

SENATE No. 834

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

SENATE, June 9, 1954.

The committees on Rules of the two branches, acting concurrently, to whom was referred the Senate Order relative to authorizing the committee on Public Welfare to sit during the recess of the General Court to make a study and investigation relative to transferring the Tewksbury State Hospital and Infirmary to the Department of Public Health (see Senate, No. 771); and the Senate Order relative to authorizing the committee on Public Welfare to sit during the recess of the General Court for the purpose of studying certain recommendations of the State Youth Commission relative to facilities available for meeting the problem of juvenile delinquency (see Senate, No. 810), report the accompanying Order (Senate, No. 834).

For the committee,

ROBERT P. CAMPBELL.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

Ordered, That the committee on public welfare is hereby authorized to sit during the recess of the general court to make an investigation and study of so much of current house document numbered 2479 as relates to transferring the Tewksbury state hospital and infirmary to the department of public health, and so much of current house document numbered 2820 relating to the formal recommendations of the state youth commission, which have not been acted upon. Said committee may travel within the commonwealth and may visit the various state institutions. Said committee shall report to the general court the results of its investigation and study, and its recommendations, if any, together with drafts of legislation necessary to carry said recommendations into effect, by filing the same with the clerk of the senate not later than the third Wednesday of January, nineteen hundred and fifty-five.
