The Constitution of the United States

The Constitution of the United States is the supreme law of the land. It is the foundation of the government and the rights of the people. It is the source of the power of the government and the limits of that power. It is the guarantee of the rights of the people and the protection of the public interest. It is the basis of the federal system and the unity of the nation. It is the symbol of the American people's faith in the principles of liberty and justice under law.
