An Act placing the office of director of the division of smoke inspection in the department of public utilities under the civil service laws and the rules and regulations thereunder.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 On and after the effective date of this act, the office of director of the division of smoke inspection in the department of public utilities shall become subject to the civil service laws and the rules and regulations thereunder, and the term of office of the incumbent thereof shall be unlimited, subject to said laws. The person holding said office on said effective date shall be subjected to a non-competitive qualifying examination by the division of civil service and if he passes such examination shall be deemed to be permanently appointed thereto, without being required to serve any probationary period.
