of 4 chapter thirty, which shall cover the fiscal year preceding. From the 5 information so collected it shall keep a record, open to public inspection.
6 showing the name, residence, designation, rate of compensation and date
7 of appointment or qualification of every such official and employee, and 8 any increase in the rate of salary or compensation paid him during the 9 preceding fiscal year. The record shall also contain such other infor-10 mation concerning such officials and employees as, in the opinion of the 11 division, may be desirable. The comptroller shall, upon request of the 12 division, verify a list of such officials and employees, the amounts and 13 rates of compensation and other information concerning payments to 14 officials and employees about whom information is furnished. The divi-15 sion shall, on or before April fifteenth in each even numbered year, publish a document containing such information concerning said officials and employees in the employ of the commonwealth on the preceding November thirtieth as, in its opinion, may be of public interest. Said document shall contain such summary and comparative tables as will best show the numbers of officials and employees in the service of the commonwealth during the two years preceding said November thirtieth, and during a further period of two years prior thereto, to be arranged in such manner as will make them of the greatest practical utility. The document may be revised or rearranged at the discretion of the division.

SECTION 31. The commissioners, acting as a board, shall decide questions, not involving legislation, which arise on matters relating to accounting standards and practices other than those relating to the establishment of the new accounting system provided for by chapter five hundred and forty-five of the acts of nineteen hundred and twenty-two. Said board shall from time to time authorize such additions to or deductions from the balance sheet account representing state owned property in the said new accounting system as it finds consistent with established accounting standards, and no such additions or deductions shall be made without a majority vote of the whole board and a written certification to that effect. Said board shall pass upon all contracts intended by the state purchasing agent, and no such contract shall be made without the approval of such board.

SECTION 32. In any case in which the commissioners act as a board, each commissioner shall have equal voice; and if there is a tie vote upon any matter, except such as relates to authorizing additions to or deductions from the balance sheet account representing state owned property, the board shall call upon the governor or the person acting in his place to decide the issue.

SECTION 33. The commission shall annually on the second Wednesday in January submit to the general court a printed abstract of its report, exhibiting a full and accurate statement of the financial condition and transactions of the commonwealth for the preceding fiscal year, and as soon as may be thereafter it shall submit its printed report in detail.

SECTION 34. Such report shall contain a summary statement of the receipts into, and payments from, the treasury of the commonwealth for the preceding fiscal year; a detailed statement of such receipts and expenditures, including the expense incurred for the support of all permanent departments, offices, commissions, services and institutions; and all exceptional and special charges incurred for articles purchased. The account shall be so constructed as to show the expenses which have been actually incurred within the fiscal year, whether paid or unpaid at the end of such year. It shall include all items of accounts of expenditure of interest to the public, and, as far as may be, shall show the different departments, officers or commissions under whose direction the expenditure was made and the different officers who have received salaries or other general charges; and no expenditure exceeding five hundred dollars, including separate items, shall be classified under an indefinite head.
Section 35. The report shall show the aggregate amount of funded debt and of all temporary loans at the beginning and end of the fiscal year respectively and the balance of increase or decrease in each case, and state the cause of such increase or decrease. It shall state whether or not the ordinary expenses of the fiscal year have exceeded the income, and show the amount of the balance. It shall contain a particular statement of all transactions affecting the funds belonging to or held in trust by the commonwealth, including new investments of any portion of the same made during the preceding fiscal year, and also of the manner in which the income of the school fund has been disbursed. In making such report the commission shall estimate the value of securities at their market value at the time of making its report. The report shall also include a statement of the transactions of the commission in the performance of its duties not directly connected with state finances. Said report may be published in such parts, or separate volumes, as the commission may determine.

11. Annual report.
12. Prevention of trespasses at state house, etc. Watchmen, etc., to be armed, etc.
13. Fees forbidden.
15. [Repealed.]
16. Land around state house to remain open.
17. Rooms in state house for the several departments of war veterans.
18. Records, etc., of such departments, accessibility, etc.
19. Portraits of certain former governors.
19A. Memorials of certain former governors.
20. Care and maintenance of the old provincial state house.
21. Establishment of permanent memorials in state house regulated.

Section 1. There shall be an officer to be known as the superintendent of buildings, in this chapter called the superintendent.

Section 2. Upon the expiration of the term of office of a superintendent, his successor shall be appointed by the governor, with the advice and consent of the council, for three years. The superintendent shall receive such salary as shall be fixed by the governor, with like advice and consent.

Section 3. [Repealed, 1923, 362, § 9.]

Section 4. He may appoint such clerks, engineers, electricians, firemen, oilers, mechanics, watchmen, elevator operators, porters, cleaners Appointments of employees. 1868, 341.
and other persons as may be necessary to enable him to perform his duties. He shall be responsible for the fitness and good conduct of all such employees and may remove them at his discretion. Appointments under this section shall not be subject to chapter thirty-one.

1919, 330, §§ 17, 18.

Section 5. The pay of scrub women employed by the commonwealth shall be based upon a regular weekly rate of eighteen dollars for thirty-three hours' work. When time is lost or a greater number of hours are worked by them than the aforesaid thirty-three hours, the resulting reductions or additions shall be based upon an hourly rate of fifty-five cents, and they shall be allowed for time off on legal holidays at the regular weekly rate. Scrub women or cleaners regularly employed by the superintendent of buildings shall be paid weekly, and when so employed for a period of at least six months shall be entitled to a vacation each year of two weeks' duration with pay. Such pay shall be based upon the average weekly compensation received by them for the preceding six months' period of employment.

1913, 224.

Section 6. He shall direct the making of all repairs and improvements in the state house and on the state house grounds. All executive and administrative departments and officers shall make requisition upon him for any repairs or improvements necessary in the state house or in other buildings or parts thereof owned by or leased to the commonwealth and occupied by said departments or officers. Such repairs or improvements shall be made only upon such requisition signed by the head of the department or office. This section shall not apply to state institutions or officers thereof.

Section 7. If the state house is damaged by fire or other casualty, during the recess of the general court, the superintendent may make all repairs necessary for the protection and preservation of the building without an appropriation therefor.

Section 9. The superintendent shall, under the supervision of the governor and council, have charge of the care and operation of the state house and its appurtenances and shall have general charge and oversight of any other buildings or parts thereof in Boston owned by or leased to the commonwealth for the use of public officers, and shall see that the chambers and lobbies of the general court and of its committees are kept clean and in good order; shall superintend all ordinary repairs thereof and shall have charge of the current expenses for the care and preservation of the state house and its appurtenances, and for the ordinary repairs of the furniture and fixtures therein. He shall take proper precautions against damage thereto, or to the furniture, fixtures or other public property therein. There shall be maintained an adequate passage-way for foot passengers from north to south through the east wing or extension of the state house, to be kept open during such hours as the superintendent shall fix.

1 Section 10. He may, under the supervision of the governor and council, assign the rooms in the state house and rooms elsewhere used by the commonwealth, and may determine the occupancy thereof in such manner as the public service may require; provided, that the executive and administrative departments of the commonwealth shall be provided with suitable quarters which shall, so far as is expedient, be in the state house; and provided further, that this section shall not apply to rooms assigned to or used by either branch of the general court or any committees or officers thereof, except with the written consent of the presiding officer of the branch using such rooms, or to rooms assigned to or used by joint committees of the general court, except with the written consent of the presiding officers of both branches of the general court, nor shall it apply to the rooms used by the Grand Army of the Republic of the department of Massachusetts under section seventeen, except with the consent of the commander thereof. He shall during the sessions of the general court, upon application of the sergeant-at-arms, assign such rooms as may be required for the use of committees and other purposes.

1 Section 10A. When a state department, commission or board is authorized to procure quarters or to occupy premises outside of the state house or other building owned by the commonwealth, the executive and administrative head of such department, commission or board shall, in the name and behalf of the commonwealth, execute the lease, but no such lease shall be valid until approved by the superintendent of buildings and the governor and council.

1 Section 11. The superintendent shall submit an annual report to the governor and such other reports as the governor may require.

1 Section 12. The superintendent shall take proper care to prevent any trespass on, or injury to, the state house or its appurtenances, or any other building or part thereof in Boston owned by or leased to the commonwealth for public offices; and if any such trespass or injury is committed, he shall cause the offender to be prosecuted therefor. For any criminal offence committed in any part of the state house or the grounds appurtenant thereto, or in any other building in Boston owned by or leased to the commonwealth, the superintendent and his watchmen shall have the same power to make arrests as the police officers of Boston. The superintendent may arm his watchmen and assistant watchmen and, in case of an emergency, may arm and detail as watchmen for extra duty such employees in his department as, in his judgment, the emergency requires for the proper protection of state property under his jurisdiction.

1 Section 13. No fee or reward shall be taken by the superintendent, the sergeant-at-arms or by any person under the authority of either of them for opening the public rooms in the state house for the view and inspection of visitors.

1 Section 14. The superintendent may expend not more than fifteen hundred dollars annually for the maintenance of the museum established.
lished in the state house for the preservation and exhibition of the regimental flags and other military relics in the possession of the commonwealth and of other objects connected with the military history of the United States and especially of the New England states.

Section 16. The land now taken by the commonwealth about the state house shall remain an open space, and no railroad or railway shall be constructed or operated in, upon or over the same. A grant made to a railroad or railway corporation shall not be construed to include any portion of said land.

Section 17. There shall be set apart and suitably furnished a room or rooms in the state house for the use of the Grand Army of the Republic of the department of Massachusetts, the Massachusetts department of The American Legion, of the United Spanish War Veterans and of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States, respectively, such room or rooms to be under the charge of the state commanders of the respective departments, subject to this chapter. The headquarters thus established for the first named department shall be used for storing its supplies and property, relics and mementos of the war of the rebellion and for arranging and preserving a history of persons, who served in the army, navy or marine corps during such war in organizations of the commonwealth, or of citizens of the commonwealth who served in the regular army, navy or marine corps of the United States, which said department may collect or desire to preserve. The headquarters thus established for each of the other departments shall be used for storing and preserving the records and other property of the department and relics and mementos of the World war and Spanish war.

Section 18. The histories, relics and mementos of the Grand Army of the Republic of the department of Massachusetts and the records of the Massachusetts department of the United Spanish War Veterans, of The American Legion and of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States shall be accessible at all times, under suitable rules and regulations, to members of the respective departments and to others engaged in collecting historical information. Whenever any such department ceases to exist, its records, papers, relics and other effects shall become the property of the commonwealth.

Section 19. The governor, with the advice and consent of the council, may expend, for the purpose of procuring portraits of the governors of the commonwealth who shall have held office subsequent to May fourth, nineteen hundred, not more than three thousand dollars for each such portrait, and such portrait shall be hung in the state house under the direction of the art commission.

Section 19A. The governor, with the advice and consent of the council, may, on behalf of the commonwealth, accept or otherwise procure suitable portraits or other memorials of the governors of the commonwealth and also of the governors of the province and colony of 5 Massachusetts Bay and the colony of New Plymouth. Portraits or 6 other memorials procured under this section shall be submitted to the 7 art commission for approval prior to their installation in the state house 8 which shall be under the direction of said commission.

1 Section 20. There shall be allowed and paid annually by the com- 2 monwealth the sum of fifteen hundred dollars, to be expended under 3 the direction of the governor and council, for the care and maintenance 4 of the old provincial state house in Boston.

1918, Sp. 160, § 1.

1 Section 21. No tablet, statue or other memorial of a permanent 2 character shall be placed in the state house without the approval of the 3 general court.

1 Section 1. There shall be a department of the state secretary under 2 his supervision and control, organized as provided in this chapter. The 3 state secretary shall receive a salary of seven thousand dollars. He shall 4 make a quarterly return on oath to the governor and council of all fees 5 of office received by him, and give to the state treasurer a bond, in a 6 penal sum and with sureties approved by the governor and council, 7 conditioned satisfactorily to account for all money received by him in 8 his official capacity.

He may also 4 appoint clerks, messengers and other assistants necessary for the prompt 5 despatch of public business. He may also employ such clerical assist- 6 ance as he may deem necessary to carry out the laws relative to pri-
STATE SECRETARY.

Supervisor of public records. 1889, Rev. 103. 1892, 353. §§ 1, 2. R. L. 35. §§ 1, 2. 1913, 485, § 1. 1919, 350, § 24.

Decennial certification of number of registered voters. Verification. Special enumeration of legal voters. 1924, 453, § 1.

Decennial census. Verification; compilation. 1855, 459, § 3. 1857, 60, §§ 1, 2. G. S. 20, §§ 1, 2. 1863, 69, §§ 1, 3, 7. 1874, 356, §§ 1, 2, 8. P. S. 31, § 1. 1884, 181, §§ 1, 18. 1894, 224, §§ 1, 18.

Section 3. If the secretary is disabled from performing his official duties, his deputies shall perform the same during such disability. In the event of a vacancy in the office of secretary, the first deputy shall be continued in office, and shall perform all statutory duties of the secretary until a secretary is duly qualified.

Section 4. The secretary shall, with the approval of the governor and council, appoint, and may, with like approval, remove, a competent person to be known as supervisor of public records. Said supervisor, under the supervision of the secretary, shall perform the duties required of him by law, and such other duties as the secretary determines.

Section 5. The secretary may expend not more than three thousand dollars annually for such traveling, clerical and other necessary expenses in connection with the duties required of the supervisor of public records under chapter sixty-six as the governor and council may approve.

Section 6. In nineteen hundred and twenty-five and every tenth year thereafter, the registrars of voters, election commissioners or other officials having charge of the registers of voters in each city and town shall certify under oath to the secretary on or before June thirtieth the number of registered voters in their respective cities and towns on the preceding March thirty-first, specifying in the case of cities the number of registered voters in each ward. The secretary may in his discretion verify any such information in such manner as he deems advisable, and for this purpose may inspect the records of said officials and call upon them for such further information as he desires. From the returns so made, with such amendments as the secretary finds necessary to correct any errors or omissions therein, he shall compile the special enumeration of legal voters required by Articles XXI and XXII of the amendments to the constitution, and shall submit the result thereof to the general court by filing the same with the clerk of the house of representatives as soon as possible thereafter.

Section 7. In nineteen hundred and twenty-five and every tenth year thereafter, the mayor of every city and the selectmen of every town shall cause a census to be made of the inhabitants of their respective cities and towns residing therein on March thirty-first, on forms provided by the secretary, and in accordance with his instructions, and shall return the same under oath to the office of the secretary on or before June thirtieth following, together with a sworn statement of the total of such census. In making such census the services and facilities of the assessors and police of a city or town shall be available to the mayor of such city or the selectmen of such town. The secretary may in his 11 discretion verify any such census in such manner as he deems advisable, 12 and for this purpose may inspect the records of any city or town and 13 call upon the mayor or selectmen for such further information as he 14 desires. From the returns so made, with such amendments as the 15 secretary may find necessary to correct any errors or omissions therein, 16 he shall compile the census of inhabitants of each city and town required 17 by Articles XXI and XXII of the amendments to the constitution, and 18 may publish the results thereof in such form as he may determine.

1 Section 8. The secretary shall make available for inspection and 2 copying by the federal authorities charged with the taking of the United 3 States census such information in his possession as said authorities may 4 desire.

1 Section 9. The secretary shall, with the approval of the governor 2 and council, appoint, and may, with like approval, remove, a competent 3 person to be known as the state census director. Said director, under 4 the supervision of the secretary, shall have charge of compiling infor- 5 mation in connection with said decennial census and enumeration and 6 of the enumeration of summer residents under section fourteen of chapter 7 one hundred and thirty-eight. He shall perform such other duties as 8 the secretary determines. The secretary may appoint and remove such 9 temporary officers, clerks and other assistants as are necessary to assist 10 him in performing the duties required in connection with said enumera- 11 tion and census. Appointments under this section shall not be subject 12 to chapter thirty-one. For the purposes of such enumeration and 13 census, the secretary or the state census director may require the at- 14 tendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of books and 15 documents, and may examine witnesses on oath; and such witnesses 16 shall be examined in the same manner and be paid the same fees as 17 witnesses in civil actions before the courts.

1 State census director and assistants. Duties. 2 Director, etc., may require attendance, etc., of witnesses. 3 Article 8, § 2. 4 Mass. Acts, ed. of 1920, §§ 6, 9. 1904, 423, § 1. 5 1909, 371, §§ 2, 7, 8, 10. 6 1910, 475. 7 1912, 560, § 1. 8 1914, 692, §§ 1, 11.

1 Section 10. The state secretary may, with the approval of the 2 governor and council, appoint and remove a state registrar of vital sta- 3 tistics, who shall be a competent statistician. The said registrar may 4 under the direction of the secretary, enforce all laws relative to the 5 registry and return of births, marriages and deaths, and may prosecute 6 in the name of the commonwealth any violations thereof.

1 Section 11. The state secretary shall have the custody of the great 2 seal of the commonwealth; and copies of records and papers in his de- 3 partment, certified by him and authenticated by said seal, shall be 4 evidence like the originals.

1 Section 12. He shall have the custody of the books of records of 2 grants and conveyances of land formerly held by the commonwealth 3 situated in the state of Maine, and of all other books and records relative 4 thereto.

1 Section 13. He shall, except as otherwise provided by section four 2 of chapter sixty-four, have the custody of all stereotype, electotype, 3 plates.
steel and copper plates and woodcuts, owned by the commonwealth, and may dispose of them as in his judgment the best interests of the commonwealth require.

Section 14. [Repealed, 1923, 362, § 12.]

Section 15. The secretary shall send by registered mail to every justice of the peace or notary public a notice of the time of expiration of his commission, not more than thirty nor less than fourteen days before such expiration.

1917, 42, §3.

Section 16. He shall annually in January send to the town clerks and registrars a list of all justices of the peace designated under section thirty-nine of chapter two hundred and seven, with the dates of expiration of their commissions and notice of any revocation of a designation.

Section 17. He shall, in addition to the special reports required by law, make an annual report showing the transactions of his department for the preceding fiscal year. He shall include therein a report showing the aggregate vote, both affirmative and negative, on every act or part of an act which shall have been referred by the general court for acceptance or rejection to the voters of any political subdivision of the commonwealth or to the city council of any city during the year; the returns of the number of licenses for the sale of certain non-intoxicating beverages, as defined in section one of chapter one hundred and thirty-eight, granted by the several towns, the amounts received for the same, and the votes of the towns on the question of granting the same; the returns by the sheriffs of the several counties of money received by them and the number of days they have attended upon a court of record and upon the county commissioners, and the abstracts and tabular statements of facts and statistics relative to the trial of cases in the superior court for the several counties prepared from the returns furnished to him as required by section twenty-four of chapter two hundred and twenty-one. He shall also include in such report a record of the work of his department in respect to public records under chapter sixty-six, with recommendations and suggestions relative thereto.

Section 19. The state secretary, having first obtained authority from the governor and council, may destroy or sell such documents, records and papers as in his judgment are of no value; and if sold, the proceeds thereof shall be paid to the commonwealth.

general or any other person by them authorized therefor shall commence an action thereon and prosecute it to final judgment, execution and satisfaction.

Section 4. If any person represents on oath that the treasurer is insane or manifestly insolvent, or has absconded or concealed himself, or is absent from the commonwealth or from the duties of his office to the hazard of the public treasury, the governor, with the advice and consent of the council, if upon examination such representation appears to be true, may designate the first deputy treasurer, upon his giving bond to the commonwealth for the faithful performance of his duties in a sum and with sureties approved by them, to perform the duties of the office until the governor, with the advice and consent of the council, otherwise orders.

Section 5. The state treasurer may, with the consent of the governor and council, appoint, and may for cause with such consent remove, a first and a second deputy treasurer, shall prescribe their respective duties, and, with the approval of the governor and council, shall determine their salaries. During the illness, absence or other disability of the treasurer, his official duties shall be performed by the said deputies in the order of seniority. The treasurer may employ in his department to assist him in the performance of his duties, other than those in connection with the board of retirement, an accountant, a junior accountant, a paying teller, a warrant teller, an assistant warrant teller, a receiving teller, an assistant receiving teller, a bond clerk, a fund clerk, a warrant clerk, a record clerk, a messenger and two stenographers and expend for additional clerical and other assistance such sum as may be appropriated therefor. He may employ a suitable person whom, upon his written recommendation, the governor may appoint as a special state police officer for a term of three years unless sooner removed; in employing said person preference shall be given to persons who have served in the military or naval forces of the United States in time of war and have been honorably discharged from such service or released from active duty therein. All said employees shall give bond to the commonwealth, with sureties to be approved by the treasurer, for the faithful performance of their duties.

Section 6. The state treasurer shall annually certify to the commissioner of corporations and taxation the average deposits of every corporation or organization required to make deposits in trust with the state treasurer.

Section 7. He shall receive from the United States all sums of money paid for the benefit of the Massachusetts soldiers' home under authority of any act of congress, and pay them over to the treasurer of said soldiers' home, or to any persons authorized to receive the same, without specific appropriation.

Section 8. He shall receive from the United States all sums of money payable to the commonwealth under any act of congress for the construction of any highways therein. The sums so received shall be expended upon the order or approval of the division of highways of the department of public works without specific appropriation.
1 SECTION 8A. He shall receive from the United States all sums of money payable to the commonwealth under any act of congress, providing for co-operation in the prevention of forest fires, by way of reimbursement for sums expended by the commonwealth on account of such prevention, or otherwise, and any sums allotted to the commonwealth for the purpose of protecting, preserving or developing its woodlands. The sums so received shall be held as the Federal Forestry 8 Fund and be expended upon the order or approval of the division of 9 forestry of the department of conservation without specific appropriation.

1 SECTION 9. He shall annually, on the first Monday of May, transmit to the attorney general an account of bonds, notes and securities in the treasury in which the commonwealth is interested and on which the principal or interest remains due and unpaid or of which the conditions have not been performed, classifying them under distinct heads.

1 SECTION 10. He shall annually, on the first Wednesday in January, report to the general court a statement of the transactions of his department for the preceding fiscal year, including a specific statement of all warrants remaining unpaid and of the names of the persons in whose favor they are drawn.

1 SECTION 11. He shall annually, as soon after the proration of the general court as is practicable, publish a statement showing the assessments for interest, sinking fund and maintenance requirements due from towns in the metropolitan sewerage systems, north and south, metropolitan parks and water districts; a statement showing the several classes of debts incurred for metropolitan district purposes, and the share of the towns in the several districts as measured by the basis used in computing the assessments mentioned in the first statement; and such other statements, if any, as he may deem advisable. The expense of printing shall be apportioned and paid in equal parts from the maintenance funds of the sewerage systems, north and south, the parks system and water system.

1 SECTION 12. Upon a vacancy in the office of state treasurer, the state secretary, with two suitable persons appointed by warrant of the governor, shall, after notice to the former treasurer, or, if he is deceased, to his heirs, executors or administrators, and to his sureties or one of them, or to such of them as are within the commonwealth, seal up and secure, in their presence if they attend, all money, papers and other things supposed to be the property of the commonwealth; and they shall give such representatives or sureties, if required by them, a true list of all packages so sealed up and of the places where they are deposited.

1 SECTION 13. As soon thereafter as may be, and after like notice, the state secretary and the two persons so appointed shall cause the packages to be examined, and a true inventory to be taken of the money and of all bonds, notes, securities, books and such other things pertaining to said office as shall be required by the former treasurer or by his representatives or sureties. A copy of such inventory shall be deposited in the state secretary’s office, and copies shall be given on request to any of said persons. The state secretary and said two persons shall safely keep all property so inventoried until a treasurer is duly qualified, to whom they shall deliver the same, taking duplicate receipts from him therefor, one of which shall be deposited with the state secretary and the other with the former treasurer or his legal representatives or sureties.

Section 14. The new state treasurer shall, upon his election or appointment and qualification, give duplicate receipts for all property of the commonwealth transmitted to him, one of which shall be deposited with the state secretary; and such receipts shall be sufficient evidence for his predecessor of the delivery of said property, and shall be his sufficient discharge therefor.

Section 15. The state treasurer may receive from the trustees of Massachusetts training schools the principal of the various trust funds conveyed or bequeathed to the said trustees for the use of any institution of which they are trustees; and upon the request of said trustees he shall pay out the income of all such funds, and such part of the principal as may be subject to the control of said trustees, in such manner as the trustees may direct, subject to any condition affecting the administration thereof. The state treasurer may also receive from said trustees the unclaimed money paid over under section twenty-three A of chapter one hundred and twenty which shall be held by him as two separate funds, one to consist of money belonging to former male wards of said eleven trustees the income of which shall be expended as directed by the said twelve trustees for the purpose of securing special training or education for or otherwise aiding and assisting their meritorious male wards, and the fourteen other to consist of money belonging to former female wards of said fifteen trustees the income of which shall be expended for their female wards sixteen in the same manner and for the same purposes as above provided for seventeen their male wards. Upon certificate of the comptroller that a claim eighteen thereto satisfactory to him shall have been established and approved nineteen in writing by the attorney general, the state treasurer shall pay to any twenty former ward, or to his legal representatives in case of his death, the twenty-one amount of money held for his benefit and paid over to the state treasurer twenty under said section twenty-three A without any accumulations accruing twenty-three thereto after such payment over, out of the principal of the fund in twenty-four which the money so claimed was held as aforesaid. The said funds, if twenty-five in cash, shall be invested safely by the state treasurer, or, if in securities, twenty-six he may hold them in their original form or, upon the approval of the twenty-seven governor and council, sell them and reinvest the proceeds in securities twenty-eight which are legal investments for the commonwealth sinking funds. He twenty-nine shall be held responsible for the faithful management of said trust funds thirty in the same manner as for other funds held by him in his official capacity.

Section 16. He shall invest, reinvest and hold in the name of the commonwealth any money or securities, or the proceeds thereof, received from the department of education under section three of chapter sixty-nine, or from the commissioner of conservation under section one hundred and fifteen of chapter one hundred and thirty-one, under section two of chapter one hundred and thirty-two or under section one of chapter one hundred and thirty-two A, or from the trustees of the state library under section thirty-seven A of chapter six, and shall disburse the income or principal thereof on the order of the commissioner of the 10 department having charge of the work in aid of which the gift or bequest 11 was made, or on the order of the trustees of the state library in case of 12 gifts or bequests for the use of the state library; provided, that no dis-
13 position of either income or principal shall be made which is inconsist 14 with the terms of the trust on which the property is held. He shall be 15 responsible on his bond for the faithful management of all such property.

1 Section 17. The state treasurer may receive the principal of any 2 fund given or bequeathed to the commonwealth or to the department of 3 mental diseases for the use of insane, feeble minded or epileptic persons 4 or those addicted to the intemperate use of narcotics or stimulants in 5 any institution or placed under the supervision of said department; and 6 upon its request he shall expend the income of all such funds, and such 7 part of the principal as may be subject to the control of said department, 8 in such manner as it may direct, subject to any condition affecting the 9 administration thereof. Said funds shall be invested safely by the state 10 treasurer, and he shall be held responsible for the faithful management 11 of the same in the same manner as for other funds held by him.

BOARD OF RETIREMENT.

1 Section 18. There shall be a state board of retirement serving in 2 the department, consisting of three members, one of whom shall be the 3 state treasurer, ex officio, who shall be chairman, a second member 4 elected by the state retirement association established under section two 5 of chapter thirty-two from among their number in such manner as the 6 commissioner of insurance may determine, and a third member chosen 7 by the other two. If the third member is not so chosen within thirty 8 days after the election of the second, the governor shall appoint the 9 third member for a term of three years. Upon the expiration of the 10 term of office of an elected, chosen or appointed member or in case of a 11 vacancy in either of said offices, his successor shall be elected, chosen 12 or appointed as aforesaid for three years.

1 Section 19. The members of the board shall serve without compen-
2 sation, but they shall be reimbursed out of the contingent fund provided 3 in section four of chapter thirty-two for any expense or loss of salary or 4 wages which they may incur through service on the board. All claims
5 for reimbursement on this account shall be subject to the approval of 6 the governor and council.

1 Section 20. The state treasurer may appoint and remove such cler-
2 ical and other assistants as may be required to carry on the work of the 3 state board of retirement.

1919, 350, § 29. 1931, 301, § 58.

COMMISSIONERS ON FIREMEN'S RELIEF.

1 Section 21. There shall be a board to be known as the commis-
2 sioners on firemen's relief serving in the department and consisting of 3 the state treasurer, ex officio, two members appointed by the governor,
4 with the advice and consent of the council, and two members appointed 5 by the Massachusetts state firemen's association. Upon the expiration 6 of the term of office of an appointive member, his successor shall be 7 appointed as aforesaid for two years. Any vacancy existing shall be 8 filled for the unexpired term in the manner of the original appointment.

Section 1. There shall be a department to be known as the department of the state auditor under his supervision and control, organized as provided in this chapter. The state auditor shall receive a salary of six thousand dollars and shall give to the state treasurer a bond for the faithful performance of his official duties in a penal sum and with sureties approved by the governor and council.

Section 2. He shall, with the consent of the governor and council, appoint a first deputy auditor, at a salary to be fixed by the auditor, with the approval of the governor and council, who shall perform such duties as may be assigned to him by the auditor and who may be removed by him for cause at any time, with the consent of the governor and council. If, by reason of sickness, absence or other cause, the auditor is temporarily unable to perform the duties of his office, the first deputy shall perform the same until such disability ceases. In the event of a vacancy in the office of auditor, the first deputy shall be continued in office and shall perform all statutory duties of the auditor until an auditor shall be duly qualified. The first deputy shall give bond to the commonwealth for the faithful discharge of his duties, in a sum not exceeding five thousand dollars.

Section 5. He may, subject to confirmation by the governor and council, appoint a deputy in his department at a salary not exceeding thirty-five hundred dollars. The requirements of section two as to the bonding of the first deputy shall apply to the deputy appointed hereunder.

Section 6. The state auditor may appoint and remove such employees as the work of the department may require. Said employees shall be organized in two divisions, namely, the division of receipts and the division of disbursements. The employees in the division of receipts shall be qualified to check actual receipts.

   missions, institutions and activities of the commonwealth, including those of the income tax division of the department of corporations and taxation, and for said purpose the authorized officers and employees of said department of the state auditor shall have access to such accounts at reasonable times and said department may require the production of books, documents and vouchers, except tax returns, relating to any matter within the scope of such audit. The accounts of the last named department shall be subject at any time to such examination as the governor or council or the general court may order. Said department shall comply with any written regulations, consistent with law, relative to its duties made by the governor and council. This section shall not apply to the accounts of state officers which the director of accounts of the department of corporations and taxation is required by law to examine. The department of the state auditor shall keep no books or

SECTION 1. There shall be a department of the attorney general, under his supervision and control, organized as provided in this chapter. The attorney general shall receive a salary of eight thousand dollars. He shall be a member of the bar of the commonwealth.

SECTION 2. He may appoint such assistants as the duties of the department require and a chief clerk and, with the approval of the governor and council, shall fix their compensation. He may appoint a cashier and, subject to the approval of the governor and council, fix his salary. Such cashier shall give bond to the commonwealth in such sum as is determined by the attorney general. He may, with the approval of the governor and council, employ additional legal assistance. Appointments under this section shall be exempt from chapter thirty-one.

SECTION 3. The attorney general shall appear for the commonwealth and for state departments, officers and commissions in all suits and other civil proceedings in which the commonwealth is a party or interested, or in which the official acts and doings of said departments, officers and commissions are called in question, in all the courts of the commonwealth, except upon criminal recognizances and bail bonds, and in such suits and proceedings before any other tribunal when requested by the governor or by the general court or either branch thereof. All such suits and proceedings shall be prosecuted or defended by him or under his direction. Writs, summons or other processes served upon such officers shall be forthwith transmitted by them to him. All legal services required by such departments, officers, commissions and commissioners of pilots for the harbor of Boston in matters relating to their official duties shall, except as otherwise provided, be rendered by the attorney general or under his direction.
SECTION 3A. The attorney general shall investigate all claims against the commonwealth which may be presented to him, provided there is not any statutory authority whereby the claimant may prosecute his claim by suit, at law or in equity, against the commonwealth, or any other mode of redress provided by law. To carry out the provisions of this section he may hold hearings, take evidence, administer oaths and issue subpoenas. If after investigation the attorney general finds that any claimant is justly entitled to damages, there shall be paid from the state treasury for settlement in full of such claim from such appropriation as may be made by the general court for the purposes of this section such sum, not exceeding one thousand dollars on any one claim, as the attorney general shall determine to be just and reasonable and as the governor and council shall approve. Should the attorney general find any claimant to be justly entitled to damages in excess of one thousand dollars, he shall report to the general court the facts as found by him and his recommendations relative thereto.

SECTION 3B. Upon the filing with the attorney general of a written request of any officer or employee of the commonwealth or of the metropolitan district commission that the attorney general defend him against an action for damages for bodily injuries, including death at any time resulting therefrom, arising out of the operation of a motor vehicle owned by the commonwealth, including one under the control of said commission, wherein such officer or employee consents to be bound by any decision that the attorney general may make in connection with the trial or settlement of such action, the attorney general shall, if after investigation it appears to him that such officer or employee was at the time the cause of action arose acting within the scope of his official duties or employment, take over the management and defence of such action. The attorney general may adjust or settle any such action, at any time before, during or after trial, if he finds after investigation that the plaintiff is entitled to damages from such officer or employee, and in such case there shall be paid from the state treasury for settlement in full of such action from such appropriation as may be made by the general court for the purposes of this section such sum, not exceeding five thousand dollars, as the attorney general shall determine to be just and reasonable and as the governor and council shall approve.

If an execution issued on a final judgment in such an action is presented to the state treasurer by an officer qualified to serve civil process and if there is also presented to or on file with said state treasurer a certificate of the attorney general certifying that said execution was issued on a judgment in an action in which he appeared for and defended the defendant in accordance with the provisions of this section, there shall be paid from the state treasury from the appropriation above referred to, the amount of the execution, including costs and interest, up to but not in excess of five thousand dollars.

SECTION 4. He shall enforce the collection of such money due on the bonds, notes and securities listed in the accounts transmitted to him under section nine of chapter ten, and the performance of such conditions therein referred to as, with due regard to the situation of the debtors, he may consider that the interests of the commonwealth require.
Section 5. All civil actions to recover money for the commonwealth may be brought in the name of the commonwealth by the attorney general or by a district attorney.

Section 6. He shall consult with and advise district attorneys in matters relating to their duties; and, if in his judgment the public interest so requires, he shall assist them by attending the grand jury in the examination of a case in which the accused is charged with a capital crime, and appear for the commonwealth in the trial of indictments for capital crimes.

Section 7. He may, if in his judgment the public interest so requires, prosecute informations or other processes against persons who intrude on the land, rights or property of the commonwealth, or commit or erect a nuisance thereon.

Section 8. He shall enforce the due application of funds given or appropriated to public charities within the commonwealth, and prevent breaches of trust in the administration thereof.

Section 9. He shall, when required by either branch of the general court, attend during its sessions and give his aid and advice in the arrangement and preparation of legislative documents and business, and shall give his opinion upon questions of law submitted to him by the governor and council or by either branch of the general court. He, or some person designated by him, shall, when requested by a vote of a legislative committee, appear before such committee and advise it upon the legal effect of proposed legislation pending before it.

Section 10. He shall take cognizance of all violations of law or of orders of courts, tribunals or commissions affecting the general welfare of the people, including combinations, agreements and unlawful practices in restraint of trade or for the suppression of competition, or for the undue enhancement of the price of articles or commodities in common use, and shall institute or cause to be instituted such criminal or civil proceedings before the appropriate state and federal courts, tribunals and commissions as he may deem to be for the public interest, and shall investigate all matters in which he has reason to believe that there have been such violations. To carry out this section, he may appoint necessary assistants, with such compensation as, with the approval of the governor and council, he may fix, and may expend such sums as may be approved by the governor and council. In criminal proceedings hereunder he may require district attorneys to assist him and under his direction to act for him in their respective districts.
Section 11. He shall make an annual report showing the number of cases tried, argued or conducted by him during the preceding fiscal year, with suggestions and recommendations as to the amendment and the proper and economical administration of the laws. He shall within a statement of his acts under section nine, with suggestions and recommendations relative thereto. He may, with the approval of the governor and council, prepare and publish such reports of capital trials as he deems expedient for public use. One copy shall be sent to each public and law library in the commonwealth, and the balance may be sold, or otherwise disposed of, at the discretion of the 11 state secretary.

District Attorneys.

Section 12. There shall be a district attorney for each district set forth in the following section, who shall be a resident therein and a member of the bar of the commonwealth and shall be elected as provided by section one hundred and fifty-four of chapter fifty-four. He shall serve for four years beginning with the first Wednesday in January after his election and until his successor is qualified.

22 second assistant, two thousand dollars.

1 Section 17. [Repealed, 1923, 398, § 3.]

1 Section 18. If there is no assistant district attorney, the district

2 attorney may, with the approval of the superior court, employ a clerk

3 to aid him; and in the northern, eastern, middle, southeastern, western

4 and northwestern districts, the court may appoint, for the sitting at

5 which the appointment is made, a competent person to act as an assist-

6 ant to the district attorney. The compensation of any person employed

7 or appointed hereunder shall be paid from the county treasury, or, if

8 two or more counties constitute the district, equally from the treasury

9 of each.

1 Section 19. The district attorney for the Suffolk district may ap-

2 point a messenger and, with the approval of the chief justice of the

3 superior court, such stenographers, telephone operators and other office

4 assistants as in his opinion the interests of the commonwealth require.

5 The compensation of any person appointed hereunder shall be paid

6 by Suffolk county, and any such person may be removed by said dis-

7 trict attorney at his pleasure.

1900, 460, §§ 1, 2, 4. 1918, 281. 1921, 235, § 1. 1930, 400, §§ 5, 7-9.

1 Section 20. The district attorney for the Suffolk district may

2 employ additional legal assistants, with the approval of the chief justice

3 of the superior court. The length of time of such employment, which

4 shall in no instance exceed three months, and the amount of compens-

5 ation, which shall in no instance exceed two thousand dollars, shall be

6 determined by said district attorney, with the approval of said chief

7 justice. Such compensation shall be paid by the treasurer of Suffolk

8 county upon presentation of bills approved by said district attorney, by 9 said chief justice and by the auditor of said county. In matters con-

10 nected with the work for which he is so employed, an attorney shall 11 have all the powers and authority of an assistant district attorney.

1 Section 20A. The district attorney for the Suffolk district may

2 appoint an attorney-at-law as a special assistant district attorney, whose

3 duties shall be the listing and assignment of cases, under the supervision

4 of the district attorney, and may remove him at pleasure. Such special

5 assistant shall have all the powers of an assistant district attorney and

6 shall receive from the commonwealth such salary not exceeding four

7 thousand dollars as the district attorney may determine.

1 Section 21. The superintendent of police of Boston shall, upon the

2 written request of the district attorney for the Suffolk district, detail for

Detail for police and detective police and detective service under his direction inspectors or police officers, not exceeding two in number. Such inspectors or officers shall receive no extra compensation for services thus rendered, and shall be subject to the rules and regulations of the police department, unless relieved therefrom temporarily by said superintendent or by the police commissioner of Boston.

SECTION 22. The district attorney for the northern or southeastern district may employ such persons for clerical or stenographic work as may be approved by any justice of the superior court, and may remove them at his pleasure. Their compensation shall be paid, if they were employed by the district attorney for the northern district, by Middlesex county; or if employed by the district attorney for the southeastern district, by Norfolk and Plymouth counties, one half from each.

SECTION 23. Except in the Suffolk district, and except as otherwise provided in section twenty-four of this chapter and in section fifteen of chapter two hundred and seventy-six, district attorneys and assistant district attorneys shall receive for traveling expenses necessarily incurred in the performance of their official duties such sums as shall be approved by a justice of the superior court, to be paid by the commonwealth.

SECTION 24. A district attorney, in the name of any county in his district, may contract such bills for stationery, experts, travel outside of the commonwealth by witnesses required by the commonwealth in the prosecution of cases, for necessary expenses incurred by himself or by officers and others under his direction in going outside of the commonwealth for the purpose of searching for or bringing back for trial persons under indictment in said county, and for such other expenses as may in his opinion be necessary for the proper conduct of his office in the investigation of or preparation and trial of criminal causes; and all such bills shall be paid by the county for the benefit of which they were contracted upon a certificate by the district attorney that they were necessarily incurred in the proper performance of his duty, and upon approval of the auditor of Suffolk county if the bills were incurred for said county, otherwise upon the approval of the county commissioners or of a justice of the superior court.

SECTION 25. Money to be used for the necessary expenses to be incurred by officers, under the direction of a district attorney, in going outside of the commonwealth for the purpose of searching for, or bringing back for trial, persons under indictment in any county in the district of said district attorney shall be advanced by the treasurer of that county, upon the presentation of a certificate signed by the district attorney and approved in the manner provided in the preceding section for approving bills incurred by district attorneys. After their return, such officers shall account for such money by filing with the county treasurer itemized vouchers duly sworn to, approved by the district attorney and also approved in the manner provided in the preceding section for approving bills incurred by district attorneys. Such vouchers shall show the necessary expenses so incurred, and any unexpended balance of such money shall be paid to the county treasurer.
Chap. 12.]  DISTRICT ATTORNEYS.  163

1. Section 25A. Money to be used for necessary expenses to be incurred in the performance of the duties of a district attorney in relation to any investigation or proceeding in any county in his district, to an amount not exceeding two thousand dollars in any one month, shall be advanced by him to the treasurer of said county, or placed to his credit for advance under his direction to persons designated by him, upon the presentation of a certificate signed by him certifying that such amount is necessary for use as aforesaid. Every sum so advanced shall be accounted for by the said district attorney within two months after such advance and said accounts shall be approved in the manner provided in section twenty-four for approving bills incurred by district attorneys; provided, that all sums so advanced by the treasurer of any county during any financial year shall be accounted for, and any unexpended balances thereof be repaid to said treasurer, prior to January tenth next following the close of said financial year.

1. Section 26. The supreme judicial or superior court may at any sitting, in the absence of the attorney general and district attorney, appoint some suitable person to perform their duties.

General duties of district attorneys.
§ 458.

1. Section 27. District attorneys within their respective districts shall appear for the commonwealth in the superior court in all cases, criminal or civil, in which the commonwealth is a party or interested, and in the hearing, in the supreme judicial court, of all questions of law arising in the cases of which they respectively have charge, shall aid the attorney general in the duties required of him, and perform such of his duties as are not required of him personally; but the attorney general, when present, shall have the control of such cases. They may interchange official duties.

1. Section 28. District attorneys shall commence suits upon recogn-izances in criminal cases within their respective districts within sixty days after default has been entered of record, or after they have satisfactory evidence of an act which would cause a forfeiture thereof, and shall prosecute them without delay. Such suits shall not be discontinued except with consent of the court or upon a certificate, signed by the sheriff or his deputy and filed in court, that the amount of the recognizance and the costs of suit have been paid to him. They may, however, be begun after the expiration of said sixty days.

1. Section 29. The attorney general and the district attorneys shall account to the state treasurer for all fees, bills of costs and money received by them by virtue of their offices.

1. Section 30. No prosecuting officer shall receive any fee or reward from or in behalf of a prosecutor for services in any prosecution or business to which it is his official duty to attend, nor shall he be concerned as counsel or attorney for either party in a civil action depending upon the same facts involved in such prosecution or business.

138 Mass. 601.
DIVISION OF CIVIL SERVICE.

1 Section 2. The division of civil service shall be under the supervision and control of a commissioner of civil service, who shall be the executive and administrative head of the division, and two associate commissioners. Upon the expiration of the term of office of a commissioner or an associate commissioner, his successor shall be appointed by the governor, with the advice and consent of the council, for three years. The commissioner shall receive such salary, not exceeding five thousand dollars, and the associate commissioners such salary, not exceeding two thousand dollars, as the governor and council may determine. The associate commissioners shall not be of the same political party.

1 Section 3. The commissioner may appoint and remove such officers and employees as the work of the division of civil service may require. He may expend for such compensation, and for necessary traveling and other expenses for himself, the associate commissioners and employees of the division whose duties require them to travel, such amounts as are annually appropriated therefor.

1 Section 4. The commissioner and associate commissioners shall constitute a board which may appoint and remove a deputy commissioner of the division, determine his powers and duties, and, subject to the approval of the governor and council, fix his compensation. The board may authorize the commissioner to organize the division into subdivisions and to assign officers and employees of the division thereto. Meetings of the board shall be held at least once a month at such times as it may by rule determine, and when requested by any member thereof.

1 Section 5. The associate commissioners or either of them may require the commissioner or any official or employee of the division to give full information, and produce all papers and records, relating to any official act performed by him.

1 Section 6. The board may designate persons in the official service of the commonwealth or of any city, or of any town where chapter thirty-one is in force, who shall, with the consent of the head of the department or office in which any such person serves, act as examiners of applicants for any public employment, but no person shall serve as such examiner when any relative or connection by marriage, within the degree of first cousin, is an applicant.

1 Section 7. A person holding an office or position to which he has been elected by the people, or by the aldermen or city council of a city or the selectmen of a town, shall not be eligible for appointment to the office of representative of the division of civil service.

DIVISION OF REGISTRATION.

1 Section 8. The division of registration shall be under the supervision of a director, to be known as the director of registration, at such salary, not exceeding two thousand dollars, as the governor and council may authorize.
determine. Upon the expiration of the term of office of a director, his successor shall be appointed by the governor, with the advice and consent of the council, for not exceeding two years.

SECTION 9. The various boards of registration and examination hereafter mentioned in this chapter shall serve in the division of registration and shall establish their offices in the state house within the spaces already or hereafter assigned to the director of registration.

BOARD OF REGISTRATION IN MEDICINE.

SECTION 10. There shall be a board of registration in medicine, in the two following sections called the board, consisting of seven persons, residents of the commonwealth, who shall be graduates of a legally chartered medical college or university having the power to confer degrees in medicine, and who shall have been for ten years actively engaged in the practice of their profession. No member of said board shall belong to the faculty of any medical college or university, and no more than three members thereof shall at one time be members of any one chartered state medical society. One member thereof shall annually in June be appointed by the governor, with the advice and consent of the council, for seven years from July first following.

SECTION 11. Said board shall hold regular meetings on the second Tuesdays of March, July and November in each year, and additional meetings at such times and places as it may determine. At the regular meeting in July, it shall organize by the choice of a chairman and secretary, who shall hold their offices for one year. The secretary shall give bond to the state treasurer in the sum of five thousand dollars, with sufficient sureties to be approved by the governor and council, for the faithful performance of his official duties. There shall be paid by the commonwealth to the secretary of the board a salary of twenty-five hundred dollars, to each of the other members thereof a salary of three hundred dollars, and to each member thereof his necessary traveling expenses actually incurred in attending the meetings of the board.

SECTION 12. The board, in the examination of applicants for registration as chiropodists, shall have the assistance of two chiropodists, who shall each have practiced chiropody in the commonwealth for not less than five years. They shall be appointed, and may be removed, by the board, and shall act under its direction, and shall each receive in full compensation for his services one hundred and fifty dollars a year. The members of the board who shall be designated by the board to act in the examination of such applicants shall each receive for such services one hundred dollars a year; and such members and the two chiropodists assisting them shall be allowed for their traveling expenses necessarily incurred such sums as may be approved by the governor and council.

BOARD OF REGISTRATION OF NURSES.

SECTION 13. There shall be a board of registration of nurses, in the two following sections called the board, consisting of five members, one of whom shall be the secretary of the board of registration in medicine, ex officio. Three members shall be nurses holding diplomas, each from a different training school for nurses giving a course of two years at 6 least in the theory and practice of nursing in a hospital, and each of 7 them shall have had eight years' experience in nursing the sick. The 8 fifth member shall be a physician who is a superintendent of a hospital
9 having a training school for nurses. Of the four appointive members, 10 one qualified as aforesaid shall annually before October first be ap-11 pointed by the governor, with the advice and consent of the council, 12 to hold office for four years from said October first.

1 Section 14. The board shall hold regular meetings on the second
2 Tuesdays of January, April and October in each year at the office of 3 the board of registration in medicine, and it may hold additional meet-4 ings at such times and places as it may determine. At the regular 5 meeting in October, it shall organize by electing a chairman, who shall 6 hold office for one year. The secretary of the board of registration in 7 medicine shall be secretary of the board, and shall receive as compensa-
8 tion therefor such sums as may be fixed by the governor and council.

1 Section 15. Each member of the board, except the secretary, shall 2 receive five dollars for every day actually spent in the performance of 3 his duties; provided, that the total sum paid to any member thereof
4 shall not in any one year exceed one hundred and fifty dollars, and the 5 necessary traveling expenses actually incurred in attending the meet-6 ings of the board. Said compensation and traveling expenses, and any 7 incidental expenses necessarily incurred by the board or any member 8 thereof, shall be paid by the commonwealth; provided, that such com-
9 pensation and expenses shall not be in excess of the receipts for regis-10 tration paid to the commonwealth by the board.

BOARD OF REGISTRATION IN OPTOMETRY.

1 Section 16. There shall be a board of registration in optometry, in 2 the two following sections called the board, consisting of five members,
3 citizens of the commonwealth, all of whom shall have been actually 4 engaged in the practice of optometry as defined in section sixty-six of 5 chapter one hundred and twelve for the five years next preceding their 6 appointment. One member shall annually, in September, be appointed 7 by the governor, with the advice and consent of the council, for five years.
8 No member thereof shall be a stockholder of any school of optometry,
9 a member of the faculty or on the board of trustees thereof, or financially
10 interested in a manufacturing or wholesale optical business.

1 Section 17. The board shall meet on the second Tuesday of October
2 in each year, at such time and place as it shall determine, and shall 3 organize by electing a chairman and secretary, who shall be members of 4 the board, and who shall hold their respective offices for one year. The 5 secretary shall give to the state treasurer a bond, with sufficient sureties 6 to be approved by the governor and council, for the faithful perform-7 ance of his duties. The board shall annually hold regular meetings on 8 the second Tuesdays of February, June and November, and additional 9 meetings at such times and places as it shall determine.

1 Section 18. There shall be paid by the commonwealth to the secre-
2 tary of the board a salary of five hundred dollars, to each other member
3 thereof a salary of three hundred and fifty dollars and to each member thereof his necessary traveling expenses actually incurred in attending the meetings of the board, not exceeding four cents a mile each way, and such other expenses of the board as are incurred under the two preceding sections or under sections sixty-six to seventy-three, inclusive, of chapter one hundred and twelve.

BOARD OF DENTAL EXAMINERS.

Section 19. There shall be a board of dental examiners, in the two following sections called the board, consisting of five persons, each of whom shall be a legal resident of the commonwealth, a graduate of a reputable dental college, and a reputable dentist with an actual practice in dentistry in the commonwealth for the ten years next preceding his appointment. No member shall be a member of the faculty or a trustee of any institution engaged in educating dentists or having power to confer degrees in dentistry. One member thereof shall annually in April be appointed by the governor, with the advice and consent of the council, for five years. No member shall serve more than two full terms.

Section 20. The board shall hold at least two regular meetings in each year in Boston, and shall annually choose from its own number a chairman and a secretary.

Section 21. There shall be paid by the commonwealth to the chairman of the board a salary of eight hundred dollars, to the secretary thereof twelve hundred dollars and to the other members thereof six hundred dollars each, and to each member thereof his necessary traveling expenses actually incurred in attending meetings of the board. The board shall keep a record of all money received and expenses incurred by it, and a duplicate thereof shall be open to public inspection in the office of the comptroller.

BOARD OF REGISTRATION IN PHARMACY.

Section 22. There shall be a board of registration in pharmacy, in the three following sections called the board, consisting of five persons, residents of the commonwealth, who shall be skilled pharmacists, and shall have had ten consecutive years of practical experience in the compounding and dispensing of physicians’ prescriptions, and shall actually be engaged in the drug business. Not more than one member shall have any financial interest in the sale of drugs, medicines and chemicals and the compounding and dispensing of physicians’ prescriptions in the same councilor district. One member shall annually in November be appointed by the governor, with the advice and consent of the council, for five years from December first following.

Section 23. The board shall meet on the first Tuesday of December in each year at such time and place as it may determine, and shall organize by electing a president and secretary, who shall be members of the board, and shall hold their offices for one year. The secretary shall give to the state treasurer a bond, with sufficient sureties to be approved by the governor and council, for the faithful performance of his official duties.
7 duties. The board shall annually hold regular meetings on the first 8 Tuesdays of January, May and October, and additional meetings at 9 such times and places as it shall determine.

1 Section 24. There shall be paid by the commonwealth to the sec-
2 retary of the board a salary of fifteen hundred dollars, to each of the 3 other members thereof a salary of seven hundred dollars, and to each 4 member thereof his necessary traveling expenses actually incurred in 5 attending the meetings of the board.

1914, 384.
2 Section 25. The board shall appoint and fix the compensation, with 1 the approval of the governor and council, of an agent who shall be allowed 2 his necessary traveling expenses. He shall inspect drug stores and make 3 a daily report of his doings pertaining thereto, and report all violations 4 of the laws relating to pharmacy.

BOARD OF REGISTRATION IN VETERINARY MEDICINE.

1 Section 26. There shall be a board of registration in veterinary 2 medicine, in the two following sections called the board, consisting 3 of five veterinarians, residents of the commonwealth and graduates of 4 schools of veterinary medicine recognized by the American Veterinary 5 Medical Association. One member thereof shall annually before De-
6 mber first be appointed by the governor, with the advice and consent
7 of the council, for five years from January first following.

1 Section 27. The members of the board shall meet on the second
2 Tuesday of January in each year, at such time and place as they shall 3 determine, and shall immediately organize by electing a chairman and 4 a secretary, who shall hold their respective offices for one year. The 5 board shall hold regular meetings on the first Tuesdays of March, July 6 and November of each year, and such additional meetings at such times 7 and places as it may determine.

1 Section 28. There shall be paid by the commonwealth to the sec-
2 retary a salary of four hundred dollars and his necessary traveling
3 and contingent expenses, not exceeding three hundred dollars, actually 4 incurred in attending to the necessary work of the board, and to each 5 of the other members of the board a salary of fifty dollars and his neces-
6 sary traveling and contingent expenses actually incurred in attending 7 the meetings thereof.

BOARD OF REGISTRATION IN EMBALMING.

1 Section 29. There shall be a board of registration in embalming, in 2 the two following sections called the board, consisting of three mem-
3 bers, who shall be skilled embalmers, resident in the commonwealth, who 4 have had five years of practical experience in the embalming of human 5 dead bodies. One member shall before October first in each year be 6 appointed by the governor, with the advice and consent of the council,
7 for three years from said October first next ensuing. Not more than one 8 member of the board shall be engaged in embalming in the same town.
9 No member shall serve more than two full terms.
SECTION 30. The board shall hold regular meetings on the first Tuesdays of January, May and October in each year, and such additional meetings at such times and places as it may determine. At the regular meeting in October, it shall organize by the choice of a chairman and secretary, who shall be members thereof, and shall hold their offices for one year. The secretary shall give to the state treasurer a bond, with such sureties as shall be approved by the governor and council, for the faithful discharge of his duties.

SECTION 31. There shall be paid by the commonwealth to each member of the board a salary of one hundred dollars, and his necessary traveling expenses actually expended in attending meetings thereof, and the incidental expenses of the board, including any sum not exceeding five hundred dollars annually, expended for purposes of instruction, and for dissemination of new and useful knowledge among and for the benefit of licensed embalmers; provided that such salaries and expenses shall not be in excess of the receipts for registration received by the state treasurer from the board.

STATE EXAMINERS OF ELECTRICIANS.

SECTION 32. The commissioner of civil service, the state fire marshal and the commissioner of education shall constitute the state examiners of electricians. They shall appoint an executive secretary who is a wage earner, a citizen of the commonwealth and a practical electrician of at least ten years’ experience in the installation of wires and appliances for carrying electricity for light, heat or power purposes. The three examiners shall receive no compensation for their services under chapter one hundred and forty-one. They may expend for the salary of the secretary, and for necessary traveling and other expenses for themselves and their employees such sums as are annually appropriated therefor.

BOARD OF REGISTRATION OF CERTIFIED PUBLIC ACCOUNTANTS.

SECTION 33. There shall be a board of registration of certified public accountants, in the two following sections called the board, consisting of five persons, residents of the commonwealth, four of whom shall be registered certified public accountants and shall have been for seven years actively engaged in the practice of public accountancy, and one an attorney at law who has been for seven years actively engaged in the practice of law.

No member of said board shall belong to the faculty of any school of accountancy or be financially interested in the management of any such school or similar institution. Upon the expiration of the term of a member thereof, his successor, qualified as aforesaid, shall be appointed by the governor, with the advice and consent of the council, for a term of five years.

SECTION 34. The members of the board shall hold meetings at such time as they shall determine and shall annually choose from their own number a chairman and a secretary.

SECTION 35. There shall be paid by the commonwealth to the chairman and secretary a salary of one hundred and fifty dollars each and 3 to each of the other members of the board a salary of one hundred and 4 twenty-five dollars. Said compensation and any other expenses neces-5 sarily incurred by the board or any member thereof shall be paid by the 6 commonwealth; provided, that such compensation and expenses shall 7 not be in excess of the annual receipts for examination and registration 8 paid to the commonwealth by the board.

BOARD OF STATE EXAMINERS OF PLUMBERS.
1 Section 36. There shall be a board of state examiners of plumbers,
2 in the two following sections called the examiners, consisting of three 3 members, citizens of the commonwealth, of whom one shall have had 4 at least ten years' continuous practical experience as a plumber, one
5 shall be an engineer and one a builder. As the term of office of a mem-6 ber expires, his successor shall be appointed by the governor, with the 7 advice and consent of the council, to serve for three years. The governor
8 shall designate the chairman of the board and may at any time change 9 such designation.
10 Said board shall appoint an executive secretary who is a citizen of 11 the commonwealth and has had at least ten years continuous practical 12 experience as a plumber. He shall receive such salary as shall be deter-13 mined by said board, with the approval of the governor and council, 14 and his necessary traveling expenses incurred in the performance of 15 his duties.
16 No member of said board shall be eligible for appointment as execu-17 tive secretary, nor shall such appointment be subject to chapter thirty-18 one.

1 Section 37. The examiners shall hold regular meetings at the state
2 house on the Tuesday next following the first Monday of January, 3 April and October in each year, and such additional meetings at such 4 times and places as they may determine.

1 Section 38. There shall be paid by the commonwealth to the chair-
2 man of the examiners a salary of five hundred dollars and to each other
3 member thereof a salary of three hundred dollars, and to each member
4 thereof his necessary traveling expenses actually incurred in attending 5 meetings of the examiners. The division of registration shall furnish 6 the examiners with such clerical assistance as may be necessary.

BOARD OF REGISTRATION OF BARBERS.
1 Section 39. There shall be a board of registration of barbers, in 2 this and the following two sections called the board, to be appointed by 3 the governor, with the advice and consent of the council, and to consist 4 of three members, citizens of the commonwealth, each of whom shall be 5 a practical barber and shall have had five years of practical experience
6 as a barber in this commonwealth prior to his appointment, and at least 7 one of whom shall be a journeyman barber. No two members of the 8 board shall, while in office, be engaged in practising the occupation of 9 barbering in the same town. As the term of office of a member expires, 10 his successor shall be appointed by the governor, with like advice and 11 consent, to serve for three years. The governor may also, with like 12 advice and consent, fill any vacancy in the board for the unexpired 13 portion of the term.
Section 40. The board shall hold regular meetings at the state house on the first Tuesdays of January, May and October in each year, and such additional meetings at such times and places as it may determine. At the regular meeting in January it shall annually organize by the choice of a chairman and a secretary, who shall be members of the board. Before entering upon the discharge of the duties of his office, the secretary shall give to the state treasurer a bond, with such sureties as shall be approved by the governor and council, conditioned upon the faithful discharge of his duties, and the premium therefor shall be paid from the funds in the state treasury to the use of the board. Such bond, with the approval of the board and with the oath of office endorsed thereon, shall be filed in the office of the state secretary. The board shall have a common seal, and the members thereof may administer oaths.

Section 41. The members of the board shall devote their full time to the duties of their offices and they shall receive from the commonwealth the following salaries: — the secretary, three thousand dollars and his necessary expenses incurred in the discharge of his official duties, and each of the other two members twenty-five hundred dollars and his necessary expenses so incurred; provided, that the salaries and expenses of the members of the board, and the expenses of the board, shall not be in excess of the receipts for registration and from other sources received by the state treasurer from the board.

1 Section 1. There shall be a department of corporations and taxation, under the supervision and control of a commissioner of corporations and taxation, and consisting of an income tax division, a division of corporations, a division of inheritance taxes, a division of local taxation, a division of accounts and such other divisions as the commissioner determines, each division to be in charge of a director.

2 Section 2. Upon the expiration of the term of office of a commissioner, his successor shall be appointed for three years by the governor, with the advice and consent of the council. The commissioner shall receive such salary, not exceeding seventy-five hundred dollars, as the governor and council determine and shall give to the state treasurer a bond for the faithful performance of his official duties in a penal sum and with sureties approved by the governor and council.

3 Section 3. The commissioner shall administer and enforce all laws which the department is required to administer and enforce, shall assign to all officials, agents, clerks and other employees of the department their respective duties, and may transfer them.

4 Section 4. The commissioner may, with the advice and consent of the governor and council, appoint and remove the following officers and subordinates in his department:

   - A deputy commissioner and a second deputy, each at such salary as may be fixed by the commissioner, with the approval of the governor and council;
   - Directors of divisions, at such salary as may be fixed by the commissioner, with the approval of the governor and council;
   - Such supervisors of assessors, assistants and examiners as the commissioner may deem necessary, subject to the approval of the governor and council, one income tax assessor for each district established by the commissioner for the assessment and collection of the income tax, and such deputy income tax assessors, who may be members of local boards of assessors as the governor and council may deem necessary;

A principal appraiser, at such salary as may be fixed by the commissioner, with the approval of the governor and council;

Such assistants to the director of accounts as may from time to time be necessary to carry out sections forty-four to forty-seven, inclusive, of chapter thirty-five and sections thirty-five to forty-three, inclusive, of chapter forty-four.

He may appoint two permanent clerks, and may appoint such assistants to the director of the income tax division, and such assistants and clerks to the income tax assessors, as the governor and council may deem necessary.

He may appoint from time to time such appraisers as may be necessary to appraise property subject to the inheritance tax or to assist him in determining land values under section thirteen of chapter fifty-eight.

He may appoint such additional officials, agents, clerks and other employees as the work of the department requires and may remove them.

Section 5. The commissioner, his deputies, directors of divisions, assistants, appraisers, examiners and clerks, the supervisors of assessors, the assistants to the director of the income tax division, and the income tax assessors and their deputies, assistants and clerks shall be allowed such reasonable and necessary traveling and other expenses, subject to section twenty-five of chapter thirty, as are approved by the commis-

Section 6. The deputy commissioner and the second deputy commisssioner shall perform such duties as may be assigned to them by the commissioner. The deputy commissioner, or in case of a vacancy in his office or in his absence or disability the second deputy commissioner, shall, in case of a vacancy or in the absence or disability of the commis-

Section 7. The commissioner shall assign to the several divisions in the department their appropriate functions. The directors of divisions shall, under the supervision and control of the commissioner, exercise the functions assigned to them, and shall also perform such other incidental duties as the commissioner may prescribe. The director of the division of accounts, who shall be known as the director of accounts, shall perform the duties required of the department by law in relation to the compilation of municipal statistics, the auditing of municipal accounts and the certification of notes of towns and districts. The commissioner may designate a competent employee in the division of accounts to perform the duties of the director of accounts in case of his absence, death or disability; and notes of towns and districts, when certified by 12 such employee, shall have the same validity as if certified by the 13 director.
1 Section 8. The director of the income tax division, income tax assessors, and deputy income tax assessors shall have such duties and powers consistent with chapter sixty-two as the commissioner shall prescribe. 1919, 350, § 54.

1 Section 9. For the purposes of chapter sixty-two, the commissioner shall divide the commonwealth into income tax districts, the limits of which he may change. An income tax assessor need not be a resident of his district, but in making appointments preference shall be given to residents of the district, so far as may be practicable. The commissioner may transfer any income tax assessor from one district to another, and may assign any such assessor to temporary or extraordinary service in any district. 1916, 209, § 17.

1 Section 10. The commissioner shall require the income tax assessors to give bond with such sureties as may be approved by the governor and council. 1916, 209, § 17. 1920, 546, § 4.

The board shall meet at least once a month, and at such other times as it may determine by rule and when requested by the commissioner or by any three members. The members of the board shall serve without compensation, but shall be reimbursed for their actual necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties.

1 Section 4. The commissioner shall be the executive and administrative head of the department. He shall have charge of the administration and enforcement of all laws, rules and regulations which it is the duty of the department to administer and enforce, and shall be chairman of the board. He shall organize in the department a division of public libraries, a division of immigration and Americanization, a division of the blind and such other divisions as he may determine. Each such division shall be in charge of a director and shall be under the general supervision of the commissioner. Nothing in this chapter shall be construed as affecting the powers and duties of the trustees of the Massachusetts state college as set forth in chapter seventy-five.

1 Section 5. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, directors of divisions of the department shall be appointed and may be removed by the commissioner, with the approval of the board. The commissioner shall fix the compensation of such directors, subject to the approval of the governor and council. Except in the case of the teachers’ retirement fund, the division of public libraries, the division of the blind and institutions under the department, the commissioner may appoint such agents, clerks and other assistants as the work of the department may require, may assign them to divisions, transfer and remove them, but none of such employees shall have any direct or indirect pecuniary interest in the publication or sale of any text or school book, or article of school supply used in the public schools of the commonwealth. For the compensation of such agents, clerks and other assistants as it may employ, for conferences and conventions of teachers held under the direction of the department, and for traveling and other necessary expenses incurred by the members and subordinates, the department may be allowed such sums as may annually be appropriated.

1 Section 6. The commissioner, with the approval of the board, may appoint and define the functions of a state advisory council and local advisory councils in connection with university extension and correspondence courses, and, subject to section ten A of chapter eight, may rent suitable offices.

1 Section 6A. The commissioner and the advisory board of education are hereby constituted and designated as the state board for vocational education to co-operate with the federal board for vocational education in the administration of the act of congress approved June second, nineteen hundred and twenty, entitled "An Act to provide for the promotion of vocational rehabilitation of persons disabled in industry and otherwise and their return to civil employment" and to secure for the commonwealth the benefits thereof. For the purpose of carrying out the provisions of section twenty-two A of chapter seventy-four the said state board for vocational education shall be furnished with suitable quarters in the state house and may expend for salaries and other necessary expenses such amount as shall annually be appropriated therefor by the general court, together with any funds received by the state treasurer from the federal government under the provisions of said act.

DIVISION FOR THE TRAINING OF DISABLED SOLDIERS AND SAILORS.

SECTION 7. [Repealed, 1931, 426, § 1.]

DIVISION OF PUBLIC LIBRARIES.

SECTION 8. The division of public libraries shall consist of the board of free public library commissioners, the chairman of which shall be the director of said division.

SECTION 9. The board of free public library commissioners, in sections nine to eleven, inclusive, called the library board, shall consist of five persons, residents of the commonwealth, one of whom shall annually be appointed by the governor, with the advice and consent of the council, for five years. The governor shall designate the chairman of the library board.

SECTION 10. No member of the library board shall receive any compensation, but it may annually expend not more than the amount appropriated for clerical assistance and for other necessary expenses.

SECTION 11. The library board, with the consent of the governor and council, may appoint a general secretary and adviser for not exceeding three years, whose salary shall be paid from the appropriation authorized by the preceding section. The library board, with the consent of the governor and council, may also appoint an agent for a term not exceeding five years and an agent or secretary who shall also direct work in libraries for the benefit of the alien population of the commonwealth. The library board, by a majority vote of its members, may remove from office any person appointed under this section.

DIVISION OF IMMIGRATION AND AMERICANIZATION.

SECTION 12. The division of immigration and Americanization shall consist of a director and an advisory board of six persons. Upon the expiration of the term of office of a director of the division, his successor shall be appointed for five years by the governor, with the advice and consent of the council. Two members of the advisory board shall be appointed annually for three years each, by the governor, with like advice and consent. Said board shall meet quarterly and at such times as may be determined by the director; provided, that a special meeting 9 shall be called by the director on the written request of any three mem-
10 bers. The director and members of said board shall receive no com-11 pensation for their services, but shall be reimbursed for their actual 12 necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their duties.

DIVISION OF THE BLIND.

1 Section 13. The division of the blind shall consist of a director, at 2 such salary as the governor and council may determine, and an advisory 3 board of five members who shall serve without compensation. Upon 4 the expiration of the term of office of a director, or of a member of the 5 advisory board, his successor shall be appointed for five years by the 6 governor, with the advice and consent of the council. Said director
7 and members of the advisory board shall be reimbursed for expenses
8 necessarily incurred in the performance of their duties.

1 Section 14. [Repealed, 1925, 286, § 1.]

1 Section 15. The director, with the advice of the advisory board, 2 shall appoint or employ such subordinate officers, agents, teachers and 3 clerks as may be necessary, and may remove them; but no person
4 appointed or employed by him shall be a member of the advisory board.

TEACHERS' RETIREMENT BOARD.

1 Section 16. The teachers' retirement board shall consist of the com-
2 missioner of education, ex officio, a second member elected by the 3 teachers' retirement association established under section seven of 4 chapter thirty-two from among their number, in a manner approved by 5 said board, and a third chosen by the other two. Upon the expiration 6 of the term of office of an elected member or in case of a vacancy in said 7 office, his successor shall be elected for three years as aforesaid. Upon the 8 expiration of the term of office of a third member or in case of a vacancy 9 in said office, his successor shall be chosen by the other two and shall 10 serve for one year.

1 Section 17. The members of the retirement board shall serve with-
2 out compensation, but they shall be reimbursed from the expense fund
3 of the retirement association for any expenditures or loss of salary or 4 wages which they may incur through serving on said board. All claims
5 for reimbursement on this account shall be subject to the approval of 6 the governor and council.

1 Section 18. The retirement board may employ a secretary, who
2 shall give bond, and also necessary clerical and other assistance.

1 Section 19. The trustees of the Massachusetts state college, the 2 board of commissioners of the Massachusetts nautical school, the trus-3 tees of the Bradford Durfee textile school of Fall River, the trustees of 4 the Lowell textile institute and the trustees of the New Bedford textile 5 school shall serve in the department.
MASSACHUSETTS STATE COLLEGE.

Section 20. There shall be a board of trustees of the Massachusetts state college, consisting of the governor, the commissioner of education, the commissioner of agriculture and the president of the college, ex officiis, and not more than fourteen appointive members. Upon the expiration of the term of office of any appointive member, his successor shall be appointed for seven years by the governor, with the advice and consent of the council. The appointive members shall serve without compensation, but their personal and incidental expenses shall be paid as are those of trustees of other public institutions.

TEXTILE SCHOOLS.

Section 21. There shall be boards of trustees for the Bradford Durfee textile school of Fall River and for the New Bedford textile school, each consisting of fifteen appointive members and the commissioner of education or a member of the advisory board of education designated by him, as an ex officio member, and the mayor and superintendent of schools of Fall River and of New Bedford shall be additional members ex officiis of said boards, respectively. Upon the expiration of the term of office of an appointive member, his successor shall be appointed for three years by the governor, with the advice and consent of the council.

MASSACHUSETTS NAUTICAL SCHOOL.

Section 22. There shall be a board of commissioners of the Massachusetts nautical school serving in the department and consisting of three citizens of the commonwealth, one of whom shall annually before July first be appointed by the governor, with the advice and consent of the council, for three years from said day.

Section 23. The commissioners shall serve without compensation, but shall be reimbursed for expenses actually incurred in the performance of their official duties.

LOWELL TEXTILE INSTITUTE.

Section 24. There shall be a board of trustees for the Lowell textile institute consisting of fifteen appointive members and the commissioner of education or a member of the advisory board of education designated by him and the mayor of Lowell, as ex officiis members. Upon the expiration of the term of office of an appointive member, his successor shall be appointed for three years by the governor, with the advice and consent of the council.

DEPARTMENT OF PUBLIC HEALTH.

1. Section 1. There shall be a department of public health, consisting of a commissioner of public health and a public health council.

2. Section 2. The commissioner shall be a physician skilled in sanitary science and experienced in public health administration. Upon the expiration of the term of office of a commissioner, his successor shall be appointed by the governor, with the advice and consent of the council, for five years. The commissioner shall receive a salary of seventy-five hundred dollars. He shall be the executive and administrative head of the department.

3. Section 3. The public health council shall consist of the commissioner, ex officio, and six appointive members, at least three of whom shall be physicians. Upon the expiration of the term of office of an appointive member, his successor shall be appointed by the governor with the advice and consent of the council, for three years. The council shall meet at least once a month, and at such other times as it shall determine by its rules, or when requested by the commissioner or any four members. The appointive members shall receive ten dollars a day while in conference, and their necessary traveling expenses while in the performance of their official duties.

4. Section 4. There shall be in the department a division of sanatoria and such other divisions as the commissioner may, with the approval of the public health council, from time to time determine. The commissioner may, subject to the approval of the governor and council, appoint and remove a director of the division of sanatoria, and, subject to the approval of the public health council, shall appoint and may remove a director to take charge of every other division, and shall prescribe the duties of such other divisions. The compensation of directors of all divisions shall be fixed by the commissioner, subject to the approval of the governor and council.

5. Section 5. The commissioner may, with the approval of the public health council, designate a director of a division as a deputy commissioner, who shall perform the duties of the commissioner during his absence or disability and such other duties as may be prescribed by the commissioner.
SECTION 6. The commissioner may, with the approval of the public health council, appoint and remove assistant directors of divisions and epidemiologists, who shall be exempt from chapter thirty-one, inspectors and other necessary employees.

SECTION 7. The commissioner, with the approval of the public health council, shall appoint and may remove a district health officer, who shall be exempt from chapter thirty-one, for each health district provided in section four of chapter one hundred and eleven. Such officers shall be graduates of incorporated medical schools, admitted to practice in the commonwealth, or shall have had at least five years’ experience in public health duties and sanitary science, and shall give their entire time to the performance of their duties.

1907, 537, §§ 2, 4, 6, § 1. 1910, 323, §§ 2, 3.

1907, 474, §§ 1, 15. 1910, 198, § 1; 491. 1919, 350, §§ 96, 98. 1924, 477, § 2.

SECTION 9. In addition to the persons employed under section six, the commissioner, with the approval of the public health council, may appoint a treasurer for each sanatorium, who shall give bond for the faithful performance of his duties, and physicians, assistants and employees necessary for the proper administration of the affairs of the institutions under the charge of the division and may incur all expenses necessary for the maintenance of the institutions.

1907, 474, §§ 6, 9, 15. 1913, 762, § 1. 1921, 301, § 70.

SECTION 1. There shall be a department of public welfare, in this chapter called the department.

1 Section 2. The department shall be under the supervision and control of a commissioner of public welfare, who shall be its executive and administrative head, and an advisory board consisting of the commissioner, ex officio, and six appointive members, of whom two shall be women. The commissioner shall receive such salary, not exceeding seven thousand dollars, as the governor and council determine. Upon the expiration of his term of office, his successor shall be appointed for five years by the governor, with the advice and consent of the council.

1 Section 3. Two members of the advisory board shall annually be appointed by the governor, with the advice and consent of the council, for three years each. The members shall receive no compensation, but shall be reimbursed for their actual necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their official duties.

1 Section 4. Except as otherwise provided, the commissioner of public welfare may appoint such officials, agents, clerks and other employees as the work of the department may require, designate their duties and except so far as they are otherwise defined by law, assign them to divisions, transfer and remove them. The appointments in the divisions of aid and relief and of child guardianship shall be made with the advice of the directors thereof.

1 Section 5. The commissioner shall organize in the department a division of aid and relief, a division of child guardianship, and a division of juvenile training, each in charge of a director.

1919, 350, §§ 89, 91.

1 Section 6. The members of the boards of trustees of the state institutions under the supervision of the department shall receive no compensation for their services, but their traveling and other necessary expenses shall be allowed and paid.

DIVISION OF AID AND RELIEF.

1 Section 7. The commissioner, with the approval of the governor and council, shall appoint, fix the compensation of, and may with like approval remove, the director of the division of aid and relief, who shall, under the supervision and control of the commissioner, perform the duties required of him by law relative to the state adult poor.

1 Section 8. There shall be a board of trustees of the state infirmary serving in the division and consisting of five men and two women, three of whom shall annually in June be appointed by the governor, with the advice and consent of the council, for three years each, except that in the year nineteen hundred and twenty-one and every third year thereafter only one such trustee shall be so appointed.

R. L. 85, § 1. 1911, 104. 1919, 199; 350, §§ 87, 91.

DIVISION OF CHILD GUARDIANSHIP.

remove, a director of the division of child guardianship, who shall, under the supervision and control of the commissioner, perform the duties required of him by law relative to children.

Section 10. There shall be a board of trustees, to be known as the board of trustees of the Massachusetts hospital school, serving in the division and consisting of five persons. The governor, with the advice and consent of the council, shall annually appoint a member of the board, who shall serve for five years beginning on the first Monday in December in the year of his appointment, and until his successor is qualified.

Division of Juvenile Training.

Section 11. The director of the division of juvenile training shall be a member of the board of trustees of the Massachusetts training schools designated by the governor. He shall receive no compensation as such, and his term of office shall be that of his appointment as such trustee.

Section 12. The board of trustees of the Massachusetts training schools shall consist of nine persons, two of whom shall be women, and shall constitute the division of juvenile training. No person employed by the board for compensation shall be a member thereof.

Section 13. The governor, with the advice and consent of the council, shall in June of each year appoint two members, except that in nineteen hundred and twenty-one and every fifth year thereafter one only shall be appointed. The members shall hold office for five years from July first following their appointment.

Section 14. The trustees shall appoint, and may remove, a secretary not a member of the board. They may appoint a temporary secretary, who may be a member of the board, who shall perform the duties of the secretary in his absence.

Section 15. The secretary shall be the executive officer of the trustees. He shall be paid the necessary expenses incurred in the performance of his duties.

Section 16. The trustees may expend such sums for clerical assistance and office expenses as may be appropriated by the general court.

5. Public institutions in the department.

1 Section 1. There shall be a department of mental diseases, consisting of the commissioner of mental diseases and four associate commissioners. The commissioner and at least two associate commissioners shall be physicians and experts in the care and treatment of the insane. 1914, 762, §§ 1, 9. 1916, 285, §§ 1, 2. 1919, 330, § 79.

2 Section 2. Upon the expiration of the term of office of a commissioner, his successor shall be appointed for five years by the governor, with the advice and consent of the council. The commissioner shall receive such salary, not exceeding ten thousand dollars, as the governor and council determine, and shall be reimbursed for expenses necessarily incurred in the performance of his duties. 1919, 330, § 79. 1921, 443. 1930, 376, § 1.

3 Section 3. Upon the expiration of the term of office of an associate commissioner, his successor shall be appointed for four years by the governor, with the advice and consent of the council. The associate commissioner shall serve without compensation, but shall be reimbursed for expenses necessarily incurred in the performance of their duties. 1916, 285, §§ 1, 2. 1919, 330, § 79.

4 Section 4. The commissioner shall be the executive and administrative head of the department and may organize therein such divisions as he may determine. He may, with the approval of the governor and council, appoint and fix the compensation of an assistant commissioner, who shall discharge the duties of the commissioner during his absence or disability and perform such other duties as the commissioner may prescribe, except that the commissioner, with like approval, may designate another person or persons in the department to perform, during such absence or disability, such specific duties as the commissioner may prescribe, and may revoke such designation. The commissioner shall appoint and may remove such agents and subordinate officers as the department may deem necessary. Physicians, pathologists and psychiatrists shall be exempt from chapter thirty-one.

5 Section 4A. There shall be in the department a division of mental hygiene, under the supervision of a director. The commissioner, with the approval of the governor and council, may employ such expert assistance to serve in said division as may be necessary.

6 Section 5. The boards of trustees of the following public institutions shall serve in the department: Belchertown state school, Boston public institutions in the department.

Section 6. The board of trustees for each of the institutions mentioned in the preceding section, except the Walter E. Fernald state school, shall consist of seven members; provided, that at least two of such members shall be women. One member of each board, except as aforesaid, shall annually in January be appointed for seven years from the first Wednesday of the following February by the governor, with the advice and consent of the council. The board of trustees of the Walter E. Fernald state school shall consist of six members on the part of the commonwealth, one of whom shall annually be appointed for six years by the governor, with the advice and consent of the council, and of six members to be elected by the school, subject to the approval of the governor and council. All the above trustees shall serve without compensation, but shall be reimbursed for all expenses incurred in the performance of their duties.

DIVISION OF FISHERIES AND GAME.
6. Director of division of fisheries and game.

SECTION 1. There shall be a department of conservation, consisting of a division of forestry, a division of fisheries and game, a division of animal industry and a division of parks, each under the charge of a director. The department shall be under the supervision and control of a commissioner of conservation. The directors shall act as an advisory council to the commissioner.

SECTION 2. Upon the expiration of the term of office of a commissioner, his successor shall be appointed for three years by the governor, with the advice and consent of the council. The commissioner shall receive such salary, not exceeding six thousand dollars, as the governor and council determine.

SECTION 3. The commissioner shall be the executive and administrative head of the department. He shall be designated by the governor as a director of one of the divisions, but shall receive no salary as such director. He shall supervise the work of the divisions, and shall have charge of the administration and enforcement of all laws which it is the duty of the department to administer and enforce, and shall direct all inspections and investigations.

SECTION 3A. The commissioner shall have the same powers of management and control relative to all open spaces for exercise and recreation or reservations acquired by the department outside the metropolitan parks district as are conferred by law upon the metropolitan district commission relative to reservations under its control.

SECTION 3B. The state treasurer may, with the approval of the governor and council, receive and hold in trust for the commonwealth, exempt from taxation, any grant or devise of lands or rights in land, and any gift or bequest of money or other personal property, made for the purposes of establishing and maintaining reservations outside the met-
6. Metropolitan parks district, and shall preserve and invest the proceeds thereof
7. in notes or bonds secured by good and sufficient mortgage or other se-
8. curities. Said trust property shall be known as the State Reservation
9. Trust Fund, and shall be used and expended under the direction of the 10. commissioner and subject to his orders. Subject to the terms of any
11. such grant, gift, devise or bequest, the commissioner may expend such 12. funds, whether principal or income.

DIVISION OF FORESTRY.

1. SECTION 4. Upon the expiration of the term of office of a director of 2. the division of forestry, his successor shall, except as provided by the 3. following section, be appointed for three years by the governor, with the 4. advice and consent of the council. The successor shall be known as the 5. state forester. He shall be qualified by training and experience to per- 6. form the duties of his office, and shall, except as provided by the pre- 7. ceding section, receive such salary, not exceeding five thousand dollars, 8. as the governor and council determine.

1. SECTION 5. The director may, subject to the approval of the com- 2. missioner, appoint and remove a state fire warden and such experts, 3. clerical and other assistants as the work of the division may require. 4. The director shall be allowed necessary traveling expenses for himself 5. and his employees incurred in the discharge of duty.

1. SECTION 6. Upon the expiration of the term of office of a director of 2. the division of fisheries and game, his successor shall, except as provided 3. by section three, be appointed for three years by the governor, with the 4. advice and consent of the council. The successor shall be qualified by 5. training and experience to perform the duties of his office, and shall, 6. except as provided by section three, receive such salary, not exceeding 7. five thousand dollars, as the governor and council determine. The 8. director shall be allowed necessary traveling expenses for himself and 9. his employees incurred in the discharge of duty.

1. SECTION 7. Except as provided in the following section, the director 2. may, subject to the approval of the commissioner, appoint and remove 3. such experts, fish and game wardens, clerical and other assistants as the 4. work of the division may require, and their compensation shall be paid 5. by the commonwealth. On written application of the city council of a 6. city or the selectmen of a town, he may, subject to like approval, appoint 7. in such city or town, from a list of names to be submitted to him by such 8. city council or selectmen, a fish and game warden, who shall act under 9. his authority and instructions and have the same powers and duties as 10. a fish and game warden appointed as above provided; the annual com- 11. pensation of every such warden, not exceeding two hundred dollars, 12. shall be determined and paid by the city or town in which he is appointed. 13. The director may also, subject to like approval, appoint deputy fish 14. and game wardens who shall serve without compensation.

1. SECTION 8. There shall be a state inspector of fish serving in the 2. division. Upon the expiration of the term of office of a state inspector 3. of fish, his successor shall be appointed for three years by the governor, with the advice and consent of the council. The state inspector may appoint from time to time such permanent and temporary deputy inspectors as may be authorized by the governor and council. The state inspector and deputy inspectors shall receive such compensation as may be fixed by the governor and council.

Section 8A. There shall be a state supervisor of marine fisheries serving in the division, who shall be appointed for terms of three years by the governor with the advice and consent of the council. The salary of said supervisor shall be fixed by the commissioner, subject to the approval of the governor and council. The supervisor shall have charge of the enforcement of the provisions of chapter one hundred and thirty, and all other provisions of law, relative to marine fish and fisheries, including shellfish, except those contained in sections seventy-four to eighty-eight, inclusive, of chapter ninety-four, and shall have general direction of the wardens appointed under section seven engaged in the enforcement of said provisions; provided, however, that in carrying out all powers and duties conferred upon him the supervisor shall act with the approval of the director.

Division of Animal Industry.

Section 9. Upon the expiration of the term of office of a director of animal industry, his successor shall, except as provided by section three, be appointed for three years by the governor, with the advice and consent of the council. The director shall be qualified by training and experience to perform the duties of his office, and shall, except as provided by section three, receive such salary, not exceeding four thousand dollars, as the governor and council determine, and shall be allowed his necessary expenses paid or incurred in the performance of his official duties.

Section 10. The director may, subject to the approval of the commissioner, appoint and remove such experts, clerical and other assistants as the work of the division may require.

1 Section 9. Whenever the governor shall deem it necessary to provide more effectively for the protection of persons and property and for the maintenance of law and order in the commonwealth, he may authorize the commissioner to make additional appointments, not exceeding one hundred in number, to the division of state police, together with such other employees as the governor may deem necessary for the proper administration thereof. The appointment of the additional officers shall be temporary until the general court has authorized their permanent addition to the department. The commissioner may, subject to the approval of the governor, make rules and regulations for the said additional force, including matters pertaining to their discipline, organization and government, compensation and equipment, and means of swift transportation.

1 Section 9A. Whenever the governor shall deem it necessary to provide more effectively for the protection of persons and property and for the maintenance of law and order in the commonwealth, he may authorize the commissioner to make additional appointments to the division of state police, together with such other employees as the governor may deem necessary for the proper administration thereof. The appointment of the additional officers herein provided for shall be by enlistment for terms not exceeding three years, and such appointees shall be exempt from the requirements of civil service law and rules. Said additional officers shall have and exercise within the commonwealth all the powers of constables, except the service of civil process, and of police officers and watchmen. The commissioner may, subject to the approval of the governor, make rules and regulations for said additional force, including matters pertaining to their discipline, organization and government, compensation and equipment, and means of swift transportation; provided, that said force shall not be used or called upon for service in any industrial dispute, unless actual violence has occurred therein, and then only by order of the governor or the person acting in his place. Any member of said force violating any of the rules or regulations for said force shall be subject to discipline or discharge in accordance with said rules and regulations. The commissioner, subject to like approval, may select and maintain for the purpose of training in preparation for service on said force, a group of persons, not exceeding fifty in number, who, when so trained, shall be eligible either to appointment to fill vacancies therein or, upon order of the governor, to be called for service in cases of emergency as temporary members thereof. The commissioner may expend annually for the expenses of administration, organization, government, training, compensation, equipment and maintenance such amount as the general court may appropriate.

1 Section 9B. The department of public safety shall annually forward to the budget commissioner with its estimates of expenses for the division of state police, as required under section three of chapter twenty-nine, a statement of the approximate proportion of the time of the division devoted to the service of patrolling the highways of the commonwealth for the purpose of controlling and supervising traffic. Said statement shall be the basis for a recommendation by the governor as to the proportion of the appropriations made for expenses of said division which it appears may fairly be charged to the Highway Fund.
Section 10. The commissioner shall appoint a board of boiler rules, consisting of the chief of inspections, or a boiler inspector of the division of inspection designated by the commissioner, as chairman and four associate members, one of whom shall be an operating engineer and three shall represent users, manufacturers and insurers of boilers, respectively. Upon the expiration of the term of office of an associate member, his successor shall be appointed for three years by the commissioner. The associate members shall receive as compensation for service and reimbursement for expenses such sums as the governor and council shall determine, not exceeding in all one thousand dollars a year. Such clerical and other assistants as may be required by the board shall be assigned to it by the commissioner.

Section 11. The commissioner shall, as occasion requires, appoint a board of elevator regulations, consisting of the chief of inspections as a chairman, a consulting engineer, the building commissioner of Boston, an inspector of buildings of some city other than Boston, a representative of a liability insurance company licensed to write elevator insurance in the commonwealth, a representative of elevator manufacturers, an experienced elevator constructor and a representative of owners of buildings. The members of said board shall serve without compensation, but their necessary expenses shall be paid by the department. Such clerical and other assistants as may be required by the board shall be assigned to it by the commissioner.

Section 12. The state boxing commission shall serve in the department and shall consist of the commissioner, ex officio, who shall be chairman, and two appointive members. Upon the expiration of the term of office of an appointive member, his successor shall be appointed by the governor, with the advice and consent of the council, for three years. The appointive members shall receive such salaries, not exceeding thirty-five hundred dollars each, as the governor and council may fix. The members shall receive their traveling expenses necessarily incurred in the performance of their duties, and the commission shall be allowed such sums for clerical assistance as the governor and council may approve. The secretary of the department shall act as the secretary of the commission and shall keep full and true records of all its proceedings. The commissioner may deputize one or more persons to represent the commission and to be present at any match or exhibition authorized to be held under sections thirty-two to fifty-one of chapter one hundred and forty-seven. Such persons may receive such compensation for actual services as shall be fixed by rule or regulation of the commission, together with their traveling expenses necessarily incurred in the discharge of their duties.
CHAPTER 23.

DEPARTMENT OF LABOR AND INDUSTRIES.

SECTION 1. There shall be a department of labor and industries, under the supervision and control of a commissioner of labor and industries, in this chapter called the commissioner, an assistant commissioner, who shall be a woman, and three associate commissioners, one of whom shall be a representative of labor and one a representative of employers of labor.

SECTION 2. Upon the expiration of the term of office of a commissioner, an assistant commissioner or an associate commissioner, his successor shall be appointed for three years by the governor, with the advice and consent of the council. The commissioner shall receive such salary not exceeding seventy-five hundred dollars, and the assistant commissioner and associate commissioners such salaries, not exceeding four thousand dollars each, as the governor and council determine.

SECTION 3. The commissioner shall be the executive and administrative head of the department. He shall have charge of the administration and enforcement of all laws, rules and regulations which it is the duty of the department to administer and enforce, and shall direct all inspections and investigations except as otherwise provided. He shall organize in the department a division of standards, a division on the necessaries of life and such other divisions as he may from time to time institute.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

12. Department to be furnished offices, etc.
time determine, and may assign the officers and employees of the department thereto. He shall prepare for the consideration of the assistant commissioner and the associate commissioners rules and regulations for the conduct of the department and all other rules and regulations which the department is authorized by law to make, and they shall, except as otherwise provided, take effect when approved by the associate commissioners and the assistant commissioner, or upon such date as they determine. The commissioner may designate the assistant commissioner or an associate commissioner to discharge the duties of the commissioner during his absence or disability.

SECTION 4. The commissioner, assistant commissioner and associate commissioners may, with the approval of the governor and council, appoint, and fix the salaries of, not more than six directors, and may, with like approval, remove them. One of them, to be known as the director of standards, shall have charge of the division of standards, and one of them, to be known as the director of the division on the necessaries of life, shall have charge of said division, and each of the others shall be assigned to take charge of a division. The commissioner may employ, for periods not exceeding ninety days, such experts as may be necessary to assist the department in the performance of any duty imposed upon it by law, and such employment shall be exempt from chapter thirty-one. Except as otherwise provided in section nine B, the commissioner may employ and remove such inspectors, investigators, clerks and other assistants as the work of the department may require. Such number of inspectors as the commissioner may deem necessary shall be men who, before their employment as such, have had at least three years' experience as building construction workmen. The commissioner may require that certain inspectors in the department, not more than seven in number, shall be persons qualified by training and experience in matters relating to health and sanitation.

SECTION 5. All directors, inspectors and other permanent employees of the department shall devote their whole time to the affairs of the department; and all directors and inspectors and such other employees as may be designated by the commissioner shall, before entering upon their duties, be sworn to the faithful performance thereof. The number of inspectors heretofore authorized by law may be increased only with the approval of the governor and council. The commissioner, assistant commissioner and associate commissioners shall determine from time to time how many of the inspectors employed shall be women.

SECTION 6. In all matters relating specifically to women and minors the assistant commissioner shall have and exercise such duties and authority as may be prescribed by the commissioner, with the approval of the associate commissioners.

SECTION 7. The associate commissioners shall constitute the board of conciliation and arbitration, and shall have the powers and perform the duties given them by chapter one hundred and fifty relative to conciliation and arbitration of industrial disputes, and chapter one hundred 5 and fifty-one relative to the minimum wage. The board shall have 6 assigned to it such assistants from the officers and employees of the 7 department as the commissioner and the board from time to time de- 8 termine.

DIVISION OF STANDARDS.

1 Section 8. The director of standards shall, in addition to the 2 powers and duties conferred and imposed upon him by law, perform 3 such other duties as may be assigned to him by the commissioner.

1 Section 9. Inspectors of standards appointed under section four 2 shall give bond for the faithful performance of their duties.

THE MASSACHUSETTS INDUSTRIAL COMMISSION.

1 Section 9A. There shall be in the department a commission for the 2 promotion and development of the industries and industrial, agricultural 3 and recreational resources of the commonwealth, to be known as the 4 Massachusetts industrial commission, in this and the two following 5 sections called the commission. The commission shall consist of the 6 commissioner and the commissioner of agriculture, ex officis, and five 7 unpaid members appointed by the governor, with the advice and con- 8 sent of the council, who shall be designated in their initial appoint- 9 ments to serve respectively for one, two, three, four and five years. The com- 10 mission shall annually choose one of its members as chairman. One of 11 the members appointed by the governor as aforesaid shall always be a 12 representative of labor. Upon the expiration of the term of office of 13 an appointive member, a successor shall be appointed in the manner 14 aforesaid for five years. The commission shall meet at least once a 15 month and at such other times as it shall determine by its rules. The 16 members shall receive their necessary traveling expenses while in the 17 performance of their official duties.

1 Section 9B. Subject to the approval of the governor and council 2 the commission may appoint and fix the compensation of a secretary 3 and such experts as it may require and may remove them with like 4 approval. It may also employ such other necessary clerks and em- 5 ployees as it may require. Authorized representatives of the commis- 6 sion may travel outside the commonwealth for the purpose of carrying 7 out the provisions of section nine C.

1 Section 9C. The commission may conduct researches into indus- 2 trial and agricultural conditions within the commonwealth, and shall 3 seek to co-ordinate the activities of unofficial bodies organized for the 4 promotion of the industrial, agricultural and recreational interests in 5 the commonwealth, and may prepare, print and distribute books, maps, 6 charts and pamphlets which in its judgment will further the purpose 7 for which it is created, and, on behalf of the commonwealth, may accept 8 contributions and, subject to the approval of the governor and council, 9 may expend the same and also may expend such sums as may be ap- 10 propriated by the general court to carry out the purpose of this and the 11 two preceding sections.
DIVISION ON THE NECESSARIES OF LIFE.

Section 9D. The director of the division on the necessaries of life shall, in addition to the powers and duties conferred and imposed upon him by law, perform such other duties as may be assigned to him by the commissioner.

Section 9E. The division shall study and investigate the circumstances affecting the prices of fuel, gasoline and refined petroleum products and other commodities which are necessaries of life. It may inquire into all matters relating to the production, transportation, distribution and sale of the said commodities, and into all facts and circumstances relating to the cost of production, wholesale and retail prices and the method pursued in the conduct of the business of any persons, firms or corporations engaged in the production, transportation, or sale of the said commodities, or of any business which relates to or affects the same. It shall also study and investigate the circumstances affecting the charges for rent of property used for living quarters, and in such investigation may inquire into all matters relating to charges for rent.

Section 9F. The division shall have authority to give hearings, to administer oaths, to require the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of books and documents and other papers, and to employ counsel. Witness summonses may be issued by the director or by any assistant by him designated and shall be served in the same manner as summonses for witnesses in criminal cases issued on behalf of the commonwealth, and all provisions of law relative to summonses issued in such cases shall apply to summonses issued hereunder, so far as they are applicable. Any justice of the supreme judicial court or of the superior court may, upon application of the director, compel the attendance of witnesses and the giving of testimony before the division in the same manner and to the same extent as before the said courts.

Section 9G. The division shall investigate all complaints made to it, and may publish its findings. It shall keep in touch with the work of federal and municipal and other agencies dealing with the necessaries of life, and give them such assistance as it deems advisable; and may invoke the aid of said agencies and of civic and other organizations.

Section 9H. Whenever the governor shall determine that a fuel emergency exists, he may, with the approval of the council, by a writing signed by him, designate the director of the division on the necessaries of life to act as an emergency fuel administrator, and thereupon the director shall have, with respect to fuel, all the powers and authority granted by the Commonwealth Defence Act of nineteen hundred and seventeen, being chapter three hundred and forty-two of the General Acts of nineteen hundred and seventeen, to persons designated or appointed by the governor under section twelve of said chapter three hundred and forty-two; and the governor may revoke such written authority at any time. The provisions of said chapter three hundred and forty-two are hereby made operative to such extent as the provisions of this section may from time to time require.

1 Section 1. There shall be a department to be known as the department of industrial accidents, consisting of the industrial accident board hereinafter provided for. 1919, 350, § 68.

1 Section 2. The industrial accident board shall consist of seven members, one of whom shall be a woman, at such salaries, not exceeding six thousand dollars each, as the governor and council determine, except that the chairman, who shall be designated by the governor, shall receive such salary, not exceeding sixty-five hundred dollars, as the governor and council determine. Upon the expiration of the term of office of a member, his successor shall be appointed for five years by the governor, with the advice and consent of the council. The members shall devote their whole time in business hours to the work of the board.

1 Section 3. The chairman shall from time to time appoint one or more reviewing boards, each reviewing board to consist of not less than three members, to decide matters required to be heard by such a board.

1 Section 3A. A reviewing board appointed under authority of section three shall hold hearings in the city of Springfield at least six times each year to decide matters required to be heard by such board and relating to industrial accidents occurring, or to employees living, in Berkshire, Franklin, Hampden and Hampshire counties.

SECTION 4. The salaries and expenses of the department shall be paid by the commonwealth. The department may appoint and remove a secretary. It shall also be allowed such sums as may annually be appropriated by the general court for clerical service and traveling and other necessary expenses. Its records shall be kept in its office.

SECTION 3.

The commissioners shall be sworn to the faithful performance of their official duties. They shall not be in the employ of, or own any stock in, any gas or electric company, water company, railroad corporation or street railway company, or company engaged in the transmission of intelligence by electricity in the commonwealth, or be in any way, directly or indirectly, pecuniarily interested in the sale of water, or the manufacture or sale of gas or electricity or of any article or commodity used by gas or electric companies or companies engaged in the transmission of intelligence by electricity or used for any purpose connected with the sale or distribution of water, the manufacture or sale of gas or electricity or the transmission of intelligence by electricity nor shall they be connected with or in the employ of any person financing any company engaged in the transmission of intelligence by electricity. They shall not personally or through a partner or agent render any professional service or make or perform any business contract with or for a railroad corporation or street railway company chartered under the laws of the commonwealth, except contracts made with them as common carriers, nor shall they, directly or indirectly, receive a commission, bonus, discount, present or reward from any such corporation or company.

Section 4. The chairman shall have and exercise supervision and control over all the affairs of the commission. He shall preside at all hearings at which he is present, and shall designate a commissioner to act as chairman in his absence. He shall not, except as is otherwise provided herein, be chartered with any administrative functions. In order to promote efficiency in administration he shall from time to time make such division or redivision of the work of the department among the commissioners as he deems expedient. All the commissioners shall, if so directed by the chairman, participate in the hearing and decision of any matter coming before the commission. In the hearing of all matters other than those of formal or administrative character coming before the commission, at least two commissioners shall participate and in the decision of all such matters at least three commissioners shall participate. In every case the concurrence of a majority of the commissioners participating therein shall be necessary for a decision. With the consent of all parties concerned in a matter coming before the commission, the hearing may be held by a single commissioner.

Section 5. When so requested by any party interested, the commission, or any member or members acting for the commission, shall rule upon any question of substantive law properly arising in the course of any proceedings before the commission or any member or members thereof, and any party in interest aggrieved by such ruling may object thereto, and may secure a review thereof as hereinabove provided. Any failure or refusal of the commission, or of any member or members thereof acting for the commission, to rule upon such a question at the request of any party in interest as aforesaid within ten days after such request, shall be taken and recorded as a ruling adverse to the party requesting the ruling.

The supreme judicial court shall have jurisdiction in equity to review, modify, amend or annul any ruling or order of the commission, or of any member or members representing the commission, but only to the extent of the unlawfulness of such ruling or order. The procedure before said court shall be that prescribed by its rules, which shall state upon what terms the enforcement of the order shall be stayed. The attorney for any party petitioning the supreme judicial court hereunder shall file with the clerk of the court a certificate that he is of opinion that there is such probable ground for the appeal as to make it a fit subject for judicial inquiry, and that it is not intended for delay; and double costs shall be assessed by the court upon any such party whose petition shall appear to the court not to be a fit subject for judicial inquiry or shall appear to be intended for delay. The burden of proof shall be
1 Section 5A. In all investigations and inquiries authorized by law to be made by the department and in all proceedings before it, any commissioner of the department may summon witnesses, administer oaths and take testimony. The fees of such witnesses for attendance and travel shall be the same as for witnesses before the superior court and shall be paid by the commonwealth upon the certificate of the department filed with the comptroller. The fees of such witnesses need not be paid or tendered to them prior to their attendance and testimony.

1 Section 7. For the performance of the department's duties relative to common carriers the commission may appoint or employ and remove such engineers, accountants, statisticians, bureau chiefs and division heads, assistants, inspectors, clerks and other subordinates as are required therefor, and may appoint on such terms as it deems advisable a counsel and attorneys who, in the conduct of litigation and court proceedings, shall act under the direction of the attorney general. Accountants shall be skilled in the methods of railroad accounting and under the direction of the commission shall supervise the method by which the accounts of corporations operating railroads or street railways are kept. The commission shall appoint one or more competent experts to examine the reports required by section eighty-three of chapter one hundred and fifty-nine, and may, whenever in its opinion public interest requires, in connection with any proposed issue of stock or bonds by a railroad corporation or street railway company, employ competent experts to investigate the character, cost and value for railroad or railway purposes of the property of such corporation or company.

1 Section 8. For the performance of the department's duties relative to common carriers the commission may expend annually such sums to procure opinions, advice, plans, surveys, appraisals, audits, examinations, statistics, information, apparatus, instruments, books, tables, maps, drawings, supplies, sundries, and for travel within or without the commonwealth and expense incidental thereto, as it may from time to time deem requisite in the performance of its duties. It may from time to time cause to be made a compilation with annotations of the statutes of this commonwealth relating to common carriers.

1 Section 9. For the performance of the department's duties relative to water, gas and electric companies the commission may expend annually for necessary statistics, books, stationery and contingent expenses and for clerical and other assistance, such sums as the general court may deem proper.

Expenses and employees for the performance of department's duties relative to water, gas and electrical companies.
shall annually appropriate, and may appoint or employ, subject to the approval of the governor and council, such expert assistance as it may decem advisable, on such terms of office or employment as it may deem proper, and may expend therefor and for the performance of the duties imposed upon it by law such sums as the general court shall annually appropriate.

1908, 536, §§ 1, 3.
1913, 317, §§ 1, 3.
1914, 631, § 1; 742, § 135; 787, § 2.
1931, 301, § 82.

SECTION 10. The commission may assign to all officers and employees appointed or employed under the three preceding sections such duties as it shall from time to time deem advisable, but all acts of such officers and employees shall be done under the supervision and control of, and subject to revision by, the commission.

SECTION 11. The general court, in making annual appropriations for the department, shall designate what portions thereof shall be used for salaries of employees and expenses incurred in the performance of its functions relative to gas, electric and water companies and municipal lighting plants. Except as otherwise provided, the portions thus designated, including one half the sum annually appropriated for the salaries of the commissioners, shall be apportioned by the commissioner of corporations and taxation among the several gas and electric companies, water companies and cities and towns which have acquired municipal lighting plants, and, on or before July first in each year, he shall assess upon each of said companies, cities and towns its share of said sums, in proportion to gross earnings in the case of companies, and in proportion to expenses as defined in section fifty-seven of chapter one hundred and sixty-four, in the case of cities and towns, for the year last preceding the year in which the assessment is made; and such assessments in the case of companies shall be collected in the manner in which taxes upon corporations are collected, and in the case of cities and towns, in the manner in which the state tax is collected.

SECTION 12. Of the amount so assessed and collected any balance remaining on November thirtieth in any year, and all forfeitures colclected during the preceding fiscal year from such companies and from municipalities owning lighting plants for failure to make returns and all fees collected during said year from such companies and municipalities and from consumers of electricity, gas and water for testing meters, shall be carried forward to the next year and shall be taken into account in making an appropriation for that year.

SECURITIES DIVISION.

SECTION 12A. There shall be in the department, and under its general supervision and control, a securities division which shall be under the charge of a director. The commission, with the approval of the governor and council, shall appoint said director for a term of five years, and fix his compensation. The commission, with like approval, or the governor, may remove said director at any time for cause. Said division shall perform such of the functions in relation to the administration and enforcement of chapter one hundred and ten as imposed upon the commission by said chapter as the commission may from time

1 2 3 4 5 6 7 8 9 10 11 12 13 14 15 16 17 18
to time determine by order duly recorded in the office of the commission 11 and open to public inspection. The commission may employ such as-12 sistants and employees to serve in said division as may be necessary.

1 Section 12B. For the purposes of section five A, the said director
2 shall be deemed a commissioner of the department; for the purposes of 3 section seven of chapter one hundred and ten A, an order or finding by 4 said director, or his failure or refusal to make an order or finding, shall 5 be deemed an order, finding, failure or refusal by the commission; and 6 for purposes of service of process under section eight of said chapter and 7 of signing the certificate under paragraph (c) of section eleven thereof,
8 said director shall be deemed the secretary of the commission. Section 9 fourteen of said chapter shall apply to witnesses before the said director.

DIVISION OF SMOKE INSPECTION.

1 Section 12C. There shall be in the department, and under its 2 supervision and control, a division of smoke inspection consisting of a
3 director, who shall have charge of said division, and an advisory council 4 hereinafter provided for. The commission, with the approval of the 5 governor and council, shall appoint said director for a term of five years,
6 and fix his compensation. The commission, with like approval, or the 7 governor, may remove said director at any time for cause. Said di-
8 rector shall not engage in any other business, and he shall be an experi-9 enced engineer.

1 Section 12D. Said division shall perform such of the functions in 2 relation to the administration and enforcement of chapter six hundred 3 and fifty-one of the acts of nineteen hundred and ten, and acts in amend-4 ment thereof or in addition thereto, as have been vested in the com-5 mission by said chapter and acts as the commission may from time to 6 time determine by order duly recorded in the office of the commission 7 and open to public inspection. The commission may employ such 8 inspectors, assistants and other employees to serve in said division as 9 may be necessary.

1 Section 12E. The salaries of the director and all employees of the 2 division and the expenses incurred in the performance of its functions
3 shall be apportioned annually by the state treasurer among the cities
4 and towns comprising the district defined by said chapter six hundred 5 and fifty-one, and acts in amendment thereof and in addition thereto,
6 in proportion to their last annual taxable valuation, and the amount so 7 apportioned shall be added to their proportion of the state tax.

1 Section 12F. Said advisory council shall consist of five members
2 appointed by the governor, with the advice and consent of the council,
3 who shall be designated in their initial appointments to serve as follows:
4 — two for three years, two for two years and one for one year. Upon 5 the expiration of the term of office of a member, his successor shall be 6 appointed in the manner aforesaid for three years. Said council shall 7 meet at least once a month, and when requested by the director or by 8 any three members thereof, for the consideration of problems and mat-9 ters relating to the abatement of smoke. The members shall receive no compensation, but shall be reimbursed for their necessary expenses actually incurred in the performance of their official duties.

Chapter 26.

Department of Banking and Insurance.

Section 1. There shall be a department of banking and insurance, consisting of a division of banks and loan agencies, a division of insurance, and a division of savings bank life insurance. Each division shall be in charge of a commissioner, who shall be known, respectively, as the commissioner of banks, the commissioner of insurance and the commissioner of savings bank life insurance. The commissioners shall act as a board in all matters concerning the department as a whole.

Division of banks and loan agencies.

Section 2. Upon the expiration of the term of office of a commissioner of banks, his successor shall be appointed for three years by the governor, with the advice and consent of the council. The commissioner shall receive such salary, not exceeding six thousand dollars, as the governor and council determine. He shall not be an officer of or directly or indirectly interested in any national bank or in any bank, trust company, corporation, business or occupation that requires his official supervision, and he shall not engage in any other business. He shall give bond with sureties in the sum of twenty thousand dollars, to be approved by the state treasurer, for the faithful performance of his duties.

Sections 8, 8A, 9, 10, 11, 12.
1 Section 3. Subject to the approval of the governor and council, the commissioner may appoint, remove, and fix the salary of a deputy commissioner. The commissioner may appoint and remove such clerical and other assistants as the work of the division may require. He shall be allowed necessary expenses, including those for the investigation of, and prosecution for, violation of any provision of sections ninety-six to one hundred and fourteen, inclusive, of chapter one hundred and forty, and the actual expenses incurred by him and his subordinates in traveling in the performance of official duties. The clerical and other assistants shall give bonds, with sureties to be approved by the commissioner, for the faithful performance of their duties.

DIVISION OF INSURANCE.

1 Section 6. Upon the expiration of the term of office of a commissioner of insurance, his successor shall be appointed for three years by the governor, with the advice and consent of the council. The commissioner shall receive such salary, not exceeding six thousand dollars, as the governor and council determine. He shall give bond with sureties in the sum of ten thousand dollars, to be approved by the state treasurer, for the faithful performance of his duties.

1 Section 7. The commissioner of insurance may appoint and remove, with the approval of the governor and council, a first deputy, an actuary and a chief examiner and such additional deputies, examiners, assistants, actuaries and inspectors as the service may require. In case of a vacancy in the office of commissioner, and during his absence or disability, the first deputy shall perform the duties of the office, or in case of the absence or disability of such first deputy, the deputy who has been longest in the service of the division. The commissioner may appoint and remove such clerical and other assistants as the work of the division may require. Such deputies, examiners, actuaries, inspectors, clerks, and other assistants shall perform such duties as the commissioner may prescribe; provided, that any person aggrieved by any finding, ruling, or decision rendered upon a hearing authorized by law held before a person other than the commissioner, may, within three days, or such further period in any particular case as the commissioner may allow, after the filing of such finding, ruling or decision in the office of the commissioner, appeal therefrom to the commissioner who shall review the case and may modify, affirm or reverse such ruling, finding or decision.

SECTION 8. There shall be a board of appeal on fire insurance rates serving in the division of insurance and consisting of two appointive members, who shall be citizens of the commonwealth, and the commissioner of insurance or a deputy designated by him, ex officio. The commissioner or such deputy shall be chairman of the board. Upon the expiration of the term of office of an appointive member, his successor shall be appointed for three years by the governor, with the advice and consent of the council. An office and a room for hearings shall be provided by the commonwealth, when deemed necessary by the governor and council, and the board may employ a stenographer, and shall have power to compel the attendance of witnesses and the production of books and documents. The compensation of each appointive member shall be ten dollars a day for each day or fraction thereof while engaged in the performance of his duties.

SECTION 8A. There shall be a board of appeal on motor vehicle liability policies and bonds serving in the division of insurance and consisting of the commissioner of insurance or his representative, the registrar of motor vehicles or a representative, and an assistant attorney general to be designated from time to time by the attorney general. The commissioner of insurance may by a writing, in such form as he may prescribe, filed in his office, designate from time to time a representative to act in his place and the commissioner of public works may in like manner designate from time to time a representative to act in the place of said registrar. Any such designation may be revoked at any time and may run for such period as the designating officer may prescribe. The compensation of such a representative, if not an employee of the commonwealth, shall be fixed by the board, subject to the approval of the governor and council. The commissioner of insurance or his representative shall be the chairman of the board. With the approval of the governor and council, the board may appoint and remove a secretary and such clerical and other assistants as its work may require, and fix their compensation. All expenditures incurred under this section shall be paid from the highway fund. The secretary shall keep a record of all proceedings before the board, and he and such clerical and other assistants shall perform such duties as the board may direct. Any member of the board shall have power to summon and compel the attendance and testimony of witnesses and the production of books, records and documents and may administer oaths. Sections nine and eleven of chapter two hundred and thirty-three shall apply to the board and witnesses summoned before it. The fees of witnesses before the board for attendance and travel shall be the same as for witnesses before the superior court in civil cases and need not be paid nor tendered to them prior to their attendance, and shall be paid by the commonwealth upon the certificate of the board or a member thereof filed with the controller. An office and a room for hearings shall be provided by the governor and council. The board, with the approval of the governor and council, may make and amend reasonable rules and regulations to expedite and regulate hearings and the procedure before it.

DIVISION OF SAVINGS BANK LIFE INSURANCE.

1 Section 9. The division of savings bank life insurance shall consist of the body corporate known as the General Insurance Guaranty Fund.
The commissioner of savings bank life insurance shall be one of the board of trustees of the corporation, designated by the governor as such commissioner. His term shall be that of his appointment as trustee. He shall act as president of the board of trustees of said corporation, and shall have general supervision and control of the work of the division.

1 Section 10. The governor, with the advice and consent of the council, shall annually appoint a trustee of the General Insurance Guaranty Fund for seven years from July first in the year of his appointment. Such trustee shall serve without compensation and shall be selected from persons who are trustees of savings banks or of savings and insurance banks. The trustees may elect from their own number a vice president to act as president of the board of trustees in the absence or disability of the president, and shall elect a treasurer and a clerk, all of whom shall hold office for one year and until their successors are appointed. The trustees may, with the approval of and subject to confirmation by the governor and council, appoint, and with their consent remove, a deputy who shall discharge the duties of the commissioner during his absence or disability.

1 Section 11. The trustees shall, with the approval of the governor and council, appoint, and may with their consent remove, an insurance actuary to be called the state actuary, and his salary or compensation shall be paid by the commonwealth. The trustees may also appoint such clerks and assistants to the state actuary as the public business in his charge may require.

1 Section 12. The trustees shall, with the approval of the governor and council, appoint, and may with their consent remove, a physician to be known as the state medical director, and his salary or compensation shall be paid by the commonwealth. The state medical director may appoint such assistants, if any, as the public business in his charge requires.

SECTION 5. There shall be in the department a board of parole, consisting of a deputy commissioner designated by the commissioner and two appointive members. Upon the expiration of the term of office of an appointive member, his successor shall be appointed by the governor, with the advice and consent of the council, for three years. The governor shall designate the chairman of the board. The deputy com-7 missioner shall receive no additional compensation for his services on 8 said board. The two appointive members shall receive such salary, not 9 exceeding twenty-five hundred dollars each, as the governor and council 10 may determine; but if one of said members is designated as chairman, 11 he shall receive a salary not exceeding five thousand dollars. The 12 appointive members of the board shall be reimbursed by the common- 13 wealth for actual expenses incurred by them in the performance of their 14 official duties. With the approval of the commissioner, said board 15 may expend annually from the appropriation for contingent and other 16 expenses of the department a sum not exceeding two hundred dollars 17 for examinations by physicians of prisoners whose cases come before 18 said board for action.

1 Section 6. No officer of the department shall be concerned or inter- 2 ested directly or indirectly in a contract, purchase or sale made on 3 account of any prison.

1 Section 1. There shall be a metropolitan district commission, consist- ing of a commissioner and four associate commissioners, who shall at 2 the time of their appointment be resident within the district of which 3 the commission has jurisdiction, and at least one shall be a resident of 4 Boston. Upon the expiration of the term of office of a commissioner or 5 an associate commissioner, his successor shall be appointed for five years 6 by the governor, with the advice and consent of the council.

1 Section 2. The commissioner shall receive such salary, not exceeding 2 six thousand dollars, and each associate commissioner such salary, not 3 exceeding twenty-five hundred dollars, as the governor and council 4 determine.

1 Section 3. The commissioner shall be the executive and adminis- trative head of the commission and shall organize it in such divisions as 2 he may from time to time determine. He may, with the approval of 3 the governor and council, appoint a director of each division to have 4 charge of its work, and may, with like approval, remove him. The 5 compensation of directors shall be fixed by the commissioners, with the 6 approval of the governor and council.
Section 4. The commissioners may appoint a secretary, engineering chiefs, a purchasing agent, engineers, inspectors, officers and members of the police force, one or more women as special police officers, clerks and such other officers and employees as the work of the commission may require, may assign them to divisions, transfer and remove them.
The secretary and engineering chiefs shall be exempt from chapter thirty-one.

Section 5. There shall be organized within the metropolitan district commission a division of metropolitan planning. Said division shall be in charge of seven commissioners, three of whom shall be appointed by the governor, with the advice and consent of the council, for terms of five years from the date of their respective appointments and without compensation; the commissioner or an associate commissioner of public works, to be designated from time to time by the commissioner of public works; a commissioner of the department of public utilities, to be designated from time to time by the chairman of said department;
the commissioner or an associate commissioner of the metropolitan district commission, to be designated from time to time by the commissioner of said commission; and an officer of the transit department of the city of Boston, to be designated from time to time by the chairman thereof.
The chairman of said division shall be designated by the governor.

Section 6. Said division shall investigate and make recommendations as to transportation service and facilities within the district consisting of all the cities and towns in the metropolitan parks district, and the metropolitan parks district, and the co-ordination thereof upon highways, roads, bridges, waterways, railroads, street railways and other arteries of traffic; the manner of effecting such co-relationship and what improvements and new facilities should be provided for a comprehensive and co-ordinated development of transportation for said district. It shall confer with the local planning agencies in the district with regard to such projects as are not of an exclusively local character. It shall recommend the method of carrying into effect and financing the projects recommended by it, and shall make such maps, plans and estimates of cost as may be needed for its investigations and reports, and may employ such assistants therefor as it deems necessary. It may sell such maps or other maps prepared by it from time to time in connection with the work under its charge at such prices and on such conditions as it may determine. The various other departments, boards and divisions of the commonwealth, the public trustees, respectively, of the Boston Elevated Railway Company and of the Eastern Massachusetts Street Railway Company, the street commissioners, planning boards and other officials of cities and towns comprising said district, and the various public utilities operating therein may consult with it and furnish all facts and information requested within their knowledge or control.

The division shall annually submit to the budget commissioner the estimates required by sections three and four of chapter twenty-nine, and shall prepare and file an annual report as required by sections thirty-two and thirty-three of chapter thirty.

SECTION 1. The word “departments”, as used in this chapter, shall, unless the context otherwise requires, mean all the departments of the commonwealth, except the departments of banking and insurance and of civil service and registration but including in lieu thereof the divisions of banks and loan agencies, of insurance, of savings bank life insurance and of civil service and the several boards serving in the division of registration of the department of civil service and registration, and also including the metropolitan district commission and the commission on administration and finance.

SECTION 2. All revenue payable to the commonwealth and available for meeting any costs or expenses of state offices, departments or undertakings, or for meeting any other cost or expense of the state government, shall be paid into the general fund or ordinary revenue, except revenue from or on account of the metropolitan district commission and its activities, revenue for meeting the principal of or interest on contingent debt, revenue from investments of sinking funds, revenue now placed by law in the highway fund, revenue now placed by law in the land registration assurance fund, and all revenue for trust funds, including the Massachusetts school fund, the contributions of state employees to their retirement fund, and the contributions of public school teachers to their retirement fund, which funds shall be maintained and the income applied in accordance with existing laws.

SECTION 3. Every officer having charge of any office, department or undertaking which receives an annual appropriation of money from the commonwealth, including annual appropriations to be met by assessments, shall annually, on or before October fifteenth, submit to the budget commissioner statements showing in detail the amounts appropriated for the current fiscal year, and estimates of the amounts required for ordinary maintenance for the ensuing fiscal year, with an explanation of any increased appropriations recommended, and with citations of the statutes relating thereto, and statements showing in detail the revenue and estimated revenue of the office, department or undertaking in his charge for the current fiscal year and his estimate of the revenue 12 from the same or any additional sources for the ensuing fiscal year, 13 with his recommendations as to any changes in the management, practices, rules, regulations or laws governing the office, department or 15 undertaking in his charge which would effect an increase or cause a 16 decrease in revenue from operations, fees, taxes or other sources or 17 which would facilitate its collection, together with any other information required at any time by the budget commissioner. The said estimates shall not include any estimate for any new or special purposes 20 or objects not authorized by statute.

1 Section 4. Officers and heads of departments who, in their annual 2 reports or otherwise, recommend or petition for the expenditure of 3 money by the commonwealth from any source of revenue, including 4 expenditures to be met by assessments or the issue of notes or bonds, 5 for any purpose not covered by the estimates required to be submitted 6 under the preceding section shall annually, on or before October fifteenth, submit detailed estimates thereof to the budget commissioner, 7 together with any other information required by him.

1 Section 5. The comptroller shall annually, on or before December 2 twenty-sixth, submit to the budget commissioner statements setting 3 forth:—
4 (a) The expenditures for all state purposes for the preceding fiscal 5 year, itemized separately so as to show expenditures made from grants 6 from the United States, trust funds and sources other than state revenue.
7 (b) The appropriations for the preceding fiscal year.
8 (c) Estimates of all claims and other expenditures authorized by 9 law and not required to be filed under section three.
10 (d) The actual revenue for the three preceding fiscal years, itemized 11 so as to show the sources from which received.
12 (e) The condition of the cash on hand, itemized separately so as to 13 show cash derived from special revenue not available for general state 14 purposes, cash held to meet authorizations and obligations previously 15 made and incurred, and cash which is unencumbered and available for 16 appropriation.
17 (f) The condition of the state debt.

1 Section 5A. Each department, office and commission responsible 2 for any great amount of physical property shall annually submit with 3 its budget estimates forecasts of probable annual construction expenditures for such period of years as shall be appropriate for such department, office or commission. Such forecasts shall be itemized, and items 6 shall be classified for each year under one of three following classes: 7 “necessary”, “desirable” or “contingent”. The first class shall include 8 work that is a part of a fixed and continuing program or is unavoidably 9 necessary. The second class shall include items of work advantageously 10 provided for at that time, but which might be postponed or possibly 11 advanced. The third class shall include work dependent upon some 12 other developments which cannot be definitely predetermined. Such 13 forecasts may be modified from year to year to conform to changing 14 conditions. The budget commissioner may from time to time fix or 15 change the form of the forecasts, the classification of the items contained 16 therein or the period of years to be covered thereby.
SECTION 6. The budget commissioner shall study and review all estimates and requests for appropriations and other authorizations for expenditures of state funds filed with him as provided by sections three and four, and shall make such investigations as will enable him to prepare a budget for the governor, setting forth such recommendations as the governor shall determine upon. The governor may call upon the comptroller for information relative to finances and for assistance in the preparation of the budget. The budget shall be submitted by the governor to the general court annually within three weeks after the general court convenes, and it shall embody all estimates, requests and recommendations for appropriations or other authorizations for expenditures 11 by the commonwealth. The budget shall be classified and designated 12 so as to show separately estimates and recommendations for: (a) expenses of administration, operation and maintenance; (b) deficiencies or overdrafts in appropriations of former years; (c) new construction, additions, improvements and other capital outlay; (d) interest on the public debt and sinking fund and serial bond requirements; and (e) all requests and proposals, for expenditures for new projects and other undertakings; and shall include in detail definite recommendations of the governor relative to the amounts which should be appropriated therefor. 20 The budget shall also include definite recommendations of the governor for financing the expenditures recommended, and the relative amounts to be raised from ordinary revenue, direct taxes or loans. All appropriations based upon the budget to be paid from taxes or revenue shall be 24 incorporated in a single bill to be designated the general appropriation bill. With the budget the governor shall submit to the general court such messages, statements or supplemental data relative thereto as he deems expedient, and from time to time during the session of the general court he may submit supplemental messages on recommendations relative to appropriations, revenues and loans. 28

SECTION 7. Estimates for building construction and institutional development filed under section four shall be accompanied by preliminary studies and general specifications sufficient for a careful estimate by a competent contractor, and at least one such estimate of the cost of any new construction, including heating, plumbing, lighting, ventilation and equipment, for alteration or repair of existing construction when such estimate exceeds five thousand dollars. Copies of such preliminary studies and estimates shall be filed in his office by the officer having in charge such construction, alteration, repair or development. Preliminary studies so submitted shall not be changed or amended thereafter in any respect, except with the written approval of such officer, and such changes shall be kept on file distinct from the original studies authorized.

SECTION 8. The officer in direct charge of such construction, alteration, repair or development, shall obtain working plans and specifications, when so authorized by the general court, shall advertise in a reasonable number of newspapers for proposals for the performance of such work, and shall award the contract to the lowest responsible and eligible bidder; but no contract shall be awarded for a sum in excess of the appropriation available therefor.
1 Section 9. To meet the expenses incurred under section seven in any case where the general court fails to make an appropriation to carry out the construction, alteration, repair or development asked for, reasonable amounts in compensation for such preliminary studies, specifications and estimates not exceeding one per cent of the estimated cost of the work may be expended; provided the general court makes an appropriation therefor.

1 Section 9A. The metropolitan district commission shall include in its budget estimates for each of the functions under its control for each fiscal year after that ending November thirtieth, nineteen hundred and twenty-eight, an item covering the amounts contributed by the commonwealth as pensions under sections one to five, inclusive, of chapter thirty-two during the preceding fiscal year on account of the retirement of employees, officers and officials formerly employed in the performance of such function, including, in the case of those whose services cannot be entirely allocated to any one function, those parts of such amounts properly allocable to such function and also including as employed in the performance of its water function those employed by the metropolitan district water supply commission, and the amount of such item shall be assessed upon the proper district as a part of the cost of the maintenance of such function; provided, that, in the case of employees, officers and officials formerly employed in the performance of its boulevard functions, only one half the amounts contributed by the commonwealth as pensions as aforesaid shall be so included and assessed. After an appropriation has been made covering each such item, the amount thereof shall be approved for payment by the metropolitan district commission as a part of the cost of maintenance of the function for which the estimates were made and shall be credited to the general revenue of the commonwealth.

1 Section 10. Officers or departments having charge or supervision of expenditures in behalf of the commonwealth may continue expenditures in each year at the rate authorized by appropriations for the preceding fiscal year, until the general court makes an appropriation therefor or provides otherwise.

1 Section 11. The state treasurer shall make advances to members of the senate and house of representatives on account of compensation due for services and traveling expenses in accordance with existing laws at the rate authorized by appropriations for the preceding fiscal year, until the general court makes an appropriation therefor or provides otherwise.

1 Section 12. Unless otherwise specifically provided therein, appropriations by the general court for ordinary maintenance shall be made for the fiscal year established for the commonwealth.

1 Section 13. An unexpended balance of an appropriation for ordinary maintenance of any fiscal year may be applied in the succeeding fiscal year to the payment of expenses incurred during the fiscal year for which they were appropriated.
the appropriation was made; but any balance then remaining shall revert to the commonwealth.

SECTION 14. An appropriation for any purpose other than ordinary maintenance shall not be available for more than two years after the date of the appropriation act, except that payments may be made therefor to fulfill contracts and other obligations entered into within the said two years.

SECTION 15. An appropriation shall supersede an earlier one made for the same object.

SECTION 16. Payments authorized by appropriation acts shall be made from the ordinary revenue, if no other provision is expressly made therefor. Cash from the ordinary revenue on hand at the beginning of each fiscal year shall be carried to the account of the ordinary revenue of that year.

SECTION 17. An appropriation act shall not be construed to require a payment to a person without whom the commonwealth has an unadjusted account. The governor, upon receiving satisfactory information that money is illegally withheld from the commonwealth by any person, shall instruct the state treasurer to withhold all payments to him until he pays such account.

SECTION 18. Except as otherwise provided, no money shall be paid by the commonwealth without a warrant from the governor drawn in accordance with an appropriation then in effect, and after the demand or account to be paid has been certified by the comptroller; provided, that the principal and interest on all public debts shall be paid when due without any warrant and that no appropriation shall be required for the payment of principal or income of funds held in trust by the commonwealth, or of sinking funds to meet maturing bonds, or of treasury notes issued for duly authorized temporary loans, or of corporation and other taxes collected by the commonwealth for distribution to towns, or for the investment of such funds as the state treasurer is duly authorized to invest, or for payments authorized by law out of the several prison industries funds, or for refunds of taxes or penalties or for refunds or payments of interest or costs lawfully made pursuant to the provisions of chapters fifty-eight to sixty-five A, inclusive; and, provided, further, that the governor may, without an appropriation, draw his warrant for the payment of his own salary and the salaries of the justices of the supreme judicial court. No certificate shall be required from the comptroller for payment of the pay rolls of the members of the council and general court.

SECTION 19. No account against the commonwealth shall be allowed or paid unless authority to contract the same was given by the general court or by either branch thereof nor unless the items thereof are specified.
1 Section 20. No account or demand requiring the certificate of the 2 comptroller or warrant of the governor shall be paid from an appropria- 3 tion unless it has been authorized and approved by the head of the 4 department or office for which it was contracted; nor shall any appropria- 5 tion be used for expenses, except gratuities and special allowances 6 by the general court, unless full and properly approved vouchers there- 7 for have been filed with the comptroller.

1 Section 21. When the law provides that expenses of a state officer, 2 department or division thereof shall be subject to the approval of the 3 governor and council, specific approval of the governor and council 4 shall not be required for the office expenses thereof.

1 Section 22. Except as otherwise expressly provided, no greater sum 2 from an appropriation shall be drawn from the treasury at any one time 3 than is necessary to meet expenses then incurred.

1 Section 23. Any officer authorized to expend money in behalf of 2 the commonwealth may have money advanced to him from the treasury 3 for such purposes, in such sums and subject to such rules and regulations 4 as the comptroller may determine.

1888, 322, § 1. 1907, 496, § 1. 1914, 45, § 1; 370. 1923, 362, § 26.

1 Section 24. Such officers shall certify that the amount is needed 2 for immediate use, and, as specifically as may be, the purposes for which 3 the expenditure is required. The certificate shall bear the approval 4 of the officer or department having the supervision of such expenditure 5 and, when filed with the comptroller, his certificate and the warrant and 6 payment shall follow as in case of claims against the commonwealth.

1 Section 25. Such officers shall, within thirty days after receipt of 2 an advance, file with the comptroller a detailed statement of the amounts 3 expended subsequent to the previous accounting, approved by the officer 4 or department authorized to supervise such expenditure, with vouchers 5 therefor if they can be obtained. All advances so made shall be ac- 6 counted for and vouchers therefor filed with the comptroller before 7 December first in each year.

1 Section 26. Expenses of offices and departments for compensation 2 of officers, members and employees and for other purposes shall not ex- 3 ceed the appropriations made therefor by the general court. No obli- 4 gation incurred by any officer or servant of the commonwealth in excess 5 of the appropriation for the office, department or institution which he 6 represents shall impose any liability upon the commonwealth. If expendi- 7 tures are made in excess of appropriations, the officers having 8 charge of such expenditures shall annually, on or before December 9 fifteenth, report to the comptroller the details thereof with the reasons 10 therefor, and he shall make a special report of the same to the general 11 court early in its session.

SECTION 27. No public officer or board shall incur a new or unusual expense, make a permanent contract, increase a salary or employ a new clerk, assistant or other subordinate unless a sufficient appropriation to cover the expense thereof has been made by the general court, except that prior to the effective date of the general appropriation act the department of public works, in anticipation of appropriations therefor, may, in any fiscal year, with the approval of the governor and council, make contracts for the construction and reconstruction of state highways binding the commonwealth to an amount not in excess of twenty-five per cent of the amount appropriated during the preceding fiscal year for the same purposes, such contracts to provide for the completion of the work thereunder within the fiscal year in which they are made.

SECTION 28. The cost of printing and publishing any publication issued by or on behalf of the commonwealth by any office or department shall be paid from the appropriation for such office or department.

SECTION 29. No transfer of funds from one item of account to another on the books of any officer or board having charge of any office, department, institution or undertaking receiving an annual appropriation from the commonwealth, upon which items of account such annual appropriation is based, shall be made without the written approval of the comptroller.

SECTION 30. No officer or board shall insure any property of the commonwealth without special authority of law.

SECTION 31. Salaries payable by the commonwealth shall, unless otherwise provided, be paid on the first day of each month, and shall be in full for all services rendered to the commonwealth by the persons to whom they are paid. Advances on account of salaries may be made under such regulations as the state treasurer may prescribe, not exceeding the proportion of salary then due, nor oftener than once in seven days nor after the twenty-fifth day of the month. No salary shall be paid to any person for a longer period than that during which he has been actually employed in the duties of his office. If a salary shall be diminished, no greater rate shall be paid because of any previous appropriation therefor. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this section, the annual salary of each teacher and each supervisor employed in any school within the department of education, whose regular service is rendered from September first to June thirtieth, shall be for his service for the number of weeks established by the department for such school to be in session during said period, payable, however, in equal instalments on the first day of each month, and the amount earned and unpaid at the time of his resignation, retirement, death or entry on leave of absence shall be paid forthwith to the persons entitled thereto.

SECTION 32. All checks given by the state treasurer and not paid within one year after issue shall be payable only at the office of the said treasurer.

1 Section 34. The state treasurer may deposit any portion of the public moneys in his possession in such national banks, or trust companies, lawfully doing business in the commonwealth, as shall be approved at least once in three months by the governor and council; but the amount deposited in any one bank or trust company shall not at any one time exceed forty per cent of its paid up capital. For the purpose of paying the principal or interest due on any bond, note or other obligation of the commonwealth, which is payable in the city of New York, he may keep on deposit in any national bank or trust company in said city, approved for the purpose by the governor and council, a sum not exceeding in the aggregate twenty-five thousand dollars, provided that for a period of two weeks prior to the date of any such payment or payments, said amount may be increased by a sum or sums sufficient to cover the same. A state treasurer making any deposit in violation of the foregoing provision shall be deemed guilty of misconduct and maladministration in his office within the meaning of the constitution; and any bank or trust company receiving any deposit in violation thereof shall be disqualified from receiving said moneys for the period of three years from the date of such deposit. All interest received on any deposits under this section shall be paid to the commonwealth.

1 Section 35. No bond or security belonging to the commonwealth shall be transferred except with the written approval of the governor. A note, bond, mortgage or other security which has been made to the state treasurer by name may be assigned, transferred or discharged by him or by any successor in office.

1 Section 36. If the state treasurer is authorized to discharge a mortgage held by the commonwealth, he may instead thereof assign it; but such assignment shall not impose upon the commonwealth any liability, express or implied.

1 Section 37. Real estate acquired by the commonwealth by foreclosure may, with the approval of the governor and council, be conveyed by the state treasurer upon payment of the amount of the mortgage debt with the interest and expenses accrued thereon.

1 Section 38. Funds over which the commonwealth has exclusive control shall be invested by the state treasurer, with the approval of the governor and council, as follows:

(a) In the public funds of the United States or of the District of Columbia or of this commonwealth, or in the legally authorized bonds of any other New England state, or of any other state of the United States, other than a territory or dependency thereof, which has not less than seven hundred and fifty thousand inhabitants as established by the last national census, and which has not within the twenty years prior to the making of such investment defaulted in the payment of any part of either principal or interest of any legal debt.

(b) In the bonds or notes of a county, city or town of this commonwealth.

(c) In the bonds or notes of an incorporated district in this commonwealth whose net indebtedness does not exceed five per cent of the last preceding valuation of the property therein for the assessment of taxes.
(d) In the bonds or notes of any city of Maine, New Hampshire, 17 Vermont, Rhode Island or Connecticut, whose net indebtedness does 18 not exceed five per cent of the last preceding valuation of the property 19 therein for the assessment of taxes; or of any county or town of said 20 states whose net indebtedness does not exceed three per cent of such 21 valuation; or of any incorporated water district of said states which 22 has within its limits more than ten thousand inhabitants, and whose 23 bonds or notes are a direct obligation on all the taxable property of such 24 district, and whose net indebtedness does not exceed three per cent of 25 such valuation; provided, that there is not included within the limits 26 of such water district, either wholly or in part, any city or town the 27 bonds or notes of which are not a legal investment.

(e) In the legally authorized bonds for municipal purposes of any 29 city of any state of the United States, other than one of the New England 30 states, whose bonds are eligible under subdivision (a) of this section; 31 provided, that such city was incorporated as such at least twenty-five 32 years prior to the date of such investment, and has at such date not 33 less than thirty thousand nor more than one hundred thousand inhabi- 34 ants, as established by the last national census preceding such date, 35 and that its net indebtedness does not exceed five per cent of the valuation 36 of the taxable property therein, to be ascertained by the last preceding 37 valuation of property therein for the assessment of taxes.

(f) In the legally authorized bonds for municipal purposes of any city 39 of any state of the United States, other than one of the New England 40 states, whose bonds are eligible under subdivision (a) of this section; 41 provided, that such city was incorporated as such at least twenty-five 42 years prior to the date of such investment, and has at such date more 43 than one hundred thousand inhabitants, established in the same manner 44 as is provided in subdivision (e) of this section, and that its net indebted- 45 ness does not exceed seven per cent of the valuation of the taxable prop- 46 erty therein, to be ascertained as provided in said subdivision (e).

(g) In subdivisions (d), (e) and (f) of this section the words “net 48 indebtedness” mean the indebtedness of a county, city, town or district, 49 omitting debts created for supplying the inhabitants with water and 50 debts created in anticipation of taxes to be paid within one year, and 51 deducting the amount of sinking funds available for the payment of the 52 indebtedness included.

Section 39. When the commonwealth holds any bond, note or 1 certificate of indebtedness payable to bearer and issued by a county, 2 city, town or district or any domestic corporation, such county, city, 3 town, district or corporation shall, at the request of the state treasurer, 4 issue in exchange therefor a bond, note or certificate of the same effect, 5 payable to the commonwealth by name. The commonwealth shall 6 pay the expense involved in making such exchange. Any county, city, 7 town, district or corporation neglecting or refusing to comply with 8 this section shall be punished by a fine of not more than fifty dollars. 9

Section 40. No deposit required to be made by any corporation in 1 trust with the state treasurer, or any part thereof, shall consist of a 2 mortgage upon real estate or of a loan upon personal notes or of notes 3 secured by collateral. He may receive, as a part of such deposit, money 4 or certificates of deposit, or certified checks on any approved state de-
6. pository, and may hold the same without interest until it may reasonably be invested in a proper legal security.

1. Section 41. The state treasurer shall have the custody and keep a
2. separate account of all notes, bonds and mortgages belonging to the
3. commonwealth, and shall receive all money accruing therefrom. All
4. deeds and instruments conveying real estate to the commonwealth shall
5. when recorded, be deposited with and safely kept by him.

1. Section 42. The governor shall, annually in August, appoint a com-
2. mittee of the council, which shall examine the value of the notes and
3. securities in charge of the state treasurer and report thereon to the gov-
4. ernor and council, who may direct him to sell or to collect notes or
5. securities over which the commonwealth has exclusive control and to
6. reinvest the proceeds according to section thirty-eight.

1. Section 43. [Repealed, 1926, 143.]

1. Section 44. The income or any surplus of funds belonging to or in
2. the custody of the commonwealth shall, unless otherwise provided, be
3. added to the principal.

1. Section 45. When any sinking fund of the commonwealth, with its
2. accumulations added, calculated on the basis on which the funds are
3. figured, contains more than an amount sufficient to extinguish at ma-
4. turity the indebtedness for which it was established, the state treasurer
5. shall add such surplus to any other sinking funds which are not suffi-
6. cient with their accumulations, so calculated, to meet the indebtedness
7. for which they were established. In determining the sufficiency of any
8. sinking fund under this section, obligations of the United States, and ob-
9. ligations of the commonwealth, or of any county, city or town thereof,
10. which mature on or prior to the date of maturity of the indebtedness
11. on account of which said sinking fund was established, shall be figured
12. at their par value; but all other obligations or other securities in said
13. sinking fund shall be figured at their fair market value at the time such
14. determination of sufficiency is made, but not exceeding the par value
15. thereof. No securities shall hereafter be purchased for any sinking fund
16. which do not mature on or prior to the maturity date of the indebtedness
17. on account of which said sinking fund was established.

1. Section 46. The state treasurer, instead of selling any securities,
2. belonging to any fund over which the commonwealth has exclusive con-
3. trol, to meet maturing liabilities, may transfer them to any other such
4. fund upon terms and conditions approved by the governor and council.

P. S. 16, § 63.
R. L. 6, § 71.

1. Section 47. The state treasurer may borrow at any time during a
2. fiscal year, in anticipation of the receipts for that year, including assess-
3. ments for the metropolitan districts, such sums of money as may be
4. necessary for the payment of ordinary demands on the treasury, includ-
5. ing interest and maintenance charges of said districts, and may issue
6. notes therefor. Money so borrowed and notes so issued may be at such rates of interest as shall be found necessary. He shall repay any sums borrowed under this section as soon after said receipts are paid as is expedient, but in any event before the close of the fiscal year in which the same were borrowed. He may collect proportionately from the cities and towns of each such district all interest that may be paid upon money borrowed for that district under this section.

Section 48. Notes for money borrowed in anticipation of the receipts shall be signed by the state treasurer, approved by the governor, and countersigned by the comptroller.

G. S. 15, § 34. R. L. 6, § 72 1923, 362, § 32.

Section 49. The state treasurer shall issue all bonds or scrip of the commonwealth upon the serial payment plan. The said plan shall provide for the issue of bonds or scrip to be paid serially in such amounts and at such times as he shall determine, with the approval of the governor and council, to be for the best interests of the commonwealth; the bond last payable in any such issue shall become due at a date not later than the time named in the act authorizing such issue.

Section 50. He shall annually certify to the budget commissioner the amount necessary to be included in the state tax to provide for such serial payments of any bonds or scrip of the commonwealth, and the amount shall be included in the state tax to be assessed for the year in which such payments are to be made.

Section 51. On all bonds or scrip issued for the benefit of any of the metropolitan districts, so called, the state treasurer shall assess upon the said metropolitan districts annually amounts necessary for the payment of the serial bonds falling due, and shall collect the same in the same manner as assessments for sinking fund purposes are collected.

Section 52. Any premium received on the sale of bonds or scrip shall be applied to the payment of the principal of the first bonds which mature.

Section 53. Whenever there is to be an issue of bonds or notes of the commonwealth maturing at a time later than one year from their dates, excepting such bonds or notes as are to be issued for the investment of cash in any of the sinking or other established funds of the commonwealth, the state treasurer shall invite proposals for the purchase thereof by advertisement, which shall be published at least ten days before the time for receiving such proposals, in not less than four daily papers published in the commonwealth, at least two of which shall be published in Boston, and in at least one paper published in the city of New York. Such advertisement shall state the time and place for opening the proposals in answer thereto, and shall reserve the right to reject any or all proposals. The proposals shall be opened in public by the state treasurer at the place specified in said advertisement, and in the presence of such of those who have made proposals as may desire to attend. If no proposal is accepted the whole or any part of the loan may be awarded to any person.

Section 54. Every bidder, as a condition precedent to the consideration of his proposal, shall deposit with the state treasurer in cash, or by...
3 certified check drawn to the order of the state treasurer upon some state
4 or national bank or trust company doing business in this commonwealth
5 or in the city of New York, an amount to be fixed by the state treasurer, 6 but not to exceed two and one half per cent of the amount of his proposal.

1 Section 55. The state treasurer may annually expend such sums
2 as the general court shall appropriate for the purpose of providing for 3 and advertising sales of bonds for the direct debt of the commonwealth
4 and for the purpose of preparing and paying for bond books necessary 5 for such sales. But, when bonds of the commonwealth are issued, the 6 payment of which is provided by assessments upon the metropolitan 7 or other districts, the expenses of providing for and advertising sales and 8 for the preparing and paying for bond books shall be paid from the main-
9 tenance appropriation of the district from which the assessment is to be 10 received.

1 Section 56. The state treasurer, with the approval of the governor
2 and council, may transfer funds remaining in his hands from the sale of 3 bonds and other securities issued for specific purposes, when such pur-
4 poses have been fully accomplished and said bonds or other securities
5 so issued paid in full, to such sinking funds or such other accounts for 6 the reduction of outstanding indebtedness of the commonwealth as may 7 be approved by the comptroller.

1 Section 57. The principal and interest of all bonds or scrip of the 2 commonwealth when due shall be paid in gold coin or its equivalent.
3
4 Section 58. The state treasurer may, upon terms and regulations
5 prescribed by the governor and council, issue, in denominations of not 6 less than one thousand dollars, registered bonds in exchange for any 7 coupon bonds of the commonwealth, which, with the exception of the 8 coupons, shall be in conformity with the laws authorizing the issue of 9 such coupon bonds. He shall mutilate and retain the bonds so received 10 in exchange. The comptroller shall certify such registered bonds; and 11 he and the state treasurer shall each keep a register of their dates, num-12 bers and amounts, the names of the persons to whom they were issued, 13 when they are payable, and for what bonds they were issued in exchange.
14 The state treasurer may also, upon the same terms and regulations, issue 15 in substitution for mutilated, defaced or endorsed bonds presented to 16 him other bonds of like or equivalent issues.

1 Section 59. If it appears to the governor and council that any 2 interest-bearing bond of the commonwealth identified by number and 3 description has, without bad faith upon the part of the owner, been lost 4 or destroyed, wholly or in part, they shall, under regulations and with 5 restrictions as to time and retention for security or otherwise prescribed 6 by them, order the state treasurer to issue a registered duplicate of such 7 bond, payable at the same time, bearing the same rate of interest as the 8 bond lost or destroyed, and so marked as to show the number and date 9 of the original bond. If such bond was of a class or series which has been 10 called in for redemption before the application for a reissue, it shall be paid, with such interest only as would have been paid if the bond had been presented in accordance with such call.

SECTION 60. The owner of such bond shall surrender so much thereof as may remain, if any, and shall give to the state treasurer a bond in double the amount of said lost or destroyed bond and of the interest which would accrue until the principal is due and payable, with two sufficient sureties, residents of the commonwealth, approved by the governor and council, conditioned to indemnify and save harmless the commonwealth from any claim on account of said lost or destroyed bond.

SECTION 61. The comptroller or any other person authorized to approve claims for materials, supplies or other articles furnished to, or for service or labor performed for, the commonwealth, may, before approving any such claim, require the claimant to certify on oath that all the articles have been furnished, for which the claim has been made, or that the service or labor has been performed, and that no commission, discount, bonus, present or reward of any kind has been received or promised or is expected on account of the same.

SECTION 62. The governor, with the advice and consent of the council, may from time to time appoint an agent to examine and prosecute any account or claim of the commonwealth against the United States; and if any amount is received into the treasury of the commonwealth by reason of the services rendered by such agent he may be paid in full compensation for services and expenses such sum, not exceeding ten per cent of the amount so received, as may be agreed upon in advance between the governor and council and such agent.

Certain offices, etc., to be placed temporarily under the supervision of some state department. 1919, 350, § 1.
Establishment of certain divisions subject to approval of governor and council, 1919, 350, § 9.

Organization of departments, etc.

Section 3. In all cases where the executive and administrative head of a department is vested with authority to establish therein divisions not specifically provided for by law, the establishment of such divisions shall be subject to the approval of the governor and council.

Section 4. A state department, board or commission shall, upon organizing, report its organization to the state secretary.

Section 5. In all cases where a question arises between executive or administrative departments, or officers or boards thereof, as to their respective jurisdictions or powers, or where such departments, or officers or boards thereof, issue conflicting orders or make conflicting rules and regulations, the governor and council may, on appeal by any such department or by any person affected thereby, determine the question, and order any such order, rule or regulation amended or annulled; provided, that this section shall not deprive any person of the right to pursue any other lawful remedy. The time within which such appeal may be taken shall be fixed by the governor and council.

Section 6. If during the absence or disability of a commissioner or head of an executive or administrative department or of a director or head of a division in a department, his duties are not specially authorized by law to be performed by another person, the commissioner or head of such department may designate another person in his department to perform the duties of such person in case of and during such absence or disability, but a person so designated shall have no authority to make permanent appointments or removals. Every such designation shall be subject to approval by the governor and council, and shall remain in force and effect until revoked by the commissioner or head of such department or by the governor and council.

Section 6A. If any member of a permanent state board or commission who serves as such by virtue of holding any other office or position is unable by reason of absence or disability to perform his duties as such member, he may, by a writing filed in the office of such board or commission, designate an officer or employee in his department who shall, without additional compensation therefor, perform such duties in case of and during such absence or disability, but a person so designated shall have no authority to make any appointments or removals. Any such designation may in like manner be revoked at any time.

Section 7. Each commissioner in charge of a bureau of the commission on administration and finance and the officer in charge of the division of personnel and standardization of said commission, and each officer, board and commission, other than the aforesaid commission, having supervision and control of an executive or administrative department, including the adjutant general and each officer, board and commission, mentioned in section seventeen of chapter six, may, subject to the approval of the governor and council, employ a person to serve in a confidential capacity and may, with like approval, remove him. Such employee shall receive such compensation as shall be fixed by the officer, board or commission employing him and approved by the governor and council.
1 Section 7A. Women shall be eligible to election or appointment to 2 all state offices, positions, appointments and employments. This section
3 shall not prevent heads of departments or officers from making requisition 4 for male officers or employees for various positions which require special 5 qualification of sex nor shall the commissioner of civil service be restricted
6 from recognizing any special qualification of sex stated in requisitions 7 made to him.

1 Section 7B. Upon the change of name of any woman holding an 2 executive, administrative or legislative office in the state government,
3 she shall register her new name with the state secretary.

931, 153.

1 Section 8. A public officer appointed for any term by the governor, 2 with or without the advice and consent of the council, shall hold his 3 office during the term for which he is appointed and until his successor in 4 office has qualified, unless he is sooner removed in accordance with law.
5 Unless otherwise provided, the beginning of the term of office of a public 6 officer appointed by the governor shall be the date of his appointment, 7 or, if he is appointed by the governor with the advice and consent of the 8 council, it shall be the date of his confirmation; but no officer shall enter 9 upon the duties of his office until he is duly qualified as provided by law.

[Note:— For provisions requiring officers to take oath before entering office, see Constitution pt. 2, c. 6, art. 1; Constitution amend. 6. (Constitution Rev. art. 149.)]

1 Section 9. Unless some other mode of removal is provided by law, a 2 public officer, if appointed by the governor, may at any time be removed 3 by him for cause, and, if appointed by him with the advice and consent
4 of the council, may be so removed with its advice and consent.

1 Section 10. Any vacancy in any office, the original appointment to 2 which is required by law to be made by the governor, with or without 3 the advice and consent of the council, and for which no other method of 4 filling vacancies is expressly provided by law, shall be filled for the 5 unexpired term in the manner provided for an original appointment;
6 and the appointment of a successor of any incumbent of any such office
7 who is holding over after the expiration of his term of office shall be 8 made in like manner for the remainder of the term which would have 9 begun at such expiration if his successor had then been appointed.

1 Section 11. A person chosen or appointed to an office may, unless 2 otherwise provided by law, take and subscribe the oaths required to 3 qualify him before the governor, lieutenant governor, two councillors or 4 two commissioners appointed under section three of chapter two hundred 5 and twenty-two.

P. S. 21, § 3.
R. L. 18, § 7.

1 Section 12. A person appointed to an office by the governor with 2 or without the advice and consent of the council shall be notified of his 3 appointment by the state secretary and his commission delivered to him,
4 and if he does not, within three months after the date of such appoint-5 ment, take and subscribe the oaths of office, his appointment shall be 6 void, and the secretary shall forthwith notify him thereof and require
Section 13. Before the delivery of a commission to a person appointed commissioner under section three or four of chapter two hundred and twenty-two, notary public, master in chancery, justice of the peace or pilot, he shall pay to the state secretary a fee of five dollars, except that a person whose acts as a notary public or a justice of the peace have been validated by the general court shall pay a fee of fifteen dollars before the delivery of the first commission for either of said offices to be delivered after such validation. Upon the change of name of any woman, who has been appointed and qualified as a notary public, she shall re-register under her new name and shall pay to the state secretary a fee of one dollar.

Section 14. If a bond is required of any person appointed to office by the governor with or without the advice and consent of the council, the commission shall not issue until the bond has been approved.

Section 15. When state officials or employees are required to give bond in which the amount is not fixed by law, the comptroller shall fix the amount and shall require that such bonds be made uniform so far as possible.

Section 16. State officers and heads of state departments may arrange for such schedule bonds as they deem advisable, which shall take the place of bonds required by law of them or any of their officers and employees. Every such schedule bond shall be a surety company bond with a surety company authorized to do business in the commonwealth as surety, conditioned that the officers and employees named in the bond shall faithfully perform the duties of their offices and employment, with other conditions or provisions required by law.

Section 17. If an official having custody of property of the commonwealth, or charged with the duty of receiving or disbursing money, is required to give bond to the commonwealth for the faithful discharge of his duty, the commonwealth shall reimburse him for the amount paid by him to a surety company for becoming surety on his official bond. Premiums on all surety bonds paid by the commonwealth shall be paid out of the appropriations for expenses of the several officers and departments.

Section 18. Every public official having custody of any bond for the faithful performance of the duties of any office, occupation, agency or trust, requiring the approval of any court, public officer, department or board other than the governor and council, shall, except in those cases where the duty is imposed upon the director of accounts, annually in March examine into the sufficiency of every such bond, and shall, whenever at any other time there is reason to believe that any such bond has become insufficient, examine into its sufficiency. The governor shall appoint a committee of the council which shall annually in March make such examination of bonds required to be approved by the governor or by the governor and council. If a bond is found upon examination to 12 be insufficient, the person who has examined it shall forthwith notify 13 the principal thereof and shall require him, within thirty days after the 14 date of such notice, to file a new bond in conformity with law. All 15 bonds requiring the approval of the state treasurer and all bonds requiring 16 his examination as to their sufficiency shall, when he deems it neces-17 sary, be secured by a surety company approved by the commissioner of 18 insurance.

19 Section 19. If a new bond is not filed, as required by the preceding 20 section, the governor, with the advice and consent of the council, shall 21 remove the principal from such office or trust or terminate his authority 22 to exercise such occupation or agency.

23 Section 20. Bonds of public officers, except officers in Suffolk 24 county, required to be deposited with county treasurers shall, at least 25 once a year, be examined by the director of accounts or his representa-
26 tive. If such bond is insufficient, he shall report to the superior court, 27 which shall require a new bond, satisfactory to it, within such time as 28 it shall order.

29 Section 21. A person shall not at the same time receive more than 30 one salary from the treasury of the commonwealth.

Section 22. Whoever wilfully violates the preceding section or willfully accepts or holds office in violation of article two of chapter six of the second part of the constitution, as amended by article twenty-seven of the amendments thereof, shall forfeit to the commonwealth the compensation from all offices held in violation of said provisions during the time they are so held, to be recovered by the attorney general, upon written complaint made within one year by any citizen.

Section 23. Any person in any executive or administrative department who is appointed to office by the governor, with the advice and consent of the council, and who is paid a salary, may be required by the governor, with like advice and consent, to give his whole time to the 5 duties of his office.

Section 24. The offices of all the departments of the state government shall be open to the public for the transaction of business daily, except on Sundays and legal holidays, from nine o'clock in the forenoon until five o'clock in the afternoon, except on Saturdays, when they may be closed at twelve o'clock, noon. The state treasurer shall not be required to keep his office open for the receipt and payment of money later than two o'clock in the afternoon.

Section 25. State officers, and members of departments receiving a salary or its equivalent, who are provided with offices by the commonwealth and whose duties require regular attendance at such offices, shall not be allowed or paid by the commonwealth any expenses in the nature of traveling or living expenses. Such officers or members of departments whose duties require them to travel elsewhere than to and from the offices provided for them by the commonwealth, and unpaid state officers or members of departments, and those whose duties do not require daily attendance and who receive compensation by the day, shall be allowed their actual reasonable expenses incurred in the performance of such duties, if such expenses are authorized by law to be paid by the commonwealth. Bills for such expenses shall be itemized and the dates when, and the purposes for which, such expenses were incurred shall be stated before their allowance by the comptroller.

Section 26. Such officers and members of departments to whom traveling expenses are allowed by the commonwealth shall, unless otherwise provided, receive the amount actually expended but not more than three and one half cents a mile each way actually traveled.

R. L. 6, § 55.

Section 27. Except as otherwise expressly provided, all fees or other money received on account of the commonwealth shall be paid daily into the treasury thereof, but if in the opinion of the commission on administration and finance and the state treasurer the interests of the commonwealth require, payments may be made weekly in accordance with such rules and regulations as the state treasurer may prescribe.

1918, 237, § 476.
1920, 2.

Section 29. Every treasurer and disbursing officer of a state institution shall maintain an office at his institution where all books, accounts and vouchers of such institution shall be kept. The books shall show all receipts and disbursements on account of the institution.

Section 30. Official letters of departments, institutions or officials of the commonwealth shall be written or printed, so far as practicable, on paper eight and one half inches wide and eleven inches long.

Section 30A. The state secretary, the director of personnel and standardization and the state purchasing agent shall, after consultation with state officers, heads of departments and superintendents of institutions, determine a uniform style of headings for letterheads to be used by all executive and administrative officers and departments and all institutions; but other styles may be authorized in limited quantities for special purposes.

Section 31. The printing, binding and procuring of stationery for the use of the several offices and departments of the commonwealth shall be under the direction of the heads of said offices or departments and shall be approved by them.

Section 32. All annual reports required by law to be made by state officers and departments or heads thereof shall, except as otherwise expressly provided, cover the preceding fiscal year and, except for facts or 4 information specifically required by law, shall be a brief summary of the 5 said year's work, together with recommendations for the succeeding 6 fiscal year. All such reports shall, except as otherwise expressly provided, 7 be deposited with the state secretary and by him transmitted to the 8 general court on or before the third Wednesday in January.

1 Section 33. State officers and departments or heads thereof, except 2 the commission on administration and finance, shall annually, on or 3 before the first Wednesday in December, deposit with the state secretary
4 such parts of their annual reports as contain recommendations or sug-
5 gestions for legislative action, accompanied by drafts of bills embodying
6 the legislation recommended; and the state secretary shall forthwith
7 transmit them to the general court; provided, that such recommendations 8 or suggestions for legislative action shall not include any requests for 9 appropriations or any matters required to be covered by budget esti-10 mates submitted to the budget commissioner under section three or 11 four of chapter twenty-nine. Such drafts of bills shall, seasonably be-12 fore being deposited with the state secretary, be submitted to the coun-
13 sel to the senate or counsel to the house of representatives for advice 14 and assistance as to the form thereof.

1 Section 33A. If, in the opinion of a state officer or department re-2 quired to submit annual reports to the general court, the necessity of 3 enacting special bills in relation to any particular subject of legislation 4 may, without detriment to the public interest, be avoided in whole or in 5 part by the enactment of general legislation, such officer or department 6 shall submit from time to time in such reports recommendations for 7 such changes in or additions to the General Laws as will accomplish 8 said purpose.

1 Section 34. All reports of special commissions recommending legis-
2 lation shall be accompanied by drafts of bills embodying the legislation 3 recommended.

1915, 269. 1919, 131.

1 Section 35. State officers, departments or heads thereof may make
2 such special reports as the division of personnel and standardization
3 deems to be of practical utility. Appeal may be taken from any de-4 cision of said division hereunder to the committee of the executive 5 council appointed to consider matters of finance whose decision shall be 6 final.

1 Section 35A. Reports of state officers, departments or heads thereof, 2 and special commissions, recommending the expenditure of money to 3 an amount in the aggregate exceeding five hundred thousand dollars for 4 a new project or undertaking, any part of the cost of which is recom-
5 mended to be assessed upon the cities and towns of any metropolitan 6 district, shall be accompanied by a statement showing the amount, in 7 dollars and cents, that would be assessed upon each such city and town
8 if such recommendation should be enacted into law. The officer, de-9 partment or special commission making a recommendation as aforesaid 10 shall, upon the filing of its report containing the same, send a copy of 11 said statement to each city and town which would be subject to such 12 assessment.
Section 36. Every motor vehicle purchased by the commonwealth shall be marked on a part of the vehicle not readily removable, and in a conspicuous place, with the words in plain letters "Commonwealth of Massachusetts", or in such other manner as may be approved by the state purchasing agent. He may make rules and regulations governing the marking of such motor vehicles, and any appointed official who fails to comply with an order, rule or regulation made under authority hereof may be removed by the governor, with the advice and consent of the council. Every officer, department, board, commission or institution of the commonwealth operating any such motor vehicle shall keep such a record of the use of such vehicle, and shall make such reports in relation thereto, as may be prescribed by the comptroller. The registrar of motor vehicles shall furnish for each such motor vehicle a distinctive number plate bearing such arrangement of letters or numbers, or both, as will distinguish the particular vehicle, and the officer, department, board, commission or institution by which the vehicle is operated, and at the expense thereof.

Section 37. Every department, commission, board or official vested by law with the power to make and issue rules or regulations general in scope, and to be observed or performed under penalty for the violation thereof, shall file attested copies thereof, together with a citation of the law by authority of which the same purport to have been issued, with the state secretary, and such rules or regulations, whether or not they require the approval of the governor and council, or other authority, before taking effect, shall not take effect until so filed. The foregoing provision shall not apply to rules or regulations issued by commissions, boards or officials of towns, or to municipal ordinances or by-laws, or to rules or regulations affecting solely the internal management or discipline of a department, commission, board or office, nor to orders or decrees made in specific cases within the jurisdiction of a department, commission, board or official. The state secretary shall file and index all rules and regulations filed with him hereunder, noting and keeping available such references to preceding rules and regulations as may be necessary for certification purposes.

Section 38. Every state officer, department or head thereof shall, whenever required by the division of personnel and standardization, furnish it with such information as it prescribes concerning all officials and employees of the commonwealth employed in or by such office or department for whose services money has been paid by the commonwealth.

Section 39. Officers or agents contracting in behalf of the commonwealth for the construction or repair of public buildings or other public works shall obtain sufficient security, by bond or otherwise, for payment by the contractor and sub-contractors for labor performed or furnished and for materials used or employed in such construction or repair; but in order to obtain the benefit of such security, the claimant shall file with such officers or agents a sworn statement of his claim, within sixty days after the claimant ceases to perform labor or furnish labor or materials, and shall, within one year after the filing of such claim, file a petition in the superior court for the proper county to en-11 force his claim or intervene in a petition already filed; and the provisions of chapter two hundred and fifty-eight shall apply to such petitions.

222 Mass. 405.

233 Mass. 420.

1 SECTION 40. Bonds or other security given to the commonwealth to secure the performance of contracts for the construction or repair of public buildings or other public works, or given in accordance with the preceding section, may be discharged or released by the governor, with the advice and consent of the council, upon such terms as they deem expedient, after the expiration of sixty-five days from the time of the completion of the work contracted to be done; provided, that no claim filed under said section is pending; and new bonds or other security in substitution therefor may be taken by the governor, with like advice and consent.

1 SECTION 41. If sales of property of the commonwealth are made by any officer of a state institution, the superintendent thereof shall submit to the trustees or other supervising board or officer an itemized account, on oath, of such sales, for their approval in the same manner as accounts for materials and supplies for such institutions are approved, and such account shall be filed with the state treasurer when the proceeds are paid over to him.

1 SECTION 42. The state purchasing agent, the state librarian and an assistant attorney general designated by the attorney general, acting as a board, in consultation with the chairman of any board or commission and the head of any department or institution which may be interested, may, in their discretion, sell any duplicate volumes or documents, the property of the commonwealth, which are held in the state library or any other department, and they shall sell or destroy, from time to time, obsolete or worthless records, books and documents. At least thirty days before selling or destroying any such records, books or documents, the board shall publish in a daily newspaper in Boston a notice of its intention so to do, containing a brief description or summary of the articles to be sold or destroyed, and it shall give such other and further notice as it deems advisable to historical societies or persons interested in the matter. It may, and upon petition of twenty-five or more citizens of the commonwealth, shall, before selling or destroying any particular records, books or documents, give a public hearing to all persons interested, and ten days’ notice of such hearing shall be given in a daily newspaper published in Boston. Any money received from sales under this section shall be paid to the commonwealth.

1 SECTION 43. No person employed in any state department shall receive for his own use any fee for copying public records or documents, or for other services during office hours, but all fees therefor shall be paid to the commonwealth. Whoever violates this section shall be punished by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars and shall be disqualified for employment in any state department.

1 SECTION 44. No officer or employee of the commonwealth shall act as agent or attorney of any person in a sale or conveyance of land to the agett in sale of land to commonwealth. Whoever violates any provision of this section shall be punished by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars and shall be disqualified for employment in any state department.

Sale, conveyance, etc., of land owned by commonwealth necessary for laying out, etc., highways. 1927, 135.

SECTION 44A. A commissioner or head of a state department having control of any land of the commonwealth may, in the name of the commonwealth and subject to the approval of the governor and council, sell and convey to any county, city or town, or transfer to the control of another state department, so much of such land as may be necessary for the laying out or relocation of any highway.

CLASSIFICATION OF CERTAIN STATE OFFICES AND POSITIONS.

SECTION 45. All appointive offices and positions in the government of the commonwealth, except those in the judicial branch and those in the legislative branch other than the additional clerical and other assistants in the sergeant-at-arms' office, but including registers and assistant registers of probate and their assistants, shall be classified by the division of personnel and standardization, subject to the approval of the governor and council, in services, groups and grades according to the duties pertaining to each office or position. Such classification shall be established by specifications defining for each grade the titles, duties and responsibilities, and minimum qualifications for entrance and promotion. The titles so designated shall be the official title of offices or positions included therein, and shall be set forth on all pay rolls. The following words as used in this and the four following sections and in said classification shall have the following meanings:

"Group" includes offices and positions in a separate profession, vocation, occupation or trade involving a distinctive line of work which requires special education, training or experience;

"Grade", a subdivision of a group, including all positions with substantially identical authority, duties and responsibility as distinct from all other grades in that group;

"Advancement", an increase from one salary rate to another within a grade;

"Promotion", a change from the duties of one grade to the duties of a higher grade, which shall involve a change in salary to the rates of the higher grade.

SECTION 46. Said division may make rules and regulations, subject to the approval of the governor and council, providing for the application and administration of the classification and the specifications established under the preceding section; and the salaries of all officers and employees holding offices and positions required to be classified under said section, except those whose salaries are now or shall be otherwise regulated by law and those whose salaries are required by law to be fixed subject to the approval of the governor and council, shall be fixed in accordance with such classification and specifications. The word "salary" or "salaries", as used in sections forty-five to fifty, inclusive, shall include compensation, however payable.

SECTION 47. Recommendations for increases in the salaries of officers and employees whose salaries are required by the preceding section to be fixed in accordance with such classification and specifications, shall be submitted in the first instance to the said division, and if approved by it shall take effect upon notice by the said division to the commissioner of civil service and the comptroller. If the said division does not approve a proposed increase in salary, it shall report the recommendation of the department or institution with its own recommendation to the governor and council whose decision shall be final, except that the governor and council shall not grant an increase in salary greater than that recommended by the department or institution. Increases in salaries granted under this section shall conform to such standard rates as may be established by rule or regulation in accordance with the preceding section. No increase in salary shall be granted under this section unless an appropriation sufficient to cover such increase has been granted by the general court in accordance with estimates for the budget filed as required by law. No increase in a salary exceeding or to exceed one thousand dollars, authorized under this section between December first and May thirty-first, both inclusive, in any year shall take effect until June first following or such later date as may be fixed by the department or institution recommending such increase, with the approval of the said division or the governor and council.

1 Section 48. Incumbents of offices or positions classified under sections forty-five to fifty, inclusive, shall perform, so far as practicable, the duties prescribed for the respective grades, but said sections shall not limit or restrict administrative authorities in exercising supervision of, or control over, their employees, or in assigning related, incidental or emergency duties to them.

1 Section 49. Any employee of the commonwealth objecting to any provision of the classification affecting his office or position may appeal in writing to the said division and shall be entitled to a hearing upon such appeal. The said division shall report thereon with such recommendations as it may deem expedient to the governor and council.

1 Section 50. For the purposes of the classification authorized by section forty-five the words laborers, workmen and mechanics shall have the same meaning as in sections thirty to thirty-six, inclusive, of chapter one hundred and forty-nine; and sections forty-five to forty-nine, inclusive, of this chapter shall not be construed as placing state employees outside the civil service laws, rules and regulations, nor shall the classification aforesaid take precedence over any rulings of the division of inspections of the department of public safety, of the board of boiler rules of said department, or of the state examiners of electricians, regarding the construction, care and operation of boilers, engines and other apparatus which may be under the charge of such laborers, workmen and mechanics.

CENITALIZED STATE PURCHASING.

1 Section 51. All materials, supplies and other property, except legislative or military supplies, needed by the various executive and administrative departments and other activities of the commonwealth shall be purchased by or under the direction of the purchasing bureau in the manner set forth in the following section, and sections twenty-two to twenty-six, inclusive, of chapter seven. Said bureau shall be furnished with such general supply appropriations, in addition to its departmental supply accounts, as may be necessary in order to place blanket contracts or advance orders and thereby take advantage of favorable market conditions.

Section 52. No supplies, equipment or other property, other than for legislative or military purposes, shall be purchased or contracted for by any state department, office or commission unless approved by the state purchasing agent as being in conformity with the rules, regulations and orders made under section twenty-two of chapter seven. Such approval may be of specific or blanket form at the discretion of the state purchasing agent.

Section 3. The board shall, subject to the approval of the governor and council, from time to time make rules and regulations which shall regulate the selection of persons to fill apointive positions in the government of the commonwealth, the several cities thereof, and any such towns as have been placed under its jurisdiction by any act of the general court or by accepting provisions of this chapter or corresponding provisions of earlier laws, and, except as otherwise provided in section forty-seven, the selection of persons to be employed as laborers or otherwise in the service of the commonwealth and said cities and towns. Such rules shall be of general or limited application, shall be consistent with law and shall include provisions for the following:

(a) The classification of the positions and employments to be filled;

(b) Open competitive and other examinations to test the practical fitness of applicants;

(c) The selection of persons for public positions and employments in accordance with the results of such examinations, or in the order of application, or otherwise;

(d) Promotions, if practicable, on the basis of ascertained merit in the examination and seniority of service;

(e) A period of probation before an appointment or employment is made permanent;

(f) Preference to veterans in appointment and promotion, not inconsistent with this chapter.

The present rules of the board so far as they are consistent with law shall continue in force until changed.
26 No new rule or regulation and no change in any rule or regulation shall 27 be submitted for approval by the governor and council hereunder until 28 after a hearing relative thereto has been held by the board. Not later
29 than seven days before such hearing, the board shall send notice thereof 30 to each member of the general court and to the mayor of each city and 31 the selectmen of each town to which such rule, regulation or change re-32 lates and shall also publish the same in one or more newspapers.

1 Section 4. The following, among others, shall be included within 2 the classified civil service by rules of the board:

3 All persons having charge of steam boilers, heating, lighting or power
4 plants maintained by the commonwealth;

5 All sealers and deputy sealers of weights and measures in towns of 6 over ten thousand inhabitants and in cities, whether such officers are 7 heads of principal departments or not, and also the inspectors of stand-8 ards in the service of the commonwealth;

9 Members of police and fire departments of cities and of such towns 10 as accept the provisions of this chapter, or have accepted corresponding 11 provisions of earlier laws, and members of the police or fire department 12 of any town which, as to such department, accepts section forty-eight or 13 has accepted corresponding provisions of earlier laws; except that no 14 rule regulating the height and weight of persons eligible to become mem-
15 bers of the fire department shall be made or enforced except by the city
16 council or selectmen; and except further that no rule shall prescribe a 17 maximum age limit for applicants for positions in police or fire depart-18 ments lower than thirty-five years;

19 Inspectors of plumbing in receipt of an annual salary;

20 Instructors in the state prison and the Massachusetts reformatory, 21 and all other employees in said institutions having prisoners under their 22 charge;

23 Janitors of school buildings in cities, and in such towns of over twelve 24 thousand inhabitants as accept this paragraph;

25 Supervisors of attendance in cities, and in such towns of over twelve 26 thousand inhabitants as accept this paragraph.

1 Section 5. No rule made by the board shall apply to the selection
2 or appointment of any of the following:

3 Judicial officers; officers elected by the people or, except as otherwise 4 expressly provided in this chapter, by a city council; officers whose 5 appointment is subject to confirmation by the executive council, or by 6 the city council of any city; officers whose appointment is subject to 7 the approval of the governor and council; officers elected by either 8 branch of the general court and the appointees of such officers; heads of 9 principal departments of the commonwealth or of a city except as other-10 wise provided by the preceding section; directors of divisions author-
CIVIL SERVICE.

Section 6. No rule shall be made which shall prevent, except for moral unfitness and after investigation, the certification for the same office, on at least three separate occasions, of any person whose name is on any eligible list.

Section 7. Changes in the rules, when approved, shall be printed forthwith for distribution, and a certified copy thereof sent to the mayor of each city and the selectmen of each town to which such changes relate, and shall be published in one or more newspapers. Such publication shall specify the date when such changes shall take effect, which shall be not less than sixty days subsequent to the date of publication.

Examinations.

Section 8. The commissioner shall prepare notices of civil service examinations and send them to the clerks of the several cities and towns, who shall cause the same to be posted in the city and town halls and in other conspicuous places. Of such notices there shall be posted not less than five in every town, and not less than twenty-five in every city, including one in each ward.

Section 9. Any city or town clerk who refuses or wilfully neglects to post the notices required by the preceding section and any person who maliciously tears down, destroys, defaces or injures any such notice prior to the date of any examination of which notice is given therein, shall be punished by a fine of not more than twenty-five dollars.

Section 10. No question in any examination shall relate to political or religious opinions or affiliations, and no appointment to a position or selection for employment shall be affected by them. Examinations shall be conducted under the direction of the commissioner. They shall be practical and shall relate to matters which will fairly test the capacity and fitness of the applicants; and all answers of applicants to questions in examinations relating to training and experience, outside of the labor service, shall be on oath, if the board so requires. The board shall determine the scope and weight of examinations.

Section 11. No person in the public service shall wilfully and corruptly defeat, deceive or obstruct any person as to his right of examination; or wilfully or corruptly make a false mark, grade, estimate or report on the examination or proper standing of any person examined under this chapter, or wilfully or corruptly make any false representation concerning the same or concerning the person examined; or wilfully or corruptly furnish to any one special or secret information, for the 8 purpose of improving or injuring the prospects or chances of appointment, employment or promotion of any person so examined or to be 10 examined.

1 Section 12. The lists of persons eligible to any position shall be 2 prepared or revised as soon as may be after their respective ratings or 3 standings have been determined by the commissioner by examination or 4 otherwise in accordance with the rules of the board. The commissioner 5 shall not place on any such list any person not a citizen of the United 6 States. All persons who have taken an examination shall be notified of 7 the results thereof within sixty days from the completion of such exam-
8 ination. All lists established, as aforesaid, shall be open to public 9 inspection.

1 Section 13. Every application shall state under oath the full name,
2 residence and post office address, citizenship, age, place of birth, health
3 and physical capacity, right of preference as a veteran, previous employ-4 ment in the public service, occupation and residence for the previous 5 five years and education of the applicant, and such other information
6 as may be reasonably required relative to his fitness for the public 7 service; but no question shall be asked in such application or in any 8 examination requiring a statement as to any offence committed before 9 the applicant reached the age of sixteen.

1 Section 13A. A police officer or fireman holding an office classified
2 under the civil service rules who has completed five years of service in 3 the department of which he is a member, and who is an applicant for 4 promotion and has filed with the commission a certificate of a registered
5 physician approved by the commission, stating that he has examined 6 the police officer or fireman, and that in his opinion the police officer or 7 fireman is afflicted with no disability which will interfere with his per-8 formance of the duties of the position for which he is an applicant,
9 shall not be required to pass any further physical examination for pro-10 motion in such department.

1 Section 14. Applicants for positions in the classified labor service
2 of the commonwealth, and of the cities and towns having such a service,
3 shall be allowed to register on the first Mondays of February, May,
4 August and November in each year, at places appointed therefor by the 5 board. The number registered shall not be limited below five hundred 6 in the commonwealth or in any city.

APPOINTMENTS.

1 Section 15. No person shall be appointed to any position in the 2 classified civil service except upon certification by the commissioner
3 from an eligible list in accordance with the rules of the board; but if 4 there is no suitable eligible list, or if the commissioner is unable to 5 comply with a requisition in accordance with the rules of the board, the 6 commissioner, subject to section twenty-five, may authorize a provi-
7 sional appointment or may authorize the appointing officer or board to 8 select a suitable person who shall be subjected to a non-competitive 9 examination, such provisional or non-competitive appointment to be 10 subject to the rules of the board. Within five days after the certification of persons for appointment or employment the commissioner shall make a record of the persons so certified. If the appointing officer rejects all the persons certified he shall so notify the commissioner.

Section 16. No recommendation of an applicant for an office or position under this chapter given by any member of the general court, alderman or councilman, except as to the character or residence of the applicant, shall be received or considered by any person concerned in making the appointment.

Section 17. No person habitually using intoxicating liquors to excess shall be appointed, employed or retained in any position to which this chapter applies, nor shall any person be appointed or employed in any such position within one year after his conviction of any crime against the laws of the commonwealth; provided, that the commissioner may in his discretion authorize the appointment or employment, within said year, of a person convicted of any of the following offences:—(1) a violation of any rule or regulation made under section thirty-one of chapter ninety; (2) a violation of any provision of said chapter ninety relating to motor vehicles, except those of sections twenty-three to twenty-five, inclusive; (3) any other offence for which the sole punishment imposed was (a) a fine of less than one hundred dollars, (b) a sentence to imprisonment in a jail or house of correction for less than six months, with such a fine or without any fine, or (c) a sentence to any other penal institution under which the actual time served was less than six months, with such a fine or without any fine.

Section 18. The officer appointing, employing, promoting or discharging any person within the classified civil service shall forthwith report to the commissioner the name and residence of the person, the designation of the position, and the fact of the appointment, employment, promotion or discharge.

Section 19. Except as otherwise provided by law, in all positions, employments and work in any branch of the service of the commonwealth, or of any county, city, town or district therein, citizens of the commonwealth shall be given preference.

Section 20. Appointments and promotions in the police forces of cities and towns, except Boston, whose police forces are within the classified civil service, shall be made only by competitive civil service examination, except as otherwise provided in this chapter, or in the rules of the board relative to temporary or emergency appointments. No such examination shall be held until there are at least three applicants for appointment or promotion for one existing vacancy, except as to applicants for appointment to the lowest grade. In making appointments or promotions to all grades of service other than the lowest, the examination and appointment shall be limited to persons of the next lower rank; but if the number of applicants for examination in such lower rank is not sufficient to hold an examination, the next lower ranks shall in succession be thrown open to the examination until at least the necessary number have applied.
Section 20A. In each city and town subject to section twenty in which there has been established a reserve police force, appointments to the regular force shall be made by the appointing authority upon certification by the commissioner from the list of members of the reserve police force in accordance with the rules of the board, except that the basis of certification shall be the order of appointment to the reserve force.

Veterans' Preference.

Section 21. The word "veteran" as used in this chapter shall mean any person who has served in the army, navy or marine corps of the United States in time of war or insurrection and has been honorably discharged from such service or released from active duty therein, or who distinguished himself by gallant or heroic conduct while serving in the army or navy of the United States and has received a medal of honor from the president of the United States, provided that such person was a citizen of the commonwealth at the time of his induction into such service or has resided in the commonwealth for five consecutive years next prior to the date of filing application with the commissioner under this chapter; and provided further that any such person who at the time of entering said service had declared his intention to become a subject or citizen of the United States and withdrew such intention under the provisions of the act of congress approved July ninth, nineteen hundred and eighteen, and any person designated as a conscientious objector upon his discharge, shall not be deemed a "veteran" within the meaning of this chapter.

Section 22. A veteran of the civil war, or a person who has received a medal of honor as provided in the preceding section, may apply to the commissioner for appointment or employment in the classified civil service without examination. In such application, he shall state on oath the facts required by the rules. Age, loss of limb or other disability which does not in fact incapacitate shall not disqualify him for appointment or employment under this section. Appointing officers may make requisition for the names of any or all such veterans and appoint or employ any of them.

Section 23. The names of veterans who pass examinations for appointment to any position classified under the civil service shall be placed upon the eligible lists in the order of their respective standing above the names of all other applicants, except that any such veterans who are disabled and who present a certificate of any physician, approved by the board, that their disability is not such as to prevent the efficient performance of the duties of the position to which they are eligible and who shall present proof satisfactory to the commissioner that such disability was received in line of duty in the military or naval service of the United States in time of war or insurrection and is a continuing disability shall be placed ahead of all other veterans on such eligible lists in the order of their respective standing. In addition to the aforesaid certificate, in order to be entitled to the preference provided for disabled veterans by this section, a veteran shall present an honorable discharge or an equivalent release from active duty in the military or naval service of the United States and shall present proof that he is at the time of application for appointment disabled and also proof, by means of
of the records of the adjutant-general of the army of the United States or of the navy department or marine corps or by means of a certificate of the receipt at that time of a pension or compensation from the United States, that such disability was incurred in the line of duty in such service in time of war or insurrection, or in absence of proof as aforesaid shall present a certificate from a physician, approved by the board, that he is substantially handicapped for industrial life through injury or illness and shall present proof, satisfactory to the commissioner that such handicap was received in line of duty in the military or naval service of the United States in time of war or insurrection and is a continuing disability. Upon receipt of a requisition not especially calling for women, names shall be certified from such lists according to the method of certification prescribed by the civil service rules applying to civilians. A disabled veteran shall be appointed and employed in preference to all other persons, including veterans.

SECTION 24. A veteran who registers for employment in the labor service of the commonwealth and of the cities and towns thereof, if found qualified, shall be placed on the eligible list for the class for which he registers ahead of all other applicants. The names of eligible veterans shall be certified for labor service in preference to other persons eligible according to the method of certification prescribed by the civil service rules applying to civilians. If, however, the appointing officer certifies in the requisition for laborers that the work to be performed requires young and vigorous men, and, on investigation, the commissioner is satisfied that such certificate is true, he may fix a limit of age and certify only those whose age falls within such limit.

SECTION 25. If there is no suitable eligible list from which to certify to fill a requisition, the commissioner shall authorize the appointing officer to make provisional appointment of a veteran, and shall send to the appointing officer the names and addresses of veterans who have filed applications for the kind of work for which requisition is made, and the position shall be filled provisionally by the appointment of a veteran. If, however, the appointing officer cannot find a veteran qualified for the position who will accept, he may with the approval of the commissioner, appoint provisionally some other person. This section shall not apply to requisitions calling for women.

SECTION 27. Any person who resigns from or leaves the classified public service of the commonwealth or of any city or town therein or who is discharged, suspended or granted a leave of absence therefrom, for the purpose of serving in the military or naval service of the United States in time of war, and who so serves, shall, if he so requests of the appointing authority within two years after his honorable discharge from such military or naval service, or release from active duty therein, and if also, within said time, he files with the division the certificate of a registered physician that he is not physically disabled or incapacitated for the position, be reappointed or re-employed, without civil service application or examination, in his former position, provided that the incumbent thereof, if any, is a temporary appointee; or, if his former position was 13 position has been filed by a permanent appointment, he shall be em-
14 ployed in a similar position in the same department, if a vacancy exists 15 therein. All appointments made to fill vacancies caused by the mili-16 tary service of the former incumbent shall be temporary only.

1 Section 28. A person whose name is on any eligible list or register
2 of the division at the time of his entering the military or naval service of 3 the United States in time of war shall be suspended from such eligible
4 list or register; but upon his request, made at any time within two years
5 after his honorable discharge from such service, or release from active 6 duty therein, his name shall be restored thereto for the remainder of 7 his period of eligibility, provided that he files with the division the 8 certificate of a registered physician that he is not physically disabled or 9 incapacitated for the position.

GENERAL POWERS.

1 Section 29. Records of the proceedings of the board and of the 2 commissioner, all recommendations of applicants and all applications
3 and examination papers, shall be kept on file. Said records and files
4 shall be open to public inspection under rules approved by the governor
5 and council. No applications, recommendations or examination papers 6 need be preserved for a longer period than three years.

1 Section 30. The commissioner shall recommend to the general
2 court appropriate legislation for the administration and improvement
3 of the civil service, and shall make an annual report containing any rules 4 adopted under this chapter.

1 Section 31. The officer or board having power in any city to appoint
2 or employ persons in any department thereof to which this chapter
3 and the rules thereunder apply shall, within seven days after the receipt
4 of a written request therefor made by the commissioner, make and file 5 with the commissioner and with the auditor or officers whose duty it is 6 to audit the accounts of such appointing or employing officer or board, 7 a report containing the names of all persons who have been appointed 8 or employed by such appointing or employing officer or board or who 9 have received pay or rendered bills for services or labor rendered or 10 performed during the calendar month next preceding the date of the 11 filing of such request. Said reports shall be made on oath and shall 12 contain the following information: First, name of person appointed or 13 employed, or rendering bill for services or labor; second, nature and 14 brief description of the services or labor which such person has actually 15 rendered or performed during said month; third, title of the office or 16 employment of such person as stated in the pay rolls of the department;
17 fourth, the regular salary or wages of the appointee or employee; fifth,
18 all other payments of any kind made to the appointee or employee
19 during said month; provided, that such appointing or employing officer 20 or board shall not be required to file in any month more than one such 21 report with the commissioner and one with the auditor or auditing 22 officers. The reports in the office of the auditor or auditing officers shall 23 be open to public inspection.
24 The supreme judicial court by mandamus or other appropriate rem-25 edy in law or in equity, upon suit or petition of the commissioner, may compel any such appointing or employing officer or board in any city 26 to comply with this section.

Every appointing or employing officer, or in the case of a board every 28 member thereof, who willfully refuses to comply with this section shall 29 be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five nor more than one 30 hundred dollars.

SECTION 32. In any investigation or inquiry the commissioner, or 1 an associate commissioner, may summon witnesses, administer oaths, 2 and take testimony. Fees for such witnesses shall be the same as for 3 witnesses before the superior court and shall be paid from the appropri- 4 ation for incidental expenses.

INVESTIGATIONS.

SECTION 33. On request of any appointing power in respect to 1 officers or employees by it appointed, the commissioner shall, and the 2 commissioner may at any time without such request, inquire into the 3 efficiency and conduct of any officers or employees in the classified civil 4 service, and may recommend to the appointing power the removal of any 5 such officers or employees, or make other appropriate recommendations.

SECTION 34. The commissioner may investigate in whole or in part 1 the classified civil service, and the work, duties and compensation of 2
the officers and employees therein, and the number employed, and the 3 grades, titles, ratings and methods of promotion established, and may 4 report thereon to the governor, or to the general court.

SECTION 35. The two preceding sections shall not apply to police- 1 men or firemen.

MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

SECTION 36. If an appointing officer, before a list of eligible ap- 1 pointees is established, appoints under provisional authority from the 2 commissioner a person not a citizen of the United States, he shall dis- 3 charge such person, and appoint another from the list when it is estab- 4 lished.

SECTION 37. On complaint by any citizen of the commonwealth of the 1 employment of a non-citizen when there is a list of eligibles existing, the 2 commissioner shall take steps to enforce the dismissal of such non-citizen 3 and the appointment in his place of a person from the eligible list.

SECTION 38. If, in the opinion of the commissioner, a person is ap- 1 pointed or employed in the classified public service in violation of any 2 provision of this chapter or any rule of the board, the commissioner shall, 3 after written notice mailed to the appointing or employing officers, and 4 to such person, notify in writing the treasurer, auditor or other officer 5 whose duty it is to pay the salary or compensation of such person, or to 6 authorize the drawing, signing or issuing of the warrant therefor; and 7 the payment of any salary or compensation to such person shall cease 8 at the expiration of one week after the mailing of the notice to such treas- 9
urer, auditor or other officer, and no such officer shall pay any salary 10 11 or compensation to such person, or draw, sign or issue, or authorize the 12 drawing, signing or issuing of any warrant therefor, until the legality 13 of such appointment or employment is duly established.

1 SECTION 30. Any person found by the commissioner to be illegally
2 appointed or employed may file a petition for a writ of mandamus in the 3 supreme judicial or superior court to compel the commissioner to author-
4 ize such appointment or employment, and the payment of compensation
5 or salary therefor. At any time after the petition is filed the court, if of 6 opinion that there is reasonable doubt whether the appointment or em-
7 ployment of such person is in violation of the civil service law or rules,
8 may order that the compensation accruing to such person for services
9 actually rendered shall be paid to him until otherwise ordered by said 10 court.

1 SECTION 40. If an appointing officer or board in applying for the cer-
2 tification of persons eligible for appointment as foreman or inspector 3 expresses a preference for persons having had experience in his depart-4 ment, the commissioner shall so far as practicable include among those 5 certified the name of at least one person for each vacancy who is serving 6 as a laborer or mechanic in such department.

1 SECTION 41. Persons employed by the commonwealth, or by any 2 county, city or town, as inspectors of masonry construction, shall have 3 had at least three years' practical experience in masonry construction,
4 but shall not be required to have technical knowledge as engineers, archi-
5 tects or draftsmen, unless they have other duties for which such knowledge 6 is necessary. This section shall apply only to persons whose principal 7 duty is the inspection of masonry construction, consisting of stone, brick 8 or substitutes therefor.

1 SECTION 42. Appointments of treasurers and stewards in the insti-
2 tutional service of the commonwealth shall not be made from a civil 3 service list established by examination. Whenever a vacancy occurs 4 in the office of treasurer or steward at any institution of the common-5 wealth, the appointing authority shall certify to the commissioner the 6 name of a person believed to be competent by reason of training and 7 experience to fill the vacancy, and shall give the commissioner such 8 information concerning the proposed appointee as he may require. The 9 commissioner shall immediately make a careful inquiry into the qual-
10 ifications of the proposed appointee under such rules as the board may, 11 with the approval of the governor and council, establish; and if he is 12 satisfied that the appointee is a competent person, with the requisite 13 qualifications, he shall notify the appointing authority that the appoint-14 ment is approved, and upon receipt of such notice the appointment shall 15 take effect, subject to the provisions of law relating to the filing of bonds 16 by the treasurers of institutions. If the commissioner does not, within 17 thirty days after the appointee is certified to him, notify the appointing 18 authority of his approval, the appointment shall be void.

1 SECTION 42A. Every police officer holding an office classified under 2 the civil service rules, in any city except Boston or in any town, whether 3 for a definite or stated term or otherwise, shall hold such office con-4 tinuously during good behavior and shall not be removed nor, except as transferred from such office, nor shall he be lowered in rank or compensation, nor shall his office be abolished, except after a full hearing of which he shall have at least seventy-two hours' written notice, with a statement of the reasons for the contemplated removal, suspension, transfer, lowering in rank or compensation, or abolition of office, and except upon a written order stating fully and specifically the causes therefor made after a hearing as aforesaid and signed by the board or office before whom the hearing is held. Such a police officer may, however, be temporarily suspended without such notice when necessary as a matter of police discipline, but only for just cause and for reasons specifically given him in writing within twenty-four hours after such suspension. If within three days thereafter the police officer so suspended shall so request in writing he shall be given a public hearing in not less than three nor more than fourteen days after the filing of the request. Any hearing under this section shall, if the police officer so requests in writing, be public and shall be held before the officer or board having power of appointment and removal. Any such hearing may be continued from time to time, if said board or officer and the police officer concerned agree thereto. At any such hearing charges shall be made by the officer in command of the department or of the district where the police officer is on duty or by any person designated by the official in command of the department, and the police officer concerned shall be allowed to answer the charges preferred against him, either personally or by counsel. Said police officer shall be notified in writing, within three days after the hearing, of the decision at such hearing.

A copy of the reasons, notice and answers and of the order of removal, suspension, transfer, lowering in rank or compensation, or abolition of office shall be made a matter of public record.

Section 42B. Within thirty days after a hearing provided for by the preceding section, the police officer who was removed, suspended, transferred, or lowered in rank or compensation, or whose office was abolished, may bring a petition in the district court of the judicial disctrict where such police officer resides, addressed to the justice of the court, praying that the action of the officer or board in removing, suspending or transferring him, or lowering him in rank or compensation, or abolishing his office, may be reviewed by the court, and after such notice to such officer or board as the court deems necessary, it shall review such action, hear any or all of the witnesses and determine whether or not upon all the evidence such action was justified. If the court finds that such action was justified, the decision at the hearing shall be affirmed; otherwise it shall be reversed and the petitioner shall be reinstated in his office without loss of compensation. The decision of the court shall be final and conclusive upon the parties.

Section 43. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter, every person holding office or employment in the classified public service of the commonwealth, or of any county, city or town thereof, shall hold such office or employment and shall not be removed therefrom, lowered in rank or compensation or suspended, or without his consent transferred from such office or employment to any other, except for just cause, and for reasons specifically given him in writing within twenty-four hours.
8 after such removal, suspension, transfer or lowering in rank or compensa-9 tion.
10 If within three days thereafter, the person sought to be removed, sus-11 pended, lowered or transferred shall so request in writing, he shall be 12 given a public hearing in not less than three nor more than fourteen 13 days after the filing of the request, by the officer or board whose action
14 affected him as aforesaid, and he shall be allowed to answer the charges 15 preferred against him, either personally or by counsel, and shall be 16 notified, in writing within three days after the hearing, of the decision 17 of such officer or board. In default of such hearing, said person shall 18 forthwith be reinstated. A copy of said reasons, notice, answer and 19 decision shall be made a matter of public record in the department.

1 [Repealed, 1923, 242, § 2.]

1 Section 44. Within thirty days after the hearing provided for in 2 section forty-three or after action under section forty-six, the person
3 so removed, transferred or lowered in rank or compensation, or sus-4 pended, or whose office or position is abolished, except members of the 5 police department of Boston, the police of the metropolitan district
6 commission and the state police, may bring a petition in the district 7 court of the judicial district where such person resides, addressed to the 8 justice of the court, praying that the action of the officer or board may be 9 reviewed by the court, and after such notice to such officer or board as 10 the court deems necessary, it shall review such action, hear the witnesses, 11 and shall affirm the decision of the officer or board unless it shall appear
12 that it was made without proper cause or in bad faith, in which case said
13 decision shall be reversed and the petitioner be reinstated in his office
14 without loss of compensation. The decision of the court shall be final 15 and conclusive upon the parties.

1 Section 46. An officer or employee of the state prison, of the re-
2 formatory for women, of the prison camp and hospital, or of the Massa-
3 chusetts reformatory, sought to be removed, suspended, lowered in rank
4 or compensation, or transferred, shall be notified of the proposed action
5 and shall be furnished a copy of the reasons therefor as required by sec-
6 tion forty-three, and shall, if he so requests in writing, be given a hearing 7 before the commissioner of correction, and be allowed to answer any 8 charges preferred against him, either personally or by counsel. Said 9 commissioner, after hearing the officer preferring the charges, and the 10 officer or employee in question, together with such witnesses as either 11 of the parties may produce, shall determine whether or not the reasons 12 for such proposed removal, suspension, lowering in rank or compensation, 13 or transfer, are just and sufficient, and shall certify his finding to the 14 head of the institution in which such officer or employee is employed, 15 who shall, if the reasons given have been sustained by the finding, forth-16 with remove from office or employment, suspend, lower in rank or com-17 pensation, or transfer the officer or employee in question, subject to the 18 right of judicial review provided by the preceding section. If said
19 commissioner finds that such reasons are not just and sufficient, the head of the institution in which the officer or employee is employed shall continue him in service or, if he has temporarily been suspended, shall forthwith restore him to duty or to his original rank or compensation, as the case may be. A copy of the reasons, notice, answer, finding, and order of removal, suspension, lowering in rank or compensation, or transfer, shall, in each case, be filed in the office of the division and made a matter of public record.

Section 46A. The supreme judicial court shall have jurisdiction of any petition for a writ of mandamus for the reinstatement of any person alleged to have been illegally removed from his office or employment under this chapter; provided, that such petition shall be filed in said court within six months next following such allegedly illegal removal, unless said court for cause shown extends the time.

Section 46B. Upon receipt of notice from an appointing officer or of other information that a person in the classified civil service has become separated therefrom through no fault or delinquency of his own, the commissioner shall forthwith give notice of the fact of such separation to such person by registered mail and shall set forth in said notice the manner, means and methods whereby such person may be reinstated in such service or his civil service status and rights preserved.

Application of Law to Cities and Towns.

Section 47. This chapter shall continue in force in all the cities of the commonwealth and in all towns of more than twelve thousand inhabitants which have accepted corresponding provisions of earlier laws, and shall be in force in all such towns which hereafter accept it by vote at a town meeting. The provisions of this chapter and the rules established under it relative to employment of laborers designated as the “labor service” shall not be in force in any city of less than one hundred thousand inhabitants, which has not heretofore accepted the corresponding provisions of earlier laws, until said provisions are accepted by the city council.

Section 48. A town which has not accepted this chapter or the corresponding provisions of earlier laws may accept this section as to its regular or permanent police and fire forces, or as to either of them. Acceptance as to the fire force shall include regular members, and may include call members, and a town which has accepted this section or the corresponding provisions of earlier laws as to regular firemen may afterward accept it as to call firemen. In a town which accepts this section by vote of the town at a town meeting, or has accepted corresponding provisions of earlier laws, as to any or all of said forces, the members of the forces to which the acceptance relates shall be subject to this chapter and the rules made hereunder, and shall hold office until their death, resignation or removal; but members in office at the time of such acceptance shall continue in office without examination or reappointment.

Section 49. This chapter and the rules made hereunder shall apply to superintendents, chiefs of police and chief marshals in cities which have accepted chapter four hundred and sixty-eight of the acts of nineteen hundred and eleven in the manner therein provided, and in towns...
5 which have a police force subject to this chapter, and which have ac-
6 cepted said chapter four hundred and sixty-eight, or accept this section, 7 by vote at an annual town meeting.

1 Section 50. Nothing in this chapter shall repeal, amend or affect 2 any special provision of law relative to any city or town, or extend to 3 any city or town any provision of law to which it is not now subject.

GENERAL PENALTY.

1 Section 51. Whoever makes an appointment or employs any person
2 in violation of any provision of this chapter, or the rules made there-
3 under, or whoever refuses or neglects to comply with any of such pro-
4 visions or rules, shall be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred 5 nor more than one thousand dollars, unless some other penalty is specifi-6 cally provided.

SECTION 1. In sections one to five, inclusive, unless the context otherwise requires, the following words shall have the following meanings:

"Annuities", the payments for life derived from contributions of members;
"Association", the retirement association provided by section two;
"Board", the board of retirement specified in section three;
"Employees", persons permanently and regularly employed in the direct service of the commonwealth or in the service of the metropolitan district commission, whose sole or principal employment is in such service;
"Pensions", the payments for life, derived from money contributed by the commonwealth;
"Regular interest", interest at three per cent per annum, compounded semi-annually on the last days of December and June, and reckoned for full three and six months' periods only;
"Retirement system" or "system", the arrangements provided for the payment of annuities and pensions;
"Salary or wages", cash received for regular services together with such allowance for other compensation not paid in cash as may be hereinafter provided;
The words "continuous service" shall mean uninterrupted employment, but a lay-off on account of illness or reduction of force, and a leave of absence, suspension or dismissal, followed by reinstatement within two years or a period of absence as specified in paragraph G of section five shall not be considered as breaking the continuity of service; provided, that in the case of employees engaged in the military or naval service of the United States or of nations associated with the United States in the world war such reinstatement may occur at any time within two years after discharge from such service or release from active duty therein.
As to appointees of the sergeant-at-arms the interval between sessions of the general court shall not be considered as breaking the continuity of service. Engineers and inspectors in the intermittent service of the commonwealth shall not lose the benefit of continuity of service in the intervals between employments, and for the purpose of computation, cumulative credit shall be given them for all periods of employment in the service of the commonwealth as shown by the records of the division of civil service.
In the case of employees of any department or institution formerly administered by a city, county or corporation, and later taken over by the commonwealth, service rendered prior to such transfer shall be counted as a part of a continuous service.
In the case of employees who before entering the service of the commonwealth had been regularly employed as teachers in public schools, as defined by section six, all periods of such employment rendered prior to July first, nineteen hundred and fourteen, shall be counted as a part of a continuous service; provided, that this paragraph shall not apply to employees entering the service of the commonwealth after July first, in nineteen hundred and fourteen, who are not members of the teachers' retirement association mentioned in section seven.
Any member of the association who shall have withdrawn from the service of the commonwealth or metropolitan district after June first, in nineteen hundred and twelve, on being re-employed in such service within two years, may be reinstated in said association in accordance with such rules for reinstatement as the board shall adopt, and when so reinstated the period of such withdrawal shall not operate to break the continuity of service, but shall not be counted as service. All periods of active service for the commonwealth or metropolitan district rendered prior to June first, nineteen hundred and twelve, by members of the association shall be a part of their continuous service, and for the purpose of computing the accumulation for the pension for such service, regular interest as defined in this section shall be allowed for all periods that are to be counted as service.

Section 2. There shall be a retirement association for the employees of the commonwealth, including employees in the service of the metropolitan district commission, organized as follows:

(1) All persons who are now members of the state retirement association established on January first, nineteen hundred and twelve, shall be members thereof. Any employee who entered the service before said January first, who has not become a member of the association, may before attaining the age of seventy, upon written application to the board, become a member of the association by paying in one sum an amount equal to the total assessments which he would have paid, together with the interest which would have been credited to his account, if he had contributed assessments on a five per cent basis from June first, nineteen hundred and twelve.

Or, such an employee may make application for membership and accumulate in the annuity fund in instalments, in accordance with such rules as the board shall adopt, the amount due to join the association, he being enrolled a member of the association when the total amount due on account of back assessments and interest has been accumulated in the annuity fund; provided, that all instalments must be paid before said employee is sixty years of age. Until the full amount required for membership has been accumulated, said employee may at any time discontinue payments and withdraw his total contributions with interest thereon.

(2) All persons who are members of the teachers' retirement association at the time of entering the service of the commonwealth, and persons who were or are in the employment of a department or institution formerly administered by a city, county or corporation when taken over by the commonwealth shall become members of the association, irrespective of age, but no such person shall remain in the service of the commonwealth after reaching the age of seventy. Except as provided in paragraph (3) all other persons who enter the service of the commonwealth hereafter shall, upon completing ninety days of service, become thereby members of the association, except that such persons over fifty-five shall not be allowed to become members of the association, and no such person shall remain in the service of the commonwealth after reaching the age of seventy.

(3) No officer elected by popular vote shall be a member of the association, nor any employee who is or will be entitled to a non-contributory pension from the commonwealth; but if such employee leaves a position for which such a pension is provided, before becoming entitled thereto, and takes a position to which this section applies, he shall thereupon become a member of the association. An official under fifty-five years of age when appointed or reappointed by the governor for a fixed term of years, may, if his sole employment is in the service of the commonwealth, become a member of the association by making written application for membership within one year from the date of his original appointment or subsequent reappointment to the same office. An official who is a member of the association shall not receive credit for.
49 for any period of service which he may have rendered as an official from 50 June first, nineteen hundred and twelve, to the date of his appointment 51 or reappointment which immediately preceded his membership in the 52 association.
53 (1) Any member who reaches the age of sixty and has been in the 54 continuous service of the commonwealth for a period of fifteen years
55 immediately preceding may retire or be retired by the board upon 56 recommendation of the head of the department in which he is employed, 57 or, in case of members appointed by the governor, upon recommendation 58 of the governor and council, and any member who reaches the age of 59 seventy must so retire. Any member who is a teacher or principal in 60 a state school or college where classes are graded or conducted by a 61 school year or term, or who is an instructor of the blind, on attaining 62 the age of seventy, shall be retired from the service at the end of the 63 school year or term in which said age is attained, but any such member 64 attaining that age in July, August or September shall then be retired.
65 (5) Any member who has completed a period of thirty-five years of 66 continuous service may retire, or may be retired at any age by the 67 board upon recommendation of the head of the department in which 68 he is employed, if such action be deemed advisable for the good of the 69 service.
70 (6) Employees who are paid partly by the commonwealth and partly 71 by a county having a retirement system shall be enrolled as members of 72 the association. Such employees shall be assessed on their full wages or 73 salaries, and the assessments on the part of such wages or salaries paid 74 by the county shall be deducted by the county treasurer and turned 75 over by him to the fund of the association. When any such employee 76 is retired under this paragraph, the state treasurer shall be reimbursed 77 out of the county treasury for a part of the pension payments to such 78 employee equivalent to the amount of the annuity payable on the 79 assessments on that part of his wages or salary paid by the county which 80 was deducted and turned over to the fund of the association in the 81 manner hereinbefore provided.
82 (7) All persons except teachers employed in the training schools
83 maintained and controlled by the department of education in buildings 84 owned by the commonwealth shall be considered employees of the 85 commonwealth.
86 (8) Retirement of a member for ordinary disability shall be made
87 by the board on the written application of the head of the department
88 in which the member is employed or of the member, or of a person act-89 ing in his behalf if he is incapable of acting, filed with the board not 90 later than two years after the date of the member's last salary pay-91 ment, if it appears to the board that said member has not attained age 92 sixty, that he has had fifteen or more years of continuous service im-
93 mediately preceding the application, that he is permanently physically
94 or mentally incapacitated for the performance of duty as shown by a 95 written report of a physician selected by him and that such incapacity 96 did not result from his own vicious habits, intemperance or willful mis-97 conduct. The retirement allowance of a member retired under this 98 paragraph shall be computed at his age nearest birthday under para-
99 graphs (2) B and (2) C of section five, subject, however, to the provisions 100 of paragraph (2) E of said section, and shall be payable not earlier than 101 the date of receipt by the board of such application.

(9) Any member who is found by the board, after examination by one or more physicians selected by the board, to have been permanently incapacitated, mentally or physically, by injuries sustained through no fault of his own while in the actual performance of his duty, from the further performance of such duty, may be retired, irrespective of age and of his period of service, and shall receive yearly payments as follows: an annuity at his age nearest birthday, as provided by section five (2) B; (b) such a pension from the commonwealth that the sum of the annuity under section five (2) B (a) and the pension shall equal one half the annual salary received by him at the time when the injury was received. Except as otherwise provided, a person retired under this paragraph shall not receive from the commonwealth any other sum by way of annuity, pension or compensation. In case of emergency, a retired officer or inspector of the department of public safety or a retired permanent member of the metropolitan district police may be called upon by the proper authority for such temporary active duty as such officer or inspector is able to perform, and there shall be paid to him for such service the difference between the rate of full pay and the rate of pension received by him. Application for disability retirement hereunder shall be made in writing within two years after the date of the applicant's last salary payment, and pension and annuity payments granted under this paragraph shall be payable only from the date of receipt by the board of such application. The board may require re-examinations from time to time of any member of the association pensioned under this paragraph or under paragraph (8), and if the disability or incapacity is found no longer to exist the pension shall cease and there shall be refunded to such member such sum, if any, as the board finds then remaining to his credit in the annuity fund.

(10) If any member is found by the board to have died from injuries received while in the discharge of his duty, and leaves a widow, or if no widow any child or children under the age of sixteen, a pension equal to the retirement allowance to which such member would have been entitled under paragraph (9) had he been permanently incapacitated shall be paid to such widow so long as she remains unmarried, or for the benefit of such child or children so long as he or any one of them continues under the age of sixteen. A person receiving a pension under this paragraph shall not receive from the commonwealth any other sum by way of annuity, pension or compensation.

(11) The word "injuries", as used in paragraphs (9) and (10) of this section, shall mean any injury which is a natural and proximate result of an accident occurring in the performance and within the scope of duty and without fault of the member. The board may employ special examiners whenever, in its judgment, it is necessary to assist in determining the degree of disability under paragraph (8) or (9) of this section. The fee of each such examiner, not exceeding ten dollars in amount in any one case, shall be paid by the commonwealth. The decision of the board on the question of disability and retirement under said paragraph (8) or (9) shall be final. Payments under paragraph (10) shall not be made as of a date earlier than that of the receipt by the board of written application therefor, except that payments to a child of a deceased member shall date from the day as of which payments to his widow shall terminate.
Section 3. (1) The retirement system shall be managed by the board of retirement provided in section eighteen of chapter ten.

(2) Subject to the approval of the board the state treasurer shall have custody of the funds of the system and any and all unappropriated income thereof, and shall invest and reinvest the same when not required for current disbursements, in accordance with section thirty-eight of chapter twenty-nine.

(3) The board may make by-laws and regulations consistent with law.

(4) It shall determine the percentage of wages or salary that employees shall contribute to the fund, subject to the minimum and maximum percentages, and may classify employees for the purposes of the system and establish different rates of contribution for different classes within the prescribed limits. It shall add to the cash payment for regular services, in cases where an employee of a state institution receives a non-cash allowance to cover compensation in the form of full or complete boarding and housing in accordance with the practice in such state institution, an amount at the rate of five dollars per week, which amount added to said cash payment shall be the basis upon which annuity contributions shall be made; and the foregoing provision shall also apply in computing pensions based upon prior service.

(5) The board shall file in the office of the commissioner of insurance annually on or before the fifteenth day of February, unless for cause shown the commissioner shall extend the time, a sworn statement showing the financial condition of the system on the thirty-first day of the preceding December and its financial transactions for the year ending thereon. The statement shall be in the form, and shall give the details, prescribed by the commissioner. Subject to the same conditions and requirements, the state treasurer shall file a sworn statement showing the financial condition of the system on said day.

Section 4. The funds of the retirement system shall be raised as follows:

(1) Expense and Contingent Fund.

Such amount as the general court may annually appropriate for the purpose of defraying the entire expense of administration according to estimates prepared by the state treasurer shall constitute an expense and contingent fund.

(2) Annuity and Pension Fund.

A. Deposits by Members. — (a) Except as hereinafter provided, each member shall deposit in this fund from his salary or wages, as often as the same are payable, not less than one nor more than five per cent thereof, as determined by the board under section three (4); but members who receive as weekly salary or wages an amount in excess of thirty-five dollars shall not be assessed for contributions to this fund on the excess above thirty-five dollars. Any member receiving on January first, nineteen hundred and thirty, salary or wages at the rate of more than thirty dollars per week shall make deposits based upon the salary or wages received but not on the amount received exceeding the weekly rate of thirty dollars, or, upon written application of such member filed with the board.
after said date, upon the full salary or wages received but not on the 18 amount received exceeding a weekly rate of thirty-five dollars. The 19 pension for prior service of any member receiving on January first, nine- 20 ten hundred and thirty, salary or wages at the rate of more than thirty 21 dollars per week shall be computed upon the salary or wages received 22 during such service but not on the amount received exceeding the weekly 23 rate of thirty dollars; but, if such member shall pay deposits prior to 24 January first, nineteen hundred and thirty-one, on his salary or wages 25 exceeding a weekly rate of thirty dollars, the pension for prior service 26 shall be computed upon the salary or wages received but not on the 27 amount exceeding the weekly rate of thirty-five dollars. 28

(b) A member who has been in the service of the commonwealth for a 29 continuous period contributing to the annuity fund during the first part 30 thereof at the rate of three per cent and during the remainder thereof at 31 the rate of five per cent may pay in one sum the difference between the 32 amount credited to him in the annuity fund and the amount which would 33 have been so credited to him if all his contributions had been at the rate 34 of five per cent. Or, such a member may accumulate in the annuity fund 35 in regular instalments during a period not exceeding five years from the 36 date of the first instalment the amount due to cover such difference with 37 interest, provided, that all instalments shall be paid before said member 38 is sixty years of age.

(c) Members of the teachers' retirement association, described in sec- 39
tion seven, who enter the service of the commonwealth shall have the full 40 amount of their contributions, with interest thereon as determined by 41
the teachers' retirement board, transferred by the state treasurer to the 42 retirement fund provided by this section, and these amounts shall thereby 43 become a part of their deposits.

B. Contributions of the Commonwealth. — The commonwealth shall 44 contribute as follows:

(a) Each month, such amount as the board may determine to be 45 necessary to pay current pensions for subsequent service under section 46 five (2) C (a).

(b) Each year, such amount as is necessary to guarantee regular 47 interest and make good any deficiency in the annuity fund as of the pre- 48 ceding thirty-first day of December.

(c) Each month, such amount as the board may determine to be necessary to pay current pensions for prior service under section five 50
49
(2) C (b).

(d) Each month, such amount as the board may determine to be necessary to insure the minimum payments provided for in section five (2) E, 52 and also the payments provided for in section two (9) (b).
51

(e) Each month, such amount as the board may determine to be necessary to pay current pensions on account of disability, permanent 54 incapacitation or death under paragraph (8), (9) or (10) of section two.
53

(3) Provision for Payments.

All amounts payable by members of the association under paragraph 63
(2) A (a) of this section shall be deducted by the commonwealth from the 64 amounts payable to them as salary or wages as often as the same are 65 payable, and shall immediately be credited to the retirement fund by the 66 state treasurer.
Section 5. The state treasurer shall administer the funds of the system in accordance with the following plan:

(1) Expense and Contingent Fund.

The fund provided for by section four (1) shall be used, so far as necessary, for the payment of the expenses of administration. Any unused portion shall be repaid into the treasury of the commonwealth.
If the amount appropriated for the expense and contingent fund in any year should prove insufficient, the general court shall appropriate in the following year an additional sum to cover the deficit.

A. Refunds. — (a) Should a member of the association enter a position in the service of the commonwealth not covered by sections one to five, inclusive, or cease to be an employee of the commonwealth for any cause other than death, or for the purpose of entering the service of the public schools as defined in section six, before becoming entitled to a pension, there shall be refunded to him all the money paid in by him under section four (2) A, with such interest as shall have been earned thereon.

(b) Should a member of the association die before becoming entitled 18 to a pension, or should an employee die while in process of accumulating under section two (1) the amount required to become a member, 20 all the money contributed by him under section four (2) A, or said section two (1), as the case may be, with such interest as shall have been 22 earned thereon, shall be paid to his legal representatives, subject to 23 paragraph (2) F of this section.

(c) Should a member of the association resign from the service of the 25 commonwealth at any time after he is eligible for retirement, there shall be refunded to him upon written demand all the money contributed by 27 him under section four (2) A, with such interest as shall have been 28 earned thereon. No such refund shall be made unless and until such 29 member waives and releases for himself, his heirs and his legal representatives and any designated beneficiary any and all claims to any pension or annuity to which he was entitled at the time of resignation, and 32 to which his heirs or legal representatives or any designated beneficiary 33 may thereafter be entitled, by reason of his membership in the association; and no further payment shall be made from the treasury of the 35 commonwealth to any person by reason of the age, service, disability 36 or death of said member, unless he shall have been reinstated in the 37 association in the manner provided in section one.

B. Annuities from Employees’ Deposits. — Any member who reaches 39 the age of sixty and has been in the continuous service of the common-35 wealth for fifteen years immediately preceding and then or thereafter 41 retires or is retired, any member who retires or is retired at the age of 42 seventy, and any member who is retired for the good of the service under 43 section two (5), shall receive an annuity to which the sum of his deposits
44 under section four (2) A, with such interest as shall have been earned 45 thereon, shall entitle him, according to the tables adopted by the board, 46 in one of the following forms:
(a) A life annuity, payable monthly.

C. Pensions derived from Contributions by the Commonwealth. — (a) Pensions based upon subsequent service. Any member entitled to an annuity under paragraph (2) B of this section shall receive in addition thereto a pension for life, payable monthly, equivalent to that annuity to which he would be entitled if his annuity were figured under (2) B (a) of this section, to be paid out of the fund contributed by the commonwealth under section four (2) B (a). In computing the pension for subsequent service of any member who has left a position in the service of the commonwealth for which a non-contributory pension is provided to take a position subject to sections one to five, inclusive, he shall be credited with regular accumulated contributions to the annuity fund during his period of service in said former position since June first, nineteen hundred and twelve.

(b) Pensions based upon prior service. Any member of the association who reaches the age of sixty and has been in the continuous service of the commonwealth for fifteen years or more immediately preceding and then or thereafter retires or is retired, any member who completes thirty-five years of continuous service and then or thereafter retires or is retired, and any member retired under section two (8), shall receive, in addition to the annuity and pension provided for by paragraphs (2) B and (2) C (a) of this section, an extra pension for life as large as the amount of the annuity, computed under paragraph (2) B (a) of this section, and the pension, to which he might have acquired a claim if the retirement system had been in operation at the time when he entered the service, and if accordingly he had paid regular contributions from that date to June first, nineteen hundred and twelve at the same rate at which his contributions were first made and if such contributions had been accumulated with regular interest; provided, that a member who pays the full amount provided in paragraph (2) A (b) of section four in either manner provided therein, shall be credited, in computing the pension for service prior to June first, nineteen hundred and twelve, on the basis of contributions at the rate of five per cent.

The pension for prior service under (2) C (b) of this section of any person becoming a member of the association under chapter three hundred and ten of the acts of nineteen hundred and thirteen or chapter one hundred and sixty-four of the General Acts of nineteen hundred and sixteen shall not be based upon or include any allowance for the time between June first, nineteen hundred and twelve, and the date when such person became a member of the association.

If any employee is paid partly by the commonwealth and partly by a county having a retirement system, or has rendered service in the past both for the commonwealth and for such county, all of his continuous service rendered either for the commonwealth or for the county before June first, nineteen hundred and twelve, shall be counted as part of his prior service for the purposes of this section.

Where members of the association are husband and wife, if one of the two retires or is retired the other may, irrespective of age and service, on the date of such retirement, be retired by the board, and if so retired, shall be paid at the attained age the retiring allowances provided under paragraphs (2) B and C of this section; provided, that the minimum allowance provided under (2) E of this section shall not apply to a member whose retirement allowance is granted under authority of this paragraph.
If the total contributions, with accumulated interest, at the time of retirement of any member exceed the amount required to provide an annuity under paragraph (2) B (a) of this section equal to one fourth of the average annual rate of salary or wages of such employee during the five year period provided for computing the maximum retirement allowance under paragraph E of this section, the excess above such amount shall be paid to such member upon his retirement in a lump sum with the first monthly payment on account of his retirement allowance. Whenever the retirement board deems it to be impracticable to determine the exact length of service or amount of salary, pay or compensation of a member, said board may estimate the same on a basis determined by it.
Any employee not a member of the association who had already reached the age of fifty-five on June first, nineteen hundred and twelve, may be retired at any time, and shall be paid a pension equivalent to the minimum payment hereinafter provided for.
(c) Any member entitled to retirement under sections one to five, inclusive, whose continuous employment for the commonwealth began at the time a department or institution formerly administered by a city, county, or corporation was taken over by the commonwealth shall receive at retirement in addition to the pension payable under paragraph (2) C (b) of this section an extra pension for life equal to the annuity he would have purchased under paragraph (2) B (a) of this section by five per cent contributions from the salary paid to him by the department or institution from June first, nineteen hundred and twelve, up to the date of membership in the retirement association if such contributions had been accumulated with regular interest to the date of his retirement.
(d) In addition to the interest and surplus otherwise credited under sections one to five, inclusive, to the account of a member of the association who, between the semi-annual interest compounding dates established by section one, retires or is retired under said sections or dies or leaves the service, there shall be credited interest on his account as standing on the semi-annual interest compounding date last preceding his retirement, death or leaving the service at the rate prescribed by said section one for regular interest, computed from said date to the first day of the month in which his service ended, in case of his retirement or leaving the service, or to the first day of the month in which refund is made, in case of his death while in the service.
D. Application of Surplus.—Subject to the approval of the commissoner of insurance the board may determine the application of any surplus.
E. Minimum and Maximum Payments.—Except as otherwise provided, in no case shall a member, whether he has elected the form of annuity provided for in paragraph (2) B (a) or (2) B (b) of this section, be retired at such an annual rate of pension as would, when added to the annual amount which would be required to be paid from the annuity fund if he had elected the form of annuity provided for in said paragraph (2) B (a), amount to a total retirement allowance of less than three hundred dollars or, in case the member has completed twenty-five years or more of service and his annuity at retirement is computed upon an amount equal to the sum which accumulated contributions for the entire period of his membership at the rate of five per cent have provided, less than four hundred and eighty dollars; and in no case shall a member who has elected either of the aforesaid forms of annuity be retired at such an annual rate of pension as would, when added to the annual amount which would be required to be paid from the annuity fund if he had elected the form of annuity provided for in said paragraph (2) B (a), amount to a total retirement allowance of more than one half the average annual rate of his salary or wages during the five years prior to retirement, or, if such member resigns or is dismissed prior to the date of retirement, during the five years prior to such resignation or dismissal, except that the minimum retirement allowance hereina-fore provided for such member shall not thereby be reduced. For the purpose of determining the maximum pension and the maximum annuity under this section, the rate of salary or wages received by a member on the date immediately preceding any period of absence without pay shall be used as the rate of pay which he would have received during such absence without pay.

All pensions and annuities, and the average annual rate of salary or wages during the five years prior to retirement, resignation or dismissal, shall be computed under the preceding sections to the nearest multiple of twelve.

F.—Any sum of money otherwise payable to the legal representatives of a deceased member or deceased employee under paragraph (2) A (b) or (2) B (b) of this section shall be paid, subject to the following conditions, to the beneficiary or beneficiaries nominated as hereinafter provided, if any, surviving at the death of such member or employee, as appearing in the records of the association at his death, and such payment or payments shall bar the recovery by any other person of such sum. Any such member or employee, by a written instrument duly executed by him and filed with the board prior to his death, upon a form to be furnished by the board, may nominate, and from time to time change, one or more beneficiaries to receive, in designated proportion, but not in the alternative, any such sum; any such person so nominated by a minor to be of his kindred. The sum which would have been paid to any beneficiary if he had survived such member or employee shall be paid to the legal representatives of such member or employee, subject to the conditions hereinafter provided in this paragraph. Any question arising hereunder as to survivorship shall be finally determined by the board. If any sum otherwise payable to the legal representatives of a member or employee under paragraph (2) A (b) or (2) B (b) of this section and under this paragraph does not exceed one hundred dollars, and if there has been no demand upon the board for payment of such sum by a duly appointed executor or administrator of the estate of such member or employee, and the board has not otherwise been informed that probate proceedings relative to such estate have been commenced, such sum may be paid, after the expiration of three months from the date of death of such member or employee, to the persons appearing, in the judgment of the board, to be entitled thereto, and such payments shall bar recovery by any other person.

G.—Any member of the association during the entire period of time while receiving from the commonwealth weekly compensation payments for total incapacity under sections sixty-nine to seventy-five, inclusive, of chapter one hundred and fifty-two, or during any period, computed as hereinafter provided, to cover a lump sum payment from the commonwealth in lieu of compensation aforesaid and also during a further period not exceeding thirty days shall, so long as his account is not withdrawn from the annuity fund, be treated in all respects as a contributing member, except as to liability to contribute to the annuity fund and except that such a member who attains age seventy prior to the date of termination of the actual or computed period of compensation payments shall not be treated as such a member beyond the date of termination aforesaid. Such a member attaining age seventy as aforessaid shall, without being required to be reinstated in the service of the commonwealth, be retired on the date of termination aforesaid on a retirement allowance then payable at age seventy; and such a member otherwise meeting the age and/or service requirements necessary for retirement prior to the date of termination aforesaid shall, on and after the date of termination aforesaid and without being required to be reinstated in such service, have all the rights and benefits provided by sections one to five, inclusive, to which he would have been entitled if his service had not been interrupted by a period of absence as aforesaid, and if such a former member re-enters the service after the termination of the aforesaid thirty day period he shall from the date of entry be treated in all respects as a contributing member; but in case of retirement hereunder no pension or annuity payments shall be made on account of any period of time prior to the date of receipt by the board of the written application for retirement. In no case shall interest be added to the account of such a member beyond the first day of the month in which the date of termination of the additional thirty day period occurs, unless such member is sooner reinstated in such service.
The account of such a member in the annuity fund may be withdrawn at any time upon the filing of a written notice with the board, which shall, if the member has already become eligible for retirement, be accompanied by a waiver as set forth in section five. Whenever such a member receives a lump sum payment under section forty-eight of chapter one hundred and fifty-two, the period of time covered by such payment shall, for the purposes of this section, be computed to begin on the last day the name of such member appeared upon the pay roll prior to such payment or on the day of the last compensation payment in case weekly payments had previously been made and to continue throughout a number of weeks equal to the quotient of the lump sum payment divided by the maximum weekly compensation which would otherwise be payable to such member, and any fraction of a week so resulting shall be taken as a full week.

RETIREMENT SYSTEM FOR TEACHERS.

1. Section 6. In sections seven to nineteen, inclusive, unless the context otherwise requires, the following words shall have the following meanings:
4. "Annuities", payments for life derived from contributions of members;
6. "Annuities-certain", payments for a definite number of years only, derived from contributions of members, and the number of years during which payments shall be made shall be determined by the retirement board;
"Annuity fund", the fund provided in section nine (2); 10
"Assessments", the annual payments to the annuity fund by memers; 11
"Association", the teachers’ retirement association provided in section seven; 12
"Board", the teachers’ retirement board specified in section eight; 13
"Expense fund", the fund provided in section nine (1); 14
"Pensions", payments for life, derived from contributions of the 15
commonwealth; 16
"Pension fund", the fund provided in section nine (3); 17
"Public school", any day school conducted in the commonwealth 18 under the superintendence of a duly elected school committee, also any 19 day school conducted under sections one to thirty-seven, inclusive, of 20 chapter seventy-four; 21
"Regular interest", interest at the rate determined by the retirement board, which shall be substantially that which is actually earned 22 compounded annually on the last day of December; 23
"Retirement system" or "system", the arrangement provided for 24 payment of annuities and pensions to teachers; 25
"School year", the twelve months beginning July first in any year 26 and ending June thirtieth next; 27
"Teacher", any person employed by one or more school committees 28 or boards of trustees, or by any combination of such committees and 29 boards, on a full time basis as a teacher, principal, supervisor or superintendent in the public day schools in the commonwealth, or as a supervisor or teacher of adult alien education. 30

SECTION 7. There shall be a teachers’ retirement association organized as follows: 31
(1) All persons now members of the teachers’ retirement association 32 established on July first, nineteen hundred and fourteen, shall be memers thereof. 33
(2) All teachers hereafter entering the service of the public schools 34 for the first time shall thereby become members of the association. 35
(3) Any teacher who entered the service of the public schools before 36
July first, nineteen hundred and fourteen, who has not become a member 37 of the association, may hereafter, before attaining the age of seventy, 38 upon written application to the board, become a member of the association by paying an amount equal to the total assessments, together with 39 regular interest thereon, which he would have paid if he had joined the 40 association on September thirtieth, nineteen hundred and fourteen. 41
Such a teacher may make application for membership and accumulate 42 in the annuity fund in instalments, in accordance with such rules as the 43 board shall adopt, the amount due to join the association, he being enrolled a member of the association when the total amount due on account 44 of back assessments and interest has been accumulated in the annuity 45 fund; provided, that all instalments must be paid before the teacher is 46 sixty years of age. Until the full amount required for membership has 47 been accumulated, a teacher may at any time discontinue payments and 48 withdraw his total contributions with the regular interest thereon. If 49 a teacher dies before said full amount has been accumulated, his total 50 contributions, with regular interest thereon, shall be paid to the person 51 or persons entitled, as if constituting a sum due a deceased member, in 52 accordance with section thirty-three.
Teachers in training schools maintained and controlled by the department of education shall be considered as public school teachers under sections seven to nineteen, inclusive, and such a teacher upon becoming a member of the association shall thereafter pay assessments based upon his total salary including the part paid by the commonwealth; provided, that the total assessments shall not exceed in any year the maximum annual assessment established by paragraph (2) of section nine. Such assessments shall be deducted in accordance with rules prescribed by the board. This paragraph shall not apply to teachers regularly employed in the normal schools and therefore subject to sections one to five, inclusive, although they devote a part of their time to training school work.

Section 8. (1) The retirement system shall be managed by the teachers' retirement board provided in section sixteen of chapter fifteen.

(2) The board may make by-laws and regulations consistent with law.

(3) The board shall provide for the payment of retirement allowances and the other expenditures required by sections seven to nineteen, inclusive.

(4) [Repealed, 1930, 238, § 2.]

(5) The board shall perform such other functions as are required to comply with sections seven to nineteen, inclusive.

Section 9. The funds of the system shall consist of an expense fund, an annuity fund and a pension fund.

(1) The expense fund shall consist of such amounts as shall be appropriated by the general court, on estimates submitted by the board, to defray the expenses of administration, exclusive of the payment of retirement allowances.

(2) The annuity fund shall consist of assessments paid by members and interest derived from investments of the annuity fund. Each member shall pay into the annuity fund, by deduction from his salary in the manner provided in section twelve (5), such assessments upon his salary as may be determined by the board. The rate of assessment shall be established by the board on the first day of July of each year after a prior notice of at least three months, and shall at any given time be uniform for all members of the association, and shall not be less than three nor more than seven per cent of the member's salary; provided, that when the total sum of assessments on the salary of any member at the rate established by the board would amount to more than one hundred dollars or less than thirty-five dollars for a full school year, such member shall in lieu of assessments at the regular rate be assessed at the rate of one hundred dollars a year or thirty-five dollars a year, payable in equal instalments, to be assessed for the number of months during which the schools of the community in which such member is employed are commonly in session. Any member who shall for thirty years have paid regular assessments to the annuity fund shall be exempt from further assessments; but such member may thereafter, if he so elects, continue to pay his assessments to the fund. No member, however, shall pay further assessments after the total sum of assessments paid by him shall have amounted, with regular interest, to a sum sufficient to purchase under section ten (3) (a) an annuity of six hundred and fifty dollars at age sixty, and interest thereafter accruing shall be paid to the member on his retirement. The commonwealth shall annually contribute such amount as is necessary to make good any deficiency in the annuity fund for active or retired members as of the preceding thirty-first day of December.

(3) The pension fund shall consist of such amounts as shall be appropriated by the general court from time to time, on estimates submitted by the board, for the purpose of paying pensions to teachers.

(4) Members of the state retirement association, provided in section two, who enter the service of the public schools shall have the full amount of their contributions, together with such interest as shall have been earned thereon, transferred by the state treasurer to the annuity fund established by paragraph (2) of this section, and these amounts shall thereby become a part of their assessments.

Section 10. (1) Any member of the association shall, on written application to the board, be retired from service in the public schools on attaining the age of sixty, or at any time thereafter. If in the opinion of the employing school committee any member who has attained said age is incapable of rendering satisfactory service as a teacher, he may, with the approval of the board, be retired by such committee. If he is not employed by a school committee, he may be so retired by his employer.

(2) Any member, on attaining the age of seventy, shall be retired from service in the public schools at the end of the school year in which said age is attained, but any member attaining that age in July, August or September shall then be retired.

(3) A member, after his retirement under paragraph (1) or (2) of this section, shall be entitled to receive from the annuity fund, as he shall elect at the time of his retirement, on the basis of tables adopted by the board: (a) an annuity, payable in quarterly payments, to which the sum of his assessments under section nine (2), with regular interest thereon, shall entitle him; or (b) an annuity of less amount, as determined by the board for the annuitants electing such option, payable in quarterly payments, with the proviso that if the annuitant dies before receiving annuity payments equal to the amount used to purchase the annuity, the difference shall be paid to his estate.

(4) Any member receiving payments of an annuity as provided in paragraph (3) of this section, if not rendered ineligible therefor by section fifteen, shall receive with each quarterly payment of his annuity an amount from the pension fund, as directed by the board, equal to the quarterly annuity payment to which he would be entitled if his annuity were figured under clause (a) of paragraph (3) of this section.

(5) Any member who served as a regular teacher in the public schools prior to July first, nineteen hundred and fourteen, and who has served fifteen years or more in the public schools, not less than five of which shall immediately precede retirement, on retiring as provided in paragraph (1) or (2) of this section, shall be entitled to receive a retirement allowance as follows: (a) such annuity and pension as may be due under paragraphs (3) and (4) of this section; (b) an additional pension to such an amount that the sum of this additional pension and the pension provided in paragraph (4) of this section shall equal the annuity to which he would have been entitled under sections seven to nineteen, inclusive, if he had paid thirty assessments based on his average yearly rate of salary for the five years immediately preceding his retirement, at the rate.
41 of assessment in effect at that time, and his account had been annually 42 credited with interest at the rate of four per cent per annum; provided, 43 that if his term of service in the commonwealth shall have been over 44 thirty years, the thirty assessments, with interest as provided above, 45 shall be credited with interest at the rate of four per cent, compounded 46 annually for each year of service in excess of thirty; but the assumed 47 accumulation of assessments with interest under this paragraph shall not 48 exceed the amount which at the age of sixty and in accordance with 49 clause (a) of paragraph (3) of this section will purchase an annuity of six 50 hundred and fifty dollars, and the minimum pension shall be of such an 51 amount that the annual pension, plus the annual amount which would 52 have been paid from the annuity fund if the member had chosen an 53 annuity computed under clause (3) (a) of this section, shall be four hun-54 dred dollars. If a member is at any time eligible to retire and receive a 55 pension computed under this paragraph, he shall receive upon retire-56 ment a pension computed hereunder without the necessity of five years of 57 continuous service preceding retirement.
58 (6) If at any time it is impossible or impracticable to consult the 59 original records as to wages received by a member during any period, 60 the board shall determine the pension to be paid under clause (b) of para-61 graph (5) of this section in accordance with the evidence it may be able to 62 obtain.
63 (7) In determining the retiring allowance of a member of the asso-
64 ciation who was regularly employed by the commonwealth prior to June 65 first, nineteen hundred and twelve, or as a teacher in the public schools
66 prior to July first, nineteen hundred and fourteen, credit shall be given 67 in the manner provided for by paragraph (5) of this section for all periods 68 of employment by the commonwealth and of service as a teacher in the 69 public schools, if such service is fifteen years or more, not less than five 70 of which shall immediately precede retirement; provided, that this 71 paragraph shall not apply to any person who had the option of joining 72 the state retirement association and did not become a member thereof.
73 Such rules as the board may adopt under paragraph (3) of section eleven 74 shall apply to a person becoming a member thereof after July first, nin-75 teen hundred and twenty, who shall have withdrawn any sum from the 76 state retirement association.
77 (8) Any member of the association whose employment by the com-
78 monwealth and service in the public schools amount to twenty or more 79 years, the last five years of which are consecutive, and who, before at-80 taining the age of sixty, becomes permanently incapable of rendering 81 satisfactory service as a teacher by reason of physical or mental disability, 82 may, with the approval of the board, be retired by the employing school 83 committee or other employer as provided in paragraph (1).
84 (9) Any member shall, upon retirement under the preceding para-
85 graph, and during the continuance of disability, be entitled to receive 86 from the annuity fund, in quarterly payments, a sum computed in ac-87 cordance with paragraph (3) of this section; provided, that upon the 88 approval of the board, an annuity-certain based upon the tables of the 89 board may be substituted for either of the plans provided for in said 90 paragraph; and in case of the death of the annuitant before all the in-91 stalments thereon have been paid, the value at that time of the unpaid 92 instalments, as determined on the basis of the tables adopted by the 93 board, shall be paid to his estate.
94 (10) Any member receiving a payment under the preceding paragraph shall, if not rendered ineligible therefor by section fifteen, receive from the pension fund for each year of service a pension equal to one thirtieth of the pension which would have been due him if he had retired at the age of sixty, having paid thirty annual assessments to the annuity fund, and received an annuity computed in accordance with clause (a) of paragraph (3) of this section; provided, that the minimum annual amount to be paid from the pension fund shall be such that a member shall receive from this fund, for each year of his service, one thirtieth of two hundred and fifty dollars; and provided, further, that the total re-tiring allowance shall not be greater than the amount which the said member would receive if he were to continue in service until the age of sixty, contributing annual assessments based on his average yearly rate of salary for the five years immediately preceding retirement, at the rate of assessment in effect at that time.

(11) If a member is granted an annuity-certain by the board, his total retiring allowance shall not be limited to the total retiring allowance which he would have received at the age of sixty, as provided in the preceding paragraph, but the amount to be paid from the pension fund shall be the amount which would have been paid from that fund if an annuity-certain had not been granted.

(12) In computing the amount to be paid from the pension fund under paragraph (10) of this section, the assumed assessments necessary to complete the thirty annual assessments shall be based on the average yearly rate of salary for the five years immediately preceding retirement, and shall be at the rate of assessment in effect at that time. Interest on the amount to the member’s credit on his retirement and on the assumed assessments shall be figured at the rate of four per cent.

(13) No member shall be retired under paragraph (8) of this section until the fact of his disability has been certified to on oath by an examining physician selected by the employing school committee or other employer as provided in paragraph (1) and approved by the board, and until any further evidence of his disability which the board may require shall have been furnished.

(14) At intervals of not less than one year, any member receiving a retiring allowance under this section, who has not attained the age of sixty, shall, if so requested by the board, be re-examined by a physician selected by it. If the board finds that disability which prevents satisfactory service as a teacher no longer exists, the retiring allowance shall cease. Refusal to submit to re-examination shall be cause for discontinuing the retiring allowance.

(15) If a teacher ceases to receive a retiring allowance under the preceding paragraph, the amount then to his credit in the annuity fund shall be determined on the basis of tables adopted by the board, and the said amount shall be considered to constitute the sum of his assessments, with the regular interest allowed thereon, to the time when his retiring allowance ceased.

(16) Any member who shall cease to receive a retiring allowance under paragraph (14) of this section, who does not re-enter public school service, and who does not withdraw the amount to his credit in the annuity fund, may, upon attaining the age of sixty, receive a retiring allowance computed in accordance with paragraphs (3) and (4) of this section, or may, before attaining the age of sixty, under conditions to be determined by the board, upon request and after an interval of one year, be entitled to further re-examination by a physician selected by it, and,
149 if disability contracted during service as a public school teacher is found 150 to exist, shall again be entitled to receive a retiring allowance under para-151 graphs (9) and (10) of this section.
152 (17) In determining the average salary under paragraphs (5), (10)
153 and (12) of this section, the yearly rate which the teacher would have 154 received had he been in service shall be used for periods of sickness or 155 leave of absence.
156 (18) Periods of leave of absence or sickness of one month or more shall 157 not be considered as part of the five years of service immediately pre-158 ceding retirement required under paragraphs (5), (7) and (8) of this 159 section, but, subject to the approval of the board, such periods of absence 160 or sickness shall not be considered as breaking the continuity of service.
161 (19) No pension under paragraph (4) shall exceed one third of the 162 member’s average yearly rate of salary for the five years immediately 163 preceding his retirement, and no pension under paragraph (5), except a 164 minimum pension, shall exceed one half of the member’s average yearly 165 rate of salary for the five years immediately preceding his retirement; 166 provided, that the pension of any person who became a member of the 167 teachers’ retirement association prior to June thirtieth, nineteen hundred 168 and twenty-nine, shall in no case be reduced by this paragraph to an 169 amount less than the amount to which such person would have been 170 entitled as pension had the provisions of sections seven to nineteen, 171 inclusive, in effect immediately prior to said date been in effect at the 172 time of his retirement. All annuities and pensions under this section 173 shall be in multiples of four cents.

1 Section 11. (1) Any member withdrawing from the public school
2 service before becoming eligible to retirement, except for the purpose
3 of entering the service of the commonwealth, and any member who be-4 comes subject to chapter two hundred and thirty-seven of the acts of 5 nineteen hundred and chapter five hundred and eighty-nine of the acts 6 of nineteen hundred and eight as amended or chapter five hundred and 7 twenty-one of the acts of nineteen hundred and twenty-two shall be en-8 titled to receive from the annuity fund all amounts contributed as 9 assessments, together with regular interest thereon, either in one sum or,
10 at the election of the board, in four quarterly payments. If a member 11 dies before receiving all his quarterly payments the balance thereof 12 shall be paid to his estate.
13 (2) Any member thus withdrawing, after having paid ten annual 14 assessments, may receive, at his election and in lieu of payments under 15 paragraph (1) of this section, an annuity for life, as determined by the 16 board, of such amount as the sum of his assessments under section nine, 17 paragraph (2), with regular interest thereon, shall entitle him to receive, 18 with the provision that if he dies before receiving payments equal to 19 the amount used to purchase the annuity the difference shall be paid 20 to his estate.
21 (3) Any member after having withdrawn from the public school
22 service shall, on being re-employed in such service, be reinstated as a 23 member in accordance with such rules for reinstatement as the board 24 shall adopt.
25 (4) If a member who is not receiving payments under paragraph (1) 26 or (2) of this section dies before retirement, the full amount of his as-27 sessments, with regular interest thereon, shall be paid to his estate.
28 (5) All sums due the estate of a deceased member from the annuity Section 12. (1) Any school committee, before employing a teacher to whom sections seven to nineteen, inclusive, apply, shall notify him of his duties and obligations under said sections.

(2) Annually on or before October first school committees shall certify to the board the names of all teachers to whom said sections apply.

(3) School committees shall, on the first day of each month, notify the board of the employment of new teachers, removals, withdrawals or changes in salaries occurring during the month preceding.

(4) Under the direction of the board, school committees shall furnish such other information as the board may require relevant to the discharge of the duties of the board.

(5) The school committee of each town shall, as directed by the board, deduct from the amount of the salary due each teacher employed in the public schools of such town such amounts as are due as contributions to the annuity fund as prescribed in section nine, shall send to the treasurer of said town a statement as voucher for such deductions, and shall send a duplicate statement to the secretary of the board.

(6) School committees shall keep such records as the board may require.

Section 13. The boards of trustees of schools conducted under sections one to twenty-four, inclusive, of chapter seventy-four shall perform all the duties prescribed for school committees under section twelve.

Section 14. (1) The treasurer of each town, on receipt from the school committee or board of trustees of the voucher for deductions from the teachers' salaries provided for in section twelve, shall transmit monthly the amounts specified in such voucher to the secretary of the board.

(2) The secretary of the board shall monthly pay to the state treasurer all sums received under the preceding paragraph.

(3) All funds of the system shall be in the custody of the state treasurer, and he shall, in accordance with the laws governing the investment of sinking funds, invest and reinvest such funds as are not required for current disbursements.

(4) The state treasurer shall make such payments to members from the annuity fund and pension fund as the board shall order to be paid, in accordance with sections ten and eleven.
15 (5) On or before the third Wednesday in January, the state treasurer shall file with the commissioner of insurance and with the secretary of the board a sworn statement exhibiting the financial condition of the system on December thirty-first preceding and its financial transactions for the year ending thereon. Such statement shall be in the form prescribed by the board and approved by the commissioner of insurance.

1 Section 15. (1) No person required to become a member of the association shall participate in the benefits of any other teachers' retirement system, supported in whole or in part by funds raised by taxation, or be entitled to a pension under section forty-three or chapter five hundred and eighty-nine of the acts of nineteen hundred and eight, as amended by chapter six hundred and seventeen of the acts of nineteen hundred and ten.

(2) No member shall receive any pension under section ten who is at the time in receipt of a pension paid from funds raised in whole or in part from taxation, under section forty-three or under chapter five hundred and eighty-nine of the acts of nineteen hundred and eight, as amended by chapter six hundred and seventeen of the acts of nineteen hundred and ten, or any other act providing pensions for teachers.

1 Section 16. (1) Whenever, after July first, nineteen hundred and fourteen, a town retires a teacher who is not eligible to a pension under section ten and pays to such teacher a pension in accordance with section forty-three, or chapter five hundred and eighty-nine of the acts of nineteen hundred and eight and acts in amendment thereof, or chapter five hundred and twenty-one of the acts of nineteen hundred and twenty-two and acts in amendment thereof, and the chairman or secretary of the school committee of said town or the chairman or executive officer of the retirement board of the Boston retirement system established by said chapter five hundred and twenty-one certifies under oath to the board the amount of said pension paid during any period prior to the preceding July first for which reimbursement has not been made and furnishes such other information as the board may require, said town shall be reimbursed therefor by the commonwealth; provided, that no such reimbursement shall be granted unless the retirement has been approved by the board and the amount of said reimbursement shall not be in excess of the amount, as determined by the board, to which said teacher would have been entitled as a pension, had he been a member of the association.

(2) The board shall make an annual report containing a statement of the amount expended previous to the preceding first day of July by towns in the payment of pensions under the preceding paragraph, for which such towns should receive reimbursement. On the basis of such a statement, the general court may make an appropriation for the reimbursement of such towns up to such first day of July.

1 Section 17. Upon the petition of not less than five per cent of the legal voters of any city or town in which sections forty-two and forty-three are in force, the following question shall be placed upon the ballot and submitted to the voters of such city at the next city election, or to the voters of such town at the next annual town meeting: "Shall sections forty-two and forty-three of chapter thirty-two of the General..."
Laws, authorizing cities and towns to retire and pension teachers in the public schools, be repealed?” If a majority of the voters voting thereon at such election or meeting shall vote in the affirmative, said sections shall cease to be in force in such city or town.

Section 18. Sections six to fifteen, inclusive, shall not apply to teachers in the public schools of Boston, except teachers who, on September first, nineteen hundred and twenty-three, are employed by Boston and are members of the association.

Section 19. A person who is principally employed as a teacher in the public schools but who is also employed by the commonwealth shall, if a member of the teachers’ retirement association, pay assessments to the annuity fund established by paragraph (2) of section nine, based on the total salary received for service as a public school teacher and for employment by the commonwealth; provided, that the annual assessment of such a member shall not exceed the maximum annual assessment established by said paragraph (2).

A person who is principally employed by the commonwealth but who is also employed in the public schools shall not be a member of the teachers’ retirement association, but shall be subject to sections one to five, inclusive, and if a member of the state retirement association shall pay assessments to the annuity fund established by section four based on the total salary received for service rendered to the commonwealth and for employment as a public school teacher; provided, that the annual assessment of such a member shall not exceed the maximum annual assessment established by paragraph (2) A (a) of said section four.

Assessments under this section shall be deducted from salary or other compensation in accordance with the rules and regulations prescribed by the respective retirement boards having jurisdiction.

This section shall not apply to teachers referred to in paragraph (4) of section seven.

Section 20. In sections twenty-one to twenty-five, inclusive, unless the context otherwise requires, the following words shall have the following meanings:

“Annuities”, the payments for life derived from money contributed by the members;

“Association”, the retirement association provided by section twenty-two;

“Board”, the retirement board provided by section twenty-three;

“Employees”, any persons permanently and regularly employed in the direct service of the county whose sole or principal employment is in such service, except teachers employed in any day school conducted under sections twenty-five to thirty-seven, inclusive, of chapter seventy-four, and also any officials or public officers whose compensation is paid by the county, whether employed or appointed for a stated term or otherwise, except, in counties other than Worcester, an official or public officer elected by the people.

“Pensions”, the payments for life derived from money contributed by the county;
19 "Regular interest", interest at three per cent per annum, compounded
20 semi-annually on the last days of December and June and reckoned for 21 full three and six months' periods only;
22 "Retirement system" or "system", the arrangements provided for 23 the payment of annuities and pensions;
24 The words "continuous service" shall mean uninterrupted employ-
25 ment; but a lay-off on account of illness or reduction of force, and a 26 leave of absence, suspension or dismissal, followed by reinstatement 27 within two years, shall not be considered as breaking the continuity of 28 service; provided, that in reckoning the period of two years, all time 29 spent in the military or naval service of the United States or of any 30 nation associated with it in the world war shall be excluded.
31 In the case of employees of the county who are now paid wholly by 32 it, but who at any prior period were employees of the county as defined 33 above and were not paid wholly by it, or in the case of employees of 34 any department or institution formerly administered by the common-35 wealth or formerly administered in part by the commonwealth and in 36 part by the county and later taken over by the county, service rendered 37 prior to such payment in whole by the county or transfer to it shall be 38 counted as a part of their continuous service.

1 Section 21. Any county, except one which has established a system
2 under chapter six hundred and thirty-four of the acts of nineteen hun-
3 dred and eleven, may establish a retirement system for its employees by 4 accepting sections twenty to twenty-five, inclusive, in the following 5 manner: Upon the initiative of the county commissioners, the following 6 question shall be placed upon the ballot and submitted to the voters of 7 the county at the next state election: "Shall sections twenty to twenty-8 five, inclusive, of chapter thirty-two of the General Laws, entitled 9 'County Retirement System', be accepted?" If a majority of the voters
10 voting thereon at such election shall vote in the affirmative, said sections 11 shall take effect in that county, as hereinafter provided.
12 A copy of the vote, sworn to by the county commissioners or the 13 officers corresponding thereto, shall, within thirty days after the date 14 of the vote, be filed in the office of the commissioner of insurance. The 15 latter shall forthwith issue a certificate that the retirement system is 16 declared established in that county, to become operative on the first 17 day of January or the first day of July following the expiration of three 18 months after the date of the certificate.

1 Section 22. Whenever a county shall have voted to establish a
2 retirement system under section twenty-one, or corresponding provisions
3 of earlier laws, a retirement association shall be organized as follows:
4 (1) All employees of the county on the date the retirement
5 system is declared established by the issue of the certificate under 6 section twenty-one may become members of the association. On the 7 expiration of thirty days after said date, every such employee shall 8 thereby become a member unless he shall have, within that period, sent 9 notice in writing to the county commissioners or officers performing 10 like duties that he does not wish to join the association.
11 (2) All employees who enter the service of the county after the date 12 when the system is declared established, except persons who have 13 already passed the age of fifty-five, shall, upon completing ninety days
14 of service, thereby become members. Persons over fifty-five who enter the service of the county after the establishment of the system shall not be allowed to become members, and no such employee shall remain in the service of the county after reaching the age of seventy.

(3) No officer elected by popular vote, except in Worcester county, nor any employee who is or will be entitled to a pension from any county for any reason other than membership in the association may become a member.

(4) Any member who reaches the age of sixty and has been in the continuous service of the county for fifteen years immediately preceding may retire, or be retired by the board upon recommendation of the head of the department in which he is employed, and any member who reaches the age of seventy shall so retire.

(5) Any member who has completed thirty-five years of continuous service may retire, or be retired upon recommendation of the head of the department in which he is employed, if such action be deemed advisable for the good of the service.

(6) Any officer of a jail or house of correction who is a member and who is found by the board, after examination by one or more physicians selected by the board, to have been permanently incapacitated, mentally or physically, by injuries sustained through no fault of his own while in the actual performance of his duty, from the further performance of such duty, may be retired, irrespective of age and of his period of service, and shall receive yearly payments as follows: (a) an annuity at his age nearest birthday, as provided by section twenty-five (2) B; and (b) such a pension from the county that the sum of the annuity under section twenty-five (2) B (a) and the pension shall equal one half the annual salary received by him at the time when the injuries were received. Except as otherwise provided, a person retired under this paragraph shall not receive from the county any other sum by way of annuity, pension or compensation. Application for disability retirement hereunder shall be made in writing within two years after the date of the said injuries, and the pension and annuity payments granted under this paragraph shall be payable only from the date of receipt by the board of such application. The board may require re-examinations from time to time, and the county commissioners shall require re-examinations at least annually, of any member pensioned under this paragraph. Re-examinations under authority of this paragraph shall be by one or more physicians selected by the board or by the county commissioners, as the case may be.

(7) The term "officer", as used in paragraph (6), shall be deemed to mean and include any person who is employed to, and who as a regular part of his duty does, have charge either of all or of a definite number of persons committed to the jail or house of correction by legal process.

(8) Upon the completion of any re-examination provided for by paragraph (6) the physician or physicians making the same shall report and certify to the board, or to the county commissioners, as the case may be, whether said beneficiary is still incapacitated mentally or physically for service in the institution where he was employed and of the rank or rating held by him when retired for disability.

If such physician or physicians shall find that the disability for which the member was retired under said paragraph (6) has ceased, or if the member fails to submit to said re-examination, his retirement allowance shall cease. Should the finding be that disability for which a member was so retired has ceased, he shall, if he so desires, be restored to active duty.
Section 23. (1) The system shall be managed by the board of retirement, consisting of three members, one of whom shall be the county treasurer; the second member shall be a member of the association elected by the latter within sixty days after the system is declared established, in a manner to be determined by the county commissioners; the third member shall be chosen by the other two. If the third member is not so chosen within thirty days after the election of the second, the chairman of the county commissioners shall appoint the third member. The initial terms of the second and third members shall be two years; thereafter their terms shall be three years. If a vacancy occurs in the board or if the term of a member thereof expires, a successor of the person whose place has become vacant or whose term has expired shall be chosen in the same manner as his predecessor.

(2) The members of the board shall serve without compensation; but they shall be reimbursed out of the contingent fund for any expense or loss of salary or wages incurred through service on the board. All claims for reimbursement on this account shall be subject to the approval of the county commissioners.

The board of retirement.
1911, 654, § 4.
1915, 257, § 118.
1919, 6, § 350, § 46.
1920, 2.
1923, 479, § 3.
(3) The county treasurer shall have custody of the funds of the system, subject to the approval of the board, and shall invest and reinvest the same, and may sell any securities held by him and invest and reinvest the proceeds and any and all unappropriated income of said funds; provided, that all funds received by him not required for current disbursements shall be invested in accordance with the laws relating to the investment of the funds of savings banks, giving preference to the securities of the county.

(4) The board may make by-laws and regulations consistent with law, and employ necessary clerical or other assistance for the performance of its duties, subject to the approval of the county commissioners.

(5) The board shall determine the percentage of wages which employees shall contribute to the fund, subject to the minimum and maximum percentages, and may classify employees for the purposes of the system, and establish within the prescribed limits different rates of contribution for different classes.

(6) The county treasurer shall annually in January, unless for cause the commissioner of insurance shall extend the time, file in the office of the commissioner a sworn statement, showing the financial condition of the system of his county on the thirty-first day of the preceding December and its financial transactions for the year ending thereon. The statement shall be in the form, and give the details, prescribed by the commissioner.

SECTION 24. The funds of the system shall be raised as follows:

(1) Expense and Contingent Fund.

The county shall annually expend, from the amount appropriated therefor by the general court, the sums necessary to defray the entire expense of administration, according to estimates prepared by the county treasurer and by him submitted to the county commissioners, who shall include the same in their estimates required by section twenty-eight of chapter thirty-five.

(2) Annuity and Pension Fund.

A. Deposits by Members. — Each member shall deposit in this fund from his wages or salary, as often as the same is payable, not less than one nor more than five per cent of the amount of his wages or salary, as determined by the board under section twenty-three (5); provided, that employees receiving more than thirty dollars weekly in wages or salary shall not be assessed for contributions to this fund on the excess above that amount.

B. Contributions by the County. — The county shall contribute the following:

(a) Each month, such amount as the board may determine to be necessary to pay current pensions for subsequent service under section twenty-five (2) C (a).

(b) Each year, the amount necessary to guarantee regular interest and make good any deficiency in the annuity fund as of the preceding thirty-first day of December.

(c) Each month, such amount as the board may determine to be necessary to pay current pensions for prior service under section twenty-five (2) C (b).
26 (d) Each month, such amount as the board may determine to be necessary to insure the minimum payments provided for in section twenty-five (2) E.

(3) Provision for Payments.
29 All amounts payable by members under paragraph (2) A of this section shall be deducted by the county from the amount payable to them as wages or salary as often as the same are payable, and shall immediately be credited to the retirement fund by the county treasurer.

1 Section 25. The county treasurer shall administer the funds of the system as follows:

(1) Expense and Contingent Fund.
3 The fund provided for in section twenty-four (1) shall be used, so far as necessary, for the payment of the expenses of administration.
5 Any unused portion shall be repaid into the treasury of the county. If the amount appropriated for the expense and contingent fund in any year should prove insufficient, the general court shall appropriate in the following year an additional sum to cover the deficit.

(2) Annuity and Pension Funds.
9 A. Refunds. — (a) Should a member cease to be an employee of the county for any cause other than death before becoming entitled to a pension, there shall be refunded to him all the money that has been paid in by him under section twenty-four (2) A, with such interest as shall have been earned thereon.
14 (b) Should a member die before becoming entitled to a pension, there shall be paid to his legal representatives all the money that has been paid in by him under section twenty-four (2) A, with such interest as shall have been earned thereon.
18 B. Annuities from Employees' Deposits. — Any member who reaches the age of sixty and has been in the continuous service of the county for fifteen years immediately preceding and then or thereafter retires or is retired, any member who retires or is retired at the age of seventy, and any member who is retired for the good of the service under section twenty-two (5), shall receive an annuity to which the sum of his deposits under section twenty-four (2) A, with such interest as shall have been earned thereon, shall entitle him, according to the tables adopted by the board, in one of the following forms:
27 (a) A life annuity, payable monthly.
32 C. Pensions derived from Contributions by the County. — (a) Pensions based upon subsequent service. Any member entitled to an annuity under paragraph (2) B of this section shall receive in addition thereto a pension for life, payable monthly, equivalent to that annuity to which he would be entitled if his annuity were figured under (2) B (a) of this section, to be paid out of the fund contributed by the county under section twenty-four (2) B (a).
(b) Pensions based upon prior service. Any member who reaches the age of sixty and has been in the continuous service of the county for fifteen years or more immediately preceding and then or thereafter retires or is retired, and any member who completes thirty-five years of continuous service and then or thereafter retires or is retired, shall receive, in addition to the annuity and pension provided for by paragraphs (2) B and (2) C (a) of this section, an extra pension for life as large as the amount of the annuity and pension to which he might have acquired a claim if the system had been in operation when he entered the service of the county, and if accordingly he had paid regular contributions from that date to the date of the establishment of the association at the same rate as that first adopted by the board, and if such deductions had been accumulated with regular interest.

If any two members are husband and wife, and one of the two retires or is retired, the other may also retire, and shall be paid a retiring allowance proportionate to the amount of his accumulated contributions to the date of such retirement, or, if such allowance should be less than the minimum allowance of two hundred dollars hereinafter provided for, shall be paid that sum annually.

If the accumulated contributions of any employee retired under sections twenty to twenty-five, inclusive, exceed the amount required to provide an annuity equal to one fourth of the average annual rate of wages or salary of such employee during the last ten years prior to his retirement, the excess above that amount shall be paid to such employee in a gross sum with the first monthly payment on the account of his retiring allowance.

Any employee who had already reached the age of fifty-five when the retirement system was established, and also had become a member, may be retired under the first paragraph of (2) C (b) of this section without having completed the otherwise required service period of fifteen years. In computing any pension payable for prior service, the board may estimate, on a basis determined by them, the wages received at any period for which they may deem it impracticable to consult the original records.

Any employee not a member who had already reached the age of fifty-five when the system was established may be retired at any time, and shall be paid a pension equivalent to the minimum payment hereinafter provided.

D. Application of Surplus. — Subject to the approval of the commissioner of insurance the board may determine the application of any surplus.

E. Minimum and Maximum Payments. — Except as otherwise provided, in no case shall a member, whether he has elected the form of annuity provided for in paragraph (2) B (a) or (2) B (b) of this section, be retired at such an annual rate of pension as would, when added to the annual amount required to be paid from the annuity fund to a member who elects the form of annuity provided for in said paragraph (2) B (a), amount to a total retirement allowance of less than three hundred dollars, and in no case shall a member who has elected either of the aforesaid forms of annuity be retired at such an annual rate of pension as would, when added to the annual amount required to be paid from the annuity fund to a member who elects the form of annuity provided for in said paragraph (2) B (a), amount to a total retirement allowance of more than one half the average annual rate of his salary or wages during the five years prior to retirement, or, if such member resigns or is 93 dismissed prior to the date of retirement, during the five years prior to 94 such resignation or dismissal. For the purpose of determining the 95 maximum pension and the maximum annuity under this section, the 96 rate of salary or wages received by a member on the date immediately 97 preceding a period of absence without pay shall be used as the rate of 98 pay which he would have received during such absence without pay.

RETIREMENT SYSTEMS FOR CITIES AND TOWNS.

1 Section 26. In sections twenty-seven to thirty-one, inclusive, unless 2 the context otherwise requires, the following words shall have the follow-3 ing meanings:
4 "Annuities", the payments for life derived from money contributed 5 by the members;
6 "Association", the retirement association provided by section twenty-
7 eight;
8 "Board", the retirement board provided by section twenty-nine;
9 "Employees", regular and permanent employees whose sole or prin-
10 cipal employment is in the service of the city or town;
11 "Pensions", the payments for life derived from money contributed 12 by the city or town;
13 "Regular interest", interest at three per cent per annum, compounded 14 semi-annually on the last days of January and July, and reckoned for 15 full three and six months' periods only.
16 The words "continuous service" mean uninterrupted employment;
17 but a lay-off on account of illness or reduction of force, and a leave of 18 absence, suspension or dismissal, followed by reinstatement within one 19 year, shall not be considered as breaking the continuity of service.

1 Section 27. Any city or town may establish a retirement system
2 for its employees by accepting sections twenty-six to thirty-one, inclusive,
3 in the following manner: In a city, whenever a vote to accept sections
4 twenty-six to thirty-one, inclusive, has been passed by the city council,
5 the following question shall then be placed upon the ballot and submitted
6 to the voters of the city at the next municipal election: "Shall sections
7 twenty-six to thirty-one, inclusive, of chapter thirty-two of the General
8 Laws authorizing the cities and towns of the commonwealth to estab-
9 lish retirement systems for their employees, be accepted?" In a town, 10 whenever a vote to accept said sections has been passed by the selectmen, 11 the said question shall then be submitted to the voters of the town at 12 the next town meeting. If a majority of the voters voting on the ques-13 tion at the city election or at the town meeting shall vote in the affirm-
14 ative, said sections shall take effect in such city or town as hereinafter 15 provided.
16 A copy of the vote of the city council or of the selectmen, certified by 17 the city or town clerk, and a copy of the vote at the city election or at 18 the town meeting, sworn to by the local election commissioners or the 19 officers corresponding thereto, shall, within thirty days respectively after 20 the date of the latter vote, be filed in the office of the commissioner of 21 insurance. He shall forthwith issue a certificate that the retirement 22 system is declared established in said city or town, to become operative 23 on the first day of February or the first day of August following the 24 expiration of three months after the date of the certificate.
Sections twenty-six to thirty-one, inclusive, may be altered or amended from time to time, and all such alterations and amendments shall, upon their passage, become binding upon cities and towns which have previously accepted said sections, and all contractual rights entered into by and between any city or town and the employees thereof under said sections shall be deemed to have been entered into subject to being subsequently affected by such alterations or amendments; provided, that no such alterations or amendments shall affect the rights of employees under section thirty-one (2) A with reference to deposits previously made.

Section 28. Whenever a city or town has voted to establish a system, a retirement association shall be organized as follows:

1. All employees of the city or town, when the system is declared established by the issue of the certificate under section twenty-seven, may become members of the association. On the expiration of thirty days from that time every such employee shall thereby become a member, unless he shall have, within that period, sent notice in writing to the city council or selectmen that he does not wish to join the association.

2. All employees who enter the service of the city or town after the date when the retirement system is declared established, except persons who have passed the age of fifty-five, shall, upon completing thirty days of service, thereby become members. Persons over fifty-five who enter the service of the city or town after the establishment of the system shall not become members, and no such employee shall remain in the service of the city or town after reaching the age of seventy.

3. No officer elected by popular vote may become a member, nor any employee who is or will be entitled to a pension from the city or town for any reason other than membership in the association.

4. Any member who reaches the age of sixty and who has been in the continuous service of the city or town for a period of fifteen years immediately preceding may retire or be retired by the board upon recommendation of the head of the department in which the member is employed, and any member who reaches the age of seventy shall be retired.

5. Any member who has completed thirty-five years of continuous service may retire or be retired at any age by the board upon recommendation of the head of the department in which the member is employed, if such action be deemed advisable for the good of the service.

Section 29. (1) The system shall be managed by the board of retirement, consisting of three members, one of whom shall be the city or town treasurer; the second shall be a member of the association, elected by the latter within sixty days after the system is declared established, in a manner to be determined by the city council or selectmen; the third shall be chosen by the other two. If the third member is not so chosen within thirty days after the election of the second, the mayor or the chairman of the selectmen shall appoint him. The initial terms of the second and third members shall be two years; thereafter their terms shall be three years. If a vacancy occurs in the board or if the term of a member thereof expires, a successor of the person whose place has become vacant or whose term has expired shall be chosen in the same manner as his predecessor.

2. The members of the board shall serve without compensation, but they shall be reimbursed out of the contingent fund for any expense or loss of salary or wages incurred through service on the board. All
17 claims for reimbursement on this account shall be subject to the approval 18 of the city council or selectmen.
19 (3) The city or town treasurer shall have custody of the funds of the 20 system, subject to the approval of the board, and shall invest and rein-21 vest the same, and may sell any securities held by him and invest and 22 reinvest the proceeds and any and all unappropriated income of said
23 funds; provided, that all funds received by him not required for current 24 disbursements shall be invested in accordance with the laws relating to 25 the investment of the funds of savings banks, giving preference to securi-26 ties of the city or town in which the system has been established.
27 (4) The board may make by-laws and regulations consistent with law, 28 and employ necessary clerical or other assistance for the performance of 29 its duties, subject to the approval of the city council or selectmen.
30 (5) The board shall determine the percentage of wages that em-
31 ployees shall contribute to the fund, subject to the minimum and maxi-32 mum percentages, and may classify employees for the purposes of the 33 system, and establish within the prescribed limits different rates of con-34 tribution for different classes.
35 (6) The city or town treasurer shall annually in February, unless for 36 cause the commissioner of insurance shall extend the time, file in the 37 office of the commissioner a sworn statement, showing the financial con-38 dition of the system of his city or town on the thirty-first day of the 39 preceding January and its financial transactions for the year ending 40 thereon. The statement shall be in the form, and shall give the details, 41 prescribed by the commissioner.

1 Section 30. The funds of the system shall be raised as follows:

(1) Expense and Contingent Fund.

2 The city or town shall appropriate annually the amount necessary to 3 defray the whole expense of administration, according to estimates pre-4 pared by the city or town treasurer.

(2) Annuity and Pension Fund.

5 A. Deposits by Members. — Each member shall deposit in this fund
6 from his wages or salary, as often as the same are payable, not less than 7 one nor more than five per cent of the amount of his wages or salary, as 8 determined by the board under section twenty-nine (5); provided, that 9 employees receiving more than thirty dollars weekly in wages or salary
10 shall not be assessed for contribution to this fund on the excess above 11 that amount.
12 B. Contributions by the City or Town. — The city or town shall con-13 tribute the following:
14 (a) Every month, such amount as the board may determine to be 15 necessary to pay current pensions for subsequent service under section 16 thirty-one (2) C (a);
17 (b) Every year, in February, the amount necessary to guarantee regu-18 lar interest and make good any deficiency in the annuity fund as of the 19 preceding thirty-first day of January;
20 (c) Every month, such amount as the board may determine to be 21 necessary to pay current pensions for prior service under section thirty-
22 one (2) C (b);
(d) Every month, such amount as the board may determine to be necessary to insure the minimum payments under section thirty-one (2) shall be deducted by the city or town from the amounts payable to them as wages or salary, as often as the same are payable, and shall be credited immediately to the retirement fund by the city or town treasurer.

(3) Provisions for Payments.

All amounts payable by members under paragraph (2) shall be used, so far as necessary, for the payment of the expenses of administration. Any unused portion shall be repaid into the city or town treasury. If the amount appropriated for the expense and contingent fund in any year should prove insufficient, the city or town shall appropriate in the following year an additional sum to cover the deficit.

SECTION 31. The city or town treasurer shall administer the funds of the system as follows:

(1) Expense and Contingent Fund.

The fund provided under section thirty (1) shall be used, so far as necessary, for the payment of the expenses of administration. Any unused portion shall be repaid into the city or town treasury. If the amount appropriated for the expense and contingent fund in any year should prove insufficient, the city or town shall appropriate in the following year an additional sum to cover the deficit.

(2) Annuity and Pension Funds.

A. Refunds. — (a) Should a member cease to be an employee of the city or town for any cause other than death before becoming entitled to a pension, there shall be refunded to him all the money that has been paid in by him under section thirty (2) A, with regular interest.

(b) Should a member die before becoming entitled to a pension, there shall be paid to his legal representatives all the money that has been paid in by him under section thirty (2) A, with such interest as shall have been earned thereon.

B. Annuities from Employees’ Deposits. — Every member who reaches the age of sixty and has been in the continuous service of the city or town for fifteen years immediately preceding and then or thereafter retires or is retired, every member who retires or is retired at the age of seventy, and every member who is retired for the good of the city or town service under section twenty-eight (5), shall receive an annuity to which the sum of his deposits under section thirty (2) A, with regular interest, shall entitle him, according to the tables adopted by the board, in one of the following forms:

(a) A life annuity, payable monthly.

(b) A life annuity, payable monthly, with the provision that in the event of the death of the annuitant before receiving payments equal to the sum at the date of his retirement of his deposits under section twenty-nine thirty (2) A, with regular interest, the difference shall be paid to his legal representatives; provided, that this form of annuity shall not be paid unless the amount of his accumulations will provide an annuity of one hundred dollars or more.

C. Pensions derived from Contributions by the City or Town. — (a) Pensions based upon subsequent service. Any member entitled to an annuity under paragraph (2) B of this section shall receive in addition... thereto a pension for life, payable monthly, equivalent to that annuity to which he would be entitled if his annuity were figured under (2) B (a) of this section, to be paid out of the fund contributed by the city or town under section thirty (2) B (a).

(b) Pensions based upon prior service. Any member who reaches the age of sixty and has been in the continuous service of the city or town for fifteen years or more immediately preceding and then or thereafter retires or is retired, shall receive, in addition to the annuity and pension provided by paragraphs (2) B and (2) C (a) of this section, an extra pension for life as large as the amount of the annuity to which he might have acquired a claim if the system had been in operation at the beginning of such period of continuous service, and if accordingly he had paid regular contributions from that date to the date of the establishment of the association at the same rate as that first adopted by the board and if such deductions had been accumulated with regular interest.

Any employee who had already reached the age of fifty-five when the system was established, and also had become a member, may be retired under the preceding paragraph without having completed the otherwise required service period of fifteen years.

In computing any pension payable for prior service, the board may estimate, on a basis determined by them, the wages received at any period for which they may deem it impracticable to consult the original records.

Any employee not a member who had already reached the age of fifty-five when the system was established may be retired at any time, and shall be paid a pension equivalent to the minimum payment herein provided for.

If the accumulated contributions of any employee retired under sections twenty-six to thirty-one, inclusive, exceed the amount required to provide an annuity equal to one fourth of the average annual rate of wages or salary of such employee during the last ten years prior to his retirement, the excess shall be paid to such employee in a gross sum with the first monthly payment on the account of his retiring allowance.

D. Application of Surplus. — Subject to the approval of the commissioner of insurance, the board may determine the application of any surplus.

E. Minimum and Maximum Payments. — The total monthly payment to a member shall not be at a rate of less than two hundred dollars a year, or of more than one half the average annual rate of wages or salary of the member during the ten years prior to his retirement.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

Section 32. In any association provided by the preceding sections, except the teachers' retirement association, the board shall issue to each member a certificate of membership and to each member who retires or is retired a policy which shall be evidence of his right to an annuity or a pension.

Section 33. Should there be due to the estate of a deceased member of any of the retirement associations established under the preceding sections, except sections one to five, inclusive, any sum of money payable from the funds of the association, the same shall be paid to his legal representatives; provided, that if the sum so done does not exceed three hundred dollars if due from the funds of the teachers' retirement association, or one hundred dollars if due from the funds of any other such association, and there has been no demand therefor by a duly appointed executor or administrator, payment may be made, after the expiration of three months from the date of the death of such member, to the persons appearing, in the judgment of the board, to be entitled thereto, and such payment shall be a bar to recovery by any other person.

Section 34. The commissioner of insurance shall prescribe for the state retirement system, the retirement system for teachers and for each county, city and town retirement system one or more mortality tables, and fix the rates of interest to be used in connection therewith, and may later modify such tables or prescribe other tables to represent more accurately the expense of such retirement systems, or may change the rates of interest and determine the application of such changes.
He shall also prescribe and supervise methods of bookkeeping of their retirement associations.

The commissioner or his agent shall at least once every year thoroughly inspect and examine the affairs of each such retirement association to ascertain its financial condition, its ability to fulfill its obligations, whether call the parties in interest have complied with the laws applicable thereto, and whether the transactions of each board of retirement have been in accordance with the rights and equities of those in interest. Each such retirement system shall be credited, in the account of its financial condition, with its investments having fixed maturities upon which the interest is not in default at amortized values, and its other investments at a reasonable valuation.

For the purposes aforesaid, the commissioner or his agent shall have access to all the securities, books and papers of such retirement systems, and may summon and administer oath to and examine any person relative to the financial affairs, transactions and condition of the retirement system. The commissioner shall preserve in a permanent form a full record of the proceedings at such examination and the results thereof.
Upon the completion of such examination, verification and valuation, the commissioner shall make a report in writing of his findings to the board, and shall send a copy thereof to the governor and council, the county commissioners, the city council or the selectmen, as the case may be.

Section 35. If, in the judgment of the commissioner of insurance, the commonwealth, the state board of retirement or the teachers' board of retirement has violated or neglected to comply with any provision of sections one to nineteen, inclusive, or the rules and regulations established thereunder, he shall give notice thereof to the governor and to the board, and thereafter, if such violation or neglect on the part of the board continues, shall forthwith present the facts to the attorney general for action.

Section 36. If, in the judgment of the commissioner of insurance, the county, city or town or the board of retirement thereof has violated or neglected to comply with any provision of sections twenty to thirty-one, inclusive, or of the rules and regulations established thereunder, he shall give notice thereof to the county commissioners or the mayor or the chairman of the selectmen and to the board of retirement, and 7 thereafter, if such violation or neglect continues, shall forthwith present
8 the facts to the attorney general for action.

1 Section 37. The funds of every retirement system established
2 under the preceding sections, so far as they are invested in personal 3 property, shall be exempt from taxation.

4 That portion of the wages of a member deducted or to be deducted
5 under the preceding sections, the right of a member to an annuity or 6 pension, and all his rights in the funds of the retirement system shall be 7 exempt from taxation and from the operation of any law relating to 8 bankruptcy or insolvency, and shall not be attached or taken upon 9 execution or other process. No assignment of any right in or to said 10 funds, annuities or pensions shall be valid.

1 Section 38. The superior court shall have jurisdiction in equity,
2 upon petition of the commissioner of insurance or any interested party,
3 to compel the observance and to restrain the violation of any provision
4 of sections one to thirty-one, inclusive, and of the rules and regulations 5 established thereunder.

PRIVATE ASSOCIATIONS FOR PROVIDING PENSIONS.

1 Section 39. Employees, officers, and agents of any person and the 2 person by whom they are employed may form an association for the 3 purpose of providing annuities, pensions or endowments for employees
4 retiring from their employment on account of age, under a system by 5 which the participating employees contribute to the funds of the associa-6 tion a percentage or portion of their salaries or wages as fixed by the 7 by-laws of the association, to be deducted by the employer and paid to 8 the association, and the employer contributes to the funds of the associa-
9 tion in the manner and to the extent fixed in said by-laws. The funds so 10 provided shall be held by trustees independently of other funds of the 11 employer, for the purchase or payment of annuities, pensions or endow-12 ments to participating employees upon their retirement from service on 13 account of age, for the payments to the representatives or appointees 14 of any participator dying before reaching the age of retirement, for the 15 payment to any participator retiring from service before becoming en-16 titled to a pension or annuity and for the payment of the expenses of 17 the administration. An association formed under the authority of this 18 section shall not be subject to chapter one hundred and seventy-five or 19 to such other provisions of law as relate to insurance companies or asso-20 ciations, except as provided by this and the following section.

1 Section 40. The by-laws of every such association shall be approved
2 by the commissioner of insurance, and shall prescribe the manner in 3 which and the officers and agents by whom the association may be con-
4 ducted and the manner in which its funds may be invested and paid out.
5 Such association shall be deemed to be formed when its by-laws have 6 been approved and agreed to by the employer and by the employees by 7 vote of two thirds of all employees present and voting at a meeting 8 called by the employer for the purpose, and have been approved by 9 said commissioner. Such association shall annually, on or before Febru-
10 ary first, report to the commissioner such statements of its membership 11 and financial transactions for the year ending on the preceding thirty-first day of December as the commissioner may consider necessary to show its business and standing. Said commissioner may verify such statement by an examination of the books and papers of the association; and whoever, having charge or custody of said books and papers, neglects to comply with this section shall be punished by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars.

Section 41. The property of every such association, the portion of the wages or salary of an employee deducted or to be deducted under the two preceding sections, the right of an employee to an annuity, pension or endowment, and all his rights in the funds of the association, shall be exempt from taxation and from the operation of any law relating to bankruptcy or insolvency, and shall not be attached or taken on execution or other process to satisfy any debt or liability of the employer or of any member of the association.

No assignment of any right in or to said funds or of any pension, annuity or endowment payable under section thirty-nine or forty shall be valid.

Municipal Pensions for Teachers.

Section 42. In any city or town, except Boston, which accepted chapter four hundred and ninety-eight of the acts of nineteen hundred and eight, the pension fund established for the retirement of teachers in the public schools shall be derived from such revenues as may be assigned thereto by the city council of a city or by direct appropriation by a town. The treasurer of the city or town shall be the custodian of the fund, and shall make annual or semi-annual payments therefrom to such persons and of such amounts as shall be certified to him by the school committee.

Section 43. The school committee of any such city or town may retire from active service and place upon the pension roll any teacher of such city or town who is sixty or over or who, in the judgment of said committee, is incapacitated for useful service, and who has faithfully served such city or town for twenty-five years. The amount of the annual pension allowed to any person under this and the preceding section shall not exceed one half of the annual compensation received by such person at the time of such retirement, and in no case shall it exceed five hundred dollars.

Municipal Pensions for School Janitors.

Section 44. The school committee, official, board or other body having control of janitors employed in public schools of cities and towns which accept this section, as provided in the following section, or have accepted corresponding provisions of earlier laws, may retire, with an annual pension, any janitor so employed who has reached the age of sixty, after completing a service of not less than twenty-five years, and is physically incapacitated. The pension shall be one half the compensation to which the pensioner would have been entitled for full employment during the last year of his service, but not more than five hundred dollars a year, and shall be payable out of the appropriation for the support of public schools, maintenance of school buildings or payment of janitors.
PENSIONS FOR PRISON EMPLOYEES.

1 Section 46. The commissioner of correction may, with the approval of the governor and council, retire from active service and place upon a pension roll any officer of the state prison, the Massachusetts reformatory, the prison camp and hospital, the state farm, the reformatory for women, or any jail or house of correction, or any person employed to instruct the prisoners in any prison or reformatory, as provided in section fifty-two of chapter one hundred and twenty-seven, or any other employee of the state prison, the Massachusetts reformatory or the prison camp and hospital, who has attained the age of sixty-five and who has been employed in prison service in the commonwealth, with a good record, for not less than twenty years; or who, without fault of his own, has become permanently disabled by injuries sustained in the performance of his duty; or who has performed faithful prison service for not less than thirty years; provided, that no officer of any jail or house of correction shall so be retired except upon the recommendation of the sheriff and county commissioners of the county, except in the county of Suffolk, where the recommendation as to the officers of the jail shall be made by the sheriff and the mayor of Boston, and, as to the officers of the house of correction, by the penal institutions commissioner and the mayor of Boston; and provided, that no such officer, instructor or employee shall be retired unless he began employment as such in one of the above named institutions, or as an officer or instructor in one of those named in the following section, on or before June seventh, nineteen hundred and eleven. The word "officer", as used in this and the two following sections, shall extend to and include prison officer, correction officer and matron.

1 Section 47. An officer, instructor or employee in any institution named in the preceding section shall, for the purpose of retirement thereunder, be credited with all the time which he has served as such in any of said institutions, or as an officer or instructor at the industrial or Lyman school for boys, the industrial school for girls, the Suffolk school for boys or any county training school, if he has not been discharged for misconduct from any of said institutions, or, if so discharged, it was afterward found that he was not at fault; and the restoration to duty or reappointment in the institution from which he was discharged shall be sufficient evidence for his exoneration.

1 Section 48. An officer, instructor or employee who is retired under section forty-six shall be allowed a pension equal to one half of the salary which he was receiving at his retirement. The pension, in the case of an officer, instructor or employee of the state prison, Massachusetts reformatory, prison camp and hospital, state farm or reformatory for women, shall be paid in monthly instalments by the commonwealth; and in the case of an officer or instructor of a jail or house of correction, the pension shall be paid in monthly instalments by the county.
VETERANS OF THE CIVIL WAR.

Section 49. A veteran of the civil war in the service of the commonwealth, if incapacitated for active duty, shall be retired from active service, with the consent of the governor, at one half the rate of compensation paid to him when in active service, to be paid by the commonwealth; provided, that no veteran shall be retired under this section unless he shall have been in the service of the commonwealth at least ten years. But if, in the opinion of the governor and council, any veteran of the civil war, after five years in said service, is incapacitated to such a degree as to render his retirement necessary for the good of the service, he may so be retired. A veteran otherwise qualified for retirement under this section, whose term of service was for a fixed number of years which has expired, or whose office has been abolished, shall be entitled to its benefits, without reappointment, from the date of incapacitation, said date to be determined by the governor and to be certified by him to the comptroller.

Section 50. A veteran of the civil war in the service of any county, if incapacitated for active duty, may be retired from active service by the county commissioners, with the consent of the governor, at one half the rate of compensation paid to him when in active service, but not to exceed eight hundred dollars a year, to be paid by the county; provided, that no veteran shall be retired under this section unless he shall have been in the service of the county at least ten years and shall have arrived at the age of sixty-five. But if, in the opinion of the governor and council, any veteran of the civil war in said service is incapacitated to such a degree as to render his retirement necessary for the good of the service, he may so be retired at any time.

Section 51. A veteran of the civil war who has been in the service of the soldiers' home in Massachusetts for fifteen years, if incapacitated for active service, may be retired by the trustees of the home, with the consent of the governor and council, at one half the average rate of compensation paid to him during the two years immediately preceding his retirement.

Section 52. A veteran of the civil war who has been in the service of any city or town for ten years, if incapacitated for active duty, may be retired from active service by the city council or the selectmen at one half the rate of the average compensation paid to him during the two years immediately preceding his retirement.

Section 53. A veteran of the civil war who is employed jointly by two municipalities, if incapacitated for active duty, may be retired from active service by the joint action of the governing bodies thereof, whether the city council or selectmen, as the case may be, at one half the rate of the average compensation paid to him during the two years immediately preceding his retirement, one half of the said retiring compensation to be paid by each of the municipalities employing him; provided, that no veteran shall be retired under this section unless he has been in the service of the two municipalities, as aforesaid, for a period of not less than ten years preceding the time of his retirement. But a period of 10 employment by either one of said municipalities immediately preceding 12 his employment by both jointly shall be reckoned as a part of the said 13 ten years.

1 Section 54. The two preceding sections shall be in effect in any 2 city which by vote of the city council or in any town which at a town 3 meeting accepts them or has accepted corresponding provisions of earlier 4 laws.

1 Section 55. The action of any city council in regard either to the 2 acceptance of sections fifty-two and fifty-three or to the retiring of any 3 veteran under authority thereof shall be subject to veto by the mayor 4 and to passage over his veto in the manner provided by the charter of 5 the city.

VETERANS OF SPANISH AND WORLD WARS.

1 Section 56. A person who has served in the army, navy or marine 2 corps of the United States in the Spanish war or Philippine insurrection 3 between April twenty-first, eighteen hundred and ninety-eight, and 4 July fourth, nineteen hundred and two, or in the world war between 5 April sixth, nineteen hundred and seventeen, and November eleventh, 6 nineteen hundred and eighteen, and has been honorably discharged 7 from such service or released from active duty therein, in sections fifty- 8 six to sixty, inclusive, called a veteran, who is in the service of the com- 9 monwealth, or of any county, city, town or district thereof, shall be 10 retired with the consent of the retiring authority, if incapacitated for 11 active service, at one half the regular rate of compensation paid to him 12 at the time of retirement, and payable from the same source; provided, 13 that he has been in the said service at least ten years, has reached the 14 age of fifty, and has a total income from all sources, exclusive of such 15 retirement allowance and of any sum received from the government of 16 the United States as a pension for war service, not exceeding five hundred 17 dollars.

1 Section 57. A veteran who has been in the service of the common- 2 wealth, or of any county, city, town or district thereof, for a total period 3 of ten years, may, upon petition to the retiring authority, be retired, in 4 the discretion of said authority, from active service, at one half the 5 regular rate of compensation paid to him at the time of retirement, and 6 payable from the same source, if he is found by said authority to have 7 become incapacitated for active service; provided, that he has a total 8 income, from all sources, exclusive of such retirement allowance and of 9 any sum received from the government of the United States as a pension 10 for war service, not exceeding five hundred dollars.

1 Section 58. A veteran who has been in the service of the common- 2 wealth, or of any county, city, town or district, for a total period of 3 thirty years, shall, at his own request, with the approval of the retiring 4 authority, be retired from active service at one half the regular rate of 5 compensation paid to him at the time of retirement, and payable from 6 the same source.

1 Section 59. The words "retiring authority", as used in sections "Retiring 2 authority" defined.
PENSIONS.

Section 60. Sections fifty-six to fifty-nine, inclusive, shall not take effect in any county, city, town or district until accepted by the retiring authority of the particular county, city, town or district, nor shall they apply to veterans who are members of the police department of Boston.

Section 60A. A person who has served as an army nurse in the Spanish war or Philippine insurrection between April twenty-first, eighteen hundred and ninety-eight and July fourth, nineteen hundred and two, or in the world war between April sixth, nineteen hundred and seventeen and November eleventh, nineteen hundred and eighteen, and has been honorably discharged from such service or released from active duty therein, and who is in the service of the commonwealth, or who is in the service of any city, town or district which by its retiring authority, as defined in section fifty-six, has accepted the provisions of sections fifty-six to fifty-nine, inclusive, and shall hereafter accept the provisions of this section, shall have and enjoy the same rights and privileges of retirement as are conferred by said sections fifty-six to fifty-nine, inclusive, upon veterans, as defined in section fifty-six, who are in such public service.

PENSIONS FOR JUSTICES AND COURT OFFICERS.

Section 61. Any justice of the supreme judicial court appointed before June tenth, nineteen hundred and twenty-three, or any judge of probate and insolvency appointed before July second, nineteen hundred and twenty-one, who, having attained the age of seventy and having served as such for at least ten consecutive years, shall resign his office, or who shall be retired under Article LVIII of the amendments to the constitution, shall thereupon be entitled to receive a pension at an annual rate equal to three fourths the annual rate of salary payable to him immediately prior to said June tenth in case he resigns or is retired from the office of justice of the supreme judicial court, or immediately prior to December first, nineteen hundred and twenty-six in case he resigns or is retired from the office of judge of probate and insolvency, to be paid by the commonwealth in the same manner as the salaries of justices or judges of said courts.

Section 62. Any justice of the supreme judicial court appointed before June tenth, nineteen hundred and twenty-three, or any judge of probate and insolvency appointed before July second, nineteen hundred and twenty-one, who, having attained the age of sixty and having served as such for at least fifteen consecutive years, shall have become disabled for the full performance of his duties as such justice or judge by reason of illness or otherwise, may, with the approval of the governor and council, resign his office, and shall thereupon be entitled to receive the same pension as provided in the preceding section, payable in the manner provided therein.
Section 63. Any justice of the supreme judicial court appointed on or after June tenth, nineteen hundred and twenty-three, or any justice of the superior court or judge of the land court whenever appointed, or any judge of probate and insolvency appointed on or after July second, nine-hundred and twenty-one, who shall be retired under Article LVIII of the amendments to the constitution shall on retirement be entitled to receive a pension at an annual rate equal to one half the annual rate of salary which a like justice or judge was entitled to receive immediately prior to the effective date of chapter six hundred and twenty-seven of the acts of nineteen hundred and twenty in case of the retirement of such a justice of the supreme judicial court or a justice of the superior court or judge of the land court, or immediately prior to said July second in case of the retirement of such a judge of probate and insolvency, to be paid by the commonwealth in the same manner as the salaries of justices or judges of said courts. Sections one to five, inclusive, shall not apply to justices or judges of any of said courts.

Section 64. The chief justice and any associate justice of the munici-al court of the city of Boston who shall be retired under Article LVIII of the amendments to the constitution shall on retirement be entitled to receive a pension at an annual rate equal to one half the annual rate of salary which a like justice was entitled to receive immediately prior to the effective date of chapter six hundred and fourteen of the acts of nine-hundred and twenty, to be paid by the county of Suffolk in the same manner in which the salaries of acting justices are paid; provided, that the foregoing shall not apply in case of the retirement as aforesaid of any such justice who shall have been a member of the Boston retirement system, established under chapter five hundred and twenty-one of the acts of nineteen hundred and twenty-two.

Section 65. Any justice of a district court, other than the municipal court of the city of Boston, appointed before July second, nineteen hundred and twenty-one, who shall have reached the age of seventy and shall have served as a justice of such court for at least twenty consecutive years, may, with the approval of the governor and council, resign his office, and any such justice who so resigns, or any justice of any such court appointed as aforesaid who shall be retired under Article LVIII of the amendments to the constitution, shall thereupon be entitled to receive a pension at an annual rate equal to three fourths the annual rate of salary payable to him immediately prior to January first, nineteen hundred and twenty-four, to be paid in the same manner in which the salaries of acting justices are paid. Any justice of any such court appointed on or after July second, nineteen hundred and twenty-one, who shall be retired under said Article LVIII, shall on retirement be entitled to receive a pension at an annual rate equal to one half the annual rate of salary which the justice of said court was entitled to receive immediately prior to said July second, and payable in like manner; provided, that the foregoing shall not apply in case of the retirement as aforesaid of any such justice appointed on or after said July second who shall have been a member of the Boston retirement system established under chapter five hundred and twenty-one of the acts of nineteen hundred and twenty-two. Sections twenty to twenty-five, inclusive, shall not apply to the justices of such district courts.
SECTION 66. Any court officer of the supreme judicial or superior court who, in the judgment of the sheriff of his county, is disabled for useful service in either of said courts, and who is certified by a physician, designated by the sheriff, to be permanently incapacitated, either mentally or physically, by injuries sustained through no fault of his own, in the actual performance of his duty in said court, and any court officer of either of said courts who has performed faithful service in either or both of said courts for not less than twenty years, and who in the judgment of the sheriff of his county is incapacitated for further service in said courts, shall, if the sheriff so requests, with the approval of a majority of the justices of the court in which he serves, be retired, and shall annually receive a pension equal to one half of the compensation received by him at the time of his retirement.

SECTION 67. Pensions granted under the preceding section and all expenses connected therewith shall be paid by the commonwealth and the several counties to the same extent and in the same proportion as the salaries of the pensioners were paid at the time of their retirement.

PENSIONS FOR STATE POLICE.

SECTION 68. Any officer or inspector of the department of public safety, who began continuous service prior to July first, nineteen hundred and twenty-one, if in the judgment of the commissioner of public safety he is disabled for useful service in the department and a physician designated by said commissioner certifies that he is permanently incapacitated, either physically or mentally, for the further performance of his duty in the department, by injuries sustained through no fault of his own in the actual performance of his duty, or any such officer or inspector of said department who has performed continuous faithful service for the commonwealth for not less than twenty years, if in the judgment of said commissioner he is incapacitated for further service as a member of the department, shall, if he so requests, be retired, and shall annually receive a pension from the commonwealth equal to one half the compensation received by him at the time of his retirement. Said commissioner may in an emergency call upon any person so pensioned for such temporary service as a member of the department as he may be fitted to perform, and during such service there shall be paid to him the difference between the rate of full pay for such employment and the rate of pension received by him. Any former inspector of the district police transferred to the state board of labor and industries under authority of section eight of chapter twenty seven hundred and twenty-six of the acts of nineteen hundred and twenty twelve shall, for the purposes of this section, be deemed an inspector of the department of public safety.

PENSIONS FOR METROPOLITAN POLICE.

SECTION 69. The metropolitan district commission shall, at the request of any permanent member of its police department who began continuous service prior to July first, nineteen hundred and twenty-one, if in the judgment of said commission he is disabled for useful service in said department, retire from active service and place upon a pension roll such member if a physician selected by the commission certifies in writing that he is permanently disabled, either mentally or physically, by injuries sustained through no fault of his own in the actual performance 9 of his duty, from further performing duty as such member, or any such 10 permanent member of said department who has performed faithful 11 continuous service therein for not less than twenty years, if in the judg-
12 ment of the commission said member is incapacitated for useful service 13 as a police officer; and every member so retired shall annually receive 14 as a pension one half the amount of compensation received by him at the 15 time of his retirement. The commission may in case of emergency 16 call upon any person pensioned under this section for such temporary 17 service as a police officer as he may be fitted to perform, and during such 18 service there shall be paid to him the difference between the rate of full 19 pay for such employment and the rate of pension received by him.

1 Section 70. The commission may, at the request of any call officer,
2 if in its judgment he is disabled for useful service as such call officer, re-
3 tire him from active service and place him upon the pension roll; pro-
4 vided, that a physician selected by the commission certifies in writing
5 that such officer is permanently disabled, either mentally or physically, 6 and that by reason of injuries sustained through no fault of his in the 7 actual performance of his duty as a call officer he is unable further to 8 perform his duty as such officer; and every member so retired shall 9 annually receive a pension equivalent to one half of what his annual 10 compensation for continuous service throughout the year would have 11 been at the rate of pay he received from said commission at the time he 12 received the injury.

1 Section 71. Subject to the requirement of election set forth in the 2 last paragraph of section eighty-nine, if any permanent or call officer of 3 said police department is killed or dies within one year from injuries re-4 ceived while in the performance of his duty as such officer and it shall be 5 proved to the satisfaction of the commission that such death was the 6 natural and proximate result of an accident occurring during the per-7 formance and within the scope of his duty as such officer and the attending 8 physician or medical examiner shall certify to the state treasurer that 9 the death was the direct result of the said injury, there shall be paid to 10 the following dependents of such deceased officer the following annuities:
11 To the widow, so long as she remains unmarried, an annuity not exceeding 12 one thousand dollars a year, increased by not exceeding two hundred 13 dollars for each child of such deceased person during such time as such 14 child is under the age of eighteen or over said age and physically or men-
15 tally incapacitated from earning; and, if there is any such child and no 16 widow or the widow later dies, such an annuity as would have been pay-
17 able to the widow had there been one or had she lived, to or for the benefit 18 of such child, or of such children in equal shares, during the time afore-19 said; and, if there is any such child and the widow remarries, in lieu of 20 the aforesaid annuity to her, an annuity not exceeding two hundred and 21 sixty dollars to or for the benefit of each such child during the time afore-22 said; and, if there is no widow and no such child, an annuity not ex-
23 ceeding one thousand dollars to or for the benefit of the father or mother 24 of the deceased if dependent upon him for support at the time of his death, 25 during such time as such beneficiary is unable to support himself or her-26 self and does not remarry. The total amount of all such annuities shall 27 not exceed the annual rate of compensation received by such deceased
28 officer at the date of his death, except that if he was a call officer, said 29 total amount shall not exceed the annual rate of compensation payable Section 72. Pensions and annuities granted under the three preceding sections and any expenses connected therewith shall, except as hereinafter provided, be paid out of the appropriations for the Metropolitan Parks Maintenance Fund; provided, that such pensions, annuities and expenses shall not be paid out of any general appropriations made for the maintenance of reservations or boulevards under the care and control of said commission, but shall be provided for by specific appropriations for the purpose. Pensions or annuities paid on account of disability or death of officers assigned to duty under the commissioner of public safety shall be paid out of the ordinary revenue of the commonwealth.

Section 73. [Repealed, 1931, 426, § 148.]

Pensions for Scrubwomen.

Section 74. Any woman who entered the continuous employ of the superintendent of buildings or the sergeant-at-arms as a cleaner and scrubwoman prior to July first, nineteen hundred and twenty-one, if she has reached the age of sixty and has been in such employ for not less than fifteen years and has become physically or mentally incapacitated for labor, or any such employee if she has been in such employ for not less than ten years and has become physically or mentally incapacitated for labor by reason of any injury received in the performance of her duties, may, with the approval of the superintendent, be retired from service, and if so retired she shall receive from the commonwealth the sum of three dollars per week.

Pensions for Probation Officers.

Section 75. Any probation officer or assistant probation officer whose whole time is given to the duties of his office shall, at his request, be retired from active service and placed upon a pension roll by the court upon which it is his duty to attend, with the approval of the county commissioners of the county in which the court is situated; provided, that he is certified in writing by a physician designated by such court to be permanently disabled, mentally or physically, for further service by reason of injuries or illness sustained or incurred through no fault of his in the actual performance of his duty as such officer. Any such probation officer or assistant probation officer who has faithfully performed his duties for not less than twenty consecutive years, and who is not less than sixty, shall be retired at his request without the aforesaid certification. Such probation officer must be retired upon attaining the age of seventy.

Section 76. Every person retired under the preceding section shall receive an annual pension equal to one half of the compensation received...
3 by him at the time of his retirement, to be paid by the county employ-
4 ing him, or, if he is employed by more than one county, by the counties
5 by which his salary is paid, and in the same proportion.

PENSIONS FOR LABORERS.

1 Section 77. (a) Any laborer in the employ of a city or town, except 2 Boston, which accepted chapter five hundred and three of the acts of 3 nineteen hundred and twelve, who has reached the age of sixty and has 4 been in such employ for not less than twenty-five years and has become 5 physically or mentally incapacitated for labor, and any laborer in the 6 employ of such city or town who has been in such employ for not less
7 than fifteen years and has become physically or mentally incapacitated 8 for labor by reason of any injury received in the performance of his 9 duties for such city or town may, at his request, in cities, with the ap-10 prove of the mayor, or in towns, with the approval of the selectmen, 11 be retired from service; and if so retired he shall receive from the city
12 or town for the remainder of his life an annual pension equal to one half 13 of the annual compensation paid to him as a laborer at his retirement.
14 Any laborer in the employ of such city or town who has reached the age 15 of sixty-five and has been in such employ for not less than twenty-five 16 years, including the time when incapacitated by reason of sickness, not 17 exceeding two years in the aggregate, as certified by a physician in 18 regular standing, shall be retired from service, and shall receive from 19 the city or town an annual pension computed in the manner herein-20 before set forth.

21 (b) In any such city or town which accepts or has accepted this para-22 graph or corresponding provisions of earlier laws, "laborers" shall in-from the district an annual pension computed in the manner herein-before set forth. This section shall take effect in any fire or water district if accepted by the district at a meeting.

Section 79. All pensions which were payable under chapter five hundred and three of the acts of nineteen hundred and twelve or chapter six hundred and seventy-one of the acts of nineteen hundred and thirteen by any city or town to former employees of a fire or water district therein which accepted chapter three hundred and fifty-two of the acts of nineteen hundred and fourteen at the annual meeting of the district held next after the passage thereof, shall be paid by the district.

PENSIONS FOR FIREMEN IN CITIES.

Section 80. In cities, except Boston, which accept this and the following section or have accepted corresponding provisions of earlier laws by vote of the city council, the fire commissioner in cities having such an official, otherwise the aldermen, in all cases with the approval of the mayor, shall retire from active service and place upon the pension roll any fireman, call fireman or substitute call fireman of the city whom the city physician certifies in writing to be permanently disabled, mentally or physically, by injuries sustained or illness incurred through no fault of his own in the actual performance of duty, from further performing duty as such member; or any permanent member of said department who has performed faithful service therein for not less than twenty-five years as such or as a call member and permanent member of said department, if in the judgment of said board or official such member is disabled for useful service in the department; provided, that any permanent member of said department who has performed faithful service therein for twenty-five years as aforesaid and has attained the age of sixty shall be retired at his request. Any acceptance of this and the following section may be limited by the vote of acceptance to any one or more of the classes of firemen hereinbefore set forth.

Section 81. Any permanent member of a fire department retired under the preceding section shall receive an annual pension, payable monthly, equal to one half of the annual salary or other compensation received by him at his retirement. The pension of any call or substitute call fireman retired under said section shall be the same as that of a permanent member of the first grade of the same department in which he served, or, if there be no grades, his compensation shall be that of a permanent member of the department performing duties like those which he performed.

Section 82. All call members of fire departments of cities, except Boston, which accept this section or have accepted corresponding provisions of earlier laws, by vote of the city council, with the approval of the mayor, who were retired for disability previous to May twenty-third, nineteen hundred and thirteen, shall receive the same pension provided for call members of fire departments placed on the retired list under section eighty.
PENSIONS FOR POLICE AND FIREMEN.

Section 83. In every city, except Boston, which, by vote of its city council, accepts this section or has accepted corresponding provisions of earlier laws, the mayor and aldermen, or the board of police where such a board is established, shall, at his own request or at the request of the chief or superintendent of police if, in the judgment of said board or officer, he is disabled for useful service in said department, retire from active service and place upon a pension roll any member of the police department of such city whom the city physician of such city certifies in writing to be permanently disabled, mentally or physically, by injuries sustained through no fault of his own in the actual performance of duty, from further performing duty as such member, or any member of said department who has performed faithful service therein for not less than twenty years continuously if, in the judgment of said board or officer, such member is disabled for useful service in the department; and every member so retired shall annually receive as a pension one half the amount of compensation received by him at his retirement, such amount to be paid by the city, which shall appropriate money therefor.

Section 84. In cities which, by vote of the city council, and in towns which, by vote of the inhabitants at an annual town meeting, accept this section, or have accepted corresponding provisions of earlier laws, and which have not established a system of pensions for the members of its police department, the board or officer having authority to make appointments to the police department shall retire from further service therein any member of said department whom the city or town physician and two other physicians certify to be permanently incapacitated, physically or mentally, by injuries sustained in the actual performance of duty in the department. A member who is so retired shall annually receive as a pension one half the compensation received by him at his retirement.

Section 85. The selectmen of every town which accepts this section or has accepted corresponding provisions of earlier laws by a two thirds vote at an annual town meeting shall retire from active service and place upon the pension roll any permanent member of the police department and any permanent member of the fire department of such town found by them to be permanently incapacitated, mentally or physically, for useful service in the department to which he belongs, by injuries received through no fault of his own in the actual performance of his duty. They may also retire and place upon the pension roll any permanent member of either of said departments who has performed faithful service in the department for not less than twenty-five years continuously, and is not less than sixty. If a permanent member of the police department of such a town was, prior to the establishment of a police department therein, employed in said town as a police officer by appointment under section ninety-six of chapter forty-one, the period of such appointment shall be counted as a part of his continuous service as a permanent member of its police department. Every person so retired shall annually receive from... the town as a pension a sum equal to one half of the annual compensation received by him at his retirement. The selectmen may in an emergency call upon any person so pensioned for such temporary service in the department from which he was retired as they may deem him fitted to perform, and during such service he shall be entitled to full pay.

SECTION 85A. Upon the acceptance of this section by a town at its annual town meeting by a two thirds vote, the provisions of section eighty-five relative to the retirement of permanent members of the fire department for incapacity shall apply to call members of its fire department, except that a call member retired hereunder shall annually receive from the town a pension at such rate, not exceeding five hundred dollars a year, as the town may authorize.

SECTION 86. Any police officer lawfully retired and pensioned after May nineteenth, nineteen hundred and thirteen, who accepts another appointment or employment as a police officer or police official in any city or town, shall not receive a pension during such time as he shall hold the new appointment or employment.

SECTION 87A. [Inserted, 1924, 504, § 2; repealed, 1928, 402, § 4.]

SECTION 88. The selectmen of any town which accepts this section or has accepted corresponding provisions of earlier laws by a two thirds vote at an annual town meeting may pay to the widow of any person aiding a police officer in the discharge of his duty by the order or request of such officer or any of the authorities of the town, or to the widow of a person doing fire duty at the request or by the order of the authorities of the town, if it has no organized fire department, or of a person performing the duties of a fireman in such town, who dies from injuries received through no fault of his own in the actual performance of his duty, a pension not exceeding three hundred dollars a year while such widow remains unmarried, or, if there is no widow, a pension not exceeding said sum for the benefit of any of the children under sixteen of such deceased person while any such child is under the age of sixteen, and the selectmen of such town may determine the amount of such pension within said limits. No payments shall be made under this section on account of any death in respect to which compensation is payable under section eighty-nine.

SECTION 89. If a member of the police or fire force of a city or town, or a member of the department of public safety doing police duty, is killed, or dies within one year from injuries received, while in the performance of his duty as such member and it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the mayor and city council or selectmen, or of the commissioner of public safety subject to the approval of the governor and council, as the case may be, that such death was the natural and proximate result of an accident occurring during the performance and within the scope of his duty as such member, and the attending physician or medical examiner shall certify to the city, town or state treasurer, as the case may be, that the death was the direct result of the said injury, there shall be paid except as hereinafter provided, out of the city, town or state treasury, as the case may be, to the following dependents of such deceased person the following annuities: To the widow, so long as she remains unmarried, an annuity not exceeding one thousand dollars a year, increased by not exceeding two hundred dollars for each child of such deceased person during such time as such child is under the age of eighteen or over said age and physically or mentally incapacitated from earning; and, if there is any such child and no widow or the widow later dies, such an annuity as would have been payable to the widow had there been one or had she lived, to or for the benefit of such child, or of such children in equal shares, during the time aforesaid; and, if there is any such child and the widow remarries, in lieu of the aforesaid annuity to her, an annuity not exceeding two hundred and sixty dollars to or for the benefit of each such child during the time aforesaid; and, if there is no widow and no such child, an annuity not exceeding one thousand dollars to or for the benefit of the father or mother of the deceased if dependent upon him for support at the time of his death, during such time as such beneficiary is unable to support himself or herself and does not remarry. The total amount of all such annuities shall not exceed the annual rate of compensation received by such deceased person at the date of his death, except that if such deceased person was a reserve or special policeman or a reserve or call fireman of a city or town and, at the time he was killed or at the time he received the injuries resulting in his death, was performing duty to which he was assigned or called as such policeman or fireman and for the performance of which he was entitled to compensation from said city or town, the total amount of all such annuities shall not exceed the annual rate of compensation payable to a regular or permanent member of the police or fire force thereof, as the case may be, for the first year of service therein, and if there are no regular or permanent members of the police or fire force thereof, as the case may be, said total amount shall not exceed the sum of one thousand dollars. The amount of any such annuity shall from time to time be determined within the limits aforesaid by the mayor and city council, the selectmen, or the commissioner of public safety subject to the approval of the governor and council, as the case may be.

In case the deceased was a member of a contributory retirement system for public employees, the benefits provided under this section shall be in the alternative for the benefits, if any, provided by such retirement system for dependent widows and children or for dependent fathers or mothers; and the widow, or if there is no widow, the legal representative of the children entitled thereto, if any, otherwise the father or mother in the order named, shall elect which benefits shall be granted. Such election shall be made in writing and shall be filed with the retirement board in charge of the system of which the deceased was a member and shall not be subject to change or revocation after the first payment of any benefit thereunder.

Section 90. Sections forty-two A and forty-two B of chapter thirty-one and section three of chapter two hundred and forty-two of the acts of nineteen hundred and twenty-three shall not apply in cities to the retirement on pension of members of police departments who are over seventy years of age. Aged police officers not subject to certain laws. 1916, 113, § 1. 1931, 426, § 62.
MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

Section 91. No person while receiving a pension or an annuity from the commonwealth, or from any county, city or town, except teachers who on March thirty-first, nineteen hundred and sixteen, were receiving annuities not exceeding one hundred and eighty dollars per annum, shall, after the date of the first payment of such annuity or pension, be paid for any service rendered to the commonwealth, county, city or town which pays such pension or annuity, except for jury service or for service rendered in an emergency under section sixty-eight, sixty-nine or eighty-three, or for service in a public office to which he has been elected by the direct vote of the people.

Section 92. Any pledge, mortgage, sale, assignment or transfer of any right, claim or interest in any pension, annuity or retirement allowance from the commonwealth or any county, city, or town shall be void. Whoever is a party to such pledge, mortgage, sale, assignment or transfer of any right, claim or interest in any pension, annuity or retirement allowance or pension certificate from the commonwealth or any county, city or town, or holds the same as collateral security for any debt or promise, or upon any pretext of such security or promise, shall be punished by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars. If a person receiving a pension, annuity or retirement allowance becomes a charge upon the commonwealth, or any county, city or town thereof, the expense incurred by the commonwealth, or any such county, city or town, for his maintenance and support shall, unless otherwise paid, be deducted from such pension, annuity or retirement allowance as it becomes due and payable, and the amount of such deduction shall thereupon be paid to the department, board, commission or officer by whom or under whose authority such expense was incurred.

Section 93. Persons who, at the time when chapter three hundred and fifty of the General Acts of nineteen hundred and nineteen took effect, were appointed to or employed by an office, board, commission or other governmental organization or agency abolished by said chapter and were appointed to positions in any of the departments established thereby shall retain all rights to retirement with pension that had accrued or would thereafter accrue to them, and their services shall be deemed to have been continuous as if said chapter had not been passed.

Definitions—UNORGANIZED MILITIA.

Section 1. In this chapter except as otherwise provided herein, the word “soldier”, or the words “enlisted man”, shall include musicians and all persons, except commissioned officers, in the volunteer or reserve militia, including both land and naval forces; and the word “company” shall include battery, troop, naval division and such other units as may be determined by the commander-in-chief to come under such designation.

UNORGANIZED MILITIA.

Section 2. Subject to the following section, every able-bodied male citizen, and every able-bodied male of foreign birth who has declared his intention to become a citizen, resident within the commonwealth, of the age of eighteen and under the age of forty-five, shall be enrolled in the militia. In all cases of doubt respecting the age of a person enrolled, the burden of proof shall be upon him.

Section 3. Persons exempted from military service by the laws of the United States shall be exempt from such enrolment.

Section 4. Every person of the religious denomination of Quakers or Shakers conscientiously scrupulous of bearing arms shall, if such conscientious belief is established as provided by the laws of the United States, be exempt from service in the militia in a combatant capacity.

Section 5. The militia shall consist of two classes, namely, the organized militia, to be known as the Massachusetts volunteer militia,
Section 6. Assessors shall annually, in April or May, make a report of the number of persons living within their respective limits liable to enrolment, and shall place a certified copy thereof in the hands of the clerks of their respective towns, who shall place it on file with the records of such town, and annually, in May, June or July, transmit reports of the number of such persons to the adjutant general.

Section 7. Keepers of taverns or boarding houses, and masters and mistresses of dwelling houses, shall, upon application of the assessors or of persons acting under them, give information of the persons residing in their houses, liable to enrolment or to military service and every such person shall, upon like application, give his name and age. Any such keeper, master or mistress violating this section shall forfeit twenty dollars, and any person liable to enrolment or to military service guilty of such violation shall forfeit twelve dollars, to be recovered on complaint of any of the assessors.

Section 8. When necessary to call out any part of the unorganized militia for active duty, the commander-in-chief shall direct his order to the aldermen or to the selectmen, who shall forthwith, by written order or oral notice to each individual, or by proclamation, appoint a time and place for the assembling of the unorganized militia in their town, and shall then and there draft as many thereof, or accept as many volunteers, as are required by the order of the commander-in-chief, and shall forthwith forward to him a list of the persons so drafted or accepted as volunteers.

Section 9. The part of the unorganized militia so drafted or accepted shall immediately be mustered under the orders of the commander-in-chief into the service of the commonwealth for three years, or for such less period as he may direct, and shall be organized into new units, or assigned to organizations of the volunteer militia then existing. Such new organizations shall be officered, equipped, trained and governed according to the laws for the government of the volunteer militia. In such new organizations, the commander-in-chief may detail officers to train and command them until their officers shall have qualified. Every member of the unorganized militia who volunteers or is drafted, who does not appear to be mustered in as required by the orders of the commander-in-chief, or does not produce a sworn certificate from a physician in good standing, of physical disability so to appear, shall be taken to be a deserter.

Volunteer or Organized Militia.

Section 10. The active or organized militia shall be composed of 2 volunteers.

Active militia. Composition.

SECTION 11. (a) The Massachusetts volunteer militia shall comprise the staff of the commander-in-chief, the land forces and naval forces.

(b) Sections one to seventy-eight, inclusive, shall apply to all persons, including all parts of the volunteer militia and the unorganized militia.

(c) Sections seventy-nine to one hundred and seventy-eight, inclusive, shall apply to all persons except the naval forces (including an officer of the naval forces detailed as aide on the staff of the commander-in-chief) and except such part of the unorganized militia as may under sections eight and nine be called out for active service as a part of the naval forces.

(d) Sections one hundred and seventy-nine to one hundred and eighty-eight, inclusive, shall apply to all persons except the staff of the commander-in-chief (not including an aide detailed from the naval forces), and except the land forces and such part of the unorganized militia as may under sections eight and nine be called out for active service as a part of the land forces.

COMMANDER-IN-CHIEF.

SECTION 12. The commander-in-chief may raise volunteer companies or detachments, as he deems necessary, or when they are needed to maintain the forces of the commonwealth at the strength and of the composition required or permitted by law.

SECTION 13. He may, to recruit the Massachusetts volunteer militia, appoint provisional officers for such units as he may from time to time create, by orders in accordance with this chapter. Such provisional officers, subject to removal by the commander-in-chief and until their successors are qualified as provided by the constitution and laws of the commonwealth, shall exercise the same military authority over their several commands as is specified in the said laws for duly chosen officers of the organized militia.

SECTION 14. Such provisional officers may be appointed before the enlisted personnel of the units to which they are assigned are enlisted and mustered and may be designated as enlisting and mustering officers of the respective units to which they are assigned.

SECTION 15. He may from time to time prescribe in orders the organization of the Massachusetts volunteer militia, the designation and location of all units, and the numbers, titles, grades and duties of all officers and enlisted men as he deems the interest of the service demands; provided, that the organization shall not conflict with the laws of the United States relating to the organized militia. He shall, subject to the constitution and laws of the commonwealth, direct how such officers and enlisted men shall be appointed to office or to specific duty.
1 Section 16. He may, subject to the laws of the United States, disband any company of the volunteer militia falling below the proper standard of efficiency.

Commander-in-chief may disband inefficient company.

1 Section 17. He may order out any part of the volunteer militia for escort and other duties.

May order out militia for escort duty, etc.

1 Section 18. The governor, under such regulations as he may prescribe, with the consent of the council, may exclude traffic from highways during target practice or maneuvers of the Massachusetts volunteer militia, whenever he deems that public convenience or safety so requires.

Exclusion of traffic from highways, etc.

1 Section 19. The commander-in-chief may make regulations for the government of the militia in accordance with law, and may publish them with a sufficient index. He shall cause copies of this chapter, with such amendments as may be made from time to time, to be published for the information and use of the volunteer militia, with a sufficient index for every such publication, and copies sufficient for the proper supply of the several commands of the volunteer militia shall be printed and issued by the adjutant general.

May make regulations and publish militia law, etc.

1 Section 20. The governor, with the advice and consent of the council, may transfer any or all organizations, departments or staff corps of the Massachusetts volunteer militia to such United States volunteer military or naval force, other than the regular army or navy, as the congress of the United States may at any time authorize, and commission or enlistment in such United States force shall entitle officers and men to an honorable discharge from the Massachusetts volunteer militia; but no organization shall be transferred by the governor to such United States force if a majority of the officers and enlisted men of the organization shall by vote reject such proposed transfer within thirty days after notice to the commanding officer thereof by the governor of his proposal to so transfer. This section shall not affect the right of any officer to be retired under the provisions of this chapter. Any officer or enlisted man of any organization that has been transferred to such United States force, not electing to enter the said force, shall be entitled to receive an honorable discharge from the Massachusetts volunteer militia, if such discharge would not contravene any law of the United States.

Transfer of organizations, etc.

1 Section 21. The governor, with the advice and consent of the council, may lease to, or permit to be used by, any United States volunteer military or naval force, authorized by the congress of the United States, military or naval force belonging to the commonwealth, upon such terms and conditions as will fully protect the commonwealth against expense.

Lease, etc., of property to United States, etc.

Section 22. The staff of the commander-in-chief shall be appointed by him and shall consist of:

One adjutant general with the grade of brigadier general;

Three aides-de-camp, one with the rank of lieutenant colonel and two with the rank of major;

Eight aides-de-camp, to be detailed annually from the commissioned officers of the Massachusetts volunteer militia, but not to be relieved from duty with their organizations while serving in that capacity.

In case of war, actual or threatened, the commander-in-chief may appoint such additional staff officers as the service may require, with such grade, not higher than that of colonel, as he may designate, and he may delegate to or confer on such staff officers such authority and duties as he deems proper.

The staff officers aforesaid, excepting the detailed aides-de-camp, shall be commissioned and hold office until their successors are qualified, but they may be removed at any time by the commander-in-chief.

No person shall be eligible to appointment on said staff unless he has served at least six years in the volunteer militia of the commonwealth, at least two years of which shall have been as a commissioned officer, or has had equivalent active service in the army or navy of the United States, or in the organized militia of other states.

During the absence or disability of the chief of any staff corps or department, or when he is called into the service of the United States, the commander-in-chief may in orders designate some officer to perform his duties.

The commander-in-chief may detail from the officers of the land forces a military council which, subject to his authority, shall determine the policies of the land forces; and he may appoint or detail from the officers of the naval forces a naval militia bureau in the department of naval militia, which, subject to his authority, shall determine the policies of the naval forces.

The adjutant general shall be, ex officio, a member of the military council, and of the naval militia bureau in the department of naval militia.

Section 23. The adjutant general shall be charged with carrying out the policies of the commander-in-chief and the military council as to the land forces, and shall issue orders in the name of the commander-in-chief. The department of naval militia shall be charged with carrying out the policies of the commander-in-chief as to the naval forces, and shall issue orders under the authority of the commander-in-chief. Except in those cases where by law or regulations specific powers are conferred on the adjutant general as such, he shall have no authority independently of the commander-in-chief, from whom his orders shall be considered as emanating, and the acts of the adjutant general and the department of naval militia shall be regarded as in execution of the orders of the commander-in-chief.

All orders and instructions, and all regulations for the government of the militia and of the officers and enlisted men therein, shall be issued by and communicated to the commands and individuals in the military service through the adjutant general and the department of naval militia.

The adjutant general shall make such returns and reports as may be prescribed by the commander-in-chief or required by the laws or regulations of the commonwealth or of the United States.
1 Section 24. The adjutant general shall receive a salary of forty-one hundred dollars. He may detail such officers of appropriate rank and may employ such clerks and other assistants as may be necessary in his department at an expense not exceeding the amount annually appropriated therefor.

2 Section 25. The commander-in-chief shall call out the volunteer militia to repel an invasion or to suppress an insurrection made or threatened. If such invasion, insurrection or imminent danger thereof is so suddenly received and executed, a brigade commander in that part of the commonwealth may order out his brigade, or any part thereof.

5 Section 26. In case of a tumult, riot, mob or a body of persons acting together by force to violate or resist the laws of the commonwealth, or when such tumult, riot or mob is threatened, or in case of public catastrophe or when the usual police provisions are inadequate to preserve order and afford protection to persons and property, and the fact appears to the commander-in-chief, to the sheriff of a county, to the mayor of a city or to the selectmen of a town, the commander-in-chief may issue his order, or such sheriff, mayor or selectmen may issue a precept, directed to any commander of a brigade, regiment, naval brigade or battalion, battalion, squadron, corps of cadets or company, within the jurisdiction of the officer issuing such order or precept, directing him to order his command, or any part thereof, to appear at a time and place therein specified to aid the civil authority in suppressing such violations and supporting the laws; which precept shall be in substance as follows:

Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

To (insert the officer's title) A. B., commanding (insert his command).

Whereas, It appears to (the sheriff, mayor or the selectmen) of (the county, city or town) of , that (here state one or more of the causes above mentioned) in our of , and that military force is necessary to aid the civil authority in suppressing the same: Now, therefore, we command you that you cause (the command or such part thereof as may be desired), armed and equipped with ammunition and with proper officers, to parade at , on then and there to obey such orders as may be given according to law. Hereof fail not at your peril, and have you there this precept with your doings returned thereon.

15 This precept shall be signed by the sheriff, mayor or selectmen, and may be varied to suit the circumstances of the case; and a copy of the same shall immediately be forwarded by the sheriff, mayor or selectmen to the commander-in-chief.

1 Section 27. The officer to whom the order of the commander-in-chief of assistant is directed shall forthwith order the troops therein called for to parade at the time and place appointed, and shall immediately notify the commander-in-chief of his order, in the most expeditious manner, and also by letter through the usual military channels.

Penalty for disobedience.

SECTION 28. If an officer neglects or refuses to obey such order or precept, or if any officer or soldier fails to obey an order issued in pursuance thereof, he shall be punished as a court-martial may direct.

Troops to appear armed, etc.

SECTION 29. Such troops shall appear at the time and place appointed, armed, equipped, and with ball ammunition, and shall obey and execute such orders as they have received, or such additional orders as they may then and there or thereafter receive from the commander-in-chief, or from an officer or magistrate acting under section twenty-five or twenty-six.

Additional orders to be in writing when practicable, etc.

SECTION 30. Whenever practicable all orders issued under the preceding section shall, at the request of the officers to whom addressed, be in writing and signed by the officers or magistrates issuing the same.

No liability for acts under orders.

Such orders shall set forth the purpose to be accomplished by the military officer to whom addressed, but shall not prescribe the military measures to be used or the orders to be issued by said officer, who shall use such measures and issue such orders as he deems necessary to accomplish the purpose indicated.

Expense of service at call of sheriff, mayor, etc., how collected.

SECTION 31. No officer or soldier shall be liable, either civilly or criminally, for any injury to persons or property caused by him or by his order, while serving under section twenty-five or twenty-six and acting in obedience to and in execution of any orders received from the persons, and in the manner, prescribed by this chapter, unless the act or order causing such injury was manifestly beyond the scope of the authority of such officer or soldier.

Expense of service at call of sheriff, mayor, etc., how collected.

SECTION 32. Upon the termination of any service of the land or naval forces at the call of the sheriff of a county, the mayor of a city or the selectmen of a town, under the seven preceding sections, the adjutant general shall certify to the state treasurer the expense of said service, and the state treasurer shall thereupon assess said expense upon any such city or town as an addition to its share of the state tax next to be assessed, or shall collect said expense from the treasurer of any such county, as the case may be.

Additional force to be taken from unorganized militia, when.

SECTION 33. When the entire organized militia has been called out under section twenty-five or twenty-six and a further force is required, it shall be taken from the unorganized militia, as provided in section eight.

G. L. (ed. of 1920) 33, § 37. 1924, 465.
1 Section 34. No officer or soldier of the volunteer militia, not on leave of absence or furlough, shall be excused from duty when called or ordered out under section twenty-five or twenty-six, except upon a physician's certificate of disability. If an officer or soldier is absent without leave and does not produce such certificate to his commanding officer, he shall be tried by court-martial for desertion, or absence without leave. Sickness shall not be an excuse unless he procures a certificate or satisfies the court-martial that he was unable to procure the same.

ARMORIES AND ARMY COMMISSIONERS.

1 Section 35. The aldermen or the selectmen shall provide for each company of the volunteer militia, or detachment thereof, not provided with an armory of the first class, and permanently stationed within the limits of their respective towns, an armory, including a suitable hall for the purpose of drill, and suitable rooms annexed thereto for the meetings of the command, for administrative work, and for the safe keeping of military property; and shall also provide for each headquarters permanently located within their said limits, suitable rooms for administrative work, for the assembling of officers for instruction, and for the safe keeping of military property; and they shall provide for every such armory and headquarters the necessary fuel, lights, water, telephone service, janitor service and necessary repairs, or shall make a reasonable allowance therefor. Any town failing to comply with this section shall forfeit to the commonwealth a sum not exceeding five thousand dollars for each year during which such failure continues, to be recovered upon an information in equity brought in the supreme judicial court by the attorney general at the relation of the adjutant general. Any amount so forfeited shall be credited to the armory appropriation for the fiscal year in which the forfeiture occurs.

1 Section 36. Where two or more commands of the volunteer militia are permanently stationed in the same town, the aldermen or the selectmen may, if practicable, provide for such commands a suitable hall for drill, to be used by them in common; provided, that in every other case respect the preceding section is complied with. When practicable, the rooms provided for a headquarters shall be in an armory provided for its command, or for any of the units thereof.

ARMORIES AND ARMY COMMISSIONERS.

1 Section 37. The aldermen or the selectmen shall provide and maintain for each command of the volunteer militia or detachment thereof permanently stationed within the limits of their respective towns suitable grounds for parade, drill and small arms practice, unless such grounds have been furnished for such command by the commonwealth. Any town failing to comply with this provision shall forfeit to the commonwealth a sum not exceeding five thousand dollars for each year during which such failure continues, to be recovered upon an information in equity brought in the supreme judicial court by the attorney general at the relation of the adjutant general. Any amount so forfeited shall be credited to the appropriation for small arms practice for the fiscal year in which the forfeiture occurs. When two or more commands of the volun-
ARMORIES AND ARMORY COMMISSIONERS. [Chap. 33.

Section 38. For each armory maintained by a town there shall annually be allowed and paid by the commonwealth, in full for rental and for all other charges of maintenance for such an armory, such sum or sums as the state quartermaster shall determine, subject to the approval of the adjutant general. The amount allowed to a corps of cadets shall be determined by the commander-in-chief.

Section 39. The armory commissioners provided for in section eighteen of chapter six shall have full supervision and control of the construction of all armories erected by the commonwealth, and on completion and acceptance of any such armory the care and maintenance thereof, as well as the care and maintenance of all armories belonging to the commonwealth, shall devolve upon the state quartermaster.

Section 40. The armory commissioners shall rebuild, remodel or repair armories of the first class injured or destroyed by fire, and may reconstruct, remodel, enlarge or otherwise improve existing state armories, if they deem the needs of the service so require, and shall construct additional armories until the volunteer militia shall be provided with adequate quarters. They shall designate the location of armories so to be constructed and shall thereupon, on behalf of the commonwealth, take under chapter seventy-nine or acquire by purchase or otherwise, suitable lots of land in the respective towns designated, and shall erect, furnish and equip thereon armories sufficient for one or more companies of militia, and for such other commands or headquarters thereof permanently stationed in any such town as they deem necessary; but no land shall be acquired and no buildings erected, reconstructed, remodeled or enlarged until the site and plans thereof, respectively, and the total amount to be authorized therefor, have been approved by the governor and council.

Section 41. The armory commissioners, on behalf of the commonwealth, may, with the approval of the governor and council, take under chapter seventy-nine, or purchase or lease land suitable for parade and drill grounds or for ranges for target practice until the volunteer militia is adequately provided with parade and drill grounds and ranges for target practice, and upon land so acquired may, with the approval of the governor and council, erect such building or buildings as may be needed for the use of the militia.

If land is acquired by purchase, under this or the preceding section, the purchase price shall be paid by the commonwealth upon the execution of 11 such a release or conveyance as shall be prescribed by the attorney 12 general.

1 Section 42. The armory commissioners may, by agreement with the 2 aldermen of any city or the selectmen of any town owning an armory, 3 determine the value of the land and buildings, and on approval of such 4 agreement by the governor and council may purchase said armory in 5 behalf of the commonwealth, and thereupon title to the land and build-6 ings so purchased shall vest in the commonwealth.
7 The armory commissioners may, by agreement with the owners of the 8 armory of the first corps of cadets in Boston and of the armory of the 9 Lawrence Light Guard in Medford, determine the value of the land and 10 buildings, and on approval of such agreement by the governor and 11 council may purchase in behalf of the commonwealth either or both of 12 said armories.
13 The armory commissioners may, by agreement with the aldermen of 14 any city or the selectmen of any town holding title to a drill and parade
15 ground or a target range, determine the value of such drill and parade
16 ground or target range and on approval of such agreement by the governor
17 and council may purchase such drill and parade ground or target range 18 in behalf of the commonwealth, and thereupon title to the land and 19 buildings so purchased shall vest in the commonwealth.

1 Section 43. To meet the expenses incurred under the three preceding
2 sections the armory commissioners may expend such amounts as are 3 annually appropriated therefor by the general court, together with such 4 armory loan funds as may from time to time be authorized specifically 5 by the general court.

1 Section 44. Armories built or purchased by the armory commis-
2 sioners under former or existing laws shall be designated and known as 3 armories of the first class.

1 Section 45. (a) When any armory or any parade and drill ground or 2 range for target practice is furnished by the commonwealth in any town, 3 the adjutant general shall notify the town where such armory, parade and 4 drill ground, or range for target practice lies, and thereupon all obligations
5 of said town as to said armory, or parade and drill ground or range for 6 target practice, under sections thirty-five, thirty-six and thirty-seven,
7 and all allowances and payments by the commonwealth for rent, shall 8 cease, as to the organizations quartered in said armory, or using said
9 parade and drill ground or said range for target practice.
10 (b) All armories taken, purchased or erected under this chapter shall 11 be under the control of the commander-in-chief, and shall be cared for and 12 maintained by the commonwealth, and the necessary expenditures for 13 care and maintenance shall be made subject to the approval of the state 14 quartermaster.

1 Section 46. The aldermen of a city, or the selectmen of a town,
2 providing an armory or armories, or headquarters, for use of the volun-
3 teer militia, shall annually on or before February first make returns

thereof to the state quartermaster on blank forms provided by him. All statements contained therein shall be sworn to by at least two members of the board of aldermen or by two of the selectmen. All such returns shall give the designating and location of each armory or headquarters, the name of each command or headquarters therein quartered, the rental paid or charged therefor, and when required by the state quartermaster under the classification of such armories or headquarters, the expense incurred in heating, lighting and repairing the same, in furnishing water, telephones and janitor service, as well as the aggregate cost of the land and building. The state quartermaster shall examine each return so made and allow or disallow, in whole or in part, the sums so returned, his decision being subject to review and amendment by the commander-in-chief. He shall annually, not later than March first, file with the state comptroller his certificate, stating the sum allowed for each armory, the name of the command or headquarters occupying it, and the town making the return, and thereupon he shall notify the mayor or the selectmen of the sum allowed, which shall be paid to such town; but no return received by the state quartermaster after February first shall be allowed.

SECTION 47. Every officer whose command occupies, or assembles or drills in any armory, drill hall or building used according to law for that purpose shall have control of such premises during the period of occupation, subject to orders of his superior officers, and any person intruding contrary to his orders or to the orders of his superior officers, or who interrupts, molests, obstructs or insults the troops or any of them so occupying such premises, may be ejected, forcibly, if necessary, or may be dealt with as provided in sections fifty-six and fifty-seven for like offenses, at the discretion of such officer or of his superior officers; but in armories not of the first class reasonable inspection of the premises may be made by the aldermen or by the selectmen, or by the owners of the premises if such inspection is under the terms of the lease.

SECTION 48. (a) Armories provided for the militia shall be used by the militia for the military purposes or purposes incidental thereto designated by the commander-in-chief. Military units stationed in an armory may, at any time when it is not in use for military purposes, use such armory without charge for social activities, or athletics, subject only to rules and regulations promulgated by the military custodian of such armory and approved by the governor and council. No non-military use of an armory under this section shall be permitted which interferes with its military use, but such non-military use shall not be deemed to interfere with military use if all unit commanders affected can conveniently and without detriment to the service utilize the armory for the usual military purposes at other than the usual time or in other than the usual manner.

(b) Any armory may be used for the purposes set forth in subsections (c) and (d) in accordance with terms and conditions prescribed by the commander-in-chief, upon application therefor to the adjutant general through the military custodian of the armory. No such application shall be granted unless it is approved by both the adjutant general and the military custodian and contains a certificate from each unit commander whose drill or other military duty is to be changed or modified by such use, stating that he approves the application and that such change or modification will not in any way be detrimental to his unit or to its training, and further stating in detail the manner in which said change or modification is to be effected.

(c) Subject to the provisions of subsection (b), armories may be used temporarily for the following public purposes:

A public meeting or hearing held by a state department or commission.

An examination conducted by the division of civil service.

A meeting of an organization composed of veterans of the civil, Spanish, or world war, or their auxiliaries, a board of trade, a chamber of commerce, or a meeting to raise funds for any non-sectarian charitable or non-sectarian educational purpose.

A meeting to raise funds for a benefit association of policemen or firemen.

Elections, primaries or caucuses, and town meetings.

Meetings of such military organizations of scholars in the public schools of a town as may be approved by the school committee thereof.

A meeting or rally of a political or municipal party, as defined by section one of chapter fifty, conducted by the duly constituted local committee of such party; provided, that no party shall be permitted to use the same armory more than twice in the same year.

A meeting of any organization of boys under eighteen years of age, or of any student military organization conforming to the regulations and training prescribed by the commander-in-chief, with a view to preparing the members thereof for military or naval service. Upon application to the commander-in-chief and on terms and conditions prescribed by him, such organizations may be permitted to use for parade or drill purposes such grounds owned by the commonwealth as are used by the militia of the town where the organization is located.

Compensation for the use of any armory under this subsection shall be fixed by the adjutant general with the approval of the commander-in-chief, and shall not exceed a sum sufficient to cover all expenses of lighting, heating and guarding the armory, and similar expenses. Such compensation shall be paid to the adjutant general who shall pay the same to the commonwealth.

(d) Subject to the provisions of subsection (b), an armory may be used for a period of not exceeding three days for any exhibition of the products of labor, agriculture or industry, including any automobile exhibition conducted by a responsible organization, and for the purpose of decorating the premises, for such additional time immediately preceding said period, not exceeding eighteen hours, as may be approved by the adjutant general and the military custodian, and for the purpose of removing decorations, exhibits or equipment, for such additional time immediately following said period, not exceeding eighteen hours, as may be approved; provided, that the compensation for such uses shall in no case be less than the fair rental value for the entire period during which the armory is occupied by such exhibit or equipment, of halls of a similar nature in the same or a similar city or town together with a sum sufficient to cover the expense of providing such guards as may be necessary to protect the armory while so used. Subject to the foregoing limitation, such compensation shall be fixed by the adjutant general with the approval of the commander-in-chief and shall be paid as provided in subsection (c).
Payment for damage, etc. Bond. G. L. (ed. of 1920) 33, § 53 (c). 1924, 287; 465.

(c) Each organization using an armory under subsection (c) or (d) shall, under rules and regulations prescribed by the commander-in-chief, pay for any damage to or loss of any property or equipment. Said rules and regulations may also require that such organization shall file with the adjutant general a bond in such form and amount and containing such conditions as said rules and regulations may prescribe.

Section 49. An officer or enlisted man of the volunteer militia licensed under chapter one hundred and forty-three, may, in any armory or other place permanently occupied by the commonwealth for military purposes, operate any cinematograph or similar apparatus owned or controlled by the commonwealth, without obtaining the special license required by section eighty-two of said chapter or, in Boston, that required by chapter two hundred and eighty of the acts of nineteen hundred and thirteen; provided, that all other laws of the commonwealth and the regulations of the state police relative to the use of the cinematograph or similar apparatus are complied with.

General Provisions.

Section 50. Any part of the uniform or insignia of rank prescribed for officers or enlisted men of the volunteer militia shall be worn only by persons entitled thereto by commission or enlistment under the laws of this commonwealth or of the United States or of another state of the United States. Whoever violates a provision of this section shall be punished by a fine of not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars, on complaint of any officer or enlisted man of the militia.

G. L. (ed. of 1920) 33, § 55. 1924, 465.

Section 51. Returns made to the adjutant general by town clerks under section six, and applications for the use of armories made under section forty-eight, may, after the lapse of one year from the date of their receipt, be destroyed or disposed of by order of their lawful custodian, and any proceeds received in the course of their disposal shall be paid to the commonwealth.

Section 52. Street railway, electric railroad and elevated railway companies may transport military supplies and equipment over their respective lines, and from and to any point thereon, subject only to the supervision of the department of public utilities and to such regulations as it may impose.

1924, 465.

Section 53. Commanding officers of organizations which are allowed military bands may, so far as is consistent with the laws of the United States for the government of the national guard, with the approval of the commander-in-chief, excuse the members of such bands from performing the annual tours of camp duty with their organizations, or any part of such tours, and at any time thereafter may, with the approval of the commander-in-chief, order such bands to perform duty from time to time not in excess of the number of days for which they were excused from camp duty, and the members of the bands shall be paid for such duty at the same rate and with the same allowance which they would have received had they performed such duty at camp.
1 Section 54. (a) No parade or voluntary service shall be performed by any company under arms or with state uniform without the approval of the regimental, separate battalion, naval battalion or squadron commander or such other organization commander as may be authorized by the commander-in-chief or, if unattached, of its next superior commander.
(b) Any officer or enlisted man may temporarily be detailed or assigned to duty with commands other than his own, or he may be detailed for any special duty by competent authority.

Section 55. A judge advocate may be detailed by the commander-in-chief to attend any encampment, and during the encampment shall, within the limits of the camp and for a distance of one mile from the guard line, have the jurisdiction of a district court of all offences then and there committed.

Section 56. Every commanding officer, when on duty, may fix necessary bounds and limits to his parade or encampment, not including a road within such bounds in such manner as to prevent traveling thereon, within which bounds and limits no person shall enter without his leave.
Whoever intrudes within the limits of the parade or encampment, after being forbidden, may be ejected, forcibly if necessary, or may be confined under guard during the time of parade or encampment, or during a shorter time, at the discretion of the commanding officer; and whoever resists a sentry may be arrested by order of the commanding officer and dealt with as provided in the following section.

1917, 327, § 55. 1924, 465.

Section 57. Whoever interrupts, molests or insults, by abusive words or behavior, or obstructs any officer or soldier while on duty or at any parade, drill or meeting for military improvement, may immediately be put under guard and kept at the discretion of the commanding officer until the duty, drill, parade or meeting is concluded; and may be de-levered into the custody of any police officer or constable of the town where such duty, parade, drill or meeting is held, who shall detain him in custody for examination or trial before a court having jurisdiction of the place; and any person found guilty of any of the offences enumerated in this section, or in sections forty-seven and fifty-six or of obstructing or interfering with United States forces or troops or any part of the militia in the exercise or enjoyment of the right of way granted by the following section, shall be punished by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars or by imprisonment for not more than six months.

Section 58. United States forces or troops, and any part of the militia paradring, or performing any duty, according to law, shall have the right of way in any street or highway through which they may pass; provided, that the carriage of the United States mails, the legitimate functions of the police, and the progress and operation of fire engines and fire departments shall not be interfered with thereby.

Section 59. Except while on duty under section twenty-five or twenty-six, or in obedience to the commander-in-chief, no officer or No military duty on election day, except, etc.
soldier shall be required to perform military duty on a day appointed for a state election in the town where he resides; and an officer parading his command, or ordering it to parade, contrary to this section, shall be liable to trial by court-martial.

SECTION 60. No body of men, except the volunteer militia, the troops of the United States and the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company of Boston, except as provided in the following section, shall maintain an armory, or associate together at any time as a company or organization, for drill or parade with firearms, or so drill or parade; nor shall any town raise or appropriate money toward arming, equipping, uniforming, supporting or providing drill rooms or armories for any such body of men; provided, that associations wholly composed of soldiers honorably discharged from the service of the United States may parade in public with arms, upon the reception of any regiment or company of soldiers returning from said service, and for escort duty at the burial of deceased soldiers, with the written permission of the aldermen of the city or selectmen of the town where they desire to parade; that students in educational institutions where military science is a prescribed part of the course of instruction may, with the consent of the governor, drill and parade with firearms in public, under the superintendence of their teachers; that members of schools for military instruction conducted with the approval of the governor, may drill and parade with firearms in public, under the supervision of their instructors; that foreign troops whose admission to the United States has been consented to by the United States government may, with the consent of the governor, drill and parade with firearms in public; and any body of men may, with the consent of the governor, drill and parade in public with any harmless imitation of firearms approved by the adjutant general; that regularly organized posts of the Grand Army of the Republic, and of the American Legion, and regularly organized camps of the United States War Veterans and regularly organized posts of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States and regularly organized detachments of the Marine Corps League may drill and parade with firearms in public, under the supervision of their duly authorized officers; that the Kear-sarge Association of Naval Veterans, Inc., may at any time parade in public their color guards of not more than twelve men armed with firearms, that the Society of Colonial Wars in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, the Order of the Founders and Patriots of America, the Massachusetts Society of the Sons of the American Revolution, the Society of the Sons of the Revolution in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, the 36
Society of the War of 1812 in the Commonwealth of Massachusetts, and 37 regularly organized branches of any of said societies may at any time parade in public their uniformed color guards of ten men with firearms; 39 that regularly organized camps of the Sons of Veterans may at any time parade in public their color guards of ten men with firearms; and that 41 any organization heretofore authorized by law may parade with side-arms; and any veteran association composed wholly of past members 43 of the militia of the commonwealth may maintain an armory for the use 44 of the organizations of the militia to which its members belonged; provided, that such drill or parade is not in contravention of the laws of the 46 United States.
Section 61. The adjutant general, with the approval of the governor, may prescribe rules and regulations under which any body of citizens of the commonwealth, organized as an association, club or training school for the purpose of acquiring military knowledge, discipline and training, may drill or parade with firearms; provided, that written consent is first obtained from the adjutant general, and that the body organized as aforesaid shall adopt such uniform, equipment and insignia of rank as he shall prescribe. He may authorize the use by any such body of any state armory for drill or training; provided, that such use shall not interfere with the occupation and use of the armory by the volunteer militia. The governor may, at any time, disband any such body. This section shall be operative only during such time as the United States may be in a state of actual warfare.

Section 62. Whoever violates any provision of the two preceding sections, or belongs to or parades with any such unauthorized body of men with firearms, shall be punished by a fine of not more than fifty dollars or by imprisonment for not more than six months, or both.

Section 63. The commander-in-chief may send a rifle team composed of members of the Massachusetts volunteer militia to take part in the annual competitions in rifle shooting for national and other trophies held in the United States.

Section 64. Officers of the army and navy of the United States detailed by the war or navy department, at the request of the commander-in-chief, to act as instructors, advisers or umpires, or to perform any other duty in connection with the volunteer militia of the commonwealth, shall be reimbursed by the commonwealth for all expenses incurred by them in the performance of the said duties, and authorized or approved by the adjutant general, in excess of those expenses allowed and paid by the United States. Payments under this section shall be made to officers entitled thereto on certificates approved by the adjutant general, in such form as the commander-in-chief shall prescribe.

Section 65. Division, brigade, regimental, battalion, squadron, company, mess, band or detachment funds shall be maintained and conducted as the commander-in-chief may prescribe in regulations. The administration of such a fund by the officer designated in regulations to have the custody thereof shall be one of the duties pertaining to his office and for the proper performance of which he shall furnish bond to the commonwealth. Suit on the bond of such officer to recover for any misappropriation of the fund shall be brought in the name of the commonwealth for the benefit of the organization affected. Upon the disbandment of any organization maintaining a fund as above provided, the adjutant general shall at once become custodian or treasurer thereof, and shall draw a check for the total amount on deposit in favor of the state treasurer, who shall hold such funds or shall expend them as the general court may prescribe.

Section 66. Members of the volunteer militia shall not be liable for jury duty, and any citizen who has served for nine years in the volunteer service, or in any branch of the national army or navy, shall be exempt from jury duty and from civil arrest.
militia, or whose total faithful service in the volunteer militia and in the United States army in time of war equals nine years, shall be exempt for life from jury duty. No officer or soldier shall be arrested on civil process while going to, remaining at or returning from a place where he is ordered to attend for election of officers or for military duty.

SECTION 67. Any person in the service of the commonwealth, or of a city or town which, by vote of its city council or of its inhabitants at a town meeting, accepts this section, shall be entitled, during the time of his service in the organized militia, under sections seventeen, twenty-five, twenty-six, one hundred and twenty-three and one hundred and eighty-one, or during his annual tour of duty, not exceeding fifteen days, as a member of the organized reserve of the army of the United States or of the United States naval reserve forces, to receive pay therefor, without loss of his ordinary remuneration as an employee or official of the commonwealth, or of such city or town, and shall also be entitled to the same leaves of absence or vacation with pay given to other like employees or officials.

SECTION 68. Rolls of the volunteer militia, showing the names of all general, field, staff and noncommissioned staff officers, and the names of all company officers and enlisted men in the service, shall be made annually on January first. Those for companies shall be prepared by the respective company commanders, and all others by direction of the commanding officers of the several organizations. A sworn copy of such rolls, or of so much thereof as may be necessary, shall be furnished by the commanding officers of companies and of such other organizations annually before January tenth to the registrars of voters in any city except Boston, and in Boston to the election commissioners, and to the selectmen of any town where such companies or organizations or any members thereof are situated, for use in ascertaining exemptions from jury duty. The issue by an officer of the volunteer militia of a false certificate, or the issue of a certificate to any person not entitled to receive it, in order to secure exemption from jury duty, shall be punished in such manner as the commander-in-chief shall direct.

SECTION 69. A member of the volunteer militia who shall, when on duty or when assembled therefor under sections seventeen, twenty-five, twenty-six, one hundred and twenty-three, one hundred and thirty-five and one hundred and eighty-one, receive any injury by reason of such duty or assembly, or who shall without fault or neglect on his part be wounded or disabled, or contract any sickness or disease, while performing any such lawfully ordered militia duty, incapacitating him from pursuing his usual business or occupation, shall, during the period of such incapacity, receive compensation to be fixed by a board appointed to inquire into his claim, not exceeding in amount the pay plus ration allowance provided for by this chapter and actual necessary expenses for care and medical attendance. In case of death resulting from such injury, sickness or disease, compensation shall be paid to the decedent’s depend-cents as determined in accordance with the provisions of clause (3) of section one of chapter one hundred and fifty-two and section thirty-two of said chapter, in the amounts provided by, and otherwise subject to, the provisions of section thirty-one of said chapter; provided, that compen-18 sation to such dependents other than widows and children shall be based on the pay plus ration allowance hereinbefore mentioned, and that, for the purposes hereof, said board shall exercise all the powers given by said provisions of chapter one hundred and fifty-two to the department of industrial accidents. All claims arising under this section shall be inquired into by a board of three officers, at least one of whom shall be a medical officer, appointed by the commander-in-chief. The board shall have the same power to take evidence, administer oaths, issue subpoenas and compel witnesses to attend and testify and produce books and papers, and to punish their failure to do so, as is possessed by a general court-martial. The findings of the board shall be subject to the approval of the commander-in-chief. The amount so found due and so approved shall be a charge against the commonwealth, and paid in the same manner as other 31 military accounts.

1 Section 70. Whoever wilfully deprives a member of the volunteer militia of his employment, or denies him employment, or prevents his being employed by another, or obstructs or annoys him or his employer in respect of his trade, business or employment, because of such member’s connection with the volunteer militia or because of his necessary absence from business in performance of his duty as such, and whoever dissuades any person from enlisting in the volunteer militia by threat of injury to him in respect of his employment, trade or business, or of other injury, if he shall so enlist, shall be punished by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars, or by imprisonment for not more than six months, or both.

1 Section 71. Each officer regularly assigned to the duty of paying troops, and the pay officers of the naval militia, shall give bond in the penal sum of ten thousand dollars, with such surety or sureties as may be approved by the governor and council, conditioned faithfully to perform the duties of his office.

1 Section 72. Any officer of the volunteer militia to whom any public property is at any time issued may be required to give bond, with such surety or sureties as may be approved by the governor and council, conditioned faithfully to perform the duties of his office; to properly hold and administer funds; to use all necessary care in the safe keeping of military stores and property committed to his custody; and to account for and deliver to his successor, or to any other person authorized to receive the same, all such military property or funds.

1 Section 73. When a member of the volunteer militia having the custody of property of the commonwealth, or charged with the duty of receiving or disbursing money, is required to give bond to the commonwealth for the faithful discharge of his duty, the commonwealth shall reimburse him for any amount that he may be required to pay to a surety company for becoming surety on his official bond.

1 Section 74. The adjutant general may arrange for such schedule bonds as he deems advisable to take the place of bonds required by law. from any officers of the Massachusetts volunteer militia. Any such schedule bond shall be with surety satisfactory to the governor and council, and conditioned that the officers named in the bond shall faithfully perform the duties of their offices; and it shall contain such other conditions or provisions as may be required by law. Such bonds shall take the place of any bond required from any officer named in the schedule bond. The premium due to any surety company for acting as surety on any such bond shall be paid by the commonwealth.

SECTION 75. This chapter shall not affect the right of the Ancient and Honorable Artillery Company to maintain its organization as a military company and its constitution and by-laws in so far as the same are not repugnant to the laws of this commonwealth or of the United States and do not restrain the lawful parade or exercise of the active militia.

Penalty on certain civil officers for violation of this chapter.

Prizes for competitions. Maintenance and repair of aeroplanes.

Allotments for military instruction.

SECTION 76. Civil officers named in this chapter who neglect or refuse to obey its provisions shall, except as otherwise expressly provided, forfeit not less than twenty nor more than five hundred dollars.

SECTION 77. (a) Money or other suitable prizes may be awarded for shooting, athletic or other competitions in the militia under such regulations as the commander-in-chief shall determine, which prizes shall be paid by the commonwealth.

(b) For the maintenance and repair of aeroplanes, used by the commonwealth for the use of the militia, the adjutant general may expend annually such sums as may be appropriated therefor.

SECTION 78. There shall annually be allowed and paid by the commonwealth such sums as may annually be appropriated, to be expended under the direction of the adjutant general in furnishing the officers and men of the militia with uniform instruction in military authority, organization and administration and in the elements of military art. Certificates for allowances of expenses incident to such instruction shall be furnished to the adjutant general and upon his approval payment shall be made to the persons certified to be entitled thereto.

LAND FORCES.

Organization.

SECTION 79. (a) The land forces shall consist of the national guard, the national guard reserve, the national guard retired list, such other units, officers and enlisted men as the commander-in-chief may prescribe under section fifteen, and any part of the unorganized militia serving with the land forces under sections eight, nine and eleven.

(b) The national guard of Massachusetts shall consist of such regiments, corps or other units as the commander-in-chief may from time to time authorize to be formed, all to be organized in accordance with the 9 laws of the United States affecting the national guard and the regulations issued by the secretary of war.

5 mander-in-chief directs. The second corps of cadets shall be organized

6 and equipped as a regiment of field artillery and may retain its name.

7 It shall retain the right to own and wear in place of such full dress uni-

8 form as may be prescribed by orders or regulations for the militia, a full

9 dress uniform of special design such as may be by it adopted and ap-

10 proved by the commander-in-chief.

Staff Corps and Departments.

(a) Except when ordered on duty under section twenty-five or twenty-six, the state surgeon shall receive a salary of fifteen hundred dollars; and, subject to the orders of the commander-in-chief, shall have general supervision and control of all matters pertaining to the medical department of the land forces, and shall prescribe the physical and mental disabilities exempting from military duty. He shall purchase and issue all medical and hospital supplies, and perform such other official duties as the commander-in-chief directs. For services rendered to the commissioner of state aid and pensions in cases of state or military aid and soldiers' relief he may receive such compensation, not exceeding twelve hundred dollars per annum, as said commissioner shall approve.

1921, 359, § 2.

(b) Except when ordered on duty under section twenty-five or twenty-six, the state judge advocate shall receive a salary of fifteen hundred dollars; and shall examine and report in writing on all proceedings of courts-martial requiring the action of the commander-in-chief and, in matters referred to him by law or by the commander-in-chief, shall be the legal adviser of the militia department of the commonwealth and shall bring all necessary actions. He shall perform such other duty as the commander-in-chief may direct.

(c) The state inspector, or such other officers as the commander-in-chief shall designate, shall inspect once in every year, and oftener if the commander-in-chief deems it necessary, all headquarters, armories and state property in the hands of the land forces, and report the condition of the same. The state inspector, or his assistants under his orders, may inspect any organization at any time when the troops thereof are under arms, or in attendance at their armories.

(d) The state ordnance officer, under the direction of the adjutant general, shall be charged with the care and control of all state rifle ranges, with the supervision of all other ranges provided for the small arms practice of the volunteer militia, and with the supervision of expenditure of public funds appropriated by the commonwealth for the promotion of small arms practice.

SECTION 83. The state quartermaster shall receive a salary of three thousand dollars. An officer of the quartermaster corps of the land forces of suitable grade, detailed to act as superintendent of the state arsenal, shall be in the quartermaster corps of the land forces as a clerk in addition to the clerks hereinafter provided for. The state quartermaster shall give bond to the commonwealth in the penal sum of twenty thousand dollars, with surety or sureties approved by the governor and council, conditioned faithfully to perform the duties of his office, to use all necessary diligence and care in the safe keeping of military stores and property of the commonwealth committed to his custody, and to account for and deliver over to his successor, or to any person authorized to receive the same, such stores and property. The commander-in-chief may require the duties imposed upon the state quartermaster to be performed by any officer of the land forces, who shall, in that case, give bond to the commonwealth in like manner as is required of the state quartermaster. The state quartermaster, under orders of the commander-in-chief, shall have the care and control of the state camp ground and all other land held for military purposes, of all state arsenals 19 and magazines, of the soldiers' burial lot and monument at Dedham, 20 and of all military property of the commonwealth except such as is by 21 law expressly intrusted to the keeping of other officers. He shall procure 22 and provide transportation for the land forces and for all their implement, 23 munitions of war and military supplies; such transportation to 24 be in kind whenever practicable. He shall, at the public expense, provide suitable places for the safe keeping of all munitions of war, and all 26 other implements of war. Such implements shall be designated as the 27 property of the commonwealth by suitable permanent brands or marks 28 on each of them. He may allow annually proper accounts for the repair 29 of uniforms and equipment. He shall adjust all accounts relating to loans 30 of state military property to towns, institutions and schools, and shall 31 require annual returns of such property and of its condition, at such 32 time and in such manner as he may direct, and may at any time, under 33 direction of the commander-in-chief, require the return of the whole or 34 any part of such property as he deems best for the commonwealth. 35 He may employ a superintendent of armories at a suitable salary, subject to the provisions of chapter thirty. The actual transportation 37 expenses of the superintendent of armories, in visiting the various armories of the state under direction of the state quartermaster shall be 39 paid from the appropriation for maintenance of armories of the first 40 class. The state quartermaster may employ necessary clerks and other 41 assistants in his department, at an expense not exceeding the amount 42 annually appropriated therefor.

1 Section 84. The adjutant general, the officers of a corps or depart- 2 ment, and the officers attached thereto, shall not be interested, directly 3 or indirectly, in the purchase or sale of any articles intended for, or 4 appertaining to, their respective departments, except for and on account 5 of the commonwealth; nor shall they or any of them take or apply to 6 his or their own use, for negotiating or transacting business in their 7 respective departments, any gift, gain or advantage other than that 8 allowed by law.

1 Section 85. Any officer violating any provision of the preceding 2 section shall be punished by a fine of not more than five thousand dollars, 3 or by imprisonment for not more than five years, or both.

1917, 327, § 84. G. L. (ed. of 1920) 33, § 89. 1924, 465.

Commissioned Officers.

1 Section 86. No person, except an officer of the United States army, 2 shall be eligible to appointment as a commissioned officer in the land 3 forces who is not a male citizen of the United States of twenty-one years 4 of age, or over, resident in the commonwealth, or who is disqualified by law from 5 enrolment in the militia, or who is not certified as eligible by the military 6 service commission as hereinafter provided; and no person shall be eligible 7 to such appointment who is under sentence of disability to hold office or 8 command, or of suspension from command, in the military forces of the 9 United States or of any state. But no citizen not subject to enrolment on 10 account of his age, or otherwise disqualified, but exempted from military 11 service by the laws of the United States, or subject to enrolment but not 12 enrolled, shall, on that account, be ineligible to position in the land forces, 13 or incapable of serving in a volunteer company, unless he is made ineligible to such office or service by the laws of the United States. No person shall receive a commission in the national guard unless he has been selected from such classes as may be prescribed by the laws of the United States.

SECTION 87. Commissioned officers of the land forces shall rank in their grade, according to the date of their commissions. Between officers of the same grade and date of appointment or commission, where there has been no previous commissioned service, the relative rank shall be determined by previous enlisted service. Where there has been such previous service in the army of the United States, or in the national guard or national guard reserve of the commonwealth, it shall count in the order herein named.

The day of the appointment of an officer shall be expressed in his commission and shall be considered as the date thereof. When an officer is appointed or transferred from one office or organization to another, without increase of grade or loss of continuous service, he shall rank in his grade according to the date of his original commission, which shall be stated in his new commission.

SECTION 88. All staff and department officers of the national guard, appointed after March thirteen, nineteen hundred and twenty, shall have had previous military experience, and shall hold their positions until they reach the age of sixty-four years, unless retired prior to that time by reason of resignation, disability, or for cause to be determined by a court-martial legally convened for that purpose, and vacancies among said officers shall be filled by appointment from the officers of the militia of Massachusetts.

(b) The military service commission shall establish an eligible officers' list for all commissioned grades in the land forces.

(c) The commission shall from time to time prepare rules, to take effect upon approval by the commander-in-chief, regulating the selection of persons to fill commissioned offices in the land forces. Such rules may be of general or limited application and shall include provision for: (1) The classification of all grades to be filled; (2) open, competitive and other examinations to test the practical fitness of applicants; (3) the 12
LAND FORCES.

13 filling of vacancies in and selection of persons for commission in the land forces, in accordance with the fitness of applicants and the results of such examination or otherwise.

(d) The commission may designate commissioned officers of the regular army or land forces to act as examiners of particular grades or branches of the service.

1917, 327.

(c) The commission and examiners shall receive such pay for duty performed and may incur such expenses as the commander-in-chief shall order.

(f) The commission shall prepare a full record of its proceedings and findings in the case of each person appearing before it for examination.

(g) All examinations as to physical qualifications to hold office in the land forces shall be made by a board of three medical officers appointed by the commander-in-chief. If such board finds an officer physically incompetent to perform his duties, it shall certify that fact to the commander-in-chief; if such board finds an officer not physically fit to perform his duties, it shall transmit a report to the commander-in-chief setting forth the nature of the disabilities found and the manner and extent to which such disabilities are likely to prevent or impair the full performance of the duties of the office. Whenever the commander-in-chief finds that an officer reported by such board to be physically unsound possesses professional and general qualifications of a high order, and that his physical disabilities will not materially impair his efficiency as an officer, he may thereupon waive such physical disabilities and order the officer to duty. A detailed description of such disabilities and all reports and facts resulting in a waiver of the same shall be entered in the military record of the officer concerned.

(b) An officer, certified as eligible for his grade, if assigned to duty in that grade, shall not be required to take another examination under the rules adopted by authority of subsection (c) in order to continue to hold the same commission. But the military service commission may, by rule or regulation, limit the length of time during which an applicant's name may remain on an eligible list without re-examination.

(i) Officers appointed from one office to another of equal or lower grade in the same branch of the militia service, chaplains, and retired officers, shall be exempt from all examinations under this chapter, as to professional and practical qualifications.

(j) Subject to article fifty-three of the articles of amendment of the constitution, any person certified as eligible for any specified grade in the national guard under the laws of the United States shall be placed on the eligible list by the military service commission without professional examination.

examination. The commission shall prepare the final examination of the training school, and its graduates shall be placed on the eligible list.

(k) All commissioned officers of the land forces shall be selected from the eligible officers' list provided for in this section. General officers and chiefs of departments shall be appointed by the commander-in-chief from said list. Regimental and separate unit commanders shall be appointed by the 60 commander-in-chief from said list upon recommendation of superior 61 commanders, if any. All other officers of the line shall be appointed by the commander-in-chief from said list upon the recommendation of regimental or separate 64 unit commanders, approved by superior commanders, if any. Departmental officers shall be appointed by the commander-in-chief from said list upon the recommendation of the chief of the department in which the appointment is to be made.

Section 91. No person commissioned as an officer in the national guard shall enter upon the performance of his official duties or exercise any command unless he shall have taken and subscribed to the oath of office, shall have been selected from such classes, and shall have successfully passed such tests as to his physical, moral and professional fitness, as are prescribed by the laws of the United States, except that an officer may be ordered to duty pending such tests as hereinbefore provided.

Section 92. An officer failing to pass satisfactorily the tests required by this chapter or by the laws of the United States and the regulations issued thereunder, shall, unless further time is allowed for cause, forthwith be discharged by the commander-in-chief.

Section 93. An officer failing to pass satisfactorily the required tests, but otherwise entitled to be retired, may, in the discretion of the commander-in-chief, be placed upon the retired list with the grade to which his new commission entitles him, instead of being discharged as provided in the preceding section.

Section 94. Every commissioned officer, before entering upon the performance of his official duties or exercising any command, shall take and subscribe the following oaths and declarations:

1. I, A. B., do solemnly swear that I will bear true faith and allegiance to the commonwealth of Massachusetts, and will support the constitution thereof. So help me, God.

2. I, A. B., do solemnly swear that I will obey the lawful orders of all my superior officers. So help me, God.

3. I, A. B., do solemnly swear that I will faithfully and impartially discharge and perform all the duties incumbent on me as , according to the best of my ability and understanding, agreeably to the rules and regulations of the constitution and the laws of the commonwealth. So help me, God.

4. I, A. B., do solemnly swear that I will support the constitution of the United States. So help me, God.
4 All officers shall take and subscribe the said oaths before any competent
5 authority or an officer qualified under section one hundred and sixty-nine 6 to administer oaths, except retired officers and the staff of the commander-7 in-chief who may take the said oaths before any competent authority;
8 and the following certificate shall be printed on every commission and 9 shall be signed by the person before whom the officer is qualified:

This may certify that A. B., commissioned as within on this day of , A.D., personally appeared and took and subscribed the oaths required by the constitution and laws of this commonwealth and by a law of the United States, to qualify him to discharge the duties of his office.
Before me,

1 Section 95. (a) At any time the moral character, capacity and gen-
2 eral fitness for the service of any officer may be investigated and deter-
3 mined by an efficiency board of three commissioned officers, senior in 4 rank to him, to be appointed by the commander-in-chief. The investi-
5 gation may include misconduct in civil life for which the officer is not 6 amenable to court-martial. If the findings of the board are unfavorable 7 to the officer and are approved by the commander-in-chief, the officer 8 shall be discharged.

9 (b) An officer may be discharged by order of the commander-in-chief
10 upon an address of both branches of the general court, or to carry out 11 the lawful sentence of a court-martial, or under this chapter.

SECTION 116. Whoever purchases, retains or has in possession any implement, or any weapon of ordnance or article of clothing, camp or garrison equipage or field equipage issued by and the property of the United States or the commonwealth, unless the same shall have been issued to him or is in his possession in accordance with law, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding ten times the value thereof.

G. L. (ed. of 1920) 33, § 128.

SECTION 117. Every officer and enlisted man of the land forces who loses through carelessness or neglect, carries away, or unlawfully disposes of arms, equipment or other military property belonging to the United States or to the commonwealth, shall be charged with the money value thereof, as determined by a surveying officer or board of survey detailed or appointed by the commander-in-chief to investigate and report upon the case. Such surveying officer or board of survey shall submit with the report all the evidence bearing upon the loss or disposition of the property.

SECTION 118. An officer or enlisted man who willfully or maliciously destroys, injures or defaces any United States or state property, or who loses or injures such property through carelessness or neglect, or who carries away or unlawfully disposes of such property, or who retains in his possession such property and neglects or refuses to return it when so ordered, or who uses it in violation of the regulations or law, or who fails satisfactorily to account for it, shall be punished as a court-martial may direct.

SECTION 119. No soldier shall wear or use, except upon military duty or by special permission of his company commander or other competent authority, any uniform or other article of military property belonging to the commonwealth.

SECTION 120. Any organization of the land forces may, with the approval of a majority of its commissioned officers and of the commander-in-chief, adopt at its own expense any other uniform than that prescribed under section one hundred and eleven, but such uniforms shall not be worn, except by permission of the commander-in-chief, when such organization is on duty under his orders.

SECTION 121. Volunteer organizations may own personal property, to be under the control of the active members thereof; and the commanding officer of any organization may recover in his own name for its use in any county where such organization or part thereof is located any debts or effects belonging to it, or damages for injury to such property. No suit or complaint pending in his name shall be abated by his 7 ceasing to be commanding officer of the organization; but his successor
8 shall be admitted to prosecute the suit or complaint.

1 SECTION 122. The state surveying officer or a board of three officers designated by the commander-in-chief shall inspect and condemn state military property unfit for use; and no property shall be sold until it has been so inspected and condemned, and the condemnation approved by the commander-in-chief, except that subsistence stores of a perishable nature, which would spoil before action could be taken by the state surveying officer or a board of inspection as above provided, may be sold by the officer responsible therefor, after survey by a surveying officer detailed by the commanding officer of the organization. The report of the survey, approved by the commanding officer, shall be forwarded by the accountable officer with his report of the sale. The 12 proceeds of all sales made hereunder shall be paid to the commonwealth.

Duty — Active and Peace. Inspection and Drill.

1 SECTION 124. When on duty under orders of the commander-in-chief, the militia may enter upon and occupy any public or private lands within the commonwealth for the necessary purposes of such duty, and no officer or soldier shall thereby become liable, either civilly or criminally, for trespass; but, except in times of invasion, insurrection, riot, or public catastrophe or danger, neither the organizations of the militia nor individual members thereof shall be permitted to enter houses or other buildings or their immediate enclosures, without the consent of the owner or tenant in possession, nor to go upon the gardens, lawns, tobacco fields, cranberry meadows, vineyards, nurseries, fields with especially valuable crops, orchards or cemeteries unless extreme necessity for such entry exists, and then only in obedience to the specific 13 orders of the senior officer present.

1 SECTION 125. In the case of land entered upon under the preceding section for an encampment or other substantial occupancy, the owner thereof shall receive damages in the nature of compensation for the use of the land and for any injury to the same resulting from such occupancy; and in the case of land so entered upon or passed over in the course of maneuvers, field exercises, or any similar transient purposes, the owner shall receive damages for any injury to the same resulting from such entry, but shall not be entitled to compensation for the use of the land.
The amount of damages to be paid by the commonwealth under this section shall be as agreed upon by the owner of the land with an officer 11 or board of officers appointed by the commander-in-chief to adjust the 12 claim, but if the parties are unable to agree, the damages shall be assessed 13 under chapter seventy-nine.

Meetings and Assemblies.

1. Section 132. (a) Division and brigade commanders may, six times in each year, call meetings for instruction of their staff officers, including attached departmental officers, field officers, adjutants, and captains of unattached companies of their commands, at some convenient place within the limits of their divisions or brigades, or at such place as the commander-in-chief may designate. The commanding officer of each regiment, separate battalion or squadron, and such other organizations as may be authorized by the commander-in-chief, or of the first corps of cadets may call similar meetings of the officers and noncommissioned officers of his command, including attached departmental officers, six times in each year. No compensation shall be allowed for attendance at such meetings, but the officers and noncommissioned officers attending such meetings shall be provided with the necessary transportation, at the rates established by law, when the distance traveled exceeds five miles.

(b) At the discretion of the commander-in-chief a school for officers or selected enlisted men may be established in any part of the commonwealth, under such regulations as he deems proper.

1. Section 133. Division and brigade commanders may visit the headquarters and companies of their commands whenever they deem it necessary for military instruction. The commanding officer of each regiment, separate battalion or squadron, or of such other organization as may be authorized by the commander-in-chief, or of the first corps of cadets, may visit the companies in his command six times each year; field and staff officers, such companies as they are ordered to visit by regimental, separate battalion, squadron or such other organization commanders as may be authorized by the commander-in-chief, six times each year; division and brigade staff officers, including attached departmental officers, when ordered so to do by their commanding officers, may visit each company in their division or brigade once in each year. The state ordnance officer may visit competitions of company teams in regimental, battalion, squadron and corps competitions, and competitions of regimental, battalion, squadron and corps teams in state matches. Mileage for such visits shall be allowed on receipt of returns therefor at the rate of six cents a mile each way, the distance being computed by the line of the most direct railway communication from the residence of the officers, or by such route as may be approved by the commander-in-chief.

1. Section 134. The commanding officer of any regiment, separate battalion or squadron, or such other organization as may be authorized by the commander-in-chief, or of the first corps of cadets may order company inspection in the evening at the several company armories, when the good of the service so requires.
SECTION 135. In addition to the duty required by section one hundred and twenty-three, and in addition to any duty that may be required under sections seventeen, twenty-five, and twenty-six, every company of the volunteer militia shall assemble for instruction and drill at least forty-eight times in each year, and oftener upon the orders of the company commander or his superior commanding officers. Regimental, battalion, or squadron drills may be held in place of company drills, and transportation to and from the place of such drills shall be furnished for the companies, batteries or troops composing the regiment, battalion or squadron, if authorized by the commander-in-chief.

1924, 465.

SECTION 136. The commanding officer of a regiment, separate battalion, squadron or of such other organization as may be authorized by the commander-in-chief, of the first corps of cadets, or of a staff corps or department may, on sufficient grounds, excuse absentees from camp duty and drills.

Pay and Allowances.

SECTION 137. No officer or soldier in the land forces shall be entitled to compensation for military service unless he personally performs the same, although he may be excused therefrom; and no substitute shall be allowed any compensation for such services.

Pay of officers and soldiers.

SECTION 138. (a) There shall be allowed and paid per diem to officers of the land forces, on rolls and accounts kept in such form as the commander-in-chief may prescribe, for the duty prescribed by sections seventeen, twenty-five, twenty-six, and one hundred and twenty-four, the same per diem pay as is received by officers of the national guard, when in federal service.

1905, 465, § 156.  1917, 105, § 1; 327, § 162.

(b) There shall be allowed and paid per diem to soldiers of the land forces, on rolls and accounts kept in such form as the commander-in-chief may prescribe, for the duty prescribed by sections seventeen, twenty-five and twenty-six, as follows: noncommissioned staff officers, first sergeants of companies, three dollars and five cents; bandsmen, four dollars and fifty-five cents; cooks, three dollars and fifty-five cents, if, in such form as the commander-in-chief prescribes, it is certified and made to appear that in each case the duty of superintending and assisting in the preparation of the food of the company was actually performed by the cook in person during the tour of duty or day of duty for which he is returned for pay, otherwise the pay of other enlisted men of like grade; and every other enlisted man, one dollar and fifty-five cents.

1913, 352.  1916, 221.  1924, 465.

(c) There shall be allowed and paid per diem to soldiers of the land forces, except horseshoers, bandsmen and cooks, on rolls and accounts kept in such form as the commander-in-chief may prescribe, for the duty prescribed by section one hundred and twenty-three the same per diem pay and allowances as are received by soldiers of like grade in the regular forces, except horseshoers, bandsmen and cooks.
Section 1905, G. L. 1920, § 151 (d), 1924, 465.

(c) All claims for injury to private property occasioned by members of the volunteer militia while in the performance of duty under the provisions of sections seventeen, twenty-five, twenty-six, one hundred and twenty-three, one hundred and thirty-five, and one hundred and eighty-one, shall be inquired into by a board of three officers appointed by the commander-in-chief. The board shall have the same power to take evidence, administer oaths, issue subpoenas, and compel witnesses to attend and testify and produce books and papers, and to punish their failure to do so, as is possessed by a general court-martial. The findings of the board shall be subject to the approval of the commander-in-chief. The amount found due to the owner by said board, to the extent that its findings are approved by the commander-in-chief, shall be paid from the fund established by section one hundred and forty-one.

16 (c) All claims for injury to private property occasioned by members of the volunteer militia while in the performance of duty under the provisions of sections seventeen, twenty-five, twenty-six, one hundred and twenty-three, one hundred and thirty-five, and one hundred and eighty-one, shall be inquired into by a board of three officers appointed by the commander-in-chief. The board shall have the same power to take evidence, administer oaths, issue subpoenas, and compel witnesses to attend and testify and produce books and papers, and to punish their failure to do so, as is possessed by a general court-martial. The findings of the board shall be subject to the approval of the commander-in-chief. The amount found due to the owner by said board, to the extent that its findings are approved by the commander-in-chief, shall be paid from the fund established by section one hundred and forty-one.

Section 139. Inspections by the state inspector or his assistants shall not constitute tours of duty for which state pay will be allowed to the troops inspected.

do so as is possessed by a general court-martial. The findings of the board shall be subject to the approval of the commander-in-chief. The amount found due to the owner of the property by the said board to the extent that its findings are approved by the commander-in-chief shall be paid from the fund established by the following section.

Section 141. To defray the claims and expenses arising under the preceding section, there shall annually be allowed by the commonwealth a sum not exceeding twenty-five hundred dollars.

Section 142. (a) There shall annually be allowed and paid by the commonwealth from such sums as may be hereafter appropriated for the maintenance of the United States and state draft or riding animals, used for military organizations authorized to be mounted, a sum not exceeding fifteen dollars each month for every such animal owned by such organization or by individual members thereof and used for military purposes. Such allowance to an organization maintaining horses under this section shall be for forage, care and maintenance. The commander-in-chief shall, by order, prescribe the conditions and regulations relative to the use and maintenance of such horses, which shall be complied with before the allowance shall be paid.

(b) The commander-in-chief shall, by order, prescribe the conditions and regulations for the use and maintenance of draft or riding animals owned by the commonwealth and used for military purposes, and may authorize the use and letting of such animals. All income received from such use and letting shall be paid into the state treasury.

Section 143. When an organization of the land forces engages in any encampment, maneuvers or field instruction under the laws of the United States, or the troops of this commonwealth receive from the United States government any pay, subsistence, forage and transportation or other allowance on account of such service, the allowance for pay, subsistence, forage and transportation provided for by this chapter shall be reduced by the amounts so received from the United States government.

Section 144. There may be allowed, on approval of the adjutant general, for motor vehicles actually used in lieu of horses, to each officer and soldier authorized to be mounted, but using such vehicle in lieu of a horse, a sum not exceeding four dollars per day: but the commonwealth shall not be liable for any injury to or depreciation of motor vehicles so used, or for any damages to persons or property resulting therefrom.

Section 145. (a) There shall be allowed and paid to each officer and soldier required to travel on duty, as follows: Under sections seventeen, twenty-five, twenty-six, and one hundred and twenty-three, mileage at the rates established by law computed by the most direct railroad communication from the place where the headquarters of the various commands and the armories of the companies are situated and return, or by such route as may be approved by the commander-in-chief; and when upon duty as a member or judge advocate of any military court or board, or as a witness or defendant before such court or board, when attending meetings of officers and noncommissioned officers, as provided in section one hundred and thirty-two, when acting 11 12 as a paymaster, and in any case when obliged by orders of the com-
13 mander-in-chief to travel without troops, six cents a mile each way, 14 computed by the most direct railroad communication from the residence 15 of the officer or soldier, or by such route as may be approved by the 16 commander-in-chief.
17 (b) When military property loaned by the United States government 18 to the commonwealth has suffered loss or injury, the amount of such 19 loss or injury shall be paid to the United States government by the 20 commonwealth on approval of the adjutant general, and the amounts 21 so paid shall be deducted from allowances made payable to officers of 22 the militia or from sums paid to the commonwealth by the adjutant 23 general on account of such loss or injury and collected by him from 24 officers of the militia responsible therefor, or from their bondsmen.
25 (c) Inspecting officers, when on duty in armories under orders of the 26 commander-in-chief, shall receive the pay and allowances provided for 27 officers on duty.

28 (d) There shall be allowed and paid by the commonwealth, as of April 29 first in each year, to each commissioned officer, and to each warrant 30 officer, who served as such for the year preceding said date, or for a part 31 thereof, a sum for uniform allowance computed at the rate of thirty-five 32 dollars for the full year, upon the approval of the adjutant general and 33 of the intermediate commanders in the chain of command and upon 34 their certification that such commissioned officer, or such warrant officer, 35 has served for the whole or a specified part of said year and during such 36 service has provided himself with the equipment required by the regu-37 lations.

1 Section 146. Mounted officers and men, when ordered by the com-
2 mander-in-chief to transport their horses, shall be allowed the actual 3 cost of such transportation from the point of departure nearest to the 4 several headquarters or the armories of the companies to which they 5 belong. No allowance shall be made for transportation not actually 6 used, nor to officers or men, when transported by horses provided by 7 the commonwealth.

1 Section 147. Subsistence for enlisted men and bandsmen shall be 2 furnished in kind, unless it is otherwise directed by the commander-in-3 chief, when troops are on duty under sections seventeen, twenty-five,
4 twenty-six, and one hundred and twenty-three. Bids for supplies for 5 the annual encampment of the militia, involving the expenditure of 6 more than one hundred dollars, shall be advertised for by the state 7 quartermaster in such newspapers as the adjutant general approves;
8 and the contract shall be awarded to the lowest bidder, if the bid is 9 approved by the adjutant general, and the bidder furnishes such secur-10 ity, if any, as the adjutant general may require. This requirement as to 11 advertising shall not apply to supplies purchased or drawn from the 12 war department or from contractors under contract to that department, 13 if the commander-in-chief so directs. The state quartermaster may 14 make sales of commissary stores for cash, at contract prices, to officers
15 and enlisted men, and to civilian employees of the state or of the United States assigned to or employed at the station or with the troops, and the money so received by him shall be paid to the commonwealth. The state quartermaster may purchase annually for sale for cash to officers and enlisted men and to such civilian employees of the state or of the United States, commissary stores to a value not exceeding five thousand dollars. Forage and transportation may be furnished in kind in lieu of money allowances.

Section 148. There shall annually be allowed and paid under such regulations as may be promulgated by the commander-in-chief, for postage, printing, stationery, care of property, equipment, military expense, including clerical assistance: to each brigade headquarters, one hundred and fifty dollars; to each regimental headquarters, twelve hundred dollars, and fifty dollars for every company in the command; to each separate battalion or squadron and to each other organization designated by the commander-in-chief, and to the first corps of cadets, one hundred and fifty dollars for each company therein; and to each company, five hundred dollars, and two dollars for each enlisted man not attached thereto or enrolled therein, not exceeding the maximum enlisted strength allowed by law, to separate detachments and sections such proportionate amounts as may be approved by the commander-in-chief; to division headquarters for office and maintenance expense, twenty-five hundred dollars.

Section 149. There shall annually be allowed and paid under such regulations as may be promulgated by the commander-in-chief, to each headquarters, department, corps and company, and to each other unit designated by the commander-in-chief, the sum of two dollars for each enlisted man, excepting bandsmen not mustered, attached thereto or enrolled therein, not exceeding the maximum enlisted strength allowed by law, the amount so paid to be expended in the repair and alteration of uniforms, or in defraying the incidental military expenses of the several organizations.

G. L. (ed. of 1920) 33, § 161.

Section 150. There shall annually be allowed and paid under such regulations as may be promulgated by the commander-in-chief, to brigade, regimental, separate battalion, squadron or to each other organization designated by the commander-in-chief, and corps headquarters, and to each company, for the services of a company armorer, or armorer for regimental, separate battalion, squadron and corps headquarters, who shall devote all necessary attention to the care of the arms, equipments and uniforms of the headquarters or company, the sum of one hundred and twenty-five dollars.

Section 151. There shall annually be allowed and paid, under such regulations as may be promulgated by the commander-in-chief, to each field artillery unit the sum of eight hundred dollars for the employment of a competent mechanic, to be appointed by the unit commander and approved by the state quartermaster, and who shall be regularly enlisted in the unit. The said mechanic shall devote his time and labor exclusively to the care of the artillery equipment and material of the unit, except,
8 however, that he may be required by the state quartermaster to perform, 9 without further compensation, the duties of assistant armorer in the 10 quarters occupied by the unit.

1 Section 152. The state quartermaster shall have advanced to him by 2 the commonwealth, under such rules and regulations as the state comp- 3 troll may prescribe, one hundred per cent of the pay and mileage for 4 duty performed at camp, or under sections twenty-five and twenty-six 5 and shall return the unexpended balance of the sum so advanced as soon 6 as possible, or at such times as the comptroller may require.

1 Section 153. Officers of the quartermaster corps shall take proper 2 vouchers for all payments, and immediately after the payment of troops 3 shall file with the state comptroller an account of their payments, with 4 their vouchers; and such accounts shall be audited by the state comp- 5 troller, and the several officers shall be held to account for any discrep- 6 cies.

1 Section 154. The militia, when in the service of the United States, 2 if paid by the commonwealth, shall receive the same pay and allowances 3 as the regular troops of the United States, and the rations when com- 4 mitted shall be valued at the rate fixed by the regulations of the United 5 States army in force at the time. When the militia are discharged from 6 such service, they shall be allowed pay and rations to their respective 7 homes.

Courts-Martial — Courts of Inquiry — Special Boards.

1 Section 155. Courts of inquiry in the land forces shall be instituted 2 constituted and conducted in the same manner and shall have like powers 3 and duties as similar courts in the army of the United States, except that 4 such courts shall be ordered by the commander-in-chief or by a brigade 5 commander.

1 Section 156. There shall be allowed to each person, not in the volun- 2 teer militia, appearing before courts of inquiry or courts-martial, upon 3 summons of the president or judge advocate thereof, one dollar and fifty 4 cents for each day's attendance and six cents for each mile necessarily 5 traveled in obedience to the summons.

1 Section 157. Courts-martial in the land forces shall be of three 2 kinds, namely, general courts-martial, special courts-martial and sum-Section 158. General courts-martial of the land forces may be convoked by order of the president or of the governor, and may impose one or more of the following punishments or sentences for each offence:

1. Fine, not exceeding two hundred dollars.
2. Forfeit of pay and allowances.
3. Reprimand.
4. Dismissal or dishonorable discharge from the service.
5. Reduction of noncommissioned officers to the ranks.

Section 159. The commanding officer of each garrison, fort, post, camp or other place, regiment, detached battalion, or other detached command, may appoint special courts-martial for his command; and such special courts-martial may in any case be appointed by superior authority at its discretion. Special courts-martial may try any person subject to military law, except a commissioned officer, for any crime or offence made punishable by the military laws of the United States, and such special courts-martial shall have the same powers of punishment as do general courts-martial, except that fines imposed by them shall not exceed one hundred dollars.

Section 160. The commanding officer of each garrison, fort, post, or other place, regiment, or corps, detached battalion, company, or other detachment, of the land forces may appoint for such place or command a summary court to consist of one officer, who may administer oaths and try the enlisted men of such place or command for breaches of discipline and conviction of laws governing such organizations; and said court, when satisfied of the guilt of the soldier brought before it, may impose fines not exceeding twenty-five dollars for any single offence, may sentence noncommissioned officers to reduction to the ranks, and may sentence to forfeiture of pay and allowances. The proceedings of such courts shall be informal, and the minutes thereof shall be the same as are prescribed for summary courts of the army of the United States.

Section 161. All courts-martial of the land forces including the summary courts, may sentence to confinement in lieu of fines authorized to be imposed, not exceeding one day for each dollar of fine authorized.

Section 162. No sentence of dismissal from the service or dishonorable discharge imposed by a court-martial shall be executed until approved by the governor.

Section 163. In the land forces, presidents of courts-martial and summary court officers may issue warrants to arrest accused persons and to bring an accused person before the court for trial whenever he 4 shall have disobeyed a written order from the convening authority.
5 delivered to the accused, with a copy of the charge or charges, and 6 directing him to appear before the court. The said officials may issue
7 subpoenas and subpoenas duces tecum, and may enforce the attendance
8 of witnesses and the production of books and documents, and may 9 sentence for a refusal to be sworn or to answer, as in actions before civil 10 courts.

1 Section 164. (a) All processes and sentences of said courts shall be
2 executed by an officer qualified to serve criminal process, and commit-
3 ment under said sentences may be made to any jail or house of correction 4 in the commonwealth. The master or keeper of the jail or house of 5 correction to which a person is sentenced shall receive and detain him
6 in the same manner as if he had been sentenced by a civil court sitting 7 in the county where such jail or house of correction is situated. The 8 necessary charges shall be paid by the commonwealth on vouchers in 9 duplicate to be submitted to the adjutant general.

1924, 465.

(b) All fines assessed under sections seventy-nine to one hundred and 11 seventy, inclusive, and collected or withheld shall be paid to the adjut-
12 ant general, to be used to pay court-martial expenses, or for such other 13 purposes as he may determine, subject to such regulations as may be 14 prescribed by the commander-in-chief. Upon receipt of a certificate 15 from the authority convening the court as to any fine assessed by it, 16 the pay officer concerned shall pay over any funds due to the person
17 convicted, not exceeding the amount of the fine, to the adjutant general 18 upon his sole receipt.

1 Section 165. The provisions for training and the general rules of 2 conduct set forth in the articles of war and general regulations for the 3 government of the army of the United States, so far as applicable, and 4 with such modifications as the commander-in-chief may prescribe, shall 5 apply to the national guard, and the officers and men of the national 6 guard shall conform thereto.

General Provisions.

1 Section 166. The commanding officers of a separate battalion,
2 squadron of cavalry and of the first corps of cadets may each employ
3 or raise by enlistment a band of musicians, not exceeding the number 4 prescribed by the commander-in-chief, to be under his command. Such 5 musicians while on duty shall be subject to the laws and regulations for 6 the government of the militia, except that they may not be mustered in.

1 Section 167. Chaplains in the land forces shall hold the same grades
2 as chaplains in the regular army.

1 Section 168. To each officer or enlisted man who completes nine 2 years of honorable service, continuous or otherwise, there shall be issued a medal, and, for each additional five years of like service, a clasp to be affixed thereto. Active, retired or honorably discharged officers and enlisted men who have served in the military or naval service of the United States in time of war and have been honorably discharged therefrom, shall receive an additional clasp indicative of such service, to be affixed to the medal herein provided for. The adjutant general and two commissioned officers above the rank of captain, from time to time designated by the commander-in-chief, shall act as a medal of valor commission, and may receive recommendations from the military authorities through military channels that any officer or enlisted man of the volunteer militia, by reason of conspicuous gallantry and intrepidity at the risk of his life above and beyond the call of duty while on active service, is entitled to receive a medal of valor. Such recommendations shall not be considered unless supported by the affidavit of at least one responsible eye-witness to the act to be so recognized. If satisfied that such medal ought to be conferred as recommended, the commission may so advise the commander-in-chief who may confer upon such officer or enlisted man, in the name and on behalf of the commonwealth, a medal of valor. Not more than one such medal shall be awarded to any one person, but for each succeeding deed or act sufficient to justify such an award, the commander-in-chief may bestow a suitable bar or other appropriate insignia to be worn as he shall direct. The design of any such medal or insignia shall be approved by the art commission for the commonwealth.

Section 169. General and field officers, officers regularly assigned to the duty of paying troops, any judge advocate or acting judge advocate, the president of a general or special court-martial, any summary court-martial, the trial judge advocate or any assistant trial judge advocate of a general or special court-martial, the president or the recorder of a court of inquiry or of a military board, any officer designated to take a deposition, any officer detailed to conduct an investigation, and the adjutant of any command shall have power to administer oaths for the purposes of the administration of military justice and for other purposes of military administration and the oaths required by this chapter and by the regulations for the government of the militia.

Section 170. The governor may appoint from the Massachusetts national guard association delegates, at his discretion, to represent the militia of the commonwealth at the annual conventions of the national guard association of the United States. The necessary expenses of the delegates so appointed shall be paid out of the appropriation for military accounts.

Naval forces.

Section 171. (a) The naval forces shall consist of the department of naval militia, the naval militia, the naval militia retired list, and the naval militia reserve list, and any part of the unorganized militia serving with the naval forces under sections eight, nine and eleven.

(b) The department of naval militia shall consist of a naval militia bureau, such other officers as the commander-in-chief may detail, and necessary clerks and other assistants. The expense of such clerical and 8 other assistance shall not exceed the amount annually appropriated 9 therefor.

G. L. (ed. of 1920) 33, § 183 (b).

10 The chief of the naval militia bureau shall be the chief of the depart-11 ment. A member of the bureau shall be designated as assistant chief of 12 bureau and shall, in the absence of the chief of department, be acting 13 chief of department. The adjutant general shall be, ex officio, a member 14 of the naval militia bureau, and shall be, ex officio, acting chief of depart-15 ment in the absence of the chief of bureau and the assistant chief of 16 bureau.

1 Section 172. The naval forces shall consist of such other units, 1924, 465.
2 officers and enlisted men, and shall be so organized, maintained, officered, 3 recruited, armed, equipped, uniformed, trained and disciplined as the 4 commander-in-chief may from time to time by order prescribe. Officers, 5 petty officers and other rated men shall be selected, appointed and re-
6 moved as the commander-in-chief may from time to time by order 7 prescribe.

1 Section 174. Such officer of the Massachusetts volunteer militia as 2 the commander-in-chief may designate shall have general supervision and 3 control of all matters pertaining to the medical department of the naval 4 forces, and shall, subject to the laws of the United States, prescribe the 5 physical and mental disabilities exempting from military duty. He shall 6 purchase and issue all medical and hospital supplies and shall perform 7 such other medical duties as the commander-in-chief may direct.

1 Section 175. Such officer of the Massachusetts volunteer militia as 2 the commander-in-chief may designate as acting judge advocate general
3 for the naval militia may be required to examine and report in writing 4 upon all proceedings of courts-martial in the naval forces requiring the 5 action of the commander-in-chief; and, in matters referred to him by 6 law or by the commander-in-chief, shall be the legal adviser of the 7 department of naval militia of the commonwealth, and shall bring all 8 necessary actions.

G. L. (ed. of 1920) 33, § 187.

1 Section 176. (a) Such officers as the commander-in-chief may design-
2 nate shall have the supervision and control of all clothing, equipment
3 and other naval property, both state and federal, issued to, drawn, or 4 purchased for the use of the naval militia. Such clothing, equipment
5 and other naval property shall be purchased, drawn and issued as the 6 commander-in-chief may direct.

(b) Such officers as the commander-in-chief may designate shall procure and provide transportation for the naval forces and their equipment and other property under such regulations as the commander-in-chief may prescribe.

(c) The adjutant general, or such other officer as the commander-in-chief may designate, shall have control of the appropriations for the use and benefit of the naval forces, and may allow, annually, proper accounts for the repair of uniforms and equipment.

SECTION 177. The naval militia while occupying armories, or quarters therein, or using grounds for parades, drill or small arms practice, as provided in sections one to seventy-eight, inclusive, shall be subject to the same rules and regulations in the use thereof, and the same administrative control, as is the national guard. The officer or official charged by law with the care and maintenance of armories shall, at the public expense, provide suitable places for the safe keeping of all clothing, equipment and other naval property of the naval militia.

SECTION 178. Whoever purchases, retains or has in possession any tool or equipment, or any weapon of ordnance, or article of clothing or equipment issued by and the property of the United States or the commonwealth, unless it has been issued to him or is in his possession in accordance with law, shall be punished by a fine not exceeding ten times the value thereof.

SECTION 179. Naval militia organizations may own personal property, to be under the control of the active members thereof; and the commanding officer of any organization may recover in his own name for its use, in any county where such organization or part thereof is located, any debts or effects belonging to it, or damages for injury to such property. No suit or complaint pending in his own name shall be abated by his ceasing to be commanding officer of the organization, but his successor shall be permitted to prosecute the suit or complaint.

SECTION 180. The duty of the naval militia may be performed afloat on vessels of the navy or on vessels or boats loaned by the secretary of the navy to the governor or other proper state authority, for the use of the naval militia.

1896, 182, § 1. 1910, 404, § 22.
1912, 300, § 1. 1914, 718, § 1 (g).

The annual appropriation for the furnishing, repair and care of any United States ships loaned to the commonwealth for the use of the naval militia shall be available for the payment of all damages and other expenses incident to the use of such ships. Claims for damages shall be paid only when approved by the adjutant general, and the release obtained shall be in such form as he may prescribe.

SECTION 181. The commander-in-chief may prescribe the terms and conditions under which, and the types of duty for which, officers and 3 enlisted men shall be entitled to receive compensation, transportation, 4 subsistence or other allowances and emoluments.

1 Section 182. The commander-in-chief may prescribe the amounts
2 to be allowed and paid for compensation, transportation, subsistence, 3 allowances and other emoluments to officers and enlisted men of the 4 naval forces, and the amounts to be allowed and paid to brigades, bat-
5 talions, divisions and other units for administrative and incidental 6 expenses, for the care and repair of uniforms and equipment, and the 7 care of arms and quarters.

1 Section 183. Such officer as may be designated in orders of the 2 commander-in-chief to act as paymaster general for the naval militia
3 may have advanced to him, by the commonwealth, under such rules and 4 regulations as the comptroller prescribes, one hundred per cent of the 5 pay and mileage for duty to be performed under section one hundred and 6 eighty-one, and he shall return the unexpended balance so advanced as 7 soon as possible, or at such time as the comptroller may require.

1 Section 184. Presidents of general courts-martial, senior members
2 of summary courts-martial and deck court officers of the naval forces
3 may issue warrants to arrest accused persons and to bring an accused 4 person before the court for trial, whenever he shall have disobeyed a 5 written order from the convening authority, delivered to the accused with 6 a copy of the charge or charges, and directing him to appear before the 7 court. The said officers may issue subpoenas to witnesses, etc.

1 Section 185. All fines assessed under any provisions of sections one 2 hundred and seventy-one to one hundred and eighty-eight, inclusive, and 3 collected or withheld shall be paid to the commanding officer of the naval 4 militia of the Massachusetts volunteer militia, to be used by him to re-5 place lost or damaged property, or for such other purposes of the naval 6 militia as he may determine, subject to such regulations as may be pre-7 served by the commander-in-chief or by the secretary of the navy of 8 the United States. Upon receipt of a certificate from the authority con-
9 vening the court as to any fine assessed by it, the pay officer concerned
10 shall pay over any funds due to the person fined, not exceeding the amount 11 of the fine, to the commanding officer upon his sole receipt.

1 Section 186. The provisions of section one hundred and fifty-six
2 shall apply to each person appearing before courts of inquiry or courts-3 martial.

SECTION 187. Officers of or above the rank of lieutenant-commander, pay officers, and any officer serving as judge advocate or as a member of a court or board, may administer the oaths required by this chapter and by the regulations for the government of the militia.

SECTION 188. The provisions of section one hundred and sixty-eight shall apply to the naval forces.

SECTION 2. County commissioners shall cause changes in the boundaries of towns, in the courses of highways, railroads and canals, and other topographical alterations to be correctly delineated on the county maps, which shall remain in their possession.

The state secretary, as often as necessary, shall transmit the manuscript county maps in his office to the respective county commissioners who shall cause a competent engineer or surveyor under their direction to transfer thereto all changes, and shall, within two months after their receipt, return them to the secretary, who shall forthwith cause the changes to be copied on the plates of the state map.

SECTION 3. Each county shall provide suitable court houses, jails, houses of correction, fireproof offices and other public buildings necessary for its use, and suitable accommodations for district courts, except that the county of Dukes need not provide a house of correction, and that Boston shall provide necessary public buildings for Suffolk county.

SECTION 3A. Women shall be eligible to election or appointment to all county offices, positions, appointments and employments.

SECTION 4. Except in Nantucket and Suffolk counties, there shall be elected in each county, as provided in section one hundred and fifty-eight of chapter fifty-four, for terms of years beginning the first Wednesday of January following their election and until their successors are qualified, three county commissioners and two associate commissioners, who shall be sworn before entering upon their duties, and shall annually, at their first meeting after the first Wednesday of January, choose by ballot a chairman. In Nantucket county the selectmen of Nantucket, in Suffolk county the mayor and city council of Boston and the municipal council of Chelsea, in their respective cities, and in Revere and Winthrop the commissioners for Middlesex county, shall, except as otherwise provided, have the powers and perform the duties of county commissioners.

SECTION 5. The salaries of county commissioners, payable by their respective counties in full for all services performed by said commissioners except as otherwise provided, shall be as follows:—

COUNTY COMMISSIONERS.
Section 6. [Repealed, 1930, 400, § 2.]

Section 7. An associate commissioner shall be paid by the county not less than five dollars for each day of actual service, not exceeding five hundred dollars in any year, and ten cents a mile for travel each way.

The commissioners of Middlesex county, when acting in relation to Revere or Winthrop, shall be paid therefor by said city and town, or either of them, in such proportions as the commissioners may direct, at the rate of ten dollars a day and five cents a mile for travel for each commissioner in attendance.

Section 8. An itemized statement of the actual and proper cost to the commissioners for transportation and other necessary expenses incurred in the performance of their official duties shall, on the first day of each month, be certified by them to the director of accounts, who shall audit and if correct certify it to the county treasurer who shall reimburse them.

Section 9. The commissioners shall hold meetings at the following times and places for their respective counties:

1. At Barnstable, the second Tuesday of April and October.
2. At Pittsfield, the first Tuesday of January, April, July and October.
3. At Taunton, the fourth Tuesday of March and September.
4. At Edgartown, the Wednesday next after the third Monday of May.
5. At Ipswich, the second Tuesday of April; at Salem, the second Tuesday of July; at Newburyport, the second Tuesday of October; at Lawrence, the last Tuesday of August; and the fourth Tuesday of December, at Ipswich, Salem or Newburyport, as they shall order at the preceding meeting.
6. At Greenfield, the first Tuesday of March and September and the second Tuesday of June and December.
7. At Springfield, the second Tuesday of April, the first Tuesday of October and the fourth Tuesday of June and December.
8. At Northampton, the first Tuesday of March, September and December.
9. At Cambridge, the first Tuesday of January and June; at Lowell, the first Tuesday of September.
10. At Dedham, the third Tuesday of April, the fourth Tuesday of June and September and the last Wednesday of December.
11. At Plymouth, the first Tuesday of January, the third Tuesday of March and the first Tuesday of August.
12. At Worcester, the fourth Tuesday of March, the third Tuesday of June, the second Tuesday of September and the fourth Tuesday of December.
13. They may by vote, specifying the time and place, establish other regular meetings within their county, and may also hold special meetings therein at such times and places as may be necessary. They may adjourn any regular or special meeting to any place within the county.
and persons required to appear at, or processes returnable to, any such meeting, shall appear at or be returnable to the adjourned meeting.

SECTION 9A. The records of the commissioners shall consist of a docket, the files, a record of payments ordered, the extended record, and a complete record of proceedings at all meetings as provided in section ten.

SECTION 9B. The docket is hereby defined as a record wherein their clerk shall register, by its title or by an abstract, and numbered consecutively, every action, suit and proceeding commenced before or transferred or appealed to the commissioners, and also contracts filed as required by section seventeen. He shall note therein, according to the date thereof, the filing or return of any paper or process, the making of any decree, adjudication, order, rule or other direction, or any amendment thereof, in or concerning such matter.

SECTION 9C. The files are hereby defined as all papers and processes filed with or by the clerk in any action, suit, proceeding or contract, before, by or with the commissioners. All such papers, processes and contracts shall be numbered consecutively in each case, as entered.

SECTION 9D. The record of payments ordered shall be in such form as the commissioners, with the approval of the director of accounts, may determine. It shall contain the name of each person to whom payment is ordered made, together with its amount, both of which shall be classified under a heading specifying the appropriation from which such payment is to be made.

SECTION 9E. The extended record shall be in abridged form. It shall comprise an abbreviated chronicle of all matters entered upon the docket, under the same or a similar title or an abstract thereof, and under the same number, and shall contain a brief and concise narrative of the essential features of the matter. Any final judgment, decree or order affecting the title to land shall be copied therein at length. But contracts and amendments thereof shall not be copied unless so ordered by the commissioners.

SECTION 10. They shall keep a full and complete record of the proceedings at all their meetings and, if their vote or decision is not unanimous, the record shall show how each commissioner voted. A copy thereof, attested by their clerk, shall be transmitted annually, or before the fifteenth day of January, to the director of accounts, who shall submit it to the general court.

SECTION 11. They may employ such clerical employees as may be necessary for the proper performance of the work of their offices, who shall perform such duties as the commissioners may determine. They may, in the absence from any meeting of the clerk or any deputy assistant clerk designated under section seven of chapter two hundred and twenty-one, appoint a temporary clerk, who may be a commissioner or other suitable person. He shall be sworn by the chairman or presiding commissioner, keep a record of the proceedings, and deliver the same 9 forthwith to the clerk or deputy assistant clerk, who shall enter it upon 10 the records of the commissioners.

1 Section 12. In case of a vacancy, inability to attend, or interest
2 in a question before the commissioners, or if any part of a highway
3 relative to which they are to act lies within the town where a com-
4 missioner resides, the members qualified to act shall give notice to one or 5 both the associate commissioners, as the case may be, who shall then 6 act as commissioners. They may, however, receive a petition, issue an 7 order of notice thereon, or take a recognizance, whenever two members 8 are competent to act. If they cannot otherwise organize, residence 9 shall not disqualify.

12 105 Mass. 219, 225.
13 116 Mass. 73.
14 122 Mass. 258.

1 Section 13. When in session, the commissioners may administer
2 oaths to witnesses and punish disorderly conduct which interrupts their 3 meeting or is an open and direct contempt of their authority or persons
4 by a fine of not more than five dollars or by confinement in the custody
5 of the sheriff, a deputy sheriff or constable for not more than twelve 6 hours.

1 Section 14. In addition to such powers and duties as may other-
2 wise be conferred or imposed by law, the commissioners may provide
3 for erecting and repairing court houses, jails and other necessary public 4 buildings within and for the use of their county, but no money shall 5 be paid or liability incurred therefor in excess of the amount specifically 6 authorized by the general court, except for emergency repairs, and no
7 bills for construction or enlargement of a jail, house of correction or 8 reformatory shall be incurred or paid until the plans therefor have been 9 approved by the commissioner of correction, except as otherwise pro-10 vided. They shall have authority to represent their county, and to have 11 the care of its property and the management of its business and affairs 12 in cases where not otherwise expressly provided; to sell and convey any 13 real estate of the county by deed, sealed with the county seal, signed 14 and acknowledged by them; to adopt a county seal, which shall be in 15 the custody of their clerk and affixed to all processes requiring it.

1 Section 15. They shall, upon administering the oaths of office to 2 officers required by law to qualify before them, forthwith make return
3 thereof to the state secretary.

1 Section 16. They may allow one half holiday in each week without
2 loss of pay to county employees, including therein laborers, mechanics
3 and all other classes of workmen, during such portions of the year as 4 they may determine.

1 Section 17. All contracts exceeding eight hundred dollars in amount
2 made by the commissioners for building, altering, furnishing or repairing
3 public buildings, or for the construction or repair of public works, or for 4 the purchase of supplies, shall be in writing and shall be filed with said
5 commissioners or their clerk, and a copy of each such contract shall be 6 filed in the office of the county treasurer. All changes in or additions to,
7 or agreements for extras under, such contracts shall also be in writing.
and be so filed. All such contracts shall be made after notice inviting bids therefor has been posted for at least one week in a conspicuous place in each county building where the commissioners have an office and has been advertised at least three times in a newspaper, if any, published in the city or town wherein the public building, bridge, highway or public work or institution to be supplied in accordance with the contract is or is to be situated; otherwise in any newspaper of general circulation in the county. The commissioners shall in each case make and file with the county treasurer a sworn certificate of such posting and advertising, but in an emergency, to the existence of which they shall certify upon the orders to the county treasurer for the payment of bills, they may contract for repairs without such posting or advertising. All bids shall be publicly opened in the presence of the commissioners and recorded in their records. No contract made in violation of this section shall be valid against the county, and no payment thereunder shall be made. The commissioners may, however, repair county buildings or other public works by day work, if in their judgment, expressed in a vote, the best interests of the county so require; but no bill therefor in excess of eight hundred dollars shall be paid by the county treasurer unless, upon or with the bill, the clerk of the commissioners has certified that such vote is entered upon their records.

Section 18. The commissioners shall require all applicants for the award of damages or the performance of any other official act in which the county has no interest to recognize to the county, with sureties to their satisfaction, for the payment of all costs and expenses accruing to the county by reason of their application and the proceedings thereon, which shall be added to the damages, if any, assessed in consequence thereof. If an application is dismissed and costs are chargeable to the petitioner, they shall be taxed for each commissioner at the rate of three dollars a day, and five cents a mile for travel to and from the place of meeting, and paid to the county. If the persons recognizing refuse or neglect, when required by the commissioners, to pay such costs and expenses, the commissioners may, after notice to the persons who so recognized, issue a warrant against them or some of them, unless sufficient cause is shown to the contrary, for the amount ordered to be paid by them, with the further costs of the notice and warrant, and the money shall be collected and paid into the county treasury.

Section 19. The commissioners severally, except associate commissioners, may, at other times than at regular meetings, receive petitions relative to railroads or to matters where the county has no interest and may take recognizances thereon, and, upon such petitions and similar petitions entered at a regular meeting the commissioners or the chairman may, at other times than at regular meetings, appoint hearings and direct notices to be given to persons interested. They shall severally make return of such petitions and recognizances, with their proceedings, at any regular or special meeting held therefor; and the clerk shall record the same. The costs of any such special meeting shall be paid by such parties as the commissioners determine.

Section 20. The laws relative to the powers, duties and liabilities of county commissioners and their clerks shall apply, except as otherwise provided, to all other public officers exercising their powers.

COUNTY TREASURERS.

SECTION 1. In Suffolk county the treasurer of Boston, and in Nantucket county the treasurer of the town of Nantucket, shall be the county treasurer. In all other counties, a treasurer, who shall be a resident of the county, shall be elected as provided in section one hundred and sixty of chapter fifty-four, for the term of six years beginning with the first Wednesday of January following his election and until his successor is qualified. No incumbent of the office of attorney general, district attorney, justice of the superior court, clerk of the courts or sheriff shall be county treasurer.

SECTION 2. If a county treasurer is unable to act, the county commissioners may appoint a temporary treasurer, who shall hold office until the treasurer is able to resume his duties, and shall give bond as provided in the following section.

SECTION 3. County treasurers, except in Suffolk and Nantucket counties, shall be sworn before the county commissioners, who shall make a record thereof. Each treasurer shall give bond to the county for the faithful performance of his official duties, in a form approved by the attorney general, with such sureties and in such sum as the commissioners shall approve. An attested copy thereof and a certificate of the commissioners that the original is in their possession shall be filed with the state secretary within one week after its approval. Suit thereon may be brought in the name and for the benefit of the county by the commissioners or by the attorney general.

1 Section 8. The county treasurer shall be paid his actual and proper traveling expenses incurred in the transaction of county business. An itemized statement thereof shall, on the first day of each month, be certified to the commissioners, by whom it shall be audited and approved.

1 Section 9. For wilful violation of a duty imposed by law, a county treasurer shall forfeit not less than fifty nor more than one thousand dollars, recoverable at the suit of the attorney general to the use of the county.

1 Section 10. The treasurer shall collect, receive and safely keep all money belonging to the county, and disburse it according to law. He shall not make payments to the county commissioners or associate commissioners to be disbursed by them in behalf of the county. He shall pay all claims against his county within ten days after their allowance. He may pay any claim by a bank check which, when paid and returned, shall be a sufficient receipt therefor.

1 Section 11. No payments, except payments of expenses in criminal prosecutions, of expenses of the courts, of the compensation or salaries of county officers established by law, of outstanding notes or bonds and of interest thereon, shall be made by a treasurer except upon orders drawn and signed by a majority of the county commissioners, certified by their clerk and accompanied, except in Suffolk county, by the original bills, vouchers or evidences of county indebtedness for which payment is ordered, stating in detail the items and confirming the account. Said clerk shall not certify such orders until he has recorded them in the records of the commissioners.

which shall be filed with the vouchers. The treasurer shall be personally liable for money paid out by him, except when specifically required by law, unless there is an unexpended balance of an appropriation made therefor sufficient for such payment, except as provided in section thirty-four, and for any money paid by him without the voucher and certificate required by law. County officers may continue the several departments under their charge after the close of the financial year, at the rate of expenditure authorized for the previous year, until an appropriation has been made by the general court.

Section 15. The treasurer shall keep a full and accurate account stating when, from or to whom, and on what account money has been received or paid. Except in Suffolk county, his books shall be kept in the form prescribed by the director of accounts.

1919, 550, §§ 52, 54.

Section 16. The financial year of each county shall be the calendar year, but the treasurer shall, until January tenth, enter in his books the items for the payment of bills incurred and salaries earned during the previous year. Immediately after January first, he shall pay to every officer in his county any salary balance remaining due.

Section 17. [Repealed, 1931, 426, § 4.]

Section 18. Sections ten, fourteen, twenty-five to twenty-nine, inclusive, and forty-four shall not apply to Suffolk and Nantucket counties.

Section 19. County salaries shall, except as otherwise provided, be payable in monthly instalments on the first day of the month; but no such instalment shall be paid to clerks of courts until all fees then payable by them to the county have been paid to the county treasurer or other officer entitled thereto. County treasurers shall pay no fees to clerks of courts for any official service.

Section 20. A county treasurer may prosecute suits upon bonds, notes and other securities given to or held by the county or its treasurer. He may also prosecute for injuries to the land, buildings or other property of his county, subject to section thirty-six of chapter forty-one.

1890, 141, R.L. 21, §§ 8, 14, 18, 24-28, 37, 47, 1911, 447, 1931, 426, § 5.

Section 21. If a public officer, required by law to account with and pay money to a county treasurer, fails so to do for ten days after the time prescribed by law therefor, the treasurer shall notify the district attorney, who shall forthwith proceed to recover the sum due.

1899, 221, § 4, 1918, 257, § 139, 1919, 5, 1925, 2.

Section 22. Except as otherwise provided, county treasurers, clerks of the courts, clerks of district courts, sheriffs and masters of jails and houses of correction, probation officers, registers of probate and insolvency and registers of deeds, having more money in their hands than is required for immediate use, shall deposit it, in their official names, in national banks or trust companies in the commonwealth at the best practicable interest rates, which interest shall be paid to the county, except that interest accruing to deposits by registers of probate shall be paid to the commonwealth; provided, that interest accruing on the deposit as aforesaid of any money paid to any official mentioned in this section which is so paid under order of a court or which is otherwise subject to the direction of a court shall, if the court so directs, be paid to the parties entitled to the principal fund of such deposit.

1 Section 23. Money paid into the courts in any county shall, if possible, be placed at interest by the clerks thereof, and the interest shall be available for the uses of the county, unless the court directs it to be paid to the parties to the litigation in connection with which such money was paid into court. All interest in the custody of any clerk of said courts not directed to be paid as aforesaid, remaining after payment by order of the court of the principal fund to parties litigant entitled thereto, shall annually be paid, if the court is in Suffolk county, to the collector of the city of Boston or, if the court is in any other county, to the county treasurer of said county, between January first and tenth, to be used for general 11 county purposes.

1 Section 23A. County officers holding funds unclaimed after two years from the time of receipt thereof and not otherwise subject to statutory disposition shall pay over such funds to their county treasury for the use of the county; provided, that any person or persons establishing a lawful claim thereto before the county commissioners within six years of such payment over may receive satisfaction thereof from any available funds in the county treasury.

1 Section 24. If a time is fixed for payment of money due a county, the debtor shall, if notified by the county treasurer seven days at least before such time, pay interest thereon at the rate of twelve per cent per annum from such fixed time until payment.

1 Section 25. Immediately after January tenth, the county treasurer shall annually prepare a report of the county receipts and expenditures for the preceding year, stated separately under the heads prescribed by the director of accounts for keeping the treasurer's books. Such statement shall contain in detail the name of every person, except witnesses, by or to whom money has been paid, the amounts so paid or received under appropriate classifications and the objects of payment; also a table setting forth the appropriation made by the general court for each specific object, the amount expended therefrom, the unexpended balance thereof, and any excess of payments over said appropriation.

1 Section 26. Immediately after January tenth, the county commissioners shall annually prepare a report on county affairs, showing their acts during the year preceding, so as to give the taxpayers of the county a full and clear understanding of its affairs and of the objects and methods of county expenditures. They shall state specifically what petitions relating to highways have been received, and what highways have been laid out, altered, relocated or discontinued, the manner of their alteration or new construction, the time of their intended completion, what have been completed, at what cost and at whose expense, and what remain to be completed, what damages or betterments have been awarded or estimated and to or against whom, what damages have been paid or betterments collected, and what suits are pending in relation thereto. They shall also state what highways have been laid out under orders stating that betterments are to be assessed, their action relative to public and private ways, what applications relative to state highways they have made to the department of public works, and, so far as ascertainable, what highways have been laid out within the county by said department, what have been constructed and at what expense, what sums expended by the commonwealth in the county for highways have been repaid by said county, what sums remain to be paid, and when. They shall also make a detailed statement of the repairs upon the several county buildings, stating separately the work done by contract and by day, and the money paid, and the liabilities incurred in the construction of new buildings, and shall also state what reservoirs, reservoir dams and mill dams have been examined by them under section forty-five of chapter two hundred and fifty-three. They shall present a table showing the salaries paid to county officers, stating separately those prescribed by law, a statement of the county debt, giving the date when each obligation will mature and the rate of interest, stating separately the loans made in anticipation of taxes and permanent loans, a statement of the amount of county taxes due and unpaid, and a list of the assets of the county, including land, buildings, law library, furniture in court houses, jails and other public buildings.

Section 27. The county treasurer shall cause such report to be printed and bound with his own report in number sufficient to furnish a copy for every three hundred inhabitants of the county, and shall send a copy to the state library, to the director of accounts, and to the mayor of each city and the selectmen of each town in the county, and the remaining copies to the clerk of each city and town in the county, in proportion to its population, for the use of the inhabitants. He shall, at the close of each year, advertise in not more than three newspapers published in the same or an adjoining county an account of the county receipts and expenditures arranged under distinct heads, and a specific statement of the county debts, the purposes for which incurred and their dates of maturity.

Section 27A. The county treasurer of each county shall act as the treasurer and custodian of the funds of every institution, organization, board, commission or other public body to the use of which funds of his county are contributed, provided that in case any such public body serves a district comprising more than one county, the county treasurer of the county in which such public body is chiefly located or has its headquarters, as determined by the director of accounts, shall so act.

County Finances.

Section 28. The county commissioners shall annually prepare estimates of county receipts and expenditures for the ensuing year, in the form prescribed by the director of accounts and upon blanks by him furnished, including estimates for construction and repair of county
5 buildings and for effecting insurance providing indemnity for or pro-
6 tection to the officers and employees of the county against loss by reason
7 of their liability to pay damages to others for bodily injuries, including 8 death at any time resulting therefrom, caused by the operation, within 9 the scope of their official duties or employment, of motor vehicles owned 10 by the county, to an amount not exceeding five thousand dollars on 11 account of injury to or death of one person, or for providing indemnity 12 or protection as aforesaid without insurance, with a statement of the 13 corresponding appropriations for the preceding year, and expenditures 14 for each of the three preceding years, explaining any difference between 15 the amount of an estimate and the latest appropriation for the same 16 purpose, and citing the laws relating thereto. The clerk of the commis-
17 sioners shall record the foregoing in a book kept therefor, and, on or before
18 January twentieth, shall send a copy thereof, by him attested and signed 19 by the chairman, to the said director, who shall analyze and classify 20 said estimates, and report the same to the general court not later than 21 February tenth. The director shall upon their request send a copy of 22 said report to the mayor of each city and to the selectmen of each town 23 in the commonwealth.

Section 29. The expenditure of money by the several counties shall be in accordance with annual appropriations of the general court, specifying as separate appropriations the several items of expenditure, as prescribed by the director of accounts. At the closing of the county treasurer’s books on January tenth, the balance to the credit of each annual appropriation shall become a part of the general unappropriated balance in the county treasury; but no special appropriation shall lapse until the work for which it was made has been completed, the bills paid and the account closed.

Section 30. The amount which the county commissioners shall levy as the county tax shall be as authorized annually by the general court, and as computed by adding together the amounts of the annual appropropriation and of any new special appropriation, so far as the money therefore is to be raised by taxation, and deducting therefrom so much of the probable receipts from all sources, except loans, and of the unappropriated balance in the county treasury at the closing of the treasurer’s books for the previous year as the general court deems advisable.
9 The commissioners shall also levy annually as a county tax a sum suf-
10 ficient to meet the debt and interest maturing in that year, if no other 11 provision therefor has been made.

Section 31. The county commissioners shall apportion and assess 2 all county taxes among and upon the several towns according to the 3 latest state valuation, and shall, by their clerk, certify the assessments
4 to the assessors thereof, and prescribe the time of payment. The several 5 amounts so apportioned and assessed shall be collected and paid like the 6 state tax into the respective town treasuries, and the commissioners
7 in their warrants shall require the selectmen or assessors of each town 8 to pay, or to issue their warrants requiring the treasurer thereof to 9 pay, to the county treasurer the amount so assessed, at such times as 10 shall be fixed in the warrant of the commissioners. The selectmen or 11 assessors of each town shall return a certificate of the name of the Section 32. No county expenditure shall be made or liability incurred, nor shall a bill be paid for any purpose, in excess of the appropriation therefor, except as provided in the two following sections and in section fourteen.

Section 33. If the appropriation for any purpose is insufficient to meet an expenditure required by law, the treasurer may, on the order of the county commissioners, pay the same from any money in the treasury. The commissioners shall place on their records a statement of all such payments with the reasons in detail therefor, and shall report fully and specifically thereon in their next annual report.

Section 34. After December thirty-first and before the regular appropriations have been made by the general court, the county commissioners and other officers authorized to incur liabilities payable by the county may incur liability at a rate of expenditure not in excess of that authorized for the same purpose for the preceding year, but not exceeding one half the last annual appropriation therefor. Payments therefor may be made from any unappropriated balance in the county treasury, to be charged to the regular annual appropriation when made. No new or unusual expense shall be incurred or permanent contract made, or salary increased until an appropriation sufficient therefor has been made by the general court.

Section 35. The supreme judicial court, upon the suit of the attorney general or petition of one or more taxable inhabitants of a county, may in law or in equity enforce sections eleven, thirteen, fifteen, sixteen, twenty-five to thirty, inclusive, and thirty-two to thirty-four, inclusive, of this chapter, and sections fourteen and seventeen of chapter thirty-four.

Section 36. At the end of each year the treasurer shall render to the county commissioners an account of all county receipts and expenditures, and when approved and allowed by them, shall deliver it to their clerk.

Section 36A. For the purpose of providing funds for the repair or reconstruction of any building, plant, structure or equipment of any county institution damaged or destroyed by fire or other catastrophe, or of any county building or other structure so damaged or destroyed, whenever such repair or reconstruction is necessary to prevent a discontinuance of the work or service conducted by such institution or inconvenience to the public, or for the purpose of providing funds for meeting any other emergency in the administration of the affairs of a county, the county commissioners, with the approval of a board composed of the attorney general, the state treasurer and the director of accounts, may, and in case of repairs or reconstruction at a county institution under the supervision of a board of trustees, at the request of said trustees, shall issue notes of the county maturing within one year from their respective 14 dates. Said notes shall be signed by the treasurer and countersigned by a 15 majority of the commissioners and may be sold at such discount as the 16 commissioners may deem proper, the discount to be treated as interest 17 paid in advance. The proceeds thereof shall be paid into the county 18 treasury and shall be expended by the county commissioners in payment 19 of bills contracted for the purposes of said repairs or reconstruction or to 20 meet such emergency; provided, that in case of such repairs or recon- 21 struction at a county institution under the supervision of a board of 22 trustees, said proceeds shall be expended in payment of bills so con- 23 tracted by said trustees.

1 Section 37. County commissioners may borrow money in anticipa- 2 tion of, and to be repaid from, the county tax of the current year. If 3 said tax has been granted, such loans shall not exceed its amount; other- 4 wise they shall not exceed the amount of the previous annual tax. They 5 may issue therefor county notes with or without interest, maturing within 6 one year after the date when the debt for which they are issued was 7 incurred. If without interest they may be sold at such discount as the 8 commissioners may deem proper, otherwise at not less than par. Such 9 notes shall be signed by the treasurer, countersigned by a majority of 10 the commissioners, and shall expressly be made payable from the taxes of 11 the current year, but shall nevertheless be negotiable. Except as other- 12 wise expressly provided by law, neither county commissioners nor county 13 treasurers, except in Suffolk and Nantucket counties, may borrow money 14 or negotiate loans upon the credit of the county. Notes may also be 15 issued between January first and January tenth, in accordance with this 16 section, in anticipation of assessments payable to the county by cities, 17 towns or corporations, under statutory provisions and unpaid at the end 18 of the preceding year, in cases in which the total cost of the project for 19 which the assessment is levied was paid by the county in the first instance.

1 Section 37A. Counties shall not issue any bonds or notes payable on 2 demand, and they shall provide for the payment of all debts, except those 3 incurred in anticipation of revenue or in anticipation of reimbursement 4 from cities and towns, by such annual payments as will extinguish the 5 same at maturity, and so that the first of such annual payments on 6 account of any loan shall be made not later than one year after the date 7 of the bond or note issued therefor, and so that the amount of such annual 8 payment in any year on account of such debt, so far as issued, shall not 9 be less than the amount of the principal payable in any subsequent year. 10 The proceeds of any sale of bonds or notes, except premiums, shall be 11 used only for the purposes specified in the original authorization of the 12 loan; provided, that unexpended amounts may be applied to maturing 13 annual payments of the same loan. Any premium received upon such 14 bonds or notes, less the cost of preparing, issuing and marketing them, 15 shall be applied to the payment of the principal of the first bond or note 16 to mature.

1 Section 38. Before issuing notes or securities increasing county in- 2 debtedness, the county commissioners shall invite proposals for the pur- 3 chase thereof by advertisements in two or more newspapers published 4 in said county, if any, and by advertisements in at least three daily 5 newspapers published in Boston. They shall reserve the right to re- 6 ject any and all bids. The bids shall be publicly opened and noted in their records. If no proposal is made or accepted they may award the whole or any part of the loan to any person. Notes authorized by section thirty-seven, notes or bonds issued to renew or refund indebtedness existing at the time of issue thereof, notes or bonds in anticipation of reimbursement from cities, towns and others in connection with work temporarily financed by the county, including tuberculosis hospital maintenance notes under section eighty-five A of chapter one hundred and eleven, shall be excepted from the requirement of this section as to advertising for bids and may be sold at public or private sale.

SECTION 39. All bonds, notes and other securities issued by any county after April twenty-second, nineteen hundred and twenty, shall bear such rate of interest as the county treasurer, with the approval of the county commissioners, may fix, notwithstanding any general or special provision of law enacted prior to said date.

SECTION 40. The treasurer shall annually, in November, notify all officers required to account for and pay to him any fines, expenses, forfeitures, fees and money, to make the returns thereof, specifying the laws requiring the same. He shall annually, in January, return to the director of accounts a sworn statement of all such items received by him in criminal matters during the preceding year, from whom received, and the name of each magistrate or officer failing to comply, and what proceedings have been taken by reason thereof. He shall also, annually, on or before October fifteenth, make a return to the commissioner of correction, upon blanks to be provided by said commissioner, of all amounts paid or received by him on account of any jail or house of correction for the year ending on the preceding September thirtieth.

SECTION 41. Public officers or agents shall accompany payments of public funds to county treasurers with a sworn statement, showing the date, amount and purpose thereof, and such other details as the director of accounts may prescribe, transmitting forthwith a duplicate to him.

SECTION 42. The auditor of Boston shall be the auditor of Suffolk county. No bill against said county shall be paid until audited and allowed by him.

SECTION 43. A county, city, town or district, or any domestic corporation, which shall have issued any bond, note or certificate of indebtedness payable to bearer, held by the sinking fund commissioners of a county, shall, at the request of such commissioners, issue in exchange therefor a bond, note or certificate to the same effect, payable to such commissioners by name; provided, that the county desiring such exchange shall, if requested, furnish the blank form for the bond, note or certificate therefor in the same general form as that furnished by the commonwealth under section thirty-nine of chapter twenty-nine. Any county, city, town, district or corporation neglecting or refusing to comply with this section shall be subject to a penalty of not more than fifty dollars.
SECTION 43A. Every officer or employee of a county required to furnish a fidelity bond with a surety or sureties shall furnish a bond with a surety company authorized to transact business in the commonwealth, as surety. The premium on such bond shall in every case, except in the case of the treasurer of Suffolk or Nantucket county, be paid by the county.

SUPERVISION OF COUNTY ACCOUNTS.

SECTION 44. The director of accounts or his representative shall, unannounced, examine the books and accounts of each county treasurer and all original vouchers for the expenditures of each treasurer at least once a year, and if the same are correct, and if the accounts are accompanied by sufficient vouchers stating in detail the items thereof, and if such vouchers confirm and sustain the same, and if in case of all payments in excess of eight hundred dollars section seventeen of chapter thirty-four has been complied with, he shall so certify on the treasurer’s cash book and shall set forth in words at length the balance existing when the examination is completed. If such accounts are incorrect or not accompanied by sufficient vouchers, the director shall, unless the irregularity is promptly rectified, notify in writing the county commissioners and attorney general, and shall make a full statement thereof in his next annual report.

SECTION 45. The said director or his representative shall also visit, unannounced, at least once a year, all other county officers receiving money payable to the county, clerks of the supreme judicial and superior courts in Suffolk county, the recorder and all assistant recorders of the land court, registers of probate and insolvency, registers of deeds, trial justices and clerks of district courts, probation officers, superintendents of training schools and of shops in houses of correction, and trustees and other officers receiving or disbursing funds of county tuberculosis hospitals, infirmaries or sanatoria, and shall examine their accounts and vouchers, and the items of receipts and expenditures. He shall ascertain the actual amount of money on hand with each of said officers. He shall require, so far as possible, uniformity and correctness in the method of keeping said accounts, and may prescribe the classification of receipts and expenditures and a uniform system of receipts, certificates, vouchers and exhibits. Said officers shall afford such assistance as the director may require in making said examination and shall make returns and exhibits on oath in such form and at such times as he shall prescribe. They shall keep an accurate account of all money charged to or received by them in their official capacities, and also of all expenditures made or liabilities incurred by them on account of the same, and shall annually, on or before January fifteenth, make a sworn return to said director of such receipts and expenditures for the preceding year.

SECTION 46. The commissioner of corporations and taxation shall annually, on or before February first, make a report to the general court, which shall include the material portions of the returns made under the preceding section, compiled in tabular form, with his suggestions and recommendations.
Section 47. An officer or person named in section forty-four or forty-five who refuses or neglects to comply with any provision thereof, or who, for more than ten consecutive days, refuses or neglects to enter in the cash book prescribed by the director of accounts all money received or expended by him in his official capacity or on account of the same, or refuses or neglects to give any information within his knowledge required by said director or his representative shall be reported by the director to the attorney general, and shall be punished by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars.

County personnel board and classification of county salaries, offices and positions.

Section 48. There is hereby established a county personnel board, in this and the eight following sections called the board, consisting of three county commissioners, one to be elected by and from the county commissioners of Berkshire, Franklin, Hampden and Hampshire counties; one to be elected by and from the county commissioners of Essex, Middlesex and Worcester counties; and one to be elected by and from the county commissioners of Barnstable, Bristol, Norfolk and Plymouth counties, provided that in the election of such member from the last named counties, the chairman of the county commissioners of each of the counties of Nantucket and Dukes County shall be entitled to one vote. The commissioner first elected from the county commissioners of Berkshire, Franklin, Hampden and Hampshire counties shall serve for a term of one year, the commissioner first elected from the county commissioners of Essex, Middlesex and Worcester counties shall serve for a term of two years, and the commissioner first elected from the county commissioners of Barnstable, Bristol, Norfolk and Plymouth counties shall serve for a term of three years. The members first elected as aforesaid shall be elected not later than the first day of September, nineteen hundred and thirty, and their several terms shall run from said date. Their successors shall be chosen in the same manner and shall serve for terms of three years from the first day of September in the year when elected. The retirement of any member of the board as a county commissioner shall thereupon create a vacancy in the board. All vacancies in the board shall be filled in the same manner as the original election for the unexpired term, and all commissioners elected to said board shall serve until the qualification of their respective successors. Each member of the board shall receive as compensation the sum of ten dollars for each day's attendance on board meetings, in addition to his salary as county commissioner, and shall be reimbursed for expenses actually incurred in the transaction of the business of the board; provided, that the total amount paid for compensation as aforesaid shall not exceed one thousand dollars annually.

Section 49. Every office and position whereof the salary is wholly payable from the treasury of one or more counties, or from funds administered by and through county officials, except the offices of county commissioners and associate county commissioners, justices and special justices of the district courts, clerks and assistant clerks of the district courts other than the municipal court of the city of Boston, trial justices, other offices and positions filled by appointment of the governor with the advice and consent of the council, and probation officers, shall be classified by the board in the manner provided by sections forty-eight to fifty-six,
Section 50. The director of accounts shall (a) prepare and submit to the board classification and compensation plans, together with such rules for the administration thereof as he may deem proper; (b) recommend to the board such amendments thereto as he deems expedient, and also advise and report to the board relative to amendments proposed under section fifty-three; (c) keep an official roster of the officers and employees subject to sections forty-eight to fifty-six, inclusive, with such other relevant information as he may deem advisable, furnishing for each county a duplicate roster of such officers and employees of the county for filing in the office of the county commissioners; (d) advise and assist the several county commissioners and the board in carrying out the purposes of said sections; (e) perform such other duties as may be requested by the county commissioners of any county or the board in carrying out said purposes; (f) make a continuing study of personnel problems, employment conditions and economic changes as affecting offices and positions subject to said sections; and (g) investigate and make report to the board on appeals as provided in section fifty-two.

The director may employ a person skilled and experienced in public classification and compensation work to assist in the performance of the duties imposed upon him by said sections forty-eight to fifty-six, inclusive. Such employment shall not be subject to chapter thirty-one. All expenses incurred by the director under this section and the compensation and expenses payable under section forty-eight shall be paid in the first instance by the commonwealth, from such funds as may be appropriated by the general court; and the several counties, excluding Suffolk, shall reimburse the commonwealth therefor in proportion to their taxable valuations as determined by the director.

Section 51. The board shall (a) pass upon and finally adopt and put into effect, with such modifications, changes and additions as it shall deem proper, the classification and compensation plans and rules for their administration proposed by the director of accounts under section fifty; (b) pass upon, finally adopt and put into effect, with such modifications as it may deem proper, amendments to the classification and compensation plans and the rules for their administration as may be proposed from time to time under the provisions of section fifty or fifty-three; provided, that no such amendment not proposed by the director of accounts under section fifty shall be adopted except after a report which shall be made by said director within thirty days after submission to him; (c) pass upon and finally determine appeals relative to classification, as provided in section fifty-two; and (d) perform such other functions and duties as may be imposed upon it by said sections forty-eight to fifty-six, inclusive.

Section 52. The classification and allocation of offices and positions required to be classified and allocated by section forty-nine shall be according to their respective duties and responsibilities. The classification shall be established by specifications defining for each office or position or class of offices or positions the title, duties and responsibilities thereof. The titles used in such classification shall be used for pay rolls, in the records of county commissioners, county treasurers, the director of accounts and of the board, and in all budget and appropriation records, but for working and administrative purposes within a department and for public convenience other titles may be used. Incumbents of offices and positions so classified shall perform, as far as practicable, the duties prescribed for the class to which they are assigned, but nothing in sections forty-eight to fifty-six, inclusive, shall be construed to limit or to restrict the county commissioners or other administrative authorities having charge of a department in assigning other work to such incumbents.

Any incumbent aggrieved by the allocation or classification of his office or position may, in writing, appeal to the board. Such appeal shall be filed with the appellant's board of county commissioners, who shall forward the appeal to the board, accompanied by a report and their recommendations thereon. The board shall refer the appeal to the director of accounts, who shall investigate the merits thereof and report to the board. The board shall then finally determine the appeal after hearing all persons interested.

Section 53. The county commissioners of the several counties shall (1) keep on file in their respective offices the duplicate roster of officers and employees of their county, furnished by the director under section fifty; (2) receive and forward to the board, with their report and recommendations thereon, appeals, as provided in section fifty-two; (3) receive and act upon recommendations for salary increases, as provided in section fifty-four, and (4) perform such other functions and duties as may be imposed upon them by said sections forty-eight to fifty-six, inclusive. They may also recommend to the board amendments to the classification and compensation plans and to the rules relating thereto. They shall be entitled to be heard in the determination of questions of classification and allocation on appeal to the board, or otherwise.

Section 54. Newly elected or appointed officers or employees shall receive the minimum rate in the scale for the class to which the office or position has been allocated; provided (1) that where a person already in the service is transferred or demoted, or a former officer or employee is reinstated to an office or position in the class, he shall enter the office or position at the rate which he last received, except that, if the rate received in the former office or position is higher than the maximum of the class, he shall receive the maximum rate; and provided (2) that the board, upon recommendation of the proper county commissioners, supported by evidence of special fitness and exceptional circumstances satisfactory to them, may approve an entrance rate greater than the minimum rate; and provided (3) that less than the minimum rate may be paid in cases found by the board to be exceptional.
Recommendations for promotions, transfers and salary increases, supported by such data as the case may require, shall be submitted to the county commissioners of the various counties by the proper authority, and such recommendations, if conforming to the classification and compensation plans and rules provided for in section fifty-one, may, in their discretion, be granted by the county commissioners; except that all cases involving more than one increment in the salary scale, an original appointment at a rate higher than a minimum rate, the creation of a new class, or other departure from the normal procedure as outlined in the classification and compensation plans and rules shall in each instance be referred by the county commissioners to the board, and the action by the board in relation thereto shall be final. Salary increases in counties other than Suffolk and Nantucket, shall not become effective unless and until an appropriation sufficient to cover the same has been granted by the general court.

Section 55. Except as otherwise expressly provided, all salaries established under the authority of sections forty-eight to fifty-six, inclusive, shall be in full compensation for all services rendered, and every officer or employee shall pay all fees and other moneys received directly or indirectly in the course of his public employment, into the county treasury; provided, that nothing contained in said sections shall prevent the reimbursement of actual and other expenses necessary for the transaction of public business or the payment of overtime approved by the county commissioners, upon evidence of necessity therefor.

Section 56. For Suffolk county, the duties prescribed for the board by section fifty-one, except clause (e) thereof, shall be performed by the city council of the city of Boston, subject to the provisions of the charter of said city; the duties prescribed by sections forty-nine to fifty-five, inclusive, for the director of accounts shall be performed by the budget commissioner of said city, and all other duties prescribed and powers conferred by said sections forty-nine to fifty-five shall be performed by the mayor of said city. Any other county is hereby authorized, subject in all respects to the approval of the governor and council, to establish agencies for the purpose of establishing and administering classification and compensation plans in accordance with the provisions of sections forty-nine to fifty-five, inclusive, and agencies so established shall have the powers granted by said sections to the board and the director of accounts. Upon the establishment of such agency, such county shall cease to be represented in the board or to participate in the election of its members, and its obligation to contribute toward the expenses incurred by the board and by the director under section fifty shall term...

Section 1. The counties of Berkshire, Bristol, Essex, Middlesex and Worcester are for the registry of deeds severally divided into the following districts:

In Berkshire, the middle district, with its office in Pittsfield, comprising Pittsfield, Becket, Dalton, Hinsdale, Lee, Lenox, Otis, Peru, Richmond, Stockbridge, Tyringham and Washington; the northern district, with its office in Adams, that portion of the county lying north of the middle district; and the southern district, with its office in Great Barrington, that portion of the county lying south of the middle district.

In Bristol, the southern district, with its office in New Bedford, comprising New Bedford, Acushnet, Dartmouth, Fairhaven and Westport, the Fall River district, with its office in Fall River, comprising Fall River, Freetown, Somerset and Swansea; and the northern district, with its office in Taunton, the remainder of said county.

In Essex, the northern district, with its office in Lawrence, comprising Lawrence, Andover, Methuen and North Andover; the southern district, with its office in Salem, the remainder of said county.

In Middlesex, the northern district, with its office in Lowell, comprising Lowell, Billerica, Carlisle, Chelmsford, Dracut, Dunstable, Tewks-20bury, Tyngsborough, Westford and Wilmington; the southern district, the remainder of said county.

22 In Worcester, the northern district, with its office in Fitchburg, comprising Fitchburg, Ashburnham, Leominster, Lunenburg and Westminster; the Worcester district, with its office in Worcester, the remainder of said county.

1884, 40, § 1. R. L. 22, § 5.

26 Each of the other counties of the commonwealth shall have an office for the registry of deeds in a shire town thereof.

In other counties. C. L. 33, § 4.

1 Section 2. In each such district and in each county not divided into two districts, a register of deeds, who shall be a resident of such district or county, shall be elected, as provided in section one hundred and fifty-seven of chapter fifty-four, for the term of six years, beginning with the first Wednesday of January following his election, and until his successor shall be qualified.

1 Section 3. Each register of deeds shall be sworn before the county commissioners, or in Suffolk county before the city council of Boston, and shall give bond to the county for the faithful performance of his duties, and those of his assistant registers, with such sureties and in such sum as the commissioners or said council, respectively, shall approve.

1 Section 4. Each register, with the approval of the superior court, may appoint an assistant register of deeds, removable at his pleasure, for whose official acts he shall be responsible. The assistant shall give bond in the same manner as the register, and may be a woman. Any document or paper certified or attested by such assistant or by a second assistant register or by a chief clerk designated under section seven shall be admissible evidence as if certified or attested by the register.

1912, 64. 1920, 569, §§ 3; 603, § 2. 1926, 612.

1 Section 5. The register for Suffolk county may, by a writing recorded in his registry, designate one of the persons employed therein as second assistant register, which designation he may at pleasure in like manner revoke.

Second assistant register in Suffolk. 1908, 612.

1 Section 6. The registers for the southern district of Essex, the county of Hampden, the southern district of Middlesex and the Worcester district may, with the approval of their respective county commissioners, appoint and at pleasure remove, a second assistant register. Such an assistant shall have all the powers and authority vested in an assistant register, and shall receive such compensation as may be allowed by the county commissioners.

Same, in certain other counties, etc. 1920, 569, §§ 3; 603, 1926, 612.
CHAP. 36.

SECTION 7. The register for the Worcester district may, by a writing recorded in his registry, authorize a person employed in said registry to certify or attest, as chief clerk, records or copies of records recorded or filed therein, which authority the register may at pleasure in like manner revoke.

SECTION 8. During the disability of a register, or if a vacancy occurs in the office, the assistant register, or second assistant register, or if none, the clerk, shall perform the register's duties. If the register is disabled and there is no assistant or clerk, or if they are both unable, by reason of illness or otherwise, to perform their official duties, the county commissioners, or in Suffolk county the superior court, may appoint a temporary register of deeds. Notice of such appointment shall be recorded in the registry. Section three shall apply to temporary registers who shall exercise the same powers and duties as registers of deeds until the register or a qualified assistant is able to assume the same, or until the qualification of a new register.

SECTION 9. If a register, upon presentment of the grand jury, is found guilty of misconduct in his official duties, or if from bodily or mental infirmity he is incapable in person of rightly performing the same, the county commissioners, or in Suffolk county the superior court, shall, after reasonable notice, remove him from office, and may order delivery of the books, papers and other things belonging to the office to their clerk or to a new register when appointed or elected.

SECTION 10. If, upon the death, removal or expiration of the term of a register, deeds or other instruments entered in the registry are unrecorded, or recorded but unattested, or if records are unattested, his successor or any subsequent register shall record or attest such deeds, instruments or records agreeably to the facts and conformably with the records and books of entry.

SECTION 11. Every register shall keep in his registry all books, records, deeds and papers belonging thereto, and shall keep the office open a fixed number of hours daily except on Sundays and legal holidays, for receiving and recording papers. Office hours heretofore fixed in the respective counties shall continue until changed by order of the county commissioners. Notice thereof shall be given by posting the same in conspicuous places upon or near the entrance door and upon the walls or counters in each registry.

SECTION 12. Every deed and other instrument required to be recorded in the registry of deeds shall be recorded in the registry of deeds for the district where the land lies to which such deed or instrument relates; and in all things relating to the register or registry of deeds, each district therefor shall be deemed a county.

SECTION 13. If a deed or other writing affecting land has been recorded in a registry of deeds or registered in a registry district of the land court, a copy thereof, duly certified by a proper official, may be recorded or registered in any county or registry district wherein the original might 5 properly have been recorded or registered, and when so recorded or registered shall have the same effect as a record or registration of the original instrument; provided, however, that no such certified copy of such a record or registration, except of a declaration of trust as provided for in section seventy-two of chapter one hundred and eighty-five, shall be entitled to registration in any registry district of the land court until the same has first been approved for the purpose by a judge of the land court.

1 Section 13A. The registers of deeds, or a majority of them, may from time to time make and amend rules prescribing the size or sizes of plans which shall be received for record in registries of deeds in which copies of such rules are posted as hereinafter provided, the material on which the plans shall be made, and other requirements which will best effect the preservation for reference of the matter shown on such plans.
No such rule or any amendment thereof shall take effect until after it has been approved by the attorney general. Any register of deeds may post a copy of the rules, approved as aforesaid, in a conspicuous place in his registry; and, after the expiration of thirty days from such posting, no plan which does not, in the opinion of the register, conform to such rules shall be received for record therein, except upon payment of a fee of three dollars for each such plan in addition to the fees provided by section thirty-eight of chapter two hundred and sixty-two.

1 Section 14. Each register shall keep a book, each page of which shall be divided into six columns, with the following headings:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Date of Reception</th>
<th>Grantors</th>
<th>Grantees</th>
<th>Town where the Land lies</th>
<th>To whom delivered after being recorded</th>
<th>Fees received</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

3 He shall enter therein, in the order of receipt, all deeds and instruments left for record, and all copies left as cautions, noting in the first column the day, hour and minute when received and the other items in the appropriate columns; and every deed or instrument shall be conidered as recorded at the time so noted. Papers received for record outside the hours fixed under section eleven shall be entered as of the first minute of the next succeeding business hour.

1 Section 15. He shall record all instruments upon the pages of the record books in fair and legible handwriting or in print, and in continuous successive lines, and shall note on the record, before attesting the same, all erasures and interlineations and the value of any stamp affixed thereto pursuant to federal law, and the cancellation thereof.

Manner of recording instruments, and notation of stamp.
1844, 414; 104 G. S. 17, §94. 1863, 225.

1 Section 16. He shall record receipts of federal revenue collectors for succession taxes, or other evidence of their payment, if the person applying for such record first makes affidavit to the genuineness of such recceipt or evidence before a person qualified to take acknowledgment of 5 deeds.

Evidence of payments of succession taxes to be recorded.
1868, 132.

P. S. 24, §§ 16, 17. 4 Mass. 541. 23 Pick. 80. 2 Cush. 494.

SECTION 17. The register shall, at the expense of the county, procure and keep duplicate record books, in which he shall make fair and legible copies of the record of any deed or other instrument existing in the registry which has become worn, mutilated or indistinct, if so directed by the county commissioners, or if so requested by any person lawfully interested in preserving the same. He shall attest such copies, referring in his certificate of attestation to the book and page of the original record, and shall note on the margin of the first page of the original volume and page of the duplicate records containing the copy. Such copies shall have the same force as the original records. He shall receive the same fees for copies and notations as for an original record, payable by the person requesting the same.

SECTION 18. He may attest the records by the volume, and the attestation shall be sufficient when the volume containing the same bears the attest, with the written signature of the register or other person lawfully authorized.

SECTION 19. A facsimile of the signature of any register, imprinted by him, by an assistant register or by such office assistant as the register in writing may designate, upon any original instrument in attestation of the fact that the same has been recorded in his registry or upon any copy of the records or plans which the register is authorized by law to certify or attest as a true copy, shall have the same validity as his written signature.

SECTION 20. If an assignment, extension, partial release, release or discharge of a mortgage of land, or a certificate of the taking or surrender of possession for foreclosure of such mortgage, or an affidavit of notice of sale under a power of sale therein, or an execution for possession of the premises conveyed thereby or any other instrument purporting to affect the same, has been recorded in the county where the land lies, and the original mortgage was not recorded in the same registry, the register of the county where such mortgage was originally recorded, upon exhibition to him at the registry of such instrument purporting to affect the same, shall enter upon the margin of the record of the mortgage a note of reference to the record of such instrument.

SECTION 21. When an instrument described in the preceding section affecting a mortgage is recorded, and it refers by book and page to the record of the mortgage, the register shall enter upon the margin of such record, if in the same registry, a notation of the record of the instrument containing such reference.

SECTION 22. If an assignment, release, partial release, discharge or disclaimer affecting title to land created by a sale or taking for payment of a tax or assessment is recorded, the register shall make a note of reference thereto on the margin of the record of the deed or instrument of sale or taking, if in his registry and referred to in such conveyance.

SECTION 23. He shall certify upon every instrument recorded by him the time when received and the number of the book and leaf or page where recorded.

Duplicate records, making, and fees for copies. 1892, § 53.

Attestation of records by volume. 1907, 225, § 1.

Certificate on deed of date and place of record. 1697, 21, § 5.
P. S. 59, § 5.
G. S. 17, § 95.
Section 24. Notice of a federal tax lien on any property or rights thereto, or a certificate of discharge of such a lien, may be filed without the payment of any fee with the register of deeds of the county where the property is situated and shall be recorded. (1915, 120, §1, 2. 1927, 63, §1. 1928, 386, §1.)

Section 25. He shall keep two indexes, each divided into six columns, with headings in one as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Date of Reception</th>
<th>Grantors</th>
<th>Grantees</th>
<th>Book</th>
<th>Leaf or Page</th>
<th>Town where the Land lies</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

And in the other as follows:

<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Date of Receipt</th>
<th>Grantors</th>
<th>Grantees</th>
<th>Book</th>
<th>Leaf or Page</th>
<th>Town where the Land lies</th>
</tr>
</thead>
</table>

In Suffolk county neither index need contain the last column.

Section 26. He shall, within twenty-four hours after a deed or other instrument which he is by law required to record has been left for record, cause the name of each grantor, grantee or other party thereto to be entered at length and alphabetically in the appropriate index, and in the appropriate column, if any, the name of the town where the land described in the instrument lies, if the same is therein disclosed. Within a reasonable time after such instrument has been recorded, he shall affix to such entry the number of the book and leaf or page where recorded.

Section 27. When an instrument by which a person transfers or conveys by authority of law the real estate of another is left for record, the register shall enter in the entry book and grantor index both the name of the nominal grantor and that of the real party in interest, if appearing therein, otherwise he shall enter such party as "unknown" under the letter U. When notice of the filing of a petition for partition or of amendment thereof, or a copy of a decree in partition is left for record, he shall enter in the entry book and in both the grantor and grantee indexes the names of all persons whose estates plainly appear to be affected thereby.

Section 28. Each register, except in Suffolk county, shall annually, at the expense of the county, cause competent persons to make copies of the indexes of the preceding year, in which the grantors and grantees shall be classified by their respective surnames in alphabetical order, and arranged thereunder in the order in which the deeds and other conveyances to which they refer were left for record. He may also cause the Christian names of the grantors and grantees, as well as their surnames, to be arranged in alphabetical order in such lists. Such copies shall in other respects be in the form required for the original indexes.

Section 29. A register may, with the consent of the county commissioners, cause a competent person, at the expense of the county, to make copies of the indexes or new indexes to the records, or of any part thereof. Such copies may be printed at county expense and sold at a price not less than the cost of printing, paper and binding.
Section 30. Each register, except in Suffolk county, shall annually, before January first, file with the county commissioners an estimate in detail of the character, amount and cost of indexing which, in his judgment, may be required for the ensuing year, and the commissioners shall include in the estimates for county taxes so much thereof as in their judgment is necessary. The amount authorized by the general court may, under the direction of the register, be expended for the purposes specified in his said estimate, and shall be paid to the persons actually performing the work, on approval of the bills by the commissioners.

Section 31. In Suffolk county all the powers and duties exercised in other counties by the registers, with or without the consent of the county commissioners, under sections twenty-eight and twenty-nine, shall be exercised by an unpaid board of three index commissioners, of whom one shall annually, in March, be appointed by the justices of the superior court, for a term of three years beginning with the first day of April following. A commissioner may be removed by said justices for cause, and a vacancy shall be filled by them for the unexpired term.

Section 31A. Within sixty days after the recording of any deed in which the grantee is described as a trustee, or of any declaration of trust, the register in whose office such deed or declaration is recorded shall send by mail to the commissioner of corporations and taxation a notification of the recording thereof, stating the name of the grantor and of the grantee or the trustee, and the date of recording.

Section 32. Whenever there is filed for record in a registry of deeds any deed of trust or other instrument creating or increasing an estate or fund for benevolent, charitable, humane or philanthropic purposes, the register shall forthwith send to the department of public welfare a statement noting the book and page of the record, with the name, if any, of the said estate or fund, and by whom the said estate or fund has been created or increased, and by whom it is to be administered.

Section 33. The salaries of registers of deeds and all assistant registers of deeds shall be paid by their respective counties; and the salaries of registers of deeds shall be in full for all services rendered as register and as assistant recorder of the land court.

Section 34. [Repealed, 1931, 301, § 12.]

Section 35. [Repealed, 1931, 301, § 12.]

Section 36. [Repealed, 1931, 301, § 12.]

Section 37. No register or assistant register shall demand or receive, directly or indirectly, compensation for title work performed by him or under his direction, in his registry.

Section 38. Registers shall annually be allowed for clerical assistance in their respective registries, to be paid by their respective counties, such amounts as shall be approved by the county commissioners.

Estimates of expense of indexes.

Index commissioners in Suffolk county.

Notice to commissioner of corporations, etc., of trust deeds and declarations of trust.
1921, 207.

Notice to department of public welfare of instruments creating charitable trusts, etc.

Salaries.

No compensation to registers or assistant registers for title work.

Allowances for clerical assistance, etc.

Section 38. Registers shall annually be allowed for clerical assistance in their respective registries, to be paid by their respective counties, such amounts as shall be approved by the county commissioners.

Section 5. If, by reason of illness, absence, interest or otherwise, the sheriff is unable to perform his official duties, they shall be performed by the special sheriff, and compensation therefor, if not otherwise provided for, shall be paid by the sheriff. During a vacancy in the office of sheriff, the special sheriff, first giving bond as required of the sheriff, shall perform all the duties of the sheriff, and the deputies of the former sheriff shall continue to exercise the powers of deputy sheriffs.

Section 7. A sheriff neglecting or refusing to give bond as required in section eighteen of chapter thirty shall forfeit one hundred and fifty dollars for each month's neglect, at the suit of the attorney general. The superior court shall forthwith certify the fact of such neglect or refusal to the governor and council and to the attorney general, and, unless the sheriff satisfies the governor and council that there was reasonable cause for such neglect and gives security to their satisfaction within twenty days after the receipt of such certificate, the governor, with the advice and consent of the council, shall remove him from office.

Section 8. The holder of a judgment against a sheriff or his estate, for a cause which constitutes a breach of the condition of his official bond, or a person who has obtained an allowance of such claim against his estate, if settled as insolvent, may, at his own expense, prosecute a suit on such bond in the name of the state treasurer, and the proceedings shall be the same as in a suit by a creditor on an administration bond.

Section 9. The state treasurer shall deliver an attested copy of the official bond of any sheriff to any person applying and paying therefor, which shall be received as competent evidence in a case relating to the bond; but if the execution of the bond is disputed, the court may require the said treasurer to produce the original in court.

Section 10. A sheriff shall not be arrested upon mesne process or execution in a civil action. If judgment is rendered against him, either in his official or private capacity, the execution shall issue against his goods, chattels and land, but not against his body. If such execution is returned unsatisfied, the creditor may file with the governor and council an attested copy of the execution and return, and notify the sheriff. If he does not, within thirty days after such notice, pay to the creditor the whole amount of his debt, with reasonable costs of the copies and notice, the governor, with the advice and consent of the council, shall remove him from office. After the appointment of his successor, the clerk of the court from which any execution against him has issued, upon the return thereof unsatisfied, shall issue alias executions in common form, as well against the body as against the goods, chattels and land.

deputy sheriff. Upon his qualification, the sheriff shall send a written notice thereof, giving the name and residence of the appointee, to the state secretary, who shall record such notice in a book kept for the purpose.
1 Section 11. Sheriffs and their deputies shall serve and execute, 2 within their counties, all precepts lawfully issued to them and all other 3 process required by law to be served by an officer. They may serve 4 process in cases wherein a county, city, town, parish, religious society 5 or fire or other district is a party or interested, although they are inhab- 6 itants or members thereof.

1 Section 12. They may serve by copy, by them attested, demands, 2 notices and citations not required by law to be served by an officer, and 3 their returns of service thereof shall be prima facie evidence.

1 Section 13. They may require suitable aid in the execution of their 2 office in a criminal case, in the preservation of the peace, in the appre- 3 hending or securing of a person for a breach of the peace and in cases 4 of escape or rescue of persons arrested upon civil process.

1 Section 14. They may execute precepts in their hands at the time 2 of their removal from office; and, upon a vacancy in the office of sheriff, 3 every deputy in office under him, having a writ or precept in his hands, 4 shall have the same authority to serve, execute and return the same, 5 as if the sheriff had continued in office.

G. S. 17, § 68. R. L. 23, § 15. 120 Mass. 143.

1 Section 15. If a sheriff is a party to a suit or other proceeding, any 2 writ, precept or process therein, required to be served or executed by 3 a sheriff or deputy sheriff, shall be served or executed by the sheriff of 4 an adjoining county, or his deputy.

1 Section 16. Sheriffs, by themselves or by their deputies shall attend 2 all sessions of the supreme judicial and superior courts in their respective 3 counties, and, when required, meetings of the county commissioners.

G. S. 17, § 69. R. L. 23, § 17.

1 Section 17. The salaries of sheriffs shall be paid by their respective 2 counties and shall, except as hereinafter provided, be in full compensation 3 for all services rendered both as sheriff and as master or keeper of the jail 4 or house of correction. If a sheriff elects to act as master or keeper of the 5 jail or house of correction and resides thereat, he shall be entitled to rent, 6 heat and light, and such subsistence as he may desire out of the regular 7 subsistence rations purchased for prisoners. The sheriff of Dukes and of 8 Nantucket county may, in addition to his salary, retain to his own use the 9 fees received by him for service of process.

Section 22. Each sheriff shall keep an account of all fees and money received by virtue of his office, and, except as otherwise provided, shall annually, on or before December fifteenth, render to the county treasurer a sworn account thereof and, except as provided in section nineteen, pay him the same.

Section 23. Sheriffs shall annually, on or before October fifteenth, return to the state secretary on blanks provided by him a sworn account of all money received by them for the year ending on the preceding September thirtieth, designating the amounts received from the county treasurer and from all other sources, and specifying the amounts received for fees in civil and criminal processes. They shall also return the number of days of attendance upon the courts and upon the county commissioners, and also the number of days of attendance upon more than one of said tribunals simultaneously. If a sheriff neglects to make such return, he shall forfeit two hundred dollars.

Section 2. The associate medical examiners for Suffolk county 1 shall, at the request of either of its medical examiners, perform the 2 duties and have the powers of medical examiners. Each medical ex- 3 aminer shall in each year be entitled to two months’ service in the 4 aggregate from the associates. Associate examiners in the other coun- 5 ties shall, in the absence of the medical examiners or in case of their 6 inability to act, perform in their respective districts all the duties of 7 medical examiners.

Section 3. Each examiner and associate examiner, before entering 1 upon his duties, shall be sworn and give bond for the faithful performance 2 thereof, in the sum of five thousand dollars, to the county treasurer,
4 with sureties by him approved. Failure for three months after ap-
5 pointment to give such bond shall render his appointment void.

1924, 404, § 7.
259 Mass. 310.

1 Section 4. Upon breach of the condition of such bond to the in-
2 jury of any person, the principal may be removed from office and action
3 brought thereon in like manner as upon the bond of a sheriff.

1877, 200, § 24.
P. S. 26, § 8.
259 Mass. 310.

1 Section 5. In Suffolk county each medical examiner shall receive
2 from the county a salary of six thousand dollars, and each associate 3 medical examiner a salary of one thousand dollars; but if either associate 4 serves in any year more than two months, he shall for such additional 5 service be paid at the same rate, and the amount so paid shall be de-
6 ducted from the salary of the medical examiner at whose request he so 7 serves. The medical examiners for said county shall be provided with 8 rooms suitably furnished for the performance of their duties, the rent, 9 furnishing and office equipment of which shall be paid for by said county
10 upon approval of the mayor of Boston. Each of said medical examiners 11 may, in the name of the county, contract such bills for clerical service, 12 postage, stationery, printing, telephone, traveling, and for such other 13 incidental expenses as may in his opinion be necessary for the proper 14 performance of his duty, to an amount not exceeding eighty-five hundred 15 dollars in any one year; and each associate may so contract bills for 16 the said purposes to an amount not exceeding one thousand dollars in 17 any one year; and all such bills shall be paid by said county, upon a 18 certificate by the contracting examiner that they were necessarily in-19 curred in the performance of his duty, and upon the approval of the 20 auditor of Boston, as provided in section nineteen, and of the mayor.
21 Medical examiners and associate medical examiners in other counties
22 shall receive fees as follows: For a view without an autopsy, seven dol-
23 lars; for a view and an autopsy, thirty dollars; and for travel, ten cents 24 a mile to and from the place of view; for attendance as a witness at in-25 quests or in criminal cases in district courts, five dollars for each day
26 of such attendance, and for travel, ten cents a mile to and from the place 27 where such inquest or court trial is held.

1 Section 6. Medical examiners shall make examination upon the 2 view of the dead bodies of only such persons as are supposed to have 3 died by violence. If a medical examiner has notice that there is within 4 his county the body of such a person, he shall forthwith go to the place
5 where the body lies and take charge of the same; and if, on view thereof
6 and personal inquiry into the cause and manner of death, he considers 7 a further examination necessary, he shall, upon written authorization
8 of the district attorney, mayor or selectmen of the district, city or town
9 where the body lies, make an autopsy in the presence of two or more 10 discreet persons, whose attendance he may compel by subpoena. Be-11 fore making such autopsy he shall call the attention of the witnesses
12 to the appearance and position of the body. He shall then and there 13 carefully record every fact and circumstance tending to show the con-
14 dition of the body and the cause and manner of death, with the names
15 and addresses of said witnesses, which record he shall subscribe. If a 16 medical examiner or an associate examiner considers it necessary to have

MEDICAL EXAMINERS.

Section 7. He shall forthwith file with the district attorney for his district a report of each autopsy and view and of his personal inquiries, with a certificate that, in his judgment, the manner and cause of death could not be ascertained by view and inquiry and that an autopsy was necessary. The district attorney, if he concurs, shall so certify to the commissioners of the county where the same was held, or in Suffolk county, to the auditor of Boston. If upon such view, personal inquiry or autopsy, the medical examiner is of opinion that the death may have been caused by the act or negligence of another, he shall at once notify the district attorney and a justice of a district court or trial justice within whose jurisdiction the body was found, if the place where found and the place of the said act or negligence are within the same county, or if the latter place is unknown; otherwise, the district attorney and such a justice within whose district or jurisdiction the said act or negligence occurred. He shall also file with the district attorney thus notified, and with the justice or in his court, an attested copy of the record of the autopsy made as provided in the preceding section. He shall in all cases certify to the town clerk or registrar in the place where the deceased died his name and residence, if known; otherwise a description as full as may be, with the cause and manner of death.

Section 8. The court or trial justice shall thereupon hold an inquest, from which all persons not required by law to attend may be excluded. The district attorney, or any person designated by him, may attend the inquest and examine the witnesses, who may be kept separate, so that they cannot converse with each other until they have been examined. Within sixty days after any case of death by accident upon a railroad, electric railroad, street railway or railroad for private use an inquest shall be held, and the court or justice shall give reasonable notice of the time and place thereof to the department of public utilities. Within a like period after any case of death in which a motor vehicle is involved, an inquest shall be held, and the court or justice shall give reasonable notice of the time and place thereof to the department of public works. The attorney general or the district attorney may, notwithstanding the medical examiner’s report that a death was not caused by the act or negligence of another, direct an inquest to be held, and likewise in case of death by any casualty.

Section 9. If it appears that the place where the supposed act or negligence occurred and the place where the body was found are both without the limits of the judicial district of the court or the jurisdiction of the trial justice notified by the medical examiner under section seven,
5 the court or justice shall nevertheless proceed with the inquest and have 6 continuous and exclusive jurisdiction thereof if either place is within the 7 commonwealth and within fifty rods of the boundary line of such dist-
8 trict or jurisdiction, unless a prior and like notice shall have been issued 9 by a medical examiner in another county in accordance with said section.

1 Section 10. A district court about to hold an inquest may appoint 2 an officer qualified to serve criminal process to investigate the case and 3 to summon the witnesses, and may allow him additional compensation
4 theretofore, payable in like manner as the fees of officers in criminal cases.

1 Section 11. If a magistrate believes that an inquest to be held by him
2 relates to the accidental death of a passenger or employee upon a railroad
3 or electric railroad or a traveler upon a public or private way at a railroad
4 crossing, or to an accidental death connected with the operation of a 5 street railway or of a railroad for private use, he shall cause a verbatim
6 report of the evidence to be made and sworn to by the person making it;
7 and the report and the bill for services, after examination and written 8 approval by the magistrate, shall be forwarded to the department of 9 public utilities within thirty days after the date of the inquest, and, when 10 made, a copy of the magistrate's report on the inquest. The bill, when 11 approved by said department, shall be forwarded to the comptroller and 12 paid by the commonwealth, assessed on the person owning or operating 13 such railroad or railway, and shall be collected in the same manner as 14 taxes upon corporations. The magistrate may in his discretion refuse 15 fees to witnesses in the employ of the person upon whose railroad or 16 railway the accident occurred.

1 Section 12. The magistrate shall report in writing when, where and 2 by what means the person met his death, his name, if known, and all 3 material circumstances attending his death, and the name, if known, of 4 any person whose unlawful act or negligence appears to have contrib-
5 uted thereto. He shall file his report in the superior court for the county 6 where the inquest is held.

1 Section 13. If a person charged by the report with the commission
2 of a crime is at large, the magistrate shall forthwith issue process for his 3 arrest, returnable before any court or magistrate having jurisdiction.
4 If he finds that murder, manslaughter or an assault has been committed,
5 he may bind over, for appearance in said court, as in criminal cases, such 6 witnesses as he considers necessary, or as the district attorney may 7 designate.

1 Section 14. No embalming fluid, or any substitute therefor, shall 2 be injected into the body of any person supposed to have met his death
3 by violence, until a permit, signed by the medical examiner, has first been 4 obtained.

1 Section 15. After an autopsy or a view or examination without an
2 autopsy, the medical examiner shall deliver the body, upon application
3 to the husband or wife, to the next of kin, or to any friend of the deceased, who shall have priority in the order named. If the body is... unidentified or unclaimed for forty-eight hours after the view thereof, the medical examiner shall deliver it to the board of public welfare of the town where found, which shall bury it in accordance with section seventeen of chapter one hundred and seventeen.

SECTION 16. Medical examiners and associate examiners within their respective districts shall, on application and payment or tender of seven dollars, view the body and make personal inquiry concerning the death of any person whose body is intended for cremation, and shall authorize such cremation only when of opinion that no further examination or judicial inquiry concerning such death is necessary.

SECTION 17. The medical examiner may allow reasonable compensation, payable by the county in the manner provided in section nineteen, for services rendered in bringing to land a human body found in any of the harbors, rivers or waters of the commonwealth, but this provision shall not entitle any person to compensation for services rendered in searching for a dead body.

SECTION 18. The medical examiner shall take charge of any money or other personal property of the deceased found on or near the body, and deliver it to the person entitled to its custody or possession, or, if not claimed within sixty days, to a public administrator. For fraudulent neglect or refusal so to deliver such property within three days after demand, a medical examiner or an associate medical examiner shall be punished by a fine of not more than five hundred dollars or by imprisonment for not more than two years.

SECTION 19. Every medical examiner shall return an account of the expenses of each view or autopsy, including his fees, to the commissioners of the county where held, or in Suffolk county to the auditor of Boston, and shall annex to his return the written authorization of the autopsy. The commissioners or auditor shall audit the same, and certify to the county treasurer what items therein are just and reasonable, and he shall pay the same to the person entitled thereto. No auditing officer shall certify any fee for an autopsy until he has received from the district attorney the certificate required by section seven.

SECTION 20. Every medical examiner and associate examiner shall annually, on or before March first, transmit to the state secretary certified copies of the records of all deaths by him investigated during the preceding year, and within sixty days after the expiration of his term shall make like returns for so much of the year as he held office. For a refusal or neglect so to do, he shall forfeit not less than ten nor more than fifty dollars.

SECTION 21. Each medical examiner and associate examiner, including those in Suffolk county, shall receive from the commonwealth twenty cents for each of the first twenty deaths recorded and returned by him in any year, as provided in the preceding section, and ten cents for each additional death so recorded and returned, as certified by the state secretary.
Section 22. The state secretary shall, at the expense of the commonwealth, prepare and furnish to the medical examiners blank record books and blank forms for returns, and shall cause the returns for each year to be bound together in one volume with indexes; and shall prepare therefrom such tables as will render them of utility, and shall make annual report thereof to the general court in connection with the report required by section twenty-one of chapter forty-six.

CITY GOVERNMENT.

Section 1. Except as otherwise provided by law, city councils shall have the powers of towns; boards of aldermen shall have the powers, perform the duties and be subject to the liabilities of selectmen, except with respect to appointments, and the mayor shall have the powers, perform the duties and be subject to the liabilities of selectmen with respect to appointments, but all his appointments shall be subject to confirmation and rejection by the aldermen, and upon the rejection of a 8 person so appointed the mayor shall within one month thereafter make 9 another appointment. In cities having a single legislative board other 10 than a board of aldermen, such board shall, so far as appropriate and 11 not inconsistent with the express provisions of any general or special law, have the powers, perform the duties and be subject to the liabilities 12 of the board of aldermen.

1 Section 2. If the mayor acts as presiding officer of the board of 2 aldermen, he shall not vote in meetings of said board nor in conventions
3 of the two branches of the city council. The board of aldermen may elect 4 one of its number as president, who shall, in the absence of the mayor,
5 preside at meetings of the board. This section shall apply to every city,
6 notwithstanding any special law enacted prior to April twenty-ninth,
7 eighteen hundred and eighty-two.

1 Section 3. No election of a city officer by a municipal body or board
2 shall be valid unless made by a viva voce vote, each member present
3 answering to his name when called by the clerk or other proper officer, 4 stating the name of the person for whom he votes, or that he declines to 5 vote. The clerk or other proper officer shall record every such vote.

1 Section 4. Every ordinance, order, resolution or vote requiring the 2 concurrence of the board of aldermen and of the common council, except 3 the question of a convention of the two branches or of the election of an 4 officer, shall be presented to the mayor. If he approves it, he shall sign 5 it; if he disapproves it, he shall return it, with his written objections, to 6 the branch wherein it originated, which shall enter such objections at 7 large on its records and again consider it; and if two thirds of the mem-8 bers present and voting pass it, notwithstanding such objections, it shall,
9 if not originally requiring concurrent action, be in force; but if originally 10 requiring concurrent action, it shall be sent, with the objections of the 11 mayor, to the other branch, where it shall be again considered, and if 12 passed by two thirds of the members present and voting, it shall be in 13 force; but in all cases the vote shall be by yeas and nays. Such ordinance, 14 order, resolution or vote shall be in force if not returned by the mayor 15 within ten days after it has been presented to him. This section shall 16 not apply to budgets submitted under section thirty-two of chapter 17 forty-four, or to appropriations by a city council under section thirty-18 three of said chapter.

1 Section 5. Except as otherwise provided by city charters, upon the 2 death, resignation or absence of the mayor, or his inability to perform 3 the duties of his office, the president of the board of aldermen shall per-4 form them; and if there is no such officer, or if he also is absent or unable 5 from any cause to perform them, they shall be performed by the president
6 of the common council, or, if there is no such officer, or if he is absent
7 or unable to perform such duties, by such alderman as the board of 8 aldermen may from time to time elect, until the mayor or the president 9 of the board of aldermen is able to attend to said duties or until the 10 vacancy is filled. The person upon whom such duties devolve shall be 11 called "acting mayor" and shall possess the powers of mayor only 12 in matters not admitting of delay, and shall not make permanent 13 appointments.
SECTION 6. If, at or after the time for the mayor and aldermen to enter upon the performance of their duties, it appears that the mayor or the full number of aldermen has not been elected, such of said officers as have been elected shall issue warrants for the election of a mayor or of aldermen as the case may be. If none of said officers has been elected, the president of the common council shall issue such warrants. If no mayor has been elected, the president of the board of aldermen shall perform the duties of the office until a mayor is chosen and sworn. If there is a vacancy in the board of aldermen, in the common council, or in a city or ward office which is to be filled by an election of the people, the board of aldermen shall issue their warrant for an election to fill such vacancy at a time and place designated by them. A city officer shall, notwithstanding his removal from one ward of the city to another, continue to perform his official duties during his term of office. This section shall not be in effect in any city unless the city council accepts it or has accepted corresponding provisions of earlier laws.

SECTION 7. The mayor or an alderman or a member of the common council of a city which adopts this section or has adopted corresponding provisions of earlier laws, may at the same time hold any other office under the city government to which he may be chosen, except one of emolument.

SECTION 8. No member of the city council shall, during the term for which he was chosen, either by appointment or by election of the city council or of either branch thereof, be eligible to any office the salary of which is payable by the city.

TOWN MEETINGS.

SECTION 9. Except as otherwise provided by special law, the annual meeting of each town shall be held in February, March or April; and other meetings may be held at such times as the selectmen may order. Meetings may be adjourned from time to time, and to any place within the town.

SECTION 10. Every town meeting, except as hereinafter provided, shall be called in pursuance of a warrant, under the hands of the selectmen, notice of which shall be given at least seven days before such meeting. The warrant shall be directed to the constables or to some other persons, who shall forthwith give notice of such meeting in the manner prescribed by the by-laws, or, if there are no by-laws, by a vote of the town. The warrant for all town meetings shall state the time and place of holding the meeting and the subjects to be acted upon thereat. The selectmen shall insert in the warrant for the annual meeting all subjects the insertion of which shall be requested of them in writing by ten or more registered voters of the town and in the warrant for every special town meeting all subjects the insertion of which shall be requested of them in writing by one hundred registered voters or by ten per cent of the total number of registered voters of the town. No action shall be valid unless the subject matter thereof is contained in the warrant. Two or 16 more distinct town meetings for distinct purposes may be called by the 17 same warrant.

1 Section 11. If a majority of the selectmen or any less number shall 2 vacate their offices, or if the full number shall fail to be elected or qualified,
3 the selectmen in office may call a town meeting. If there are no remaining
4 selectmen, the town clerk may call it; and, if there is no town clerk, a 5 justice of the peace may call it in the manner prescribed in the following 6 section.

1893, 417, § 261. 1898, 548, § 326.
1913, 835, §§ 395, 503.
1918, 291, § 24.

1 Section 12. If the selectmen unreasonably refuse to call a town 2 meeting, a justice of the peace, upon written application of one hundred
3 registered voters or of ten per cent of the total number of registered 4 voters of the town, may call a meeting by a warrant under his hand, 5 stating the subjects to be acted upon, directed to the constables of the 6 town if there are any, otherwise to any of the persons applying therefor,
7 directing them to summon the inhabitants qualified to vote in town af-
8 fairs to assemble at the time and place and for the purposes expressed 9 in the warrant.

219 Mass. 200.

1 Section 13. Towns may prescribe by by-law the number of voters 2 necessary to constitute a quorum at town meetings; provided, that a 3 number less than a quorum may from time to time adjourn the same.
4 This section shall not apply to such parts of meetings as are devoted 5 exclusively to the election of town officers.

1 Section 14. At every town meeting when moderators are not 2 elected for the term of one year, a moderator shall first be chosen. The 3 election of a moderator at a meeting for the choice of town officers shall 4 be by ballot, and the voting list shall be used thereat.
5 Any town or fire, water, light or improvement district which has so 6 voted or hereafter so votes may at any annual election of town or dis-
7 trict officers elect from the inhabitants thereof by ballot a moderator
8 to preside at all town or district meetings. His term of office shall begin 9 as soon as he is qualified, and shall continue until the next annual town
10 or district meeting and until his successor is qualified. Any town or dis-11 trict which has elected a moderator for the term of one year shall there-
12 after elect a moderator at every annual election of town or district 13 officers, unless the town or district votes to discontinue the election of 14 moderators for said term.
15 If a vacancy in the said office occurs during any term, it may be filled 16 by the voters of the town or district. If a moderator so elected is 17 absent, a temporary moderator may be elected.
18 In towns or districts where official ballots are used, the vote to elect 19 a moderator for the term of one year shall be taken at a meeting held 20 at least thirty days before the annual town or district meeting at which 21 the vote is to become operative; and at the first annual meeting after 22 the town or district has so voted a moderator shall be chosen as herein 23 provided to serve at that meeting, and the moderator elected on the official ballot at that meeting shall act at subsequent town or district meetings until his successor is qualified.

At every town or district meeting until a moderator or temporary moderator is elected, the clerk of the town or district shall preside; but if he is absent or if there is no clerk, the chairman of the selectmen or prudential committee or body exercising similar powers, if present, otherwise the senior member present in point of continuous service, shall preside; but if no selectman or member of said committee or body is present, the justice of the peace calling such meeting, if the meeting is so called, shall preside. Such presiding officer shall have the powers and perform the duties of a moderator.

Section 15. The moderator shall preside and regulate the proceedings, decide all questions of order, and make public declaration of all votes, and may administer in open meeting the oath of office to any town officer chosen thereat. If a vote so declared is immediately questioned by seven or more voters, he shall verify it by polling the voters or by dividing the meeting unless the town has by a previous order or by by-law provided another method. If a two thirds vote of a town meeting is required by statute, the vote shall be taken, and the vote shall be recorded in the records by the clerk; but if the vote is unanimous, a count need not be taken, and the clerk shall record the vote as unanimous.

A town may pass by-laws, subject to this section, for the regulation of the proceedings at town meetings. Such by-laws shall be approved and published in the manner prescribed by section thirty-two of chapter forty.

Section 16. Every town whose valuation for the purpose of apportioning the state tax exceeds one million dollars shall, and any other town may, by by-law provide for the appointment and duties of appropriation, advisory or finance committees, who shall consider any or all municipal questions for the purpose of making reports or recommendations to the town; and such by-laws may provide that committees so appointed may continue in office for terms not exceeding three years from the date of appointment.

In every town having a committee appointed under authority of this section, such committee, or the selectmen if authorized by a by-law of the town, and, in any town not having such a committee, the selectmen shall submit a budget at the annual town meeting.

Section 17. No person shall address a town meeting without leave of the moderator, and all persons shall, at the request of the moderator, be silent. If a person, after warning from the moderator, persists in disorderly behavior, the moderator may order him to withdraw from the meeting, and, if he does not withdraw, may order a constable or any other person to remove him and confine him in some convenient place until the meeting is adjourned.

Section 18. The moderator shall receive the vote of any person whose name is on the voting list or who presents a proper certificate from the registrars of voters.
Section 19. The state secretary shall, at least seven days before the annual meeting, send to the town clerk of each town not using official ballots ballots upon the question of granting licenses for the sale of certain non-intoxicating beverages, as defined in section one of chapter one hundred and thirty-eight, therein, which shall contain the words: "Shall licenses be granted for the sale of beverages containing not less than one half of one per cent nor more than two and three quarters per cent of alcohol in this town?" "Yes." or "No.", and no other words.

Ballots of each kind shall be provided in number equal to at least the number of registered voters in such town. They shall be distributed to the voters at the polling place under the direction of the town clerk.

Section 20. Towns divided into voting precincts may, for their annual town election, establish precinct voting for all town officers to be elected thereat and for voting on the question of granting licenses for the sale of certain non-intoxicating beverages, as defined in section one of chapter one hundred and thirty-eight, by accepting this section at a meeting held fourteen days at least before the annual town meeting.

The acceptance of this section or corresponding provisions of earlier laws may be revoked by the town at a meeting held thirty days at least before the annual town meeting; and if so revoked this section shall cease to be in force therein. In towns in which this section or corresponding provisions of earlier laws are in force, all matters to be considered at the annual town meeting, other than the election of town officers, and the question of granting licenses for the sale of certain non-intoxicating beverages, as defined in section one of chapter one hundred and thirty-eight, shall be in order only at a town meeting held within thirty days after the date of the annual election, and not later than April thirtieth.

The time and place of holding such subsequent meeting shall be stated in the warrant for the annual election, and said election, subsequent meeting and its adjournments shall be regarded as parts of the annual town meeting. The election of a moderator, except in towns where moderators are elected for the term of one year, shall be the first business in order at said subsequent meeting. Towns by vote or by-law may authorize voting by precincts at special elections of town officers.

Section 21. The town clerk and the board of registrars, upon receipt of the returns from the several precincts, shall forthwith canvass the same, and immediately declare the result.

Canvas of returns. 1894, 132, § 2. 1895, 86, § 1.

Section 22. A town may by by-law designate the hour at which the annual town meeting shall be called, and, subject to section sixty-four of chapter fifty-four, may by vote or by-law designate the hours during which the polls shall remain open; and may provide that all business, except the election of such officers and the determination of such matters as by law are required to be elected or determined by ballot, shall be considered after a certain hour, or by adjournment to another day.

Section 23. A town which accepts this section or has accepted corresponding provisions of earlier laws may provide that the election of town officers and the vote on the question of granting licenses for the sale of certain non-intoxicating beverages, as defined in section one of chapter one hundred and thirty-eight, shall take place at any time.

within seven days before or after the annual meeting held for the transaction of other business. The time and place of holding such election and vote shall be stated in the warrant for the annual town meeting and such election and vote shall be deemed parts of the annual town meeting.

Section 24. The provisions of this chapter shall be in force only so far as they are not inconsistent with the express provisions of any general or special law.

Section 4. A town may make contracts for the exercise of its corporate powers and for the following purposes: For the disposal of its garbage, refuse and offal by contract for a term of years. Contracts for such disposal may be made by the selectmen, board of health or other officers having charge thereof.

For the reception, care and treatment by hospitals established in or near the town, if it maintains and manages no hospital, of persons who by misfortune or poverty require relief during temporary illness; but this provision shall not add to the compensation now required from the commonwealth or from any town for the care and treatment of any person chargeable to them respectively, nor diminish the right of the commonwealth to require the removal to the state infirmary of a person who has no legal settlement. Contracts for such reception, care and treatment may be made by the board of public welfare or by the board of health.

For the furnishing of transportation of school children. Contracts for such transportation may be made by the school committee for periods not exceeding three years.

For the installation and maintenance, subject to such laws as may be applicable, of mechanical traffic signal light systems for the control and regulation of traffic on ways within its control, including poles, wires and other necessary apparatus upon, over or under such ways. Such a contract may provide for payments by such town over a period not exceeding five years.

To pay interest at a rate not exceeding four per cent per annum, during the lives of any persons in being at the time of entering into such contract, upon any cash gift which it may lawfully receive.

Purposes for which towns may appropriate money.

Section 5. A town may at any town meeting appropriate money for the following purposes:

(1) To pay a proper charge of an insurance company for acting as surety on the official bond of any town officer, or to pay a proper charge for effecting insurance providing indemnity for or protection to any officer or employee of the town against loss by reason of his liability to pay damages to others for bodily injuries, including death at any time resulting therefrom, caused by the operation, within the scope of his official duties or employment, of motor vehicles owned by the town, to an amount not exceeding five thousand dollars on account of injury to or death of one person.

(2) For the support of public schools authorized or required by law, and for conveying pupils to and from the public schools, or, if it maintains no high school or public school of corresponding grade, but affords high school instruction by sending pupils to other towns, for the necessary transportation expenses of such pupils, the same to be expended by the school committee in its discretion.

19 (4) For laying out, discontinuing, making, altering and repairing public ways, and for materials used and labor employed thereon. 1786, 67, § 2. 1818, 121. 1895, 45, §§ 70, 78; 25, § 9.

(37) For providing proper facilities for public entertainment in connection with the holding of conventions in the town, for paying expenses incidental to such entertainment and/or for the entertainment of distinguished guests, a sum not exceeding in any one year one two-hundredth of one per cent of the assessed valuation of the preceding year, but in no event more than seventy-five thousand dollars.

For the compensation of all town officers whose election or appointment is authorized or required by law, and for all other necessary charges arising in such town.

Section 6. To provide for extraordinary or unforeseen expenditures, a town may at an annual town meeting appropriate a sum not exceeding five per cent of the tax levy of the preceding year, to be known as the reserve fund. No direct drafts against this fund shall be made, but transfers from the fund may from time to time be voted by the finance or appropriation committee of the town, in towns having such a committee, and in other towns by the selectmen; and the town accountant in towns having such an official, and in other towns the auditor or board of auditors, shall make such transfers accordingly.

Section 6A. A city or town which accepts this section may appropriate annually a sum not exceeding one two-hundredths of one per cent of the assessed valuation of the preceding year, but in no event more than fifty thousand dollars in any one year, for the purpose of advertising its resources, advantages and attractions; provided, however, that as to each such appropriation a sum at least equal to the amount thereof shall previously have been contributed by public subscription, or by donation or legacy, and paid into the city or town treasury to be expended for the aforesaid purposes, and provided, further that no such city or town shall in any year appropriate money for such purposes under authority hereof and also under any special act authorizing appropriations for municipal advertising. The money so appropriated and so contributed shall be expended under the direction of the mayor and city council of the city or the selectmen of the town. Two or more municipalities having resources, advantages or attractions in common may join in advertising the same hereunder.

Section 6B. A city or town which accepts this section may appropriate money for the purchase of uniforms for members of its police and fire departments.

Section 7. Any town which accepts this section or has accepted corresponding provisions of earlier laws may appropriate money for the removal of snow and ice from its sidewalks, in accordance with the provisions of section six of chapter eighty-five. This section shall not apply to cities.
Powers and Duties of Cities and Towns.

Section 7A. Cities and towns may appropriate money for the purpose of conducting and maintaining a specific program of safety activities designed to prevent automobile accidents; and such appropriations shall be expended under the direction of the mayor in a city or the selectmen in a town.

Section 8. A city, or a town which accepts chapter thirty-one or has accepted corresponding provisions of earlier laws, may appropriate money for the enforcement therein of the laws relating to its civil service.

Section 9. A city or town may for the purpose of providing suitable headquarters for a post or posts of the American Legion and of the Veterans of Foreign Wars of the United States, lease for a period not exceeding five years buildings or parts of buildings which shall be under the direction and control of such post or posts, subject to regulations made in cities by the mayor with the approval of the council and in towns by vote of the town, and for said purposes a town with a valuation of less than five million dollars may annually appropriate not more than one thousand dollars; a town with a valuation of five million dollars but not more than twenty million dollars may annually appropriate not more than one hundred dollars; a town with a valuation of twenty million dollars but not more than seventy-five million dollars may annually appropriate not more than two thousand dollars; a town with a valuation of seventy-five million dollars but not more than one hundred fifty million dollars may annually appropriate not more than two hundred thousand dollars; and a town with a valuation of one hundred fifty million dollars or more may annually appropriate twenty-five hundred dollars for each one hundred fifty million dollars of valuation, or fraction thereof. The city council of a city may, by a vote of two thirds, appropriate money for armories for the use of the state militia, for the celebration of holidays, for the purpose of providing or defraying the expenses of suitable quarters for posts of the Grand Army of the Republic, including the heating and lighting of such quarters, and for other like public purposes to an amount not exceeding in any one year one fiftieth of one per cent of its valuation for such year.

Section 9A. A city or town, for the purpose of providing suitable headquarters for a camp of the United Spanish War Veterans, lease for a period not exceeding five years a building or part of a building, which shall be under the direction and control of such camp subject to regulations made in cities by the mayor with the approval of the council and in towns by vote of the town, and for such purpose may annually appropriate a sum not exceeding, in any one year, one fiftieth of one per cent of its valuation.

Section 10. A city, or a town having a population of not less than ten thousand, may provide and maintain one or more public markets with suitable buildings and grounds, and for this purpose may acquire land by gift or purchase or lease the same, with or without buildings, and may make alterations in buildings and construct new buildings on land so acquired or leased. Any city or town which does not so maintain a public market shall upon a petition signed by not less than five per cent of its voters designate one or more streets or squares or other public markets and market places.

places, suitably situated and approved by the department of agriculture, to be used by farmers as public market places. Such a petition shall be filed with the city or town clerk, and he shall determine whether it contains a sufficient number of signatures and whether such signatures are genuine, and when satisfied that the petition meets the requirements of this section, he shall so certify to the mayor or the chairman of the board of selectmen and shall also notify the commissioner of agriculture that the petition has been filed and state to him the date of filing. Any city or town which maintains a public market or market place in accordance with this section may, subject to the approval of the commissioner of agriculture, make rules and regulations for the management and use thereof, and may prescribe penalties for their violation, and may also designate a market master, who may be a police officer or other municipal officer or employee, and who shall have charge of such markets or market places and shall conduct them in the interest of the market men and their customers, shall enforce said rules and regulations, and shall maintain order within the market limits.

Section 11. A town which accepts this section, or has accepted corresponding provisions of earlier laws, may appropriate money for the prevention of forest fires to an amount not exceeding one tenth of one per cent of its valuation. Every such town with a valuation of one million seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars or less which appropriates and expends money, with the approval of the state forester, for apparatus to be used in preventing or extinguishing forest fires, or for making protective belts or zones as a defence against forest fires, shall, upon the recommendation of the state forester, approved by the governor, receive from the commonwealth a sum equal to one half of the said expenditure; but no town shall receive more than two hundred and fifty one dollars. A sum not exceeding five thousand dollars may annually be expended by the commonwealth for this purpose. Whenever it has been demonstrated to the satisfaction of the state forester that such equipment has been destroyed or has become unfit for use, the town shall be reimbursed by the commonwealth one half the cost of replacing the same; provided that the amount paid to any one town in any one year shall not exceed fifty dollars. All equipment purchased under this section shall be in the custody and care of the town forest warden. The state forester or his deputies may inspect such equipment at such times as they may deem necessary.

Section 12. A town which accepts this section, or has accepted corresponding provisions of earlier laws, by a two thirds vote at an annual meeting, may purchase or lease land, and erect, alter, enlarge, repair and improve buildings for public baths and wash houses, either with or without open drying grounds, and may make open bathing places, provide them with the requisite furniture, fittings and conveniences and provide instruction in swimming. Such town may establish rates for the use of such baths and wash houses, and appoint officers therefor, and may make by-laws for the government of such officers, and authorize them to make regulations for the management thereof and for the use thereof by non-residents of said town.

Section 12A. A city or town may establish and maintain a plant for the purpose of purifying shellfish taken in such city or town. Such plant
3 shall be established and maintained under the direction of the mayor or 4 board of selectmen or a person designated by him or it. Said mayor or 5 board shall also establish fees sufficient to cover the cost of maintaining 6 and operating the plant, which shall be collected for service rendered 7 thereby and be paid into the city or town treasury.

1 Section 13. A town which at a meeting or a city which by its city council accepts this section, or has in like manner accepted corresponding provisions of earlier laws, may appropriate an amount not exceeding in any one year one twentieth of one per cent of its assessed valuation to establish and maintain a municipal buildings insurance fund, from which any municipal buildings or other municipal property damaged or destroyed by fire, lightning or otherwise may be repaired, rebuilt or replaced by other buildings or property to be used in place thereof; but no money shall be appropriated for such purpose while the fund equals or exceeds one per cent of such assessed valuation. Such fund shall be managed and administered by the sinking fund commissioners of the town, if any, otherwise by the commissioners of trust funds of the town.

1 Section 13A. Any city or town which has accepted chapter eight two hundred and seven of the acts of nineteen hundred and thirteen and which accepts this section, by vote of the city council or of the voters in town meeting, may appropriate an amount not exceeding in any one year one twentieth of one per cent of its assessed valuation to establish and maintain an insurance fund to pay workmen's compensation, from which any compensation payable under the provisions of sections sixtyine to seventy-five, inclusive, of chapter one hundred and fifty-two shall 9 be paid; but no money shall be appropriated for such purpose while the 10 fund equals or exceeds one per cent of such assessed valuation. Such 11 fund shall be managed and administered by the sinking fund commis-
12 sioners of the city or town, if any, otherwise by the commissioners of trust 13 funds of said city or town.

1 Section 13B. A town of not exceeding three thousand inhabitants which accepts this section by vote in town meeting may appropriate for free residence quarters for a school physician a sum not exceeding five hundred dollars.

TAKING, PURCHASE AND ABANDONMENT OF LAND.

1 Section 14. The aldermen of any city, except Boston, or the selectmen of a town may purchase, or take by eminent domain under chapter seventy-nine, for any municipal purpose any land, easement or right therein within the town not already appropriated to public use, including an easement in land adjoining the location of a public way consisting of a right to have the land of the location protected by having the surface of such adjoining land slope from the boundary of the location; but no land, easement or right therein shall be taken or purchased under this section unless the taking or purchase thereof has previously been authorized by the city council or by vote of the town, nor until an application of money, to be raised by loan or otherwise, has been made for the purpose by a two thirds vote of the city council or by a two thirds vote of the town, and no lot of land shall be purchased for any municipal purpose by

A town may sprinkle or spread upon its public ways, or parts thereof, any liquid or material suitable for laying or preventing dust and preserving the surface of such ways or for sanitary purposes, may appropriate money therefor, and determine that with respect to the whole or any part of such ways the whole or any part of such expense shall be assessed upon the estates abutting thereon.

The amount of such assessments upon each estate shall be determined by said board, or, if said board so designates, by the board of public works, board of street commissioners, superintendent of streets or other officer; and such board or officer shall, as soon as may be after the first day of April, cause a list of such ways or portions thereof to be made, specifying each estate and the number of linear feet thereof abutting thereon, the amount per linear foot, and the amount on each estate of such assessment, and certify and commit said list to the assessors of taxes. In a town such assessment shall be made by the assessors.

The assessors shall include such assessment in the tax list and warrant committed by them to the collector of taxes for that municipal year, and it shall be included in the next annual tax bill, or if the estate so assessed is otherwise exempt from taxation, it shall be rendered as a tax bill. Such assessment shall be a lien upon the estate, and shall be levied, collected, reassessed, paid, apportioned, and bear interest and become payable, in the same manner as, and shall

Section 16. A town may sprinkle or spread upon its public ways, or parts thereof, any liquid or material suitable for laying or preventing dust and preserving the surface of such ways or for sanitary purposes, may appropriate money therefor, and determine that with respect to the whole or any part of such ways the whole or any part of such expense shall be assessed upon the estates abutting thereon.

The amount of such assessments upon each estate shall be determined by said board, or, if said board so designates, by the board of public works, board of street commissioners, superintendent of streets or other officer; and such board or officer shall, as soon as may be after the first day of April, cause a list of such ways or portions thereof to be made, specifying each estate and the number of linear feet thereof abutting thereon, the amount per linear foot, and the amount on each estate of such assessment, and certify and commit said list to the assessors of taxes. In a town such assessment shall be made by the assessors.

The assessors shall include such assessment in the tax list and warrant committed by them to the collector of taxes for that municipal year, and it shall be included in the next annual tax bill, or if the estate so assessed is otherwise exempt from taxation, it shall be rendered as a tax bill. Such assessment shall be a lien upon the estate, and shall be levied, collected, reassessed, paid, apportioned, and bear interest and become payable, in the same manner as, and shall 8 be a part of, the tax for that year on such estate; but in cities the assessors shall make no abatement thereof except upon the recommendation of the board or officer by whom the list was certified to them.

PROVIDING NECESSITIES.

1 Section 19. For the purposes of maintaining, distributing and providing at reasonable rates during time of war, public exigency, emergency or distress a sufficient supply of food, other common necessaries of life and temporary shelter for their inhabitants, towns may raise and appropriate money outside of any limit imposed by law upon their tax rate or debt; but any bond, note or certificate of indebtedness issued therefor shall be payable in not more than two years from the date of its issue. The receipts from any undertaking or service authorized by this section shall not be applied to municipal purposes, other than those herein described, so long as there are any obligations outstanding issued on account of any such undertaking or service. The expenditure of all money so appropriated shall be under the direction of the mayor, or of an officer appointed by the mayor, with the approval of the city council in cities other than Boston, and in towns shall be under the direction of the selectmen or of an officer appointed by them.

2 Section 20. Articles furnished or services rendered under the preceding section shall be charged for, so far as practicable, at rates calculated to cover all costs and charges connected with the particular undertaking or service, and shall be paid for in cash at the time of delivery or performance. Any town acting under said section shall keep accounts, in the form prescribed by the director of accounts, covering separately, so far as practicable, the cost of the particular undertaking or service in respect to each commodity included therein; and a report in detail of receipts and expenditures connected with such undertaking or service shall be included in the annual report of the town treasurer.

ORDINANCES, BY-LAWS AND REGULATIONS.

1 Section 21. Towns may, for the purposes hereinafter named, make such orders and by-laws, not repugnant to law, as they may judge most conducive to their welfare, which shall be binding upon all inhabitants thereof and all persons within their limits. They may, except as herein provided, affix penalties for breaches thereof, not exceeding twenty dollars for each offence, which may be recovered by indictment or on complaint before a district court or trial justice, and shall enure to the town or to such uses as it may direct:

2 Section 22. For directing and managing their prudential affairs, preserving peace and good order, and maintaining their internal police.

9 (1) For preventing the fall of snow and ice from roofs and securing the removal thereof in such portions of their limits and to such extent as they deem expedient. The penalty for violation of such by-laws.
shall apply to the owner of such building or to his agent having the care thereof.

(3) For providing for the removal of snow and ice from the sidewalks within the limits of the public ways therein to such extent as they deem expedient. The penalty for the violation of such by-laws shall apply to the owner of abutting property or his agent having charge thereof.

(4) For requiring owners of buildings near the line of public ways to erect barriers, or to take other suitable measures to prevent the fall of snow and ice therefrom upon persons traveling on such ways, and to protect such persons from other dangers incident to the maintenance, occupation or use thereof.

(5) For declaring any sewer or drain laid in any land or way, public or private, opened or proposed to be opened for public travel, to be a common sewer, and that it shall not be laid or connected with any existing common sewer except by the board or officers authorized to lay and maintain common sewers.

(6) For regulating, under a penalty not exceeding fifty dollars for each offence, the use of the common sewers and the connections which may be made therewith.

(7) For regulating throughout the town or within a limited portion thereof, by any designated board or commission, the inspection, materials, construction, alteration or use of pipes and fixtures through which water is supplied by public water works; and to prohibit the use of such water by persons neglecting or refusing to comply with such by-laws.

(8) For regulating, under a penalty not exceeding fifty dollars for each offence, the use of reservoirs connected with its water supply and land and driveways appurtenant thereto.

(9) For regulating the width of tires of vehicles owned in such town and used on the highways thereof.

(10) For requiring and regulating the numbering of buildings or near the line of public or private ways and prescribing by whom and the method in which it shall be done.

(11) For regulating the disposal by town boards, officers or departmental property belonging to the town.

(12) For regulating the making of annual reports by boards, officers or departments not required by law to make such reports.
Section 22. Except as otherwise provided in section eighteen of Chapter ninety and subject, so far as applicable, to section two of Chapter hundred and eighty-five, and sections eight and nine of Chapter eighty-nine, a city or town may make ordinances or by-laws, or the board of aldermen or the selectmen may make rules and orders, for the regulation of carriages and vehicles used therein, with penalties for the violation thereof not exceeding twenty dollars for each offence; and may annually receive an additional dollar for each license granted to a person to use any such carriage or vehicle therein. Such rules and orders shall not take effect until they have been published at least once in a newspaper published in the city, town or county.

Section 23. A city council may make rules and regulations for the erection and maintenance of balustrades or other projections upon the roofs or sides of buildings therein, with penalties for the violation thereof. No such rule or regulation shall take effect until sixty days after its publication in a newspaper published in the city or in the county where the city is situated.

Section 24. A city may make ordinances to secure the inspection of ice sold therein and to prevent the sale of impure ice, and affix penalties of not more than twenty dollars for each violation thereof.

Section 25. A city or town may by ordinance or by-law restrict buildings, structures and premises to be used for particular industries, trades, manufacturing, commercial or other purposes to specified parts of the city or town, or may exclude them from or prohibit any of such uses in specified parts of the city or town, or may provide that such buildings, structures or premises, if situated in certain parts of the city or town, shall be subject to special regulations as to their construction or use. A city or town may also by ordinance or by-law provide that certain kinds of dwelling houses and tenement houses shall be restricted to specified parts of the city or town, or shall be excluded from specified parts of the city or town, or that dwelling houses or tenement houses situated in specified parts of the city or town shall conform to certain regulations in respect to their construction or use which do not apply to such buildings in other parts of the city or town. For the above purpose the city or town may be divided into districts or zones, and the construction and use of buildings and structures and the use of premises in each district or zone may be regulated as above provided. The provisions of this section shall be carried out in such manner as will best promote the health, safety, convenience and welfare of the inhabitants, will lessen the danger from fire, will tend to improve and beautify the city or town, will harmonize with its natural development, and will assist the carrying out of any scheme for municipal improvement put forth by any municiipal planning board or board of survey or other like authority. Due regard shall be paid to the characteristics of the different parts of the city or town, and the ordinances or by-laws established hereunder in any city or town shall be the same for zones, districts or streets having substantially the same character.

SECTION 26. No ordinance shall be enacted under the preceding section in any city until after a public hearing thereon has been held, notice of which shall be published, at least thirty days before the hearing in a newspaper published in such city, or in the county if no newspaper is published in the city. The hearing shall be given by the city council or by such officer, board, commission or committee as may be designated or appointed for the purpose by the city council.

SECTION 27. The superintendent of buildings, or the officer or board having supervision of the construction of buildings or the power of enforcing the municipal building laws, or if in any town there is no such officer or board, the selectmen, shall withhold a permit for the construction or alteration of any building or structure if the building or structure as constructed or altered would be in violation of any ordinance or by-law enacted under section twenty-five; and municipal officers shall refuse any permit or license for the use of a building, structure or premises which use would be in violation of any ordinance or by-law enacted under said section. Any person aggrieved by the refusal of a permit under this section may appeal to the municipal officer or board to which a right of appeal lies from decisions under the building laws of the city or town, and if there is no such officer or board, then the appeal shall lie to the city council or to the selectmen, or to such officer, board, commission or committee as shall be designated or appointed by the city council or by the selectmen to act as a board of appeals hereunder.

SECTION 27A. A board of appeals designated or appointed under the preceding section may vary the application of any by-law or ordinance adopted under section twenty-five in specific cases wherein its enforcement would involve practical difficulty or unnecessary hardship and wherein desirable relief may be granted without substantially derogating from the intent and purpose of such by-law or ordinance, but not otherwise. No such variance shall be authorized except by the unanimous decision of the entire membership of the board, rendered upon a written petition addressed to the board and after a public hearing thereon, of which notice shall be mailed to the petitioner and to the owners of all property deemed by the board to be affected thereby as they appear on the most recent local tax list and also advertised in a newspaper published in the city or town. The board shall cause to be made a detailed record of all its proceedings relative to such petition, which record shall set forth the reasons for its decision, the vote of each member participating therein, and the absence of a member or his failure to vote. Such record, immediately following the board’s final decision, shall be filed in the office of the city or town clerk and shall be open to public inspection, and notice of such decision shall be mailed forthwith to each party in interest as aforesaid. Any person aggrieved by a decision of the board of appeals, whether previously a party to the proceeding or not, or any municipal officer or board, may, within fifteen days after the entry of such decision, bring a petition in the supreme judicial court for a writ of certiorari to Section 28. The superior court shall have jurisdiction to enforce the provisions of section twenty-five and may restrain by injunction any violations thereof.

250 Mass. 52, 63, 73. 255 Mass. 84. 272 Mass. 547.

Section 29. An ordinance or by-law enacted under section twenty-five shall not apply to existing buildings or structures nor to the existing use of any building, structure or premises, but it shall apply to any alteration of a building or structure to provide for its use for a purpose, or in a manner, substantially different from the use to which it was put before alteration. A building, structure or premises used or to be used by a public service corporation may be exempted from the operation of an ordinance or by-law enacted under section twenty-five if, upon a petition of the corporation, the department of public utilities shall, after a public hearing, decide that the present or proposed situation of the building, structure or premises in question is reasonably necessary for the convenience or welfare of the public.

Section 30. No ordinance or by-law enacted under section twenty-five shall be repealed or modified except after reasonable notice of the proposed repeal or modification and an opportunity to the objectors to be heard thereon, and, in a town, notification as provided by law of a town meeting duly called in pursuance of a warrant warning that such proposed repeal or modification is to be acted upon thereat shall be sufficient notice for the purposes hereof. In a city, such a hearing shall be before the city council or any committee designated or appointed for the purpose by the city council. If in a city any owner of real estate which would be affected by the proposed repeal or modification objects thereto by a writing filed with the city clerk, the ordinance shall not be repealed or modified except by a unanimous vote of all the members of a city council of less than nine members or by a three fourths vote of all the members of a city council of nine or more members; and in no case shall such an ordinance be repealed or modified except by a two thirds vote of all the members of the city council. If in a town any person shall, prior to the day named in the warrant for the town meeting at which such proposed repeal or modification is to be acted upon, file with the town clerk his objections thereto in writing, together with his name and address, the town clerk shall give notice of such fact to the town meeting which shall not act on such proposed repeal or modification until it has referred the objections to a committee thereof to hear the objecting party and report to said meeting or an adjournment thereof or has referred the same to the town planning board for such purpose and has received a report made in pursuance of such reference after giving the objector an opportunity to be heard. If no objections are filed as aforesaid the meeting may consider and act upon the proposed repeal or modification without further notice. In no case shall such a by-law be repealed or modified except by a two thirds vote of a town meeting.

SECTION 30A. No ordinance or modification thereof enacted under section twenty-five or thirty shall affect any permit issued in a city before notice of hearing on the question of enactment or modification as aforesaid is first given, and no by-law or modification thereof so enacted or modified shall affect any permit issued in any town before notice of hearing on the question of enactment or modification as aforesaid or before expiration of the time for inserting articles in the warrant for the town meeting at which such by-law or modification is enacted, whichever occurs first; provided, that construction work under any such permit is commenced within six months after its issue.

SECTION 31. If a town by-law imposes a duty and affixes a penalty for the neglect or violation thereof, it may also provide that upon such neglect or violation the duty may be performed by officers therein named, at the expense of the person liable to perform the same; and such expense, to an amount not exceeding the penalty, may be recovered in contract by the town.

SECTION 32. Before a by-law takes effect it shall be approved by the attorney general, and shall be published at least three times in one or more newspapers, if any, published in the town, otherwise in one or more newspapers published in the county; or instead of such publication, notice of the by-law shall be given by delivering a copy thereof at every occupied dwelling or apartment in the town, and affidavits of the persons delivering the said copies, filed with the town clerk, shall be conclusive evidence of proper notice hereunder; provided, that any by-law in force upon May sixteenth, nineteen hundred and four, shall not be subject to this section.

SECTION 32A. The provisions in the charter of a city which accepts this section by vote of its city council, requiring newspaper advertising of certain ordinances and proposed ordinances shall, in case of any ordinance or proposed ordinance, or codification thereof, exceeding in length eight octavo pages of ordinary book print, be deemed to be complied with if the same is published by the city council in a municipal bulletin or printed pamphlet, but otherwise in conformity with said provisions.

SECTION 33. A copy of all rules or regulations made by town boards or officers for which a penalty is provided by law shall be filed with the town clerk within ten days after they take effect.

LOCKUP.

SECTION 34. Each town containing more than three thousand inhabitants shall, and any town may, maintain a secure and convenient lockup to which persons arrested without a warrant may be committed; and a magistrate may commit, for further examination, a prisoner charged with a bailable offence and not recognizing, to the lockup in the town where the prisoner was arrested or to the lockup in a town where the court is held, if he considers it safe and commodious and that expense may be saved thereby. If a town neglects to provide and maintain a lockup as herein required, it shall forfeit ten dollars for each month during which such neglect continues.
Section 35. The mayor of each city, except Boston, and in Boston the police commissioner, and the selectmen of each town required to maintain a lockup shall annually, by a writing recorded with the town clerk, appoint a keeper of the lockup, who shall have the care and custody thereof and of persons committed thereto. He shall accept the appointment within three days after notice thereof, shall be sworn and shall hold office for one year unless sooner removed. If the selectmen neglect to appoint a keeper, each selectman shall forfeit ten dollars for each month during which such neglect continues; and if the mayor, except in Boston, or in Boston the police commissioner, neglects for three months to appoint a keeper, he shall forfeit thirty dollars and ten dollars additional for each subsequent month of such neglect.

Section 36. Such keeper shall have the power of a police officer and shall receive the compensation to be fixed by the selectmen upon his appointment. For the expenses of detention and support of each person committed, shown by the officer's return to have been actually detained in the lockup, there may be charged upon the precept, if any, and paid to the town, fifty cents for each day or fraction thereof.

Section 37. Such lockups shall at all reasonable hours be accessible to the state police, sheriffs, constables and police officers for any legal and proper use; and a keeper thereof neglecting to keep it so accessible, or refusing to said officers the use of the same, shall be punished by a fine of not less than five nor more than twenty dollars.

PUBLIC WATER SUPPLY.

Section 38. A town, by the action of its selectmen, ratified by a majority of its voters present and voting thereon at a town meeting at which the voting list shall be used, or a city, by two thirds vote of its city council, ratified by a majority of the voters thereof at an election called therefor, may, for the purpose of supplying water to its inhabitants, purchase of any municipal or other corporation the right to take water from its sources of supply or from its pipes; or may purchase, chase its whole water rights, estates, franchises and privileges, and thereby become entitled to all its rights and privileges and subject to all its duties and liabilities; or may contract therewith for a supply of water. All purchase money received under this section by a town owing a water debt shall be applied to the payment thereof.

Section 39. If the water is conveyed through another town, pipes may be laid in another town. If any communities in the commonwealth may, in cases of emergency, take by eminent domain under chapter seventy-nine the right to draw water.
from any stream, pond or reservoir or from ground sources of supply by means of driven, artesian or other wells not already appropriated to uses of a municipal or other public water supply, or may purchase water from any city, town or water company, or county institution having water works, for a period of not more than six months in any year in quantities necessary to relieve the emergency; but no such taking or purchase shall be made until after the department of public health has approved the water as a proper source of water supply and unless and until, in the case of towns and water supply and fire and water districts, the selectmen or water commissioners have first been authorized so to take or purchase by a vote of the voters at a town meeting or a district meeting, as the case may be, or, in the case of water companies, said companies have first been so ordered in writing by said department. They may also take by eminent domain under said chapter seventy-nine the right to use any land for the time necessary to use such water; provided, that, in the case of such a taking by a water company, said department shall first prescribe the limits within which such rights shall be taken. The vote of a city council or of the voters of a town or of a water supply or water and fire district or the action of county officers as aforesaid or of the metropolitan district commission or the written order of said department of public health to a water company to make or authorize such taking or purchase as aforesaid shall be conclusive evidence of the existence of the emergency. Any city, town or water company or the officers having control of any county institution having water works may, for a period of not more than six months in any year, sell to the metropolitan district commission, to any city, town, water supply or fire and water district or water company or to any county institution having water works such quantities of water as may be available at the time and the approval of said department of public health shall be conclusive evidence that such quantities are safely available for sale. In such emergencies the said parties interested may agree to install for the purpose temporary pipes and other works in any city or town; provided, that the installation or repair of such pipes or other works in or along any highway shall be done with the least possible hindrance to public travel, and shall be subject to the direction and approval of the officers or departments having charge of the maintenance of said highways.

Section 41. Towns and water supply and fire districts duly established by law may, with the consent and approval of the department of public health, given after due notice and a hearing, take by eminent domain under chapter seventy-nine, or acquire by purchase or otherwise, and hold, lands, buildings, rights of way and easements within the watershed of any pond, stream, reservoir, well or other water used by them as a source of water supply, which said department may deem necessary to protect and preserve the purity of the water supply. All lands taken, purchased or otherwise acquired under this section shall be under the control of the board of water commissioners of the town or district acquiring the same, who shall manage and improve them in such manner as they shall deem for the best interest of the town or district. All damages to be paid by a town or district by reason of any act done under authority hereof may be paid out of the proceeds of the sale of any bonds authorized by law to be issued by such town or district for water supply purposes or from any surplus income of the water works available therefor. A town may also make a contract to contribute to the cost of building, by 18 any other town situated in the watershed of its water supply, a sewer or 19 system of sewers to aid in protecting such water supply from pollution.

1 Section 42. The board of aldermen or the selectmen may, upon
2 terms and conditions prescribed by them, authorize the laying of pipes
3 and conduits for the conveyance of water under any public way in their 4 town; provided, that this section shall not authorize any person to 5 supply water to any other person in any town where municipal water
6 works are established except with the consent of the board or authority 7 having charge of such water works therein.

COLLECTION OF WATER RATES.

1 Section 42A. If the rates and charges due to a city or town or water
2 district which accepts this and the five following sections by vote of its 3 city council or of the voters in town or district meeting for supplying 4 water to any real estate at the request of the owner or tenant, including
5 interest and costs thereon, as established by local regulations, ordinances
6 or by-laws, are not paid within sixty days after their due date, the same 7 shall be a lien upon such real estate in the manner hereinafter provided.
8 This and the five following sections shall not take effect in a city or town 9 or water district accepting the same as aforesaid until the city, town or 10 district clerk files in the proper registry of deeds a certificate that said 11 sections have been so accepted. Each register of deeds shall record such 12 certificate in a book to be kept for the purpose, which shall be placed in 13 an accessible location in the registry. The five following sections shall 14 also apply to a water district which has accepted sections forty-two A to 15 forty-two F, inclusive, and whose clerk has so filed the certificate of 16 acceptance, and wherever in said sections the word “town” and the 17 phrase “board or officer in charge of the water department” or “board 18 or officer having control of the water department” appear, they shall 19 also mean and include such water district and its water commissioners or 20 officers exercising similar powers, respectively. A fire district authorized 21 to supply water shall, for the purposes of said sections, be deemed a 22 water district.

1 Section 42B. Such lien shall take effect upon the filing for record
2 in the registry of deeds for the county where the real estate lies of a
3 statement by the board or officer in charge of the water department
4 that the rates and charges for water supplied to the real estate therein
5 described, including interest and costs, to an amount therein specified,
6 have remained unpaid for sixty days after the due date, and said lien
7 shall continue for one year from the first day of October next following.
8 Such statement shall contain the name of the owner of record of such 9 real estate and a description thereof sufficiently accurate for identification.
10 The register of deeds shall receive and record or, in case of regist-
11 ered land, file and register, said statement. Such lien may be dissolved 12 by filing for record in such registry of deeds a certificate from the col-13 lector of taxes of the city or town in which such real estate is situated 14 that all rates and charges for which such lien attached, together with 15 interest and costs thereon, have been paid or legally abated.

1 Section 42C. Within a reasonable time after filing such statement
2 for record or registration, the board or officer in charge of the water
Section 42D. Unpaid accounts under sections forty-two A to forty-two F, inclusive, shall bear interest at the rate of six per cent per annum from the time demand is made under the preceding section, or from such earlier time after their due date as the city or town may by ordinance or by-law provide. Any such account committed to the collector under said section and remaining unpaid shall be added by the collector to the annual tax bill next to be issued, and the total amount of such bill shall be subject to interest under the provisions of section fifty-seven of chapter fifty-nine.

Section 42E. An owner of real estate aggrieved by a charge imposed thereon under sections forty-two A to forty-two F, inclusive, in addition to such remedy as he may have under section ten of chapter one hundred and sixty-five, may apply for an abatement thereof by filing a petition with the board or officer having control of the water department within thirty days after demand under section forty-two C, and if such board or officer finds that such charge is more than is properly due, a reasonable abatement shall be made; and except as otherwise provided herein, the provisions of chapter fifty-nine relative to the abatement of taxes by assessors shall apply, so far as applicable, to abatements hereunder. If such petition is denied in whole or in part, the petitioner may appeal to the superior court for the county where the real estate lies upon the same terms and conditions as a person aggrieved by the refusal of the assessors of a city or town to abate a tax.

Section 42F. An owner of real estate who, in order to prevent the imposition of a lien thereon or to discharge the same, has paid charges for water furnished to a tenant or other person who was bound to pay the same, may recover from such tenant or other person in an action of contract the amount of the charges so paid with all incidental costs and expenses.

HOT WATER AND STEAM.

Section 43. The board of aldermen or the selectmen may, upon terms and conditions prescribed by them, authorize the laying of pipes and conduits for the transmission of steam or hot water for heating, cooking and mechanical power, for private use, under any public way in their town, may regulate and control the same, may at any time require the persons using such pipes and conduits to make alterations in the location or construction thereof, and may, after notice and hearing, order the removal thereof. Any use of such pipes and conduits other 9 than herein authorized shall terminate the authority to maintain the 10 same. Sections twelve, thirteen and fourteen of chapter one hundred 11 and fifty-eight shall apply to proceedings hereunder so far as applicable.

IMPROVEMENT DISTRICTS.

1 Section 44. A town may, at a town meeting, authorize a village 2 or district therein, if it contains not less than one thousand inhabitants, 3 to organize under a name approved by the town for the purpose of 4 erecting and maintaining street lamps, establishing and maintaining 5 libraries, building and maintaining sidewalks, or for employing and 6 paying police officers, and shall accurately define the limits of such vil- 7 lage or district. Such village or district shall have a clerk and a pru- 8 dential committee, and may have a treasurer and such other officers 9 as it determines, each of whom shall hold office for one year and until 10 another is qualified. Such village or district may adopt by-laws to 11 define the manner of calling its meetings and the duties of its officers, 12 may sue and be sued in the name of its inhabitants, and, so far as 13 appropriate, shall be subject to sections sixty-two, sixty-three, sixty-six, 14 sixty-nine, seventy-one, seventy-two, seventy-three, seventy-seven and 15 seventy-nine of chapter forty-eight.

RECOGNIZANCE.

1 Section 45. The selectmen of a town required to enter into a 2 recognizance may by an order or vote authorize any person to enter 3 into the recognizance in its name and behalf. No surety shall be re- 4 quired thereon.

G. S. 18, § 18.
P. S. 27, § 51.
R. L. 25, § 58.

OATH OF CLAIMANT.

1 Section 46. Any person authorized to approve a claim against a 2 town for labor, materials or service may, before approval thereof, re- 3 quire the claimant to certify under oath that all the articles for which 4 claim is made have been furnished, or that all the labor or service has 5 been performed, and that no commission, discount, bonus, reward or 6 present of any kind has been received by, or promised to, or is expected 7 by, any person on account of the same.

SEAL.

1 Section 47. Each town shall have a seal, established at a town 2 meeting, to be kept by the town clerk. Papers or documents issued from 3 any office or board of the town may be attested therewith. Cities which 4 had an authorized seal in use on May tenth, eighteen hundred and ninety- 5 nine, may continue to use such seal until changed by ordinance, and other 6 cities shall by ordinance establish a seal of the city and designate the 7 custodian thereof.

RECORDS AND REPORTS.

1 Section 48. Every town shall provide suitable places, to be approved 2 by the supervisor of public records, for the preservation and convenient 3 use of all books, reports and laws received from the commonwealth; 4 and for every month's neglect so to do shall forfeit ten dollars. Said books, reports and laws shall be in the custody or control of the town clerk, unless the city council or selectmen shall by vote designate some other person to have said custody or control of all or part of the same.

Section 49. The selectmen, before the annual town meeting, shall at the expense of the town print the annual town report, for the use of the inhabitants, containing the report of the selectmen for the financial year preceding said meeting, the report of the school committee, and, except as otherwise provided by vote or by-law of the town, of such other officers and boards as consider it expedient to make a report, the jury list as required by chapter two hundred and thirty-four, and such other matters as the law, or the town by vote or by-law, requires, or as the selectmen consider expedient. If the selectmen neglect or refuse to make the annual town report, they shall severally forfeit fifty dollars.

Section 50. One copy or more of the annual report and of any special report of a town shall annually, on or before the last day of April, be transmitted by the town clerk to the state library, and until such transmission the publications distributed by the commonwealth shall be withheld from the town.

Section 51. No town or officer thereof shall publish in any report for general distribution to the public or to its citizens the names of persons assisted in any way by the board of public welfare of the town, or the names of any persons residing in such town who received aid under chapter one hundred and fifteen.

Section 52. All official letters from officers of towns shall be written or printed, so far as practicable, on paper eight and one half inches wide and eleven inches long.

Illegal Appropriations.

Section 53. If a town or any of its officers or agents are about to raise or expend money or incur obligations purporting to bind said town for any purpose or object or in any manner other than that for and in which such town has the legal and constitutional right and power to raise or expend money or incur obligations, the supreme judicial or superior court may, upon the petition of not less than ten taxable inhabitants of the town, determine the same in equity, and may, before the final determination of the cause, restrain the unlawful exercise or abuse of such corporate power.

5 A town clerk for the term of one or more years.
6 A town treasurer for the term of one or three years.
7 One or more collectors of taxes for the term of one or three years, unless 8 the town votes otherwise or votes to authorize its treasurer to act as 9 collector.
10 Three or five selectmen for the term of one or three years.
11 Three or five assessors for the term of three years.
12 Three or five members of the board of public welfare for the term of one 13 or three years unless the town votes to authorize its selectmen to act as 14 such board.
15 One or three auditors for the term of one year, unless a town accountant 203 Mass. 539.
16 is appointed.
17 One or more highway surveyors for the term of one or three years; or 15 Gray, 486.
18 A road commissioner for the term of one year; or 19 Three road commissioners for terms of three years, as the town may 20 vote.
21 A sewer commissioner for the term of one year; or 22 Three sewer commissioners for the terms of three years if the town has 23 provided for such officers, unless the town by vote authorizes its road 24 commissioners to act as sewer commissioners.
25 A tare warden for the term of one year.
26 One or more constables, unless the town by vote provides that they 27 shall be appointed.
28 Three, five, six, seven or nine members of the school committee for 29 terms of three years.
30 Three or more assistant assessors, if the town so votes, for the term of 31 three years.
32 Three members of the board of health for the term of three years if the 33 town provides for such board, otherwise the selectmen shall act as a board 34 of health.
All other town officers shall be appointed by the selectmen unless other provision is made by law or by vote of the town. Women shall be eligible to all town offices, notwithstanding any special law to the contrary.

In any case where three or more members of a board are to be elected for terms of more than one year, as nearly one third as may be shall be elected annually.

Section 2. Where the town elects a new board or officer to perform the duties of an existing board or officer, the office of such existing board or officer shall terminate upon the qualification of the new board or officer. Where official ballots are used, the establishment of a new board or office, or the fixing of the term of office of town officers where such term is optional, or the increase or reduction of the number of members of a board, shall be determined at a meeting held at least thirty days before the annual meeting. In towns not using official ballots the matter may be determined by vote at the annual meeting. Such vote shall continue in effect until rescinded. If a town votes to increase the number of members of any board, such increase shall be made by adding one or more to each class, to hold office according to the tenure of the class to which they are severally chosen, as will within three years effect it, and such vote to increase shall remain in force until the increase under it is accomplished. If a town votes to diminish the number of members of any board, such diminution shall be made by choosing annually such number as will within three years effect it, and a vote to diminish shall remain in force until the diminution under it is accomplished. If a town votes to reduce a board of three members to a single officer, such vote shall take effect at the following annual town meeting, and upon the election and qualification of such officer the term of said board shall terminate; provided, that in towns where official ballots are used, unless in the vote thus passed is more than thirty days prior to the annual town meeting, it shall not take effect until the succeeding annual town meeting.

Section 3. Officers of cities shall have the powers and be subject to the liabilities of the corresponding town officers, if no other provisions are made relative to them. Women shall be eligible to city offices to the same extent as to town offices, notwithstanding any special law or charter to the contrary.

Section 4. A town which does not choose selectmen or assessors shall forfeit such amount, not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars, as the county commissioners of the county where the town is situated may order.

Section 4A. Except as otherwise expressly provided, a town board may, if authorized by vote of the town, appoint any member thereof to another town office or position for the term provided by law, if any, otherwise for a term not exceeding one year. The salary of any such appointee shall be fixed by vote of the town, notwithstanding the provisions of section one hundred and eight. In this section, the word “town” shall not include city.
1 Section 5. The voting list shall be used and the name of every person voting shall be checked thereon, in the election of all town officers whose election is by law required to be by ballot, and in voting upon the question of granting licenses for the sale of certain non-intoxicating beverages, as defined in section one of chapter one hundred and thirty-eight; but in the election of other town officers, the meeting shall determine whether the voting list shall be used.

1 Section 6. A town may, at a town meeting, vote that official ballots as defined in section one of chapter fifty shall thereafter be used therein and may, at the annual town meeting or at a meeting held at least thirty days before the annual town meeting, by a two thirds vote rescind such action. In town elections at which official ballots are used, nominations for town officers elected by ballot shall be made, ballots and other apparatus therefor provided, and elections of such officers conducted, in accordance with chapters fifty to fifty-six, inclusive, so far as applicable.

1913, 835, §§ 433, 503.

1 Section 7. If a town votes that official ballots shall be used for the election of town officers, it shall at the same meeting determine what officers, in addition to those required to be elected by ballot, shall thereafter be chosen by official ballot, and determine the number and terms of office, if not already fixed. No change shall thereafter be made in the number of offices to be held or in the number or terms of office thereof, except at a meeting held at least thirty days before the annual meeting at which such change is to become operative.

1 Section 8. At any meeting for the choice of town officers in a town not using official ballots, no ballots shall be received by the moderator unless presented for deposit in the ballot box, open and unfolded, by the voter in person, and so that the moderator can know that only one ballot is presented. No moderator or other election officer shall, before the polls are closed, read, examine, or permit to be read or examined, the names contained upon any ballot.

1 Section 9. If the town clerk, selectmen, assessors, treasurer, collector of taxes and school committee are voted for on one ballot, the moderator shall cause all such ballots, when canvassed and counted, and record thereof has been made, publicly to be enclosed in envelopes, which shall be sealed and endorsed, and certified in the manner required by section one hundred and seven of chapter fifty-four.

1 Section 10. If there is a failure at an election to choose a town officer, or if a person chosen shall not accept such office, or if a vacancy shall occur, the town may at any meeting elect a person to such office.

such meeting, containing the nominations already made and such as may 7 subsequently be made for the office.

The proceedings in such election and the qualifications of a person to 9 be elected or appointed in case of failure to elect, refusal to accept or 10 vacancy shall be the same as in an original election.

11

SECTION 11. If there is a failure to elect, or if a vacancy occurs in any 1 town office, other than the offices of selectmen, town clerk, treasurer, collector of taxes or auditor, the selectmen shall in writing appoint a 3 person to fill such vacancy. If there is a vacancy in a board consisting of 4 two or more members, the remaining members shall give written notice 5 thereof to the selectmen, who, with the remaining member or members of 6 such board shall, after one week’s notice, fill such vacancy by ballot. A 7 majority of the ballots of the officers entitled to vote shall be necessary 8 to such election. The person so appointed or elected shall perform the 9 duties of the office until the next annual meeting or until another is 10 qualified.

CLERK.

SECTION 12. In cities which accepted chapter three hundred and 1 thirty-two of the acts of nineteen hundred and one, the term of office 2 of the city clerk shall be three years from the date of his election or appointment, 3 except that in cities required to elect a city clerk in December his term shall be three years from the beginning of the next municipal year. 4 In either case the clerk shall serve until the qualification of his successor 5 unless sooner removed; and a person appointed to fill a vacancy in the 6 office of city clerk shall hold the office until the end of the unexpired 7 term of his predecessor.

SECTION 13. Every town clerk shall, within ten days after his qualification and thereafter, at intervals of not more than one year, so long as he continues to hold said office, give bond to the town for the faithful 1 performance of his duties, in such sum as the selectmen shall approve. 2 If he does not give bond as herein required the selectmen may declare the office vacant and fill the vacancy in the manner prescribed in the following section.

SECTION 14. If the office of city clerk is vacant, or if a city clerk is unable to perform the duties required by chapters fifty to fifty-six, inclusive, the mayor shall appoint a temporary clerk to perform such duties. 1 If at a town meeting the office of town clerk is vacant, or if the town clerk is absent, the meeting shall elect by ballot a temporary clerk. The selectmen, or in their absence three persons chosen at the meeting in such manner as the voters present shall determine, shall receive and count the votes and declare the election of such clerk. If in case of a vacancy other duties than those required of a town clerk at a town meeting are to be performed, or if he is unable to perform such duties, the selectmen may in writing under their hands appoint a clerk for the performance thereof, who shall be sworn and shall, in the performance of such duties, have the same powers and be subject to the same requirements and penalties as 13 the town clerk, and he shall immediately make a record of his election or appointment.
15. The town clerk shall record all votes passed at town meetings held during his term of office. He shall administer the oaths of office to all town officers who apply to him to be sworn, and shall make a record thereof and of the oaths taken before justices of the peace of which certificates are filed. He shall, immediately after every annual election of town officers, transmit to the state secretary, on blanks to be furnished by him, a complete list of all town officers elected and qualified and shall promptly report to the secretary any changes in such officers. He shall, except in the county of Suffolk, within seven days after the qualification of a constable make return of his name to the clerk of the courts and to the sheriff of the county. He shall make and keep an index of instruments entered with him required by law to be recorded, which shall be divided into five columns, with appropriate headings for recording the date of reception, the names of parties and the book and page on which each instrument is recorded. It shall be open to public inspection.

15A. City and town clerks shall, as soon as an order or vote appropriating money becomes effective, certify, in a city to the treasurer, or assessor and auditor or similar officer, and in a town to the assessors and the town accountant, if any, otherwise to the treasurer, each appropriation in detail, and the provision made for meeting the same, if specified in the appropriation order or vote.

16. A justice of the peace administering the oath of office to any town officer shall, within seven days thereafter, return to the town clerk a certificate thereof.

17. Every officer of a city who makes or executes a contract on behalf of the city shall furnish said contract or a copy thereof to the city clerk within one week after its execution; and the city clerk shall keep such contract or copy on file, open to public inspection during business hours. Such contracts or copies shall be kept in a book by themselves or in several books, arranged according to the subject of the contract, or in other convenient form, and an index to the subject matter of the contracts and to the names of the contractors shall be made semi-annually, and shall also be open to public inspection in some convenient form. All allowances under and additions to such contracts, or copies thereof, shall be filed with the city clerk, together with a sworn statement of the officer making such allowances or additions that the same are correct and in accordance with the contract. A city clerk or other city officer failing to comply with this section shall be punished by a fine of not less than ten nor more than one hundred dollars.

pursuant to section fourteen. The assistant clerk shall not receive a salary from the town, but his compensation, if any, shall be paid by the clerk, to whom all fees received by the assistant shall be paid.

SELECTMEN.

SECTION 20. Selectmen shall, upon the receipt and approval of the bond of a collector of taxes or treasurer, give written notice thereof to the assessors. The selectmen shall be assessors of taxes and the board of public welfare in towns which have not authorized the election of such officers; and before acting as assessors they shall take the oath required of assessors. A person elected a selectman who enters upon the performance of his duties before taking the oath of office shall forfeit not more than one hundred dollars.

SECTION 21. Ten per cent of the registered voters in any town may file a petition with the selectmen thirty days or more before the annual town meeting asking that the selectmen act as a water and sewer board, water commissioners, water and municipal light commissioners, municipal light board, sewer commissioners, park commissioners, board of health, assessors or board of public welfare, or perform the duties of such boards or officers or any of them, or that cemetery commissioners, assessors, a superintendent of streets, a chief of the police and fire departments or a tree warden be thereafter appointed by the selectmen. The selectmen shall thereupon direct the town clerk to cause the question whether the petition shall be granted to be printed upon the official ballot used for the election of town officers at the next annual election in substantially the following form:

Shall the town vote to have its selectmen act as . . . . . ?

If the vote is in the affirmative it shall be valid and binding and the town shall, at the next annual meeting, unless the selectmen are then so elected, provide for their election for three year terms in the manner provided in section one. Upon the election and qualification of the selectmen at such next annual meeting, and upon the appointment and qualification by oath of the officers herein authorized to perform the duties of any existing town board or officer, the term of office of such existing board or officer shall thereupon terminate, and all the duties, powers and obligations of said boards and officers shall be transferred to and imposed upon their successors; and if the town votes to have a superintendent of streets appointed, the office of highway surveyor or road commissioner shall terminate.

SECTION 22. Officers appointed by authority of a vote under the preceding section shall hold office until removed by the selectmen, and shall receive such salary as the selectmen may determine, subject to the appropriations of the town therefor; and any vacancies existing in any of said offices under the supervision and control of the selectmen shall be filled in the manner of an original appointment.
1 Section 23. A town may, after a vote under section twenty-one has been in effect therein for a period of not less than three years, by a vote at a meeting held at least thirty days before the annual town meeting, rescind such action in whole or in part, and thereupon said town shall, at the next town meeting, nominate and elect such officers as are necessary to carry out the duties exercised in accordance with section twenty-one by the board of selectmen or officers appointed by them. Such officers, when to be elected for three year terms, if members of a board of three or more, shall be nominated and elected for one, two or three years respectively, and thereafter for the term of three years, and upon their election and qualification shall have all the duties and obligations imposed upon them by law.

ASSessORS.

1 Section 24. Each assessor in every city or town except Boston shall be elected or appointed to hold office for three years, or until his successor is duly elected or appointed.

4 There shall be three, five, seven or nine assessors in each city, and as nearly one third of the number as may be shall be elected or appointed annually.

1 Section 24A. If in the case of any city there is no provision of law for the election or appointment of assistant assessors and, in the judgment of the assessors, assistant assessors are necessary, or if, in the judgment of the assessors, the provisions of law with regard to the election or appointment of assistant assessors in any city, or action taken thereunder, have not provided in any year for a sufficient number of assistant assessors, the mayor subject to confirmation by the city council, or the assessors, as the city council may determine, may appoint as assistant assessors such number of registered voters of the city as the appointing authority may deem necessary. Such appointments shall expire at the end of the year in which they are made; provided, that if an assistant assessor is nominated in any year by the mayor but fails of confirmation, the city council may designate one of the assistant assessors who served in the preceding year to serve in his stead during the then current year until a successor is nominated and confirmed as aforesaid.

1 Section 25. In towns which accept this section or have accepted corresponding provisions of earlier laws, the selectmen shall appoint suitable citizens of the town assessors and assistant assessors for a term of not more than three years, and may remove them at any time for cause after a hearing. Upon the qualification of persons so appointed the term of existing assessors or assistant assessors of such town shall terminate.

1 Section 25A. In towns which accept this section the assessors may appoint and remove citizens of the town as assistant assessors, who shall, subject to the supervision of the assessors, act as assistant assessors of the town and shall have all necessary powers therefor. In this section the word towns shall not include cities.

1 Section 26. If a town votes under section twenty-one to have its selectmen appoint a board of assessors, the selectmen shall thereupon appoint three or five suitable persons as assessors and may appoint one more.
or more assistant assessors, who, subject to the supervision of the selectmen, shall act as assessors and assistant assessors of the town and shall have all necessary powers therefor.

Section 27. If assessors, or selectmen acting as such, shall in any year fail to perform their duties, the county commissioners may appoint three or more inhabitants of the county to be assessors for such town, who shall be sworn, shall hold office until the offices of assessors are filled by the town, and shall receive from the town the compensation of assessors.

Section 28. Assistant assessors shall, in their respective districts, assist the assessors in making lists of persons liable to be assessed for poll taxes in such districts, in publishing and transmitting lists of persons so assessed, in estimating the value of the real and personal estate in such districts, and in the performance of such other duties as the assessors require.

Section 29. Any person chosen to assess taxes or to determine or to assist in determining the value of property for the purpose of taxation shall, before entering upon the performance of his duties, take the following oath:

I, having been chosen to assess taxes and estimate the value of property for the purpose of taxation for the town (or city) of for the year (or years) ensuing, do swear that I will truly and impartially, according to my best skill and judgment, assess and apportion all such taxes as I may during that time assess; that I will neither overvalue nor undervalue any property subject to taxation, and that I will faithfully perform all the duties of said office.

If he neglects to take such oath before entering upon the performance of his duties, he shall forfeit not more than fifty dollars.

Section 30. Any person chosen to determine the valuation of property for the purpose of taxation who, in order that the taxpayers may escape payment of their just proportion of any state or county tax or in order to evade any law limiting municipal indebtedness or the rate of taxation to a percentage of valuation or for any other fraudulent or corrupt purpose, knowingly fixes the valuation of any property at a smaller or greater amount than its full and fair cash value, or who causes an abatement to be made otherwise than is provided by law, shall be punished by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment for not more than six months, or both.

Board of Public Welfare.

Section 31. A town which chooses the members of its board of public welfare for one year may, instead of electing such members, provide by vote that the selectmen shall act also as such board. Such vote shall, in any town using official ballots, be passed at a meeting held at least thirty days before the annual meeting at which such selectmen are to be chosen, and thereafter the selectmen shall continue to act as such board until the town rescinds such action by a vote passed at a meeting held at least thirty days before the annual meeting.

1 Section 32. If a town votes under section twenty-one to have its
2 selectmen act as the board of public welfare, they may appoint an agent
3 who shall assist the selectmen in the performance of their duties as such 4 board.

1 Section 32A. In any town of not exceeding three thousand inhabi-
2 ants which votes under section twenty-one to have its selectmen act as 3 the board of public welfare and which accepts this section by vote in 4 town meeting, the selectmen, instead of appointing an agent under 5 section thirty-two, may designate the school physician to act as such 6 agent. Such designation shall not bar the school physician from the 7 general practice of his profession.

1 Section 33. The board of public welfare shall, within seven days
2 after the annual town election, choose a chairman, and a secretary who 3 need not be one of its members.

1 Section 34. The board of public welfare shall keep books so arranged
2 as to readily furnish information required by law relative to all needy
3 persons aided by them, and all further information as to relief applied
4 for, whether given or refused, the preservation of which may be of im-5 portance to the town or to the commonwealth, stating the amount and 6 kind of aid given and the reasons for giving or refusing it.

1 Section 34A. [Inserted, 1923, 26; repealed, 1931, 426, § 156.]

TREASURER AND COLLECTOR.

1 Section 35. The town treasurer shall give bond annually for the 2 faithful performance of his duties in a form approved by the commis-
3 sioner of corporations and taxation and in such sum, not less than the 4 amount established by the said commissioner, as shall be fixed by the 5 selectmen or mayor and aldermen, shall receive and take charge of all
6 money belonging to the town, and pay over and account for the same 7 according to the order of the town or of its authorized officers. No other 8 person shall pay any bill of any department. He shall have the autho-
9 rity given to an auditor by section fifty-one, and shall annually render a 10 true account of all his receipts and disbursements and a report of his 11 official acts.

1 Section 36. He may in his own name and official capacity prosecute
2 actions upon bonds, notes or other securities given to him or to his prede-
3 cessors in office; and unless otherwise provided, he or the chief or super-4 intendent of police or other police officer of the town may prosecute for 5 trespasses committed in or on any public building or enclosure belonging 6 to or within the town. If a public building or enclosure is owned in 7 part by the town and in part by the county, such prosecution may be 8 instituted by the treasurer of either the town or the county.

SECTION 41. No treasurer or other fiscal officer of any city other than Boston shall pay any salary or compensation to any person in the service or employment of the city unless the pay roll, bill or account for such salary or compensation shall be sworn to by the head of the department or the person immediately responsible for the appointment, employment, promotion or transfer of the persons named therein, or, in case of the absence or disability of the head of the department or of such person, then by a person designated by the head of the department and approved by the mayor. A city council, board of aldermen, common council, commission, committee or board of trustees may for the purposes of this section designate any one of its members to make oath to a pay roll, bill or account for salary or compensation of its members or employees, but 13 this provision shall not limit the responsibility of each member of any 14 such body in the event of a non-compliance with this section.

1 Section 42. Every such pay roll, bill or account shall contain the 2 following information: First, full name of each employee; second, title 3 of his office, or specific nature of the labor which he was originally en- 4 gaged to perform; third, kind of work in which he has actually been en- 5 gaged since the submission of the last previous pay roll; fourth, salary, 6 wages or other compensation; fifth, dates of employment.

1 Section 43. Each appointing, employing or other officer, who wil- 2 fully refuses or neglects to comply with any provision of the two preced- 3 ing sections shall be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five nor 4 more than one hundred dollars.

SINKING FUND COMMISSIONERS.

1 Section 44. A city or town having a sinking fund as provided in 2 section forty-seven of chapter forty-four shall elect each year for terms 3 of three years the number of sinking fund commissioners equal to the 4 number whose term then expires. In towns they shall be elected by 5 ballot at town meeting, and in cities by concurrent vote of both branches 6 of the city council. In case of a vacancy the remaining member or mem- 7 bers shall exercise the powers of the board until the vacancy is filled. 8 The city or town treasurer shall not be eligible as a commissioner, and 9 the acceptance by a commissioner of the office of treasurer shall render 10 his former office vacant. The foregoing provisions as to the mode of 11 electing commissioners shall not apply to boards of sinking fund com- 12 missioners which were established before the thirteenth day of June in 13 the year eighteen hundred and seventy-five. The commissioners shall 14 choose a treasurer, who may be the city or town treasurer; and if the 15 city or town treasurer is chosen his bond shall apply to and include duties 16 performed as treasurer of the sinking fund. If any other person is chosen 17 treasurer he shall give a bond, with sureties, to the satisfaction of the com- 18 missioners, for the proper performance of his official duties. The com- 19 missioners may also choose a secretary.

COMMISSIONERS OF TRUST FUNDS.

1 Section 45. Any city or town, except Boston, may create a board 2 of commissioners of trust funds, consisting of three persons who shall have 3 the management of all trust funds given or bequeathed for the benefit of 4 the town or the inhabitants thereof, unless the donor in making the gift 5 or bequest shall otherwise provide. In cities the commissioners shall be 6 appointed by the mayor and confirmed by the council. In towns they 7 shall be elected in the same manner as other town officers. At the time of 8 creating said board there shall be appointed or elected one member for 9 one year, one member for two years, and one member for three years; 10 and there shall be appointed or elected annually thereafter one member 11 for three years. Vacancies shall be filled by the mayor, with the approval 12 of the council, or by the selectmen.

1 Section 46. The town treasurer shall be the custodian of all funds 2 and securities of such trust funds, and shall invest and reinvest them, 3 and expend therefrom moneys as directed by the commissioners. The treasurer shall furnish a bond satisfactory to them for the faithful performance of his duties.

SECTION 47. The said board of commissioners shall, so far as consistent with the terms of the trusts, manage and control the same, and distribute the income in accordance with the terms of the respective trusts. The board shall keep a record of its doings, and at the close of each financial year shall make a report to the town, showing the total amount of the funds, and their investments, receipts and disbursements on account of the same, setting forth in detail the sources of the receipts and the purposes of the expenditures.

AUDITOR.

SECTION 48. In cities which accepted chapter three hundred and seventy-three of the acts of nineteen hundred and five, the auditor shall hold office for three years from the date of his election or appointment and until his successor is qualified, unless sooner removed. A person chosen to fill a vacancy shall hold the office until the end of the unexpired term of his predecessor.

SECTION 49. If the office of an auditor in a town is vacant, the remaining auditors, if any, may perform the duties thereof and may appoint a person to aid them. If there is no remaining auditor, the selectmen shall appoint an auditor to serve until another is qualified.

SECTION 50. The auditors of a town shall examine the books and accounts of all its officers and committees intrusted with the receipt, custody or expenditure of money, and all original bills and vouchers on which money has been or may be paid from its treasury. They shall have free access to such books, accounts, bills and vouchers as often as once a month for the purpose of examination, and shall examine the same at least once in each year, and annually report in writing the result of their examinations. They shall, at least once in each year, verify the cash balance of each of such officers and committees by actual count of the cash and by reconciliation of bank balances, and shall insert in their annual report their certificate under oath of the facts so found.

SECTION 51. An auditor may notify a person to whom money is due from the town that a certain designated amount, which may be either the whole or a part of the money so due, is payable to him upon application to an officer named in the notice, and, unless payment is refused upon such application, no interest shall accrue on said designated amount after the giving of the notice. A part payment authorized by this section shall not affect a right of tender, lien or other provision of law for the recovery of the amount of the debt, or interest or costs thereon, remaining due; but if the part payment is more than the debt as finally determined, the excess, without interest, shall be repaid to the town.

SECTION 52. All accounts rendered to or kept in the departments of any city shall be subject to the inspection of the city auditor or officer having similar duties, and in towns they shall be subject to the inspection of the selectmen. The auditor or officer having similar duties, or 5 the selectmen, may require any person presenting for settlement an 6 account or claim against the city or town to make oath before him or 7 them, in such form as he or they may prescribe, as to the accuracy of 8 such account or claim. The wilful making of a false oath shall be pun-
9 ishable as perjury. The auditor or officer having similar duties in cities, 10 and the selectmen in towns, shall approve the payment of all bills or 11 pay rolls of all departments before they are paid by the treasurer, and 12 may disallow and refuse to approve for payment, in whole or in part, 13 any claim as fraudulent, unlawful or excessive; and in that case the 14 auditor or officer having similar duties, or the selectmen, shall file with 15 the city or town treasurer a written statement of the reasons for the 16 refusal; and the treasurer shall not pay any claim or bill so disallowed.
17 This section shall not abridge the powers conferred on town accountants 18 by sections fifty-five to sixty-one, inclusive.

1 Section 53. Town auditors shall at least once every year, and so
2 much oftener as they deem necessary, audit the accounts of the trustees
3 of any property the principal or income of which, in whole or in part,
4 was bequeathed or given in trust for public uses for the benefit of the 5 town or any part thereof, or for the benefit of the inhabitants of the 6 town or of any part thereof, and examine and estimate the funds, secur-
7 ies and evidences of property held by such trustees. Said trustees
8 shall give said auditors free access to their accounts, funds, securities 9 and evidences of property; and any such trustee refusing to exhibit the 10 same shall be punished by a fine of not less than fifty nor more than two 11 hundred dollars. Town auditors shall include in their annual reports 12 a report of such auditing and investigation; and if they discover any 13 fraud or irregularity they shall immediately report the same to the 14 mayor and city treasurer or to the selectmen and town treasurer. They 15 shall, at least once in each year, verify the cash balance of such trustees 16 by actual count of the cash and by reconciliation of bank balances, and 17 shall insert in their annual report their certificate under oath of the 18 facts so found.

1 Section 54. Whenever any officer of the commonwealth, or of a 2 county, city or town, makes a payment of public money to the treasurer
3 of a city or town in the commonwealth, he shall furnish at the same time
4 to the auditor of such city or town, or to the town accountant, if there is 5 no auditor, a written statement of the amount of the payment, and the 6 date and purpose thereof.

1 Section 54A. The auditor or similar officer in cities and the town
2 accountant, if any, otherwise the town treasurer in towns, shall notify 3 the assessors, not later than May first in each year, of the total receipts of 4 the preceding financial year, except from taxes, loans and trust funds, and 5 shall specify in detail the source of such receipts.

ACCOUNTANT.

1 Section 55. Any town may authorize the selectmen to appoint a 2 town accountant, who shall perform the duties and possess the powers of 3 town auditors as defined in sections fifty to fifty-three, inclusive. In 4 towns so authorizing the appointment of a town accountant the office of town auditor may, if the town so vote, be abolished. In towns which have accepted chapter thirty-one or corresponding provisions of earlier laws, the appointment of the town accountant shall be subject to the civil service rules. The town accountant shall be sworn to the faithful performance of his duties, shall hold no other town office involving the receipt or disbursement of money, and shall hold office for three years and until his successor is qualified; provided, that the town clerk, if he holds no other office involving the receipt or disbursement of money, may be appointed town accountant.

SECTION 56. The selectmen and all boards, committees, heads of departments and officers authorized to expend money shall approve and transmit to the town accountant as often as once each month all bills, drafts and orders chargeable to the respective appropriations of which they have the expenditure. The town accountant shall examine all such bills, drafts or orders, and, if found correct and approved as herein provided, shall draw a warrant upon the treasurer for the payment of the same, and the treasurer shall pay no money from the treasury except upon such warrant approved by the selectmen.

SECTION 57. The town accountant shall keep a complete set of books wherein shall be entered the amount of each specific appropriation, the amounts and purposes of expenditures made therefrom, the receipts from each source of income, the amount of each assessment levied, and the abatements made; and he shall keep his accounts, so far as practicable, in conformity with the classifications and forms prescribed by the director of accounts in accordance with section forty-three of chapter forty-four.
The town accountant shall have custody of all contracts of the town, shall keep a register of the sureties on all bonds of indemnity given to the town, shall keep a detailed record of the town debt, showing the purpose for which it was incurred, when incurred, when due, the rate of interest and the provisions made for the payment of the debt.

SECTION 58. Whenever any appropriation shall have been expended or whenever, in the judgment of the town accountant, it appears that the liabilities incurred against any appropriation may be in excess of the unexpended balance thereof, he shall immediately notify the selectmen and the board, committee, head of department or officer authorized to make expenditures therefrom, and no claim against such appropriation shall be allowed nor any further liability incurred until the town makes provision for its payment. The town accountant shall, at regular intervals and as often at least as once each month, send to the selectmen and to each board, committee, head of department or officer having the disbursement of an appropriation a statement of the amount of orders approved and warrants drawn on behalf of said board, department or officer during the preceding month, and a statement of the balance of each appropriation remaining subject to draft. Each head of a department, board or committee authorized to expend money shall furnish the town accountant, at the close of the financial year, a list of bills remaining unpaid, showing to whom and for what due, and their amounts; and the town accountant shall incorporate the same in his annual report covering the financial transactions of the town, as provided by section sixty-one.
1 Section 59. The selectmen and all boards, committees, heads of 2 departments or other officers of a town authorized by law to expend
3 money shall furnish to the town accountant, not less than ten days 4 before the end of the town financial year, detailed estimates of the 5 amounts necessary for the proper maintenance of the departments
6 under their jurisdiction for the ensuing year, with explanatory state-
7 ments as to any changes from the amounts appropriated for the same
8 purposes in the preceding year, and an estimate of amounts necessary
9 for outlays or permanent improvements. They shall also prepare esti-
10 mates of any income likely to be received by the town during the ensuing 11 year in connection with the town's business or property intrusted to their 12 care. The selectmen shall include in their estimates the salaries and 13 expenses connected with their own office, and the salaries of all other 14 town officers shall be included in the estimates for the office, department
15 or branch of the public service of which they are in charge. The treasurer 16 shall, in addition to his estimate of the amount required for the mainte-17 nance of his own office, prepare a separate statement indicating the 18 amounts required for the payment of interest on the town debt and for 19 the payment of such portions of the town debt as may become due during 20 the succeeding year.

1 Section 60. The town accountant shall immediately upon the close
2 of the financial year compile statements in tabulated form showing the 3 amounts appropriated and the amounts expended from each approipa-
4 tion during the preceding year, and the estimates for the current year, 5 and shall forthwith furnish a copy thereof to the selectmen, or to such 6 committee as the town may appoint to consider and report on proposed 7 appropriations. The selectmen, or said committee when so appointed, 8 shall after due consideration designate the amounts which in their 9 opinion should be appropriated for the ensuing year, and shall accom-10pany the same with such explanations and suggestions in relation thereto 11 as they may deem desirable for the proper information of the inhabitants.
12 The selectmen shall print and distribute this document at or 13 before the annual town meeting, and the town clerk shall transmit a 14 copy thereof and of all town reports to the director of accounts.

1 Section 61. The town accountant shall make an annual report,
2 to be published as a town document, giving a statement of all receipts
3 and expenditures of the town for the past financial year, including 4 those of funds managed by trustees or commissioners for the town and 5 showing also the amount of each specific appropriation, the expenditures
6 therefrom, and the purpose for which money has been spent; and said
7 statement shall be arranged in accordance with the classifications pre-8cribed by the director of accounts. Such report shall contain a state-
9 ment of any change in the amount of the town debt during the year 10 and a list of indebtedness incurred and unpaid at the end of the financial 11 year.

TEMPORARY AUDITOR, TREASURER, COLLECTOR OF TAXES, ACCOUNTANT AND CLERK OF A TOWN AND TEMPORARY HEADS OF CITY

having charge of a city department, or of a town treasurer, town collector of taxes, town accountant, town clerk or of the auditor in a town having only one, the mayor, without confirmation by the city council, or the selectmen, as the case may be, shall appoint a temporary officer to serve until a successor to such incapacitated, deceased or resigned officer is duly appointed or elected in accordance with law or, in case such an incapacitated officer sooner recovers from such incapacity, until his return to duty, but no such temporary officer shall in any event be appointed hereunder to serve for a period longer than sixty days. Any temporary officer so appointed shall during the time he fills the position to which he is appointed under this section exercise all the powers and perform all the duties of the officer in whose place he serves. The provisions of this section shall apply notwithstanding any provision of a city charter to the contrary.

OFFICERS IN CHARGE OF ROADS, SEWERS AND WATER WORKS.

Section 62. If a highway surveyor be chosen, he shall have the exclusive control of the ordinary repair of public ways in his town without being subject to the authority of the selectmen. If more than one highway surveyor be chosen, the selectmen shall annually, before May first, assign to each surveyor the limits and divisions of the ways to be kept in repair by him.

Section 63. A town may at an annual meeting if official ballots are not used, otherwise at a meeting held at least thirty days before the annual meeting, vote to elect in the following manner three road commissioners or three sewer commissioners, or both.

It shall, at the annual meeting when such vote is passed or at the annual meeting next succeeding the meeting at which the vote was passed, elect one for one year, one for two years and one for three years; and at each annual meeting thereafter it shall elect one for three years. A town which has voted to elect said officers as herein provided may in like manner rescind such action; and thereupon, if at an annual meeting, the offices of road commissioners or sewer commissioners or both shall be abolished. If such vote is taken at a meeting held at least thirty days before the annual meeting, such abolition shall take effect at the next annual meeting. Upon the election of road commissioners as herein provided, the office of highway surveyor shall be abolished.

Section 64. If road commissioners be chosen, they shall exclusively have the powers, perform the duties and be subject to the liabilities and penalties of selectmen and surveyors of highways relative to public ways, monuments at the termini and angles thereof, guide posts, sidewalks and shade trees, and, if sewer commissioners be not chosen, relative to sewers and drains.

Section 65. If sewer commissioners be chosen, they shall, as to sewers and drains, exclusively have the powers, perform the duties and be subject to the liabilities and penalties of selectmen and road commissioners.

146 Mass. 43. 174 Mass. 450.
1 Section 66. In a town which has not authorized the election of 2 road commissioners or surveyors of highways, the selectmen shall, as 3 soon after the annual town meeting as may be, appoint in writing a 4 superintendent of streets, who shall receive such compensation as they 5 or the town determine and shall be removable by them when the public 6 interest requires. He shall be sworn to the faithful performance of his 7 duties, and shall hold office until the next annual town meeting or until 8 his successor is qualified.

1 Section 67. The selectmen of two or more towns may unitedly, 2 subject to the approval of the department of public works, appoint and 3 fix the compensation of a superintendent of streets who shall exercise the 4 same powers and duties and be otherwise subject to the same provisions 5 of law as if appointed in each of such towns. His compensation shall be 6 paid by said towns in such proportions as the selectmen may unitedly 7 determine.

1 Section 68. The superintendent of streets shall, under the direction 2 of the selectmen, have full charge of all repairs and labor upon public 3 ways and sidewalks, and, if no other provision is made, of repairs upon 4 sewers and drains; and in relation to such matters he shall have the 5 powers, perform the duties and be subject to the liabilities and penalties 6 of surveyors of highways and road commissioners.

1 Section 69. If a town votes under section twenty-one to have its 2 selectmen act as water and sewer boards, water commissioners or sewer 3 commissioners, the selectmen may appoint a suitable person to act as 4 superintendent of the water or sewer department or designate the super- 5 intendent of streets so to act if the town has voted to have its selectmen 6 appoint such officer, who, subject to the control of the selectmen, shall 7 have all necessary powers therefor.

PLANNING BOARD.

1 Section 70. Every city and every town having a population of 2 more than ten thousand at the last preceding national or state census 3 shall, and towns having a population of less than ten thousand may, 4 create a planning board, which shall make careful studies of the resources, 5 possibilities and needs of the town, particularly with respect to conditions 6 injurious to the public health or otherwise in and about rented dwellings, 7 and make plans for the development of the municipality, with special 8 reference to proper housing of its inhabitants. In cities the said board 9 shall be appointed by the mayor, subject to confirmation by the council, 10 and in towns shall be elected at the annual town meeting.

1 Section 71. Every planning board shall make a report annually to 2 the city council or to the annual town meeting, giving information regard- 3 ing the condition of the town and any plans or proposals for its develop- 4 ment and estimates of the cost thereof. Every such planning board shall 5 file with the department of public welfare a copy of each report made by 6 it.

Section 72. Cities and towns may make ordinances and by-laws for carrying out the purposes of section seventy, and they may appropriate money therefor. The planning board of a town may be authorized by vote of the town to act as park commissioners therein, and may be vested with all the powers and duties of park commissioners in towns.

BOARD OF SURVEY.

Section 73. In cities which accept this section by vote of the city council or have accepted corresponding provisions of earlier laws, the mayor, with the approval of the city council, may in January in any year appoint three inhabitants thereof to be a board of survey. Of the members first appointed one shall serve for one year, one for two years, and one for three years from the first day of the following February, and thereafter, in January of each year, one member of said board shall be appointed to serve for three years from the first day of February after his appointment, or until his successor is qualified. If a vacancy occurs a member shall be appointed in the manner provided herein to serve for the remainder of the term. The city engineer shall act as clerk of the board. The compensation of the members of the board shall be fixed by the city council. In towns which accept this section or have accepted corresponding provisions of earlier laws, the selectmen shall constitute a board of survey.

Section 74. After the establishment of a board of survey no person shall open a private way for public use without first submitting to said board suitable plans thereof in accordance with such rules and regulations as the board may prescribe. In cities such plans shall be so prepared as to show the profiles of such way and the method of drainage of the adjacent or contiguous territory. Upon the receipt of said plans, with a petition for their approval, the board shall give a public hearing thereon, after giving notice of the same by publication once in each of two successive weeks in a newspaper published in the city or town, the last publication to be at least two days before the hearing; and after the hearing, the board may alter such plans, and may determine where such ways shall be located and the width and grades thereof, and shall indicate any modifications on said plans. The plans as approved or modified by the board shall then be signed by the board, and in cities shall be filed in the office of the city engineer, and in towns in the office of the town clerk; and the officer with whom they are filed shall attest thereon the date of filing; and thereafter no way in the territory to which the plans relate shall be laid out or constructed except in accordance therewith, or with further plans subsequently approved by the board.

Section 75. The board of survey may, and in cities, upon the vote of the planning board and the city council, shall, from time to time cause plans to be made of such territory or sections of lands in the city or town as the board of survey or the planning board may deem necessary, showing thereon the location of such ways, whether already laid out or not, as, in the opinion of the board, the interest of the public may or will require in such territory, showing clearly the direction, width and grades of each way, and in cities a plan of drainage, and Section 76. The board of survey may from time to time make new plans in place of plans filed in accordance with the two preceding sections, or make changes on plans so filed; provided, that any action involving new plans or changes in plans already duly attested and filed shall be made only after the notice and hearing, and in all other respects in the manner specified in section seventy-four; and the last plan so made, or the plan with the changes last made thereon and duly attested and filed, shall be the plan governing the future development of the territory affected.

Section 77. The powers of the city council or of the selectmen in regard to highways shall not be abridged by sections seventy-three to eighty-one, inclusive, in any manner, except as provided herein, and the powers conferred by said sections shall be in addition to other powers possessed by cities and towns. No public way shown on any plan filed as aforesaid shall hereafter be laid out, located anew, altered or widened, and no such way, whether already or hereafter laid out, shall be constructed by any public authority except in accordance with the plan duly attested and recorded under said sections. If any person shall open for public travel any private way the location, direction, width, grades and in cities the plan of drainage of which have not previously been approved in writing by the board of survey in the manner provided in said sections, neither the city or town nor other public authority shall place any public sewer, drain, water pipe or light in, or do any public construction work of any kind, or make repairs, on such private way; provided, that this section shall not prevent the laying of a trunk sewer, drain, water or gas main if required by engineering necessities for the accommodation of other territory.

Section 78. No register of deeds shall record any plan showing thereon proposed ways in any town having a board of survey, unless there is endorsed thereon a certificate of said board, or other proper officer by it designated, that all laws applicable to such plan have been complied with. The clerk of each town shall notify the register of deeds of the district where such town is situated of the acceptance by such town of section seventy-three or corresponding provisions of earlier laws, or of any special act establishing a board of survey therein, and also the name of the officer designated by said board to approve plans hereunder.

9 said board may incur such expenses as it may deem necessary therefor, 10 not exceeding the amount appropriated for the purpose. In cities such plans shall be prepared by the city engineer, under the direction of the board. Before causing such plans to be made, the board shall give a public hearing thereon, which shall be advertised in the manner prescribed in the preceding section, and shall, after the making of any such plan, give a hearing thereon, advertised in like manner, and keep the plan open to public inspection for one month after the first advertisement of the hearing. After the hearing, and after any alterations deemed necessary by said board have been made, the same shall be approved, signed, marked, filed and attested as provided in respect to the plans mentioned in the preceding section.

Substitution of new plans. 1916, 190, § 4. 1922, 257.

Construction of ways not in accordance with plans forbidden. 1907, 121, § 4. 1916, 190, § 3. 1921, 486, § 9.

Plans not to be recorded unless approved by board. 1917, 185.
SECTION 79. Boards of survey, their officers and agents may, so far as they deem it necessary in carrying out sections seventy-three to eighty-one, inclusive, enter upon any lands and there make examinations and surveys, and place and maintain monuments and marks.

SECTION 80. A town which accepts section seventy-three or has accepted corresponding provisions of earlier laws or has accepted any special act authorizing the creation of a board of survey therein may establish, in the manner provided for the laying out of town ways, the exterior lines of any way, the plan of which is approved under section seventy-four or seventy-five or under such special act; and thereafter no structure shall be erected or maintained between the exterior lines of the way so established, except that buildings or parts of buildings existing at the time of the establishment of said lines may remain and be maintained to such extent and under such conditions as may be prescribed by the board of survey of such town. Lines established under this section may be discontinued in the manner provided for the discontinuance of a highway or a town way. This section shall not apply to cities.

SECTION 81. Sections seventy-three to seventy-nine, inclusive, shall not authorize the taking of land nor authorize a town to lay out or construct any way which may be indicated on any plan until such way has been laid out as a highway; nor shall said sections render a town liable for damages except such as may be sustained under section seventy-six by reason of the making and filing of any new plan or by reason of changes made in any plan already duly attested and filed, and for such damages as may be sustained by reason of the acts of the board of survey, its officers and agents under section seventy-nine. Any person injured in his property as aforesaid or by the establishment or discontinuance of exterior lines under section eighty may recover the damages so caused under chapter seventy-nine.

ART COMMISSION.

SECTION 82. Cities and towns which accept this section or have accepted corresponding provisions of earlier laws may, except where their charters make special provisions therefor, establish art commissions in accordance with the two following sections. In cities such acceptance shall be by the city council and in towns at an annual town meeting.

SECTION 83. Within sixty days after the acceptance of the preceding section, the school committee, the board of trustees of the public library and the board of park commissioners, or the members of three similar boards designated by the town at the time of such acceptance, shall each send in writing to the mayor or the selectmen the names of two citizens of the town, and the mayor or selectmen shall, as soon as may be, appoint from the persons so nominated an art commission of three members to serve without compensation, one to serve until the first day of May succeeding the appointment, one to serve until one year from said first of May, and one to serve until two years from said first of May. Thereafter, prior to the first day of April in each year, the several boards designated shall each send in writing to the mayor or selectmen the name of one citizen of the town, and the mayor or selectmen 14 shall, from the persons so nominated, appoint one member to serve for 15 three years from the first day of May in that year or until a successor is 16 qualified. The members so appointed may be removed in cities by a vote 17 of two thirds of the city council and in towns by a vote of two thirds of 18 the voters at an annual town meeting; and thereafter section eighty-two 19 shall not apply to such city or town unless again accepted as provided 20 therein.

1 Section 84. In any town which has accepted section eighty-two
2 or corresponding provisions of earlier laws, no municipal structure
3 shall be erected, and no work of art or ornament or object of utility,
4 except authorized structures of public service corporations and public
5 watering troughs or drinking fountains not constituting works of art
6 or ornament, shall be placed on any public ways or on any public lands
7 other than cemeteries, and no work of art or object of decoration shall 8 be placed in or upon any public or municipal building or be removed,
9 relocated or altered, unless the design thereof or the action to be taken 10 therewith shall have been approved in writing by the art commission, 11 or unless said commission shall have failed to disapprove the same in 12 writing within thirty days after its submission. Whoever violates the 13 provisions of this section shall be punished by a fine of not more than two 14 hundred dollars.

WEIGHERS, MEASURERS AND SURVEYORS OF COMMODITIES.

1 Section 85. The mayor or the selectmen, on the written request of 2 any person engaged in buying, selling or transporting goods or com-
3 modities which require weighing, surveying or measuring, shall appoint 4 weighers, measurers or surveyors of such goods or commodities, who 5 shall be sworn before entering upon their duties, shall serve for one 6 year, and may be removed at any time by the appointing authority.
7 At least one such weigher, measurer and surveyor in each town shall 8 not be engaged in the business of buying, selling or transporting the 9 goods or commodities weighed, measured or surveyed by him, but no 10 person shall be ineligible for appointment because of sex or because of 11 residence elsewhere than in the town where appointed, notwithstanding 12 any provisions to the contrary in any general or special act.

1 Section 86. All persons appointed under the preceding section
2 shall keep accurate records, in the form prescribed by the director of 3 standards, of all weighings, measurements or surveys made by them,
4 which shall at all reasonable times be open to inspection by said director
5 and his inspectors and by the local sealer of weights and measures. If 6 any person so appointed shall wilfully misrepresent the weight, quantity 7 or measurements of any goods weighed, measured or surveyed by him,
8 he shall be punished by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars.

1 Section 87. The two preceding sections shall not affect the pro-
2 visions of law for the appointment of weighers, measurers or surveyors 3 of particular commodities.

1918, 65, § 14.

1 Section 88. The mayor of each city, and the selectmen of each
2 town, where salt water fish are landed from vessels, shall annually
3 appoint a public weigher of fish, to hold office for one year from the time of his appointment and until his successor is appointed, who shall be sworn to the faithful performance of his official duties and shall give bond, with sureties, in the sum of five thousand dollars.

1918, 163, § 1. R. L. 56, § 29.

Section 89. A public weigher of fish may appoint, subject to the approval of the mayor or the chairman of the selectmen, deputy weighers, for whose official conduct he shall be answerable, who shall be sworn, and from each of whom such weigher shall require a bond, with sureties, in the sum of one thousand dollars. The weigher and his deputies shall not be interested directly or indirectly in the buying or selling of fish.

Section 90. A weigher or any of his deputies who violates his oath of office shall be punished by a fine of not less than twenty-five nor more than one hundred dollars, and shall forfeit his office.

Constables.

Section 91. In a city in which the city council accepts this section, or has accepted corresponding provisions of earlier laws, constables shall be appointed by the mayor. The mayor may, with the consent of the board of aldermen, remove a constable from office for gross misconduct.

Section 91A. The selectmen in any town may from time to time appoint, for terms not exceeding one year, as many constables as they deem necessary.

Section 92. A constable who has given bond to the town in a sum of not less than one thousand dollars, with sureties approved by the selectmen, conditioned for the faithful performance of his duties in the service of all civil processes committed to him, and has filed the same, with the approval of the selectmen endorsed thereon, with the town clerk, may within his town serve any writ or other process in a personal action in which the damages are not laid at a greater sum than two hundred dollars, and in replevin in which the subject matter does not exceed in value two hundred dollars, and any writ or other process under chapter two hundred and thirty-nine. A constable who has filed such bond, in a sum of not less than three thousand dollars, may, within his town, also serve any such writ or other process in which the damages are laid at a sum not exceeding three hundred dollars, and any process in replevin in which the subject matter does not exceed in value three hundred dollars.

Section 93. The town clerk shall note upon every bond given by a constable the time of filing. Any person injured by a breach of the condition thereof may, at his own expense, sue thereon in the name of the town, and the proceedings shall be the same as in an action by a creditor on an administrator's bond. The writ shall be endorsed by him and, if he is not a resident of the commonwealth, it shall also be endorsed by a responsible resident thereof. If judgment is for the defendant, execution shall issue for costs against the endorser as if he were a plaintiff of record.
1 Section 94. Constables may serve the writs and processes described in section ninety-two and warrants and processes in criminal cases, although their town, parish, religious society or district is a party or interested. They shall have the powers of sheriffs to require aid in the execution of their duties. They shall take due notice of and prosecute all violations of law respecting the observance of the Lord’s day, profane swearing and gaming. They shall serve all warrants and other processes directed to them by the selectmen of their town for notifying town meetings or for other purposes. They may serve by copy, attested by them, demands, notices and citations, and their returns of service thereof shall be prima facie evidence; but this provision shall not exclude the service thereof by other persons.

1 Section 95. A constable, in the execution of a warrant or writ directed to him, may convey prisoners and property in his custody under such process beyond the limits of his town, either to the justice who issued it or to the jail or house of correction of his county. If a warrant is issued against a person for an alleged crime committed within any town, any constable thereof to whom the warrant is directed may apprehend him in any place in the commonwealth.

1 Section 96. Selectmen may appoint police officers, who shall hold office during their pleasure.

1 Section 97. In towns which accept this section or have accepted corresponding provisions of earlier laws there shall be a police department established under the direction of the selectmen, who shall appoint a chief of police and such other police officers as they deem necessary, and fix their compensation in an amount not in the aggregate exceeding the annual appropriation thereof. The selectmen may make suitable regulations governing the police department and the officers thereof, and in towns which are not subject to provisions of chapter thirty-one to the contrary may remove the chief and other officers at pleasure. The chief of police shall be in immediate control of all town property used by the department, and of the police officers, who shall obey his orders.

1 Section 98. The chief and other police officers of all cities and towns shall have all the powers and duties of constables except serving and executing civil process. They shall suppress and prevent all disturbances and disorder. They may when on duty carry such weapons as the mayor or selectmen shall determine. During the night time they may examine all persons abroad whom they have reason to suspect of unlawful design, and may demand of them their business abroad and whither they are going; may disperse any assembly of three or more persons, and may enter any building to suppress a riot or breach of peace therein. Persons so suspected who do not give a satisfactory account of themselves, persons so assembled and who do not disperse when ordered, and persons making, aiding and abetting in a riot or disturbance may be arrested by the police, and may thereafter be safely kept by imprisonment or otherwise unless released in the manner provided by law, and taken before a district court or trial justice to be examined and prosecuted.

Section 99. A mayor or selectmen may, upon the requisition of the mayor or selectmen of another city or town, provide police officers, who shall have the authority of constables and police officers within the limits of such city or town, except as to the service of civil process; and the city or town providing said officers shall be entitled to receive from such city or town the amount paid to them for their services, including their necessary traveling expenses.

Section 100. A city, town, fire or water district may indemnify a police officer, fireman or a member of the fire department or a person required to assist a police officer in the discharge of his duties, to an amount not more than the amount recommended by the board or officer authorized to appoint police officers, firemen or members of the fire department of such city, town or district, for expenses or damages sustained by him while acting as a police officer, fireman or member of the fire department or as such assistant, or incurred by him in the defence or settlement of an action brought against him for acts done by him while so acting, and such damages may include loss of pay by reason of absence duty on the part of such officer, fireman or member because of temporary incapacity caused by injury suffered through no fault of his own while in the actual performance of duty; and, if such officer, fireman, member or person be dead, such expenses or damages shall be payable to his widow, or, if he leaves no widow, then to his next of kin who, at the time of his death, were dependent upon his wages for support. This section shall be construed to authorize a city or town to pay compensation, in the manner herein provided, for damages for personal injuries, whether or not death results, and for property damage sustained by a person while assisting a police officer thereof in the discharge of his duty upon his requirement.

Section 100A. A city which accepts this section by vote of its city council subject to the provisions of its charter, or a town which accepts the same by vote of its inhabitants at an annual town meeting, may, after an appropriation has been made therefor, indemnify an officer or employee thereof for expenses or damages incurred by him in the defence or settlement of a claim against him for bodily injuries, including death at any time resulting therefrom, arising out of the operation of a motor vehicle owned by such city or town, to an amount not exceeding five thousand dollars; provided, that after investigation it shall appear to the mayor or selectmen that such officer or employee was at the time the claim arose acting within the scope of his official duties or employment, and provided, further, that the defence or settlement of such claim shall have been made by the city solicitor or the town counsel, or, if the town has no town counsel, by an attorney employed for the purpose by the selectmen, upon the request of said officer or employee and at the direction of the mayor or selectmen. This section shall not apply in respect to a claim against an officer or employee which is covered by a policy of insurance effected by the city or town under clause (1) of section five of chapter forty.
Chap. 41. Officers and Employees of Cities, Towns and Districts.

Section 101. If a town so votes under section twenty-one, the selectmen shall appoint a suitable person as chief of the police and fire department, who may be designated as commissioner of public safety. He shall have authority, subject to the approval of the selectmen, to appoint a deputy as chief of the police and one or more deputy chiefs of the fire department. He shall have all the authority of constables and police officers in towns and also the powers and duties of fire engineers, and, subject to the approval of the selectmen, shall fix the compensation of police officers and permanent and call members of the fire department. Such compensation shall not exceed, however, in the aggregate the amount appropriated therefor by the town. The deputy chiefs of the fire department shall under him have the powers of fire engineers relative to the extinguishing of fires in the town and the protection of life and property in case of fire.

Inspector of Health.

Section 102. If a town votes under section twenty-one to have its selectmen act as a board of health, the selectmen may appoint an inspector of health, who shall assist the selectmen in the performance of their duties as such board.

Section 102A. In any town of not exceeding three thousand inhabitants which votes under section twenty-one to have its selectmen act as a board of health and which accepts this section by vote in town meeting, the selectmen may appoint the school physician to be inspector of health with the duties set forth in section one hundred and two. Such appointment shall not bar the school physician from the general practice of his profession.

Purchasing Agent.

Section 103. A city which accepts this section in the manner provided in the following section or has accepted corresponding provisions of earlier laws, or a town which accepts this section or has accepted corresponding provisions of earlier laws, may establish a purchasing department, to consist of a purchasing agent and such assistants as the city council or selectmen may determine. In cities the salaries of the purchasing agent and assistants shall be determined by the city council. In cities the agent and assistants shall be appointed by the mayor for such terms of office as may be prescribed by ordinance, and in towns they shall be appointed and may be removed by the selectmen. The purchasing agent shall purchase all supplies for the city or town and for every department thereof except in case of emergency. All purchases or contracts for purchases exceeding one hundred dollars in amount shall be based upon competition. A record shall be kept by the department of the prices paid for the supplies, and shall be open to the inspection of any citizen.

Section 104. A city council, with the approval of the mayor, may vote to submit the preceding section to the qualified voters of the city at any annual city election, in the form of the following question to be placed upon the official ballot: "Shall section one hundred and three of chapter forty-one of the General Laws, authorizing the establishment of purchasing departments in cities, be accepted?" If a majority of the voters voting thereon shall vote in the affirmative, said section shall take effect in that city.
TRUSTEES OF SOLDIERS' MEMORIALS.

Section 105. Towns which accept gifts or bequests or appropriate money for the purpose of properly commemorating the services and sacrifices of the soldiers, sailors and marines who have served the country in war may provide for a board of trustees to have charge and control of the construction of any such memorial, and to have the custody and care thereof after its construction. In cities the board shall consist of the mayor, and five members appointed by him and approved by the council, two of whom shall not be veterans of any war; two members shall be appointed for one year, two for two years, and one for three years, and as the term of each member expires, a successor shall be appointed for three years. Any vacancy shall be filled in the same manner for the unexpired term. In towns the said board shall consist of the chairman of the board of selectmen, and five members elected by the town in the same manner as other town officers, two of whom shall not be veterans of any war; two members shall be elected for one year, two for two years and one for three years, and as the term of each member expires, a successor shall be elected for three years; but until such board is elected, the selectmen may appoint a temporary board to serve until the next annual town meeting. Any vacancy occurring in the town board shall be filled for the unexpired term by the remaining members. Such boards may make such rules and regulations relative to the use of said memorials as they deem necessary.

TREE WARDEN.

Section 106. If a town so votes under section twenty-one, the selectmen shall appoint a tree warden.

TOWN PHYSICIAN.

Section 106A. In any town of not exceeding three thousand inhabitants which accepts this section by vote in town meeting, the selectmen may appoint the school physician to be the town physician. Such appointment shall not bar the school physician from the general practice of his profession.

TERM OF OFFICE AND COMPENSATION OF TOWN OFFICERS.

Section 107. A person who is elected town clerk shall be sworn either by the moderator or by a justice of the peace, and shall enter upon the performance of his duties on the seventh day succeeding his election or as soon thereafter as he is qualified and shall hold office during the term fixed by law, which shall begin on the seventh day succeeding his election, and until another person is qualified in his stead. Every person elected to any other town office designated by name in section one, before entering upon his official duties shall be sworn to the faithful performance thereof, either by the moderator in open town meeting or by the town clerk, and, unless other provision is specifically made by law, shall enter upon the performance of his duties on the day after his election, or as soon thereafter as he is qualified, and shall hold office during the term fixed by law, which shall begin on the day after said election, and until another person is qualified in his stead.
1 Section 108. The salary and compensation of all elected officers of a town shall be fixed by vote of the town. Except as provided in section four A, all boards or heads of departments of a town shall fix the salary or compensation of all officers or employees appointed or employed by them, subject to the provisions of section thirty-one of chapter forty-four. A city may by ordinance prescribe that all fees, charges or commissions allowed by law to any officer thereof shall be paid into the city treasury and belong to the city, and in such case shall pay such officer such compensation as the city council may determine.

1 Section 109. A town officer may resign his office by filing a resignation thereof in the office of the town clerk, and such resignation shall be effective forthwith unless a time certain is specified therein when it shall take effect. If a person removes from a town he shall thereby vacate any town office held by him.

1 Section 109A. Every officer or employee of a city, town or district required to furnish a fidelity bond with a surety or sureties shall furnish a bond with a surety company authorized to transact business in the commonwealth, as surety. The premium on such bond shall in every case be paid by the city, town or district.

HOLIDAYS AND VACATIONS.

1 Section 110. The city council of a city may provide that the employees, including laborers, mechanics and all other classes of workmen employed by the city, shall be allowed one half holiday in each week without loss of pay during such portion of the year as the city council determines. The selectmen of a town, upon the recommendation in writing of the head of any town department, may provide that the employees of such department in the town, including laborers, mechanics and all other classes of workmen employed by the town, shall be allowed one half holiday in each week without loss of pay during such part of the year as the selectmen determine.

1 Section 111. In any town which accepted chapter two hundred and seventeen of the acts of nineteen hundred and fourteen, all persons classified as laborers, or doing the work of laborers, regularly employed by such town, shall be granted a vacation of not less than two weeks during each year of their employment, without loss of pay. In any city which accepted said chapter the city council may determine that a vacation of two weeks without loss of pay shall be granted to every person regularly employed by such city as a common laborer, skilled laborer, mechanic or craftsman. If such vacations are authorized, they shall be granted by the heads of the executive departments of the city at such times as in their opinion will cause the least interference with the performance of the regular work of the city. A person shall be deemed to be regularly employed, within the meaning of this section, if he has actually worked in the city or town for thirty-two weeks in the aggregate during the preceding ing calendar year. The department of labor and industries shall enforce this section, and shall have all necessary powers therefor.
Section 111A. In any town which accepts this section, all members of its regular or permanent police or fire force may be granted a vacation of not less than two weeks during each year of their employment, without loss of pay. The provisions of this section shall not apply in cities.

1929, 206.

Employment of Veterans.

Section 112. In towns in which the provisions of chapter thirty-one and the rules governing the civil service have not been applied to the labor service, the selectmen and the city councils shall take any necessary action to secure the employment of veterans in the labor service of their respective cities and towns in preference to all other persons except women.

195 Mass. 370.

District Officers.

Section 113. A fire, improvement or water district situated in one or more towns where official ballots are used may, at the annual meeting or at a meeting called for the purpose, vote that official ballots shall thereafter be used therein. Sections one hundred and fourteen to one hundred and nineteen, inclusive, shall apply to all such districts and to all districts which are now subject to the corresponding provisions of earlier laws; but any of said districts may, at the annual meeting or at a meeting called for the purpose at least thirty days before the annual meeting, by a two thirds vote discontinue the use of official ballots, and cease to be subject to said sections.

Section 114. Where official ballots are used nominations for district officers elected by ballot shall be made, ballots and other apparatus therefore provided, and the elections of such officers conducted in accordance with chapters fifty to fifty-six, inclusive, so far as applicable, except as otherwise provided in sections one hundred and fourteen to one hundred and seventeen, inclusive, of this chapter.

Section 115. Every nomination paper of a candidate for office in said districts shall, before being filed, be submitted, on or before five o'clock in the afternoon of the Saturday preceding the day on which it must be filed, to the registrars of voters of the town where the district is situated, who shall forthwith certify thereon the number of signatures which are names of voters qualified to vote in the district. All nomination papers and certificates of nomination shall be filed with the clerk of the district within the time allowed by the general laws relating to filing nomination papers and certificates of nomination with the town clerk in town elections. In a district composed of parts of two or more towns the prudential committee of the district shall act as registrars of voters for the purpose of certifying the signatures on nomination papers.

Section 116. In carrying out the provisions of sections one hundred and thirteen to one hundred and nineteen, inclusive, the prudential committee of a district shall perform all the duties required to be performed by the selectmen in town elections where official ballots are used, and the clerks of said districts shall perform all the duties required to be per-
6. formed by the town clerk in elections of town officers where official ballots 7 are used.

1 Section 117. The town where a district is situated shall provide for 2 said district an official ballot box and other necessary election paraphernalia when they are required for use in elections in that district, but all 3 expense incurred in any election in the district shall be borne by the 5 district. In districts composed of parts of two or more towns the ballot 6 box and election paraphernalia shall be furnished by the town where the 7 election is actually held.

1 Section 118. Upon request of the clerk of a town wherein any such 2 district uses the official ballot, the state secretary shall supply for use of 3 such district or districts such blank forms, tally sheets and total vote 4 sheets as are supplied to towns for use in town elections.

1 Section 119. Said districts may hold the meeting for the election of 2 officers and the business meeting on the same day, or they may hold the 3 election and the business meeting on different days. The election and 4 business meeting may be held in the evening; provided, that the polls 5 shall be kept open for the election of officers at least two hours.

1 Section 3. Ten days before a perambulation of the boundary between two contiguous towns the selectmen of the older of such towns shall give written notice to the selectmen of the other town of the time and place to meet and proceed to the same, and shall also give written notice to the town clerk to send a copy of the notice to the clerk of the other town. The notice shall state the purpose for which the perambulation is to be held.

and place of meeting therefor; and selectmen neglecting to give such notice or to attend personally or by their substitutes shall severally forfeit twenty dollars.

SECTION 4. The selectmen of contiguous towns shall, at the joint and equal expense of such towns, erect permanent stone monuments at every angle of their respective boundary lines and wherever a highway crosses such lines, unless such monument, two feet high from the ground, already exists or unless such lines are bounded by the sea or by a permanent stream. The monuments shall be well set in the ground, at least four feet high from its surface, and shall have the initial letters of the respective names of such towns legibly cut thereon.

SECTION 5. The selectmen of towns bordering on another state, if the lines between the states have been established, shall once in every five years give notice to the selectmen or other proper officers of adjoining towns in the other state of their intention to perambulate such lines. If such proposals are accepted, a perambulation shall be made as above provided. No bound erected by the commonwealth and an adjoining state shall be removed by such selectmen or other officers.

SECTION 6. A selectman who refuses or neglects to perform any duty required of him by the two preceding sections shall forfeit twenty dollars.

SECTION 7. The department of public works may, with the concurrence of towns at town meetings, propose changes, by straightening or otherwise, in the boundary lines of contiguous towns. Such proposed changes shall be submitted to the next regular session of the general court, and, if ratified and accepted by it, said department shall locate and define such changes by determining by triangulation the position of each angle and corner in such new boundary line; and the selectmen of such contiguous towns shall thereafter place such monuments at the new points determined, and place such marks on them, in addition to initials, as the department may prescribe and in the manner required by section four. Monuments marking angles and corners in town boundaries, the position of which has not been changed, shall be re-marked in the manner indicated by said department so as to establish a uniform system of designating the angles and corners of town boundary lines.

SECTION 8. If the boundary line between towns is formed wholly or partly by a stream or by a highway, a survey and plan of such stream or highway shall be made by said department, based on the triangulation common to the other town boundary lines, and the plan shall be filed in the office of said department.

SECTION 9. The triangulation points established by said department shall be regarded as a part of the evidence of the location of town boundary lines, and a description of the position and marks of such points shall be communicated in writing by said department to the selectmen of the 5 towns where such points are located, and shall be filed with the perambu-
6 lation records of such towns.

1 Section 10. No person, except as hereinafter provided, shall re-
2 move, obliterate or cover up any monument or mark designating a 3 boundary line of a town. The county commissioners of the county
4 where any such monument or mark is wholly or partly situated may 5 grant to any person making written application permission to remove,
6 cover up or obliterate the same, first making provision for preserving the 7 exact location of the original boundary or mark by causing proper wit-
8 ness marks to be set up, or other means taken, which shall, with proper 9 designation and measurement, indicate the position of the original mark 10 or monument. The commissioners shall cause a full description and 11 designation of such witness marks and monuments so made and set 12 up to be recorded in the office of the town clerk of the contiguous towns, 13 and a copy of such description to be forwarded to the state secretary.
14 This section shall not apply to monuments and marks designating 15 boundary lines of the commonwealth.

1 Section 11. Whoever violates any provision of the preceding section,
2 or wilfully or maliciously disturbs or injures the monuments or marks
3 aforesaid, shall be punished by a fine of not more than fifty dollars or by 4 imprisonment for not more than six months.

1 Section 12. If the true boundary between two or more adjacent
2 counties, cities, towns or districts is doubtful or in dispute, the land court
3 may determine the location thereof upon the petition of one or more of 4 such counties, cities, towns and districts and after such notice to all other 5 counties, cities, towns and districts interested as the court shall order, 6 and the court may make such order as to the setting of durable bounds to 7 perpetuate the lines the location of which is so determined, and as to the 8 costs and expenses of the proceedings, as law and justice may require.

GENERAL PROVISIONS.

1 Section 1. The following words as used in this chapter shall, unless the context otherwise requires, have the following meanings:

2 "Officer", "officers" and "administrative officers", when used without further qualification or description, any person or persons in charge of any department or division of the city. The said words when used in contrast with a board or members of a board, or with division heads, shall mean any of the persons in sole charge of a department of the city.

3 "Ordinance", a vote or order of the city council entitled "ordinance" and designed for the permanent regulation of any matter within the jurisdiction of the city council as laid down in this chapter.

4 "Plan A", a city government and legislative body composed of the mayor and a city council, the councillors being elected at large.

5 "Plan B", a city government and legislative body composed of a mayor and city council, the councillors being elected partly at large and partly from districts or wards of the city.

6 "Plan C", a city government and legislative body composed of a mayor and commissioners as hereinafter specified.

7 "Plan D", a city government and legislative body composed of a mayor and four councillors, and an administrative officer, called the city manager, whose powers and duties are defined in sections eighty-nine to ninety-two, inclusive.

8 "Regular municipal election", the annual or biennial election of municipal officers for which provision is made in this chapter.

1 Section 2. Any city, except Boston, which shall adopt, in the manner hereinafter prescribed, one of the plans of government provided in this chapter shall thereafter be governed by the provisions thereof; and the inhabitants of such city shall continue to be a municipal corporation under the name existing at the time of such adoption, and shall have, exercise and enjoy all the rights, immunities, powers and privileges, and be subject to all the duties, liabilities and obligations provided for in this chapter, or otherwise pertaining to or incumbent upon said city as a municipal corporation.

1 Section 3. None of the legislative powers of a city shall be abridged or impaired by this chapter; but all such legislative powers shall be possessed and exercised by such body as shall be the legislative body of the city under this chapter.

1 Section 4. Ordinances, resolutions, orders or other regulations of a city or of any authorized body or official thereof, existing at the time when such city adopts a plan of government set forth in this chapter, shall continue in full force and effect until repealed, modified or superseded.

242 Mass. 999. 270 Mass. 185.

1 Section 5. Until superseded under this chapter, the organization of the executive and administrative departments, and the powers and duties of the officers and employees of any city adopting any of the plans provided for in this chapter, and the fiscal year of such city shall remain 1, § 5.
as constituted at the time of the adoption of such plan; but the city council or other legislative body may at any time by ordinance, consistent with general laws, reorganize, consolidate or abolish departments, in whole or in part; transfer the duties, powers and appropriations of one department to another, in whole or in part; establish new departments; and increase, reduce, establish or abolish salaries of heads of departments or members of boards. This section shall not authorize any action in conflict with chapter thirty-one.

Section 6. The territory of a city adopting any of the plans of government provided for in this chapter shall continue to be divided into the same number of wards existing at the time of such adoption, which shall retain their boundaries until changed in accordance with general law.

Section 7. A petition addressed to the city council, in the form and signed and certified as provided in the following section, may be filed with the city clerk, who shall present the same to the city council. The petition shall be signed by qualified voters of the city to a number equal at least to ten per cent of the registered voters at the state election next preceding the filing of the petition.

Section 8. The petition shall be in substantially the following form:

To the city council (or other legislative body) of the city of

We, the undersigned, qualified voters of the city, respectfully petition your honorable body to cause to be submitted to a vote of the voters the following question: "Shall the city of ... adopt the form of government defined as Plan (A, B, C, or D, as it is desired by petitioners), and consisting of (describe plan briefly, as government by mayor and nine councillors elected at large, or government by a mayor and councillors elected partly at large and partly from wards or districts, or government by five commissioners, one of whom shall be the mayor, or government by a mayor and four councillors, with a city manager), with elections to be held (annually, biennially in every even numbered year, or biennially in every odd numbered year) according to chapter forty-three of the General Laws relating to city charters?"

The petition may be in the form of separate sheets, each sheet containing at the top thereof the heading above set forth, and when attached together and offered for filing the several papers shall be deemed to constitute one petition, and there shall be endorsed thereon the name and address of the person presenting the same for filing.

Section 9. Within thirty days after the petition has been filed with him, the city clerk shall, except as provided by the following section, transmit a certified copy thereof to the city council, except that the signatures upon the petition need not be copied but in place thereof the city clerk shall state the number of signatures of registered voters thereon, certified as such by the registrars of voters. If any question arises as to the validity or sufficiency of the petition or of the signatures thereon, any registered voter of the city may appeal to the state ballot law commission for a determination of said question, upon filing a notice of such appeal with the city council and with said commission within forty-five days after the filing of the petition. The decision of the commission shall be final, and it shall forthwith send notice thereof to the 13 city council. Immediately upon the expiration of said period of forty-14 five days if no appeal has been taken as aforesaid and if it appears that 15 said petition bears the required number of signatures of registered 16 voters, certified as aforesaid, and is otherwise valid and sufficient, or 17 forthwith after all proceedings relative to such petition have been decided 18 in favor of the validity or sufficiency of such petition or signatures, as 19 the case may be, said city council shall transmit said certified copy to 20 the state secretary, but not otherwise. The question proposed by the 21 petition shall be duly submitted upon the official ballot to a vote of the 22 registered voters of said city at the next biennial state election if said
23 certified copy is transmitted to the state secretary as hereinafter pro-
24 vided at least thirty days before said election, otherwise it shall be so 25 submitted at the biennial state election next following the aforesaid 26 election.

1 Section 10. The question of the adoption of not more than one plan
2 may be submitted at an election. If, pending the determination of the 3 question proposed by petition already filed, another petition present-4 ing the question of the adoption of a different plan shall be presented for 5 filing with the city clerk, no action shall be taken upon the later petition,
6 except to file it, until after the submission to a vote of the question pro-
7 posed by the earlier petition. Should the result of such vote be adverse 8 thereto, proceedings shall then be had upon the later petition as though 9 it had been filed upon the day when such vote on the earlier petition 10 was cast.

11 Section 11. If a majority of the total number of votes cast at a 12 regular state election for and against the adoption of one of the plans of 13 government provided for in this chapter shall be in favor of its adoption 14 in this chapter, so far as applicable to the form of government under the 15 plan adopted by the city, shall supersede the provisions of its charter and 16 of the general and special laws relating thereto and inconsistent herewith, 17 but not, however, until officers provided for under such plan shall have 18 been duly elected and their terms of office shall have begun. The officers 19 provided for under the plan so adopted shall be elected in accordance 20 with the provisions of this chapter relating to such plan and in accordance 21 with section fifteen, and their terms of office shall begin at ten o'clock in 22 the forenoon of the first Monday of January following their election.

1 Section 12. Should a majority of the votes cast be against the 2 adoption of the plan proposed, no petition proposing the same plan
3 shall be filed within one year thereafter; but a petition proposing the 4 adoption of one of the other plans provided for in this chapter may be 5 filed at any time thereafter, and, subject to section ten, proceedings 6 thereon shall be had as though no prior petition under this chapter had 7 been filed.

1 Section 13. Should any plan provided for in this chapter be adopted, 2 it shall continue in force for at least four years from the beginning of the 3 terms of office of the officials elected thereunder; and no petition pro-
4 posing a different plan shall be filed until after three years and six months
5 from such adoption.
Section 14. The mayor, the aldermen and the common council, the city council or other legislative body, and the city clerk in office when any plan set forth in this chapter has been adopted, or is proposed for adoption, shall comply with all requirements of this chapter relating to such proposed adoption and to the election of the officers specified in said plan, in order that all things necessary for the nomination and election of the officers first to be elected under the provisions of this chapter and of the plan so adopted may be done.

Section 15. Except as provided in this section, the first city election next succeeding the adoption of any plan provided for by this chapter shall take place on the third Tuesday of December next succeeding such adoption, and thereafter the city election shall take place annually on the Tuesday next following the first Monday of December, and the municipal year shall begin and end at ten o'clock in the morning of the first Monday of January in each year. If the plan adopted provides for elections to be held biennially in every even numbered year, then the regular municipal election next succeeding the adoption of such plan shall take place on the third Tuesday of December succeeding such adoption, and thereafter said election shall take place biennially on the Tuesday next following the first Monday of December, in every even numbered year. If the plan adopted provides for elections to be held biennially in every odd numbered year, then the regular municipal election held under the provisions of such plan shall take place on the Tuesday next following the first Monday of December in every odd numbered year.

Section 16. No primary or caucus for municipal officers shall be held. Candidates for mayor, city council and school committee, and assessors, if elected by the people, shall be nominated in accordance with section six of chapter fifty-three.

Section 17. On the first Monday in January, following a regular municipal election, at ten o'clock in the forenoon, the mayor-elect and the councillors-elect, and assessors-elect if elected by the people, shall meet and be sworn to the faithful discharge of their duties. The oath may be administered by the city clerk or by a justice of the peace, and a certificate thereof shall be entered on the journal of the city council. At any meeting thereafter the oath may be administered in the presence of the city council to the mayor, or to any councillor absent from the meeting on the first Monday in January.

Section 18. Except as otherwise provided in this section, the legislative powers of the city council may be exercised as provided by ordinance or rule adopted by it.

1. Every member of the council may vote on any question coming before it. A majority of the council shall constitute a quorum, and the affirmative vote of a majority of all the members of the council shall be necessary to adopt any motion, resolution or ordinance.

2. The city council shall, from time to time, establish rules for its proceedings. Regular and special meetings of the council shall be held at a time and place fixed by ordinance. All legislative sessions shall be open to the public, and every matter coming before the council for action shall be put to a vote, the result of which shall be duly recorded. A full and 13 accurate journal of the proceedings of the council shall be kept, and 14 shall be open to the inspection of any registered voter of the city.
15 3. The council shall, by a majority vote, elect a city clerk to hold office 16 for three years and until his successor is qualified. He shall have such 17 powers and perform such duties as the council may prescribe, in addition 18 to such duties as may be prescribed by law. He shall keep the records of 19 the meetings of the council.
20 The person holding the office of city clerk at the time when any of the 21 plans set forth in this chapter has been adopted by such city shall con-22 tinue to hold office for the term for which he was elected and until his 23 successor is qualified.

1 Section 19. The city council at any time may request from the 2 mayor specific information on any municipal matter within its jurisdic-
3 tion, and may request him to be present to answer written questions
4 relating thereto at a meeting to be held not earlier than one week from 5 the date of the receipt by the mayor of said questions. The mayor shall 6 personally, or through a head of a department or a member of a board,
7 attend such meeting and publicly answer all such questions. The person
8 so attending shall not be obliged to answer questions relating to any other 9 matter. The mayor may attend and address the city council in person 10 or through the head of a department, or a member of a board, upon any 11 subject.

1 Section 20. No ordinance shall be passed finally on the date on 2 which it is introduced, except in cases of special emergency involving the 3 health or safety of the people or their property.
4 No ordinance shall be regarded as an emergency measure unless the 5 emergency is defined and declared in a preamble thereto separately
6 voted on and receiving the affirmative vote of two thirds of the members 7 of the city council.
8 No ordinance making a grant, renewal or extension, whatever its 9 kind or nature, of any franchise or special privilege shall be passed as 10 an emergency measure, and except as provided in sections seventy and 11 seventy-one of chapter one hundred and sixty-four and in chapter one 12 hundred and sixty-six, no such grant, renewal or extension shall be made 13 otherwise than by ordinance.

1 Section 21. No ordinance shall be amended or repealed except by 2 an ordinance adopted in accordance with this chapter.

1 Section 22. Any ordinance, order or resolution may be passed
2 through all its stages of legislation at one session, provided that no
3 member of the council objects thereto; but if any member of the council
4 objects, the measure shall be postponed for that meeting.

1 Section 23. Every proposed ordinance or loan order, except emer-
2 gency measures as hereinbefore defined, shall be published once in full 3 in at least one newspaper of the city, and in any additional manner that 4 may be provided by ordinance, at least ten days before its final passage.
5 After such final passage, it shall, in the same manner as before, again be 6 published once, as amended and completed, except in the case of an 7 emergency ordinance which may be passed as hereinbefore provided and which shall take effect on its passage, and shall be so published at the earliest practicable moment; provided, that if any ordinance or proposed ordinance, or codification of ordinances or proposed ordinances, shall exceed in length eight octavo pages of ordinary book print, then, in lieu of the advertising required by this section, the same may be published by the city council in a municipal bulletin or printed pamphlet, and if so published in full at least ten days before its final passage, and thereafter, as amended and completed, again published in such bulletin or pamphlet, said publications shall be deemed sufficient without the newspaper publication as herein required.

Section 24. All official bonds, recognizances, obligations, contracts and other instruments entered into or executed by or to the city before its adoption of a plan provided by this chapter, and all taxes, special assessments, fines, penalties, forfeitures incurred or imposed, due or owing to the city, shall be enforced and collected, and all writs, prosecutions, actions and causes of action, except as herein otherwise provided, shall continue without abatement and remain unaffected by this chapter;
and no legal act done by or in favor of the city shall be rendered invalid by its adoption of a plan provided by this chapter.

Section 25. The civil service laws shall not apply to the appointment of the mayor's secretaries or of the stenographers, clerks, telephone operators and messengers connected with his office, and the mayor may remove such appointees without a hearing and without making a statement of the cause of their removal.

Section 26. If a vacancy occurs in the office of the mayor or city council before the last six months of the term of office, the city council shall order an election for a mayor or a member of the council to serve for the unexpired term; and if such vacancy occurs in the last six months of said term, the president of the city council shall succeed to the office of mayor for the unexpired term. If the mayor is absent or unable from any cause temporarily to perform his duties they shall be performed by the president of the city council. The person upon whom such duties shall devolve shall be called "acting mayor", and he shall possess the powers of mayor only in matters not admitting of delay, but shall have no power to make permanent appointments.

Whenever, under Plan C, any councillor shall be temporarily unable for any cause to perform the duties of his office, the council may appoint one of its members to exercise his powers and perform his duties during such disability. Should an appointive officer of the city be temporarily unable for any cause to perform his duties, the council or the mayor, having the power of original appointment, may make a temporary appointment of some person to act until such official resumes his duties.

Section 27. No mayor or member of the city council or school committee and no officer or employee of the city shall directly or indirectly make a contract with the city, or receive any commission, discount, bonus, gift, contribution, or reward from or any share in the profits of any person making or performing such contract, unless the mayor, such member, officer or employee, immediately upon learning of the existence of such contract, or that such contract is proposed, shall notify in writing the mayor, city council or school committee of the nature of his interest 9 in such contract, and shall abstain from doing any official act on behalf of the city in reference thereto. In case of such interest on the part of an officer whose duty it is to sign such contract on behalf of the city, the contract may be signed by any other officer of the city duly authorized thereto by the mayor, or if the mayor has such interest, by the city clerk; provided, that when a contractor with the city is a corporation or a voluntary stock association, the ownership of less than five per cent of the stock or shares actually issued shall not be considered as involving an interest in the contract within the meaning of this section, and such ownership shall not affect the validity of the contract unless the owner of such stock or shares is also an officer or agent of the corporation or association, or solicits or takes part in the making of the contract.

A violation of any provision of this section shall render the contract in respect to which such violation occurs voidable at the option of the city. Any person violating the provisions of this section shall be punished by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars, or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both.

1 Section 28. No contract for construction work or for the purchase of apparatus, supplies or materials, whether for repairs or original construction, the estimated cost of which amounts to five hundred dollars or more, except in cases of special emergency involving the health or safety of the people or their property, shall be awarded unless proposals for the same have been invited by advertisements in at least one newspaper published in the city once a week for at least two consecutive weeks, the last publication to be at least one week before the time specified for the opening of said proposals. Such advertisements shall state the time and place where plans and specifications of proposed work or supplies may be had and the time and place for opening the proposals in answer to said advertisements, and shall reserve to the city the right to reject any or all of such proposals. All such proposals shall be opened in public. No bill or contract shall be split or divided for the purpose of evading any provision of this chapter.

1 Section 29. All contracts made by any department, board or commission where the amount involved is five hundred dollars or more shall be in writing, and no such contract shall be deemed to have been made or executed until the approval of the mayor and of the department or board making the contract is affixed thereto. Any contract made as aforesaid may be required to be accompanied by a bond with sureties satisfactory to the board or official having the matter in charge, or by a deposit of money, certified check or other security for the faithful performance thereof, and such bonds or other securities shall be deposited with the city treasurer until the contract has been carried out in all respects; and no such contract shall be altered except by a written agreement of the contractor, the sureties on his bond, and the officer, department or board making the contract, with the approval of the mayor affixed thereto.

1 Section 30. At the request of any department, and with the approval of the mayor and the city council, the city council may, in the name of the city, purchase, or take under chapter seventy-nine, any land within its limits for any municipal purpose. Whenever the price proposed to be paid for a lot of land for any municipal purpose is more than twenty-five per cent higher than its average assessed valuation during the previous three years, the land shall not be purchased, but shall be taken as aforesaid. No land shall be taken or purchased until an appropriation by loan or otherwise for the general purpose for which land is needed has been made by the city council, by a two thirds vote of all its members; nor shall a price be paid in excess of the appropriation, unless a larger sum is awarded by a court of competent jurisdiction. All proceedings in the taking of land shall be under the advice of the law department, and a record thereof shall be kept by that department.

Section 31. The school committee shall consist of the mayor, who shall be the chairman, and six members elected at large. At the first regular municipal election held in any city after its adoption of one of the plans provided in this chapter, there shall be elected, except as provided in this section, two members to serve for one year, two for two years and two for three years, and annually thereafter there shall be elected two members to serve for three years. If the plan adopted provides for elections to be held biennially, there shall be elected at the first regular municipal election held under the provisions of such plan, three members to serve for two years and three members to serve for four years, and biennially thereafter three members to serve for four years.

Section 32. The school committee shall elect a superintendent of schools annually, except as provided in section forty-one of chapter seventy-one, and may, under chapter thirty-one, appoint, suspend or remove at pleasure such subordinate officers or assistants, including janitors of school buildings, as it may deem necessary for the proper discharge of its duties and the conduct of its business; it shall define their terms of service and their duties, and shall fix their compensation. No member of the school committee, except the mayor, shall, during the term for which he is elected, hold any other office or position the salary or compensation for which is payable out of the city treasury. The committee shall organize annually on the first Monday in January, and shall elect one of its members as vice chairman, who shall preside at all meetings of the committee at which the mayor is not present.

Section 33. Except as otherwise provided in this chapter and subject to any laws which limit the amount of money that may be appropriated in any city for school purposes, the school committee, in addition to the powers and duties conferred and imposed by law on school committees, may provide, when necessary, temporary accommodations for school purposes, may make all repairs, the expenditures for which are made from the regular appropriation for the school department, shall have control of all school buildings and grounds connected therewith and shall make all reasonable rules and regulations, consistent with law, for the management of the public schools of the city and for conducting the business of the committee.

Section 34. No site for a school building shall be acquired by the city unless the approval of the site by the school committee is first obtained. No plans for the construction or alteration of a school building shall be accepted, and no work shall be begun on the construction or alteration of a school building, unless the approval of the school...
6 committee and the mayor is first obtained. This section shall not require 7 such approval for the making of ordinary repairs.

1 Section 35. All meetings of the school committee shall be open to 2 the public, except that, when requested by four members, any particular 3 meeting shall be private. The vote on any particular measure shall be 4 by yea and nays, when requested by two members.

1 Section 36. If a vacancy occurs in the school committee by failure
2 to elect, or otherwise, the city council and the remaining members of 3 the school committee shall meet in joint convention and elect a suitable 4 person to fill the vacancy until the first Monday in January following
5 the next regular municipal election; and, if there would be a vacancy
6 on said first Monday, it shall be filled at such regular municipal election 7 for the balance of the unexpired term. The mayor, if present, shall 8 preside at the convention.

1 Section 37. A petition conforming to the requirements hereinafter 2 provided and requesting the city council to pass a measure, except an 3 order granted under section seventy or seventy-one of chapter one hun-
4 dred and sixty-four or chapter one hundred and sixty-six, or requesting 5 the school committee to pass a measure, therein set forth or designated,
6 shall be termed an initiative petition, and shall be acted upon as herein-7 after provided. In this and the eight following sections, “measure” shall 8 mean an ordinance, resolution, order or vote passed by a city council, 9 or a resolution, order or vote passed by a school committee, as the case 10 may be.

1 Section 38. Signatures to initiative petitions need not be all on 2 one paper. All such papers pertaining to any one measure shall be 3 fastened together and shall be filed in the office of the city clerk as one
4 instrument, with the endorsement thereon of the names and addresses
5 of three persons designated as filing the same. With each signature to 6 the petition shall be stated the place of residence of the signer, giving the 7 street and number, if any.
8 Within five days after the filing of said petition the registrars of voters 9 shall ascertain by what number of registered voters the petition is signed,
10 and what percentage that number is of the total number of registered 11 voters, and shall attach thereto their certificate showing the result of 12 such examination.
13 The city clerk shall forthwith transmit the said certificate with the 14 said petition to the city council or to the school committee, according 15 as the petition is addressed, and at the same time shall send a copy of 16 said certificate to one or more of the persons designated on the petition 17 as filing the same.

1 Section 39. If any initiative petition is signed by registered voters
2 equal in number to at least twenty per cent of the whole number of 3 registered voters, the city council or the school committee shall, within 4 twenty days after the date of the certificate of the registrars to that 5 effect:
6 1. Pass said measure without alteration, subject to the referendum
7 vote provided by this chapter, or
2. The city council shall call a special election to be held on a Tuesday fixed by it not less than thirty nor more than forty-five days after the date of the certificate hereinafore mentioned, and shall submit the proposed measure without alteration to a vote of the registered voters of the city at that election; provided, that if any city election is otherwise to occur within ninety days after the date of said certificate, the city council may, at its discretion, omit calling the special election and submit the proposed measure to the voters at such approaching election.

Section 40. If an initiative petition is signed by registered voters equal in number to at least eight per cent but less than twenty per cent of the total number of registered voters, and said measure be not passed without alteration within twenty days by the city council or the school committee, as provided in the preceding section, such proposed measure, without alteration, shall be submitted by the city council to a vote of the registered voters of the city at the next regular municipal election. A measure proposed under this section or section thirty-nine shall become effective if it shall be approved by registered voters of the city equal in number to one third of the whole number thereof and also by a majority of the voters voting on such measure, but not otherwise.

Section 41. The ballots used when voting upon a proposed measure under section thirty-nine or forty, or a measure or part thereof protested against under the following section, shall state the nature of the measure, in terms sufficient to show the substance thereof.

Section 42. If, within twenty days after the final passage of any measure by the city council or by the school committee, a petition signed by registered voters of the city, equal in number to at least twelve per cent of the total number of registered voters, is presented to the city council or to the school committee, as the case may be, protesting against such measure, or any part thereof, taking effect, the same shall thereupon and thereby be suspended from taking effect; and the city council or the school committee, as the case may be, shall immediately reconsider such measure or part thereof; and if such measure or part thereof is not entirely rescinded, the city council shall submit the same, by the method herein provided, to a vote of the registered voters of the city, either at the next regular city election, or at a special election which may, in its discretion, be called for the purpose, and such measure or part thereof shall forthwith become null and void unless a majority of the registered voters voting on the same at such election vote in favor thereof.

The petition described in this section shall be termed a referendum petition and section thirty-eight shall apply to the procedure in respect thereto, except that the words “measure or part thereof protested against” shall for this purpose be understood to replace “measure” in said section wherever it may occur, and “referendum” shall be understood to replace the word “initiative” in said section.

Section 43. The city council may, of its own motion, and shall, upon request of the school committee if a measure originates with that committee and pertains to the affairs under its administration, submit to a vote of the registered voters of the city for adoption or rejection at a
5 general or special city election any proposed measure, or a proposition 6 for the repeal or amendment of any measure, in the same manner and with 7 the same force and effect as are hereby provided for submission on 8 petition.

1 Section 44. If two or more proposed measures passed at the same
2 election contain conflicting provisions, only the one receiving the greater 3 number of affirmative votes shall take effect.

1 Section 44A. In every city, governed on September first, nineteen 2 hundred and twenty-two, by any plan provided by this chapter, which 3 accepts sections forty-four A to forty-four G, inclusive, in the manner
4 provided by section forty-four H, and in every city, except Boston, which,
5 after said date adopts any such plan in the manner provided in this 6 chapter, the provisions of sections forty-four A to forty-four G, inclusive,
7 shall apply. On the third Tuesday preceding every regular and special
8 election at which any office mentioned in this chapter is to be filled, there 9 shall be held, except as otherwise provided in section forty-four G, a pre-10 liminary election for the purpose of nominating candidates therefor, and 11 section sixteen shall not apply. The first regular election, if occurring in 12 the year in which sections forty-four A to forty-four G, inclusive, are 13 accepted, shall be held on the third Tuesday of December. At every 14 regular, preliminary and special election, the ballots used shall be gov-
15 erned by the provisions of section forty-nine and the polls shall be open 16 during such hours, in accordance with general law, as the city council may 17 prescribe. No vote of the city council changing such hours shall take 18 effect unless accepted by a majority of the voters of the city voting 19 thereon at a biennial state election, and the state secretary, upon the 20 receipt at least thirty days before such an election of a copy of the vote 21 of the city council proposing such a change, certified by the city clerk, 22 shall cause the question of its acceptance to be placed upon the ballot to 23 be used in said city at such election.

1 Section 44B. Except as otherwise provided in section forty-four G, 2 there shall not be printed on the official ballot to be used at any regular or 3 special election the name of any person as a candidate for any office
4 unless such person has been nominated as such at a preliminary election
5 for nomination, held as provided in sections forty-four A to forty-four G, 6 inclusive. There shall not be printed on the official ballot for use at such 7 preliminary election the name of any candidate for nomination at such 8 election, unless he shall have filed, within the time limited by section 9 forty-four C, the statement and petition therein described.

1 Section 44C. Any person who is qualified to vote for a candidate for 2 any elective municipal office and who is a candidate for nomination
3 thereto, shall be entitled to have his name as such candidate printed on 4 the official ballot to be used at a preliminary election; provided, that at 5 least ten days prior to such preliminary election he shall file with the city 6 clerk a statement in writing of his candidacy, and with it the petition of 7 at least fifty voters, qualified to vote for a candidate for the said office.
8 Said statement and petition shall be in substantially the following 9 form:—
STATEMENT OF CANDIDATE.

I ( ), on oath declare that I reside at (number if any) on (name of street) in the city of ; that I am a voter therein, qualified to vote for a candidate for the hereinafter mentioned office; that I am a candidate for the office of (name of office) for (state the term) to be voted for at the preliminary election to be held on Tuesday, the day of , nineteen hundred and and I request that my name be printed as such candidate on the official ballot for use at said preliminary election.

(Signed)

Commonwealth of Massachusetts,

Subscribed and sworn to on this day of , nineteen hundred and before me,

(Signed)

Justice of the Peace,

or (Notary Public).

PETITION ACCOMPANYING STATEMENT OF CANDIDATE.

Whereas (name of candidate) is a candidate for nomination for the office of (state the office) for (state the term), we, the undersigned, voters of the city of , duly qualified to vote for a candidate for said office, do hereby request that the name of said (name of candidate) as a candidate for nomination for said office be printed on the official ballot to be used at the preliminary election to be held on the Tuesday of , nineteen hundred and :

We further state that we believe him to be of good moral character and qualified to perform the duties of the office.

No acceptance by the candidate for nomination named in the said petition shall be necessary to its validity or its filing, and the petition, which may be on one or more papers, need not be sworn to.

SECTION 44D. On the first day, other than Sunday or a legal holiday, following the expiration of the time for filing the above described statement and petition, the city clerk shall post in a conspicuous place in the city hall the names and residences of the candidates for nomination who have duly qualified as candidates for nomination, as they are to appear on the official ballots to be used at the preliminary election, except as to the order of the names, and shall cause the ballots which shall contain said names, in their order as drawn by the clerk, and no others, with a designation of residence, and of the office and term of service, to be printed, and the ballots so printed shall be official and no others shall be used at the preliminary election. In drawings for position on the ballot the candidates shall have an opportunity to be present in person or by one representative each. Blank spaces shall be left at the end of each list of candidates for nomination for the different offices equal to the number to be nominated therefor, in which the voter may insert the name of any person not printed on the ballot for whom he desires to vote for nomination for such office. There shall be printed on such ballots such directions as will aid the voter, as, for example: “vote for one”, “vote for two”, and the like, and the ballots shall be headed as follows:
Official Preliminary Ballot.

Candidates for nomination for the offices of (   ) in the city of at a preliminary election to be held on the day of in the year nineteen hundred and .

The heading shall be varied in accordance with the offices for which nominations are to be made.

Section 44E. The election officers shall, immediately upon the closing of the polls at preliminary elections, count the ballots and ascertain the number of votes cast in the several voting places for each candidate, and forthwith make return thereof upon blanks to be furnished, as in regular elections, to the city clerk who shall canvass said returns and shall forthwith determine the result thereof, insert the same in one or more newspapers published in the city, and post the same in a conspicuous place in the city hall.

Section 44F. The two persons receiving at a preliminary election the highest number of votes for nomination for an office shall, except as provided by section forty-four G, be the sole candidates for that office whose names may be printed on the official ballot to be used at the regular or special election at which such office is to be filled, and no acceptance of a nomination at a preliminary election shall be necessary to its validity.

If two or more persons are to be elected to the same office at such regular or special election the several persons in number equal to twice the number so to be elected receiving at such preliminary election the highest number of votes for nomination for that office, except as provided by section forty-four G, be the sole candidates for that office whose names may be printed on the official ballot.

If the preliminary election results in a tie vote among candidates for nomination receiving the lowest number of votes, which, but for said tie vote, would entitle a person receiving the same to have his name printed upon the official ballot for the election, all candidates participating in said tie vote shall have their names printed upon the official ballot, although in consequence there be printed thereon candidates to a number exceeding twice the number to be elected.

Section 44G. If at the expiration of the time for filing statements of candidates to be voted for at any preliminary election not more than twice as many such statements have been filed with the city clerk for an office as are to be elected to such office, the candidates whose statements have thus been filed shall be deemed to have been nominated to said office, and their names shall be voted for on such office at the succeeding regular or special election, as the case may be, and the city clerk shall not print said names upon the ballot to be used at said preliminary election and no other nomination to said office shall be made. If in consequence it shall appear that no names are to be printed upon the official ballot to be used at any preliminary election in any ward or wards of the city, no preliminary election shall be held in any such ward or wards.

Section 44H. If, in a city governed on September first, nineteen hundred and twenty-two, by one of the plans provided by this chapter, there is filed with the city clerk, not later than one month before a regular acceptance of nomination, when deemed nominated. Preliminary election, when unnecessary. 1922, 282, § 1.
state election, a petition conforming so far as possible to the provisions of sections eight and nine, requesting that such city accept the provisions of sections forty-four A to forty-four G, inclusive, and bearing the signatures of registered voters thereof, duly certified by the registrars of voters, to a number equal to at least ten per cent of the registered voters thereof at the regular state election next preceding such filing, the following question shall be placed upon the official ballot to be used in such city at the next regular state election: — "Shall sections forty-four A to forty-four G, inclusive, relative to the nomination by preliminary elections of candidates for elective municipal offices in cities governed under a standard form of city charter, be accepted by the city of ?" If a majority of the voters voting thereon in fifteen such city vote in the affirmative, said sections shall take effect therein.

Section 45. Sections one to forty-four G, inclusive, shall, upon the adoption by any city of any of the plans hereinafter set forth, apply to the plan so adopted, except as is otherwise provided in such plan.

1915, 267, § 47. 1922, 282, § 2.

Plan A. — Government by Mayor and City Council Elected at Large.

Section 46. The method of city government provided for in the nine following sections shall be known as Plan A.

Section 47. Upon the adoption of Plan A, it shall become operative as provided in sections one to forty-five, inclusive.

Section 48. There shall be a mayor, elected by and from the qualified voters of the city, who shall be the chief executive officer of the city. He shall hold office for the term of two years from the first Monday of January following his election, and until his successor is qualified.

Section 49. No ballot used at any annual, biennial or special city election shall have printed thereon any party or political designation or mark, and there shall not be appended to the name of any candidate any such party or political designation or mark, or anything showing how he was nominated or indicating his views or opinions.

Section 50. The legislative powers of the city shall be vested in a city council, consisting of nine persons, elected at large by and from the qualified voters of the city. One of its members shall be elected by the council annually as its president. At the first election held in a city after its adoption of Plan A, except as otherwise provided in this section, the five candidates receiving the largest number of votes shall hold office for two years, and the four receiving the next largest number of votes shall hold office for one year. Thereafter, as these terms expire, there shall be elected at each annual city election a sufficient number of members to fill the vacancies created by the expiration of said terms, each member so elected to serve for two years.

If the plan adopted provides for elections to be held biennially, at the first regular municipal election held under the provisions of such plan and at each biennial election thereafter, there shall be elected nine members of...
15 the city council to serve for two years from the first day of January 16 following their election and until their successors are qualified.

1 Section 51. The mayor shall receive for his services such salary as 2 the city council shall by ordinance determine, not exceeding five thou-3 sand dollars, and shall receive no other compensation from the city. His 4 salary shall not be increased or diminished during the term for which he 5 is elected. The council may, by a two thirds vote of all its members taken 6 by yeas and nays, establish a salary for its members not exceeding five 7 hundred dollars each. Such salary may be reduced, but no increase
8 therein shall be made to take effect during the year in which the increase 9 is voted.

1 Section 52. Upon the adoption of Plan A, all heads of departments
2 and members of municipal boards, except the school committee, officials
3 appointed by the governor, and assessors if elected by vote of the people
4 as their terms of office expire, shall be appointed by the mayor without 5 confirmation by the city council.

1 Section 53. In making his appointments the mayor shall sign and 2 file with the city clerk a certificate in the following form:

Certificate of Appointment.

I appoint (name of appointee) to the position of (name of office), and I certify that in my opinion he is a recognized expert in the work which will devolve upon him, and that I make the appointment solely in the interest of the city.

Mayor.

3 or in the following form, as the case may be:

Certificate of Appointment.

I appoint (name of appointee) to the position of (name of office), and I certify that in my opinion he is a person specially fitted by education, training or experience to perform the duties of said office, and that I make the appointment solely in the interest of the city.

Mayor.

1 Section 54. The mayor may remove the head of a department or 2 member of a board by filing a written statement with the city clerk setting
3 forth in detail the specific reasons therefor, a copy of which shall be de-
4 livered or mailed to the person thus removed, who may make a written 5 reply, which, if he desires, may be filed with the city clerk; but such 6 reply shall not affect the action taken unless the mayor so determines.
7 This section shall not apply to the school committee, or to officials ap-8 pointed by the governor, or to assessors if elected by the people.

1 Section 55. Every order, ordinance, resolution and vote relative to 2 the affairs of the city, adopted or passed by the city council, shall be
3 presented to the mayor for his approval. If he approves it he shall sign 4 it; if he disapproves it he shall return it, with his written objections,
5 to the city council, which shall enter the objections at large on its records,
6 and again consider it. If the city council, notwithstanding such disap-
7 proval of the mayor, shall again pass such order, ordinance, resolution 8 or vote by a two thirds vote of all its members, it shall then be in force, 9 but such vote shall not be taken for seven days after its return to the city council. Every such order, ordinance, resolution and vote shall be in force if not returned by the mayor within ten days after it has been presented to him. This section shall not apply to budgets submitted under section thirty-two of chapter forty-four or to appropriations by a city council under section thirty-three of said chapter.

PLAN B. — GOVERNMENT BY MAYOR AND COUNCIL ELECTED BY DISTRICTS AND AT LARGE.

SECTION 56. The method of city government provided for in the seven following sections shall be known as Plan B.

229 Mass. 147.

SECTION 57. Upon the adoption by a city of Plan B, it shall become operative as provided in sections one to forty-five, inclusive.

231 Mass. 322.

SECTION 58. There shall be a mayor, elected by and from the qualified voters of the city, who shall be the chief executive officer of the city. He shall hold office for the term of two years from the first Monday in January following his election and until his successor is qualified.

SECTION 59. The legislative powers of the city shall be vested in a city council. One of its members shall be elected by the council annually as its president. In cities having more than seven wards, the city council shall be composed of fifteen members, of whom one shall be elected from each ward by and from the qualified voters of that ward, and the remaining members shall be elected by and from the qualified voters of the city. In cities having seven wards or less, the city council shall be composed of eleven members, of whom one shall be elected from each ward by and from the qualified voters of that ward, and the remaining members shall be elected by and from the qualified voters of the city.

At the first regular municipal election held in a city after its adoption of Plan B, except as otherwise provided in this section, the councillors elected from each ward shall be elected to serve for one year, and those elected at large shall be elected to serve for two years, from the first Monday in January following their election and until their successors are qualified; and at each regular municipal election thereafter the councillors elected to fill vacancies caused by the expiration of the terms of councillors shall be elected to serve for two years.

If the plan adopted provides for elections to be held biennially, at the first regular municipal election held under the provisions of such plan and at each biennial election thereafter, all the councillors whether elected at large or by wards shall be elected to serve for two years from the first day of January following their election and until their successors are qualified.

SECTION 60. Upon the adoption of Plan B, all heads of departments and members of municipal boards, except the school committee, officials appointed by the governor, and assessors if elected by the people, as their terms of office expire, shall be appointed by the mayor, subject to confirmation by the city council; but the city solicitor shall be appointed, and may be removed, by the mayor, without confirmation by the city.
7 council. This section shall apply to the city solicitor in office when 8 Plan B becomes operative.

1 Section 61. The mayor may, with the approval of a majority of the 2 members of the city council, remove the head of a department or mem-
3 ber of a board before the expiration of his term of office, except members
4 of the school committee, officials appointed by the governor, and assessors
5 if elected by the people. The person so removed shall receive a copy 6 of the reasons for his removal, and he may, if he desires, contest the 7 same before the city council. He may be represented by counsel at 8 the hearing.

1 Section 62. The mayor shall receive for his services such salary as 2 the city council by ordinance shall determine, not exceeding five thousand
3 dollars, and shall receive no other compensation from the city. His salary 4 shall not be increased or diminished during the term for which he is 5 elected.
6 The council may, by a two thirds vote of all its members, taken by 7 call of the yeas and nays, establish a salary for its members not exceed-8 ing five hundred dollars each. Such salary may be reduced, but no in-9 crease therein shall be made to take effect during the year in which the 10 increase is voted; provided, that the initial establishment of such salary
11 after the adoption of Plan B may take effect in the year when established 12 and in accordance with the vote establishing the same.

1 Section 63. Section fifty-five shall apply to cities which adopt 2 Plan B.

PLAN C.—COMMISSION FORM OF GOVERNMENT.

1 Section 64. The method of city government provided for in the 2 fourteen following sections shall be known as Plan C.

1 Section 65. Upon the adoption by a city of Plan C, it shall become 2 operative as provided in sections one to forty-five, inclusive.

1 Section 66. The government of the city and the general manage-
2 ment and control of all of its affairs shall be vested in a city council,
3 which shall be elected and shall exercise its powers in the manner herein-
4 after set forth; except that the general management and control of the 5 public schools of the city and of the property pertaining thereto shall 6 be vested in the school committee.

1 Section 67. The city council shall consist of the following five mem-
2 bers: a mayor, who shall be the commissioner of administration; a com-
3 missioner of finance; a commissioner of health; a commissioner of public
4 works and a commissioner of public property. Each commissioner
5 shall have charge of the department of city affairs indicated by his official 6 title, except as to the affairs and property of the city which are within 7 the jurisdiction of the school committee. All of these officers shall be 8 elected by and from the qualified voters of the whole city for terms of 9 two years, except as hereinafter provided.
In case of a difference of opinion as to the departments to be in charge of any one or more of the commissioners, the matter shall be determined by vote of a majority of all the commissioners.

SECTION 68. The terms of office of the members of the council shall commence at ten o'clock in the forenoon of the first Monday in January following their election and shall be for two years each, and until their successors are qualified; provided, that, if the plan adopted provides for elections to be held annually, the terms of office of the commissioner of administration, of the commissioner of finance and of the commissioner of health elected at the first regular election held under such plan shall be for two years, and the terms of office of the commissioner of public works and of the commissioner of public property so elected shall be for one year.

SECTION 69. The city council elected as aforesaid shall meet at ten o'clock in the forenoon on the first Monday of January in each year, and the members of the city council whose terms of office then begin shall severally make oath, before the city clerk or a justice of the peace, to perform faithfully the duties of their respective offices. The city council shall thereupon be organized by the choice of a president, who shall hold his office during the pleasure of the city council. The president of the city council shall be any member thereof, except the mayor. The organization of the city council shall take place as aforesaid, notwithstanding the absence, death, refusal to serve, or non-election of the mayor or of one or more of the four other members; provided, that at least three of the persons entitled to be members of the city council are present and make oath as aforesaid. Any member-elect, not present at the time fixed therefor, may make oath at any time thereafter.

SECTION 70. The city council shall fix suitable times for regular meetings. The mayor, the president of the city council or any two members thereof may at any time call a special meeting by causing a written notice, stating the time of holding such meeting and signed by the person calling the same, to be delivered in hand to each member, or left at his usual dwelling place, at least six hours before the time of such meeting. Meetings of the city council may also be held at any time when all the members of the council are present and consent thereto.

SECTION 71. A majority of the members of the city council shall constitute a quorum. Its meetings shall be public, and the mayor, if present, shall preside and may vote. In the absence of the mayor the president of the city council shall preside, and in the absence of both, a temporary chairman shall be chosen. The city clerk shall be, ex officio, clerk of the city council, and shall keep records of its proceedings; but in case of his temporary absence, or of a vacancy in the office, the city council may elect by ballot a temporary clerk, who shall be sworn to the faithful discharge of his duties and may act as clerk of the city council until a city clerk is qualified. All final votes of the city council involving the expenditure of fifty dollars or more shall be by yeas and nays and be entered upon the records. On the request of one member any vote shall be by yeas and nays and be entered upon the records. The affirmative vote of at least three members shall be necessary for the passage of any order, ordinance, resolution or vote.
Section 72. The city council shall have and exercise all the legislative powers of the city, except as such powers are reserved to the school committee and to the qualified voters of the city herein and in sections one to forty-five, inclusive, and the city council and its members shall, severally or collectively, have and possess, and shall themselves or through such officers as they may elect or appoint, exercise all the other powers, rights and duties had, possessed or exercised, immediately prior to the adoption of this plan, by the mayor, board of aldermen, common council, and all other boards, commissions and committees of the city and their members, severally or collectively, except such as are in sections one to forty-five, inclusive, conferred upon the school committee, or are otherwise provided for in sections sixty-four to seventy-eight, inclusive.

Section 73. In legislative session, the city council shall act by ordinance, resolution, order or vote. The yeas and nays shall be taken upon the passage of all ordinances and resolutions, and entered upon the journal of its proceedings. Upon request of any member, the yeas and nays shall be taken and recorded upon any order or vote. Every ordinance, resolution, order or vote passed by the city council shall, except as is hereinafter provided, require on final passage the affirmative vote of a majority of the members of the city council.

All votes making appropriations of money or authorizing loans shall be in itemized form.

Section 74. The mayor shall be the chief executive officer of the city, commissioner of administration and, ex officio, chairman of the school committee. When present, he shall preside at all meetings of the city council and of the school committee and at all joint conventions thereof. He may vote on all questions coming before the city council, but shall have no power of veto. He shall have such other duties, rights and powers as may be provided by ordinance, not in conflict with this chapter. During the absence or inability of the mayor to act, the commissioner of finance shall, as acting mayor, assume the duties and exercise all the rights and powers of the mayor. In the absence or inability so to act of the commissioner of finance the city council may select another commissioner from their number to perform the duties of acting mayor.

Section 75. All executive and administrative powers, authorities and duties, not otherwise provided for in this chapter, shall be assigned to a suitable department by the city council by ordinance, and changes in the assignments may be made by ordinance by the affirmative vote of three members of the city council, or by the qualified voters of the city upon initiative petition. The city council shall determine the policies to be pursued and the work to be undertaken in each department, but each commissioner shall have full power to carry out the policies or to have the work performed in his department as directed by the city council.

Section 76. Each commissioner may, except as is otherwise provided herein, appoint a qualified person to serve as the head of each of the departments under his charge and may remove him for cause stated in the order of removal. All appointments and removals so made shall be subject to confirmation by the city council. The employees in each department shall be appointed and removed by the head of that department. This section shall not affect the laws governing the civil service.

Section 77. Each of said commissioners shall keep a record book in which shall be recorded a brief but clear and comprehensive record of all affairs of the department under his charge as soon as performed, and shall quarterly render to the city council a full report of all operations of his department, and shall annually, and oftener if required by the city council, make a synopsis thereof for publication. All such records shall be open to public inspection. The city council shall provide for the publication of such annual or other reports, and of such parts of the quarterly reports, or of such other information regarding city affairs as it may deem advisable.

Section 78. The mayor shall receive for his services such salary as the city council shall by ordinance determine, not exceeding five thousand dollars, and he shall receive no other compensation from the city. His salary shall not be increased or diminished during the term for which he is elected. The council may, by a vote of not less than three members taken by yeas and nays, establish a salary for its members, not exceeding four thousand dollars each. Such salary may be reduced, but no increase therein shall be made to take effect until the municipal year succeeding that in which the vote establishing the salary is passed.

PLAN D. — MAYOR, CITY COUNCIL AND CITY MANAGER.

Section 79. The method of city government provided for in the thirteen following sections shall be known as Plan D.

Section 80. Upon the adoption by a city of Plan D, it shall become operative as provided in sections one to forty-five, inclusive; provided, that any city government under the provisions of Plan D on April twenty-second, nineteen hundred and twenty, which did not accept chapter three hundred and thirty-seven of the acts of nineteen hundred and twenty at its next municipal election, shall continue to be governed under said provisions, as existing on said date, until its method of government is changed in accordance with law.

Section 81. The government of the city and the general management and control of all its affairs shall be vested in a mayor and a city council, who shall be elected and shall exercise their powers in the manner hereinafter set forth, subject to sections one to forty-five, inclusive; except that the city manager shall have the authority hereinafter specified, and that the general management and conduct of the public schools of the city and of the property pertaining thereto shall be vested in the school committee.

Section 82. The city council shall consist of four members and the mayor, to be elected by and from the qualified voters of the city for terms of two years and until their successors are elected and qualified; provided, that if the plan adopted provides for elections to be held annually, the two 5 candidates for the city council having the highest number of votes at the 6 first regular election held under such plan shall serve for two years and the 7 two candidates for the city council having the next highest number of 8 votes shall serve for one year. If the office of mayor becomes vacant, the 9 remaining members of the council shall choose from their own number his 10 successor for the unexpired term.

1 Section 83. All the legislative powers of the city shall be vested
2 in the city council. The city council elected as aforesaid shall meet
3 at ten o'clock in the forenoon on the first Monday of January in each 4 year, and the members of the city council whose terms of office then 5 begin shall severally make oath before the city clerk, or a justice of the 6 peace, to perform faithfully the duties of their respective offices. The 7 city council shall thereupon be organized by the choice of a president, 8 who shall hold his office during the pleasure of the city council. The 9 president of the city council shall be any member thereof, except the 10 mayor. The organization of the city council shall take place as aforesaid, notwithstanding the absence, death, refusal to serve, or non-election 11 of one or more of the members; provided that at least three of the 12 persons entitled to be members of the city council are present and 13 qualified. Any member-elect, not present at the time fixed therefor, 14 may make oath at any time thereafter.

1 Section 84. The city council shall fix suitable times for its regular 2 meetings. The mayor, the president of the city council or any two 3 members thereof may at any time call special meetings by causing written 4 notices, stating the time of holding such meetings and signed by the 5 persons calling the same, to be delivered in hand to each member, or left 6 at his usual dwelling place, at least six hours before the time of such 7 meetings. Meetings of the city council may also be held at any time 8 when all the members of the council are present and consent thereto.

1 Section 85. A majority of the members of the city council shall 2 constitute a quorum. Its meetings shall be public, and the mayor, if 3 present, shall preside and may vote. In the absence of the mayor the 4 president of the city council shall preside, and in the absence of both,
5 a temporary president shall be chosen. The city clerk shall be, ex officio, 6 clerk of the city council, and shall keep records of its proceedings; but 7 in case of his temporary absence, or of a vacancy in the office, the city 8 council may elect by ballot a temporary clerk, who shall be sworn to the 9 faithful discharge of his duties and may act as clerk of the city council 10 until a city clerk is qualified. All final votes of the city council involving 11 the expenditure of fifty dollars or more shall be by yeas and nays and be 12 entered on the records. On the request of one member any vote shall 13 be by yeas and nays and be entered upon the records. The affirmative 14 vote of at least three members shall be necessary for the passage of any 15 order, ordinance, resolution or vote.

1 Section 86. Vacancies in the city council shall be filled by the coun-
2 cil for the remainder of the unexpired term.

1 Section 87. The mayor shall be the official head of the city. He 2 shall have no power of veto, but shall have the same power as the other
3 members of the council to vote upon all measures coming before it.
Section 88. The mayor shall receive for his services such salary as the city council shall by ordinance determine, not exceeding three thousand dollars, and shall receive no other compensation from the city. His salary shall not be increased or diminished during the term for which he is elected.

The council may by a vote of not less than three members, taken by yeas and nays, establish a salary for its members, not exceeding seven hundred and fifty dollars each. Such salary may be reduced, but no increase therein shall be made to take effect during the year in which the increase is voted. Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this section, the initial establishment of the salaries of the mayor and other city councilors after the adoption of Plan D may take effect in the year when established and in accordance with the vote establishing the same.

Section 89. The city council shall appoint a city manager, who shall be the administrative head of the city government and shall be responsible for the administration of all departments. He shall be appointed with regard to merit only, and need not be a resident of the city when appointed. He shall hold office during the pleasure of the city council and shall receive such compensation as it shall fix by ordinance.

Section 90. The city manager shall be the administrative head of the city government, see that within the city the laws of the commonwealth and the ordinances, resolutions and regulations of the council are faithfully executed, attend all meetings of the council, and recommend for adoption such measures as he shall deem expedient, make reports to the council from time to time upon the affairs of the city, keep the council fully advised of the city’s financial condition and its future financial needs and appoint and remove all heads of departments, superintendents and other employees of the city.

Section 91. Such city officers and employees as the council shall determine are necessary for the proper administration of the city shall be appointed and may be removed by the city manager, who shall report every such appointment and removal to the council at the next meeting thereof following any such appointment or removal.

Section 92. The officers and employees of the city shall perform the duties required of them by the city manager, under general regulations of the city council.
CHAPTER 43A.

STANDARD FORM OF REPRESENTATIVE TOWN MEETING GOVERNMENT.

Sect. 1. General provisions.

1. Standard form, adoption by certain towns authorized.
2. Procedure.

Sect. 2. Procedure.

4. Elected town meeting members.
5. Representative town meetings. Procedure. Resignations, etc., of members.

Sect. 3. Nominations.

7. Action on articles in warrant.
8. Moderator; moderator pro tempore.
9. Vacancies in membership, how filled.
11. Authority to continue to act by representative town meetings. Effect of such action.
12. Right to hold general meetings not abridged. Limitation upon powers of representative town meetings.

General provisions.

Section 1. Any town in which there has been constituted and established a form of representative town meeting government under a special statute, enacted in conformity with the provisions of the constitution of the commonwealth, may in substitution therefor adopt the standard form of representative town meeting government provided by sections three to twelve, inclusive.

Section 2. Five per cent of the registered voters of any such town may, not less than ninety days before its annual town meeting, file with the selectmen a petition that there be submitted to the voters of the town the matter of the acceptance of such standard form of representative town meeting government. The selectmen shall thereupon direct the town clerk to cause to be printed on the official ballot used for the election of town officers at such meeting substantially the following question: Shall the town adopt the standard form of representative town meeting government provided by chapter forty-three A of the General Laws? If a majority of the votes cast thereon are in the affirmative such standard form shall thereupon become effective in such town, and the acceptance by the town of the special statute under which it was theretofore governed shall be deemed to be revoked by such vote; provided, that the town meeting members elected at such election or in office under the provisions of such special statute shall, except as otherwise provided therein, remain in office until the next annual town election.

Sect. 6. Nominations.

7. Action on articles in warrant.
8. Moderator; moderator pro tempore.
9. Vacancies in membership, how filled.
11. Authority to continue to act by representative town meetings. Effect of such action.
12. Right to hold general meetings not abridged. Limitation upon powers of representative town meetings.
Certain laws applicable. 1931, 314.

to consist of compact and contiguous territory to be bounded, as far as possible, by the center line of known streets and ways or by other well-defined limits. Their boundaries shall be reviewed, and, if need be, wholly or partly revised, by the selectmen in December, once in five years, or in December of any year when so directed by a vote of a representative town meeting held not later than November twentieth of that year.

The selectmen shall, within ten days after any establishment or revision of the precincts, file a report of their doings with the town clerk. The registrars of voters and the assessors, with a map or maps or description of the precincts and the names and residences of the registered voters therein. The selectmen shall also cause to be posted in the town hall a map or maps or description of the precincts as established or revised from time to time, with the names and residences of the registered voters therein; and they shall also cause to be posted in at least one public place in each precinct a map or description of that precinct, with the names and residences of the registered voters therein. The division of the town into voting precincts and any revision of such precincts shall take effect upon the date of the filing of the report thereof by the selectmen with the town clerk. Whenever the precincts are established or revised, the town clerk shall forthwith give written notice thereof to the state secretary, stating the number and designation of the precincts. Meetings of the registered voters of the several precincts for elections, for primaries, and for voting upon any question to be submitted to all the registered voters of the town, shall be held on the same day and at the same hour and at such place or places within the town as the selectmen shall in the warrant for such meeting direct. The provisions of chapters fifty to fifty-six, inclusive, relating to precinct voting at elections, so far as the same are not inconsistent with this chapter, shall apply to all elections and primaries in the town upon the establishment of voting precincts as hereinbefore provided.

Section 4. Other than the officers designated in the by-laws of the town as town meeting members at large, the representative town meeting membership shall in each precinct consist of the largest number divisible by three which will admit of a representation thereof in the approximate proportion which the number of registered voters therein bears to the total number of registered voters in the town, and which will cause the total membership to be as nearly two hundred and forty as may be.

The registered voters in every precinct shall, at the first annual town election held after the establishment of such precinct, and the registered voters of any precinct affected by any revision of precincts at the first annual town election following such revision, conformably to the laws relative to elections not inconsistent with this chapter, elect by ballot the number of registered voters in the precinct, other than the officers designated in the by-laws as town meeting members at large, provided for in the first sentence of this section, to be town meeting members of the town. The first third, in the order of votes received, of members so elected shall serve three years, the second third in such order shall serve two years, and the remaining third in such order shall serve one year, from the day of the annual town meeting; in case of a tie vote affecting the division into thirds, as aforesaid, the members elected from the precinct shall by ballot determine the same; and thereafter, except as is 23 otherwise provided herein, at each annual town election the registered 24 voters of each precinct shall, in like manner, elect, for the term of three 25 years, one third of the number of elected town meeting members to 26 which such precinct is entitled, and shall at such election fill for the 27 unexpired term or terms any vacancy or vacancies then existing in the 28 number of elected town meeting members in such precinct.

29 The terms of office of all elected town meeting members from every 30 precinct revised as aforesaid shall cease upon the election as herein-31 before provided of their successors. The town clerk shall, after every 32 election of town meeting members, forthwith notify each such member 33 by mail of his election.

1 Section 5. Any representative town meeting held under the provi-
2 sions of this chapter, except as otherwise provided herein, shall be lim-
3 ited to the town meeting members elected under section four, together 4 with such town meeting members at large as may be provided for by 5 the by-laws of the town.

6 The town clerk shall notify the town meeting members of the time
7 and place at which representative town meetings are to be held, the 8 notices to be sent by mail at least seven days before the meeting. The 9 town meeting members, as aforesaid, shall be the judges of the election
10 and qualifications of their members. A majority of the town meeting 11 members shall constitute a quorum for doing business; but a less num-12 ber may organize temporarily and may adjourn from time to time, but 13 no town meeting shall adjourn over the date of an election of town meet-14 ing members. All town meetings shall be public. The town meeting 15 members as such shall receive no compensation. Subject to such condi-16 tions as may be determined from time to time by the members of the 17 representative town meeting, any registered voter of the town who is 18 not a town meeting member may speak at any representative town 19 meeting, but shall not vote. A town meeting member may resign by 20 filing a written resignation with the town clerk, and such resignation 21 shall take effect on the date of such filing. A town meeting member 22 who removes from the town shall cease to be a town meeting member, 23 and a town meeting member who removes from the precinct from which 24 he was elected to another precinct may serve only until the next annual 25 town meeting.

1 Section 6. Nomination of candidates for town meeting members to 2 be elected under this chapter shall be made by nomination papers, which 3 shall bear no political designation, shall be signed by not less than ten
4 voters of the precinct in which the candidate resides, and shall be filed 5 with the town clerk at least ten days before the election; provided, that 6 any town meeting member may become a candidate for re-election by 7 giving written notice thereof to the town clerk at least thirty days before 8 the election. No nomination papers shall be valid in respect to any 9 candidate whose written acceptance is not thereon or attached thereto 10 when filed.

1 Section 7. The articles in the warrant for every town meeting, so 2 far as they relate to the election of the moderator, town officers and 3 town meeting members, and as herein provided, to referenda, and all 4 matters to be acted upon and determined by ballot, shall be so acted 5 upon and determined by the registered voters of the town in their respective precincts. All other articles in the warrant for any town meeting shall be acted upon and determined exclusively by town meeting members at a meeting to be held at such time and place as shall be set forth by the selectmen in the warrant for the meeting, subject to the referendum provided for by section ten.

SECTION 8. A moderator shall be elected by ballot at each annual town meeting, and shall serve as moderator of all town meetings, except as otherwise provided by law, until a successor is elected and qualified. Nominations for and election of a moderator shall be as in the case of other elective town officers, and any vacancy in the office may be filled by the town meeting members at a meeting held for that purpose. If a moderator is absent, a moderator pro tempore may be elected by the town meeting members.

SECTION 9. Any vacancy in the full number of town meeting members from any precinct, whether arising from a failure of the registered voters thereof to elect, or from any other cause, may be filled, until the next annual election, by the remaining members of the precinct from among the registered voters thereof. Upon petition therefor, signed by not less than ten town meeting members from the precinct, notice of any vacancy shall promptly be given by the town clerk to the remaining members from the precinct in which the vacancy or vacancies exist, and he shall call a special meeting of such members for the purpose of filling such vacancy or vacancies. He shall cause to be mailed to every such member, not less than five days before the time set for the meeting, a notice specifying the object, time and place of the meeting. At the said meeting a majority of the members from such precinct shall constitute a quorum, and they shall elect from their own number a chairman and a clerk. The choice to fill any vacancy shall be by ballot, and a majority of the votes cast shall be required for a choice. The chairman and clerk shall count the ballots and shall make a certificate of the choice and forthwith file the same with the town clerk, together with a written acceptance by the member or members so chosen, who shall thereupon be deemed elected and qualified as a town meeting member or members, subject to the right of all the town meeting members to judge of the election and qualifications of the members as set forth in section five.

SECTION 10. A vote passed at any representative town meeting authorizing the expenditure of twenty thousand dollars or more as a special appropriation, or establishing a new board or office or abolishing an old board or office or merging two or more boards or offices, or fixing the term of office of town officers, where such term is optional, or increasing or reducing the number of members of a board, or adopting a new by-law, or amending an existing by-law, shall not be operative until after the expiration of five days, exclusive of Sundays and holidays, from the dissolution of the meeting. If, within said five days, a petition, signed by not less than three per cent of the registered voters of the town, containing their names and addresses as they appear on the list of registered voters, is filed with the selectmen asking that the question or questions involved in such a vote be submitted to the registered voters of the town at large, then the selectmen, after the expiration of 15 five days, shall forthwith call a special meeting for the sole purpose of 16 presenting to the registered voters at large the question or questions so 17 involved. The polls shall be opened at two o'clock in the afternoon
18 and shall be closed not earlier than eight o'clock in the evening, and all 19 votes upon any questions so submitted shall be taken by ballot, and the 20 check list shall be used in the several precinct meetings in the same
21 manner as in the election of town officers. The questions so submitted 22 shall be determined by a majority vote of the registered voters of the 23 town voting thereon, but no action of the representative town meeting
24 shall be reversed unless at least twenty per cent of the registered voters 25 shall so vote. Each question so submitted shall be in the form of the 26 following question, which shall be placed upon the official ballot:—
27 "Shall the town vote to approve the action of the representative town 28 meeting whereby it was voted (brief description of the substance of the 29 vote)?" If such petition is not filed within said period of five days, the 30 vote of the representative town meeting shall become operative and 31 effective upon the expiration of said period.

1 Section 11. The town, after the acceptance of this chapter, shall 2 continue to have the capacity to act through and to be bound by its 3 town meeting members, who shall, when convened from time to time 4 as herein provided, constitute representative town meetings; and the 5 representative town meetings shall exercise exclusively, so far as will 6 conform to the provisions of this chapter, all powers vested in the mu-
7 nicipal corporation. Action in conformity with all provisions of law
8 now or hereafter applicable to the transaction of town affairs in town 9 meeting, shall, when taken by any representative town meeting in 10 accordance with the provisions of this chapter, have the same force and 11 effect as if such action had been taken in a town meeting open to all the 12 voters of the town as organized and conducted before the establish-13 ment in said town of representative town meeting government.

1 Section 12. This chapter shall not abridge the right of the inhabit-
2 ants of the town to hold general meetings, as secured to them by the 3 constitution of this commonwealth; nor shall this chapter confer upon 4 any representative town meeting in any town the power finally to com-
5 mit the town to any measure affecting its municipal existence or sub-6 stantially changing its form of government without action thereon by 7 the voters of the town at large, using the ballot and the check list 8 thereof.

1. "Revenue", receipts from taxes and income from all other sources.
2. "Director", director of accounts in the department of corporations and taxation.
3. "Majority vote" and "two thirds vote", as applied to towns or districts, the vote of a majority or two thirds, respectively, of the voters present and voting at a meeting duly called, and, as applied to cities, the vote taken by yeas and nays of a majority or of two thirds, as the case may require, of all the members of each branch of the city government where there are two branches, or of all the members where there is a single branch of the city government, or of a majority or two thirds of the commissioners where the city government consists of a commission; and in every case subject to the approval of the mayor, where such approval is required by the charter of the city.
4. "Town" shall not include city.

Municipal Indebtedness.

Section 2. Except in Boston and except as otherwise expressly permitted by law, cities and towns shall incur debts only in the manner prescribed in this chapter; but this section shall not be construed as prohibiting any city, town or district from placing additional restrictions consistent with this chapter, upon the manner of incurring debt, nor as affecting the right of any city, town or district to incur debt under any special act which has or shall become effective after January first, nineteen hundred and twenty-one; but no debt may be authorized under a special act except by a two thirds vote, unless the act so provides.

Municipal Indebtedness.

Chapter 44: Municipal Finance. applicable to the same. The indebtedness to which the debt limit imposed by section ten shall be applied shall be the total net indebtedness of the city or town after excluding debts exempted from the operation of said section.

Section 4. Cities, towns and fire, water, light and improvement districts may, by a majority vote, incur debt for temporary loans in anticipation of the revenue of the financial year in which the debt is incurred and expressly made payable therefrom by such vote, and may issue notes therefor to an amount which for cities and towns shall not exceed in the aggregate the total tax levy of the preceding financial year, together with the bank, corporation, street railway and income tax received during the preceding financial year, exclusive of special or additional assessments or revenue from any other source except payments made by the commonwealth in lieu of taxes on account of property taken for institutions or for metropolitan district purposes. Such notes shall be payable, and shall be paid, not later than one year from their date, and shall not be renewed or paid by the issue of new notes, except as provided in section seventeen.

Section 5. To provide necessary funds to meet liabilities authorized by section thirteen, the town treasurer, with the approval of a majority of the selectmen, may borrow on notes of the town during any one month between January first and the next annual town meeting a sum not exceeding one twelfth of the amount obtained by adding the previous tax levy and the sum received from the commonwealth during the preceedyear on account of the income tax. The amount so borrowed shall be deemed a part of the amount which may be borrowed under the preceeding section. Said notes shall be subject to certification, in accordance with law, by the director, who shall furnish a statement certifying the amount of the tax levy of the preceding year as filed with the commissioner of corporations and taxation by the assessors, and they shall not be renewed or paid by the issue of new notes except as provided in section seventeen.

Section 5A. To provide the necessary funds to meet liabilities authorized by section thirty-four, the treasurer of a city, with the approval of the official whose approval is required by the city charter in the borrowing of money, may borrow on notes of the city, during any one month between the beginning of the financial year and the time when the revenue loan order shall become finally effective and any period for filing a petition for a referendum thereon shall have expired, a sum not exceeding one twelfth of the amount obtained by adding the previous year's tax levy to the sum received from the commonwealth on account of the income tax during the preceding year. The amount so borrowed shall be deemed a part of the amount which may be borrowed under section four.
The provisions of city charters relative to loan orders shall not otherwise apply to loans issued under this section.

Section 6. Cities and towns may, by a majority vote, incur debt for temporary loans for the payment of land damages or any proportion of the general expenses of altering a grade crossing which they are required primarily to pay, or any proportion of the expense of constructing a high-5 way in anticipation of reimbursement by the commonwealth or county, 6 such reimbursement first having been agreed upon by the department of 7 public works or county commissioners, and may issue notes therefor for a 8 period not exceeding one year from their date; and when any money so 9 paid is repaid to the municipality, it shall be applied to the discharge of 10 the loan. Notes issued under this section shall not be renewed or paid 11 by the issue of new notes, except as provided in section seventeen.

1 SECTION 6A. If a town has appropriated a sum of money for the pur-
2 pose of constructing or repairing a highway, to be used with a sum or sums
3 allotted by the department of public works or the county commissioners
4 or by both, and is required primarily to pay that proportion of the expense
5 for which reimbursement is to be received from the commonwealth or 6 county or both, such reimbursement first having been agreed upon by 7 said department or the county commissioners, for the purpose of provid-8 ing the necessary funds to meet the expense for which reimbursement is 9 to be made the treasurer of the town may, with the approval of the 10 selectmen, incur debt outside the debt limit and issue notes therefor for a 11 period not exceeding one year from their dates; and the proceeds of such 12 reimbursement shall be applied to the discharge of the loan.

1 SECTION 7. Cities and towns may incur debt, within the limit of
2 indebtedness prescribed in section ten, for the following purposes, and 3 payable within the periods hereinafter specified, but, except as to the 4 eleventh clause, no loan shall be authorized in any year under any one of 5 the following clauses unless a sum equal to twenty-five cents on each one 6 thousand dollars of the assessed valuation of the city or town for the pre-7 ceding year has been appropriated from available revenue funds or voted 8 to be raised by taxation for the purposes set forth in such clause in the 9 year when the loan is authorized:
10 (1) For the construction of sewers for sanitary and surface drainage
11 purposes and for sewage disposal, thirty years.
R. L. 27, § 11.
1903, 375.
1913, 719, § 5, sub 1.

(2) For acquiring land for public parks or playgrounds or public
13 domain under chapter forty-five, thirty years; but no indebtedness
14 incurred for public domain shall exceed one half of one per cent of the last 15 preceding assessed valuation of the city or town.
1906, 375.
1908, 341, § 3.
1913, 564, §§ 1, 5; 719, § 5.
sub 2, § 6, sub 5.
1915, 162, § 1.
1925 Mass. 115.

(3) For acquiring land for any purpose for which a city or town is or 17 may hereafter be authorized to acquire land, not otherwise specifically 18 provided for; for the construction of buildings which cities or towns are 19 or may hereafter be authorized to construct; or for additions to such 20 buildings where such additions increase the floor space of said buildings, 21 including the cost of original equipment and furnishings of said buildings 22 or additions, twenty years.
23 (4) For the construction of bridges of stone or concrete or of iron 1913, 719, § 5, sub 5.
24 superstructure, twenty years.
25 (5) For the original construction of public ways or the extension or 26 widening thereof, including land damages and the cost of pavement and 27 sidewalks laid at the time of said construction, or for the construction of 28 stone, block, brick or other permanent pavement of similar lasting character under specifications approved by the department of public works, ten 29 years.

(6) For macadam pavement or other road material under specifications 31 approved by the department of public works, or for the construction of 32 sidewalks of brick, stone or concrete, five years.

(7) For the construction of walls or dikes for the protection of high- 34 ways or property, ten years.

(8) For the purchase of land for cemetery purposes, ten years.

(9) For the cost of additional departmental equipment, five years; but 37 each department shall be considered separately in determining the 38 amount that must be provided from revenue funds or proceeds of tax-0
(10) For connecting dwellings or other buildings with common sewers, 41 when the cost is to be assessed in whole or in part on the abutting property 42 owners, five years.

(11) For the payment of final judgments rendered after the fixing of 44 the tax rate for the current year, one year.

(12) For the establishing of public airports, including the acquiring of 46 land, grading and constructing suitable surface on such field, the consstruction of necessary buildings and the original equipment and furnishing of same, ten years. The proceeds of indebtedness incurred hereunder 48 may be expended for the establishment of such an airport jointly by two 50 or more municipalities.

Debts may be authorized under this section only by a two thirds vote. 52

Section 8. Cities and towns may incur debt, outside the limit of 1 indebtedness prescribed in section ten, for the following purposes and 2 payable within the periods hereinafter specified:

1913, 719, § 6, subs. 1.

(1) For temporary loans under section four, five, five A, six, six A, 3 or seventeen, one year.

(2) For maintaining, distributing and providing food, other common 4 necessities of life and temporary shelter for their inhabitants upon the 5 occasions and in the manner set forth in section nineteen of chapter 7 forty, two years.

(3) For establishing or purchasing a system for supplying the inhabitants of a city or town with water, for the purchase of land for the 10 protection of a water system, or for acquiring water rights, thirty years. 12

(4) For the construction of filter beds, standpipes, reservoirs and 13 buildings for pumping stations, twenty years.

(5) For laying and relaying water mains of not less than six inches 15 but less than sixteen inches in diameter, fifteen years.

(6) For constructing and laying aqueducts and water mains of sixteen inches or more in diameter, twenty-five years.

(7) For the extension of water mains and for water departmental 19 equipment, five years.

(8) For establishing, purchasing, extending or enlarging a gas or 21 electric lighting plant within the limits of the territory within which 22 such gas or electric lighting plant is authorized to distribute its products, twenty years; but the outstanding indebtedness so incurred shall 24 not exceed in a town five per cent and in a city two and one half per 1915, 115. 1921, 486, § 11.
0
25 cent of the last preceding assessed valuation of such town or city.
26 (9) For such emergency appropriations as shall be approved by a 1875, 209, § 3. 1913, 719, § 5, subs. 15.
27 board composed of the attorney general, the state treasurer and the 28 director, one year.
1928, 291.
29
30 (10) For acquiring land or constructing buildings or other structures, 31 including the cost of original equipment, as memorials to soldiers, sailors 32 and marines, twenty years; but the indebtedness so incurred shall not 33 exceed one half of one cent of the last preceding assessed valuation 34 of the city or town.
35 (11) For the payment of an assessment for a proportionate share of 1916, 286, § 8.
36 the expense of construction of a county tuberculosis hospital under sec-
37 tion eighty-three of chapter one hundred and eleven, twenty years.
38 (12) For acquiring street railway property under sections one hun-1920, 599, § 11.
39 dred and forty-three to one hundred and fifty-eight, inclusive, of chapter 40 one hundred and sixty-one, operating the same, or contributing toward 41 the sums expended by a transportation area for capital purposes, ten 42 years; but the indebtedness so incurred shall not exceed two per cent of 43 the last preceding assessed valuation of the city or town.
44 Debts for purposes mentioned in clause (1) of this section shall be 1875, 209, § 3. 1913, 719, § 6.
45 payable as provided for in sections four, five, six A, six A and seven-46 teen. Debts for all other purposes mentioned in this section shall be 47 payable within the periods above specified from the date of the first 48 issue of bonds or notes on account thereof, and may be incurred in 49 accordance with the laws relating to such purposes, so far as they are 50 consistent with this chapter. Debts, except for temporary loans, may 51 be authorized under this section only by a two thirds vote.
52 Debts for purposes mentioned in clauses (3), (4), (5), (6) and (7) of 53 this section shall not be authorized to an amount exceeding ten per cent 54 of the last preceding assessed valuation of the city or town.
55
56 1 Section 9. Fire, water, light and improvement districts may by a 57 two thirds vote authorize the incurring of debt for the purposes pre-58scribed, and payable within the periods specified, by sections seven and 59 eight, so far as they are authorized by law to make expenditures for the 60 purposes mentioned therein.
61
62 1 Section 10. Except as otherwise authorized by law, a city shall not 63 authorize indebtedness to an amount exceeding two and one half per 64 cent, and a town shall not authorize indebtedness to an amount exceed-65 ing three per cent, on the average of the assessors' valuations of the 66 taxable property for the three preceding years, the valuations being 67 first reduced by the amount of all abatements allowed the same previous 68 to December thirty-first of the preceding year; provided, that the value
69 of motor vehicles taxable under chapter sixty A, as determined there-70 under, shall be used in determining the valuation of taxable property 71 for the purposes of this section. All debts, except those expressly author-72 ized by law to be incurred outside the debt limit, shall be reckoned in 73 12 determining its limit of indebtedness under this section.
74
75 1 Section 11. Cities, except Boston, towns and districts may pay or 76 provide for the payment of any debt at an earlier period than is required 77 etc.
by this chapter or may appropriate money for the purchase and cancellation of outstanding indebtedness, and shall not refund any debt except as provided in section seventeen; and cities, towns and districts may, for the purpose of reducing the whole debt for the redemption of which sinking funds have been established by cities or towns prior to May twenty-eighth, nineteen hundred and thirteen, and by districts prior to March twentieth, nineteen hundred and fifteen, or of reducing the amount to be raised by taxation for such funds, add to any such sinking fund the excess of any appropriation over the amount required for the purpose thereof, or add to such funds any sums derived from taxation or from other sources not required by law to be expended otherwise.

SECTION 12. A city, except Boston, which, at a meeting of its voters held for that purpose, has accepted, by a vote of two thirds of the legal voters voting thereon, any act to supply the city with water, may, by a two thirds vote, incur debt and issue bonds or notes for the purposes and to the extent authorized by such act, in the manner provided in, and subject to the provisions of, section nineteen.

SECTION 13. In towns, during the interval between December thirty-first in each year and the time of making the next annual appropriations, town officers authorized to make expenditures may incur liabilities in carrying on the several departments intrusted to them, and payments therefor shall be made from the town treasury from any available funds therein, and the same shall be charged against the next annual appropriation; provided, that the liabilities incurred during said interval do not exceed in any month the sums spent for similar purposes during any one month of the preceding year; and provided, further, that said officers may expend in any one month for any officer or board created by law an amount not exceeding one twelfth of the estimated cost for said year; but all interest and debt falling due in the said interval shall be paid.

LIABILITY FOR DEBTS.

SECTION 14. Nothing in this chapter shall exempt a city or town from its liability to pay debts contracted for purposes for which it may lawfully expend money.

SECTION 15. Cities, towns and districts authorized by special acts to incur debt shall not be exempt from liability to pay debts contracted for the purposes for which they may lawfully expend money under such acts, notwithstanding that the amount of the annual payment and the period of the loan may not have been specified by the vote authorizing the debt to be incurred, and the officers authorized to issue bonds or notes therefor may issue the same, subject to the provisions and limitations of such acts, provided that in all other respects the requirements of law shall have been complied with; and the provisions of this section shall apply to any bonds or notes of a city, town or district issued under the authority of any special act heretofore or hereafter enacted.
BONDS, NOTES AND CERTIFICATES OF INDEBTEDNESS.

1. Section 16. A city, town or district which has authorized a debt to 2 be incurred within the limitations, as to amount and time of payment, 3 prescribed by this chapter may issue therefor bonds or notes, or, in the 4 case of a city, certificates of indebtedness, all of which shall be prop-
5 erly denominated on the face thereof, signed by its treasurer, and, if 6 issued by a city, countersigned by its mayor, unless its charter other-7 wise provides, or, if issued by a town, by a majority of its selectmen, 8 or, if issued by a district, by a majority of the prudential committee or 9 commissioners, and by any other officers, boards or commissioners of a 10 city, town or district whose counter-signatures may be required by law, 11 at such rate of interest as may be deemed proper; and such city, town 12 or district may, except as provided in section eighteen, sell such bonds, 13 notes or certificates of indebtedness at not less than par, at public or 14 private sale, or may use the same in payment of such debts; provided, 15 that if the amount of the annual payment and the period of the loan 16 are not specified by the vote authorizing the debt to be incurred, the 17 officers authorized to issue bonds or notes therefor may issue the same 18 subject to the provisions and limitations of this chapter. The auditor 19 or similar officer in cities, the town accountant in towns having such an 20 officer, the treasurer in all other towns, or the prudential committee or 21 commissioners in a district, shall, not later than May first of each year, 22 notify the board of assessors in writing of the amount of debt falling due 23 during the current financial year, the sinking fund requirements, if any, 24 and what provision has been made for meeting such requirements; and 25 the board shall make such provision for meeting said debt and sinking 26 fund requirements in the tax levy of that year as in its judgment may 27 be necessary. This section and the four following sections shall not apply 28 to Boston.

1. Section 17. If a city, town or district votes to issue bonds, notes or 2 certificates of indebtedness in accordance with law, the officers author-
3 ized to issue the same may, in the name of such city, town or district, 4 make a temporary loan for a period of not more than one year in an-
5 ticipation of the money to be derived from the sale of such bonds, notes 6 or certificates of indebtedness, and may issue notes therefor; but the 7 time within which such securities shall become due and payable shall 8 not be extended by reason of the making of such temporary loan be-9 yond the time fixed in the vote authorizing the issue of such bonds,
10 notes or certificates of indebtedness; and notes issued under this section 11 and sections four, five, five A, six and six A for a shorter period than 12 one year may be refunded by the issue of other notes maturing within 13 the required period; provided, that the period from the date of issue 14 of the original loan to the date of maturity of the refunding loan shall 15 be not more than one year; and provided, further, that no notes shall 16 be refunded under this section except under authority of such vote, if 17 any, as is required for the original borrowing.

1. Section 18. Notes issued under section four, five, five A, six, six A 2 or seventeen may be sold at such discount as the treasurer or other
3 officer authorized to sell the same may, with the approval of the officer 4 or officers whose counter-signature is required on said notes, deem 5 proper, the discount to be treated as interest paid in advance.
Section 19. Cities, towns and districts shall not issue any notes payable on demand, and they shall provide for the payment of all debts, except those incurred under sections four, five, five A, six, six A and seventeen, by such annual payments as will extinguish the same at maturity, and so that the first of such annual payments on account of any loan shall be made not later than one year after the date of the bonds or notes issued for the serial loan, and so that the amount of such annual payments in any year on account of such debts, so far as issued, shall not be less than the amount of principal payable in any subsequent year, and such annual amounts, together with the interest on all debts, shall, without further vote, be assessed until the debt is extinguished; provided, that in the case of bonds or notes issued for establishing or purchasing a water supply system for its inhabitants, for the purchase of land for the protection thereof or for acquiring water rights, the first of such annual payments shall be made not later than three years after the date thereof.

Section 20. The proceeds of any sale of bonds or notes, except premiums, shall be used only for the purposes specified in the authorization of the loan; provided, that transfers of unexpended amounts may be made to other accounts to be used for similar purposes or such unexpended amounts may, after the expiration of two years from the completion of the project for which the loan was authorized, be transferred to any other account established for purposes for which a loan may be authorized for an equal or longer period of time. Any premium received upon such bonds, less the cost of preparing, issuing and marketing them, shall be applied to the payment of the principal of the first bonds or notes so to mature, and the contributions from other sources for the payment of said bonds or notes shall be reduced correspondingly.

Section 21. A city or town which recalls and pays any of its securities under rights reserved therein may issue, in place of securities so recalled and paid, other securities payable at periods within the maturity of those originally issued. Such new securities shall be made payable within thirty years from the time of contracting the original debt.

Section 22. All bonds, notes and other securities issued by cities or towns, except Boston, shall bear such rate of interest as may be fixed by the city or town treasurer, with the approval of the mayor or selectmen, notwithstanding any general or special provision of law enacted prior to April twenty-second, nineteen hundred and twenty.

FORM AND CERTIFICATION OF TOWN AND DISTRICT NOTES.

Section 23. The director shall furnish to the treasurer of every town, and of every fire, water, light and improvement district, forms for the issue of notes for money borrowed by the town and by such districts. Every such note shall state the amount thereof, the date of issue, which shall be construed as the date from which interest is payable, the interest which it bears, the date when it will become due, and such other matter as the director may deem necessary; and a record of every such note shall be kept by said treasurer in such form as the director may designate. The director may place upon notes submitted to him for certification.
10 such denominations as will show the purpose for which they are issued 11 and as may be required by law to appear thereon.

1 Section 24. Whenever a town or a fire, water, light or improvement
2 district votes to raise money otherwise than by the issue of bonds, the 3 treasurer thereof shall make notes for the amount of the proposed loan, 4 and shall use one or more, in serial order, of the forms provided for in 5 the preceding section, with the blank spaces properly filled in. Town 6 notes shall be signed by the treasurer thereof, and a majority of the 7 selectmen shall countersign and approve each note in the presence of the 8 town clerk, who shall certify to the fact on the face thereof and affix 9 thereon the town seal. Notes of districts shall be signed by the treasurer
10 thereof, and a majority of the prudential committee or commissioners 11 shall countersign and approve them in the presence of the clerk of the 12 district, who shall certify to the fact on the face thereof. The treasurer 13 of the town or district, after making a record of the transaction in accord-14 ance with the preceding section, shall forward, with the fee required by 15 section twenty-six, every such note to the director, with a copy of said
16 record and a copy of the vote authorizing the loan, certified by the clerk
17 of the town or district, and a certification by said clerk that the person 18 whose signature appears upon the note as treasurer was the duly author-19 ized treasurer of the town or district when such signature was made, 20 and that the persons whose signatures appear upon the note as those of 21 a majority of the selectmen or of the prudential committee or commis-22 sioners were duly qualified as such when such signatures were made;
23 and the treasurer of such district shall furnish such other information
24 with reference to the financial condition of the district as the director
25 may require to enable him properly to certify the note. If upon exam-26 ination the note appears to the director to have been duly issued in 27 accordance with the vote of the town or district authorizing it, or in 28 accordance with an act of the general court, and to have been signed by 29 the duly qualified officials of such town or district, he shall so certify 30 and shall thereupon return the note by registered mail to the treasurer 31 of such town or district; but, under such regulations as he may pre-32 scribe, if so authorized by the town treasurer with the approval of the 33 selectmen, or by the treasurer of the district with the approval of the 34 prudential committee or commissioners, the director may deliver a 35 certified note to the payee thereof. He may certify to the issue of a 36 note on any date not earlier than three days prior to the date of issue 37 appearing on the note, if the other conditions of this chapter have been 38 complied with. He shall not certify a note payable on demand, nor 39 shall he certify any note unless the laws relating to municipal indebted-40 ness have been complied with, or if it appears that the proceeds of the 41 note are not to be used for the purpose specified in the vote authorizing 42 the loan for which the note is issued.

1 Section 24A. Town and district notes, when issued for a serial loan,
2 may be made payable to "bearer", and when so issued section twenty-3 four may be construed by the director as being properly complied with 4 in so far as it relates to the proper filling in of the space provided for the 5 name of the purchaser of the loan, and he may certify such notes; pro-
6 ved that before certification there shall be filed with him by the town
7 or district treasurer, as the case may be, the name of the purchaser of 8 such loan.
SECTION 25. Whenever a note issued by a town or district is paid, the treasurer thereof shall immediately notify the director of such payment, stating the source from which such payment was made.

1918, 257, § 159. 1919, 5. 1920, 2.

SECTION 26. The director shall establish a reasonable fee for every note certified, to be turned over monthly to the commonwealth; and the state treasurer may refund the amount of any fee deposited with him by said director for the certification of any note which may be cancelled before money is obtained thereon.

SECTION 27. The certification of town and district notes by the director shall be prima facie evidence of the liability of such town or district therefor.

SECTION 28. Whenever a city, town or district votes to authorize the incurring of indebtedness, the city, town or district clerk, as the case may be, shall, within forty-eight hours after the vote becomes effective, furnish to the director a copy thereof; and whenever a loan is issued by a city, the city treasurer shall notify the director of the amount and purpose of the loan, and shall state whether it be in the form of bonds or notes; and whenever a loan is issued by a town or district in the form of bonds, the treasurer thereof shall notify the director of the amount and purpose thereof. City, town and district treasurers shall also furnish the director, upon request, with any other information in respect to the authorization and issue of loans, which he may require to enable him to keep a complete and accurate record of indebtedness authorized or incurred by cities, towns and districts.

SECTION 29. The tax limit heretofore established by ordinance under section nineteen of chapter seven hundred and nineteen of the acts of nineteen hundred and thirteen, in cities other than Boston, shall have the force of law until it is annulled or modified by the action of the city council or other governing body. The mayor, or in cities having a commission form of government the commissioner or director of finance, may request a change in the tax limit as then existing or the fixing of a limit; and when such request is submitted in writing to the city council, it shall immediately order a public hearing to be held not less than seven days thereafter relative to the fixing of a tax limit, and after such hearing the council may, between January first and May first only, by ordinance passed by a two-thirds vote, fix a limit or abolish a limit previously established, and such ordinance shall remain in force until further modified, as above provided.

SECTION 30. A city, except Boston, wherein the appropriation for any department is determined by law at a certain rate or percentage of the taxable valuation or the valuation of the taxable property therein, or however otherwise the same may be described, shall, in addition to the amount so determined, appropriate and use for such department such proportion of the proceeds of the tax upon incomes, returned by 7 the commonwealth to the city under section eighteen of chapter fifty-eight, as the appropriation so determined by law bears to the total local tax levy of that city for the current year; but in each year such departments shall be credited with their proportion of the income tax received during the preceding year.

1 Section 31. No department of any city or town, except Boston, shall incur liability in excess of the appropriation made for the use of such department, except in cases of extreme emergency involving the health or safety of persons or property, and then only by a vote in a city of two thirds of the members of the city council, and in a town by a vote of two thirds of the selectmen.

BUDGET IN CITIES.

1 Section 32. Within sixty days after the annual organization of the city government, in cities other than Boston not having the commission form of government the mayor, and in such cities having said commission form, the commissioner or director of finance, shall submit to the city council the annual budget of the current expenses of the city, and the mayor or commissioner or director, as the case may be, may submit thereafter supplementary budgets. The budget shall consist of an itemized and detailed statement of the money required, and the city council, by a majority vote, shall make such appropriations in detail, clearly specifying the amount to be expended for each particular purpose; but the budget shall not be in such detail as to fix specific salaries of employees under the direction of boards elected by the people, other than the city council. The city council may reduce or reject any item, but, without the approval of the mayor or commissioner or director of finance, as the case may be, shall not increase any item in or the total of a budget, nor add any item thereto. In such cities not having the commission form of government, the city officials, when so requested by the mayor, shall submit to him forthwith in such detail as he may require estimates for the next fiscal year of the expenditures of their departments or offices under their charge, which shall be transmitted to the city council. In such cities having the commission form of government each commissioner or director shall, within thirty days after the annual organization of the city government, submit to the commissioner or director of finance estimates in such detail as he may require of the amounts deemed necessary for the current expenses of their respective departments. In all cities other than Boston, if the council fails to approve or disapprove any item in the budget, as submitted by the mayor or commissioner or director of finance, within sixty days after its receipt thereof, such item shall, without any council action, become a part of the budget for the year, and the sum named shall be available for the purpose designated. Nothing in this section shall prevent the mayor or commissioner or director of finance from recommending, and the city council from making, appropriations prior to the adoption of the annual budget.

1 Section 33. In case of the failure of the mayor or commissioner or director of finance to transmit to the city council a written recommendation for an appropriation for any purpose deemed necessary by the council, after having been so requested by vote thereof, said council, after the expiration of seven days from such vote, upon its own initiative may make an appropriation for such purpose by a vote of at least two thirds of its members, and shall in all cases make such appropriations in detail, clearly specifying the amount to be expended for each particular purpose, but not in such detail as to fix specific salaries of employees under the direction of boards elected by the people, other than the city council.

Section 33A. The budget shall include sums sufficient to pay the salaries of officials fixed by law or by ordinance, but no new position shall be created or increase in rate made during the financial year subsequent to the submission of the annual budget, unless provision therefor is made by means of a supplemental budget.

Section 34. In the period after the expiration of any fiscal year and before the regular appropriations have been made by the city council, the city officers who are authorized to make expenditures may incur liabilities in carrying on the work of the several departments intrusted to them, and payments therefor shall be made from the treasury from any available funds therein, and charged against the next annual appropriation; provided, that the liabilities incurred during said interval do not exceed in any month the sums spent for similar purposes during any one month of the preceding year; and provided, further, that said officers may expend in any one month for any new officer or board lawfully created an amount not exceeding one twelfth of the estimated cost for the current year. All interest and debt falling due in said interval shall be paid.

Auditing.

Section 35. Any town and any fire, water, light or improvement district, at a meeting legally called therefor, may petition the director for an audit of its accounts or for the installation of an accounting system; and said director, as soon as possible after the receipt of such petition, shall cause such audit to be made or system of accounts to be installed. Any town or district, at a meeting legally called therefor, after such accounting system has been installed, may petition for subsequent audits, or may provide in its by-laws for periodical audits under the supervision of said director, who shall cause such audits to be made. The selectmen may petition said director for an audit of the town accounts when, in their opinion, the condition of the accounts is such as to warrant the making of such audit, and said director, as soon as possible after the receipt of such petition, shall cause such audit to be made.

Section 36. Any city may, by vote of its city council, petition the director for an audit of its accounts or for the installation of an accounting system; and, if a statute or an ordinance requires a city official or commission to cause an audit to be made, such official or commission may petition therefor, and said director, as soon as possible after the receipt of such petition, shall cause such audit to be made or accounting system installed.

Section 37. Whenever, after such accounting system has been installed, a city, town or district accounting officer requests the advice or assistance of the director, he shall render such assistance as in his judgment may be necessary.
1 Section 38. The accounting systems installed in accordance with this chapter shall be such as will, in the judgment of the director, be most effective in securing uniformity of classification in the accounts of such cities, towns and districts. The director may supply approximately at cost to cities, towns and districts where such accounting systems have been installed such books, forms or other supplies as may be required from time to time after the original installation of such systems.

1 Section 39. Upon the completion of an audit under section thirty-five or thirty-six, the director shall render a report to the city government or the board of selectmen or the prudential committee or commissioners, respectively, embodying the results of his findings, with such suggestions as he may deem advisable for the proper administration of the finances of the city, town or district.

1 Section 40. The director shall cause an audit to be made of the accounts of all cities and towns of the commonwealth, except Boston, and may cause subsequent audits to be made of the accounts of each city and town, except Boston, as often as once in two years, or annually at the request of the mayor or the selectmen, and for this purpose he, and his duly accredited agents, shall have access to all necessary papers, books and records. Upon the completion of each audit, as aforesaid, a report thereon shall be made to the mayor and city government in cities, and to the selectmen in towns, and a copy of the same shall be furnished to the city or town clerk, who shall cause the same or a summary of its essential features to be published at the expense of the city or town. The director, in his discretion, may give preference to audits upon petitions under section thirty-five or thirty-six over audits under this section.

1 Section 41. The expenses incurred under sections thirty-five to fifty, inclusive, shall be paid primarily by the commonwealth; and the state treasurer shall issue his warrant requiring the assessors of the cities and towns concerned and of the towns in which such district is located to assess a tax to the amount of said expense, and such amounts shall be collected and paid to the state treasurer in the same manner and subject to the same penalties as state taxes. Any balance due shall be assessed in the succeeding years in the same manner as other state taxes.

1 Section 42. Whenever a city or town causes an audit of its accounts or the accounts of separate departments to be made by a person of its own selection, the city or town clerk shall immediately, upon the emploment of such person, file his name and address with the director, and such person shall, within ten days after making the report of his audit and recommendations to the city or town, file a certified copy thereof with the director; and in any such case the director may, in his discretion, accept the audit so made, or cause an audit to be made under section forty.

1 Section 43. The director shall annually furnish to the auditor of other accounting officer of each city and town schedules so arranged as to provide for uniform returns giving detailed statements of all recceipts classified by sources, and all payments classified by objects, for its last fiscal year; a statement of the public debt showing the purpose for which each item of the debt was created and the provision made for the payment thereof; and a statement of assets and liabilities at the close of the fiscal year. The director may prescribe standard forms intended to promote the systematic accounting of financial transactions and the publication of the same in the city and town reports. He shall collect from the proper local authorities such other information pertaining to municipal affairs as in his judgment may be of public interest. All accounting and other officials and custodians of public money of cities and towns shall fill out properly and return promptly to the director all schedules transmitted by him to them.

Section 44. The commissioner of corporations and taxation shall include in his annual report statistics relative to the financial affairs of cities and towns and other information of public interest pertaining to municipal affairs. Said part of his report may be printed and distributed as a separate document or in separate parts, and the commissioner may also publish, at such intervals as he deems expedient, bulletins or special reports of the director relative to municipal affairs.

Section 45. The director may require the attendance of witnesses and the production of books and documents, and may examine witnesses under oath in the same manner as in the superior court.

Section 46. The director, having first obtained authority from the governor and council, may destroy or sell all such records, papers and schedules accumulated in the division of accounts as in his judgment are of no value.

Sinking Funds.

Section 47. No further sinking funds for the payment of debt shall be established by any city, town or district, but cities and towns shall contribute to every sinking fund established prior to May twenty-eighth, nineteen hundred and thirteen, and districts shall contribute to every sinking fund established prior to March twentieth, nineteen hundred and fifteen, until such sinking fund, with its accumulations, shall be sufficient to extinguish at maturity the debt for which it was established. This section shall not apply to Boston.

Section 48. The sinking fund commissioners shall have charge of all sinking funds intrusted to them by the city, town or district, and shall invest and reinvest, in the name of the board, all amounts contributed thereto and the income thereof as it accrues, in the particular bonds, notes or certificates of indebtedness for the redemption of which such sinking fund was established, or in other bonds of their city, town or district secured by sinking funds, or in temporary loan notes or certificates of their city, town or district issued in anticipation of taxes, or in securities, except personal securities, in which funds of savings banks may by law be invested; but no part thereof shall be loaned to the city or town except as herein provided. The commissioners may sell such securities and reinvest the proceeds. They shall keep a record of their proceedings, and shall annually make a written report to the city, town or district of the amount and condition of said funds and of the income.
Section 49. If, when bonds payable from the sinking fund become due, the sinking fund commissioners of a city hold any other bonds of the city not due and payable, which have been stamped as the property of said sinking fund and are not negotiable, they shall so certify to the mayor and request that new bonds be issued to them by the city in lieu of the bonds not due. If the mayor is satisfied that there is occasion therefore, he shall cause new bonds to be prepared, bearing the same rate of interest, and payable as to principal and interest on the same dates as the bonds to be surrendered, and identical in terms therewith; and when executed by him and the city treasurer and approved by the committee on finance of the city council, they shall be issued to such commissioners on the surrender by them to the city treasurer and the cancellation of such former bonds. Such cancellation and new issue shall be entered in full on the books of the city treasurer.

Section 50. [Repealed, 1921, 486, § 12.]

Section 51. No part of the sinking funds of the commonwealth shall be loaned to a city or town the indebtedness of which exceeds five per cent of the last preceding annual valuation for the assessment of taxes of the taxable property therein, or to a city or town not complying with this chapter; but the certificate of the treasurer of a city or town as to the percentage of its indebtedness, and as to such compliance, shall justify the state treasurer in making any such loan, unless he has reasonable cause to suppose that its statements are untrue.

Section 52. A county, city, town or district, or any domestic corporation, which shall have issued any bond, note or certificate of indebtedness payable to bearer, held by the sinking fund commissioners of any city, town or district, shall, at the request of such commissioners, issue in exchange therefor a bond, note or certificate of the same effect, payable to such commissioners by name; provided, that the city, town or district desiring such exchange shall, if requested, furnish the blank form for the bond, note or certificate therefor in the same general form as that furnished by the commonwealth under section thirty-nine of chapter twenty-nine.
MISCELLANEOUS PROVISIONS.

Section 53. All moneys received by any town officer or department, except as otherwise provided by special acts and except fees provided for by statute, shall be paid by such officer or department upon their receipt into the town treasury. Any sums so paid into the town treasury shall not later be used by such officer or department without a specific appropriation thereof, except that sums allotted to towns for highway purposes by the commonwealth or a county, which shall be used only for the purposes specified by the officials making the allotment or to meet temporary loans issued in anticipation of such allotment as provided in section six or six A, shall be available therefor without any appropriation.

Section 54. Trust funds, including cemetery perpetual care funds, unless otherwise provided or directed by the donor thereof, shall be placed at interest in savings banks, trust companies incorporated under the laws of the commonwealth, or national banks, or invested by cities and towns in securities which are legal investments for savings banks. This section shall not apply to Boston.

Section 55. A city or town shall not at any one time have on deposit in a bank or trust company an amount exceeding sixty per cent of the capital and surplus of such bank or trust company, unless satisfactory security is given to it by such bank or trust company for such excess.

Section 55A. A city or town officer receiving public money and lawfully and in good faith and in the exercise of due care depositing the same in a savings bank or trust company organized under the laws of the commonwealth or in a national bank doing business in the commonwealth shall not be personally liable to the city or town for any loss of such money by reason of the closing up of such depository for the liquidation of its affairs.

Section 56. The financial year of all towns of the commonwealth shall end on December thirty-first, and the returns made to the director under section forty-three shall show the financial condition of the town at the close of business on that day; provided, that the treasurer shall, until January tenth, enter in his books all items for the payment of bills incurred and salaries and wages earned during the previous year, and expenditures therefor shall be deemed to be as of December thirty-first preceding.

Section 57. A city or town owing debts incurred in aid of a railroad corporation shall annually raise by taxation an amount sufficient, with the income, if any, derived from its stock or securities, to pay the interest on such debts.

Section 58. No city shall pay a bill incurred by any official thereof for wines, liquors or cigars.

R. L. 19, § 33. 1917, 17.
Section 59. The supreme judicial or superior court, by mandamus or other appropriate remedy, at law or in equity, upon the suit or petition of the attorney general or of the mayor, or of one or more taxable inhabitants of a city, town or district authorized by law to incur debt, or of any creditor to whom it is indebted to an amount not less than one thousand dollars, may compel such city, town or district, and its assessors, collectors, treasurers, commissioners of sinking funds and other proper officers, to conform to this chapter.

Section 60. A town treasurer or a treasurer of a fire, water, light or improvement district, who violates any provision of sections twenty-three to twenty-five, inclusive, shall be punished by a fine of not less than one hundred nor more than five hundred dollars.

Section 61. A county, city, town, district or corporation which neglects or refuses to issue a bond, note or certificate in accordance with section fifty-two when requested so to do by the sinking fund commissioners of any city, town or district shall be subject to a penalty of not more than fifty dollars.

Section 62. Any city, town or district officer who knowingly violates, or authorizes or directs any official or employee to violate, any provision of this chapter, or any other provision of general law relating to the incurring of liability or expenditure of public funds on account of any city, town or district, or any provision of special law relating to the incurring of liability or expenditure of public funds as aforesaid, shall, except as otherwise provided, be punished by a fine of not more than one thousand dollars or by imprisonment for not more than one year, or both; and the mayor, selectmen, prudential committee, or commissioners, shall, and taxpayers may, report such violation to the district attorney who shall investigate and prosecute the same.

Section 63. Whenever the proceeds of the sale of real estate by a city or town exceed five hundred dollars, the same shall be applied to the payment of indebtedness incurred in acquiring such real estate or shall be added to the sinking fund, if any, from which said indebtedness is payable, or if no such indebtedness is outstanding shall be used for any purpose or purposes for which the city or town is authorized to incur debt for a period of ten years or more.
CHAPTER 45.

PUBLIC PARKS, PLAYGROUNDS AND THE PUBLIC DOMAIN.

SECTION 1. In this chapter "town" shall not include city.

PUBLIC PARKS.

Section 2. A town may elect a board of park commissioners, consisting of three persons, and prescribe their terms of office, or the members of a town planning board may if so authorized by vote of the town act as park commissioners therein. In a town which has not elected a board of park commissioners or has not authorized the town planning board so to act, the selectmen shall act as such board of park commissioners. The mayor of a city may, with the approval of the city council, appoint a board of park commissioners for said city, consisting of five persons, who shall hold office for terms of one, two, three, four and five years respectively from the first Monday in May next following such appointment, or until their successors are qualified; and thereafter the mayor shall annually, before the first Monday in May, with like approval appoint one such commissioner for a term of five years from said first Monday in May. No member of the city council, clerk or treasurer of such city or town shall be such commissioner. In cities a vacancy in such board shall be filled in like manner for the residue of the unexpired term. A commissioner may be removed by a vote of two thirds of the voters of a town, or by a vote of two thirds of all the 19 members of a city council. Such commissioners shall serve without 20 compensation.

1 Section 3. Any such board may locate public parks within its city 2 or town and for that purpose may take in fee by eminent domain under 3 chapter seventy-nine or by purchase, gift, devise or otherwise, land 4 which it considers desirable therefor, or may take bonds for the con- 5 veyance thereof to its city or town, but any such taking by eminent 6 domain or by purchase shall be subject to the provisions of section four- 7 teen of chapter forty. A city or town may take and hold in trust or 8 otherwise any grant, gift, bequest or devise, made for the purpose of 9 laying out or improving any parks therein.

1 Section 4. Such boards may connect any public park or way, under 2 their control, with any part of the city or town for which they are ap- 3 pointed by taking over any connecting ways, or part thereof leading to 4 such park, and may accept and add to such park any way or part thereof, 5 adjoining and parallel with any boundary line of the same; but the con- 6 sent of the public authorities having control of such way, and the written 7 consent of a majority of the owners of land abutting thereon, shall first 8 be obtained. They shall have the same power and control over such 9 ways as they have over parks, and a town may invest them with the 10 control, improvement and maintenance of any of the ways thereof for 11 the purpose of carrying out this section. If any such way or part 12 thereof shall pass from the control of any such board, the power and 13 authority over the same shall revert to the public authorities having 14 control of ways in the town in which such way is located.

1 Section 5. Such boards may lay out and improve public parks, 2 make rules for their use and government, appoint all necessary engi- 3 neers, surveyors, clerks and other officers, including a police force to act 4 in such parks, define their powers and duties and fix their compensation 5 and do all acts needful for the proper execution of their powers and 6 duties. They shall have the authority given to the mayor, aldermen, 7 selectmen, road commissioners and tree wardens respectively by section 8 seven of chapter eighty-four and by chapter eighty-seven, in places under 9 their jurisdiction.

1 Section 6. All amounts received for betterments which accrue by the 2 laying out of parks under this chapter shall be applied to the payment 3 of park loans.

R. L. 28, § 10. 1908, 341, § 3.

1 Section 7. Land taken for or held as a park under this chapter 2 shall be forever kept open and maintained as a public park, and no build- 3 ing which exceeds six hundred square feet in area on the ground shall 4 be erected on a common or park dedicated to the use of the public with- 5 out leave of the general court; but, except in parks in Boston and in 6 parks comprising less than one hundred acres in extent, structures for 7 shelter, refreshment and other purposes may be erected of such material 8 and in such places as, in the opinion of the fire commissioners, if any, 9 do not endanger buildings beyond the limits of such park. The superior 10 court shall have jurisdiction in equity, upon petition of not less than ten 11 taxable inhabitants of the city or town in which such common or park is located, to restrain the erection of a building on a common or park in violation of this section.

Section 8. Without the consent of such board no military organization shall camp, parade, review, or perform any military evolution or exercise in, or enter, any park laid out as aforesaid, except in case of riot, insurrection, rebellion or war.

1919, 5.

Section 9. Such boards shall make reports of their respective doings and detailed statements of all receipts, expenditures and liabilities for the preceding financial year, in towns at the annual town meetings and at such other times as the town directs, and in cities to the city council annually within thirty days after the end of the financial year.

Playgrounds.

Section 14. Any city or town may acquire land and buildings within its limits by gift or purchase, or by eminent domain under chapter seventy-nine, or may lease the same, or may use suitable land or buildings already owned by it, for the purposes of a public playground or recreation centre, and may conduct and promote recreation, play, sport and physical education, for which admission may be charged, on such

7 land and in such buildings, and may construct buildings on land owned
8 or leased by it and may provide equipment for said purposes. Buildings 9 so acquired, leased or constructed may be used also for town meetings,
10 and, with the consent of, and subject to the conditions and terms pre-11 scribed by, the officer or board in control of the building, may be used 12 by the municipality, or by any department thereof, or by any person, 13 society or other organization for such other public, recreational, social 14 or educational purposes as the said officer or board may deem proper.
15 For the purposes aforesaid, any city or town may appropriate money, 16 and may employ teachers, supervisors and other officers, and may fix 17 their compensation. Except in Boston and except as to the making of 18 appropriations, the powers conferred by this section shall be exercised 19 by the board of park commissioners, or by the school committee, or by a 20 playground or recreation commission appointed by the mayor or elected 21 by the voters of the town at a town meeting, or may be distributed 22 between the board of park commissioners, the school committee and such 23 playground or recreation commission, or any two of them, or they may 24 be exercised by a committee made up from any one or more members of 25 all or any one of said boards or commissions, accordingly as the city
26 council or the town may decide. Any municipal officer or board author-27 ized to exercise any of the powers conferred by this section may conduct 28 its activities on property under its control, on other public property 29 under the control of other public officers or boards, with the consent of 30 such officers or boards, or on private property, with the consent of the 31 owners. The provisions of section fifteen or sixteen shall not be con-32 strued to apply to any city or town because of any action taken under 33 this section.

1 Section 15. Every town having a population of more than five thou-2 sand which accepts this section, and every city and town having such 3 population which has accepted corresponding provisions of earlier laws,
4 shall provide and maintain at least one public playground conveniently
5 located and of suitable size and equipment, for the recreation and physi-
6 cal education of the minors of such city or town, and at least one other 7 playground for every additional twenty thousand of its population.

1 Section 16. In towns which have a population of more than five
2 thousand and which have not already satisfied the provisions of the pre-
3 ceding section or corresponding provisions of earlier laws, upon petition
4 to the selectmen by ten per cent of the voters filed fifteen days before
5 the day of the annual election of town officers, the following question 6 shall be submitted to the town at the next annual meeting or shall be 7 placed on the official ballot, if any, at the next town election: "Shall 8 section fifteen of chapter forty-five of the General Laws, requiring cer-9 tain towns to provide public playgrounds, be accepted by this town?"
10 Said section shall take effect in any town to which it applies upon its 11 acceptance by a majority of the voters voting as aforesaid.

1 Section 17. If in a town in the metropolitan parks district, or in 2 any city, tenement buildings are built about or contiguous to open spaces, 3 the owners of such buildings may apply to the park commissioners, if 4 any, or, in a city or town of said district having no park commission,

The owners of such buildings shall have the care and control thereof under the supervision of the park commissioners, or if there are none, of the selectmen.

Section 18. This chapter shall not be construed to prohibit the use of any playgrounds by adults at the discretion of the body having the grounds in charge.

The Public Domain.

Section 19. A town, by a two thirds vote at an annual town meeting, or a city, by a two thirds vote of the city council, may determine to take or purchase land within its limits, which shall be a public domain, and may appropriate money and accept gifts of money and land therefor. Such public domain shall be devoted to the culture of forest trees, or to the preservation of the water supply of such city or town, and the title thereto shall vest in the city or town in which it lies, except that cities or town owning land within the territorial limits of other cities and towns for water supply purposes may, as herein provided, convert such land into a public domain and retain the title thereto.

Section 20. If a city or town has determined to take land for a public domain as provided by the preceding section, the aldermen or the selectmen shall within ten days adopt an order for the taking of such land in fee by eminent domain under chapter seventy-nine.

Section 21. The management and care of that portion of the public domain known as the city or town forest, excepting lands held within the watershed of any pond, stream, reservoir, well or other water used by a city or town as a source of water supply, in a town shall be in charge of a special town forest committee appointed by the selectmen, and in a city shall be in charge of a forester or of such other board or officer as the mayor and city council may determine. The special town forest committee shall be composed of three members who shall choose their own chairman, and shall serve without compensation. One member of said committee shall be appointed each year for a term of three years, except that, when first appointed, one shall be appointed for a term of three years, one for a term of two years and one for a term of one year.

Section 22. Any city or town owning a public domain may lease any building thereon, and it may erect thereon any building for public instruction and recreation. All sums derived from rents or from the sale of the products of any such domain shall be applied, so far as may be necessary, to the management thereof.

Section 23. No land shall be taken or purchased for a public domain, no building erected thereon and no expenditures authorized or made or liability incurred therefor until an amount sufficient to cover the estimated expense thereof has been appropriated therefor as provided in

Use of playgrounds by adults.

SHORE RESERVATIONS IN TOWNS.

1 Section 23A. A town bordering on tidewater may, at an annual 2 town meeting, vote to instruct its selectmen to petition in writing the 3 county commissioners of the county in which said town is situated, in 4 this and the two following sections called the commissioners, to establish,
5 lay out and maintain, on behalf of the county, a shore reservation border-
6 ing on tidewater in such town, and thereupon said selectmen shall so 7 petition. This section and sections twenty-three B and twenty-three C 8 shall not apply to cities.

1 Section 23B. If the commissioners, after a public hearing upon the 2 petition and after such further investigation as the commissioners con-
3 sider desirable, determine that public necessity requires that such a 4 reservation should be so established, laid out and maintained, they shall 5 submit plans and estimates of the cost to the general court by filing the 6 same with the clerk of the house of representatives not later than Decem-
7 ber first following such determination, for such action as to the general
8 court may seem advisable.

1 Section 23C. After being authorized by the general court to establish 2 any such reservation, the commissioners, on behalf of the county, may 3 take by eminent domain under chapter seventy-nine, or acquire by pur-
4 chase, gift, devise or otherwise, such land in fee as may be necessary
5 therefor, and may establish, lay out and maintain the same. Any person
6 injured in his property by the establishment and laying out of such a 7 reservation may recover compensation therefrom from the county under 8 said chapter seventy-nine.

9 The selectmen of any town instructed to petition for the establishment
10 of such a reservation, if and to the extent authorized by vote of the town 11 at a town meeting, may stipulate in writing in behalf of the town to 12 indemnify and save harmless the county against all or any part of any 13 claims for damages sustained under this section, and to contribute money, 14 labor or materials toward the cost of establishing, laying out, maintaining 15 and properly policing such a reservation.

PENALTY.

1 Section 24. Whoever violates any rule or regulation for the govern-
2 ment or use of any land or way taken or held under this chapter or for like 3 purposes under any special act, and made under authority of law by any 4 board or officer in charge thereof, shall be punished by a fine of not more 5 than twenty dollars.
CHAPTER 46.

RETURN AND REGISTRY OF BIRTHS, MARRIAGES AND DEATHS.

Secr.
1. Facts to be recorded by city and town clerks.
2. Separate record and indexes.
4. Information as to births required. Penalty.
5. City and town clerks to ascertain facts for record of births, and may correct deficiencies and clerical errors therein.
6. Notice of births and deaths by parent, keeper, etc.
7. Master to report births and deaths on vessel.
8. Penalty for neglect to report.
9. Physician or officer to give death certificate. Penalty.
10. Physician or officer to state causes of death of soldier or sailor. Penalty.
11. Undertakers to make returns, etc.
12. Copies of records of births and deaths, etc.
13. Correction of errors in record, amendment of records of illegitimates subsequently legitimized, etc.

Secr.
15. Clerks to provide blanks for returns of births.
16. Blank forms to be furnished to towns, etc.
17. Copies of records of births and marriages to be transmitted to state secretary annually, and deaths monthly, etc.
18. Copies to be legibly written.
19. Clerk's record to be prima facie evidence.
20. Superintendent of state infirmary to make records and returns.
21. Copies of records of births, marriages and deaths to be bound, etc.
22. Registrar in certain cities and towns.
23. Proceedings on neglect to report.
24. Omission of name of illegitimate, etc., child.
25. Disposition of forfeitures.
26. Fees of city and town clerks.
27. Penalty for violation by clerks, etc.
28. Who may administer oaths.
29. Attestation of copies under seal.

Section 1. Each town clerk shall receive or obtain and record in separate columns the following facts relative to births, marriages and deaths in his town:

In the record of births, date of record, date of birth, place of birth, name of child, his sex and color, names, places of birth and residence of his parents, including the maiden name of the mother and occupation of the father. In the record of birth of an illegitimate child, the name of, and other facts relating to, the father shall not be recorded except on the written request of both father and mother. The term "illegitimate" shall not be used in the record of a birth unless the illegitimacy has been legally determined, or has been admitted by the sworn statement of both the father and mother.

In the record of marriages, date of record, date of marriage, place of marriage, name, residence and official station of the person by whom solemnized, names and places of birth of the parties married, residence of each, age and color of each, the number of the marriage (as first or second) and if previously married, whether widowed or divorced, the occupation of each and the names of their parents, and the maiden names of the mothers. If the woman is a widow or divorced, her maiden name shall also be given.

In the record of deaths, date of record, date of death, name of deceased, sex, color, condition (whether single, widowed, married or divorced), supposed age, residence, occupation, place of death, place of birth, names
Section 2. Births, marriages and deaths shall be recorded separately, separate indexes thereof kept, and each entry shall be numbered in its order. Returns of births, marriages and deaths shall be preserved by the town clerk and conveniently arranged for examination.

Section 3. Every physician, or hospital medical officer registered under section nine of chapter one hundred and twelve, in this chapter called officer, shall keep a record of the birth of every child in cases of which he was in charge, showing date and place of birth, the name, if any, of the child, its sex and color, the name, age, birthplace, occupation, and residence (including the street number, if any, and the ward number, if in a city) of each parent, the maiden name of the mother and the name of the physician or officer, if any, personally attending the birth. If the child is illegitimate, the name of and other facts relating to the father shall not be set forth except upon written request of both the father and mother; provided, that if an illegitimate child shall become legitimate by the intermarriage of his parents and the acknowledgment of his father, as provided in section seven of chapter one hundred and thirty-nine, prior to the mailing or delivery of any report herein required, such report shall read, in all respects, as if such child had been born to such parents in lawful wedlock. Said physician or officer shall, within fifteen days after such birth, mail or deliver to the clerk or registrar of the town where such birth occurred, a report stating the facts hereinabove required to be shown on said record and also the said written request, if any; provided, that if said report is not so made within forty-eight hours after such birth, said physician or officer shall, within said forty-eight hours, mail or deliver to said clerk or registrar a notice stating the date and place of the birth, the street number, if any, the ward number, if in a city, and the family name. Upon presentation to him of a certificate of the town clerk stating that any such birth has been duly reported, the town treasurer shall pay to such physician or officer a fee of twenty-five cents for each birth so reported. Any physician or any such officer violating any provision of this section shall forfeit not more than twenty-five dollars.

The said town clerk or registrar shall file daily with the local board of health a list of all births reported to him, showing, as to each, the date of birth, sex, color, family name, residence, ward and physician or officer in charge.

Section 4. A member or servant of a family in which a child is born, having knowledge of the facts required for record relative to such birth, shall furnish the same upon request of the clerk of the town where such child was born or its parents reside, or of any person authorized by him. Such member or servant refusing to furnish such facts shall be punished by fine not exceeding ten dollars.
Section 5. The clerk of each town may annually in January ascertain the facts required for record by section one relative to all children born during the preceding year and resident therein, and, if it appears that any such child was born in any other town, within or without the commonwealth, shall transmit to the clerk of such town a certificate stating the facts so ascertained as to such child. When necessary to supply deficiencies in the birth records, he may enter therein any written information obtained by him but he shall not change facts already recorded except as provided in section thirteen or except to correct errors in copying from notices, reports or certificates on file in his office. If such an error is so corrected, a statement to that effect, signed by him, shall be entered upon the record.

Section 6. Parents, within forty days after the birth of a child, and every householder, within forty days after a birth in his house, shall cause notice thereof to be given to the clerk of the town where such child is born. Every householder in whose house a death occurs and the oldest next of kin of a deceased person in the town where the death occurs shall, within five days thereafter, cause notice thereof to be given to the board of health, or, if the selectmen constitute such board, to the town clerk. The keeper, superintendent or person in charge of a house of correction, prison, reformatory, hospital, infirmary or other institution, public or private, which receives inmates from within or without the limits of the town where it is located shall, when a person is received, obtain a record of all the facts which would be required for record in the event of the death of such person, and shall, on or before the fifth day of each month, give notice to the town clerk of every birth and death among the persons under his charge during the preceding month. The facts required for record by section one shall, so far as obtainable, be included in every notice given under this section.

Section 7. The master or other commanding officer of a vessel shall give notice, with the facts required for record, of every birth or death occurring among the persons under his charge. The notice of a birth shall be given to the clerk, and the notice of a death shall be given to the board of health or, if the selectmen constitute such board, to the clerk of the town at which his vessel first arrives after such birth or death.

Section 8. A parent, keeper, superintendent or other person required by section six to give or cause to be given notice of a birth or death, neglecting so to do for ten days after the time limited therefor, and the master or commanding officer of a vessel neglecting so to do for ten days after the arrival of his vessel at the place where notice is to be given, shall forfeit not more than five dollars.

Section 9. A physician or registered hospital medical officer shall forthwith, after the death of a person whom he has attended during his last illness, at the request of an undertaker or other authorized person or of any member of the family of the deceased, furnish for registration a certificate of death, stating to the best of his knowledge and belief the name of the deceased, his supposed age, the disease of which he died, defined as required by section one, where same was contracted, the duration of his last illness, when last seen alive by the physician or officer and the date of his death. A physician or officer attending at 10 the birth of a child dying immediately thereafter, or a physician or 11 officer attending at the birth of a child born dead, shall forthwith furnish 12 for registration a certificate, stating that to the best of his knowledge and 13 belief such child either died immediately after birth or was born dead.
14 Both the birth and death of such child shall be recorded and, if it was 15 born dead, the word "stillborn", shall be entered in both the record of 16 birth and death. A physician or any such officer neglecting or refusing 17 to make such certificate or making a false statement therein shall forfeit 18 not more than fifty dollars.

1 Section 10. A physician or officer furnishing a certificate of death
2 as required by the preceding section or by section forty-five of chapter 3 one hundred and fourteen, shall, if the deceased, to the best of his knowl-
4 edge and belief, served in the army, navy or marine corps of the United 5 States in any war in which it has been engaged, insert in the certificate a 6 recital to that effect, specifying the war, and shall also certify in such 7 certificate both the primary and the secondary or immediate cause of 8 death as nearly as he can state the same. For neglect to comply with 9 any provision of this section, such physician or officer shall forfeit ten 10 dollars. For the purposes of this section and of sections forty-five, forty-11 six and forty-seven of said chapter one hundred and fourteen, the word 12 "war" shall include the China relief expedition and the Philippine in-13 surrection, which shall, for said purposes, be deemed to have taken place 14 between February fourteenth, eighteen hundred and ninety-eight and 15 July fourth, nineteen hundred and two, and the Mexican border service 16 of nineteen hundred and sixteen and nineteen hundred and seventeen.

1 Section 11. Every undertaker or other person in charge of a funeral
2 shall forthwith obtain the physician’s or officer’s certificate required by 3 section nine, enter thereon the facts as to the deceased required by 4 section one to be recorded, and return it to the board of health or its 5 agent, or, if the selectmen constitute such board, to the clerk of the 6 town where the death occurred. The person making such return shall 7 receive from the town a fee of twenty-five cents. The board of health 8 shall transmit such certificate to the town clerk.

1 Section 12. Except as hereinafter provided, each town clerk shall 2 forthwith make a certified copy of the record of each birth and death
3 recorded during the previous month, if the parents of the child born or 4 deceased were residents of any other town in the commonwealth or 5 in any other state at the time of said birth or death, and transmit it to 6 the clerk of the town where such parents or deceased person were so 7 resident, stating the name of the street and number of the house, if any,
8 where such parents or deceased person so resided; and the clerk of a 9 town in the commonwealth receiving such certified copy, or certified 10 copies of births, marriages or deaths, from the clerk of a town without 11 the commonwealth, shall record the same and transmit to the state
12 secretary a certified copy of the record thereof. No birth record of a 13 child born out of wedlock shall so be transmitted to any other city or 14 town.

1 Section 13. If the record relating to a birth, marriage or death does
2 not contain all the required facts, or if it is claimed that the facts are not
3 correctly stated therein, the town clerk shall receive an affidavit con...taining the facts required for record, if made by a person required by law to furnish the information for the original record, or, at the discretion of the town clerk, by credible persons having knowledge of the case.

If a person shall have acquired the status of a legitimate child by the intermarriage of his parents and the acknowledgment of his father, as provided in section seven of chapter one hundred and ninety, the record of his birth shall be amended or supplemented as hereinafter provided so as to read, in all respects, as if such person had been reported for record as born to such parents in lawful wedlock. For such purpose, the town clerk shall, if satisfied as to the identity of the persons and the facts, receive an affidavit executed by the parents or by either if the other is dead, setting forth the material facts. Unless such intermarriage is recorded in the records in the custody of such clerk, such affidavit shall be accompanied by a certified copy of the record thereof.

If a person of illegitimate birth shall have acquired a new name by judicial decree, the town clerk shall receive a certified copy of such decree.

He shall file any affidavit, certified copy of such decree or copy of record submitted under this section and record it in a separate book kept therefor, with the name and residence of the deponent or the facts of such decree and the date of the original record, and shall thereupon draw a line through any statement, or statements, sought to be corrected or amended in the original record, without erasing them, shall enter upon the original record the facts required to correct, amend or supplement the same in accordance with such affidavit or decree, including, in case of a decree of adoption, the same facts relative to the adopting parents as are required in a record of birth by the provisions of section one relative to natural parents, and forthwith, if a copy of the record has been sent to the state secretary, shall forward to the state secretary a certified copy of the corrected, amended or supplemented record upon blanks to be provided by him, and the state secretary shall thereupon correct, amend or supplement the record in his office. Reference to the record of the affidavit or such decree shall be made by the clerk on the margin of the original record.

If the clerk furnishes a copy of such a record, he shall certify to the facts contained therein as corrected, amended or supplemented, and shall state that the certificate is issued under this section; except that the clerk shall, upon proper judicial order, or when requested by a person seeking his own birth record, or by a person whose official duties, in the opinion of the clerk, entitle him to the information contained in the original record, furnish a copy of such original record. Such affidavit, or a certified copy of the record of any other town or of a written statement made at the time by any person since deceased required by law to furnish evidence thereof, may, in the discretion of the clerk, be made the basis for the record of a birth, marriage or death not previously recorded, and such copy of record may also be made the basis for completing the record of a birth, marriage or death not containing all the required facts.

1 Section 16. The state secretary shall prepare and furnish to the 2 clerks and boards of health of towns, and to the superintendent of the 3 state infirmary, record books, books for indexes thereto, forms for returns,
4 on paper of uniform size, and any necessary instructions and explanations,
5 including an explanation that sections one hundred and ten and one 6 hundred and eleven of chapter one hundred and eleven require physicians,
7 registered hospital medical officers, nurses, relatives or other attendants
8 to report immediately to the local board of health every child one or 9 both of whose eyes become inflamed, swollen and red, and show an un-
10 natural discharge within two weeks after birth. Town clerks shall dis-11 tribute the blank forms as the state secretary shall direct. A town may 12 provide such books and forms if they conform to those so prepared.

1 Section 17. The clerk of each town, and of each city containing less
2 than thirty thousand inhabitants, annually, on or before March first,
3 the clerks of cities containing more than thirty thousand and less than 4 one hundred thousand inhabitants, annually, on or before April first,
5 and the clerks of cities containing one hundred thousand inhabitants or 6 more, annually, on or before May first, shall transmit to the state secre-
7 tary certified copies of the records of births and marriages recorded therein
8 during the preceding year, with certified copies, upon blanks provided 9 by him, of such records and corrections in such records as have not been 10 previously returned. The clerk of each city and town shall, on or before 11 the tenth day of every month, transmit to the state secretary, upon 12 blanks to be furnished by him, certified copies of the returns of deaths in 13 such town during the preceding month. In case no deaths have occurred, 14 the fact shall be certified by the town clerk within ten days after the close 15 of such month.

1 Section 18. The state secretary shall require and town clerks shall 2 cause copies transmitted under the preceding section to be written in a 3 legible hand.

[Penalty, § 27.]

1 Section 19. The record of the town clerk relative to a birth, marriage
2 or death shall be prima facie evidence of the facts recorded. A certificate
3 thereof, signed by the town clerk or assistant clerk, shall be admissible
4 as evidence of such record.

1 Section 20. The superintendent of the state infirmary shall obtain
2 record and make return of the facts relative to births and deaths therein
3 in the same manner as town clerks. The clerk of the town where such 4 infirmary is located shall, relative to the births and deaths therein, be 5 exempt from the duties otherwise required of him by this chapter.

1911, 104.

1 Section 21. The state secretary shall cause the copies received by 2 him for each year to be bound, with indexes thereto. He shall prepare 3 from said copies such statistical tables as will be of practical utility, and 4 make annual report thereof to the general court.

Section 22. Any city, except Boston, and any town containing more than ten thousand inhabitants, may provide for the appointment of a person other than the clerk to be registrar. Such registrars, and in Boston the city registrar, shall be sworn and the provisions of this chapter relative to clerks shall apply to them.

Section 23. The town clerk shall give written notice of the requirements of this chapter to any person neglecting to comply therewith, and upon the continuance of such neglect for one month shall notify the agent or attorney duly appointed by the town to sue in its corporate capacity, or, if there is no such agent or attorney, the district attorney of the district, who shall cause a prosecution for the penalty or forfeiture therefor to be instituted.

Section 24. In any statement of births and deaths printed by a town the name of an illegitimate child or of its parents or of the parents of a stillborn child shall not be printed, but the word "illegitimate" or "stillborn" shall be used in place thereof. A town violating this section shall forfeit to the mother of such child not more than one hundred dollars.

Section 25. All fines and forfeitures recovered under this chapter shall, except as provided in sections twenty-four and twenty-seven, accrue to the benefit of the town where the required return should have been made.

Section 26. The town clerk shall receive the following fees from the town upon presenting to the town treasurer a certificate of the receipt of the prescribed copies by the state secretary: For each marriage, fifty cents; for each birth, one dollar; for each death returned to him by an undertaker or the board of health, fifty cents; for each death not so returned but obtained and recorded by him, one dollar. He shall also receive from the town the following fees: For each certificate transmitted under section twelve, fifty cents; for receiving and recording an affidavit and forwarding a copy thereof under section thirteen, one dollar; for sending the notice required by section twenty-three, fifty cents; for each oath administered in his capacity as clerk, twenty-five cents. A town may limit the aggregate compensation allowed to its clerk.

Section 27. A city or town clerk or registrar refusing or neglecting to perform any duty required of him under this chapter shall be punished by a fine of not less than twenty nor more than one hundred dollars. Fines recovered for violation of section eighteen shall be to the use of the commonwealth.

Section 28. An oath required by this chapter may be administered by the clerk, assistant clerk or registrar of a town.

Section 29. Town clerks or registrars shall attest their copies of the record of births, marriages or deaths with the official seal of the town.
CHAPTER 47.
INFIRMARIES.

1 Section 1. Any town may erect or provide and maintain an infirmary for persons in need. No town shall erect or maintain an infirmary wholly or in part within the limits of any other town without its consent.

1 Section 3. The directors shall at least monthly hold general meetings at which they may make orders and regulations for the infirmary, to be binding until the next meeting of the town or of the city council, or when the same shall be submitted to such meeting, and if approved shall remain in force until revoked by the town or by the city council.

3. Meetings of directors. 1743-4, 12, § 1. 1788, 30, § 1.

1 Section 4. Any number of towns may, at their joint charge and for their common use, erect or provide an infirmary and purchase land for the use thereof.

1828, 142, § 3. P. S. 33, § 5. 1927, 203, § 1.

1 Section 5. The management and repair of such infirmary shall be vested in a joint board of directors, who shall be chosen annually by the several towns interested.

5. Each town to choose three directors, etc. 1743-4, 12, § 2. 1788, 30, § 2.

1 Section 6. Unless all the towns interested in such infirmary agree to choose a different number, each of them shall choose three members of the joint board; and upon the death of a director, or his removal from the place for which he was chosen, the vacancy may be filled by such town. If a town neglects to choose directors, those chosen by the other towns shall have charge of the infirmary.

FIREWARDS.

Section 1. Selectmen may annually, in March or April, appoint firewards, and shall forthwith give them notice thereof. Whoever neglects, within seven days after such notice, to file with the town clerk his acceptance or refusal of the office shall, unless excused by the selectmen, forfeit ten dollars.

Section 3. Three or more firewards present at a place which is in immediate danger from fire, or if there are not three of them present the selectmen or the mayor and the aldermen present, or in their absence two or more of the civil officers present, or in their absence two or more of the chief military officers of the place present may direct any building be demolished if they deem it necessary to prevent the spread of the fire.

Section 4. If a city by its city council or a town accepts this section or has accepted corresponding provisions of earlier laws, the official of a fire department in command at a fire shall have exclusively the power conferred by the preceding section.

Section 5. If such demolition of a building is the means of stopping the fire or if the fire stops before it comes to it, the owner shall be entitled to recover reasonable compensation from the town unless it was the building in which the fire started. Such compensation shall be determined and recovered under chapter seventy-nine, as if the building demolished were taken by eminent domain.

1920, 2.

Section 6. Such firewards or other officers may require assistance for extinguishing a fire and for removing furniture, goods or merchandise from a building on fire or in danger of fire. They may appoint guards to secure the same, may require assistance for demolishing a building, and suppress tumults and disorders at fires.

Section 7. They may direct the stations and operations of the enginemen with their engines and of all other persons, for the purpose of extinguishing the fire. Whoever refuses or neglects to obey such orders shall be punished by a fine of not more than ten dollars.
FOREST WARDENS.

1 Section 8. The mayor in cities and, except as provided in section forty-three, the selectmen in towns shall annually, in January, appoint a forest warden, and forthwith give notice thereof to the state forester, in this chapter called the forester. Such appointment shall not take effect unless approved by the forester. When so approved notice of the appointment shall be given by the mayor or selectmen to the person so appointed. Whoever having been duly appointed fails within seven days after receipt of such notice to file with the city or town clerk his acceptance or refusal of the office shall, unless excused by the mayor or selectmen, forfeit ten dollars. The same person may hold the offices of tree warden, selectman, chief of fire department and forest warden. Upon the failure of the mayor or the selectmen of a town to make such appointment in the month of January, the forester shall notify the mayor or selectmen so to do, and if the mayor or selectmen fail to comply within fourteen days after receipt of such notice, the forester may appoint as forest warden in such city or town a suitable person, who shall be a resident thereof.

1 Section 9. If a fire occurs in woodland, the forest warden of the town, or of a town containing woodland endangered by such fire, at a place in immediate danger therefrom, may set back fires and take necessary precautions to prevent its spread.

1 Section 10. The forest warden may appoint deputies to assist him in his duties, and may discharge them; and he or his deputies may, if in their judgment there is danger from a forest fire, employ assistance or require any male person in their town between the ages of eighteen and fifty to aid in its extinguishment or prevention, and may require the use of horses, wagons and other property adapted therefor, and shall keep an account of the time of all persons assisting them and a schedule of all property so used.

1 Section 11. Whoever, without sufficient cause, wilfully refuses or neglects to assist or to allow the use of his property as required by the preceding section, shall be punished by a fine of not less than five nor more than one hundred dollars, to be equally divided between the complainant and the town, and may also be imprisoned for not more than two months.

1 Section 12. Payment shall be made to forest wardens, their deputies, and persons assisting them, and for property used under their direction at a forest fire, at a rate prescribed by the town or, in default of its action thereon, by the selectmen. No such payment shall be made until an itemized account, approved by the forest warden under whose direction the work was done or assistance furnished, shall have been filed with the officer making payment.

1 Section 13. No person shall set, maintain or increase a fire in the open air at any time unless the ground is substantially covered with snow, except by written permission, covering a period not exceeding ten days from the date thereof, granted by the forest warden or chief of the setting, etc., fires in open air regulated. Penalty 1752-3, § 3. 1756-7, § 14. 1796, § 11.
fire department in cities and towns, or, in cities having such an official, the fire commissioner; provided, that debris from fields, gardens and orchards, and leaves and rubbish from yards, may be burned on ploughed fields by the owners thereof, their agents or lessees, if such fire is at least two hundred feet distant from any sprout or forest land and at least fifty feet distant from any building and is properly attended until extinguished; and provided, further, that persons above the age of eighteen may set or maintain a fire for a reasonable purpose upon sandy land, or upon salt marshes or sandy or rocky beaches bordering on tide water, if the fire is enclosed within rocks, metal or other non-inflammable material. The forester may make rules and regulations relating to the granting and revocation of such permits binding throughout the commonwealth. Such rules and regulations shall take effect subject to section thirty-seven of chapter thirty-three, when approved by the governor and council. The forest wardens in towns and officials performing the duties of forest wardens in cities shall cause public notice to be given of the provisions of this section and shall enforce the same. Whoever violates any provision of this section shall be punished by a fine of not more than one hundred dollars or by imprisonment for not more than one month, or both.

Section 15. The forester, the state fire warden or any duly authorized assistant, the forest warden in a town or the official performing the duties of a forest warden in a city, or any duly appointed deputy forest warden, the director of the division of fisheries and game, a fish and game warden or a deputy fish and game warden may arrest without warrant any person found in the act of setting, maintaining or increasing a fire in violation of sections thirteen and fourteen. They shall take precautions to prevent the progress of forest fires, or the improper kindling thereof, and upon the discovery of any such fire shall immediately require the necessary assistance in accordance with section ten, the provisions of which and of sections eleven and twelve are hereby made applicable in such case, and shall notify the local forest warden.

Section 16. Every owner, lessee, tenant or occupant of lands or of any rights or interests therein, except electric, telephone and telegraph companies, who cuts or permits the cutting of brush, wood or timber on lands which border upon woodland, or upon a highway or railroad location, shall dispose of the slash caused by such cutting in such a manner that the same will not remain on the ground within forty feet of any woodland, highway or railroad location.

Section 17. Any person who cuts or causes to be cut trees, brush or undergrowth within the limits of any highway, shall dispose of the slash and brush then and there resulting from such cutting in such a manner that the same will not remain on the ground within the limits of said highway.

Section 18. Electric, telephone and telegraph companies which, at the time of erecting their transmission lines, cut or cause to be cut brush, wood or timber on land which borders upon woodland or upon a highway or railroad location, shall dispose of the slash caused by such cutting in such a manner that the same will not remain on the ground within forty 6 feet of any woodland, highway or railroad location; such companies
7 which after the erection of their lines trim or cut brush, wood or timber
8 which has grown up since the lines were erected, and which borders upon 9 woodland or upon a highway or railroad location, shall, upon the request
10 of the forester, and within a time limit set by him, dispose of the slash 11 of second or subsequent cuttings if the same in his opinion constitutes 12 a menace to adjoining property.

1 Section 19. The forester, or any duly authorized assistant, and the 2 forest wardens in cities and towns are hereby authorized to inspect wood
3 or lumber operations, and also the rights of way of electric, telephone 4 and telegraph companies' transmission lines, to determine whether the 5 slash and brush are disposed of in accordance with sections sixteen to 6 eighteen, inclusive.

1 Section 20. Violation of any provision of sections sixteen to eight-
2 en, inclusive, shall be punished by a fine of not less than twenty nor 3 more than one hundred dollars.

1 Section 20A. No person shall engage in any lumbering operations
2 which involve the cutting of more than ten thousand feet, other than 3 the cutting of cord wood, unless he has filed with the forester a state-4 ment giving the location and approximate size of the lot of land from 5 which wood is to be cut and the approximate date when such operations
6 are to be commenced. Any person, before operating any portable
7 sawmill, shall notify the forester of the place of such intended operation 8 and shall clear away and dispose of all slash and brush within seventy-9 five feet thereof. Violation of any provision of this section shall be 10 punished by a fine of not less than five nor more than one hundred 11 dollars.

1 Section 21. Whoever, except when the ground is covered with snow,
2 operates in or adjacent to forest or grass lands any portable steam saw-
3 mill, steam roller, steam shovel or steam tractor, which burns wood, 4 coke, coal or other spark producing material as fuel, unless the same is 5 provided with a suitable spark arrester approved by the forester, shall 6 be punished by a fine of not less than fifty nor more than one hundred 7 dollars.

1 Section 22. The forester or his assistants may inspect all appliances
2 described in the preceding section to determine if they are provided 3 with suitable spark arresters.

1 Section 23. Towns may construct, in co-operation with other towns
2 or with the commonwealth, forest fire observation towers, the situa-
3 tion and construction of which shall be subject to the direction of the 4 forester.

1 Section 24. Money appropriated by a town under section eleven of 2 chapter forty, for the prevention of forest fires, and all fines received 3 under sections eleven, thirteen and twenty-six of this chapter and sec-4 tion nine of chapter two hundred and sixty-six shall be expended by the 5 forest warden, under the supervision of the selectmen, in trimming brush out of wood roads, in preparing and preserving suitable lines for back fires, or in other ways adapted to prevent or check the spread of fire; or such town may expend any portion of such money in taking by eminent domain such woodland as the selectmen, upon recommendation of the forest warden, consider expedient to prevent forest fires. Such taking and the payment of damages therefor or for injury to property, other than by fire or back fire, shall be governed by chapter seventy-
ine. Every town, the valuation of which does not exceed one million two hundred and fifty thousand dollars, which expended in any one year a sum equal to one twentieth of one per cent of its valuation in the extinguishment of forest fires, shall, upon the recommendation of the forester, approved by the governor, receive from the commonwealth one half of any additional sum expended by it in the extinguishment of forest fires, provided that the total amount paid by the commonwealth in any such town in any one year shall not exceed two hundred and fifty dollars. In the event of a forest fire getting beyond the control of a local forest warden, the forester or his assistant may take entire charge of the extinguishment of such fire and engage all help and equipment necessary therefor. All expenses thereby incurred in a town wherein a fire occurs after the forester has so taken charge shall be divided equally between such town and the commonwealth. The expenses aforesaid shall be paid by the commonwealth upon presentation of pay rolls and vouchers approved in such manner as the forester shall direct. One half of any sums so paid shall be assessed and collected as a part of the state tax of such town.

section 25. Except as provided in section twenty-four, every forest warden shall have sole charge of the extinguishment of forest fires in his city or town. He shall investigate the causes and extent of forest fires and the injury done thereby, and shall report thereon to the forester at such times and in such form as he requires. Every forest warden shall also post in suitable places in the town such warnings against the setting of forest fires and statements of law relating thereto as may be supplied to him by the forester. The engineers or other officers in charge of fire departments in cities and in towns which have so voted shall perform the duties and exercise the powers of forest wardens with respect to forest fires.

section 26. Whoever wilfully and maliciously tears down or destroys any notice posted under the preceding section shall be punished by a fine of ten dollars.

1907, 475, §§ 7, 10.

section 27. Forest wardens, their deputies and assistants shall not be liable for trespass when engaged in the performance of their duties under this chapter or chapter one hundred and thirty-two.

section 28. The state fire warden appointed under section five of chapter twenty-one shall aid and advise the forest wardens and their deputies in towns and the municipal officers exercising the functions of forest wardens in cities in preventing and extinguishing forest fires and in enforcing the laws relative thereto. The forester may designate not more than fifteen assistants to aid the warden. The state fire warden 7 shall report annually to the forester upon his work and upon the forest fires occurring in the commonwealth. This report shall be included in the report of the commissioner of conservation relative to the acts of the forester.

1 Section 28A. Upon written application of the county commissioners of any county which accepts this section by vote of said commissioners, the state forester may appoint additional temporary officers in the division of forestry or detail assistants to the state fire warden to such number as may be necessary, who shall patrol the forests in the towns of such county, during those seasons of the year when forest fires are likely to occur therein for the purpose of detecting and preventing such fires. One half of the money expended under the provisions of this section in any county shall be repaid to the commonwealth by said county.

1 Section 28B. Whenever it shall appear to the forester that by reason of extreme drought there is danger of forest fires, the forest warden of any town shall, upon order of the forester, cause the forests of such town to be patrolled for the prevention of such fires in such manner as the forester shall determine. The cost of such patrol shall be paid by said town, subject to reimbursement by the commonwealth, if the valuation of such town does not exceed one million two hundred and fifty thousand dollars, as if incurred for the extinguishment of forest fires as provided in section twenty-four.

ENGINEMEN AND HOSEMEN.

1 Section 29. The mayor of cities or the selectmen of towns which are provided with fire engines may appoint enginemen, to hold office at the pleasure of the authority appointing them, and may discharge them for negligence in their duties.

R. S. 18, §§ 9, 18.

1 Section 30. Each company of enginemen so appointed shall meet annually in May, choose a foreman and a clerk, and establish such regulations, consistent with law, relative to their duty as enginemen, as shall be approved by the aldermen or selectmen; and they shall annex penalties thereto, not exceeding ten dollars, which may be recovered by their clerk.

1 Section 31. Each company shall meet monthly, or oftener if necessary, to examine their engine and its equipments and see that they are in good repair and ready for use. They shall, under the direction of the firewards, extinguish any fire in their city or town.

1 Section 32. Upon application therefor by the proprietors of an engine, the mayor of a city or the selectmen of a town where it is owned may appoint enginemen and use the engine as if it belonged to the town, and shall determine where it shall be kept, if the proprietors do not agree upon such place.

SECTION 33. If the mayor or selectmen, upon such application, refuse or delay for fourteen days to appoint enginemen, the proprietors may apply therefor in writing to the county commissioners, giving written notice to such mayor or selectmen seven days at least before the sitting of the commissioners; and if sufficient cause is shown, the commissioners may appoint such enginemen.

Enginemen to live near engines. 1824, 120, § 12. R. S. 18, § 16.

SECTION 34. Enginemen appointed under either of the two preceding sections, shall, if possible, live at or near the place where the engine is kept, and shall have the privileges and exemptions of other enginemen.

SECTION 35. Selectmen, engineers of fire departments and the board of engineers of fire districts may, in towns having one or more steam fire engines, or in which water for extinguishing fires is supplied from hydrants or reservoirs, appoint not more than twenty men to each hose carriage.

SECTION 36. Any town which has accepted chapter four hundred and eighty-seven of the acts of nineteen hundred and thirteen, and has a call or part call fire department which now is or may hereafter be subject to chapter thirty-one, may, on the recommendation of the board of engineers of the fire department or of the officer or board having charge of the fire department, promote to membership in the permanent force, without civil service examination and without any probationary period of service required under said chapter thirty-one and the rules and regulations made thereunder, any persons then in the call or part call fire department who have served as call men or part call men or substitute call men for five or more successive years, and who are certified to be competent physically for the duty by the town physician, if any, otherwise by a physician designated therefor by the board of engineers or other authority, as aforesaid.

SECTION 37. The preceding section shall not apply to any town in which the promotion of call men to the permanent or regular force is regulated by a special act relating to such town, nor to Boston.

SECTION 38. Enginemen or members of the fire department who have served for one year preceding May first in any year, shall receive from the town a sum equal to the poll taxes paid by or for them and such further compensation as the town determines.

SECTION 39. The chief engineer or other officer in charge of a fire department, and the foreman or director of each company where no fire department is established by law, shall annually on or before May first certify to the assessors of their respective towns a list of all persons in their department or companies who during the preceding year have performed all the duties required by law. The assessors shall within ten days thereafter examine such lists and certify to the treasurers of their respective towns the amount to be paid to each person named therein. Each treasurer shall, after deducting all taxes due from the persons so named, pay the amount so certified to them, or, if minors, to their parents or guardians. Upon refusal of the treasurer to pay 12 any sum so certified, the person entitled may recover such amount in 13 contract.

1 Section 40. If such chief engineer or other officer wilfully refuses to 2 make such certificate, he shall forfeit for each person entitled to be so 3 certified not more than five dollars, to the use of such person, or, on 4 complaint, to the use of the town; and if such engineer or other officer
5 makes a false certificate in such case, he shall forfeit not less than twenty 6 nor more than fifty dollars.

1 Section 41. The three preceding sections shall be in force only in 2 those towns which adopt the same by vote of their city council or at 3 their annual town meeting, or which have so adopted corresponding 4 provisions of earlier laws. If such adoption is revoked by the city
5 council or by the town at an annual meeting, said sections shall cease 6 to be in force.

FIRE DEPARTMENTS.

1 Section 42. Towns accepting the provisions of this and the two 2 following sections or which have accepted corresponding provisions of 3 earlier laws may establish a fire department to be under the control of 4 an officer to be known as the chief of the fire department. The chief 5 shall be appointed by the selectmen, and shall receive such salary as 6 the selectmen may from time to time determine, not exceeding in the 7 aggregate the amount annually appropriated therefor. He may be re-8 moved for cause by the selectmen at any time after a hearing. He shall 9 have charge of extinguishing fires in the town and the protection of life
10 and property in case of fire. He shall purchase subject to the approval 11 of the selectmen and keep in repair all property and apparatus used for 12 and by the fire department. He shall have and exercise all the powers 13 and discharge all the duties conferred or imposed by statute upon engi-14 neers in towns except as herein provided, and shall appoint a deputy 15 chief and such officers and firemen as he may think necessary, and may 16 remove the same at any time for cause and after a hearing. He shall 17 have full and absolute authority in the administration of the depart-
18 ment, shall make all rules and regulations for its operation, shall report 19 to the selectmen from time to time as they may require, and shall annu-20 ally report to the town the condition of the department with his recom-21 mendations thereon; he shall fix the compensation of the permanent and 22 call members of the fire department subject to the approval of the select-23 men. In the expenditure of money the chief shall be subject to such 24 further limitations as the town may from time to time prescribe.

1 Section 43. The chief of the fire department shall act as forest
2 warden in all such towns, and shall have authority to appoint deputy 3 wardens and fix their compensation subject to the approval of the 4 selectmen.

1 Section 44. The two preceding sections shall not affect the tenure
2 of office nor apply to the removal of permanent and call members of fire
3 departments in towns which have accepted chapter thirty-one or corre-
4 sponding provisions of earlier laws. Said sections shall not apply to 5 cities.
SECTION 45. The selectmen, except as provided in the three preceding sections, may establish a fire department, and thereafter shall annually, in April, appoint a suitable number of engineers, not exceeding twelve, for one year from the following May first, and until others are appointed in their stead; may, for cause, remove an engineer, after seven days' notice to him and a hearing, and shall fill all vacancies.

SECTION 46. They shall, immediately after such appointment, notify each of said engineers to meet at a time and place designated.
At such meeting the engineers shall choose a chief engineer, a clerk and other necessary officers.

SECTION 47. The engineers, in the extinguishment of fires, shall exercise the powers of firewards, and in the nomination and appointment of enginemen shall exercise the powers and perform the duties of selectmen. They may appoint such men to the engines, hose and hook and ladder carriages, and constitute such companies for securing property endangered by fire, as they deem expedient.

SECTION 48. The engine, hose and hook and ladder men and protective companies may organize companies, elect officers and establish such regulations and by-laws as the board of engineers approve; and may annex penalties for the violation thereof, not exceeding ten dollars for each offence, which may be recovered by the clerk to the use of the company.

SECTION 49. The engineers and all persons appointed by them shall perform the duties, be subject to the liabilities and entitled to the privileges and exemptions of enginemen appointed by selectmen.

SECTION 50. A town having a fire department or having a fire district in which only the fire department thereof responds to the first alarm of fire therein shall provide and keep in good condition and ready for immediate use one or more of the following articles: a gun or other suitable device capable of throwing a projectile with a cord attached thereto over the top, or into the windows, of any building therein, with all needful appliances for properly working the same; and a life net or jumping net strong enough to break the fall of a person jumping from the top story of such building. Such apparatus shall be taken to every fire in a building over two stories in height. The engineers shall see that a sufficient number of firemen are regularly trained in the proper handling and use thereof.

SECTION 51. A town or the engineers thereof violating any provision of the preceding section shall forfeit not less than fifty nor more than five hundred dollars.

SECTION 52. The board of engineers shall have the care and superintendence of the public engines, hose, fire hooks, ladder carriages and ladders, the buildings, fixtures and equipments, and of all pumps, reservoirs for water and apparatus owned by the town and used for extinguishing fires; and shall cause the same to be kept in repair or renewed, and shall make necessary alterations therein and additions thereto at 7 an expense not exceeding one hundred dollars in any one year, unless 8 the town has authorized a larger appropriation.

1 Section 53. They may make regulations as to the carrying of fire, 2 firebrands, lighted matches or other ignited materials openly in the 3 streets or thoroughfares of their town, or of such parts thereof as they 4 may designate, or as to prohibiting owners or occupants of buildings
5 within their town, or such part thereof as they may designate, from 6 maintaining any defective chimney, hearth, oven, stove or stove pipe, 7 fire frame or other fixture, deposit of ashes or whatever may give just 8 cause of alarm or be the means of kindling or spreading fire. Whoever 9 violates any such rule or regulation shall forfeit not more than twenty 10 dollars.

1 Section 54. They may make regulations, consistent with law, for 2 their own government and for the conduct of citizens at fires, and annex
3 penalties for violation thereof not exceeding twenty dollars for each 4 offence, to be recovered by the chief engineer and appropriated to the 5 improvement of the fire apparatus of the town; but such regulations 6 shall be approved by the town and published as it may direct.

1 Section 55. A town which has established a fire department may 2 vote to fix the term of office for the members of such department at one 3 year from a designated day, and may at the same time determine the 4 then current term of office of members of fire departments; but no term 5 shall be made shorter than six or longer than eighteen months, and the 6 incumbents shall hold office until others are appointed in their stead.
7 In such cases all provisions of this chapter referring to the month of 8 May shall be construed to refer to the first month of the year thus 9 designated.

1 Section 56. Except in towns subject to section fifty-nine, any city
2 by ordinance and any town by by-law may establish the hours of labor
3 of the members of its fire department.

1909, 514, §§ 44, 145.

1 Section 57. Subject to section fifty-nine, members of the fire de-2 partment of every city which accepted chapter five hundred and forty-3 six of the acts of nineteen hundred and twelve or chapter ninety-seven 4 of the General Acts of nineteen hundred and fifteen, shall be excused 5 from duty for one day out of every five days, without loss of pay. The 6 time and manner of so excusing members shall be determined by the 7 chief, or other officer or board at the head of the fire department, who 8 shall have authority, in case of any public emergency, to prevent any 9 member of the department from taking the day off herein provided for 10 at the time when he is entitled thereto or at the time assigned therefor;
11 but such day off shall be granted to him as soon thereafter as practicable, 12 and such days shall be in addition to any annual vacation allowed to the 13 members of said departments, and such annual vacation shall not be 14 diminished on account of the days off herein provided for.

1 Section 58. In every town which accepted chapter two hundred
2 and ninety-one of the General Acts of nineteen hundred and sixteen or 3 chapter one hundred and forty of the General Acts of nineteen hundred and seventeen, or in which the provisions of chapter thirty-one were, on April third, nineteen hundred and seventeen, applicable to the chief of the fire department thereof, such chief shall hold his office continuously during good behavior unless incapacitated by physical or mental disability to perform the duties of his position; provided, that in every such city the official having the power of appointment, with the consent of the confirming board, if any, and in every such town, the selectmen, may, for just cause and for reasons specifically assigned by said official or selectmen, remove such chief, first giving him a copy of such reasons and allowing him a reasonable time to answer them in writing.

A copy of the reasons, notice and answer, and of the order of removal, shall be filed with the town clerk.

Section 59. The permanent members of the uniformed fire fighting force in every town which accepts this section or has accepted corresponding provisions of earlier laws shall be divided by the fire commissioner, board of fire commissioners, chief engineer, board of engineers, or other officers having charge of the fire fighting force into two bodies or platoons, which shall be designated as a day force and a night force, and shall alternate on tours of duty every third day.

The hours of duty of the day force shall be from eight o'clock in the forenoon to six o'clock in the afternoon, and the hours of duty of the night force shall be from six o'clock in the afternoon to eight o'clock in the forenoon; provided, that on every third day, for the purpose of alternating the day force with the night force and vice versa, the number of hours of duty herein stated may be exceeded, but one force shall be at liberty at all times, except that in case of a conflagration the officer or board having charge of the fire fighting force shall have full authority to summon and keep on duty all members of the fire fighting force while the conflagration continues.

This section shall not affect any law, ordinance or by-law relative to salary, pensions, annual vacations or sick or disability leave of absence of the members of the fire fighting force in any town subject to this 20 section. Sections fifty-six and fifty-seven shall not apply to the permanent members of the uniformed fire fighting force in any such town.

All ordinances or by-laws, or parts thereof, affecting the number that may be appointed as members of a fire fighting force, or the meal hours or days off of the members of the fire department of any such town, shall have no force after its acceptance becomes effective.

Upon petition of not less than ten per cent of the registered voters in any town, duly certified by the registrars of voters and filed with the state secretary not less than thirty days before any state election, the state secretary shall cause to be printed upon the official ballot to be used in such town at such state election the following question: "Shall section fifty-nine of chapter forty-eight of the General Laws, providing for the division into day and night forces of permanent members of fire departments, known as the two platoon system, be accepted?" If a 34 majority of the votes cast on the said question in any town are in the 35 affirmative, this section shall take effect in such town ninety days 36 thereafter.

Response of department for aid from other cities.

Section 59A. Cities, towns and fire districts may, by ordinance or by-law, or by vote of the board of aldermen, selectmen or of the prudential committee or board exercising similar powers, authorize their 4 respective fire departments to go to aid another city, town or fire dis-
5 trict in extinguishing fires therein, and while in the performance of 6 their duties in extending such aid the members of such departments
7 shall have the same immunities and privileges as if performing the same
8 within their respective cities, towns or districts. Any such ordinance, 9 by-law or vote may authorize the head of the fire department to extend 10 such aid, subject to such conditions and restrictions as may be prescribed 11 therein. The words “fire departments” as used in this section shall 12 mean lawfully organized fire fighting forces, however constituted.
13 Any city, town or district aided under and in accordance with this 14 section may compensate any city, town or district rendering aid as 15 aforesaid for the whole or any part of any damage to its property sus-
16 tained in the course of rendering the same and may reimburse it in whole
17 or in part for any payments lawfully made to any member of its fire
18 department or to his widow or other dependents on account of injuries
19 or death suffered by him in the course of rendering aid as aforesaid 20 or of death resulting from such injuries.

RESERVE FIRE FORCES IN CITIES.

1 Section 59B. Any city, except Boston, in which the city council
2 with the approval of the mayor, accepts this and the two following sec-
3 tions, may establish a reserve force of firemen in its fire department;
4 and appointments thereto and removals therefrom shall, subject to 5 chapter thirty-one, be made in the same manner as appointments to the 6 regular or permanent force of the fire department of said city.

1 Section 59C. The number of members of such reserve force shall 2 not exceed five in cities in which the number of members of the regular 3 force does not exceed fifteen. If the number of members of the regular 4 force exceeds fifteen, one member may be added to the reserve force for 5 every three of the regular force above fifteen and not above thirty; one 6 for every five of the regular force above thirty and not above eighty;
7 and one for every ten of the regular force above eighty.

1 Section 59D. The mayor, chief of the fire department or the officer
2 or board having charge of the said department in a city wherein such 3 reserve force is established may assign the members thereof to duty in 4 the said department whenever and for such length of time as he or it
5 may deem necessary. The compensation of the members of said reserve 6 force shall be fixed by the city council. Except as provided in this and 7 the two preceding sections, no provision of law applicable to the regular 8 or permanent fire force of the fire department of a city shall apply to 9 such reserve force or the members thereof except when assigned to duty 10 as aforesaid.

FIRE DISTRICTS.

1 Section 60. Fire departments may be established in districts con-
2 taining not less than one thousand inhabitants, or not less than five 3 hundred inhabitants in towns the population of which does not exceed 4 two thousand; and the officers thereof shall have charge of and be 5 responsible for the apparatus for the extinguishment of fire therein, in 6 the same manner as firewards and enginemen of towns.
Establishment of fire districts.
1844, 132, § 2.
G. S. 24, § 34.
P. S. 35, § 41.
R. L. 32, § 50.

Section 61. Before a district is constituted and organized, a petition shall be presented to the town at a meeting, stating the limits of the proposed district, and requesting the town to raise taxes for the establishment and maintenance of a sufficient fire department for the reasonable protection of the inhabitants and property within said limits. If the town refuses or neglects so to do, the inhabitants of the proposed district may organize it and establish a fire department therein.

Section 62. The selectmen, on written application of not less than seven freeholders, inhabitants of such proposed district, setting forth the limits thereof, and requiring them to notify a meeting of the voters thereof to consider the expediency of organizing such district and establishing a fire department, shall forthwith give such notice in the manner of notifying town meetings, requiring the voters to assemble at some suitable place within the district for said purpose, the substance of which shall be expressed in the notice. If the selectmen refuse or neglect to give notice of such meeting, a justice of the peace may do so.

Section 63. If at such meeting the voters determine to organize such district, they shall choose a clerk, who shall be sworn. He may be removed by the district, and in case of a vacancy another may be chosen; or in such case, or in case of his disability, the selectmen may appoint a temporary clerk, who shall be sworn and shall perform such duties until the vacancy is filled or the disability removed. Immediately upon the establishment of such a district, written notice thereof shall be sent by the clerk to the commissioner of corporations and taxation.

Section 64. The district at such meeting may vote to establish a fire department, to consist of a chief engineer and as many assistant engineers, enginemen, hosemen and hook and ladder men as they may consider necessary, not exceeding seventy-five for each suction engine, thirty-five for each common engine, five for each one hundred and fifty feet of leading hose kept for use within the district, and not exceeding twenty-five hook and ladder men. Each of said officers and members shall be furnished with a certificate, signed by the chief engineer and clerk, declaring his station in the department.

Section 65. The chief engineer and assistant engineers shall be chosen annually by the district, and shall be sworn.

Section 66. District meetings shall be called by the clerk, when requested in writing by the chief engineer or by two assistant engineers or by seven voters; the clerk shall give notice thereof by posting written notices, briefly stating the purpose of the meeting, in at least six public places in the district not less than seven days prior to the meeting, or by publishing the same in a newspaper, if any, published in the town in which the district is situated. At each meeting a moderator shall be chosen, who shall have the powers of the moderator of a town meeting. After the choice of a clerk he shall preside at subsequent meetings with like powers until a moderator is chosen.
Section 67. The registrars of voters of towns containing fire districts, or the prudential committee in districts composed of portions of two or more towns, shall, at least ten days before the annual fire district election, make correct alphabetical lists of all persons qualified to vote at such election; and shall cause such lists to be posted in two or more public places in the said district, and shall correct said lists in the same manner as they are required by law to correct voting lists for town elections.

Section 68. Section eight of chapter forty-one and sections eighty-two and one hundred and six of chapter fifty-four shall apply to fire districts.

Section 69. Such districts may, at meetings called therefor, raise money by taxation for the purchase of engines and other articles necessary for the extinguishment of fires, for hydrant and water service, for the purchase of land, for the erection and repairs of necessary buildings, and for the erection and maintenance of street lamps within their limits, and the payment of a proper charge of an insurance company for acting as surety on an official bond which may be given to such district by any of its officers, and for other incidental expenses of the fire department. The prudential committee of such district may accept an insurance company as sufficient surety upon such bond.

Section 70. Such districts may by ordinary vote incur debts for temporary loans in anticipation of the taxes of the municipal year in which such debts are incurred and of the receipts from other sources due in such year, and expressly made payable, by vote of the district, from such taxes and receipts.

Section 71. Such districts shall choose a prudential committee, which shall expend, for the purposes prescribed by the district, the money so raised or borrowed, and shall choose a treasurer, who shall give bond for the faithful performance of his official duties in a sum and with sureties approved by the prudential committee. He shall receive all money belonging to the district, and shall pay over and account for the same according to its order or that of the prudential committee.

Section 72. If the treasurer is prevented from performing his official duties, or if the office is vacant, the prudential committee may in writing appoint a temporary treasurer, who shall give a bond in like manner as the treasurer and shall hold his office until another is chosen.

Section 73. The clerk shall certify to the assessors of the town all votes of the district authorizing interest to be added to taxes and all sums of money voted to be raised, which shall be assessed and collected in the same manner as town taxes, and shall be paid over to the district treasurer. The assessors, treasurer and collector of a town in which such district is organized shall have the same powers and perform the same duties relative to the assessment and collection of the money voted by the fire district as they have and exercise relative to the assessment.
collection and abatement of town taxes, and the sums so voted shall be assessed upon the property, real and personal, within the district.

Section 74. The board of engineers may make and publish rules and regulations as provided in case of fire departments by sections fifty-three and fifty-four. It may appoint and remove engineers, hosemen and hook and ladder men, and fill vacancies in the companies.

Section 75. Engineers shall have and exercise within their district the powers and authority of firewards of towns relating to the extinguishment of fires and the demolition of buildings; and districts shall be liable in the same manner for acts done by such engineers, or by their orders, as towns for acts done by firewards.

Section 76. Members of the fire department of such district shall have the immunities and privileges of firewards and enginem of towns, and shall receive such compensation as the district determines.

Section 77. No by-law, rule or regulation adopted by a fire district imposing a penalty shall be in force until approved by the attorney general and published at least three times in one or more newspapers, if any, published in the town; otherwise, in one or more newspapers published in the county where the fire district is situated.

Section 78. Penalties under any of the four preceding sections may be recovered in tort in the name of the chief engineer and appropriated to expenses of the fire department of the district, or on complaint or indictment to the use of the commonwealth. If the chief engineer dies, resigns or removes during the pendency of such action, it shall not abate, but his successor shall be admitted to prosecute it. Residence in the district shall not disqualify a judge, juror or officer in such action.

Section 79. A district, at a meeting called therefor, may annex adjacent territory and its inhabitants, if a majority of the voters of said territory petition therefor, defining the limits thereof; or may on the petition of any person, with the assent of the town containing such district, exclude him or his estate therefrom.

Section 80. Fire districts heretofore legally organized shall continue and be subject to the provisions of this chapter relative to fire districts.

Firemen's Relief.

Section 81. The sum of eighteen thousand dollars may be paid annually from the state treasury to furnish relief to firemen injured in the performance of their duty at a fire or in going thereto or returning therefrom, or while engaged in company drills, when such drills are ordered by the chief, acting chief or board of engineers of the fire de-

SECTION 8. If a partition fence is required under this chapter between the lands of adjoining occupants, and either of them has, before complaint made, voluntarily erected the whole fence or more than his just share thereof, or has otherwise become proprietor thereof, the fence viewers may order the other occupant to pay the value of so much thereof as may be assigned to him to repair or maintain, to be ascertained and recovered as provided in this chapter.

SECTION 9. If lands of different persons, required under this chapter to be fenced, are divided by a river, brook, pond or creek, and one of the occupants refuses or neglects to join in making a partition fence, or they disagree respecting the same, the fence viewers shall, upon application, forthwith view such river, brook, pond or creek; and if they determine that it is not sufficient as a fence, that it is impracticable to fence on the true boundary line without unreasonable expense, and that a partition fence is required, they shall, after notice to the parties, determine how or on which side the fence shall be set up and maintained, or whether partly on the one side and partly on the other, as to them may appear just, and shall reduce their determination to writing; and if either party refuses or neglects to make and maintain his part of the fence according to such determination, it may be made and maintained as before provided, and the delinquent party shall be subject to the same costs and charges, and they shall be recovered in like manner.

SECTION 10. If land belonging to two persons in severalty has been occupied in common without a partition fence, and one of the occupants desires to occupy his part in severalty, and the other occupant refuses or neglects on demand to divide the line where the fence ought to be built, or to build a sufficient fence on his part of the line when divided, the party desiring it may have the same divided and assigned by the fence viewers in the manner provided in this chapter; and the fence viewers may in writing assign a reasonable time, having regard to the season, for making the fence; and if the occupant complained of does not make his part of the fence within the time so assigned, the other party may, after having made up his part of the fence, make up the part of such occupant, and recover therefor double the sum total of the expense thereof and fees, as provided in section five.

SECTION 11. If a division of fence between the owners of improved land has been made either by fence viewers or under an agreement in writing between the parties which has been recorded in the office of the clerk of the town, the several occupants of such land and their heirs and assigns shall erect and maintain said fences agreeably to such division; but if a person lays his land common and determines not to improve any part adjoining the fence so divided, and gives six months’ notice of his determination to all the occupants of adjoining land, he shall not be required to keep up or maintain said fence during the time that his land lies common and unimproved.

SECTION 12. If one person ceases to improve his land or lays open his enclosure, he shall not take away any part of the partition fence belonging to him and adjoining the next enclosure if the occupant or owner
4 pays the reasonable value thereof, as determined in writing by the fence 5 viewers.

1 Section 13. If unenclosed land is afterward enclosed or used for de-
2 pasturing, the occupant or owner shall pay for one half of each partition
3 fence standing upon the line between it and the enclosed land of any 4 other occupant or owner, the value thereof, as determined in writing by 5 the fence viewers; and if thereupon such occupant or owner neglects or 6 refuses, for thirty days after demand, to pay one half of the value, the 7 proprietor thereof may maintain an action of contract therefor and for 8 the costs of ascertaining the same; but the occupant or owner of unen-
9 closed land on the island of Nantucket used only for depasturing shall not 10 be subject to this section.

1 Section 14. If the division line between lands of respective occupants
2 is in dispute or unknown, the fence viewers may designate a line on which 3 the fence shall be built, and may employ a surveyor therefor; and such 4 line shall, for the purpose of maintaining a fence, be deemed the division
5 line between such lands until it is determined that the true line is in 6 another place, and until so determined all laws relative to the erection,
7 maintenance and protection of fences shall be applicable to the fence
8 erected or to be erected on such line.

1 Section 15. If it is determined that the true division line is in an-
2 other place, each occupant shall remove his part of the fence to, and 3 rebuild the same on such line; and in case of neglect or refusal by either
4 to remove and rebuild his share thereof, the other may apply to the fence
5 viewers, who shall view the premises and assign a time within which the 6 fence shall be removed and rebuilt, and shall give the delinquent party
7 notice thereof; and if such party does not remove and rebuild the fence
8 within the time so assigned, the other party may remove and rebuild the 9 same and recover double the expense thereof, with the fees of the fence 10 viewers, to be ascertained and recovered in the manner provided in sec-11 tion five.

1 Section 16. If the line upon which a partition fence is to be made or 2 divided is a boundary line of a town or is partly in one and partly in 3 another town, a fence viewer shall be taken from each place.

1 Section 17. A water fence, or fence running into the water, shall 2 unless otherwise agreed by the parties, be built by them in equal shares;
3 and they shall have like remedies as in case of partition fences.

1 Section 18. Fence viewers, when called upon to act under any sec-
2 tion of this chapter, may determine whether a partition fence is required.

1 Section 19. A fence viewer who, when requested, unreasonably 2 neglects to perform any duty required of him in this chapter shall for 3 feit five dollars, to be recovered in tort to the use of the town, or on com-
Section 20. Each fence viewer shall be paid at the rate of five dollars a day for the time during which he is employed, but his fee for services in any one case shall not be less than one dollar. Such payment shall be made by all or by such of the parties in dispute, and in such proportions, as shall be determined by a certificate in writing under the hands of the fence viewers acting in each case. If any person required to pay the whole or any portion of said fees neglects to pay the fence viewers within thirty days after the certificate has been delivered, they may recover in tort double the amount of the fees due from such delinquent person.

Spite fences.

Section 21. A fence or other structure in the nature of a fence which unnecessarily exceeds six feet in height and is maliciously erected or maintained for the purpose of annoying the owners or occupants of adjoining property shall be deemed a private nuisance. Any such owner or occupant injured in the comfort or enjoyment of his estate thereby may have an action of tort for damages under chapter two hundred and forty-three.

Pounds and impounding of cattle. Field drivers.

Section 22. Each town may provide and maintain one or more pounds. The mayor or selectmen may appoint a pound keeper for each pound and one or more field drivers for the town.

Section 23. Whoever wilfully injures a pound shall be punished by a fine of not more than fifty dollars or by imprisonment for not more than three months.

Section 24. Every field driver shall take up horses, mules, asses, neat cattle, sheep, goats or swine going at large in the public ways, or on common and unimproved land within his town and not under the care of a keeper; and any other inhabitant of the town may take up such cattle or beasts so going at large on Sunday, and for taking up such beasts on said day the field driver or such other inhabitant of the town may in tort recover for each beast the same fees which the field driver is entitled to receive for taking up like beasts.

Section 25. Beasts so taken up by a field driver or such inhabitant shall be forthwith impounded, and while so impounded shall be furnished with suitable food and water.
Section 26. The field driver shall be entitled to ten cents each for sheep and goats and fifty cents each for other beasts so taken up by him, and the pound keeper shall be entitled to four cents each for animals impounded in the pound; but if more than ten sheep are taken up at the same time, the fees of the field driver for all above that number shall be only five cents each.

Section 27. The pound keeper shall not deliver to the owner any beast so impounded until the owner pays him his fees, the expense of keeping the beasts, and the fees of the field driver, which, when received, he shall pay to the field driver.

Section 28. Beasts taken up by a field driver in a town which adopts this section or has adopted corresponding provisions of earlier laws may be impounded on his own premises; and for the purposes of this chapter he shall be considered a pound keeper, and such place on his premises shall be considered a town pound relative to beasts therein impounded.
5 Greenl. 356. 6 Mass. 90. 10 Mass. 33. 21 Pick. 55.

Section 29. If a person is injured in his land by horses, mules, asses, neat cattle, sheep, goats or swine, he may recover his damages in an action against the owner of the beasts or by distrainting the beasts doing the damage and proceeding therewith as hereinafter directed; but if the beasts were lawfully on the adjoining lands and escaped therefrom through neglect of the person injured to maintain his part of the division fence the owner shall not be liable nor the beasts distrainted.
5 Greenl. 356. 6 Mass. 90. 10 Mass. 33. 21 Pick. 55.

Section 30. Beasts so distrainted shall be impounded in the pound or in some suitable place under the immediate care and inspection of the distraintor, and he shall furnish them with suitable food and water while they remain impounded.

Section 31. If the beasts are impounded in the pound, the distraintor shall leave with the pound keeper a memorandum in writing, under his hand, stating the cause of impounding and the amount which he demands from the owner for the damage done by them, and also for the daily charges of feeding them; and if they are impounded in any other place, his shall be demand give a like memorandum to the owner.

Section 32. The pound keeper shall not deliver the beasts to the owner until his fees, the amount so demanded by the distraintor for the damages and charges aforesaid, the expense, if any, of advertising, and all other legal costs and expenses have been paid to him.

CHAPTER 50.

GENERAL PROVISIONS RELATIVE TO PRIMARIES, CAUCUSES AND ELECTIONS.

DETERMINATION OF RESULTS.

2. Results of elections, how determined.

PROVISIONS AFFECTING CONSTRUCTION OF STATUTES.

3. Elections in cities to be on Tuesdays.

4. Time, how computed in election laws.

5. Posting of lists, notices, etc.

SECTION 1. Terms used in chapters fifty to fifty-seven, inclusive, shall be construed as follows, unless a contrary intention clearly appears:

“Aldermen” or “board of aldermen” shall include the board of election commissioners or election commission of any city having such a board or commission, as to all matters coming within the scope of their powers and duties, and as to such matters shall not apply to the city council of such city.

“Caucus” shall apply to any public meeting of the voters of a precinct, ward or town, held under the laws relating to caucuses.
"Caucus officers" shall apply to chairmen, wardens, secretaries, clerks and inspectors, and, when on duty, to additional officers appointed or elected, or elected to fill a vacancy, and taking part in the conduct of caucuses. "City clerk" shall include the board of election commissioners or election commission of any city having such a board or commission, with reference to all matters coming within the scope of their powers and duties, and as to such matters shall not apply to the city clerk of such city. "City election" shall apply to any election held in a city at which a city officer is to be chosen by the voters, whether for a full term or for the filling of a vacancy. "Convention" shall apply only to a meeting of delegates duly chosen in primaries or caucuses, representing two or more subdivisions of the district for which the convention is held. "Direct plurality vote" shall mean the highest total vote, determined according to section two, received for a nomination at the primaries or caucuses in an entire electoral district. "Election" shall apply to the choice by the voters of any public officer and to the taking of a vote upon any question by law submitted to the voters. "Election officer" shall apply to wardens, clerks, inspectors and ballot clerks, and to their deputies when on duty, and also to selectmen, town clerks, moderators and tellers when taking part in the conduct of elections. "Listing board", a board established by special law in a particular city or town to prepare lists of persons voting age resident in the city or town and perform certain other duties in connection with said lists. "Majority", with reference to a question on the ballot, shall mean more than half of those voting upon the question. "Mayor" or "mayor and aldermen" shall include the board of election commissioners or election commission of any city having such a board or commission, with reference to all matters coming within the scope of their powers and duties, and as to such matters shall not apply to the mayor or city council of such city. "Municipal party" shall apply to a party, not a political party as to state elections or state primaries, which at the preceding city or town election polled for mayor or a selectman at least three per cent of the entire vote cast in the city or town for that office, or, in a city, which files with the city clerk, at least sixty days before the annual or biennial municipal election, a petition to be allowed to place nominations of such party on the official ballot, signed in person by a number of registered voters of the city equal to at least three per cent of the entire vote polled in the city for mayor at the preceding election. "Official ballot" shall mean a ballot prepared for any primary, caucus or election by public authority and at public expense. "Political committee" shall apply only to a committee elected as provided in chapter fifty-two, except that in chapter fifty-five it shall also apply, subject to the exception contained in section thirty-eight thereof, to every other committee or combination of five or more voters of the commonwealth who shall aid or promote the success or defeat of a political party or principle in a public election or shall favor or oppose the adoption or rejection of a question submitted to the voters.
“Political party” shall apply to a party which at the preceding biennial state election polled for governor at least three per cent of the entire vote cast in the commonwealth for that office; but when a candidate for governor receives two or more nominations for that office 64 “political party” shall apply only to a party which made a nomination 67 at the preceding state primary and which in said primary polled at least 68 three per cent of the entire vote for nomination for governor therein cast 69 in the commonwealth. With reference to municipal elections and primaries and caucuses for the nomination of city and town officers, “political party” shall include a municipal party.

“Presiding officer” shall apply to the warden or chairman at a caucus, 73 to the warden, chairman of the selectmen, moderator, temporary moderator or town clerk in charge of a polling place at a primary or election, 75 or to a justice of the peace acting as moderator at a town meeting, or, in the absence of any such officer, to the deputy warden or the clerk or senior inspector or senior selectman present who shall have charge of a polling place.

“Primary” shall apply to a joint meeting of political or municipal parties held under the laws relating to primaries.

“Registrars” or “registrars of voters” shall mean the board of registrars of voters of a city or town, and shall include the board of election commissioners or election commission of any city having such a board or commission, with reference to all matters coming within the scope of their powers and duties. “Registrar” shall, when applicable, mean a member of any of said boards.

“State election” shall apply to any election at which a national, state, or county officer is to be chosen by the voters, whether for a full term or for the filling of a vacancy.

“State officer” shall apply to any person to be chosen at a state election.

“Town” shall not include city.

“Two leading political parties” shall apply to the political parties which elected the highest and next highest number of members of the general court at the preceding biennial state election.

“Voter” shall mean a registered voter.

“Written acceptance” shall mean acceptance signed personally or by attorney duly authorized in writing.

DETERMINATION OF RESULTS.

SECTION 2. In elections, the person receiving the highest number of votes for an office shall be deemed and declared to be elected to such office; and if two or more are to be elected to the same office, the several persons, to the number to be chosen to such office, receiving the highest number of votes, shall be deemed and declared to be elected; but persons receiving the same number of votes shall not be deemed to be elected if thereby a greater number would be elected than are to be chosen. This section shall apply to all nominations and elections by ballot at primaries or caucuses.
PROVISIONS AFFECTING CONSTRUCTION OF STATUTES.

1 Section 3. All elections in cities which by charter or statute are to be held on a Monday shall be held on the following Tuesday.

1874, 376, § 53. 1899, 423, § 142. 1898, 548, § 2. 1907, 560, § 3.

Section 4. In computing the period of time prescribed in any statute relating to primaries, caucuses or elections, Sundays and holidays shall generally be included; but when the last day of such period falls on a Sunday or on a holiday, the following day shall be considered the final day of such period; and when the first day of such period falls on a Sunday or on a holiday, the day preceding shall be considered the first day of the period. Whenever the day designated for a primary, caucus or election is a holiday, said primary, caucus or election shall be held nine days on the following day.

Section 5. All lists, notices and copies of laws relating to primaries or elections, required to be posted, shall be posted at the same places with the voting lists, or as near as may be there to.

Posting of lists, notices, etc. to thereto.

Section 6. Laws from time to time in force relating particularly to any city or town shall prevail where they are in conflict with the provisions of chapters fifty-one to fifty-seven, inclusive; but, except as otherwise provided by any such law, said chapters and all other statutes in any way concerning the right to vote at primaries, caucuses or elections, or its exercise, or matters incidental thereto, shall apply to such city or town, in addition to the laws particularly applicable thereto.

Application of laws relating particularly to an city or town.

1918, 277, § 12; 1919, 5.

POWER OF ALDERMEN OR SELECTMEN TO MAKE REGULATIONS.

Section 7. Boards of aldermen or selectmen may make regulations consistent with law relative to the use of ballot boxes and seals, counting and other apparatus, the receiving of ballots and the counting and returning of votes.

Ballot boxes, etc. Regulations as to use.

1898, 548, § 8.

PREJUDICATION OF REGULARITY IN CRIMINAL CASES.

Section 8. In any criminal prosecution for the violation of any law relating to the assessment, qualification or registration of voters, to voting lists or ballots or matters pertaining thereto, to primaries, caucuses or elections or matters pertaining thereto, the presumption shall be that every proceeding or official act was valid, regular and formal; but evidence may be introduced either to rebut or support the presumption. As to an alleged election or primary, the testimony of the city or town clerk, and as to an alleged caucus, the testimony of the presiding officer, secretary or clerk thereof, that such election, primary or caucus was held, shall be prima facie evidence that the same was regularly and duly held.

Presumption in criminal cases that registration, elections, etc., was regular.

1 Section 1. Every citizen twenty-one years of age or older, not being a pauper or person under guardianship and not being temporarily or permanently disqualified by law because of corrupt practices in respect to elections, who can read the constitution of the commonwealth in English and write his name, and who has resided in the commonwealth one year and in the city or town where he claims a right to vote six months last preceding a state, city or town election, and who has complied with the requirements of this chapter, may have his name entered on the list of voters in such city or town, and may vote therein in any such election or, except in so far as restricted in any town in which a representative town meeting form of government has been established, in any meeting held for the transaction of town affairs. No other person shall have his name entered upon the list of voters or have the right to vote; except that no person who is prevented from reading or writing as aforesaid by a physical disability, or who had the right to vote on May first, eighteen hundred and fifty-seven, shall, if otherwise qualified, be deprived of the right to vote by reason of not being able so to read or write; and no person who, having served in the army or navy of the United States in time of war, has been honorably discharged from such service, if otherwise qualified to vote, shall be disqualified therefrom on account of receiving or having received aid from any city or town, or because he is exempted by section five of chapter fifty-nine from the assessment of a poll tax; and no person otherwise qualified to vote for national or state officers shall, by reason of a change of residence within the commonwealth, be disqualified from voting for such officers in the city or town from which he has removed his residence until the expiration of six months from such removal. A married woman dwelling 28 or having her home separate and apart from her husband shall for the purpose of voting and registration thereof be deemed to reside at the 30 place where she dwells or has her home.

1 Section 2. If the name of a female who is duly registered as a voter is changed by marriage or by decree of court, her right to vote in her former name shall continue until April first next following.

1 Section 3. A person qualified to vote in a city or town divided into wards or voting precincts shall be registered and may vote in the ward or voting precinct in which he resided on April first preceding the election, or, if he became an inhabitant of such city or town after said April first, in the ward or voting precinct in which he first became a resident.

ASSESSMENT OF POLL TAXES AND LISTS OF PERSONS ASSESSED.

Section 4. Except as otherwise provided by law, the assessors, assistant assessors, or one or more of them, shall annually, in April or May, visit every building in their respective cities and towns and, after diligent inquiry, shall make true lists containing, as nearly as they can ascertain, the name, age, occupation, and residence on April first in the current year, and the residence on April first in the preceding year, of every male person twenty years of age or older, residing in their respective cities and towns, liable to be assessed for a poll tax, and of soldiers and sailors exempted from the payment of a poll tax under section five of chapter fifty-nine; and, except in cities and towns having listing boards, shall also make true lists containing the same facts relative to every woman twenty years of age or older residing in their respective cities and towns.

Any inmate of the soldiers' home in Chelsea shall have the same right as any other resident of that city to be assessed and to vote therein.

The assessors shall, upon the personal application of an assessed or listed person for the correction of any error in their original lists, and whenever informed of any such error, make due investigation, and, upon proof thereof, correct the same on their books. When informed of the omission of the name of a person who is averred to have lived in the city or town on April first in the current year, and to have been assessed, or listed as provided in this section, there in the preceding year, they shall make due investigation, and, upon proof thereof, add the name to their books, and, except in cities and towns having listing boards, give immediate notice thereof to the registrars of voters. They shall preserve for two years all applications, certificates and affidavits received by them under this section.

[Penalty for failure to give name or information to assessor, etc., Chap. 56, § 5; for giving false information, Chap. 56, § 6; for falsifying list, Chap. 56, §§ 1, 2.]

Section 5. The assessors, except in cities and towns having listing boards, shall, before June fifteenth in each year, transmit to the registrars of voters the lists required by the preceding section, or certified copies thereof, and shall promptly transmit to the registrars and to the collector of taxes notice of every addition to and correction in the lists made by them. Every assessor, assistant assessor and collector of taxes shall furnish all information in his possession necessary to aid the registrars in the performance of their duties.

Section 6. Except in cities and towns having listing boards, the assessors of cities on or before June fifteenth in each year, and the assessors of towns on or before July first in each year, shall prepare lists containing the names of all persons listed by them under section four for the current year. Such lists shall be arranged in cities by streets, and in towns by streets or alphabetically by the names of the persons listed, and in cities and in towns of over five thousand inhabitants according to the latest national or state census, by the smallest subdivision of the city or town for the purpose of voting. The assessors in cities and in such towns shall print such lists in pamphlet form, shall deliver to the registrars as many copies thereof as they may require, and shall hold the remaining copies 12. For public distribution. In every other town, the assessors shall cause 1915, 91, § 3.
13. Such lists to be conspicuously posted on or before July first in each year in 1917, 29, § 3.
14. Two or more public places therein. 106, § 3.

1. Section 7. Except in cities and towns having listing boards, the assessors shall name or designate in such street lists all buildings used as residences, in their order on the street where they are located, by giving the number or other definite description of each building so that it can be readily identified, and shall place opposite to or under each number or other description of a building the name, age and occupation of every person residing therein on April first of the current year who is listed under section four, and his residence on April first of the preceding year.
1918, 282, § 4. 1925, 146.

1. Section 8. If a male resident in a city or town, except in one having a listing board, on April first was not assessed for a poll tax, or if an exempted soldier or sailor or a woman in such a city or town was not listed under section four, such person shall, in order to establish his right to be assessed or listed, present to the assessors before the close of registration a sworn statement that he was on said day a resident of such city or town, and a sworn list of his polls and estate. If the assessors are satisfied that such statement is true, they shall assess or list him, as the case may be,
and give him a certificate thereof.

460.[Penalty for false affidavit, Chap. 56, § 7.]

1. Section 9. A person who becomes a resident of a city or town, except one having a listing board, after April first and desires to be registered as a voter shall present to the assessors a sworn statement that he became a resident therein at least six months preceding the election at which he claims the right to vote. If the assessors are satisfied that such statement is true, they shall give him a certificate that he became a resident therein as aforesaid, and shall forthwith notify the registrars of voters of the city or town, if in the commonwealth, where such person resided on April 9, first, that they have given such certificate.
1918, 282, § 5. 1923, 131, § 9.

[Penalty for false affidavit, Chap. 56, § 7.]

1. Section 10. The assessors shall hold such day and such evening sessions as may be necessary to carry out the provisions of the two preceding sections.
1913, 835, §§ 21, 503.

1. Section 11. The assessors, except in cities and towns having listing boards, shall enter the name and residence of each person assessed or certified under section eight or section nine in a book provided therefor.

SECTION 14. The city or town clerk or other officer having charge of the registration of deaths in each city or town shall, on the first day of every month, and also two days before every election, transmit to the registrars of voters a list of the names of all residents thereof twenty-one years of age or older who died in the preceding month or since the date of the list previously transmitted, with a statement of the ward, street and number therein, if any, where such person resided at his death.

SECTION 14A. In any city which accepts this section by vote of its city council, in the making of lists under sections four to fourteen, inclusive, the board of assessors may, with the approval of the mayor, have the assistance of the police department in visiting buildings and residences and performing the duties of assistant assessors in securing the information required by said sections.

SECTION 15. Except as provided in sections sixteen and seventeen, there shall be in every city, other than one having a board of election commissioners or an election commission, and in every town a board of registrars of voters consisting of the city or town clerk and three other persons who shall, in a city, be appointed by the mayor, with the approval of the aldermen, and in a town, by a writing signed by the selectmen and filed with the town clerk. When a board of registrars is first appointed, the registrars shall be appointed in February or March for terms respectively of one, two and three years, beginning with April first following.
In February or March in every year after the original appointment, one registrar shall be appointed for the term of three years, beginning with April first following.

246 Mass. 572.

REGISTRARS OF VOTERS.

SECTION 16. In every town having less than six hundred voters registered for the biennial state election, the selectmen and the town clerk may, if the selectmen so vote, constitute a board of registrars of voters; but when six hundred voters shall be so registered, a board of registrars shall in the following year be appointed as provided in the preceding section, and shall continue to perform the duties of registration until the number of voters so registered for two successive biennial state elections shall be less than six hundred, whereupon, on April first following such second biennial state election, if the selectmen so vote, such board shall cease to exist and thereafter the selectmen and town clerk shall constitute a board of registrars of voters.
1. Section 17. In every city, other than one having a board of election commissioners or an election commission, which, by vote of the city council, approved by the mayor, accepts the provisions of this section, or has accepted corresponding provisions of earlier laws, or which is now subject to similar provisions of law, there shall be a board of registrars of voters, consisting of four persons, who shall be appointed by the mayor with the approval of the board of aldermen. When a board of registrars is first appointed after the acceptance of the provisions aforesaid, two registrars shall be appointed in February or March following such acceptance for terms respectively of three and four years, beginning with April first next ensuing. The city clerk of such city shall cease to be a member of the board of registrars on April first, but the remaining two members of the existing board of registrars whose terms do not then expire shall continue to hold office for their respective terms of one and two years. In February or March of every year after such first appointments, there shall in like manner be appointed one registrar of voters for the term of four years, beginning with April first following.
The board so constituted shall annually in April organize by electing one of its members as clerk, who shall perform all the duties of a city clerk when acting as clerk of the board of registrars.

1. Section 18. In the original and in each succeeding appointment and in filling vacancies, registrars of voters shall be so appointed that the 3 members of the board shall, as equally as may be, represent the two leading political parties, and in no case shall an appointment be so made as to cause a board to have more than two members, including the city or town clerk, of the same political party.

1. Section 19. If, upon written complaint to the mayor or to the 2 selectmen, it shall appear, after notice and hearing, that the city or town
3 clerk, when a member of the board of registrars, and two registrars are 4 of the same political party, the mayor or selectmen, as the case may be,
5 shall remove from office the one of such two registrars having the shorter term. If, upon like proceedings, it shall appear, after notice and hearing, that a registrar of voters, other than the city or town clerk, has 8 ceased to act with the political party which he was appointed to repre-
9 sent, the mayor or selectmen, as the case may be, shall remove him 10 from office.

1. Section 20. If a member of the board of registrars shall be unable 2 to perform the duties of his office, or shall, at the time of any meeting
3 of said board, be absent from the city or town, the mayor or selectmen
4 may, upon the request in writing of a majority of the remaining members
5 of the board, appoint in writing some person to fill such temporary 6 vacancy, who shall be of the same political party as the member whose 7 position he is appointed to fill. Such temporary registrar shall perform
8 the duties and be subject to the requirements and penalties provided 9 by law for a registrar of voters.

1. Section 21. Each registrar shall, unless sooner removed, hold his 2 office for the term for which he is appointed and until his successor is 3 qualified.
Section 22. The registrars in cities may appoint assistant registrars for the term of one year, beginning with April first, unless sooner removed by the registrars, and they shall, as nearly as may be, equally represent the different political parties. Assistant registrars shall be subject to the same obligations and penalties as registrars. Registrars may remove an assistant registrar, and may fill a vacancy for the remainder of the term. Except in the city of Boston, persons appointed to serve temporarily as assistant registrars shall not be subject to chapter thirty-one.

Section 23. The registrars and assistant registrars shall, before entering upon their official duties, each take and subscribe an oath faithfully to perform the same. They shall receive such compensation for their services as the city council or selectmen may determine; but such compensation shall not be regulated by the number of names registered by them, and a reduction of compensation shall apply only to registrars and assistant registrars appointed thereafter. The city council or selectmen shall provide them suitable rooms, and necessary assistance. The city or town clerk, when a member of the board of registrars, shall act as clerk thereof, shall keep a full and accurate record of its proceedings and shall cause such notices as the registrars may require to be properly given.

Section 24. The registrars may cause the duties devolving upon a single registrar to be performed by one or two assistant registrars, and, if two are designated for such duties, they shall be, so far as practicable, of different political parties. The registrars shall make suitable regulations governing the assistant registrars, whose doings shall be subject to their revision and acceptance.

Section 25. No person shall be appointed a registrar or assistant registrar who is not a voter of the city or town for which he is appointed, who holds an office in the city or town for which he is appointed either by election or by direct appointment of the mayor or of the selectmen, or who holds an office by election or appointment under the government of the United States or of the commonwealth, except as a justice of the peace, notary public, or officer of the state militia. The acceptance by a registrar or assistant registrar of any such office shall vacate his office as registrar or assistant registrar.

Sessions for registration.

Section 26. The registrars, for the purpose of registering voters in the manner hereinafter provided, shall hold such day and such evening sessions as the town by by-law or the city by ordinance shall prescribe, and such other sessions as they deem necessary; but, except as provided in sections thirty-four and fifty, there shall be no registration of voters between ten o'clock in the evening on the twentieth day preceding, and the day following, the biennial state primary and the biennial state election, nor in any city between ten o'clock in the evening on the twentieth day preceding and the day following the city election, nor in any town between ten o'clock in the evening on the Wednesday next but

DUTIES OF REGISTRARS.

SECTION 33. Any registrar, at a place appointed for registration, on the days and during the hours designated for the purpose, may receive applications for registration and examine on oath applicants and witnesses; but all doings of one registrar shall be subject to the revision and acceptance of the board.

1913, 835, §§ 40, 503.

SECTION 34. After ten o'clock in the evening of a day on which registration is to cease, the registrars shall not register any person as a voter until after the next primary or election, except that they shall furnish, or cause to be furnished, to each person waiting in line at said hour of ten o'clock for the purpose of being registered a card or slip of identification bearing such person's name and shall, before registration ceases, register such person if found qualified. The registrars may, however, enter or correct on the registers the names of persons whose qualifications as voters have been examined between March thirty-first preceding and the close of registration.

1939, 326, § 2.

SECTION 35. Except in cities and towns having listing boards, registrars shall compare all notices of omitted assessments, transmitted to them by the assessors under section four, with the annual register of voters for the previous year, and if it appears to their satisfaction that any of said omitted assessments is that of a person entitled to vote in such previous year they may before the close of registration enter such name on the current annual register. In every case they shall require the vote by virtue of which such entry or correction is made to be attested by their clerk.

1923, 131, § 11.

SECTION 36. They shall keep in general registers, records of all persons registered as qualified to vote in the city or town. They shall enter therein the name of every such voter written in full, or instead thereof the surname and first Christian name or that name by which he is generally known, written in full, and the initial of every other name which he may have, and also his age, place of birth and residence on April first preceding or at the time of becoming an inhabitant of the city or town.
8 after said day, the date of his registration and his residence at such date,
9 his occupation and the place thereof, the name and location of the court
10 which has issued to him letters of naturalization and the date thereof, 11 if he is a naturalized citizen, and any other particulars necessary to 12 identify him fully. Except in Boston, the general registers shall have 13 uniform headings in substantially the following form, and blank books
14 suitable for the purpose shall be provided at cost by the state secretary 15 to registrars applying therefor:

1 Section 37. The registrars, after April first, shall prepare an annual 2 register containing the names of all qualified voters in their city or town
3 for the current year, beginning with said day. Such names shall be ar-
4 ranged in alphabetical order, and, opposite to the name of each voter,
5 his residence on April first preceding or on any subsequent day when he 6 became an inhabitant of the city or town. The registrars shall enter in 7 the annual register every name contained in the lists transmitted to 8 them by the assessors under section five, which they can identify as that 9 of a person whose name was borne on the voting list of the city or town 10 at the last preceding election or town meeting, giving the residence of 11 each such person on April first, which, in the case of a person assessed a 12 poll tax, shall be the place at which he was so assessed. They shall 13 make all inquiries and investigations necessary to identify such person, 14 and they shall not enter in the annual register the name of a person
15 objected to by any registrar until such person has been duly notified 16 and given an opportunity to be heard. They shall forthwith enter in 17 the annual register the name of every person whose qualifications as a 18 voter have been determined by them in the current year and whose 19 name has accordingly been entered in the general register. They shall, 20 on or before the first Monday of August in each year, send notice in 21 writing to each voter of the preceding year whose name has not been 22 entered in the annual register of the current year that the name of such 23 voter has not been so entered, such notice to be sent by first class mail
24 enclosed in an envelope bearing the proper address to which the same 25 may be returned in case of non-delivery, and the registrars shall prepare 26 a list of the names of voters not so entered, which shall be open to public 27 inspection in their principal office, or shall be posted by copy in the 28 places where copies of voting lists are required to be posted under section 29 fifty-seven of chapter fifty-one. This section shall not apply to cities 30 and towns having listing boards.

Section 38. The registrars shall revise and correct the general register and the current annual register in accordance with any facts which may be presented to them. They shall strike therefrom the name of every deceased person which has been transmitted to them under section fourteen; but after the name of a voter has been placed upon the current annual register, they shall not change the place of residence as given thereon, nor, unless the voter has died, strike such name therefrom, until they have sent him a notice of their intention so to do, naming a certain day when he may be heard.

Section 39. The registrars shall promptly transmit to the assessors notice of every error which they discover in the name or residence of a person assessed. This section shall not apply to cities and towns having listing boards.

Section 40. The registrars shall perform their duties in open session. They shall distinctly announce the name of every applicant for registration before entering his name on the general register. Their records shall at suitable times be open to public inspection.

Section 41. The registrars shall preserve all written complaints and certificates received by them, and all other documents in their custody relative to registration, for two years after the dates thereof.

Manner of Registration.

Section 42. Every person, male or female, whose name has not been entered on the annual register in accordance with section thirty-four, thirty-five or thirty-seven, or a corresponding provision of law applicable to a city or town having a listing board, must, in order to be registered, apply in person for registration and prove that he is qualified.

Male applicant to present tax bill or certificate, etc.

Section 43. Every male applicant for registration, except in cities and towns having listing boards, whose name has not been transmitted to the registrars as provided in section five, shall present a tax bill or notice from the collector of taxes, or a certificate from the assessors showing that he was assessed as a resident of the city or town on April first preceding, or a certificate that he became a resident therein at least six months preceding the election at which he claims the right to vote, and the same shall be prima facie evidence of his residence.

Examination of applicants for registration. Oath. Registration slips, etc.

Section 44. The registrars shall examine on oath an applicant for registration relative to his qualifications as a voter, and shall, unless he is prevented by physical disability, or unless he had the right to vote on May first, eighteen hundred and fifty-seven, require him to write his name in the general register and to read in such manner as to show that he is neither prompted nor reciting from memory. Registrars shall be provided by the state secretary with a copy of the constitution of the commonwealth printed in English on uniform pasteboard slips, each containing five lines of said constitution printed in type of a size not less than twenty-four point, and with a box so constructed as to conceal them from view. The registrars shall place said slips in the box, and shall require each applicant to draw one of said slips from the box and read aloud, in full view and hearing of the registrars, the five lines printed thereon. Each slip shall be returned to the box immediately after the 15 test is finished, and the contents of the box shall be shaken up by a 16 registrar before another drawing is made. No person failing to read the constitution as printed on the slip thus drawn shall be registered as a 18 voter. The registrars shall keep said slips in said box at all times. The 19 state secretary shall upon request provide new slips to replace those 20 worn out or lost.

1

1

Section 45. If an applicant for registration is a naturalized citizen, the registrars shall require him to produce for inspection his papers of naturalization, and make oath that he is the person named therein, and, if satisfied that the applicant has been legally naturalized, shall make upon his papers a memorandum of the date of such inspection.

If papers of naturalization have once been examined and record thereof made in the general register, the registrars need not again require their production.

[Penalty for false oath, etc., Chap. 56, §§ 7, 9.]

Section 46. If, upon examination, the registrars are satisfied that an applicant for registration has all the qualifications of a voter, except that of age, and that he will on or before the day of the next election or town meeting attain full age, they shall place his name upon the registrars.

Section 47. If the registrars decline to register the name of a person examined for registration and reported to them therefor by a registrar, they shall notify him of their refusal, and give him a reasonable opportunity to be heard by them upon his application. They shall upon the rejection of an applicant forthwith inform him thereof.

ILLEGAL OR INCORRECT REGISTRATION.

Section 48. Upon complaint signed and sworn to by a registered voter, and filed with the registrars at least fourteen days in a city, or at least four days in a town, before a primary, election or town meeting, stating that the complainant has reason to believe and does believe that a certain person by him therein named has been illegally or incorrectly registered, and giving the reasons for such belief, the registrars shall examine into such complaint, and if satisfied that there is sufficient ground therefor, they shall summon the person complained of to appear before them at a certain place and time before the next primary or election or town meeting to answer to the matters set forth in the complaint.

and the substance of the complaint and a copy of this and the following section shall be set forth in the summons. Service of the summons shall be made by an officer qualified to serve civil or criminal process, not more than fourteen nor less than two days before the day named for appearance, by delivering in hand a copy of the summons to the person therein named, or by leaving it at his place of residence, or, if personal service cannot be made and the person’s residence is unknown to the officer and cannot be ascertained by inquiry at the place of alleged illegal or incorrect residence or at any later residence of such person appearing on the register, then at such person’s last residence, if any, known to the officer, or, if the person’s last residence is unknown, at the last place appearing as his residence in the register. The officer shall return the summons to the registrars before the day named for appearance, with the certificate of his doings endorsed thereon.

SECTION 49. If a person summoned before the registrars to answer to such complaint appears before them, they shall examine him on oath, and shall receive other evidence which may be offered in regard to the matters set forth in the complaint, and if satisfied that he is properly registered as a qualified voter they shall enter in the register a statement of their determination upon the facts required for registration.
If the registrars are satisfied that he is not a qualified voter in the city or town, they shall strike his name from the register. If they are satisfied that, although he is a qualified voter in the city or town, he is illegally or incorrectly registered in a ward or voting precinct other than the ward or voting precinct in which he is required by section three to be registered, and have determined the ward or voting precinct in which he is so required to be registered, and his place of residence therein, they shall change his place of residence as given on the register accordingly.
If a person duly summoned as aforesaid does not appear as directed in the summons and the complainant produces sufficient testimony to make out a prima facie case, the name of the person complained of shall be struck from the register; but if such person appears before the registrars before the election or town meeting following and shows sufficient cause for his failure earlier to appear, the hearing shall be reopened and the matter decided on its merits, as determined from the evidence presented on both sides. The complainant and the person complained of may be represented by counsel, and all witnesses may be cross-examined.

SUPPLEMENTARY REGISTRATION OF SOLDIERS AND SAILORS.

SECTION 50. Any soldier or sailor in the service of the United States who had a legal residence in any city or town in the commonwealth at the time of entering said service, but who by reason of his being in the army or navy was absent from the city or town during the periods when sessions for listing or assessing and for registration were held, may appear before the city or town clerk in any city or town where such clerk is also a member of the board of registrars, and, in any other city or town, before the chairman of the board of registrars or board performing like duties therein, during the regular office hours of such clerk or chairman and, in accordance with this chapter, prove his qualifications as a voter under section one and be registered, if he so appears not less than three days before the election; but such registration shall be subject to the revision and acceptance of the board.
1 Section 51. To every person registered under the preceding section 2 the registrars shall issue a certificate, similar to that provided for in sec-
3 tion fifty-nine, entitled "Supplementary Registration: Soldier or Sailor", 4 and referring by chapter and section number to this and the preceding 5 section. Upon presentation of the certificate to the presiding officer at 6 the proper polling place, he shall have the same right to vote as any other 7 registered voter. After he has voted, the presiding officer shall attach the 8 certificate to the voting list and it shall be considered a part thereof, and 9 shall be returned to the registrars and preserved in accordance with law.

MAINTENANCE OF ORDER AND REGULARITY.

1 Section 52. A registrar shall enforce regularity in all proceedings
2 before him, maintain order in and about the place where a session is held,
3 or applications for registration are received, and keep the access thereto
4 open and unobstructed.

1893, 417, § 59.

1 Section 53. The board of police or officer in charge of the police
2 force of a city or town shall, when requested by the registrars, detail a 3 sufficient number of police officers to attend any meeting held by a regis-
4 trar in the performance of his duties, and to preserve order and enforce 5 his directions.

R. L. 11, § 58.
1907, 560, §§ 58, 456.
1913, 835, §§ 58, 503.

1 Section 54. The governor, with the advice and consent of the coun-
2 cil, shall, on the petition of not less than ten qualified voters of a city or 3 town, appoint for a term of one year two supervisors of registration for 4 each place of registration therein, one from each of the two leading politi-
5 cal parties. They shall attend all sessions or meetings for registration
6 held at the places for which they are appointed, and either of them may 7 attach to any book or papers there used for purposes of registration any 8 statement touching the truth or fairness of the proceedings which he 9 may deem proper, and may add thereto his signature or other marks for 10 the purpose of identification.

[Penalty for interference with supervisor, Chap. 56, § 11.]

VOTING LISTS.

1 Section 55. Registrars shall, from the names entered in the annual
2 register of voters, prepare voting lists for use at elections. In such voting 3 lists they shall place the names of all voters entered on the annual register,
4 and no others, and opposite to the name of each his residence on April 5 first preceding or at the time of his becoming an inhabitant of such place
6 after said day. They may enter the names of women voters in separate 7 columns or lists. In cities, they shall prepare such voting lists by wards, 8 and if a ward or a town is divided into voting precincts, they shall prepare 9 the same by precincts, in alphabetical order, or by streets. Names shall 10 be added thereto or taken therefrom as persons are found to be qualified 11 or not qualified to vote.

1913, 835, §§ 60, 503.
1920, 576, § 1.
1921, 209, § 3.
SECTION 56. They shall place at the end of the voting lists of each ward, voting precinct or town to be used at a state election, under a proper heading, the names of all persons who, by changes in city or town boundaries, are not entitled to vote for the whole number of officers to be chosen.

1907, 560, §§ 61, 456.

Section 57. They shall, at least twenty days before the annual or biennial city or town election, and except in Boston, at least sixty days before the biennial state election, cause copies of the voting lists provided for in the two preceding sections to be posted in their principal office and in one or more other public places in the city or town, and in each precinct therein. Upon application made by any state political committee organized in accordance with law, the clerk of the board of registrars shall furnish to it a copy of the voting list free of charge.

Additional names to be posted or published. 1892, 351, § 33. 1893, 417, § 65. 1896, 409, § 3. 1898, 548, § 64. R. L. 11, § 63. 1907, 560, §§ 63, 456. 1913, 835, §§ 63, 503.

Section 58. After the voting lists have been posted, registrars, within forty-eight hours after a new name has been added to the annual register, shall cause it to be added to the lists posted in their principal office. If a city or town shall authorize the registrars to publish the names added to the register, they may, instead of posting them, cause all additional names to be printed in a newspaper published in the city or town, if any, otherwise in a newspaper published in the county.

Section 59. On the day of a primary, caucus or election, registrars shall give to a voter whose name has been omitted from the voting list, or in whose name or residence, as placed on the voting list, a clerical error has been made, a certificate of his name and residence, as stated on the annual register, signed by a majority of the registrars. On presentation thereof to the presiding election officer of the ward, voting precinct or town in which the voter was registered, he shall be allowed to vote, and his name shall be checked on the certificate, which shall be attached to and considered a part of the voting list and returned and preserved therewith.

Section 60. Before every election and meeting in a city or town at which voting lists may be required to be used, registrars shall prepare such lists for each ward, voting precinct or town in which such election or meeting is to be held, containing the names and residences of all persons qualified to vote therein, as the same appear upon the annual register, and shall seasonably transmit the same to the election officers in every such precinct, ward or town. Such voting lists shall be in duplicate for all elections and meetings at which duplicate lists are required to be used.

1913, 835, §§ 65, 503.

Section 61. They shall forthwith, after the final day for registration before a biennial state or regular city or town election, certify to the state secretary the number of assessed polls, the number of registered voters, etc. 1880, 223, § 1; 423, § 46. 1913, 835, §§ 65, 503.
4 voters in the city or town, and in each ward and precinct therein, and 5 the number of persons entitled to vote for a part only of the whole
6 number of officers to be chosen at a state election in such city or town 7 and in each ward and precinct therein, with the titles of the officers for 8 whom such persons are entitled to vote.
9 In cities where the city clerk is not a member of the board of registrars,
10 the registrars shall likewise, after the last day for registration for a city 11 election, certify to the city clerk the number of registered voters in the 12 city, and in each ward and voting precinct therein.

1 Section 62. When a caucus is called, the registrars, on the request
2 of the chairman of the ward or town committee of the party whose caucus
3 is to be held or of the person designated to call the caucus to order, shall 4 furnish him for use in the caucus a certified copy of the last published
5 voting list of the town, or of the ward of the city for which the caucus 6 is to be held, adding thereto the names of voters registered since such 7 publication. Said lists, if intended for use in the caucus of a political 8 party held in a city, shall contain the party enrollment of voters whose 9 names appear thereon established as provided in sections thirty-seven 10 and thirty-eight of chapter fifty-three.

1 Section 63. In cities, after the biennial state election in nineteen 2 hundred and twenty-four, and in every tenth year thereafter, for the 3 purpose of furnishing the information necessary for a new division of the 4 city into wards and voting precincts, the registrars shall deliver to the city
5 clerk, on or before the first Tuesday after the said state election, a list 6 of all voters therein who were registered for such election, which shall 7 be so arranged as to show the number of voters residing in each ward 8 and precinct, if any, by streets. The registrars shall likewise in any 9 other year, upon request of the board of aldermen, furnish, for the pur-10 pose of dividing the ward into voting precincts, a list of the voters of 11 any ward in the city, arranged as aforesaid.

CHAPTER 52.

POLITICAL COMMITTEES.

Sect.
1. State committees. Election, terms, etc.
2. Ward and town committees. Election, terms, etc.
3. City committee.
5. Procedure on failure to elect or organize.
6. Lists of officers and members to be filed.

7. Ward committees, terms of office of members and disposition of funds upon redivision of a city into wards.
8. Organization of existing committees.
9. Number of members, etc., how fixed.
10. Committees may make rules and regulations, etc.

1 Section 1. Each political party shall, in the manner herein pro-
2 vided, elect from among its enrolled members a state committee, the 3 members of which shall hold office for two years from January first next

State committees. Election, terms, etc.

1895, 490, § 3.
Section 2. Each political party shall, in every ward and town, elect at the primaries before each biennial state election from among the enrolled members of the party a committee to be called a ward or town committee, whose members shall hold office for two years from January first following their election and until their successors have organized, except as provided in section seven.

Section 3. The members of the several ward committees of a political party in a city shall constitute the city committee.

Section 4. Each town committee shall, between January first and March first following its election, and each ward and city committee shall, within thirty days after the beginning of its term of office, meet and organize by the choice of a chairman, a secretary, a treasurer and such other officers as it may decide to elect. At such meeting the committee may add to its numbers.

Section 4A. In case there is a failure of election of a ward or town committee, the city committee or the state committee, respectively, of the political party which said ward or town committee represents shall appoint from among the voters qualified therefor the members of such committee and shall call a meeting for its organization, in such call appointing a time for holding the same and naming a person to preside thereat. If a ward committee or a city or town committee fails to meet within the time prescribed by section four and organize the city committee or the state committee, respectively, of the political party which such ward, city or town committee represents shall call a meeting for its organization, in such call appointing a time for holding the same and naming a person to preside thereat. In the event that a ward or town committee fails to meet at the time appointed as aforesaid and organize 14 the election of each of its members shall be void and the same proceed-ings shall be had as is herein provided in the case of a failure of election.

1 Section 5. The secretary of each city, ward and town committee shall, within ten days after its organization, file with the state secretary, with the city or town clerk and with the secretary of the state committee of the political party which it represents, a list of the officers and members of the committee, together with the addresses of such officers.

1 Section 6. A vacancy in the office of chairman, secretary or treasurer of a city, ward or town committee or in the membership of a ward or town committee shall be filled by such committee, and a statement of any such change shall be filed as in the case of the officers first chosen.

1 Section 7. The terms of office of the members of the ward committees of a city elected at the biennial state primary next preceding a redivision thereof into wards shall terminate on the twentieth day after the holding of the next following biennial state primary; and the terms of office of the members of the ward committees of such city elected at said next following biennial state primary shall commence on said twentieth day, or as soon thereafter as the several ward committees shall organize, which shall be within ten days after said twentieth day, and shall continue for two years from January first following their election, and until their successors shall have organized.

1 Upon the redivision of a city into wards the treasurer of each ward committee of a ward affected by such redivision shall, before the termination of office of the members thereof, pay over to the treasurer of the city committee representing the same political party such funds of the ward committee as he has in his possession after paying all bills. In the statement of accounts required under section seventeen of chapter fifty-five, the treasurer of the ward committee making such payment shall report it as a disbursement and the treasurer of the city committee receiving it shall report it as a receipt.

1 Section 8. Committees existing at the time when the party which they represent first polls for governor at a biennial state election three per cent of the entire vote cast in the commonwealth for that office shall be deemed elected under this chapter, and shall be subject to its provisions.

1 Section 9. The state committee shall fix the number of delegates to the state convention, not less than one for each ward or town. City and town committees shall fix the number of members of ward and town committee, not less than three for each ward or town. Notice of the number of delegates and members of committees to be elected shall be given by the state, city or town committee, as the case may be, to the state secretary on or before August first. In case a city or town committee fails to fix the number of the members of a ward or town committee and to give notice thereof as aforesaid to the state secretary, the number of members of such a ward or town committee to be elected shall not exceed ten.

SECTION 1. At any primary, caucus or convention held under this chapter, each party having the right to participate in or hold the same may nominate as many candidates for each office for which it has the right to make nominations therein as there are persons to be elected to that office, and no more. A party which has not polled at the preceding state or municipal election the vote required to make it a political or municipal party as defined in section one of chapter fifty, but which at the three preceding biennial elections has polled in the commonwealth, or in any district, county, city, town or ward, respectively, a number of votes for governor equal to the number of voters required to nominate by nomination papers a candidate for an office which is to be filled by election therein, may hold a caucus or convention and make a nomination for the office so to be filled. A party which makes one or more nominations shall be entitled to have the name of each of its candidates printed on the ballot to be used at the ensuing election; but, unless the nomination is made by direct plurality vote in a primary or in several caucuses held in more than one ward or in more than one precinct or group of precincts, a certificate of nomination must be filed as provided in section five.

SECTION 2. Except in the case of municipal nominations where city or town charters otherwise provide, candidates of political parties for all elective offices, except presidential elector, shall be nominated, and members of political committees and delegates to conventions shall be elected, in primaries or caucuses, and the nomination of any party other than a political party, in any district containing more than one ward or town, shall be made by a convention of delegates chosen by caucuses held under section one hundred and seventeen in the wards and towns of the district for which the nomination is to be made. All nominations and elections in primaries and caucuses shall be by direct plurality vote. No candidate shall be nominated, or political committee or convention delegate elected, in any other manner than is herein provided.

SECTION 3. A person whose name is not printed on a state primary ballot as a candidate for an office but who receives sufficient votes to 3 nominate him therefor, shall file a written acceptance of the nomination
4 in the office of the state secretary before the last hour for filing certifi-
5 cates of nomination for such office, otherwise his name shall not be printed 6 on the ballot as a candidate for that office at the ensuing state election.

1913, 516; §§ 193, 503.

1 Section 4. No convention to nominate candidates shall be called
2 for or held on a date earlier than four days after the holding of the cau-
3 cuses for the choice of delegates thereto, and all such conventions shall 4 be called for and held on a date not later than forty-eight hours prior to 5 the hour for filing certificates of nomination as provided in section ten.

1 Section 5. Every certificate of nomination shall state such facts as 2 are required by section eight and shall be signed and sworn to by the 3 presiding officer and by the secretary of the caucus or convention, who 4 shall add to their signatures their residences. The secretary shall within 5 the seventy-two hours succeeding five o'clock in the afternoon of the 6 day upon which the caucus was held or the session of the convention
7 terminated, and within the time specified in section ten, file such certifi-8 cate at the place specified in section nine.

[Penalty for forgery, etc., of certificate, Chap. 56, § 13.]

1 Section 6. Nominations of candidates for any offices to be filled
2 by all the voters of the commonwealth may be made by nomination
3 papers, stating the facts required by section eight and signed in the 4 aggregate by not less than one thousand voters. Nominations of all
5 other candidates for offices to be filled at a state election, and of all
6 candidates for offices to be filled at a city election except where city
7 charters provide otherwise, may be made by like nomination papers,
8 signed in the aggregate by two voters, in the case of offices to be filled 9 at a state election, and one voter, in the case of offices to be filled at 10 a city election, for every one hundred votes cast for governor at the 11 preceding biennial state election in the electoral district or division for 12 which the officers are to be elected, but in no event by less than fifty 13 or more than one thousand in the case of offices to be filled at a state 14 election, or by less than fifty nor more than two hundred and fifty in the 15 case of offices to be filled at a city election. Nominations of candidates 16 for offices to be filled at a town election may be made by nomination
17 papers signed in the aggregate by at least one voter for every fifty votes 18 polled for governor at the preceding biennial state election in such town, 19 but in no case by less than twenty voters. At a first election to be held
20 in a newly established ward, the number of voters upon a nomination
21 paper of a candidate who is to be voted for only in such ward need not 22 exceed fifty; and at a first election in a town the number for the nomi-
23 nation of a candidate who is to be voted for only in such town need not 24 exceed twenty.

1 Section 7. Every voter signing a nomination paper shall sign in 2 person, with his name as registered, and shall state his residence on April 3 first preceding, and the place where he is then living, with the street and 4 number, if any; but any voter who is prevented by physical disability
5 from writing or who had the right to vote on May first, eighteen hundred 6 and fifty-seven, may authorize some person to write his name and 7 primary ballot must accept nomination to have name printed on election ballot.

residence in his presence; and every voter may sign as many nomination papers for each office as there are persons to be elected thereto, and no more. Every nomination paper of a candidate for a state office and, except where otherwise provided by law, of a candidate for a city or town office shall be submitted, on or before five o'clock in the afternoon of the Friday preceding the day on which it must be filed, to the registrars of the city or town where the signers appear to be voters. In each case the registrars shall check each name to be certified by them on the nomination paper and shall forthwith certify thereon the number of signatures so checked which are names of voters both in the city or town and in the district or division for which the nomination is made, and only names so checked shall be deemed to be names of qualified voters for the purposes of nomination. The registrars need not certify a greater number of names than are required to make a nomination, increased by one fifth thereof. Names not certified in the first instance shall not thereafter be certified on the same nomination papers. The state secretary shall not be required to receive nomination papers for a candidate after receiving such papers containing a sufficient number of certified names to make a nomination, increased by one fifth thereof.

Section 8. All certificates of nomination and nomination papers shall, in addition to the names of candidates, specify as to each, (1) his residence, with street and number, if any, (2) the office for which he is nominated, and (3), except as otherwise provided in this section and in city charters, the party or political principle which he represents, expressed in not more than three words. Certificates of nomination made by convention or caucus shall also state what provision, if any, was made for filling vacancies caused by the death, withdrawal or Ineligibility of candidates. The names of the candidates for president and vice president of the United States may be added to the party or political designation of the candidates for presidential electors. To the name of each candidate for alderman at large shall be added the number of the ward in which he resides.

If a candidate is nominated otherwise than by a political party, the name of a political party shall not be used in his political designation. Certificates of nomination and nomination papers for town offices need not include a designation of the party or principle which the candidate represents.

Section 9. Certificates of nomination and nomination papers for state offices shall be filed with the state secretary. Certificates of nomination or nomination papers for city and town offices shall be filed with the city or town clerk. Every nomination paper shall be filed by a responsible person, who shall sign such paper and add to his signature his place of residence, giving street and number, if any; and the state secretary or the city or town clerk shall require a satisfactory identification of such person. No nomination paper shall be received or be valid unless the written acceptance of the candidate thereby nominated shall be filed therewith.

Section 10. Certificates of nomination of candidates for offices to be filled by all the voters of the commonwealth, except for presidential electors, shall be filed on or before the seventh Monday, and of all other 4 candidates for offices to be filled at a state election, including presidential electors, on or before the fifth Thursday, and nomination papers 5 of all candidates for offices to be filled at a state election, on or before the 7 twelfth Tuesday, preceding the day of the election; but if there is a 8 special election to fill any state office, certificates of nomination shall be 9 filed on or before the twelfth day, and nomination papers on or before 10 the eleventh day, preceding the day of such election.

11 In cities, except in Boston and where city charters provide otherwise, 12 certificates of nomination for city offices shall be filed on or before the 13 third Monday, and nomination papers on or before the second Wednesday, preceding the day of the election.

15 In towns, certificates of nomination for town offices shall be filed on or 16 before the second Wednesday, and nomination papers on or before the 17 second Thursday, preceding the day of the election; but if such Wednesday or Thursday falls on a legal holiday, the said certificates of nomination or nomination papers shall be filed on or before the succeeding day;
20 but if a town election is held on a day of the week other than Monday, 21 such certificates of nomination and nomination papers shall be filed, 22 respectively, on the twelfth and eleventh days preceding the day of the 23 election.

24 Certificates of nomination and nomination papers shall be filed before 25 five o'clock in the afternoon of the last day fixed therefor.

1889, 413, § 6. 1901, 74, § 2. 1893, 417, § 83.

1 Section 11. When certificates of nomination and nomination papers
2 have been filed, and are in apparent conformity with law, they shall be 3 valid unless written objections thereto are made. Such objections shall 4 be filed as to state offices with the state secretary, and as to city or town
5 offices with the city or town clerk, and in the case of state offices within 6 the seventy-two week day hours, in the case of city offices, except where 7 city charters provide otherwise, within the forty-eight week day hours,
8 and in the case of town offices within the twenty-four week day hours,
9 succeeding five o'clock in the afternoon of the last day fixed for filing,
10 the certificate of nomination or nomination papers to which objections 11 are made.

1 Section 12. Objections to nominations for state offices, and all
2 other questions relating thereto, shall be considered by the state ballot
3 law commission; to nominations for city offices, except in Boston, by 4 the board of registrars, the city clerk and the city solicitor; and to 5 nominations for town offices, by the board of registrars.

6 Boards in cities and towns may, at hearings on such objections and 7 questions, summon witnesses, administer oaths and require the produc-
8 tion of books and papers. Such witnesses shall be summoned in the 9 same manner, be paid the same fees, and be subject to the same penalties 10 for default, as witnesses before the superior court. A summons may be 11 signed, and an oath may be administered by any member of such board, 12 and the decision of the board shall be final.

13 When such objection has been filed, notice thereof shall be forthwith
14 mailed by the state secretary, or by the city or town clerk, as the case
15 may be, to the candidates affected thereby, addressed to their residences as given in the certificates of nomination or nomination papers, and to any party committee interested in the nomination to which objection is made.

If more candidates bearing the same designation are nominated for an office, otherwise than by nomination papers, than are to be elected thereto, such boards shall determine the candidates, if any, entitled to such designation.

SECTION 13. A person nominated as a candidate for any state, city or town office may withdraw his name from nomination by a request signed and duly acknowledged by him, and filed with the officer with whom the nomination was filed, within the time prescribed by section eleven for filing objections to certificates of nomination and nomination papers.

[Penalty for forgery, etc., of withdrawal, Chap. 56, § 13.]

SECTION 14. If a candidate nominated for a state, city or town office dies before the day of election, or withdraws his name from nomination, or is found ineligible, the vacancy, except for city offices where city charter provides otherwise, may be filled by the same political party or persons who made the original nomination, and in the same manner; or, if the time is insufficient therefor, the vacancy may be filled, if the nomination was made by a convention or caucus, in such manner as the convention or caucus may have prescribed, or, if no such provision has been made, by a regularly elected general or executive committee representing the political party or persons who held such convention or caucus. In the event of the withdrawal or death of any candidate of a political party nominated by direct nomination for any office, the vacancy may be filled by a regularly elected general or executive committee representing the election district in which such vacancy occurs, or, if no such committee exists by the members of the town committee in any town comprising such district, by the members of the ward committee or committees in the ward or wards comprising such district if within the limits of a single city, or by delegates chosen as hereinafter provided by and from the members of the ward and town committees in the wards and towns comprising such district if within the limits of more than one municipality, at a meeting to be called by such a member or delegate, as the case may be, designated by the chairman of the state committee, and such member or delegate shall preside until a chairman of such meeting is elected. Each ward and town committee in the wards and towns comprising such a district within the limits of one municipality shall, as occasions arise, choose from its members delegates to fill vacancies as hereinafter provided, in such manner as it may determine by its rules and regulations, to a number not exceeding one for each five hundred votes, or fraction thereof, cast in its ward or town for the candidate of the party for governor at the last state election, and shall forthwith notify the state secretary of the delegates so chosen. If a vacancy is caused by withdrawal, certificates of nomination made otherwise than in the original manner shall be filed within seventy-two week day hours in the case of state offices, or within forty-eight day hours in the case of city or town offices, succeeding five o'clock in the afternoon of the last day for filing withdrawals. They shall be open to objections in the same manner, so far as practicable, as 36 other certificates of nomination. No vacancy caused by withdrawal shall be filled before the withdrawal has been filed.

1 SECTION 15. When a nomination is made to fill a vacancy caused by the death, withdrawal or ineligibility of a candidate, the certificate of nomination shall, in addition to the other facts required, state the name of the original nominee, the fact of his death, withdrawal or ineligibility, and the proceedings had for filling the vacancy; and the presiding officer
6 and secretary of the convention or caucus, or the chairman and secretary 7 of an authorized committee, shall sign and make oath to the truth of the 8 certificate, and it shall be accompanied by the written acceptance of the 9 candidate nominated.

1893, 835, §§ 208, 503.

1 SECTION 16. Certificates of nomination, nomination papers, objections thereto and withdrawals, when filed, shall, under proper regulations, be open to public inspection, and the state secretary and the city and town clerks shall preserve the same in their offices for one year.

1890, 385, § 6; 436, § 8.
1893, 417, § 85.
1898, 548, § 151.
1907, 560, §§ 183, 456.
1913, 835, §§ 209, 503.

1 SECTION 17. The state secretary shall, upon application, provide blank forms for the nomination of candidates for all state offices; and he shall send blank forms for certificates of nomination for the office of representative in the general court to the clerk of each city and town for the use of any caucus or convention other than of political parties held herein for the nomination of candidates for that office. He shall likewise provide for the nomination of candidates for town offices. The clerks of towns wherein official ballots are used with blank forms for the nomination of candidates for town offices.

QUESTIONS TO BE SUBMITTED TO THE VOTERS.

1 SECTION 18. If a proposed amendment to the federal constitution is fully submitted to the general court as provided in article five of the constitution of the United States, and is not ratified at the session at which it is submitted, there shall be submitted to all the voters of the commonwealth at the following state election, if such an election is to occur prior to the next regular session of the general court, otherwise at such special or regular state election as the general court may order, the question whether such ratification is desirable. The question shall be placed upon the official ballot in the following form: "Is it desirable that the proposed amendment to the constitution of the United States (describing the same) be ratified by the general court?" The votes cast shall be received, sorted, counted, declared and transmitted to the state secretary, laid before the governor and council, and by them opened and examined in accordance with the laws relating to votes for state officers so far as they are applicable, and the governor shall thereupon communicate to the general court the number of votes cast in the affirmative and in the negative for the proposed amendment, and likewise the same totals arranged by senatorial and representative districts.

1 SECTION 19. On an application signed by twelve hundred voters in any senatorial district, or by two hundred voters in any representative district, asking for the submission to the voters of that senatorial or representative district of any question of instructions to the senator or Questions of public policy to be submitted in certain distracts upon application.

1913, 819, § 1.
representatives from that district, and stating the substance thereof, the attorney general shall upon request of the state secretary determine whether or not such question is one of public policy, and if such question is determined to be one of public policy, the state secretary and the attorney general shall draft it in such simple, unequivocal and adequate form as shall be deemed best suited for presentation upon the ballot. Upon the fulfillment of the requirements of this and the two following sections the state secretary shall place such question on the official ballot to be used in that senatorial or representative district at the next state election.

SECTION 20. Signers of applications shall append to their signatures their residence, with street and number, if any, and shall be certified as registered voters by the proper registrars of voters. All laws relating to nomination papers shall, so far as applicable, apply to such application.

SECTION 21. Applications shall be filed with the state secretary not less than sixty days before the election at which the questions are to be submitted. Not more than two questions under section nineteen shall be placed upon the ballot at one election, and they shall be submitted in the order in which the applications are filed. No question negatived and no question substantially the same shall be submitted again in less than three years.

SECTION 22. No vote under the three preceding sections shall be regarded as an instruction under article nineteen of the bill of rights of the constitution of the commonwealth, unless the question submitted receives a majority of all the votes cast at that election.

INITIATIVE AND REFERENDUM PETITIONS.

SECTION 22A. Objections that signatures appearing on an initiative or referendum petition have been forged or placed thereon by fraud and that in consequence thereof the petition has not been signed by a sufficient number of qualified voters actually supporting such petition, as required by the constitution, may be filed with the state secretary not later than the sixtieth day prior to the election at which the measure therein proposed or the law which is the subject of the petition is to be submitted to the voters, except that, if a referendum petition is lawfully filed after the sixty-third day prior to said election, such objections may be filed not later than seventy-two week day hours succeeding five o'clock of the day on which such petition is so filed. If upon hearing or otherwise it appears to the state secretary that there is substantial evidence supporting such objections, he shall refer the same to the state ballot law commission, which shall investigate the same, and for such purpose may exercise all the powers conferred upon it relative to objections to nominations for state offices, and if it shall appear to said commission that the objections have been sustained it shall forthwith reject the petition as not in conformity with the constitution and shall notify the state secretary of its action.

PROVISIONS APPLYING TO ALL PRIMARIES.

SECTION 23. Sections twenty-four to forty, inclusive, shall apply to all primaries, except as therein otherwise provided.
1 Section 24. Primaries shall be subject to all laws relating to elections and corrupt practices therein, so far as applicable and except as otherwise provided in this chapter and in chapters fifty-four, fifty-five and fifty-six.

1908, 423, § 2. 1913, 835, §§ 93, 98, 503. 250 Mass. 188.

1 Section 25. Withdrawals of nominations of persons to be voted for at primaries shall be subject to section thirteen, except that the date from which the time for filing withdrawals shall be computed shall be the last day for filing nomination papers for such primaries, and that the time shall be forty-eight hours in the case of a town primary.

1 Section 26. Section eleven shall apply to nomination papers of candidates to be voted for at primaries, except that the date from which the time for filing objections shall be computed shall be the last day for filing nomination papers for such primaries.

1 Section 27. Objections to nomination papers of candidates to be voted for at primaries shall be subject to section twelve, so far as applicable.

1 Section 28. State primaries shall be held on the seventh Tuesday preceding state elections, city primaries on the third Tuesday preceding city elections, town primaries on the second Tuesday preceding town elections, and presidential primaries on the last Tuesday in April; except that primaries before a special election shall be held on the second Tuesday preceding the special election.

 Except in Boston, they shall be held wholly or partly by wards, precincts or towns, as the aldermen or selectmen may designate.

1926, 96.

1 Section 29. The city or town clerk may designate two inspectors and two deputy inspectors, representing the two leading political parties, to serve at primaries, and from the whole body of election officers he may designate officers equally representing the two leading political parties to serve as tellers in any precinct or ward during part of the day for the purpose of receiving ballots, checking names, or canvassing and counting votes, such tellers to receive such part of a full day's compensation of election officers as the aldermen or selectmen may determine.

1 Section 30. In wards or towns where voting is by precincts at elections but by wards or towns at primaries, the city or town clerk shall designate which of the election officers shall serve as primary officers.

1913, 835, §§ 101, 503.

1 Section 31. A person shall not be ineligible to act as a primary officer because he is a candidate for delegate to a convention, or, except in Boston, a candidate for or member of a ward or town committee.

Penalty for misconduct of officers. Chap. 56, § 15.

Certain persons not ineligible as primary officers. 1903, 454, § 8.
Section 32. Ballots shall be prepared and provided, and the number thereof determined, in state and presidential primaries by the state secretary, in city and town primaries by the city or town clerk. No other ballots shall be received or counted, except that if ballots provided for a state or presidential primary are not delivered, or after delivery lost, destroyed or stolen, ballots similar as far as possible shall be provided by the city or town clerk and used at the primary. The number of ballots provided at a city or town primary shall not for any ward or town exceed one ballot of each party for each voter therein. No such ballots shall be printed in any printing establishment owned or managed by the city of Boston.

Section 33. Ballots for each party shall be printed on paper of a different color from that on which the ballots for any other party are printed. At least six facsimile copies of the ballot for each party, printed on colored paper, shall be provided for each polling place as specimen ballots.

Section 34. At the top of each ballot shall be printed the words "Official ballot of the (here shall follow the party name)". On the back of each ballot when folded shall be printed the same words, followed by the number of the precinct and ward or the name of the town for which the ballot is prepared, the date of the primary and for state or presidential primaries a facsimile of the signature of the state secretary and for city or town primaries a facsimile of the signature of the city or town clerk. Names of candidates for each elective office shall be arranged alphabetically according to their surnames. Names of candidates for ward or town committees, and for delegates to conventions shall be arranged in groups in such order as may be determined by lot, under the direction of the state secretary, who shall notify each state committee and give a representative of each such committee an opportunity to be present. When necessary, groups may be printed on the ballot in two or more columns.

A cross to constitute a vote, etc.

| 1894, 504, § 25. | 1895, 507, § 18. |

No names shall be printed on a ballot other than those presented on nomination papers. Immediately following the names of candidates, blank spaces equal to the number of persons to be chosen shall be provided for the insertion of other names.

The number of persons to be voted for for the different offices shall be stated on the ballot.

The form of ballots and the arrangement of printed matter thereon shall be in general the same as that of the official state ballots, except as otherwise provided in this chapter.

Section 35. A cross (X) marked against a name shall constitute a vote for the person so designated. A cross in the circle at the head of a group of candidates for a ward or town committee or for delegates to a
Section 36. The city or town clerk, before the opening of the polls on the day of the primary, shall deliver at the polling place to the warden or, if he is absent, to the clerk or, if both are absent, to any inspector, ballot boxes, ballots, specimen ballots, voting lists, suitable blankets and forms and apparatus for canvassing and counting the ballots and making the returns, a seal of suitable device and a record book for each polling place. The presiding officer at each polling place shall, before the opening of the primary, conspicuously post in such polling place at least six specimen ballots for each party, which shall be kept so posted until the polls are closed, except that where voting booths are provided two of the six specimen ballots for each party may be posted on the outside of the booth.

Section 37. When, in a primary, a voter seeks to pass the guard rail, he shall be asked by one of the ballot clerks with which political party he desires to be enrolled, and the ballot clerk upon reply shall distinctly announce the name of such political party and give him such political party ballot. The voter's selection shall be checked on the voting list used by the ballot clerk, and such list shall be returned to the city or town clerk to be retained in his custody as long as he retains the ballots cast whereupon such voting list shall be transmitted to the registrars of voters for preservation for five years after the expiration of which it may be destroyed. Said officers shall, upon receiving a written request therefor, signed by the chairman of any ward, town or city committee, or by at least ten voters in the ward, town or precinct for which the list is desired, furnish a certified copy of said list to any ward, town or city committee. The party enrolment of voters on such voting lists, and all subsequent party enrolment of voters, shall be transferred each year to the voting lists used at subsequent primaries, if the names of such voters have been entered in the annual register prepared by the registrars.

Section 38. No voter enrolled under this or the preceding section shall be allowed to receive the ballot of any political party except that his enrolment by appearance in person before a member of the board of registrars of voters and requesting in writing to have his enrolment established with a party, changed to another party, or cancelled, and such enrolment, change or cancellation shall take effect at the expiration of thirty days thereafter. No voter enrolled as a member of one political party shall be allowed to receive the ballot of any other political party, upon a claim by him of erroneous enrolment, except upon a certificate of such error from the registrars, which shall be presented to the presiding officer of the primary and preserved as part of the records of such primary; but the political party enrolment of a voter shall not preclude him from receiving at a city or town primary the ballot of any municipal party enrolment of voters.

Section 39. In counting votes when the ballots are removed from the ballot box, they shall first be sorted into piles, one for each party, and each pile shall be counted and sealed separately. Votes shall be counted only for nominations of the party on whose ballot they appear. Notice shall be deemed unless he receives a number of votes at least equal to the number of signatures which would be required by law to place his name on the ballot as a candidate at such primary.

Section 40. No person who is a candidate for a political office at a primary, and whose name is not printed on the ballot therefor, shall be deemed to be nominated unless he receives a number of votes at least equal to the number of signatures which would be required by law to place his name on the ballot as a candidate at such primary.

Provisions Applying to State Primaries.

Section 41. Primaries shall be held for the nomination of candidates of political parties for all offices to be filled at a state election, except presidential elector, and for the election of district members of state committees, members of ward and town committees, and delegates to state conventions of political parties. Sections forty-two to fifty-four, inclusive, shall apply to such primaries.

Section 42. In cities or towns where the aldermen or selectmen determine the question of holding primaries by wards, precincts or groups of precincts, they shall give notice of their determination to the state secretary on or before August first; except that in case of primaries before special elections they shall give such notice at least fourteen days before the primaries.

Section 43. The polls at every state primary shall be open during such hours, not less than nine in cities or two in towns, as may be designated by the aldermen in cities, and in towns by by-law or vote, or, in default of such by-law or vote, by the selectmen.

Section 44. The nomination of candidates for nomination or election at state primaries shall be by nomination papers. In the case of offices to be filled by all the voters of the commonwealth such papers shall be signed in the aggregate by at least one thousand voters, not more than two hundred and fifty to be from any one county. Such papers for all other offices to be filled at a state election, and for members of committees and delegates to the state convention, shall be signed by a number of voters equal in the aggregate to five voters for each ward or town in the district or county, but in no case shall more than two hundred and fifty be required.

Section 45. Every nomination paper shall state, in addition to the name of the candidate, (1) his residence, with street and number thereof, if any, (2) the office for which he is nominated, (3) the political party whose nomination he seeks, and, except for candidates for ward and 5 town committees and delegates to conventions, the paper may state, 6 in not more than eight words, the public offices which he holds or has 7 held, and, if he is an elected incumbent of an office for which he seeks 8 renomination, that he is a candidate for such renomination.
9 Signatures shall be subject to section seven, and every voter may 10 sign as many nomination papers for each office as there are persons to 11 be nominated for or elected thereto, and no more.
12 A nomination paper shall be valid only in respect to a candidate whose 13 written acceptance is thereon.
14 No nomination paper shall contain the name of more than one can-15 date, except in the case of delegates to the state convention and mem-16 bers of ward and town committees.

Section 46. Every nomination paper shall be submitted, on or 1 before five o’clock in the afternoon of the Friday preceding the day on 2 which it must be filed, to the registrars of the city or town in which the 3 signer appears to be voters, who shall check each name to be certified 4 by them on the nomination paper and shall forthwith certify thereon the 5 number of signatures so checked which are names of voters both in the 6 city or town and in the district for which the nomination is made, and 7 who are not enrolled in any other party than that whose nomination the 8 candidate seeks, and only names so checked shall be deemed to be names 9 of qualified voters for the purposes of nomination.

10 The provisions of section seven relative to the number of names to be 11 certified and received, and to names not certified in the first instance, shall 12 apply to such papers. For the purpose of certifying to the names on 13 primary nomination papers the registrars shall hold meetings on the four 14 Fridays next preceding the date on which such papers are required to 15 be filed with the city secretary, except that for primaries before special 16 elections the meetings shall be held on the two Fridays next preceding 17 such date.

18 No person shall be a candidate for nomination for more than one office;
19 but this shall not apply to candidates for membership in political com-20 mittees or delegations to the state convention.

Section 47. Nomination papers for use in the nomination of can-
2 dates to be voted for at state primaries shall be prepared, and on request
3 furnished, by the state secretary.

1911, 530, § 7. 1913, 835, §§ 119, 503.

Section 48. All nomination papers of candidates to be voted for at 2 state primaries shall be filed with the state secretary on or before the 3 fifth Tuesday preceding the day of the primaries; except in the case of 4 primaries before special elections, when nomination papers shall be filed
5 on or before the second Tuesday preceding the day of the primaries.

Section 49. If a person nominated to be voted for at a state primary 2 dies before the day of the primary, or withdraws his name from nomina-
3 tion, or is found ineligible, and there is no other candidate for the party
4 nomination for the office, the vacancy may be filled by the state com-
5 mittee, if the candidate is one to be voted for by all the voters of the 1911, 550, § 10. 1913, 835, § 121.

commonwealth; and, in the case of candidates for nomination or election in a district, by the members of the ward and town committees in the wards and towns comprising the district.

Section 50. In cases of withdrawal, nominations to fill vacancies shall be filed with the state secretary within seventy-two week hours succeeding five o'clock in the afternoon of the last day for filing withdrawals. They shall be open to objections in the same manner, so far as practicable, as other nominations.

No vacancy caused by withdrawal shall be filled before the withdrawal has been filed.

Section 51. The provisions of section one hundred and five of chapter fifty-four authorizing the opening of the ballot box at elections in towns, the taking therefrom of the ballots and counting thereof, prior to the closing of the polls, shall apply to state primaries in towns. No ballots cast at a state primary in cities shall be counted until the close of the polls.

Section 52. Upon receipt of the records of votes cast at state primaries the city or town clerk shall forthwith canvass the same and within four days after said primary make return of the votes for candidates for nomination for state offices, and for election as members of the state committee, to the state secretary, who shall forthwith canvass such returns, determine the results thereof, notify the successful candidates, and certify to the state committees the names of the persons nominated for state offices and elected as members of state committees. Said clerks shall determine the results of the vote for delegates to state conventions and members of ward and town committees, issue proper certificates thereof to the successful candidates, and notify the chairmen of the city and town committees of the respective parties.

Section 53. In case of a tie vote where the number of persons receiving equal votes exceeds the number of nominations available, there shall be deemed to be a vacancy. If the tie is between candidates for an office to be filled by all the voters of the commonwealth, the vacancy shall be filled by the state committee. If the tie is between candidates for nomination for any other office, the vacancy shall be filled by the members of the ward and town committees in the district for which the nomination is to be made. If there is a tie vote for delegates to a convention, or a place unfilled in a delegation, or a vacancy occasioned by inability or neglect of a delegate elected to attend a convention, such vacancy shall be filled only by vote of the remaining members of the delegation at a meeting called therefor. Such meeting shall choose a chairman and secretary, and the secretary shall notify the secretary of the convention of the action taken relative to the vacancy, except that, if only one delegate or two delegates were to be elected, the delegate or remaining delegate, as the case may be, shall fill the vacancy and notify the secretary of the convention of that action.

If there is a tie for members of a ward or town committee, the members elected shall fill the vacancy.
If a majority of a delegation, or of a ward or town committee, is not elected, the vacancy shall be filled by the persons elected to the ward or town committee.

All vacancies caused by ties shall be filled only by the choice of one of the candidates receiving the tie vote.

1 Section 53A. When nominations at the state primaries are in apparent conformity with law, they shall be valid unless written objections there to are filed with the state secretary within six days succeeding five o'clock in the afternoon of the day of holding such primaries; and such objections and all other questions relating thereto shall be subject to section twelve, so far as applicable. A person nominated at such primaries may withdraw his name from nomination by a request signed and duly acknowledged by him and filed with the state secretary within the time prescribed in this section for filing objections to such nominations.

1 Section 54. A political party may, upon the call of its state committee, but not earlier than one week nor later than two weeks after the holding of the primaries, hold a state convention for the purpose of adopting a platform, electing such number of members at large of the state committee as may be fixed by it, nominating presidential electors, and for such other purposes consistent with law as the state committee or the convention may determine. Such convention shall consist of the delegates elected at the state primary, the members of the state committee, the United States senators from Massachusetts who are members of the party, the nominees of the party for all offices to be filled at the state election, and in years in which no elections are held for such offices, the incumbents of those offices who are members of the party.

Provisions Applying to City and Town Primaries.

1 Section 55. The nomination of candidates of political and municipal parties to be voted for at city and town elections, in cities and towns where such nominations are permitted by law, and which vote that primaries shall be held therein, shall be made under sections twenty-three to forty, and fifty-six to sixty-four, both inclusive.

1 Section 56. In any city or town which has adopted the provisions of law for nominating by primaries, the following question shall be put on the official ballot at any city election or annual town meeting on petition of five per cent of the voters registered at the time of the preceding city election or annual town meeting, filed with the city or town clerk on or before the last day for filing nomination papers: "Shall primaries for the nomination of candidates to be voted for at city (or town) elections continue to be held in this city (or town)?" In any city or town not nominating by primaries, where such nominations are permitted by law, the following question may, by similar petition, be put on the ballot at the next city election or annual town meeting: "Shall primaries for the nomination of candidates to be voted for at city (or town) elections be held in this city (or town)?" In accordance with the result of such vote, such primaries shall or shall not thereafter be held. Clerks of cities or towns which vote to hold primaries or to rescind such action shall forthwith notify the state secretary of such vote.
NOTICES OF INTENTION TO PARTICIPATE IN PRIMARIES.

Section 57. Notices of intention to participate in primaries shall be furnished to the city or town clerk, not less than twenty-two days prior to the day on which the primaries are to be held, by the city and town committees of such political and municipal parties as are entitled to and desire to participate therein.

1913, §§ 130, 503.

Section 58. The city or town clerk shall seasonably prepare, and the city or town shall provide, blank nomination papers for use in the nomination of candidates to be voted for at city or town primaries. Such papers shall state the place where, and the day and hour prior to which, nomination papers shall be filed.

1907, §§ 119, 149, 456.

Section 59. Nominations of candidates for elective offices, to be voted for at a primary, shall be made by nomination papers, as hereinafter provided. Such nominations shall be made on the blank nomination papers prepared in accordance with the preceding section; and no nomination paper offered for filing shall be received or be valid to which is attached any card, paper or other device containing the name of a candidate, his written acceptance, or the signature of any voter required by this section. Such papers shall be signed by at least five voters of the ward or town where the primary is to be held, who shall add to their signatures the street and number, if any, of their residences. Such papers for a district composed of more than one ward shall be signed by a number of voters equal in the aggregate to not less than five voters for each ward in said district. Nomination papers shall not contain a larger number of names of candidates than there are persons to be elected. No vacancy caused by the death, withdrawal or ineligibility of any candidate shall be filled, unless the person entitled to fill such vacancy files the written acceptance of the candidate who is nominated to fill the vacancy.

Section 60. Section forty-five shall apply to nomination papers for city and town primaries, except that the name of more than one candidate may appear on the same nomination paper, if it contains no more names of candidates than there are persons to be elected.

Section 61. All nomination papers of candidates to be voted for at city or town primaries shall be filed with the city or town clerk not less than ten week days previous to the day on which the primary is to be held for which the nominations are made. Every such nomination paper shall be submitted at or before five o'clock in the afternoon of the Friday preceding the day on which it must be filed to the registrars of the city or town where the signers appear to be voters, and the registrars shall check each name to be certified by them on the nomination paper and shall forthwith certify thereon the number of signatures so checked which are names of voters both in the city or town and in the district for which the nomination is made, and only names so checked shall be deemed to be names of qualified voters for the purposes of nomination. The registrars need not certify a greater number of names than are re-

16 same nomination papers. The city or town clerk shall not be required, 17 in any case, to receive nomination papers for a candidate after receiving 18 papers containing a sufficient number of certified names to make a 19 nomination, increased by one fifth thereof.

1 Section 62. In case of a vacancy caused by the death, withdrawal
2 or ineligibility of a candidate, the person who filed the nomination paper
3 placing such candidate in nomination may fill the vacancy by presenting 4 a new name on a nomination paper signed by him. If such vacancy was 5 caused by withdrawal, the nomination paper shall be filed within twenty-6 four week day hours succeeding five o’clock of the last day for making 7 withdrawals. If there is a failure to make a nomination at a city or 8 town primary by reason of a tie vote, the vacancy, if in respect to an 9 office to be filled by all the voters of the city or town, shall be filled by 10 the city or town committee and, if in respect to an office to be filled by 11 the voters of a ward, by the ward committee; provided, that any such 12 vacancy shall be filled only by the choice of one of the candidates re-13 ceiving the tie vote.

1 Section 63. The polls at every such primary shall be open during 2 such hours, not less than nine in cities nor four in towns, as may be design-
3 nated by the aldermen or selectmen.

1 Section 64. City and town clerks shall canvass the returns of votes,
2 determine the results, and issue proper certificates thereof to the succeed-
3 ing candidates.

PROVISIONS APPLYING TO PRESIDENTIAL PRIMARIES.

1 Section 65. Sections sixty-six to seventy, inclusive, shall apply to 2 presidential primaries.

1 Section 66. In any year in which candidates for presidential elec-
2 tors are to be elected, the election of delegates and of alternate delegates
3 to national conventions of political parties shall be by direct plurality 4 vote in primaries. The number of district delegates and the number of 5 district alternate delegates, not less than one from each congressional 6 district, and the number of delegates and alternate delegates at large,
7 shall be fixed by the state committee, who shall give notice thereof to the 8 state secretary on or before the third Wednesday in March.

1 Section 67. In cities and towns where the question of holding 2 primaries by wards, precincts or groups of precincts is determined by 3 the aldermen or selectmen, they shall give notice of their determination
4 to the state secretary on or before the third Wednesday in March.

1913, 835, §§ 138, 503.

1 Section 68. The state secretary shall cause to be placed on the 2 official ballot for use in primaries at which delegates to national conven-
3 tions of political parties are elected, under separate headings, and in the 4 following order, the names of candidates for delegates at large, alternate delegates at large, district delegates, and alternate district delegates. The names of candidates appearing in nomination papers containing nominations for all the places to be filled shall be placed first on said ballot, arranged in groups and in the same order as in the nomination papers. The order in which the groups shall appear shall be determined by lot in the manner provided in section thirty-four. The names of candidates appearing in nomination papers containing nominations for less than all the places to be filled shall follow, alphabetically arranged. The ballot shall also contain a statement of the preference, if any, of each candidate for delegate as to a candidate for nomination for president, provided that such statement appears in his nomination papers; but no such statement of preference by any candidate for delegate shall appear upon the ballot unless such candidate for nomination for president has his written assent thereto by the state secretary or on or before five o'clock in the afternoon of the last day for filing nomination papers. Such assent may be communicated by telegraph. Upon the receipt of the records of votes cast at presidential primaries, the city or town clerk shall forthwith canvass the same and make return thereof to the state secretary, who shall forthwith canvass such returns, determine the results thereof, and notify the successful candidates.

Section 69. In case of the death, withdrawal or ineligibility of a candidate for delegate to a national convention, the vacancy may be filled in any manner which is clearly provided for on the nomination paper placing such candidate in nomination, before the signature of any voter is entered thereon, otherwise the remaining candidate or candidates nominated by the same nomination paper may fill the vacancy. In case of a withdrawal, such vacancy must be filled by filing in the office of the state secretary, within seventy-two week day hours succeeding five o'clock in the afternoon of the last day for filing withdrawals, a statement signed by the person or persons authorized to fill the vacancy, giving the name and residence of the candidate nominated, accompanied by his written acceptance.

Section 70. The provisions of law relating to primaries consistent with the three preceding sections shall apply to presidential primaries so far as practicable.

Provisions Applying to All Caucuses of Political Parties.

Section 71. In cities and towns which have not accepted the provisions of law relating to primaries for the nomination of municipal officers, political parties which nominate candidates for elective city or town offices shall do so by direct plurality vote in caucuses, except when city or town charters provide otherwise. All provisions of law relative to the preparation of nomination papers and ballots, to primaries and elections, to ballots cast at primaries and elections, and to recounts of such ballots, shall, so far as applicable, apply to such caucuses.

City and town committees may make regulations, consistent with law, relative to caucuses called by it and to determine membership in the party, and to restrain persons not entitled to vote at caucuses from attendance thereof or taking part therein. But 5 no political committee shall prevent any voter from participating in a caucus of its party for the reason that the voter has supported an independent candidate for political office.

1907, 530, §§ 10, 11.
1908, 548, § 85.

1 Section 73. If in a city, except Boston, or town wherein elections are held by precincts, the city or town committee of either of the two leading political parties shall file with the aldermen or selectmen, at least two weeks prior to the time of holding its caucuses, a notice that such party desires to hold its caucuses by precincts, or by groups of precincts in any ward, the aldermen or selectmen shall furnish a polling place in each precinct or group of precincts for the use of such party, as provided in section ninety-three, and the caucuses of such party shall be held accordingly.

1 Section 74. Caucuses relative to a special election shall be held at such time and place and subject to such reasonable notice as the political committee whose duty it is to provide for holding the same may determine. Calls therefor shall be issued by the chairman and secretary of 5 said political committee.

1913, 835, §§ 144, 503.

1 Section 75. Every caucus of a political party shall be called by a written or printed notice. No caucus or meeting of a political party not so called shall be recognized as valid under sections seventy-one to 80 eighty-one, inclusive. The presiding officer at a caucus shall open it at the hour appointed therefor in the notice thereof.

1908, 549, § 10.
1907, 548, § 89.
1907, 560, §§ 89, 90.

1 Section 76. Notices of caucuses shall apply to all members of the 2 party calling them, and to them only. No person having voted in the 3 caucus of one political party shall be entitled to vote or take part in 4 the caucus of another political party within the twelve ensuing months;
5 except that voting or taking part in the caucuses of any municipal party 6 by any voter shall not affect his legal right to vote or to take part in the 7 caucuses of any political party, for any other election, and having voted 8 or taken part in the caucuses of a political party for any previous elec-9 tion, shall not affect his right to vote or take part in the caucuses of 10 any municipal party, nor shall a voter who is enrolled under section 11 thirty-seven or thirty-eight as a member of a political party be entitled to vote in the caucus of another political party held in a city while so 13 enrolled. No voter, not hereinbefore disqualified, shall be prevented 14 from voting or participating in any caucus if he takes the following 15 oath, which shall be administered to him by the presiding officer of the 16 caucus:

You do solemnly swear (or affirm) that you are a registered voter in this ward (or town) and have the legal right to vote in this caucus; that you are a member of the political party holding the same, and intend to vote for its candidates at the polls at the election next ensuing; and that you have not taken part or voted in the caucus of any other political party for twelve months last past.

17 Such voter may be challenged like any other voter. Any person 18 whose right to vote is challenged for any cause recognized by law shall CAUCUSES.

Section 77. In balloting, the voting lists furnished under section sixty-two of chapter fifty-one shall be used as check lists, and no person shall vote or take part in a caucus whose name does not appear upon said lists, unless he presents to the presiding officer of the caucus the certificate provided for by section fifty-nine of said chapter.

1913, 635, §§ 147, 593.
181 Mass. 181.

Section 78. If there is a tie vote for any caucus officer, the caucus officers elected shall fill the vacancy.

1898, 548, § 93.
R. L. 11, § 93.
1907, 560, §§ 103, 456.
1913, 835, §§ 148, 503.

Section 79. The presiding officer and secretary or clerk of each caucus shall within three week days after its final adjournment deliver or send to each caucus officer a certificate of his election, and to each candidate for an elective office a notice of his nomination.

1907, 360, §§ 104, 456.

Section 80. Returns of all caucuses of political parties at which are made any direct nominations for a district comprising more than one ward, or where caucuses are held by precincts or by groups of precincts in any ward or town, shall be made in accordance with section one hundred and ten. Immediately upon receipt of such returns the city or town clerk shall tabulate and determine the results thereof, shall notify the successful candidates, and cause their names to be printed on the ballot to be used at the ensuing election. Recounts of ballots cast at such caucuses shall be made as provided in section one hundred and twelve.

Section 81. If there is a tie vote for any candidate of a political party nominated directly for any office, for a district comprising more than one ward, the regularly elected general or executive committee representing the party for the election district in which such vote has been cast shall fill the vacancy, but only by the choice of one of the candidates receiving such tie vote.

PROVISIONS APPLYING TO CAUCUSES OF POLITICAL PARTIES AT WHICH OFFICIAL BALLOTS ARE NOT USED.

Section 82. At least two weeks prior to the date on which caucuses are to be held, the chairman or secretary of the city or town committee shall notify the aldermen or the selectmen respectively of such date, and said aldermen or selectmen shall, at the expense of the city or town, provide polling places for said caucuses, in case of a city, not less than one for each ward; and shall, at least ten days prior to the date of said caucus, give said chairman or secretary notice of the places so provided.
1 Section 83. Notice of caucuses, signed by the chairman and secretary, shall be issued by each city and town committee not less than seven days prior to the day on which they are to be held. The notices shall state the place where and the day and hour when the several caucuses are to be held. They shall be conspicuously posted in at least five places on the public ways, and, if practicable, in every post office in the city or town, or shall be published at least twice in one or more local newspapers. The hour fixed for calling the caucus to order shall not be later than eight o'clock in the evening. The notice shall designate by name or office the person who shall call such caucus to order, and he shall preside until a chairman is chosen. If he is absent at the time appointed, 12 any member of the ward or town committee present shall call the caucus to order and preside until a chairman is chosen. The first business in order shall be the choice of a chairman, a secretary and such other officers as the meeting may determine. No person shall serve as a caucus officer at any caucus in which he is a candidate for a nomination to an elective office.

1 Section 84. A ballot shall be taken for the choice of any candidate, to be selected by such caucus, and the polls shall be kept open at least thirty minutes.

1 Section 85. If a majority of caucus officers is not elected, or there is a tie vote for candidates for an elective office, the caucus shall at once proceed to another ballot unless some one present entitled to vote objects; in which case the caucus shall adjourn to any subsequent day. The hour and place shall, if practicable, be the same as that named in the call.

1 Section 86. The secretary of each caucus shall forthwith, after the ballots cast therein have been counted, transmit them, with the check list used at the caucus, to the city or town clerk, who shall preserve them for ten days. If during said time ten voters entitled to vote in said caucus shall file with said clerk a written request so to do, he shall preserve the ballots and voting lists for three months, and shall produce the same if required by any court having jurisdiction or authority over them.

1 Section 87. If within three week days after any caucus a person who has received votes thereat for nomination or election to any office shall file a written statement with the city or town clerk, claiming an election or nomination or declaring an intention to contest the election or nomination of any other person, the clerk shall preserve the ballots for such nomination or office until the claim or contest has been finally determined. Upon receipt of such statement, the clerk shall immediately give written notice to the persons affected and to the chairman and secretary of the caucus, fixing a time within twenty-four hours thereafter and a place at which said ballots will be recounted. The chairman and secretary of the caucus shall, at said time and place, recount said ballots and determine the questions raised. Each candidate affected may be present during such recount, or may be represented by an agent appointed by him in writing. If it shall appear upon a recount that persons were nominated or elected other than those declared to have been nominated or elected, certificates of such change shall be made in the manner provided in section five as to an original certificate.

PROVISIONS APPLYING TO CAUCUSES OF POLITICAL PARTIES AT WHICH OFFICIAL BALLOTS ARE USED.

Section 58. All caucuses for the election of caucus officers, or for the nomination of candidates for any city or town office in any city or town wherein the laws relating to primaries have not been adopted, held by a political party which has adopted the provisions of law for the use of official ballots, shall be called and held as provided in sections eighty-nine to one hundred and sixteen, inclusive.

Section 59. Any city or town committee shall, at the written request of fifty voters, members of its party, call caucuses of said party to determine by ballot whether the provisions of law for the use of official ballots shall be adopted. The notice of said caucus shall state the purpose for which it is called, the place, the day, and the hour, not earlier than six o’clock and not later than half past seven o’clock in the evening of holding said caucus. It shall be issued at least seven days prior to the day named therefor, and shall be published at least twice in one or more local newspapers, if any, and shall be posted in at least five public places in each ward or town. The polls shall be kept open at least one hour. If said caucuses shall vote to adopt said provisions, all caucuses of said political party in said city or town shall thereafter be called and conducted accordingly.

Section 90. A political party in a city or town which has accepted said special provisions may, not less than one year after the date of the caucus wherein such provisions were adopted, revoke such action at a caucus called and held in the manner provided in the preceding section. Upon the adoption of said provisions or upon the revocation of such adoption, the secretary of the city or town committee of such political party shall, within ten days thereafter, file a notice thereof with the state secretary and with the clerk of the city or town and the secretary of the state committee of the political party so voting.

Seciton 91. All such caucuses of a political party for the choice of candidates for a city or town election, except caucuses relating to a special election, shall be held on the same day in each city and town. The city or town committee shall fix the days for holding all caucuses mentioned in this section, and all calls for the same shall be issued by its chairman and secretary. No two political parties shall hold their caucuses on the same day. The party first filing a copy of the call for a caucus with the city or town clerk shall be entitled to precedence as to the day so fixed.

Section 92. Notices of caucuses in said cities or towns shall state the place where and the day and hour when nomination papers shall be issued; the place where and the earliest day and hour when such nomination papers may be filed, which time shall be not less than twenty-four week day hours succeeding three o’clock of the day fixed for issuing such 1 Section 93. At least two weeks prior to the day named for a caucus, the chairman or secretary of the city or town committee shall give notice of such date to the aldermen or to the selectmen, who shall, at least ten days prior to such date, notify the city or town committee of the places selected for holding the caucuses, and shall, at the expense of the city or town, provide polling places, in a city not less than one for each ward, and in cities and towns where elections or caucuses are held in voting precincts, one in each of such precincts, as the city or town committee shall designate, but not less than one for each ward, and furnish them with booths, registering ballot boxes, guard rails and the like, as they are arranged for state elections, also postage for mailing credentials and notices or certificates of nomination and election.

13 If twenty-five voters of a ward or of a town shall request in writing at least twelve days before any caucus of the political party to which they belong, the aldermen or selectmen shall so arrange the polling place of such ward or town as to allow voting to proceed in two or more lines at the caucus.

1 Section 94. At least seven days prior to the day named for a caucus, the city or town committee shall issue a notice that such caucus will be held, stating the place, the day and the hour of holding the same. The hour shall not be earlier than two o'clock in the afternoon nor later than half past seven o'clock in the evening. Such notices, and notices relative to the filing of nomination papers, shall be published at least twice in one or more local newspapers, if any.

1 Section 95. The city or town shall provide, and the city or town clerk shall seasonably prepare, for each political party, blank nomination papers for use in the different wards of the city or in the town. Such papers shall state the place where, and the day and hour prior to which, signed nomination papers shall be filed. On the back of each, the first sentence of section seven, sections forty-five and sixty, and sections ninety-six to one hundred and one, inclusive, shall be printed. They shall be delivered only to the chairman or secretary of the political committee for whose use they have been prepared.

1 Section 96. Nominations of candidates for elective city or town offices and for caucus officers to be voted for at a caucus, shall be made by nomination papers, as hereinafter provided. Such nominations shall be made on the blank nomination papers prepared and delivered in accordance with the preceding section; and no nomination paper offered for filing shall be received or shall be valid to which is attached any card, paper or other device, containing the name of a candidate, his written acceptance, or containing the signature of any voter required by this section. Such papers shall be signed in person by at least five voters of the ward or town where the caucus is to be held, and for a district committed of more than one ward shall be signed by a number of voters equal in the aggregate to not less than five voters for each ward in said district.
Nomination papers, sealing, filing, opening, etc. 1895, 504, §§ 17, 18, 507, §§ 9, 10, 1886, 435, § 2, 1888, 548, § 110, R. L. 11, §§ 110, 1907, 560, §§ 125, 456.

Section 97. All nomination papers shall be sealed up and filed with the secretary of the city or town committee not less than ten week days previous to the day on which the caucus is to be held for which the nominations are made, and he shall endorse upon them the time when he received them. They shall not be opened until the time for their filing has expired, when the secretary, at his office, shall publicly open them and publicly announce the nominations therein made. 1913, 835, §§ 146, 503.

Section 98. The secretary of the city or town committee shall immediately give notice to the person filing the nomination paper of any error, irregularity or informalitv appearing therein, and such person may, within two week days after the time when the nomination papers were opened, correct the same, or said secretary may make such correction. 1913, 835, §§ 147, 503.

Proceedings in cities when papers are not filed, nomination by ward committee, etc. 1894, 504, § 19, 1895, 507, § 12, 1888, 548, § 112, R. L. 11, §§ 112, 1907, 560, §§ 124, 456, 1913, 535, §§ 165, 503.

Section 99. If, in a city, nomination papers placing persons in nomination for all the offices to be filled at a caucus in any ward are not filed, the secretary of the city committee shall forthwith notify the chairman or secretary of the committee of such ward, who shall forthwith call a meeting of said committee, which may nominate candidates for all offices for which nomination papers have not been filed, and shall immediately file with the secretary of the city committee nomination papers signed by all the members of the committee who agree to the nominations therein made. In case of disagreement two sets of such nomination papers may be filed. If, at the expiration of two week days after the time at which nomination papers were opened, proper nomination papers have not been filed for all the offices to be filled, or upon any vacancy caused by death or otherwise, except a withdrawal, the chairman and secretary of the city committee may file nomination papers for such offices or vacancies. 1913, 835, §§ 148, 503.

Proceedings in towns when papers are not filed, etc. 1894, 504, § 20, 1895, 507, § 13, 1888, 548, § 113, R. L. 11, §§ 113, 1907, 560, §§ 125, 456, 1913, 535, §§ 169, 503.

Section 100. If, in a town, nomination papers placing persons in nomination for all the offices to be filled at a caucus are not filed, or upon a vacancy by death or otherwise, except a withdrawal, the chairman or secretary of the town committee shall forthwith call a meeting of said committee, which shall have all the powers relative to the nomination of candidates conferred in the preceding section upon a ward committee and the chairman and secretary of a city committee. 1913, 835, §§ 149, 503.

Section 101. A person nominated by a nomination paper may, within forty-eight week days following the day fixed for opening nomination papers, withdraw his name from nomination by a request signed by him in person and filed with the secretary of the city or town committee. Thereupon, the secretary shall immediately give notice of such withdrawal and of the provisions of this act.
section to the person who filed such nomination paper, and such person may, within twenty-four week days succeeding five o'clock in the afternoon of the last day fixed for making withdrawals, present a new name on a nomination paper signed by himself in person; otherwise the chairman and secretary of the committee may file nomination papers for the vacancy. If at any time after the expiration of the time for filling vacancies it shall appear that a vacancy has been created by death, the chairman of the committee may file with the city or town clerk a new name to fill such vacancy; and if the time is sufficient therefor, the new name shall be printed upon the official ballot.

Section 102. Not less than seven week days before the day upon which the caucuses are to be held and before five o'clock in the afternoon of the last day, the secretary of each city or town committee shall deliver to the city or town clerk the nomination papers filed with him.

Section 103. If an error or informality is found in any nomination paper, it shall be forthwith returned to the secretary of the committee by whom it was filed, for correction; and if not corrected and again filed before five o'clock in the afternoon of the day following its return to said secretary, it shall be void.

Section 104. Objections to nomination papers, and all other questions relating thereto, shall be considered in cities by the board of registrars, the city clerk and the city solicitor; and in towns by the board of registrars.

Section 105. Ballots for each political and municipal party, ballot boxes, voting lists, specimen ballots, blank forms and apparatus, scales and record books, shall be provided and treated in accordance with sections thirty-two to thirty-six, inclusive, so far as applicable, except that the chairman and secretary of the city or town committee, or, if they fail to do so, the city or town clerk, may determine the number of ballots to be provided for each ward or town, not exceeding one for each voter therein.

Section 106. On the back and outside of each ballot when folded shall be printed the words “Official ballot of the (here shall be inserted the party name)” followed by the number of the precinct and ward or the name of the town for which the ballot is prepared, the date of the caucus and a facsimile of the signature of the secretary of the political committee.

Ballots shall be printed on white paper, except as otherwise provided by law.

Names of candidates for caucus officers shall be arranged in groups in the order in which they are filed.

Against the name of a candidate for an elective or caucus office shall be printed the street and number, if any, of his residence.

A star (*) against a name shall indicate that a person is a candidate for re-election.
CAUCUSES.

SECTION 107. Caucuses, except as otherwise provided, shall be held in general accordance with the laws governing the conduct of elections and the manner of voting thereat.

1896, 548, §121.
R. L. 11, §121.

SECTION 108. The order of business shall be as follows:

First, Any necessary preliminary business.

Second, Balloting until half past eight o'clock in the evening, when the polls shall be closed unless the caucus shall vote to keep them open until a later hour; but every voter waiting in line at the hour for closing the polls shall be allowed to vote.

Third, After the polls have been closed, any other business properly before the caucus.

SECTION 109. If the right of a person offering to vote is challenged for any legal cause, and he takes the oath required by section seventy-six, the presiding officer shall require him, or some one in his behalf, to write his name and residence on the outside of the ballot offered, and before it is received the presiding officer shall add thereto the name of the person challenging and the cause alleged for the challenge. No officer or other person shall give any information in regard to a ballot cast by a challenged voter unless required by law so to do.

SECTION 110. Immediately after the polls have been declared closed, but not before, the ballots shall be counted in full view of the voters. When they have been counted and the result ascertained, the presiding officer shall make public announcement thereof in open meeting, and the clerk shall, in open meeting, enter in words at length in the record book, the total number of names checked on the voting list, the total number of ballots cast, the names of all persons voted for, the number of votes for each person, and the title of the office for which he was a candidate. The clerk shall forthwith make a copy of said record, certify, seal and transmit it to the city or town clerk. He shall then, before the adjournment of the caucus, and in the presence of those who counted the same, seal up all ballots cast, with the voting lists used, and a statement of any challenge made.

The warden and clerk shall endorse upon such package the name of the political party holding the caucus, its date, its purpose, and, if in a city, for what ward and precinct the ballots were cast. The warden shall forthwith transmit, by the officer detailed to attend the caucus, to the city or town clerk, the ballots cast, the voting lists, the ballot boxes, the ballot box seals, the counting apparatus, the copy of the 19 records, and the record book.

The city or town clerk shall safely keep such sealed packages for ten days. If within said time ten voters entitled to vote in said caucus file with him a written request so to do, he shall preserve said ballots and voting lists for three months and shall produce them if required by any court having jurisdiction or authority over them.

SECTION 111. The city or town clerk, upon written application signed by at least ten voters of a ward or town, for a copy of a list as checked, shall open the envelope containing the voting list used at any
1 Section 112. If before five o'clock in the afternoon of the second day next succeeding the day of a caucus, ten or more voters of any town or ward shall sign, adding thereto their respective residences on April first of that year, and file with the city or town clerk a sworn statement that the records and returns made by the caucus officers of such town or ward are erroneous, specifying the error, or that challenged votes were cast by persons not entitled to vote therein, said city or town clerk shall forthwith transmit such statement to the registrars of voters with the sealed package containing the ballots and voting lists, and said registrars shall give written notice to the person affected, fixing a place and time, as early as may be, at which said ballots will be recounted, and at such place and time shall open the packages containing the ballots and voting lists and recount said ballots and determine the questions raised, and shall reject any challenged vote cast by a person found not to have been entitled to vote; and such recount shall stand as the true result of the vote cast in such caucus. Each candidate affected may be present during such recount, or may be represented by an agent appointed by him in writing. If it shall appear upon a recount that persons were nominated or elected other than those declared to have been nominated or elected, certificates of such change shall be made as in the case of the original certificate.

1 Section 113. At the caucus held for the choice of candidates for a city or town election there shall be chosen annually a warden, a clerk, and at least five inspectors, and, in wards having more than five precincts, such additional inspectors as the city committee of the political party whose caucuses are to be held may determine. They shall be the voters of the ward or town where elected and members of the political party whose caucus is to be held. No person shall be eligible to the position of warden, clerk or inspector who is a state, county or city employee, or a member of a ward or town committee, and no person shall serve as a caucus officer at any caucus wherein he is a candidate for nomination to an elective office. Every caucus officer shall hold office for one year, beginning with the first day of the month succeeding his election, and until his successor is elected. He shall, before entering upon the performance of his duties, be sworn by the warden, clerk, or a justice of the peace, and a record thereof made upon the record book of such caucus. The respective duties of caucus officers shall be in general the same required of election officers at elections.

1 Section 114. A majority of the caucus officers present at a caucus may fill temporary vacancies and elect additional officers to serve in that caucus only. Such temporary officers shall be duly sworn. Permanent vacancies shall be filled by a majority vote of all the caucus officers.

1 Section 115. A city or town committee of a political party which has adopted the provisions of law for the use of official ballots shall, at least ten days before holding any caucus thereunder, appoint caucus officers, etc. to serve at such caucus.
OFFICERS IN EACH WARD, TOWN, OR VOTING PRECINCT IN CITIES AND TOWNS WHERE CAUCUSES ARE HELD, TO SERVE AT THE FIRST CAUCUS TO BE HELD THEREAFTER.

1007, §§ 142, 456.

1913, §§ 184, 503.

SECTION 116. In a newly incorporated city, or upon a redivision into wards of a city to which said provisions apply, the caucus officers to serve in the first caucuses held in the next succeeding year shall be appointed by the city committee; and at such caucuses the regular caucus officers shall be chosen. Where additional polling places are provided, after the election of caucus officers, officers to act in such polling places shall be appointed by the city committee.

1911, § 188.

PROVISIONS APPLYING TO CAUCUSES OTHER THAN THOSE OF POLITICAL PARTIES.

SECTION 117. A caucus of the voters, or of a specified portion thereof in a ward of a city, or in a town, may be called and held for the nomination of candidates to be voted for at any city election, or at any election of town officers for which official ballots are used, or for the selection of delegates to a convention, or for the appointment of a committee. The notice and conduct of such caucuses shall be valid unless at least twenty-five voters participate and vote therein. Except as provided in this section, no caucus or meeting other than those of political parties shall be entitled to nominate a candidate whose name shall be placed on the official ballot, or to select delegates to a political convention for the nomination of a candidate whose name shall be placed on such ballot.

1913, §§ 186, 303.

SECTION 118. The notice for a caucus under the preceding section shall be written or printed, shall state the place where, and the day and hour when, said caucus is to be held, shall be issued at least seven days prior thereto, and shall be conspicuously posted in at least five places on lines of public travel, and, if practicable, in every post office within the city or town, or shall be published at least twice in one or more local newspapers. Said notice shall be signed by one or more voters of the ward, town or district for which the caucus is called, and shall designate by name or office the person who shall call such caucus to order, and he shall preside until a chairman is chosen. In his absence, the caucus may choose a temporary chairman. The first business in order shall be the organization of the caucus by the choice of a chairman, a secretary, and such other officers as the meeting may require. The persons receiving the highest number of votes shall be declared elected or nominated. The caucus may adopt regulations consistent with law.

WARDS AND VOTING PRECINCTS.

Section 1. In nineteen hundred and twenty-four, and every tenth year thereafter, in December, a city, by vote of its city council, may make a new division of its territory into such number of wards as may be fixed by law. The boundaries of such wards shall be so arranged that the wards shall contain, as nearly as can be ascertained and as may be consistent with well defined limits to each ward, an equal number of voters. The city clerk shall forthwith give written notice to the state secretary of the number and designations of the wards so established, together with an official copy of the description of said wards.

Section 2. Each city shall be divided into convenient voting precincts, designated by numbers or letters and containing not more than two thousand voters. Every ward shall constitute a voting precinct by itself, or shall be divided into precincts containing as nearly as may be an equal number of voters, consisting of compact and contiguous territory entirely within the ward, and bounded, so far as possible, by the center line of known streets or ways or by other well defined limits. If a ward constituting one precinct contains more than two thousand voters, according to the registration at the preceding annual or biennial city election, the aldermen, on or before the first Monday of July, shall divide it into two or more voting precincts. They may so divide a ward or precinct containing less than two thousand voters. If in any year, according to such registration, a voting precinct contains more than two thousand voters, the aldermen shall in like manner either divide such precinct into two or more voting precincts or make a new division of the ward into voting precincts.

Section 3. On or before the first Monday of July in the year following a rediscision of a city into wards, the aldermen shall divide such city into voting precincts, conformably to the preceding section.

Section 4. For all elections held prior to the biennial state primary following a rediscision of a city into wards, and for the assessment of taxes in the year following such a rediscision, the wards as existing previous to

4 such redivision shall continue, and for such purposes the election officers
5 shall be appointed and hold office, and voting lists shall be prepared, and 6 all other things required by law shall be done, as if no such redivision had 7 been made. For all other purposes the new division shall take effect on 8 December thirty-first of the year when made.

1 Section 5. When a ward has been divided into new voting precincts, 2 or the voting precincts thereof have been changed, the aldermen shall 3 forthwith cause a map or description of the division to be published, in 4 which the new precincts shall be designated by numbers or letters and 5 shall be defined clearly and, so far as possible, by known boundaries;
6 and they shall cause such map or description to be posted in at least ten
7 public places in each precinct of a ward so divided, and copies thereof
8 furnished to the registrars of voters, and to the assessors, and to the elec-
9 tion officers of each precinct so established.

1913, 835, §§ 220, 503.

1 Section 6. A town may direct its selectmen to prepare a division
2 of the town into convenient voting precincts. The selectmen shall, so
3 far as possible, make the center line of streets or ways, or other well
4 defined limits, the boundaries of the proposed precincts, and shall desig-
5 nate them by numbers or letters. They shall, within sixty days, file a 6 report of their doings with the town clerk, with a map or description of 7 the proposed precincts, and with a statement of the number of voters
8 registered in each for the preceding state or town election. The report 9 shall be presented by the town clerk at the next town meeting, but shall 10 not be acted upon except at a meeting held at least seven days after the 11 report has been filed. The division so reported may be amended at such 12 meeting, and shall take effect when adopted. Elections of state officers 13 held in such town more than sixty days after such action shall be held 14 in the precincts so established. If such report shall be rejected the town 15 may at any time direct the selectmen to prepare a new division.

1 Section 7. A town may make any change in its voting precincts
2 which the selectmen recommend in a statement giving the boundaries,
3 the designations of the proposed precincts and the number of voters
4 registered in each for the preceding state or town election, filed with the 5 town clerk at least seven days before a town meeting; but no changes 6 other than those so proposed by the selectmen shall be made at such 7 meeting.

1913, 835, §§ 222, 503.

1 Section 8. When a town has been divided into voting precincts
2 or the voting precincts thereof have been changed, the selectmen shall 3 post in the office of the town clerk and in at least three public places in 4 each new precinct a map or description in which the new precincts shall 5 be designated by numbers or letters, and defined clearly and, so far as 6 possible, by known boundaries. They shall furnish copies thereof to the 7 registrars of voters and the assessors of such town, and to the election
8 officers of each precinct so established.

1913, 835, §§ 223, 503.
SECTION 9. Any town may at a town meeting discontinue its voting precincts; and subsequent elections therein shall be held as if no such division had been made. But it may, in any subsequent year, establish voting precincts as hereinbefore provided.

SECTION 10. When wards of a city have been changed or when voting precincts in a city or town have been established, changed or discontinued, the city or town clerk shall forthwith give a written notice thereof to the state secretary, stating the number, designation and official description of such wards or voting precincts and in a city the wards where such precincts are situated.

SECTION 11. The mayor of every city, except where city charters provide otherwise, shall annually not earlier than June fifteenth nor later than August fifteenth appoint as election officers for each voting precinct, one warden, one deputy warden, one clerk, one deputy clerk, four inspectors and four deputy inspectors, who shall, at the time of their appointment, be qualified voters in the ward of which such precinct forms a part.

He may, in like manner, appoint two inspectors and two deputy inspectors in addition, and such additional inspectors to count and tabulate the votes as he may deem necessary. Every such appointment shall be filed in the office of the city clerk of such city within forty-eight hours after it is made, and shall be acted on by the aldermen not less than three days after the filing of such appointment and on or before September first following. Such appointment shall be open to public inspection. In cities where the aldermen accept this section or have accepted corresponding provisions of earlier laws, no deputy warden, deputy clerk or deputy inspectors shall be appointed.

SECTION 12. The selectmen of every town divided into voting precincts shall annually, not earlier than June fifteenth nor later than August fifteenth, appoint as election officers for each voting precinct, one warden, one deputy warden, one clerk, one deputy clerk, two inspectors and two deputy inspectors, who shall be voters of the precinct. They may, in like manner, appoint two inspectors and two deputy inspectors in addition.

SECTION 13. Such election officers shall be so appointed as equally to represent the two leading political parties, except that, without disturbing the equal representation of such parties, not more than two of such election officers not representing either of them may be appointed. The warden shall be of a different political party from the clerk, and not more than one half of the inspectors shall be of the same political party. In each case the principal officer and his deputy shall be of the same political party. Every election officer shall hold office for one year, beginning with September first succeeding his appointment, and until his successor is qualified, or until his removal. An election officer may be removed by the mayor, with the approval of the aldermen, or by the selectmen, after a hearing, upon written charge of incompetence or official misconduct pre-13, ferred by the city or town clerk, or by not less than six voters of the ward, 14, or, in a town, of the voting precinct where the officer is appointed to act.

1 Section 14. If there is a vacancy in the number of the election officers, or if an election officer declines his appointment and gives notice thereof to the city or town clerk within ten days following the date of his appointment, the mayor or the selectmen shall, except as provided in section sixteen, fill the vacancy; and the appointment shall be so made as 6, to preserve the equal representation of the two leading political parties.
7, Appointments to fill vacancies may be acted upon immediately by the 8, aldermen.

1913, 835, §§ 230, 503. 1919, 269, § 12. 1923, 204, § 3.

1 Section 15. No person shall, at a state, city or town election, be
2, eligible or act as an election officer in a voting precinct where he is a 3, candidate for election; and if a person appointed an election officer 4, becomes such a candidate, and does not forthwith resign his office, the 5, mayor or selectmen, if he is a candidate at a state election, shall remove 6, him from office before November first, or, if a candidate at a city election, 7, the mayor shall so remove him at least eight days before the day of the 8, election, or if a candidate at a town election the selectmen shall remove 9, him before the election.

1 Section 16. If a warden, clerk or inspector is absent at the opening 2, of the polls or subsequently on the day of election, or if the office is vacant, 3, the deputy of such officer shall act for that election in his place. If the 4, warden and deputy warden, clerk and deputy clerk, or an inspector and 5, his deputy, shall be absent, the voters of the precinct on nomination and 6, by hand vote shall fill the vacancy, and the officer so elected shall act
7, during the remainder of the election; but otherwise no deputy officer 8, shall act in an official capacity or be admitted to the space reserved for 9, election officers while the polls are open or during the counting of the 10, votes.

11, In cities where no deputy warden or deputy clerk is appointed, if a 12, warden or clerk is absent at the opening of the polls or subsequently on 13, the day of election, or if the office is vacant, the senior inspector of the 14, same political party as such warden or clerk shall act as warden or clerk 15, for that election, and the voters of the precinct, on nomination and by 16, hand vote, shall fill the vacancy in the office of inspector.

1 Section 17. At state elections in cities and in towns divided into 2, voting precincts, and in city elections, the presiding election officer of 3, each voting place or precinct shall detail two inspectors of different politi-
4, cal parties to act as ballot clerks, who shall have charge of the ballots
5, and shall furnish them to voters.

1 Section 18. At state elections in towns not divided into voting
2, precincts, the selectmen shall have the powers of wardens in cities or 3, moderators in towns, and shall act by their chairman or senior member 4, present, who shall be the presiding election officer.

Const. pt. 2, c. 1, § 2, art. 2. (Constit. Rev. art. 46.) 1793, 55, § 1. 1832, 109, § 1.

ELECTIONS.

Section 19. At state elections in towns not divided into voting precincts, and at town elections in towns where official ballots are used, the selectmen, before the opening of the polls, shall appoint two voters as ballot clerks, who shall have charge of the ballots and shall furnish them to voters. The selectmen or the moderator presiding at such election may subsequently appoint additional ballot clerks, not exceeding one for every four hundred voters and majority fraction thereof, and may likewise fill any vacancy after the opening of the polls. Such ballot clerks shall be so appointed as to represent the two leading political parties as equally as may be, except that such additional ballot clerks may be appointed from voters not representing either of them.

Penalty for misconduct by supervisor of elections. Chap. 56, § 17. for interference with supervisor, Chap. 56, § 43.

Section 20. Every election officer before entering upon the performance of his official duties shall be sworn before the city or town clerk, the presiding officer or clerk at the polls, or any officer qualified to administer oaths, and a record thereof shall be made.

Section 21. Selectmen of towns shall, at least five days before a state or town election, appoint voters as tellers to assist at the ballot box and in checking the names of voters upon the voting lists, and in canvassing and counting the votes. Presiding officers in such towns, at state and town elections, may appoint voters as additional tellers, and they shall do so on the written request of ten voters of the town. Tellers appointed at elections where official ballots are used shall be so appointed that the election officers making and assisting in the canvass and count of votes shall equally represent the two leading political parties.

Section 22. Election officers shall receive such compensation for each day's actual service as the city council or the selectmen respectively may determine; but no deputy officer shall receive compensation except for attendance at the opening of the polls or for services in place of an absent officer.

Section 23. Upon the written petition of ten qualified voters of a ward or of a town, presented at least twenty-one days before a state or city election therein, the governor, with the advice and consent of the council, shall appoint for such ward or town or for each voting precinct named in the petition, two voters of the city or town, who shall not be signers of the petition or members of any political committee or candidates for any office, to act as supervisors at such election. One supervisor shall be appointed from each of the two leading political parties. They shall be sworn by the city or town clerk or by an officer qualified to administer oaths. The supervisors shall attend the polling places for which they are appointed, may challenge persons offering to vote, and shall witness the conduct of the election and the counting of votes; but they shall not make any statement tending to reveal the state of the polls before the public declaration of the vote. They shall remain where the ballot boxes are kept after the polls are open and until the ballots are sealed for transmission to the officers entitled to receive them. Each Section 24. The aldermen in cities, except where city charters provide otherwise, and the selectmen of towns divided into voting precincts, shall, twenty days at least before the biennial state or annual or biennial city election and ten days at least before any special election of a state or city officer therein, designate the polling place for each voting precinct and cause it to be suitably fitted up and prepared therefor. In a city or town which has provided voting booths such booths may be placed in the public ways of such city or town, provided said ways are left reasonably safe and convenient for public travel. It shall be in a public, orderly and convenient portion of the precinct; but if no such polling place can be had within the precinct, they may designate a polling place in an adjoining precinct. No building or portion thereof shall be designated or used as a polling place in which intoxicating liquor has been sold within the thirty days preceding the day of the election. When the polling places have been designated, the aldermen, in at least five public places in each precinct of the city, and selectmen, in at least three public places in each precinct of the town, shall forthwith post a printed description of the polling places designated, and may give further notice thereof.

Section 25. Except where voting machines are used as provided in section thirty-four, the aldermen or selectmen shall cause each polling place in their respective cities and towns to be provided with a sufficient number of suitable marking shelves or compartments where voters may conveniently and secretly mark their ballots; and they shall cause a guard rail to be so placed that only persons inside thereof can approach within six feet of the ballot boxes or of the marking shelves or compartments. The ballot boxes and the marking shelves or compartments shall be in open view of persons in the polling place outside the guard rail. The number of marking shelves or compartments shall be not less than one for every seventy-five voters at such polling place, and not less than five in any voting precinct of a city, and not less than three in any town or voting precinct thereof. Each marking shelf or compartment shall at all times be provided with proper supplies and conveniences for marking the ballots.

Section 25A. In any city or town which accepts this section by vote of its city council or selectmen, the national flag shall be displayed at each polling place during the hours when voting is taking place thereat.

Ballot Boxes, Voting Machines, Counting Apparatus and Blanks.

Section 26. Except where voting machines are used as provided in section thirty-four, the state secretary shall, at the expense of the commonwealth, provide every city and town for use at every polling place therein with a state ballot box and counting apparatus approved by the board of voting machine examiners as provided in section thirty-two.
Ballot boxes shall be purchased by the secretary at a price not exceeding seventy dollars each.

Section 27. The state secretary shall provide every city and town with suitable blank forms and envelopes for all certificates, copies of records and returns required to be made at his office, with such printed directions thereon as he may deem necessary; and such other blank forms and suggestions and instructions, as will assist the election officers in the performance of their duties. The clerks of the courts of the several counties shall in like manner provide cities and towns with suitable blank forms and envelopes for all certificates, copies of records and returns required to be made to the county commissioners and boards of examiners.

Section 28. The clerk of each city or town shall provide therein a place for the safe keeping of the ballot boxes and counting apparatus furnished by the commonwealth, and of voting machines used in such city or town. He shall have the care and custody thereof, and see that they are kept in good order and repair. The custody, care and repair of all such voting machines, ballot boxes and apparatus shall be at the expense of the city or town, but shall be subject to the supervision and control of the state secretary, who may, at the expense of the commonwealth, subject to approval as provided in section thirty-two, cause necessary improvements to be made in any of such voting machines, ballot boxes or apparatus.

Section 29. If a state ballot box becomes defective or is lost or destroyed, the state secretary, upon application by the city or town clerk, shall provide another ballot box at the expense of such city or town.

Section 30. The clerk of every city and of every town divided into voting precincts shall furnish to the clerk of each voting precinct a seal of suitable device, with a designation thereon of such precinct; and such seal shall be used in sealing all envelopes required by law to be used at elections. The clerk of the precinct shall retain custody of the seal, and shall, at the end of his term of office, deliver it, with the records of the precinct and other official documents in his custody, to the city or town clerk.

Section 31. Every city and town clerk shall send to the election officers at each polling place, before the opening of the polls on the day of an election or meeting at which the same are required to be used, the ballot box, blank forms and counting and other apparatus.

Section 32. The state ballot law commission shall constitute the state board of voting machine examiners and no member thereof shall...
3 have any pecuniary interest, directly or indirectly, in any voting machine, ballot box or counting apparatus. They shall, at such times, under such conditions, and after such public notice as they shall determine, examine voting machines, ballot boxes and counting apparatus, and shall file with the state secretary their written approval of all machines, ballot boxes and counting apparatus which in their judgment conform to the requirements of law, together with such written or printed descriptions, and such drawings, specifications and photographs as will clearly identify such machines, and the state secretary shall send a copy of each report on voting machines to every city and town clerk. For the purpose of such examination said board may employ not more than three expert machinists at a cost not exceeding ten dollars each for each day employed, and to be paid from the appropriation for the expenses of the commission.

16 If any machine, ballot box or counting apparatus approved and prescribed by said board in accordance with this and the following section shall, in the judgment of the board at any time thereafter, by reason of the enactment of further requirements, cease to conform to the requirements of law, the board shall notify the state secretary thereof, who shall forthwith send a copy of such notice to every city and town clerk; and no such machine, ballot box or counting apparatus shall be used at any primary, caucus or election until, upon examination by said board, it shall in their judgment conform to all the requirements of law, and shall be approved in the manner herein provided.

1 Section 33. Voting machines shall furnish convenient, simple and satisfactory means of voting at primaries and elections and of ascertaining and recording the true result thereof with facility and accuracy, special regard being given to the prevention and detection of double voting at primaries and elections and of voting for candidates of more than one political party at a primary; but no machine shall be approved which does not secure to the voter as much secrecy in voting as is afforded by the use of the official ballot. Ballot boxes shall have sufficient locks and keys or seal fastenings, and shall contain mechanical devices for receiving, registering and cancelling every ballot deposited therein; but no such box shall record any distinguishing number or mark upon a ballot. No machine, ballot box or counting apparatus, not approved in accordance with this and the preceding section, shall be used at any election, primary or caucus; nor shall any such machines, ballot boxes or counting apparatus be used except in accordance with the laws relating to primaries and elections. The arrangement of names and questions on voting machines shall be in general the same as on the official ballot, except that when in the judgment of the ballot law commission it is impracticable, said commission shall determine the arrangement.

1 Section 34. The aldermen of a city, except Boston, or a town, may, at a meeting held at least thirty days before the primary or election at which voting machines are to be used, determine upon and purchase or lease them, etc. Voting machines and purchase or lease of voting machines approved as provided in section thirty-two, and order the use thereof at primaries and elections of state, city or town officers in such city or town; and thereafter at all primaries and elections of state, city or town officers in that city or town, until otherwise ordered by the aldermen in a city, and the selectmen in a town, said machines shall be used at primaries and for voting for the officers to and approve, etc., voting machines, ballot boxes, etc. Action if they cease to conform to law. be elected at such elections and for taking the vote upon questions submittet to the voters.
For polling places in which voting machines are to be used no ballot boxes or ballots shall be furnished.

SECTION 35. The body, board, or official charged with the conduct of elections in any city or town where voting machines are used shall, before the opening of the polls at a primary or election, cause each machine to be prepared for use and delivered at the polling place, and shall cause to be done all things necessary to hold the primary or election with machines.

[Penalty for tampering with voting machine, etc., Chap. 56, § 48.]

SECTION 36. In any election when voting machines are used in any polling place in any city or town, the number of election officers in such polling place may be less than six in the discretion of the board, body or official in which or in whom the authority to determine the number of election officers in such polling place is vested by law, subject to section thirteen.

SECTION 37. The ballot law commission shall make regulations for the use of the voting machines, ballot boxes and counting apparatus approved by it, and suitable instructions for the voters in cities and towns where such machines, ballot boxes and counting apparatus are used shall be prepared and furnished by the state secretary.

SECTION 38. No voting machine shall be used at a primary or election until it has been inspected under the direction of the state secretary and found to conform to drawings and specifications to be filed in the office of the secretary by the ballot law commission, with their report on the machine, nor shall any ballot box or counting apparatus be used at a primary, caucus or election until it has been inspected and approved under the direction of said secretary.

SECTION 39. When voting machines or ballot boxes are purchased by the commonwealth or by a city or town, the persons of whom the purchase is made shall give to the state secretary, city or town clerk or election commissioners, as the case may be, a bond with sufficient sureties to keep such machines or ballot boxes in working order for two years.
Such persons shall also give a bond with sufficient sureties, conditioned to defend and indemnify the commonwealth or cities and towns purchasing, or leasing, and using the machines or ballot boxes against any suit at law or in equity and for any expense, damage or inconvenience which they may incur or suffer by reason of any suit brought against them for infringement of patents or other rights, arising from the purchase, lease, or use of such machines or ballot boxes.

PREPARATION AND FORM OF BALLOTS.

SECTION 40. All ballots for use in elections of state officers shall be prepared and furnished by the state secretary, and all ballots for use in elections of city or town officers, by the city or town clerk. No such 4 ballots shall be printed in any printing establishment owned or man-5 aged by Boston.

1907, 569, §§ 229, 456.
164 Mass. 486.

1 Section 41. Ballots for the use of voters in a voting precinct or town
2 shall contain the names of all candidates duly nominated for election
3 therein, and, except as provided in section forty-three, such ballots shall 4 contain the name of no other person.
5 To the name of each candidate for a state office shall be added the name
6 of the city or town where he resides. To the name of each candidate for 7 a city office shall be added the name of the street on which he resides, 8 with his street number, if any; and to the name of each candidate for 9 alderman at large shall also be added the number of the ward where he 10 resides.
11 To the name of each candidate for a state or city office, except city
12 offices in cities where political designations are forbidden, shall be added 13 in the same space his party or political designation or designations.
14 To the name of a candidate for a state or city office who is an elected 15 incumbent thereof and who is one of two or more candidates therefor, 16 bearing the same name, there shall be added in the same space the words
17 "Candidate for Re-election". To the name of each candidate for a town
18 office upon an official ballot shall be added the designation of the party 19 or principle which he represents, contained in the certificate of nominat-20 ion or nomination papers. The town clerk shall add the words "Caucus 21 Nominee" to the name of any candidate nominated for a town office by 22 a caucus held under the provisions of sections one hundred and seventeen 23 to one hundred and twenty, inclusive, of chapter fifty-three.
24 If a candidate shall receive the nomination of more than one party or 25 more than one political designation for the same office, he may, within 26 the seventy-two hours next succeeding five o'clock in the afternoon of the 27 last day fixed for the filing of nominations, by a writing delivered to the 28 officer or board required by law to prepare the official ballot, direct in 29 what order the several nominations or political designations shall be 30 added to his name upon the official ballot; and such directions shall be 31 followed by the said officer or board. If, during said time, said candidate 32 shall neglect to so direct, said officer or board shall add said nomina-33 tions or political designations to the name of said candidate upon the 34 official ballot in such order as said officer or board shall determine.

1 Section 42. The names of candidates for every state, city and town office, except presidential electors, shall be arranged under the designation of the office in alphabetical order according to their surnames, except as city charters otherwise provide in the case of municipal offices; but 5 the names of candidates for different terms of service in the same office 6 shall be arranged in groups according to the length of their respective terms, and the names of candidates nominated by single wards but to be voted for at large shall be arranged in groups by wards. In the case 9 of representatives in congress, the designation may be "congressman"
10 Blank spaces shall be left at the end of the list of candidates for each different office, equal to the number to be elected thereto, in which the voter 12 may insert the name of any person not printed on the ballot for whom he 13 desires to vote for such office. If the approval of any question is submitted to the voters, it shall be printed on the ballot after the names of the candidates.

Ballots shall be so printed as to give to each voter an opportunity to designate by a cross (X), in a square at the right of the name and designation of each candidate, and at the right of each question, his choice of candidates and his answer to such question; and upon the ballots may be printed such directions as will aid the voter; for example, "vote for one", "vote for two", "yes"", "no", and the like. On the back of the ballot when folded shall be printed the words "Official Ballot for", followed by the designation of the voting precinct or town for which the ballot is prepared, the date of election, and a facsimile of the signature of the officer who has caused the ballot to be prepared.

Section 43. The names of candidates for presidential electors shall be arranged in groups as presented in the several certificates of nomination or nomination papers. The groups shall be arranged in the alphabetical order of the surnames of the candidates for president, and the names of the candidates in each group shall be printed upon the ballots in two columns of equal width. If candidates are nominated at large and for the several congressional districts, the name and place of residence of the candidates at large shall be put at the head of the first column, and the names of the other candidates with their places of residence and the numbers of their congressional districts shall follow in the numerical order of the districts. The surnames of the candidates of each political party for the offices of president and vice president, with the political designation thereof at the right of the surnames, shall be placed in one line above the group of candidates of such party for electors. A sufficient square in which each voter may designate by a cross (X) his choice for electors shall be left at the right of each political designation; and no other space or margin shall be left in any such group of candidates.

Section 44. The official ballots shall, except as otherwise provided in this chapter, be of ordinary white printing paper, of two or more pages, and shall, before distribution, be so folded as to measure not less than four and one half nor more than five inches in width and not less than six nor more than thirteen and one half inches in length. The names of all candidates shall be printed in black ink in lines at a right angle with the length of the ballot. The names of all candidates, other than candidates for presidential electors and for president and vice president, and the initial letters of all names of candidates for presidential electors, shall be in capital letters not less than one eighth nor more than one quarter of an inch in height. The surnames and political designations of the candidates for president and vice president shall be in capital letters not less than three sixteenths of an inch in height.

Section 45. One set of ballots, not less than sixty for every fifty registered voters, and for every fraction of fifty thereof, shall be provided for each polling place at which an election for state, city or town officers is to be held. The state secretary or the city or town clerk, as the case may be, may provide a duplicate set of ballots for any polling place when he deems it necessary.

A sufficient number of partial ballots in state elections shall be prepared for voters entitled to vote for a part only of the officers to be voted for in a city or town. A statement shall be printed on the back.
Elections.

10 of such ballots, in addition to the official endorsement, indicating the 11 class of voters for whose use the ballots are furnished, and such ballots 12 only shall be furnished to those voters.
1912, 266. 1913, 835, §§ 262, 503.

1 Section 46. Ballots, in convenient numbers, shall be arranged in 2 packages. A record of the number of ballots printed and delivered to 3 each polling place shall be kept by the state secretary, or the city or town 4 clerk, for one year.

Section 47. If a vacancy occurs or is declared in the list of nominations, by reason of death or ineligibility, the name of the candidate nominated to fill such vacancy shall, if the ballots have not been printed, be placed on them or, if the ballots have been printed, ballots containing the new nomination shall, when practicable, be substituted.

Information to Voters.

1 Section 48. The state secretary in state elections, city clerks in city elections, and town clerks in town elections at which official ballots are used, shall, for every such election, prepare and cause to be printed in large clear type cards containing full instructions to voters for obtaining 5 ballots, marking them, obtaining assistance and new ballots in place of those accidentally spoiled; and on separate cards such abstracts of the laws imposing penalties upon voters as they shall deem proper. They shall also provide for each polling place ten or more specimen ballots which shall be facsimiles of the ballots provided for voting, but printed without the endorsements and on colored paper. The state secretary shall provide copies of any proposed amendment to the constitution, law or proposed law, submitted to the people, with a heading in large 13 type, “Proposed Amendment to the Constitution”, “Law Submitted upon Referendum after Passage”, “Law Proposed by Initiative Petition”, as the case may be.

1 Section 49. The state secretary, at least five days before state elections, shall transmit to the registrars printed lists of the names, residences 3 and designations of candidates to be voted for at each polling place, 4 substantially in the form of the official ballot, and also printed copies of 5 any proposed amendment to the constitution, law, or proposed law, to 6 be submitted to the people. Upon the receipt thereof, the registrars shall 7 conspicuously post in not less than three public places in each voting 8 precinct or town the lists and copies aforesaid for such precinct or town.

1913, 835, §§ 263, 503.

[Penalty for tearing down, etc., posted list, Chap. 56, § 30.]

1 Section 50. At least four days before a city election, city clerks shall cause to be posted in every voting precinct the names, residences 3 and designations of all candidates duly nominated to be voted for in 4 their respective cities, substantially in the form of the official ballot.

R. L. 11, § 205.
Section 51. In towns using official ballots the town clerk, at least four days before an election therein, shall cause to be posted in one or more public places the names, residences and designations of all candidates duly nominated to be voted for in the town, substantially in the form of the official ballot.

1913, 835, §§ 208, 503.

Section 52. Before every state election, the state secretary shall cause to be published a list of all candidates to be voted for in each senatorial district, except that in the county of Suffolk the publication shall be of all candidates to be voted for therein. He shall also publish with said lists the form of any question to be submitted to the voters. Before every city election, city clerks shall cause to be published a list of all candidates to be voted for in their respective cities, and the form of any question to be submitted to the voters at such election. Such lists and questions shall in all cases be in the form, as near as may be, in which they are to appear upon the official ballot, and for state elections shall be printed in at least four newspapers, if there be so many, published in English in each senatorial district, or in the county of Suffolk, as the case may be. Such publication shall, so far as is practicable, be in newspapers representing the two leading political parties, and at such reasonable cost as the secretary may determine. For city elections the publication shall be made in at least two newspapers representing the two leading political parties, if there are so many in the city, devoted wholly or chiefly to the publication of local or general news.

Section 53. The election commissioners in Boston at least twenty-four days, and the registrars of voters in every other city and town at least sixty days, before the biennial state election, shall cause to be sent to the state secretary mailing lists of the voters whose names appear on the latest revised voting lists of their respective cities and towns, and shall promptly furnish him with subsequent additions to and corrections in the said lists. The secretary shall cause to be printed in type of a size not less than ten point and sent to each person whose name appears upon the said lists, with copies of the measures to which they refer and brief statements, prepared by the attorney general, of the provisions thereof, arguments for and against measures to be submitted to the people under the forty-eighth article of the amendments to the constitution, provided that the arguments are filed with him as provided in the following section.

Section 54. The first ten signers of an initiative or referendum petition, or a majority of them, may prepare and file with the state secretary, not later than ten days after the petition is completed and filed with the secretary in case of a law, and not later than ten days after final legislative action and certification to the secretary in case of a constitutional amendment, a written argument containing not more than five hundred words. If such written argument is filed with the secretary he shall cause to be prepared by a registered voter of the commonwealth and filed with him, within such time as he may designate, a contrary written argument of the same maximum length. All arguments filed with the secretary under this section shall be open to public inspection.
1 Section 55. Whenever any law submitted for acceptance to the voters of a city is to be placed on the ballot at any election, the city clerk in every city where such law is to be voted upon, except as herein- after provided, shall send to each of the registered voters in his city entitled to vote thereon a copy thereof, with the statement that such law is to be voted on at said election.

1 Section 56. Upon vote of a city council, with the approval of the mayor, there may be substituted for a copy of such law a statement of the general purport thereof, which statement shall be prepared by the city solicitor of the city and approved by the mayor and city council.

1 Section 57. All such copies or statements shall be sent not less than two and not more than twenty-one days before the election at which said matter is to be voted upon.

1 Section 58. By vote of a city council, with the approval of the mayor, the three preceding sections may be suspended and made inapplicable as to a particular law submitted for acceptance.

DELIVERY OF BALLOTS, ETC.

1 Section 59. Ballots for state elections shall be enclosed in a package by the state secretary, sealed and marked with the number of ballots of each kind therein, and specimen ballots, cards of instruction, cards containing abstracts of the laws imposing penalties upon voters, and copies of any measure to be submitted to the people shall be enclosed in another package, and the whole shall be further enclosed in a single package with marks on the outside indicating its contents and the polling place for which it is intended, and transmitted to city and town clerks, so as to be received at least twelve hours before the date of election. The clerks shall return receipts therefor to the secretary. He shall keep a record of the time when and the manner in which the several packages are transmitted, and shall preserve the receipts therefor for one year. The clerk of each city and of each town using official ballots shall enclose the ballots, specimen ballots, cards of instruction and cards containing abstracts of the laws imposing penalties upon voters for city or town elections in the same manner.

1 Section 60. The city or town clerk, on the day of every state or city election, before the opening of the polls, shall transmit to the election officers of each polling place therein, all things mentioned in the preceding section which have been provided for such polling place; and the presiding election officer at the polling place shall receipt therefor to the clerk, and such receipt, with a record of the number of ballots transmitted, shall be kept in the clerk's office for one year. At town elections, the town clerk shall, on the day of the election, before the opening of the polls, deliver the ballots at the polling place to the ballot clerks, who shall receipt therefor, and their receipt shall be preserved in the office of the clerk for one year. If a moderator presides at such election, no such ballots shall be delivered to voters until he has been chosen. The town clerk shall also deliver the specimen ballots, cards of instruction and cards containing abstracts of the laws imposing penalties upon voters at the same time and place. No ballots or specimen ballots shall be delivered by city or town clerks except as provided herein.

[Penalty for obstructing transmission of ballots or returns, Chap. 56, § 45.]

SECTION 61. If the ballots provided for any polling place are not delivered, or if after delivery they are destroyed or stolen, the city or town clerk shall cause similar ballots to be prepared; and upon receipt of such new ballots, accompanied by a statement by him on oath that they have been so prepared and transmitted by him, and that the original ballots have not been delivered or have been so destroyed or stolen, the ballots so substituted shall be used.

called by the aldermen, and the city clerk shall, under their direction, cause notice of such elections to be printed in one or more newspapers published in such city and to be conspicuously posted in the office of the city clerk; and in Boston, in at least four daily newspapers published therein. Such notices shall be in lieu of the notices or warrants for election required in any city by special statutes. Elections of state officers and town officers shall be called in towns as provided in section ten of chapter thirty-nine. The biennial state and the annual or biennial city and town elections shall be called at least seven days before the day prescribed for the holding thereof.

[Penalty for defacing or removing notice, Chap. 56, § 29.]

SECTION 64. Notices or warrants for state and city elections and for the election of town officers in towns where official ballots are used shall specify by name all the offices to be voted for, and state, in the form in which it will appear upon the ballot, any question submitted to the voters. They shall specify the time when the polls will be opened, and in cities and in towns when voting by precints, when the polls will be closed, and in towns where not voting by precincts, when they may be closed.
The polls shall in no case be kept open after eight o'clock in the evening.
In cities, the polls may be opened as early as fifteen minutes before six o'clock in the forenoon, and shall be opened as early as ten o'clock in the forenoon and shall be kept open at least six hours.
12 In towns, at the election of state and town officers, the polls may be 13 opened as early as fifteen minutes before six o'clock in the forenoon, and 14 shall be opened as early as twelve o'clock, noon, and shall be kept open at 15 least four hours, and until the time specified in the warrant when they 16 may or will be closed; and in towns not voting by precincts they may be 17 kept open for such longer time as the meeting shall direct. At annual 18 town meetings they shall be kept open at least one hour for the reception
19 of votes upon the question of licensing the sale of certain non-intoxicating 20 beverages, as defined in section one of chapter one hundred and thirty-21 eight. After an announcement has been made by the presiding officer of a 22 time so fixed for closing the polls they shall not be closed at an earlier hour.

CONDUCT OF ELECTIONS.

1 Section 65. At an election of state or city officers, and of town
2 officers in towns where official ballots are used, the presiding election
3 officer at each polling place shall, before the opening of the polls, post at 4 least three cards of instruction, three cards containing abstracts of the 5 laws imposing penalties upon voters, three copies of measures to be sub-6 mitted to the people, if any, and at least five specimen ballots within 7 the polling place outside the guard rail, and the cards of instruction and 8 a copy of each measure to be submitted to the people in each marking 9 compartment; and no other poster, card, handbill, placard, picture or 10 circular intended to influence the action of the voter, except a pasteur to 11 be placed upon the official ballot, shall be posted, exhibited, circulated 12 or distributed in the polling place, in the building where the polling 13 place is located, on the walls thereof, on the premises on which the build-14 ing stands, on the sidewalk adjoining the premises where such election is 15 being held, or within one hundred and fifty feet of the entrance to such 16 polling place. Pasters to be placed on the official ballot shall be subject 17 to all the restrictions imposed by sections forty-one and forty-four as to 18 names and residences of candidates and the size of the type in which 19 the names shall be printed; but no political or other designation shall 20 appear on such pasters, and no vote by paster shall be counted if such 21 designation appears. The presiding election officer shall, at the open-22 ing of the polls, publicly open the packages containing the ballots and 23 deliver them to the ballot clerks. All specimen ballots not posted shall 24 be kept in the custody of the presiding officer until after the closing of 25 the polls.

1 Section 66. The state ballot boxes shall be used for receiving the 2 ballots in state and city elections, and in town elections where official 3 ballots are used. The election officers at each polling place shall, at the 4 opening of the polls and before any ballots are received, publicly open
5 the ballot box, and ascertain by personal examination, and publicly 6 show, that the same is empty, and shall immediately thereafter lock or 7 fasten the box. The clerk of the precinct or town shall make a record of 8 the condition of the box register, and, if a key is used, it shall be retained 9 by the police officer or constable at the polling place. The ballot box shall 10 not, after it is shown to be empty, be removed from public view until all 11 ballots have been removed therefrom and the box has been relocked or 12 sealed. The ballot box shall not be opened nor any ballot removed 13 therefrom until the polls are closed, except as provided in section one

ELECTIONS.

SECTION 67. One voting list shall be delivered to the ballot clerks and another to the officers in charge of the ballot box. When a ballot is delivered to a voter, his name shall be checked on the first and when he deposits his ballot it shall be checked on the second. The officer in charge of the ballot box and the officer in charge of the voting list shall be of different political parties.

SECTION 67A. If the selectmen so vote, more than one state ballot box may be used at any polling place in any town at state elections and at town elections if official ballots are used therein. If more than one ballot box is to be used at any polling place as aforesaid, the voting lists for use thereat shall each be divided by the selectmen into as many sections as there are ballot boxes. Upon written request of the selectmen of a town for one or more additional ballot boxes for use as herein provided, the state secretary shall provide the same at the expense of such town.

SECTION 68. No election officer shall, before the public declaration of the vote, make any statement of the number of ballots cast, the number of votes given for any person, the name of any person who has voted or whose name has not been checked, or of any other fact tending to show the state of the polls, except as expressly permitted by section one hundred and five and except that he shall when requested make a statement of the figures on the ballot box register, which statement shall not be considered an official declaration as to the state of the polls or of the number of ballots cast.

SECTION 69. No persons except the election officers, supervisors, the city or town clerks, and voters admitted for the purpose of voting, shall, during the progress of an election and until the public declaration of the vote, be permitted within the guard rail, unless authorized by the election officers for the purpose of keeping order and enforcing the law.
ELECTIONS.

Section 70. No more than four voters, besides election officers and supervisors, and the city or town clerk, in excess of the number of marking compartments provided, shall be allowed at one time within the guard rail, and except the election officers and supervisors, no voters shall be admitted therein after the time fixed for closing the polls; but voters previously admitted shall be allowed five minutes after the time so fixed to deposit their ballots.

Section 71. The presiding officer at each polling place shall enforce the performance by election officers of their duties. During an election and the counting of the ballots after the close of the polls, he shall have authority to maintain order and to enforce obedience to his lawful commands, in and about the polling place and to keep the access thereto open and unobstructed, and he may require any police officer, constable or other person to communicate his orders and directions and assist in their enforcement.

Penalty for disobeying election officer, Chap. 56, § 42.

Section 72. The board or officer in charge of the police force of each city and town shall detail a sufficient number of police officers or constables for each polling place at every election thereto preserve order and to protect the election officers and supervisors from any interference with their duties and to aid in enforcing the laws relating to elections.

Section 73. Any person who, during an election or town meeting, shall, in a polling place or place of such meeting, smoke or have in his possession a lighted pipe, cigar or cigarette, or carry into any such place or keep therein any intoxicating liquor, shall be deemed guilty of disorderly conduct; and the presiding officer shall order him to remove such pipe, cigar, cigarette or liquor, or to withdraw from such place, and for disobedience of such order shall cause him to be removed from such polling place or meeting.

Penalty for failure to remove cigar, etc., or withdraw when ordered, Chap. 56, § 41.

Section 74. If a person at an election refuses to obey the lawful commands of the presiding officer or, by disorderly conduct interrupts or disturbs the proceedings of an election officer, the presiding officer may require any police officer, constable or other person to take him into custody and detain him until after the election; but the presiding officer may at any time order his release. Such order of detention shall not be so enforced as to prevent such person, if a voter at that polling place, from voting.

1913, §§ 289, 503. 16 Mass. 385.

Penalty for disorderly conduct, Chap. 56, § 40.

Section 75. Every election officer shall forthwith report every violation of any provision of sections sixty-two to eighty-five and one hundred and four to one hundred and thirty-seven, both inclusive, to the police officer or constable in attendance at the polling place, and such police officer or constable shall cause the offender to be prosecuted.

MANNER OF VOTING.

SECTION 76. Each voter desiring to vote at a polling place where official ballots are used shall give his name and, if requested, his residence to one of the ballot clerks, who shall thereupon distinctly announce the same; and if such name is found upon the voting list by the ballot clerk, he shall check and repeat the name and give one ballot to such voter, who shall then be admitted within the guard rail. If not entitled to vote for all the offices upon the ballot, he shall receive a partial ballot.

SECTION 77. The voter on receiving his ballot shall, without leaving the enclosed space, retire alone to one of the marking compartments, and shall, except in the case of voting for presidential electors, prepare his ballot by making a cross (X) in the square at the right of the name of each candidate for whom he intends to vote or by inserting the name and residence of such candidate in the space provided therefor and making a cross in the square at the right; and, upon a question submitted to the vote of the people, by making a cross in the square at the right of the answer which he intends to give.

SECTION 78. A voter may vote for an entire group of candidates for presidential electors by making a cross (X) in the square at the right of the party or political designation immediately above such group. If a voter does not intend to vote for any one candidate in the group, he may strike out his name, and the cross shall count as a vote for each of the other candidates in such group. If a voter desires to vote for another person in place of a candidate whose name he has struck out, he may insert his name and residence in one of the blank spaces and make a cross in the square at the right thereof. A voter who does not mark for any group of candidates may vote for candidates for electors, up to the number to be elected, by inserting names and residences in the blank spaces at the end of the groups of electors and making a cross in the square at the right of each name so inserted.

[Penalty for false statement or oath, Chap. 56, § 31.]

SECTION 79. A voter who declares on oath to the presiding officer that he had the right to vote on May first, eighteen hundred and fifty-seven, and cannot read, or that from blindness or other physical disability he is unable to prepare his ballot or register his vote upon a voting machine, shall be assisted in such marking or registering by any qualified voter whom he may designate.

SECTION 82. Before leaving the marking compartment the voter shall fold his ballot, without displaying the marks thereon, as it was received, and shall keep it so folded until he has voted. A voter shall mark and deposit his ballot without undue delay, and shall leave the space enclosed by the guard rail as soon as he has voted, and shall not remain within the guard rail more than ten minutes. No voter shall occupy a voting compartment more than five minutes, if all the marking compartments are in use and other voters are waiting to occupy the same, nor shall he occupy a marking compartment occupied by another, except as provided in section seventy-nine.

SECTION 83. A voter after marking his ballot shall give his name and address, if requested, his residence, to one of the officers in charge of the ballot box, and who shall distinctly announce the same. If the name is found on the voting list by the election officer, he shall distinctly repeat the name, and check it on the voting list; and the voter may then deposit his ballot in the ballot box with the official endorsement uppermost and in sight of the officers. No ballot without the official endorsement, except as provided in section sixty-one, shall be deposited in the ballot box. No person shall vote if his name is not on the voting list, nor until the election officer shall check his name thereon, unless he presents a certificate from the registrar of tracts of voters as provided by section fifty-nine of chapter fifty-one.

SECTION 84. No person shall remove any ballot from the space enclosed by the guard rail before the polls are closed. No voter whose name has been checked on the voting list in charge of the ballot clerk, other than an election officer or supervisor, shall again enter such enclosed space during the election.

SECTION 85. In any state, city or town election at which official ballots are used the right of a person offering to vote is challenged for any legal cause, the presiding officer shall administer to him the following oath:

You do solemnly swear (or affirm) that you are the identical person whom you represent yourself to be, that you are registered in this precinct (or town) and that you have not voted at this election.

Proceedings when vote is challenged.

SECTION 86. If he shall also be required to write his name and residence on the outside of the ballot offered, and the presiding officer shall add thereto the name of the person challenging, and the cause assigned therefor, whereupon such ballot shall be received; and no person shall make any statement or give any information in regard thereto, except as required by law. The clerk shall record the name and residence of every person who has been challenged and has voted.

Penalty for failure to make proper entry on ballot of challenged voter, Chap. 56, § 19; for false oath by voter, Chap. 56, § 31; for illegal challenging, Chap. 56, § 38; for illegally giving information relative to challenged voter, Chap. 56, §§ 20, 53.

Absent Voters.

Section 86. Any voter who on the day of the biennial state election is absent from the city or town where he is registered, and whose application for an official absent voting ballot has been filed with the city or town clerk as provided in section eighty-nine, or with the state secretary as provided in section ninety, and certified under section ninety-one, may vote in accordance with sections eighty-seven to one hundred and three, inclusive; provided, that a voter who is in a penal institution under sentence shall not be entitled or permitted to avail himself of the provisions of this and the seventeen following sections.

[Penalty for official misconduct under §§ 86 to 103, inclusive, Chap. 56, § 27.]

Section 87. Prior to each biennial state election the state secretary shall prepare in such quantities as he may deem necessary the following papers:

(a) Official absent voting ballots, similar in all respects to the official ballot to be used at such election, but printed on paper differing in color from that used for official or specimen ballots.

(b) Blank forms of application for such ballots, worded as follows:

I, , hereby apply for an official absent voting ballot. I am a legal resident of the city or town of and a duly registered voter at

Section 88. The state secretary shall retain for his own use so many of the papers provided for in the preceding section as he may deem sufficient, and shall supply each city and town clerk in the commonwealth with as many of them as he may deem necessary.

Section 89. The blank form of application set forth in clause (b) of section eighty-seven, and the other papers described in clause (e) of said section, shall, as soon as they can be prepared, be delivered to any person who by mail or otherwise applies therefor to the state secretary or to any city or town clerk, except a person known by the state secretary or said clerk to be in a penal institution under sentence. The official absent voting ballot and all other papers described in said section shall be mailed by city and town clerks, postage prepaid, to all voters, except those in a penal institution under sentence, who seasonably file with them, either directly or through the state secretary under the following section, the application set forth in said clause (b), after the same is certified by the 12 registrars and returned to the clerk, as provided in section ninety-one.
13 Any voter who has received the blank form of said application under this 14 or the following section may file said application with the city or town 15 clerk.

Section 90. The state secretary shall obtain as soon as practicable
2 the names, addresses, official rank or title, and the places where they 3 are entitled to vote, of all registered voters in the military or naval serv-4 ice of the United States, or in the civil or official service of the United 5 States or of this commonwealth, who by reason of such service are absent
6 from the commonwealth. The adjutant general and all city and town 7 officials shall give him all reasonable assistance that he may request for 8 this purpose. To such voters he shall forward as soon as practicable the 9 papers mentioned in clauses (b) and (e) of section eighty-seven, with re-
10 turn envelopes addressed to himself. All applications received by him 11 from such voters shall be forwarded to the clerks of the several cities or 12 towns where such voters assert the right to vote.
SECTION 91. When an application for an official absent voting ballot is received by the clerk of a city or town, whether from the voter directly or through the state secretary, it shall be transmitted by him to the registrars, who shall examine it and, if they believe the signature thereon to be genuine and the person executing the signature to be a duly registered voter, shall execute the certificate thereon and return the application to said clerk. The clerk shall cause to be placed on the voting list, opposite the name of each person registered as an absent voter, the letters in capitals A. V. If the registrars find the person signing the application not to be a duly registered voter, they shall send him written notice to that effect and shall preserve the application during the time fixed by law for the preservation of ballots cast in the coming election, after which time said application shall be destroyed. The clerk shall keep lists of the names and addresses, arranged by voting precincts, of all voters filing applications for absent voting ballots, and shall post copies of the same for public inspection.

SECTION 92. A voter, who has received an official absent voting ballot as provided in section eighty-nine, may vote by mailing the same to the city or town clerk. He shall mark said ballot in the presence of an official authorized by law to administer oaths, and of no other person, in a municipality which is separated by at least two municipalities from the city or town where the voter is registered. Before marking the ballot he shall exhibit it to said official, who shall satisfy himself that it is unmarked, but he shall not allow said official to see how he marks it. Said official shall hold no communication with the voter, nor he with said official, as to how he is to vote. Thereafter the voter shall enclose and seal the same in the envelope provided for by clause (c) of section eighty-seven. He shall then execute before said official the affidavit on said envelope as set forth in said clause (c), and shall enclose and seal the envelope with the ballot in the envelope provided for in clause (d) of said section, endorse thereon his name, address and voting place, and mail the same within the time prescribed in the following section, postage prepaid, at a post office in a municipality which is separated by at least two municipalities from the city or town wherein the voter is registered.

SECTION 93. All ballots cast under the preceding section shall be mailed on or before the day of election. The postmark, if legible, shall be conclusive evidence of the time and place of mailing.

SECTION 94. Upon receipt of an envelope purporting to contain an official absent voting ballot, the clerk of the city or town shall attach thereto the application for an official absent voting ballot executed by the voter whose name appears thereon and certified by the registrars of voters. All such envelopes shall be preserved unopened. Upon election day before the hour for the closing of the polls the said clerk shall deliver all envelopes received by him to the election officers in the several voting precincts where the voters named therein assert the right to vote.

SECTION 95. Immediately after the closing of the polls, and after the ballots cast have been removed from the ballot box, the warden or his deputy in each polling place shall open all envelopes delivered to him under the preceding section, and shall compare the signatures on the envelopes therein enclosed with the signatures on the applications attached thereto, except in the case of ballots prepared under section ninety-eight, and shall examine the postmarks and affidavits. If the affidavits are properly executed, and if the postmarks and affidavits, or in case the postmarks are illegible, the affidavits, sufficiently disclose that the ballots were executed and mailed in accordance with sections eighty-six to one hundred and three, inclusive, and if the signatures on the affidavits appear to be executed by the same persons who signed the applications, and to be the signatures of duly registered voters who have not voted at the election, he shall make public announcement of the names of the absent voters, open the envelopes in such manner as not to destroy the affidavits thereon, take out the ballots without unfolding them, or permitting them to be opened or examined, and, after checking the names of the absent voters on the voting list, shall deposit the ballots in the ballot box. If he finds an envelope to bear an affidavit improperly executed, or not signed by the person who signed the accompanying application, or if the voter whose name appears thereon is not a registered voter or has voted in person, he shall not open the envelope, but shall mark across the face thereof "Rejected as defective", "Rejected as not a voter", "Voted in person", as the case may be. All envelopes, opened or unopened, shall be retained with the ballots cast at the election, and preserved and destroyed in the manner provided by law for the retention, preservation or destruction of official ballots. The tally sheets in use at elections shall provide in convenient form for the recording thereon of all envelopes, as well as all accepted or rejected ballots of absent voters.

1 Section 96. All ballots received by mail shall be subject to challenge when and as cast for non-compliance with any provision of sections eighty-six to one hundred and three, inclusive, or for any other reason allowed by law, and if challenged shall be disposed of in accordance with section eighty-five, except that so much of said section as involves the administering of an oath shall not apply thereto, and the writing of the name and address of the voter on the ballot shall be performed by the officer charged with depositing the ballot in the ballot box.

1 Section 97. No ballot transmitted under any provision of sections eighty-six to one hundred and three, inclusive, shall be rejected for any inmaterial addition, omission or irregularity in the preparation or execution of any writing or affidavit required by said sections.

1 Section 98. An absent voter unable to mark his ballot may have it marked for him by the clerk of a court of record, who shall add in writing to the jurat a statement of the fact that the voter is unable to write, stating the reason therefor, and shall sign the voter's name on both envelopes.

1 Section 99. All envelopes received by clerks of cities and towns after the hour fixed for the closing of the polls on the day of election shall be retained by them unopened until the time set by law for the destruction of ballots cast at the state election, at which time the envelopes shall likewise be destroyed, unopened and unexamined.
ELECTIONS.

Voting in person after mailing absent voter ballot. Certain ballots not to be counted. 1918, 290, §§ 8-10. 1919, 290, § 15. 1925, 101, § 3.

Section 100. Sections eighty-six to one hundred and three, inclusive, shall not prevent a voter who has mailed a ballot under them from voting in person. No ballot mailed under said sections shall be counted if the officers charged with the duty of counting the same are cognizant of the fact that the voter has died prior to the opening of the polls on the day of the election, or is under sentence in a penal institution.

Section 101. Any soldier, sailor or marine, without the United States, voting as permitted by sections eighty-six to one hundred and three, inclusive, may substitute for the required jurat and transmit with the sealed ballot, a written statement in such form as the state secretary shall prescribe, setting forth the facts required, made by any one of his superior officers of a rank in the army higher than first lieutenant, and in the navy higher than lieutenant of the second grade.

Section 102. The state secretary shall prepare for the use of election officers, city and town clerks and registrars of voters such printed information and instructions, subject to approval by the attorney general, as he may deem proper to facilitate the operation of sections eighty-six to one hundred and three, inclusive. Such printed matter shall be transmitted to said officials prior to each state election. The state secretary may prepare and distribute, subject to like approval, such general information relative to said sections as he may deem expedient.

Section 103. The supreme judicial and superior courts shall have jurisdiction in equity to require the certification of any application for an absent voting ballot which the registrars have unreasonably refused to certify, to order the counting of any ballot improperly rejected, or to enjoin the counting of any ballot which cannot reasonably be identified as the ballot of a person lawfully entitled to vote as provided in sections eighty-six to one hundred and two, inclusive, or which was not cast in accordance therewith; provided, that no proceeding hereunder shall be begun later than the date fixed by law for the final canvass of votes cast for candidates for state offices.

COUNTING OF VOTES.

Section 104. The blank forms and apparatus provided by the state secretary shall be used in ascertaining the result of the election or vote in state elections in cities and towns, in city elections, in elections of town officers in towns where official ballots are used, and also in taking the vote upon any proposed amendment to the constitution, upon any law or proposed law submitted to the voters by referendum or initiative petition, upon the question of granting licenses for the sale of certain nonintoxicating beverages, as defined in section one of chapter one hundred and thirty-eight, and upon any other question submitted by statute to the voters of any senatorial or representative district, or of any city or town in which official ballots are used. If it is impossible to use such blank forms or apparatus, the canvass of the votes shall be made as the presiding officer shall direct; and the clerk shall record the facts relating to the failure to use such blank forms or apparatus, and shall enclose an attested copy of such record in the envelope with the ballots cast.

Section 105. If the state ballot box is used, the clerk shall, as soon as the polls are closed, record the ballot box register. The election officers...
ELECTIONS.

3 shall then, publicly and in the presence of the other election officers, count audibly and distinctly the number of names checked on each list and announce the same. The ballot box shall then be opened by the presiding officer and the ballots taken therefrom and audibly counted, one by one, and the whole number of ballots cast shall be publicly announced. The ballots may be divided into convenient packages, and, except as otherwise provided in this chapter, each block or package shall be canvassed and counted by two election officers representing the two leading political parties, detailed by the presiding officer. Each election officer, in so canvassing and counting votes, shall be under the inspection of an election officer of a different political party. The result of the canvass and count shall be reported to the presiding officer, who shall cause it to be correctly recorded on the blank forms provided therefor.

At state elections in towns not divided into voting precincts, the canvass and count of votes shall be made by the selectmen and town clerk, who may be assisted by the tellers.

The clerk in open meeting shall publicly announce the result of the vote and enter in his records, in words at length, the total number of names of voters checked on the voting lists, the total number of ballots cast, the names of all persons voted for, the number of votes for each person and the title of the office for which he was a candidate, the number of blank ballots for each office, and the number of affirmative and negative votes in answer to any question submitted to the voters, and shall forthwith with make a copy of such record, certify and seal up the same, and deliver it to the city or town clerk, who shall forthwith enter it in his records.

The voting lists and all ballots removed from the ballot box shall be kept in open view of the voters present until enclosed and sealed up, and all proceedings in the canvass and counting of votes shall be public and in open view of the voters, and there shall be no adjournment or postponement until the canvass and counting have been completed, and the voting lists and ballots have been enclosed and sealed up.

In towns, the ballot box at any polling place may be opened and ballots taken therefrom for counting when all the selectmen and the town clerk, or, where the moderator is in charge of the election, the moderator and the town clerk, or all the election officers at the voting precinct shall so order. When the ballots have been thus removed the presiding officer shall select from the election officers an equal number from each of the two leading political parties, who shall canvass such ballots, in accordance with this section; but no announcement of the result of such canvass shall be made by any election officer until the total result of the canvass of ballots has been ascertained.

Notwithstanding the foregoing provisions of this section, the clerks of precincts or the town clerk in a town not divided into precincts may, if authorized in writing by the election commissioners or election commission in a city having such a body, by the city clerk in any other city or by the town clerk in a town, publicly announce the number of votes cast for each candidate for each office as soon as the count of ballots for that office has been completed, and the number of affirmative or negative votes cast upon any question submitted to the voters, as soon as the count of ballots upon such question has been completed.

Section 106. If the use of a state ballot box is required, no ballot shall be counted unless it has been deposited in and cancelled by such certain ballots not to be counted, etc.
ELECTIONS.

ballot box, or has been otherwise deposited in accordance with section sixty-six. Only official ballots shall be counted in any election for which they are provided. If a voter marks more names than there are persons to be elected to an office, or if his choice cannot be determined, his ballot shall not be counted for such office. Ballots cast but not counted shall be marked "defective" on the outside thereof, and shall be preserved like other ballots.

229 Mass. 23.

Section 107. The presiding officer at every polling place at elections of state and city officers and of town officers in towns where official ballots are used shall, after the record of the counting has been made, cause all ballots cast to be publicly enclosed in an envelope and sealed up with the seal provided therefor, and also with the private seal of any election officer who may desire to affix the same; and a majority of the election officers of the voting precinct or town shall endorse upon such envelope the polling place, the election and the date, and also a certificate that all the ballots cast by the voters of such precinct or town, and none other, are contained therein. He shall cause all ballots not cast to be enclosed in an envelope and sealed up as aforesaid, and shall certify on the envelope the contents thereof. Such presiding officer shall cause the voting lists to be enclosed in an envelope and sealed up as aforesaid, and a majority of the election officers shall certify thereon to the identity of the voting lists enclosed. He shall forthwith personally deliver to the city or town clerk or to him, by the police officer or constable in attendance at the election, all the ballots cast, and not cast, the voting lists, the ballot box, ballot box seals and counting apparatus.

[Penalty, Chap. 56, § 22; for interference with transmission of ballots, Chap. 56, § 45; for false endorsement, delay in delivery, etc., of ballot, Chap. 56, § 49.]

Section 108. Upon written application, signed by at least ten voters in the town or ward of which the precinct forms a part, or upon written request signed by the chairman of any ward, town or city committee, the city or town clerk may open the envelope containing such voting list and may make a copy of the list as checked. After any such voting list has been so copied, said clerk shall at once enclose the list in an envelope and seal up the same and certify thereon to the identity of such lists.

1913, 335, §§ 305, 503.

Section 109. City and town clerks shall retain in their custody the envelope containing the ballots cast, without examining them or permitting them to be examined by any person except as required by law, and upon the expiration of the period fixed for their preservation shall cause such ballots to be destroyed.

City and town clerks shall retain in their custody the voting lists and ballots not cast as long as they retain the ballots cast. They shall then transmit such voting lists to the registrars of voters, and shall destroy the ballots marked "Spoiled", without examining them or permitting them to be examined, and may make such disposition of the undistributed ballots as they may deem proper. Such voting lists shall be preserved by the registrars of voters for reference for five years after the expiration of which they may be destroyed.

Section 111. In state and city elections, the aldermen and city clerk, and in state elections the selectmen and town clerk of towns divided into voting precincts, shall forthwith after such election examine the copies of the records of the election officers, and if any error appears therein, they shall forthwith give notice thereof to the officers by whom the error was made, who shall forthwith make an additional record under oath in conformity with the facts and deliver a copy thereof to the city or town clerk. Such copy of the records made, with or without such notice as aforesaid, shall be received by the city or town clerk at any time before the last day fixed for the transmission of copies of records of the votes cast in the city or town, or on which the results of the election are required to be declared.

The aldermen and city clerk, and the selectmen and town clerk, shall examine all original and all additional copies of the records and make them part of the records of such election, and shall certify and attest copies of the records of votes for the several candidates.

Section 112. The clerk of each city and town, within ten days, and in Boston the election commissioners, within fifteen days, after the day of any election therein for a senator in congress, representative in congress, governor, lieutenant governor, councillor, state secretary, state treasurer, state auditor, attorney general, clerk of courts, register of probate and insolvency, sheriff, district attorney, or senator, or for presidential electors, shall transmit to the state secretary copies of the records of votes for such officers, together with the records of votes cast on any constitutional amendment, law or proposed law, and on any question submitted to them by statute in any senatorial or representative district or in two or more cities or towns. Said record shall be certified by the aldermen, selectmen or election commissioners, and attested and sealed by the clerk or by said commissioners. The city or town clerk shall, within ten days after an election for county treasurer or register of deeds, transmit to the county commissioners, and within ten days after an election for county commissioners or associate commissioners, transmit to the clerk of the courts the records of votes for such officers, certified, attested and sealed as aforesaid; except that in Chelsea, Revere and Winthrop the records of votes for register of deeds shall be transmitted to the election commissioners of Boston, and that in Revere and Winthrop the records of votes for county commissioners and associate commissioners shall be transmitted to the clerk of the courts for Middlesex county. Such copies shall be transmitted in envelopes, upon which shall be stated the offices for, questions on which and districts in which the votes were cast.

Examination and Certification by Governor and Council, etc.

Section 115. The state secretary shall lay before the governor and council the copies of the records of votes cast, with their seals unbroken. The governor with at least five councillors shall, as soon as may be, open and examine all such copies. They shall tabulate said votes and determine who appear to be elected to the several offices, and what appears to be the result of the votes on any question or questions, and shall forthwith transmit to the state secretary an abstract of such tabulation and determination. The state secretary, upon application, shall furnish to newspapers copies of such abstract. In case of a state-wide recount under section one hundred and thirty-five, the state secretary shall in like manner lay before the governor and council the copies of the amended records received by him under said section, and the governor with at least five councillors shall, if necessary, revise the aforesaid tabulation and determination accordingly.

Section 116. The governor shall, in the presence of at least five councillors, certify to the results of the examination of the copies of the records of the votes for governor and lieutenant governor, for councillors, for state secretary, state treasurer, state auditor and attorney general, and for senators, and shall issue his summons to such persons as appear to be chosen to said offices. The governor shall issue certificates of election to such persons as appear to be chosen to the offices of senator in congress, representative in congress, clerk of the courts, register of probate and insolventy, sheriff and district attorney, which shall be countersigned and transmitted by the state secretary. No certification shall be made of any summons or certificate issued under this section until after five o’clock in the afternoon of the fifteenth day following a state election or, in case a state-wide recount is held in accordance with section one hundred and thirteen, thirty-five, until the tabulation and determination under the preceding section have been revised in accordance with the results of such recount.

1907, 560, §§ 289, 456.

Section 117. After such certification, such copies shall be replaced in their respective envelopes and delivered with the certificate of examination to the state secretary, who shall on the first Wednesday in Janu-
4. Any lay the same, with schedules showing the number of ballots cast for
5. each person voted for, before the senate and house of representatives.
6. Except for the above purposes, all such copies, both original and cor-
7. rected, transmitted to the state secretary, shall remain on file in his
8. office and be there open to the inspection of any interested person.

Section 118. The copies of the records of votes for presidential
2. electors shall, in any event, within ten days after they have been trans-
3. mitted to the state secretary, be opened and examined by the governor
4. and council, who shall thereafter declare, by proclamation, the names of
5. the persons who have received at least one fifth of the entire number of
6. votes cast for electors, and the number of votes received by each such
7. person. The several persons, to the number of electors required to be
8. chosen, who have received the highest number of votes so ascertained,
9. unless notice of a contest has been received by the governor, shall, at the
10. expiration of fourteen days from the date of such proclamation, be deemed
11. to be elected; and the governor shall thereupon issue a certificate of
12. election to every such person.

1926, 144.

Contested Elections of Presidential Electors.

Section 119. Any person who appears, by the proclamation of the
2. governor, to have received not less than one fifth of the entire number
3. of votes cast for electors, may, if the election is contested, apply by pet-
4. ition to the supreme judicial court for Suffolk county, for a declaration
5. of his election as an elector. Such petition shall set forth the name of
6. every person whose election is contested and the ground for the contest,
7. shall be filed within seven days after the date of such proclamation and
8. shall not thereafter be amended. Before any proceedings thereon, the
9. petitioner shall recognize to the commonwealth, in such sum and with
10. such sureties as the court shall order, to pay all costs incurred in the
11. prosecution of his petition if he shall not prevail. If the petitioner pre-
12. vails, the cost shall be paid by the commonwealth. The court shall fix
13. a day for a hearing by the full court, which shall be not less than three
14. nor more than seven days after the date of the filing of the petition, and
15. shall order notice of the hearing to be given, with a statement of the
16. substance of the petition in such manner as it may direct, to the gov-
17. ernor and to every person whose election is contested. The court shall
18. also order such notice to be published in at least one newspaper design-
19. nated by it in each county.

Section 120. The petitioner and the contestant may appear and
2. produce evidence at the hearing, and no person other than the petitioner
3. or a contestant shall be made a party to the proceedings on such petition,
4. or be heard thereon. If more than one petition is pending, or the elec-
5. tion of more than one person is contested, the court may order the cases
6. to be heard together and shall apportion the costs between them, and
7. shall finally determine all questions of law and fact. No person shall be
8. excused from testifying or producing papers or documents therein on
9. the ground that his testimony or the production of the papers or docu-
10. ments will tend to criminate him; but no person so testifying shall be
11. liable to any suit or prosecution, civil or criminal, for any matter or cause in respect to which he shall be so examined or to which his testimony shall relate, except to a prosecution for perjury committed in such testimony. The court shall forthwith certify its decision to the governor, who shall thereupon issue certificates of election in accordance therewith. If the petitioner does not prosecute his petition it shall be dismissed and notice thereof given to the governor, who shall issue certificates of election to the persons entitled thereto.

Examination and Certification of Records of Votes for Certain County Officers.

SECTION 121. The county commissioners to whom the copies of the records of votes for county treasurer and register of deeds have been transmitted shall, on the first Wednesday of the month following the election, examine such copies, determine what persons appear to be elected, issue certificates of election to them and give notice to the state secretary of the name, residence, and number of votes received by each candidate in each city and town, with the name and term of office of every person elected.

In Suffolk county, the election commissioners of Boston shall, within ten days after the election of register of deeds, in like manner examine the copies of the records of votes, determine who appears to be elected, issue a certificate and give notice as above provided.

SECTION 122. In each county, except Suffolk and Nantucket, the judge and register of the probate court and the clerk of the courts shall be a board of examiners; and if two of said offices are held by the same person in any county, the sheriff shall be a member of the board. The members of said board shall each be paid at the rate of three dollars a day for every day employed in the performance of their duties and ten cents a mile for travel to and from the place of their meeting; and their accounts shall be audited and settled by the county treasurer. Said board shall meet on the first Wednesday of the month following an election for county commissioners or associate commissioners and shall examine such copies, determine what persons appear to be elected, issue certificates of election to them and give notice to the state secretary of the name, residence and number of votes received by each candidate in each city and town, with the name and term of office of every person so elected, and shall, within three days thereafter deposit said copies in the office of the clerk of the courts.

Correction of Records.

SECTION 123. If it shall appear to the governor and council, to the board of examiners, to the election commissioners or to the county commissioners, that any copy of a record of votes examined by them is incomplete or erroneous, they may order a new copy of the records to be made and transmitted to them. Such new copy shall be transmitted by the city or town clerk within seven days thereafter, and if found to be correct and in conformity to the requirements of law, shall have the same force as a first copy.
Examination and Certification of Records of Votes for Representative.

1 Section 124. If a district for the election of representatives in the general court is composed of one city or town, or one or more wards of a city, the aldermen or selectmen shall forthwith examine the records of the votes and determine who appear to be elected. The city or town clerk shall record the names of all persons for whom votes for representatives were cast, and the number of votes for each.

R. L. II. § 256. 1897, 500, §§ 290, 455. 1913, 835, §§ 321, 503.

2 Section 125. In other representative districts, the election officers in every voting precinct, and the selectmen and town clerk of each town therein not divided into voting precincts, shall, as soon as the vote for representatives has been recorded, cause a complete copy of such record to be made, and shall certify, seal and deliver it to the city or town clerk.

3 The city and town clerks in such districts shall meet at the place designated at noon on the tenth day following the day of the election; but on the fourth day following the day of an election to fill a vacancy, they shall examine the copies of the records of votes of every such voting precinct and town, and determine who appear to be elected to the office of representative. They shall, in words at length, make and certify a schedule of the names of all persons for whom votes for representative were cast in the district and the number of votes for each, and the clerk of each city and town shall record such schedule within four days after the day of the meeting.

4 Section 126. If a representative district is included under the preceding section, the officers authorized to divide the county into representative districts shall, in making such division, designate a place in each such district or adjacent thereto at which the clerks shall meet to determine the result of the election. Such place of meeting may be changed on petition of two of such clerks after a hearing. Notice of such designation and of every change thereof shall be given by said officers having such authority to the state secretary, and to every city and town clerk in the district.

5 Section 127. If an error appears in the copies of the records of votes for a representative, the city and town clerks shall forthwith give notice thereof to the election officers, who shall thereupon make an additional record on oath and transmit a copy thereof to said clerks. Such additional copy shall be examined by them if received within two days from the time appointed for their meeting; and for such purpose their meeting may be adjourned for not more than two days.

6 Section 128. The aldermen, the selectmen, or the city or town clerks acting in a representative district shall make duplicate certificates of election of the persons appearing to be elected and shall, within fifteen days after the day of the election, or within ten days after the day of an election to fill a vacancy, transmit one certificate to the state secretary, and shall transmit the other certificate, by a constable or other officer.
to the person elected. Such certificates of election shall be in the following form:

Commonwealth of Massachusetts, county of . At a meeting of the qualified voters of Representative District Number , held on the day of November instant, for the choice of Representatives in the General Court to be holden on the first Wednesday of January next, were elected to said office.

Dated at the day of in the year one thousand nine hundred and .

Sections one to four, inclusive, of chapter three, this section and section one hundred and forty-one of this chapter shall be printed on every such form. The officer transmitting the certificate shall make a return of his doings.

11 advisable.

RECOUNTS OF VOTES.

1 Section 134. If a person who has received votes for any office at an
2 election shall, within thirty days thereafter, himself or by his agent
3 serve upon a city or town clerk a written claim to such office or a declara-
4 tion of an intention to contest the election of any other person, the clerk
5 shall retain the envelopes containing the ballots for such office until such 6 claim is withdrawn or the contest is determined. The envelopes and 7 ballots shall be subject to the order of the body to which such person
8 claims to be elected, or of the officers required by law finally to examine 9 the records and to issue certificates of election to such office, or of any 10 court having jurisdiction thereof. Such body or officers may require the 11 clerk to produce such envelopes and ballots, and may recount the ballots 12 and amend any record or copy thereof in relation to such office.

1 Section 135. If, on or before five o'clock in the afternoon on the 2 third day following an election in a ward of a city or in a town, ten or 3 more voters of such ward or town, except Boston, and in Boston fifty or 4 more voters of a ward, shall sign in person, adding thereto their respec-
5 tive residences on the preceding April first, and cause to be filed with 6 the city or town clerk a statement sworn to by one of the subscribers
7 that they have reason to believe and do believe that the records, or copies
8 of records, made by the election officers of certain precincts in such ward
9 or town, or in case of a town not voting by precincts, by the election
10 officers of such town, are erroneous, specifying wherein they deem them 11 to be in error and that they believe a recount of the ballots cast in such 12 precincts or town will affect the election of one or more candidates voted 13 for at such election, specifying the candidates, or will affect the decision 14 of a question voted upon at such election, specifying the question, the 15 city or town clerk shall forthwith transmit such statement and the 16 envelope containing the ballots, sealed, to the registrars of voters, who 17 shall, without unnecessary delay, but not before the last hour for filing
18 requests for recounts as aforesaid, open the envelopes, recount the ballots 19 and determine the questions raised; but upon a recount of votes for 20 town officers in a town where the selectmen are members of the board of 21 registrars of voters, the recount shall be made by the moderator, who 22 shall have all the powers and perform all the duties conferred or imposed 23 by this section upon registrars of voters.
24 State-wide recounts in cases of offices to be filled or questions to be 25 voted upon at the state election by all the voters of the commonwealth 26 may be requested as provided in the foregoing provisions so far as 27 applicable, except that any petition therefor shall be signed in the aggre-28 gate by at least one thousand voters, not less than two hundred and fifty to be from each of four different counties, and shall be submitted on or before five o'clock in the afternoon of the twelfth day following such election to the registrars of voters of the city or town in which the signers appear to be voters, who shall forthwith certify thereon the number of signatures which are names of voters in said city or town, and except that such petitions for recount shall be filed with the state secretary on or before five o'clock in the afternoon of the fifteenth day following such election. He shall hold such petitions for recount until after the official tabulation of votes by the governor and council and if it then appears that the difference in the number of votes cast for the two leading candidates for the office, or in the number of affirmative statements, and negative votes on a question, for which the recount is desired, is more than one per cent of the total number of votes cast for such office or on such question, the petitions for recount shall be void. If such difference in the votes so cast appears to be one per cent or less of the total votes cast for such office or on such question, he shall forthwith order the clerk of each city and town of the commonwealth to transmit forthwith, and said clerk shall so transmit, the envelopes containing the ballots, sealed except in the case of those containing ballots which have already been recounted in respect to said office or question under authority of the preceding paragraph, to the registrars of the city or town who shall, without unnecessary delay, open the envelopes, recount the ballots cast for said office or on said question and determine the questions raised. If a state-wide recount is petitioned for, all ballots cast at a state election shall be held, except as otherwise provided herein, by the city and town clerks until the expiration of sixty days after said election.

The registrars shall, before proceeding to recount the ballots, give written notice to the several candidates interested in such recount and likely to be affected thereby, or to such person as shall be designated by the petitioners for a recount of ballots cast upon questions submitted to the voters, of the time and place of making the recount, and each such candidate or person representing petitioners as aforesaid shall be allowed to be present and witness such recount, either in person, accompanied with counsel if he so desires, or by an agent appointed by him in writing. In the case of a recount of ballots cast for offices which are filled by all the voters of the commonwealth, such notice may be given to the duly organized state political committees. In the case of a recount of the ballots cast upon a question submitted to all the voters as aforesaid, one representative from any committee organized to favor or to oppose the question so submitted shall be permitted to be present and witness the recount.

All recounts shall be upon the questions designated in the statements or petitions filed, and no other count shall be made, or allowed to be made, or other information taken, or allowed to be taken, from the ballots on such recount.

The registrars shall, when the recount is complete, enclose all the ballots in their proper envelopes, seal each envelope with a seal provided therefor, and certify upon each envelope that it has been opened and again sealed in conformity to law; and shall likewise make and sign a statement of their determination of the questions raised. The envelopes, with such statement, shall be returned to the city or town clerk, who shall alter and amend, in accordance with such determination, such records as have been found to be erroneous; and the records so amended...
82 shall stand as the true records of the election. Copies of such amended
83 records of votes cast at a state election shall be made and transmitted 84 as required by law in the case of copies of original records; provided, 85 that such copies of amended records shall in case of a state-wide recount 86 be transmitted by the city or town clerk to the state secretary within 87 four days of the completion of such recount. If, in case of a recount of 88 votes for town officers, it shall appear that a person was elected other 89 than the person declared to have been elected, the registrars of voters
90 shall forthwith make and sign a certificate of such fact, stating therein 91 the number of votes cast, as determined by the recount, for each can-92 didate for the office the election to which is disputed, and shall file the 93 same with the town clerk. The town clerk shall record the certificate 94 and shall, within twenty-four hours after such filing, cause a copy of 95 such certificate, attested by him, to be delivered to or left at the resi-
96 dence of the person so declared to have been elected, and to the person
97 who by such certificate appears to be elected.
98 Registrars of voters may employ such clerical assistance as they deem 99 necessary to enable them to carry out this section.

1 Section 136. No officer recounting ballots shall, except as required
2 by law, make any statement or give any information relative to a ballot
3 cast by a challenged voter.

1 Section 137. The aldermen shall not declare the result of an election
2 for state or city officers or of a vote upon any question submitted to the 3 voters until the time for filing a petition for a recount of ballots has 4 expired, or, if such petition has been filed, until the ballots have been 5 recounted and the returns amended, notwithstanding any special act 6 relating to their city. After the ballots have been recounted and the 7 records amended, they shall forthwith declare the result of the election, 8 and the city clerk shall thereupon issue certificates of their election to 9 the persons elected. No person elected to a city office shall act in an 10 official capacity by virtue of such election before his certificate of elec-11 tion has been issued.

PROCEEDINGS UPON FAILURE TO ELECT, AND VACANCIES IN STATE OFFICES.

1 Section 138. If, upon examination of the copies of the records of 2 votes for presidential electors, it appears that a majority of the whole
3 number of electors has not been chosen, the governor shall forthwith, 4 by proclamation, call together the general court; and the senators and 5 representatives assembled in joint convention shall by ballot choose 6 electors to complete the full number.
7 If the whole number of electors has not been chosen when the electors
8 meet on the first Wednesday in January, or if an elector has died or is 9 then absent, the electors present shall forthwith choose electors from 10 the citizens of the commonwealth to complete the full number.

1913, 835, §§ 335, 345, 503. 146 U. S. 1.
SECTION 139. Upon failure to choose a senator in congress or upon a vacancy in said office, the vacancy shall be filled for the unexpired term at the following biennial state election provided said vacancy occurs not less than sixty days prior to the date of the primaries for nominating candidates to be voted for at such election, otherwise at the biennial state election next following. Pending such election the governor shall make a temporary appointment to fill the vacancy, and the person so appointed shall serve until the election and qualification of the person duly elected to fill such vacancy.

SECTION 140. Upon failure to choose a representative in congress or upon a vacancy in said office, the governor shall cause precepts to be issued to the aldermen in every city and the selectmen in every town in the district, directing them to call an election on the day appointed therein for the election of such representative.

SECTION 141. Upon failure to choose a representative in the general court at the biennial state election, a certificate thereof shall be transmitted forthwith to the state secretary by the officers required to transmit certificates of election.

Upon a vacancy in the office of representative in the general court or upon failure to elect, the speaker of the house of representatives shall issue precepts to the aldermen of each city and the selectmen of each town comprising the district or any part thereof, appointing such time as the house of representatives may order for an election to fill such vacancy; provided, that if such vacancy occurs during a recess between the first and second annual sessions of the same general court, the speaker may fix the time for an election to fill such vacancy. Upon receipt of such precepts, the aldermen or the selectmen shall call an election, which shall be held in accordance with the precepts.

SECTION 142. Upon failure to choose a district attorney, clerk of the courts or in Suffolk county of the supreme judicial or superior court, register of probate and insolvency or sheriff, the governor shall cause precepts to be issued to the proper officers, directing them to call an election on the day appointed therein for the election of such officer.

Upon a vacancy by removal or otherwise in any of the above named offices, he shall in like manner cause precepts to be issued for an election to fill such vacancy at the next biennial state election for which precepts can be seasonably issued, unless the term of the office expires on the first Wednesday of January following such state election.

Upon a vacancy in the office of district attorney, register of probate and insolvency or sheriff, the governor with the advice and consent of the council may appoint some person thereto until a district attorney, register of probate and insolvency or sheriff is qualified. Upon a vacancy in the office of clerk of the courts in any county, or of the clerk of the supreme judicial court in Suffolk county, the justices of said court may appoint a clerk to hold the office until a clerk is qualified.

Upon a vacancy in the office of a clerk of the superior court in Suffolk county, the justices of said court may appoint a clerk to hold the office until a clerk is qualified.
Section 143. Upon failure to choose a county treasurer or a register of deeds for a county or district, except Suffolk and Nantucket counties, the county commissioners shall forthwith issue precepts to the aldermen of each city and the selectmen of each town in such county or district, directing them to call an election for the election of such officer on a day appointed therein.

Upon a vacancy by removal or otherwise in the office of county treasur-or of register of deeds in a county or district, except in Suffolk and Nantucket counties, the county commissioners shall in like manner issue precepts for an election to fill such vacancy at the next biennial state election for which precepts can be seasonably issued, unless the term of the office expires on the first Wednesday of January following such state election, and may appoint some person to fill such office until a person is elected thereto and qualified. The person so appointed shall give bond as provided in section three of chapter thirty-five or section three of chapter thirty-six, as the case may be.

Upon failure to choose a register of deeds in Suffolk county, or upon a vacancy in that office, the city council of Boston shall call meetings to elect a register of deeds or to fill such vacancy, as is above provided for an election in other counties; and, upon a vacancy in that office in said Suffolk county, the superior court shall appoint some person to the office until a person is elected thereto and qualified.

Upon failure to choose a register of deeds in Nantucket county, or a vacancy in that office, the selectmen of the town of Nantucket shall call a meeting to elect a register of deeds as is above provided for an election in other counties, and may appoint some person to the office until a person is elected thereto and qualified.

Section 144. Upon failure to choose a county commissioner or associate commissioner, the board of examiners shall forthwith issue precepts to the aldermen of each city and to the selectmen of each town in such county, directing them to call an election to elect such officer on a day appointed therein. In Middlesex county, such precept shall also be issued to the aldermen of Revere and the selectmen of Winthrop.

Upon a vacancy by removal or otherwise in the office of county commissioner or associate commissioner, the board of examiners shall in like manner issue precepts for an election to fill such vacancy at the next biennial state election for which precepts can be seasonably issued, unless the term of office of the commissioner whose office is so vacant expires on the first Wednesday of January following such election.

Upon a vacancy in said offices, the county commissioners or the two remaining county commissioners, as the case may be, and the clerk of the courts for the county, or a majority of them, may appoint some person to fill such office until a person is elected thereto and qualified.

Section 145. If a person elected to any of the offices mentioned in the three preceding sections dies before the first Wednesday of January, following his election, the office shall be filled as in case of a vacancy.

Section 146. The county commissioners in each county shall forthwith notify the state secretary of any vacancy in the office of county treasurer or of register of deeds; and the board of examiners shall give notice to the state secretary to be notified, etc.
ELECTIONS.

like notice to the state secretary of any vacancy in the office of county commissioner or associate commissioner, and in each case they shall send to him a copy of the precepts issued by them for an election.

1897, 500, §§ 310, 456. 1913, 835, §§ 345, 503.

SECTION 147. At elections held because of a failure to elect or to fill vacancies, the proceedings shall be the same, so far as applicable, as in elections to the same office at the biennial state election.

Presidential electors, meeting, organization, proceedings, record of U.S. Const. amend. 12. 1 C. S. Comp. Sta. § 199 et seq.

R. S. 6, §§ 6, 7. G. S. 9, §§ 5, 6. 1874, 376, § 33. P. S. 8, § 17, §§ 5, 6.

PROCEEDINGS OF PRESIDENTIAL ELECTORS.

SECTION 148. The persons chosen as presidential electors shall meet at the state house on the first Wednesday in January next following their election at three o'clock in the afternoon and organize by the choice of a presiding officer and secretary. The state secretary shall call the meeting to order, call the roll of electors, and preside until a presiding officer shall be chosen. The secretary of the electors shall keep a journal of their proceedings and deposit the same in the office of the state secretary, where it shall be recorded and filed.

Presidential electors.

G. S. 9, §§ 15, 16. 1885, 382, §§ 2, 3. 1890, 423, §§ 175, 176.

SECTION 149. Each elector shall receive from the commonwealth three dollars for each day of attendance, and one dollar for every five miles of travel from his residence to the place of meeting.

State officers.

OFFICERS TO BE ELECTED AT STATE ELECTIONS.

SECTION 150. At the biennial state election there shall be chosen by the voters of the commonwealth, as prescribed by the constitution, a governor, lieutenant governor, state secretary, state treasurer, state auditor and attorney general; by the voters in each councilor district, one councilor; by the voters in each senatorial district, one senator; and by the voters in each representative district, such number of representatives as the district is entitled to elect.

Presidential electors.

1890, 423, §§ 147. 1898, 548, §§ 311.

1919, 269, § 1.

SECTION 151. At the biennial state election in each year in which presidential electors are required to be elected, a number of electors, equal to the whole number of senators and representatives in congress to which the commonwealth is entitled, shall be chosen by the voters of the commonwealth.

Senators in congress.

1913, 835, § 351. 1919, 269, § 16.

SECTION 152. At the biennial state election in nineteen hundred and twenty-two, and in every sixth year thereafter, and in nineteen hundred and twenty-four, and in every sixth year thereafter, a senator in congress shall be chosen by the voters of the commonwealth.
1 Section 153. At each biennial state election a representative in the congress shall be chosen by the voters in each congressional district.

1833, 68, § 3. 1836, 6, § 12. 1893, 147, § 249.

Section 154. At the biennial state election in nineteen hundred and twenty-two, and in every fourth year thereafter, a district attorney shall be chosen by the voters in each of the districts in which the commonwealth is divided for the administration of the criminal law.

G. S. 10, § 2. 1898, 548, § 314.

Section 155. At the biennial state election in nineteen hundred and twenty-two, and in every sixth year thereafter, the clerk of the courts in each county other than Suffolk and in Suffolk the clerk of the supreme court of civil and criminal business therein, shall be chosen by the voters of each county;

Section 156. At the biennial state election in nineteen hundred and twenty-four, and in every sixth year thereafter, a register of probate and insolvency shall be chosen by the voters of each county.

Section 157. At the biennial state election in nineteen hundred and twenty-two, and in every sixth year thereafter, a register of deeds shall be chosen by the voters of each district for the registry of deeds, and of each county not divided into districts.

Section 158. At the biennial state election in nineteen hundred and twenty-four, and in every fourth year thereafter, there shall be chosen by the voters of Middlesex county and of Revere and Winthrop two county commissioners for said county, city, and town, and by the voters of each of the other counties, except Suffolk and Nantucket, two county commissioners for the county; and at the biennial state election in nineteen hundred and twenty-two, and in every fourth year thereafter, there shall be chosen by the voters of Middlesex county and of Revere and Winthrop two county commissioners for said county, city, and town, and by the voters of each of the other counties, except Suffolk and Nantucket, two county commissioners for the county.
offices, only the person receiving the larger number of votes shall be declared elected; but if they shall receive an equal number of votes, no person shall be declared elected. If a person residing in a city or town where a county commissioner or an associate commissioner who is to remain in office also resides, shall appear to have been chosen, he shall not be declared elected. If the person is not declared elected by reason of the above provisions, the person receiving the next highest number of votes for the office, and who resides in another city or town, shall be declared elected.

Section 150. At the biennial state election in nineteen hundred and twenty-six, and in every sixth year thereafter, a sheriff shall be chosen by the voters in each county.

Section 160. At the biennial state election in nineteen hundred and twenty-four, and in every sixth year thereafter, a county treasurer shall be chosen by the voters in each county, except Suffolk and Nantucket.

Section 161. At the biennial state election in nineteen hundred and twenty-four, and in every tenth year thereafter, nine commissioners shall be elected to apportion Suffolk county into representative districts under section five of chapter fifty-seven. For the purpose of electing commissioners as aforesaid, the city of Boston is hereby divided into the five following districts, each comprising the territory within the wards, as constituted on January first, nineteen hundred and twenty-four, which are hereinafter assigned to it:

First district, wards one, two, three, four, five.
Second district, wards seven, eight, twenty-five, twenty-six.
Third district, wards six, twelve, thirteen, fourteen, fifteen.
Fourth district, wards nine, ten, eleven, seventeen, eighteen, twenty.
Fifth district, wards sixteen, nineteen, twenty-one, twenty-two, twenty-three, twenty-four.

One of said commissioners shall be a resident of and voter in each of the aforesaid districts and shall be elected by the voters of that district; two shall be residents of and voters in Chelsea and shall be elected by the voters thereof; one shall be a resident of and a voter in Winthrop and shall be elected by the voters thereof; and one shall be a resident of and a voter in Revere and shall be elected by the voters thereof. Said commissioners shall hold office for two years from the first Wednesday of January next after their election. At their first meeting, they shall organize by choosing a chairman, who shall be one of their number, and a clerk. The city of Boston shall provide them with a suitable office and room for hearings and shall allow and pay to them for compensation a sum not exceeding five hundred dollars each, said sum to be determined by the governor and council, and a further sum of not more than seven hundred dollars for clerk hire, stationery and incidental expenses.

A candidate for any other office may expend an amount not exceeding forty dollars for each one thousand, or major portion thereof, of the registered voters qualified to vote for candidates for the office in question at the next preceding election; but no such candidate shall expend more than fifteen hundred dollars for the expenses of a primary, nor more than three thousand dollars for the expenses of an election. Any candidate may, however, expend a sum not exceeding two hundred dollars for primary or election expenses. Contributions by a candidate to political committees shall be included in the foregoing sums.

The sums hereby authorized shall include all contributions from individuals, political committees or other sources to a candidate or person acting in his behalf, and shall include every payment or promise of payment for any purpose, made directly or indirectly by, or for the benefit of, a candidate, except that a political committee may make and incur expenses not for thesole benefit of an individual candidate, or which it is permitted by section five to make for an individual candidate; and the gift, payment, contribution or promise of any money or thing of value in excess of those sums, by a candidate directly or indirectly, or by any persons for his benefit, shall be deemed a corrupt practice.

SECTION 2. Every candidate for nomination or election to a public office shall keep detailed accounts of all money or other things of value received by or promised to him or any person acting under his authority, and of all expenditures and disbursements made by him or by any person acting under his authority. Said accounts may be kept by an agent duly authorized thereto, but the candidate shall be responsible for them. They shall be kept separate and distinct from all other accounts and shall include money or things of value contributed or paid by the candidate from his personal funds.

Every payment shall, unless the total expense payable to any one person is less than five dollars, be vouched for by a receipted bill, stating the particulars of the expense, and every voucher, receipt or account hereby required shall be preserved for six months after the primary or election to which it relates. Failure by a candidate so to preserve such vouchers, receipts and accounts shall be deemed prima facie evidence of a corrupt practice.
1 Section 3. Candidates for nomination or election to the senate or house of representatives of the United States shall be subject to the laws of the United States in so far as sections one, two and five may conflict with such laws. 1914, 783, § 2. 1918, 257, § 18. 1919, 5. 1920, 2. Candidates for United States senator and representative to be subject to United States laws in case of conflict.

POLITICAL COMMITTEES.

1 Section 4. Every non-elected political committee shall have a treasurer, and a chairman who shall, not later than the day preceding the election in connection with which said committee is organized to function, file with the state secretary, or, when organized for the purpose of a municipal election only, with the city or town clerk, the names and addresses of such treasurer and chairman and of at least three additional members thereof and a statement of the purpose for which organized; and, in the event of a change in such officers or as to such additional members, a statement of such change shall forthwith be filed as in the case of the officers first chosen. The treasurer of every non-elected and of every elected political committee shall qualify for his office by filing a written acceptance thereof with the state secretary, or, in the case of a municipal election as aforesaid, with the city or town clerk, and said treasurer shall remain subject to all the duties and liabilities imposed by this chapter until his written resignation of the office or his successor's written acceptance is filed as aforesaid. No person acting under the authority or in behalf of any political committee shall receive any money or other thing of value, or expend or disburse the same or incur expenses, while it has no treasurer qualified as aforesaid, or while the name or address of any of its officers, as originally or subsequently chosen, or of any such additional member is not filed if and as required by this section or chapter fifty-two, as the case may be. Every treasurer of a political committee shall keep and preserve detailed accounts, vouchers and receipts, as prescribed for an individual candidate.

1 Section 5. Political committees, duly organized, may receive, pay and expend money or other things of value for the following purposes: advertising, writing, printing and distributing circulars or other publications, hire and maintenance of political headquarters, clerical hire incidental thereto, meetings, refreshments, not including intoxicating liquors, but including cigars and tobacco, decorations and music, postage, stationery, printing, expressage, traveling expenses, telephone, telegraph and messenger service, and the hire of conveyances and workers at polling places.

10 Such committee may contribute to other political committees. A political committee may contribute to the personal fund of a candidate; but no such committee shall pay, directly or indirectly, any expenses of any candidate for nomination or election, or for his sole benefit, other than decorations, music, and traveling expenses of members of the committee and speakers, except by a contribution to the fund of the candidate. Political committees may hire conveyances and workers at elections only, and not more than one such conveyance and not more than two persons at each polling place shall be hired to represent the same political party or principle.
POLITICAL CONTRIBUTIONS.

Section 6. No person or combination of persons shall in connection with any nomination or election receive money or its equivalent, expend or disburse or promise to expend or disburse the same, except as authorized by this chapter. A political committee or a person acting under the authority or on behalf of such a committee may receive money or its equivalent, or expend or disburse or promise to expend or disburse the same for the purpose of aiding or promoting the success or defeat of a political party or principle in a public election or favoring or opposing the adoption or rejection of a question submitted to the voters, and for other purposes expressly authorized by this chapter subject, however, to the provisions thereof. Any individual, not a candidate, may contribute to political committees or to candidates a sum which in the aggregate of all contributions by him shall not exceed one thousand dollars in any election and primary preliminary thereto. This section shall not prohibit the rendering of services by speakers, publishers, editors, writers, checkers and watchers at the polls or by other persons for which no compensation is asked, given or promised, expressly or by implication; nor shall it prohibit the payment by themselves of such personal expenses as may be incidental to the rendering of such services; nor shall it prohibit the free use of property belonging to an individual and the exercise of ordinary hospitality for which no compensation is asked, given or promised, expressly or by implication.

Section 7. No corporation carrying on the business of a bank, trust, surety, indemnity, safe deposit, insurance, railroad, street railway, telegraph, telephone, gas, electric light, heat, power, canal, aqueduct, or water company, or any company having the right to take land by eminent domain or to exercise franchises in public ways, granted by the commonwealth or by any county, city or town, no trustee or trustees owning or holding the majority of the stock of such a corporation, no business corporation incorporated under the laws of or doing business in the commonwealth and no officer or agent acting in behalf of any corporation mentioned in this section, shall directly or indirectly give, pay, expend or contribute, or promise to give, pay, expend or contribute, any money or other valuable thing in order to aid, promote or prevent the nomination or election of any person to public office, or to aid, promote or antagonize the interests of any political party, or to influence or affect the vote on any question submitted to the voters. No person or persons, no political committee, and no person acting under the authority of a political committee, or in its behalf, shall solicit or receive from such corporation or such holders of stock any such gift, payment, expenditure, contribution or promise to give, pay, expend or contribute, except that such a corporation, or such trustee or trustees, may in good faith publish or circulate paid matter when, under a question submitted to the voters, the taking, purchasing or acquiring of any of the property, business or assets of the corporation is involved, provided that the name of the corporation appears therein in the nature of a signature, and that, if inserted as reading matter, such matter is preceded or followed by the word "Advertisement", in the manner required by section thirty-three.
1 Section 8. No person shall, directly or indirectly, make a payment
2 or promise of payment to a political committee or to any person acting 3 under its authority or in its behalf, in any name except his own; nor 4 shall such committee or person knowingly receive a payment or promise
5 of payment, or enter or cause the same to be entered in the accounts or 6 records of such committee, in any other name than that of the person by 7 whom it is made.

1913, 835, §§ 350, 353.

1 Section 9. No person, no political committee and no person acting 2 under the authority of a political committee or in its behalf, shall de-
3 mand, solicit, ask or invite from a candidate for nomination or election
4 to public office, or a person occupying an elective public office, any pay-5 ment or gift of money or other valuable thing, or promise of payment or 6 gift of money or other valuable thing for advertising, gratuities, dona-
7 tions, tickets, programs, or any other purpose whatsoever; and no 8 such candidate for nomination or election, and no one occupying an 9 elective public office, shall make any such payment or gift, or promise to 10 make any such payment or gift, to any person, political committee, or 11 any person acting under the authority of a political committee, if such 12 person or political committee has demanded, solicited, asked, or invited 13 from him any such payment, gift or promise of payment or gift; but 14 this section shall not apply to the soliciting or making in good faith of 15 gifts for charitable or religious purposes.

1 Section 10. No political committee, and no person acting under
2 its authority or in its behalf, shall demand or solicit from any candidate
3 for nomination to elective office, or from any one acting in his behalf, a 4 payment of money or a promise of payment of money, as a prerequisite
5 to his obtaining from such committee or its agent the nomination papers 6 required by sections ninety-five to one hundred and one, inclusive, of 7 chapter fifty-three.

1 Section 11. No person holding any public office or employment, 2 under the commonwealth or any county, city or town, shall directly or 3 indirectly demand, solicit or receive, or be concerned in demanding,
4 soliciting or receiving any gift, payment, contribution, assessment, sub-5 scription or promise of money or other thing of value for the political 6 campaign purposes of any candidate for public office or of any political 7 committee, or for any political purpose whatever; but this section shall 8 not prevent such persons from being members of political organizations 9 or committees.

1 Section 12. No person shall in any building or part thereof occu-
2 pied for state, county or municipal purposes demand, solicit or receive
3 any payment or gift of money or other thing of value for the purposes
4 set forth in section eleven.

Statements of Political Expenses of Candidates and Committees.

Section 16. Every candidate for nomination for or election to a public office shall file a statement setting forth each sum of money and thing of value paid or promised to him or to a person on his behalf, and each sum of money and thing of value expended, contributed or promised by him or by a person on his behalf, for the purpose of securing or in any way affecting his nomination or election to the office, and the name of the person or political committee to or by whom the payment, contribution or promise was made and the date thereof, or, if nothing has been paid or promised to him or to a person on his behalf or contributed, expended or promised by him or by a person on his behalf, a statement to that effect. Such a statement shall be filed by a candidate for nomination as aforesaid at a primary or caucus preceding a special 12 state, city or town election, within seven days after such primary or caucus, and by a candidate for nomination as aforesaid at any other primary or caucus, within sixteen days thereafter, and by a candidate for election as aforesaid, within fourteen days after the election.

Section 17. The treasurer of every political committee which receives, expends or disburses any money or its equivalent, or incur any liability to pay money, in connection with any nomination or election to an amount exceeding twenty dollars, shall, within thirty days after such election, file a statement setting forth all the receipts, expenditures, disbursements and liabilities of the committee and of every officer and other person acting under its authority or in its behalf. It shall include the amount in each case received, the name of the person or committee from whom received, the date of its receipt, the amount of every expenditure or disbursement, the name of the person or committee to whom it was made, and the date thereof; and, unless such expenditure or disbursement was made to another political committee, shall clearly state the purpose of such expenditure or disbursement; also the date and amount of every existing promise or liability, both to and from such committee, remaining unfulfilled and in force when the statement is made, the name of the person or committee to or from whom the unfulfilled promise or liability exists, and a clear statement of the purpose for 18 which the promise or liability was made or incurred. If the aggregate 19 receipts or disbursements of a political committee in connection with 20 any nomination or election shall not exceed twenty dollars, or if such a 21 committee has not received, expended or disbursed any money or its 22 equivalent, or incurred any liability, in connection with any nomination 23 or election, the treasurer of the committee shall, within thirty days after 24 the election, file a statement setting forth the fact.

1 Section 18. Whoever, acting under the authority or in behalf of a 2 political committee, receives any money or its equivalent, or promise
3 of the same, or expends or incurs any liability to pay the same, shall, on 4 demand, and in any event within fourteen days after such receipt, ex-
5 penditure, promise or liability, give to the treasurer a detailed account 6 of the same, with all vouchers required by this chapter, which shall be 7 a part of the accounts and files of such treasurer.

1 Section 19. The statement required to be filed by a candidate,
2 treasurer or other person shall be filed with the clerk of the city or town
3 where such candidate, treasurer or other person is a voter. If the nomi-
4 nation to which such statement relates is a nomination to a state or 5 national office, or the election is a state or national election, a duplicate
6 shall be filed with the state secretary. Whoever makes such a state-
7 ment shall make oath that it is in all respects correct and true to the best 8 of his knowledge and belief.

1 Section 20. All statements shall be preserved for fifteen months
2 after the election to which they relate and shall, under reasonable regu-
3 lations, be open to public inspection.

1892, 416, § 17. 1898, 548, § 300. 1907, 560, § 331. 1914, 783, § 7.

1 Section 21. The state secretary shall at the expense of the common-
2 wealth furnish to city and town clerks blanks in form approved by him
3 and by the attorney general, suitable for the statements required by 4 law. On receipt of a list of candidates for public office before a caucus
5 or primary, or upon the filing of a nomination before a municipal elec-
6 tion the city or town clerk shall transmit to the candidate or candidates 7 put in nomination, and to the treasurers of political committees, the 8 blanks above described. Upon the filing of a nomination before a state
9 or national election, the state secretary shall transmit to the candidate 10 or candidates put in nomination, and to the treasurers of the political 11 committees, the blanks above described. Such blanks shall be furnished, 12 upon application, to any person required to file a statement.

1 Section 22. The state secretary shall inspect all statements of candi-
2 dates filed with him, and the clerks of cities or towns shall inspect all such 3 statements relating to nominations and to city or town elections filed with 4 them, within thirty days, and all other statements within sixty days, after 5 the election to which they relate, and if upon examination of the official
6 ballot it appears that any person has failed to file a statement as required
7 by law, or if it appears to the state secretary that any such statement filed
8 with him does not conform to law, or if it appears to a city or town clerk
9 that such statement relating to a city or town nomination or election does not conform to law, or upon written complaint by five registered voters that a statement does not conform to law, or that any person has failed to file a statement required by law, the state secretary or city or town clerk shall in writing notify the delinquent person. Such complaint shall state in detail the grounds of objection, shall be sworn to by one of the subscribers, and shall be filed with the state secretary or with the proper city or town clerk within forty days after the election in question, or within ten days after the filing of a statement or amended statement.

Section 23. Upon failure to file a statement within ten days after receiving notice under the preceding section, or if any statement filed after receiving such notice discloses any violation of any provision of this chapter, the state secretary or the city or town clerk, as the case may be, shall notify the attorney general thereof and shall furnish him with copies of all papers relating thereto, and the attorney general, within two months thereafter, shall examine every such case, and if satisfied that there is cause, he shall in the name of the commonwealth institute appropriate civil proceedings or refer the case to the proper district attorney for such action as may be appropriate in the criminal courts.

Courts may compel filing of statements, etc.

Section 24. The supreme judicial or superior court may compel any person failing to file a statement as above required, or filing a statement not conforming to the foregoing requirements in respect to its truth, sufficiently in detail, or otherwise, to file a sufficient statement, upon the application of the attorney general or district attorney or petition of any candidate voted for, or of any five persons qualified to vote at the election on account of which the expenditures, or any part thereof, were made or are alleged to have been made. Such petition shall be filed within sixty days after such election, if the statement was filed within the thirty days required, but a petition may be filed within thirty days of any payment not included in the statement so filed. Proceedings under this section shall be advanced for speedy trial upon the request of either party. No petition brought under this chapter shall be discontinued without the consent of the attorney general.

voter who is responsible therefor, with his residence and the street and number thereof, if any, appear therein in the nature of a signature. Such matter inserted in reading columns shall be preceded or followed by the word " Advertisement" in a separate line, in type not smaller than that of the body type of the newspaper or other periodical. This section shall not authorize expenditures otherwise prohibited by this chapter.

Section 33A. No organization consisting of two or more persons, other than a political committee duly elected in accordance with law or a corporation organized prior to January first, nineteen hundred and twenty-three, under the laws of this commonwealth and having as a part of its name the name of a political party, as defined by law, shall, in order to promote the success or defeat of a political party or principle or of a candidate in a public election, in any circular, advertisement or publication use in its organization name the name of such a political party, except with the written consent of the duly elected state committee representing such political party.

Section 34. No person shall intentionally write, print, post or distribute, or cause to be written, printed, posted or distributed, a circular or poster designed or tending to injure or defeat any candidate for nomination or election to any public office, by criticizing his personal character or political action, or designed or tending to aid, injure, or defeat any question submitted to the voters, unless there appears upon such circular or poster in a conspicuous place either the names of the chairman and secretary, or of two officers of the political or other organization issuing the same, or of some voter who is responsible therefor, with his name and residence, and the street and number thereof, if any.

Section 34A. No person shall make or publish, or cause to be made or published, any false statement in relation to any candidate for nomination or election to public office, which is designed or tends to aid or to injure or defeat such candidate.

Section 35. No political committee and no person required to file a statement shall make any payment or promise of payment of money to or in behalf of any person for naturalization fees or for services as counsel or otherwise in assisting any one to obtain naturalization.

General provisions relative to corrupt practices.

Section 36. A candidate shall be deemed to have committed a corrupt practice who, either by himself or by another, commits any of the following offenses:

1. Violation of the provisions of section one relative to the expenditure of money in excess of the amounts therein authorized.
2. Violation of any provision of section eleven or twelve.
3. Making a false return in any statement filed under sections sixteen and nineteen.
4. Violation of any provision of section twenty-six.
5. Violation of any provision of section thirty-four A.
Aiding or abetting, either by himself or another, a person not entitled to vote, in voting or attempting to vote at a primary or election, or in voting or attempting to vote under a name other than his own, or in casting or attempting to cast more than one ballot.

Either by himself or another, fraudulently and willfully obstructing and delaying a voter, interfering with, hindering or preventing an election officer from performing his duties, forging an endorsement upon, altering, destroying or defacing a ballot, tampering with or injuring or attempting to injure any voting machine or ballot box to be used or being used in a primary or election, or preventing or attempting to prevent the correct operation of such machine or box.

Section 37. (a) If five or more voters have reasonable cause to believe that a corrupt practice, as defined in the preceding section, has been committed by any successful candidate, other than a candidate for the United States congress, or for the general court, for whom such voters had the right to vote, with reference to his election, or by any other person in his interest or behalf with reference thereto, such voters may apply to a justice of the superior court, sitting in equity within and for Suffolk county, for leave to bring an election petition against such candidate praying that the election of such candidate be declared void. Such application shall be subscribed and sworn to by the petitioners and it shall be heard ex parte by the justice of the superior court in a summary manner and upon such evidence as he may require; and if the petitioners shall establish to his satisfaction that there is reasonable cause to believe that a corrupt practice has been committed with reference to the election of the candidate in question, and that upon the evidence obtained there is reasonable cause to believe that such violations may be proved, he shall make an order granting leave to the petitioners to bring an election petition against such candidate.

(b) After the entry of such order, and within two months after the election to which it relates, the election petition may be filed in the superior court within and for Suffolk county.

Notice of the petition shall be by writ of subpoena according to the usual course of proceedings in equity and shall be returnable fourteen days after the date on which the petition is filed.

A subpoena issued upon an election petition shall be served not less than seven days before the return day.

A defence to an election petition shall be by answer, filed within seven days after the return day, and no replication need be filed.

(c) Election petitions and all motions and other applications, whether interlocutory or final, and all hearings on the merits or upon the making of decrees therein shall be heard and determined by three justices of the superior court who shall, immediately following the filing of an election petition, be assigned by the chief justice of said court for the hearing and determination of all matters arising under election petitions prior to the next state election. No reference to a master shall be had upon any matter arising under an election petition, except in matters of fact relating to financial statements and the examination of accounts and vouchers. All proceedings under election petitions shall have precedence over any case of a different nature pending in any court, and the justices of the superior court may from time to time make such rules regulating the practice and proceedings in matters of such election.
petitions, not inconsistent with this chapter, as they deem expedient. 43
In the absence of any such rules, the practice and procedure in election 44 petitions shall be governed by such laws or rules of court, not inconsistent 45 with this chapter, as may from time to time be in force relating to the 46 practice and proceedings in matters of equity, 47
(d) Upon an election petition the decision of the three justices of the 48 superior court assigned as aforesaid, or of a majority of them, shall be 49 final and conclusive upon all matters in controversy, whether inter- 50 locutory or final, and whether in matters of fact or matters of law. But 51 the said justices, or a majority of them, may, after a finding of facts, 52 either of their own motion or at the request of either party, report the 53 case to the supreme judicial court for determination by the full court; 54 and thereupon like proceedings shall be had as upon a report after a 55 finding of facts by a justice of the superior court in equity proceedings. 56

(c) If upon an election petition one or more violations of the preced- 57
ing section are proved, it shall be a defence to the petition if the de- 58
fendant establishes to the satisfaction of a majority of the justices hear- 59
ing the same, with reference to all of said violations, the following: 60
As to every such violation, either that 61
(1) Such violation was not committed by the candidate or by any 62 person with his knowledge and in his behalf, but was committed con- 63
tary to the orders and without the sanction or connivance of the 64 candidate;
65
(2) The participation, if any, of the candidate in such violation, arose 66 from inadvertence or from accidental miscalculation, or from some other 67 reasonable cause of a like nature, and in any case did not arise from any 68 want of good faith;
69
(3) The candidate took all reasonable means for preventing the com- 70 mission of violations of this chapter with reference to the election in 71 question;
72
(4) The violations in question were of a trivial, unimportant and 73 limited character.
74
(f) The court may by an order make the final disposition of an election 75 petition conditional upon the filing of a statement required by this chap- 76 ter in a modified form, or within an extended time, and upon compli- 77 ance with such other terms as the court may deem best calculated to 78 carry into effect the objects hereof, and in such case the court shall 79 require, within a time certain, further proof as to the compliance with 80
the conditions of such order, whereupon a final decree shall be entered. 81

(g) If upon the hearing of an election petition a majority of the justices 82 hearing the same shall find that in relation to the election of the can- 83 didate in question a corrupt practice, as defined in the preceding sec- 84 tion, was committed, either by the defendant or by any person in his 85 interest or behalf, a decree shall be entered subject to the limitations and 86 conditions hereinafter prescribed, declaring void the election of the 87 defendant to the office in question, and ousting and excluding him from 88 such office and declaring the office vacant.
89
(h) No person called to testify upon an election petition shall be ex- 90 cused from testifying or producing any papers on the ground that his 91 testimony may tend to criminate him or subject him to a penalty or 92 forfeiture; but he shall not be prosecuted or subjected to any penalty 93 or forfeiture except forfeiture of election to office, for or on account of 94 any action, matter or thing concerning which he may so testify, except 95 for perjury committed in such testimony.
97 (i) No decree entered upon an election petition shall be a bar to or affect in any way any criminal prosecution of any candidate or other person, or any inquest in accordance with sections thirty-nine to forty-five, inclusive.

101 (j) A certified copy of any final decree entered upon an election petition, as provided by this chapter, shall forthwith be transmitted by the clerk to the state secretary; and any vacancy in any office created by any such decree shall be filled in the manner provided by law in case of the death of the incumbent, but in no case shall the candidate so excluded from the office be eligible therefor.

107 (k) If upon the hearing of an election petition it shall appear to a majority of the justices hearing the same that with reference to the election in question there is a reasonable presumption that any violation of this chapter was committed, they shall cause notice of the facts to be given by the clerk of said court to the district attorney for the county where the violation appears to have been committed, with a list of the witnesses to establish the violation, and any other information which they may consider proper; and thereupon the district attorney shall cause complaint therefor to be made before a court or magistrate having jurisdiction thereof, or shall present the evidence thereof to the grand jury. If it shall appear that a successful candidate for district attorney has been guilty of any such violation, a majority of said justices shall order the notice of the facts to be given to the attorney general, who shall designate a district attorney to make such complaint or presentment. A majority of said justices may issue process for the apprehension of any person so appearing to have committed a violation of this chapter, and may bind over, as in criminal prosecutions, such witnesses as they deem necessary to appear and testify at the court having jurisdiction of the crime.

1 Section 38. Sections one to thirty-seven, inclusive, shall apply to all public elections, except of town officers in towns of less than ten thousand inhabitants, and to elections by the general court and by city councils, and by either branch thereof, and, so far as applicable, to the nomination by primaries, caucuses, conventions and nomination papers of candidates to be voted for at such elections. The term "political committee" as defined in section one of chapter fifty shall not apply to the proprietors and publishers of publications issued at regular intervals, in respect to the ordinary conduct of their business, nor shall they, in respect thereto, be subject to sections two to five, inclusive, of this chapter.

ELECTION INQUESTS.

1 Section 39. Upon a complaint subscribed and sworn to by any person before a district court or trial justice, alleging that reasonable grounds exist for believing that any law relating to the assessment, qualification or registration of voters, or to voting lists or ballots, or to primaries, caucuses, conventions and elections, or to any matters pertaining thereto, has been violated, such court or justice may at once hold an inquest to inquire into such alleged violation of law.

1 Section 40. The court or trial justice may exclude all persons whose presence is not necessary at such inquest; and may also direct the witnesses to be kept so separated that they cannot converse with each other.
until they have been examined. The attorney general, the district attorney, or some person designated by either, shall attend the inquest and examine the witnesses.

SECTION 41. Such court, justice or attorney may issue subpoenas for witnesses, who shall be allowed the same fees, whose attendance may be enforced in the same manner, and who shall be subject to the same penalties, as if served with a subpoena in behalf of the commonwealth in a criminal prosecution before such court or trial justice.

1913, §335, §§ 374, 503.

SECTION 42. Such court or trial justice may employ a stenographer and may have the proceedings reduced to writing; and if he finds that the law has been violated, shall report to the superior court all the material facts and the names of any persons guilty of any such violation.

1913, §335, §§ 375, 503.

SECTION 43. The court or trial justice may bind over, as in criminal prosecutions, such witnesses as are necessary, or as said attorney may designate, to appear and testify in the superior court.

SECTION 44. If a person charged by the report with the commission of an offence is not in custody, the court or trial justice shall forthwith issue a process for his apprehension; but such process may issue before the filing of said report, if otherwise lawful.

1907, §340. 1913, §377, 503.

SECTION 45. No person shall be excused from testifying or producing any papers in any inquest proceedings under sections thirty-nine to forty-four, inclusive, on the ground that his testimony may tend to crimine him or subject him to a penalty or forfeiture, but he shall not be prosecuted or be subjected to a penalty or forfeiture for or on account of any action, matter or thing concerning which he may be required so to testify, except for perjury committed in such testimony.
