ARTICLES OF ORGANIZATION
(General Laws, Chapter 156B)

ARTICLE I
The exact name of the corporation is:
LEICESTER ESTATES CORP.

ARTICLE II
The purpose of the corporation is to engage in the following business activities:

To acquire real estate by purchase, deed, mortgage, lease, exchange or otherwise deal in any interest or rights therein and to dispose of by sale, conveyance, mortgage, exchange or otherwise any interest or rights therein, and to otherwise deal in real or personal property of whatever name, nature and description, whether improved or unimproved to develop, operate and maintain any and all such real property and to this end to build, improve, erect, alter, tear down, rebuild and generally to deal with and improve the property of the corporation; to maintain, operate, manage or sell hotels, warehouses, office buildings, shops, factories, mills, tenements, apartment, or other houses, and any and all other structures, and to enter into any and all contracts necessary in the premises; and further, to transact on commission the general business of a real estate agent or broker; and to conduct any other business incidental thereto or connected therewith not inconsistent with the Laws and Statutes of Massachusetts as they now exist or may hereafter exist.
ARTICLE III

State the total number of shares and par value, if any, of each class of stock which the corporation is authorized to issue.

ARTICLE IV

If more than one class of stock is authorized, state a distinguishing designation for each class. Prior to the issuance of any shares of a class, if shares of another class are outstanding, the corporation must provide a description of the preferences, voting powers, qualifications, and special or relative rights or privileges of that class and of each other class of which shares are outstanding and of each series then established within any class.

n/a

ARTICLE V

The restrictions, if any, imposed by the Articles of Organization upon the transfer of shares of stock of any class are:

Any Stockholder, including the heirs, assigns, executors or administrator of a deceased Stockholder, desiring to sell or transfer such stock owned by him or them, shall first offer it to the corporation through the Board of Directors, in the manner following:

He shall notify the Directors of his desire to sell or transfer by notice in writing which notice shall contain the price at which he is willing to sell or transfer the name of one arbitrator. The Directors shall within thirty days thereafter either accept the offer, or by notice to him in writing name a second arbitrator, and those two shall name a third. It shall then be the duty of the arbitrators to ascertain the value of the stock, and if any arbitrator shall neglect or refuse to appear at any meeting appointed by the arbitrators, a majority may act in the absence of such arbitrator. After the acceptance of the offer or the report of the arbitrators as to the value of same at such valuation, but if at the expiration of thirty days the corporation shall not have exercised the right so to purchase, the owner of the stock shall be at liberty to dispose of the same in any manner he may see fit. No shares of stock shall be sold or transferred on the books of the corporation until such provisions have been complied with, but the board of Directors may in any particular instance waive the requirement.

ARTICLE VI

"Other lawful provisions, if any, for the conduct and regulation of the business and affairs of the corporation, for its voluntary dissolution, or for limiting, defining, or regulating the powers of the corporation, or of its directors or stockholders, or of any class of stockholders:

None

*If there are no provisions state "None".

Note: The preceding six (6) articles are considered to be permanent and may ONLY be changed by filing appropriate Articles of Amendment.
ARTICLE VII

The effective date of organization of the corporation shall be the date approved and filed by the Secretary of the Commonwealth. If a later effective date is desired, specify such date which shall not be more than thirty days after the date of filing.

Articles of Organization
(General Laws Chapter 156D; Section 2.02; 950 CMR 113.16)

ARTICLE I
The exact name of the corporation is:

THE GRANDVIEW SHOPPES OF LEICESTER INC.

ARTICLE II
Unless the articles of organization otherwise provide, all corporations formed pursuant to G.L. C156D have the purpose of engaging in any lawful business. If you wish to specify more limited purposes, state them below.

To acquire real estate by purchase, deed, mortgage, lease, exchange or otherwise deal in any interest or rights therein and to dispose of by sale, conveyance, mortgage, exchange, or otherwise, any interest or rights therein, and to otherwise deal in real or personal property of whatever name, nature and description, whether improved or unimproved to develop, operate and maintain any and all such real property and to this end to build, improve, erect, alter, tear down, rebuild and generally to deal with and improve the property of the corporation; to maintain, operate, manage or sell hotels, warehouses, office buildings, shops, factories, mills, tenement apartments, or other houses, and any and all other structures, and to enter into any and all contracts necessary in the premises; and further, to transact on commission the general business of a real estate agent or broker; and to conduct any other business incidental thereto or connected therewith not inconsistent with the Laws and Statutes of Massachusetts as they now exist or may hereafter exist.

ARTICLE III
State the total number of shares and par value, * if any, of each class of stock that the corporation is authorized to issue. If only one class or series is authorized, it is not necessary to specify any particular designation.

ARTICLE IV

Prior to the issuance of shares of any class or series, the articles of organization must set forth the preferences, limitations and relative rights of that class or series. The articles may also limit the type or specify the minimum amount of consideration for which shares of any class or series may be issued. Please set forth the preferences, limitations and relative rights of each class or series and, if desired, the required type and minimum amount of consideration to be received.

ARTICLE V

The restrictions, if any, imposed by the articles or organization upon the transfer of shares of any class or series of stock are:

See attached

ARTICLE VI

Other Lawful Provisions

Note: The preceding six (6) articles are considered to be permanent and may ONLY be changed by filing appropriate Articles of Amendment.

ARTICLE VII

Unless otherwise provided in the articles of organization, the effective date of organization of the corporation is the date and time the articles were received for filing if the articles are not rejected within the time prescribed by law. If a later effective date is desired, specify such date, which may not be later than the 90th day after the articles are received for filing.

 If there are no provisions state “none”.

STOCK RESTRICTIONS

Any Stockholder, including the heirs, assigns, executors or administrators of a deceased Stockholder, desiring to sell or transfer such stock owned by him or them, shall first offer it to the Corporation through the Board of Directors, in the manner following: he shall notify the Directors of his desire to sell or transfer by notice in writing which notice shall contain the price at which he is willing to sell or transfer and the name of one arbitrator. The Directors shall within thirty days thereafter either accept the offer, or by notice to him in writing, name a second arbitrator, and those two shall name a third. It shall then be the duty of the arbitrators to ascertain the value of the stock and if any arbitrator shall neglect or refuse to appear at any meeting appointed by the arbitrators, a majority may act in the absence of such arbitrator. After the acceptance of the offer or the report of the arbitrators as to the value of same at such valuation, the Corporation shall have thirty days to purchase same at such price, but if at the expiration of thirty days the Corporation shall not have exercised the right so to purchase, the owner of the stock shall be at liberty to dispose of the same in any manner he may see fit. No shares of stock shall be sold or transferred on the books of the Corporation until such provisions have been complied with, but the Board of Directors may in any particular instance waive the requirement.

Casino
A. Yes.
Q. And there's also one further down for $843.96. Do you agree with me that's from Foxwoods Casino?
A. Yes.
Q. Now, turning to the next page, again we have the notes to MPEG. That's from Mashantucket Pequot Gaming Enterprises, correct? There's a series of checks for that?
A. Yes.
Q. Now, I direct your attention to 1362. There's a note there typed in, "Filing fee, 67 South Main Street Leicester Co." Do you see that notation?
A. Yes. That's another piece of property.
Q. Is that property located at 67 South Main Street?
A. Yes. That's next to the police station, I believe.
Q. Did you actually end up purchasing that land?
A. No. Under agreement.
Q. Is it still under agreement?
A. Yes.
Q. Is that property owned by an estate?
A. No.
Q. In relationship to the Leicester Estates Condominiums, how far away is Main Street?

Q. Go on to the next few pages until you come to you see the deposit for $11,000. Does that correspond to a deposit of $11,000 from a check from on Exhibit 20, check 6597. It's April 20, 2006?
A. I can mark on this.
Q. Don't mark on that one. Hold on. I'm going to show you a copy of Exhibit 40 that begins in March of 2006. You can mark on this one and keep it if you like.
A. Okay.
Q. Would you agree with me that's a deposit of a check from on about April 22?
A. Kooyomjian, you have to answer. Your wife can't answer for you.
Q. Yes.
Q. Now, also just below that check there's an ATM withdrawal, GCA Foxwoods, Route 2, Ledyard, Connecticut?
A. Yes.
Q. Do you agree with me that that's at Foxwoods?
