To accompany the petition of Daniel Rudsten that provision be made for an investigation and study by a special unpaid commission (including members of the General Court) of insurance rates and premiums in the Commonwealth. Insurance.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Fifty-Four.

RESOLVE PROVIDING FOR AN INVESTIGATION AND STUDY BY A SPECIAL UNPAID COMMISSION OF INSURANCE RATES AND PREMIUMS IN THE COMMONWEALTH.

1 Resolved, That an unpaid special commission, to consist of two members of the senate to be designated by the president thereof, three members of the house of representatives to be designated by the speaker thereof, and two members, who shall be mayors of cities in the commonwealth, to be appointed by the governor, is hereby established for the purpose of conducting an investigation and study of insurance rates and premiums in the commonwealth. Said commission shall be provided with quarters in the state house or elsewhere, shall hold hearings and may require by summons the attendance and testimony of witnesses, and the production of any books, documents and records relating to matters under investigation. Said commission may expend for legal, accounting, clerical and other services and expenses such sums, not exceeding one hundred thousand dollars, as may be appropriated therefor. Said commission shall report to the general court the results of its investigation and study and its recommendations, if any, together with drafts of legislation necessary to carry such recommendations into effect, by filing the same with the clerk of the senate on or before the last Wednesday of December, nineteen hundred and fifty-four.
The Commercial Co-operative

As the title is not clear, the content is not legible.