

SENATE No. 690

[Senate, No. 690. Offered by Senator Quigley.]

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Fifty-Five.

RESOLUTIONS RELATIVE TO MONSIGNOR RICHARD J. QUINLAN.

Resolved, That the senate of Massachusetts expresses its deep sense of loss in the death of the Right Reverend Richard J. Quinlan, former chaplain of the house of representatives, and pastor of St. John the Evangelist church in Winthrop. As chaplain of the house of representatives Monsignor Quinlan's prayers were a source of inspiration and strength to the members of the general court, for in the midst of partisan politics, and heated debate, he ever reminded them of the eternal truths, and he often sounded timely warnings on current events and dangerous trends. He was admired by all who knew him, and was ever a source of consolation and comfort. His life was one of devotion and service to his fellow man, to his country and to his God. May his soul rest in peace.
