
By Mr. Donlan of Boston, petition of Edmond J. Donlan for legislation relative to the re-marriage of persons who have been granted decrees of divorce. Legal Affairs.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Forty-Three.

AN ACT RELATIVE TO THE RE-MARRIAGE OF DIVORCED
PERSONS.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Chapter two hundred and eight of the General
2 Laws is hereby amended by striking out section
3 twenty-four, as appearing in the Tercentenary Edi-
4 tion, and inserting in place thereof the following:—
5 Section 24. After a decree of divorce has become
6 absolute, either party may marry again as if the 7 other were dead, except that the party from whom the 8 divorce was granted shall not marry within two years
9 and six months after the decree has become absolute,
10 and the party to whom the divorce was granted shall 11 not marry within six months after the decree has be-
12 come absolute.
