Chap. 174. AN ACT FURTHER REGULATING THE EXEMPTION FROM ATTACHMENT OF WAGES AND CERTAIN PENSIONS.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 28 of chapter 246 of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking out the first and second sentences, as amended by section 1 of chapter 475 of the acts of 1971, and inserting in place thereof the following two sentences:—If wages for personal labor or personal services of a defendant are attached for a debt or claim, an amount not exceeding one hundred twenty-five dollars out of the wages then due to the defendant for labor performed or services rendered during each week for which such wages were earned but not paid shall be reserved in the hands of the trustee and shall be exempt from such attachment. If a pension payable to a defendant, which is not otherwise exempt by law from attachment, is attached for a debt or claim, an amount not exceeding one hundred dollars for each week which has elapsed since the last preceding payment under such pension was payable to said defendant shall be reserved in the hands of the trustee from the amount then payable to said defendant but not paid and shall be exempt from attachment.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect on January the first, nineteen hundred and seventy-three and shall apply only to actions begun on and after said date.

Approved April 13, 1972.
