Approved May 10, 1966.

Chap. 259.  An Act requiring copies of certain reports of public authorities to be deposited in the state library.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

Chapter 6 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after section 39 the following section: —

Section 39A. The chairman or chief executive officer of each independent public authority created by act of the general court shall deposit in the state library a copy of every report made by said independent public authority to the holders of its outstanding bonds, or to a trustee for the benefit of bond holders, and every other report required to be filed under the resolutions or trust indenture, or other document of similar import, pursuant to which said bonds were issued. Such copies shall be attested over the signature of the chairman or chief executive officer and the secretary or clerk of said public authority, and shall be deposited within thirty days of the time that the original reports are made to the persons entitled thereto. Any person wilfully violating the provisions hereof shall be punished by a fine not exceeding three thousand dollars or by imprisonment for not more than six months.

Approved May 10, 1966.

Chap. 260.  An Act requiring that protection on account of injuries to the insured caused by operators of uninsured motor vehicles shall be included in compulsory motor vehicle liability insurance policies.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

Chapter 90 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after section 34K the following section: —

Section 34L. No motor vehicle liability policy as defined in section thirty-four A shall be issued or delivered to an individual in the commonwealth unless it also provides for the payment of all sums, within limits no less than those set forth in said section thirty-four A, which the insured or his legal representative shall be legally entitled to recover as damages from the owner or operator of an uninsured motor vehicle, including the owner or operator of a motor vehicle insured by an insolvent insurer, because of bodily injuries, sickness or disease, including death, resulting therefrom, sustained by the insured, caused by accident and arising out of the ownership, operation, maintenance or use of such uninsured motor vehicle, unless the named insured rejects such coverage in writing; provided, that unless the named insured requests such coverage in writing, it need not be provided in or supplemental to a renewal policy where the named insured has rejected the coverage in connection with a policy previously issued to him by the same insurer.
