Senate, March 23, 1953.

The committee on Bills in the Third Reading, to whom was referred the House Bill amending the definition of convalescent and nursing homes and boarding homes for the aged (House, No. 1614, changed), report recommending that the same be amended by substituting therefor a new draft entitled "An Act further defining a boarding home for the aged" (Senate, No. 629), and that, when so amended, the same will be correctly drawn.

For the committee,

NEWLAND H. HOLMES.
The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Fifty-Three.

AN ACT FURTHER DEFINING A BOARDING HOME FOR THE AGED.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Section 71 of chapter 111 of the General Laws, as appearing in section 9 of chapter 602 of the acts of 1952, is hereby amended by striking out the sentence contained in lines 76 to 81 and inserting in place thereof the following sentence: — A boarding home for the aged is defined as any institution, however named, which is advertised, announced or maintained for the express or implied purpose of providing custodial care incident to old age to three or more persons over sixty-five years of age who are not ill or in need of any medical or nursing or convalescent care.
