IRVING N. HAYDEN,
Clerk.

The Commission of Investigation

Report of the Commission of Investigation

The Commission of Investigation was organized on July 1, 1912, under the provisions of the Act of March 1, 1912, (Public Law No. 113, 61st Congress). The Commission was directed to investigate the administration of the United States Forest Service, and to report thereon to the Senate and the House of Representatives. The Commission has the honor to submit herewith its report, which is divided into two parts: the first part contains a general statement of the facts and circumstances which have led to the organization of the Commission, and the second part contains the findings and conclusions of the Commission.

Very respectfully,
Chairman of the Commission
