

Chap. 699. AN ACT AUTHORIZING THE CONVEYANCE OF A CERTAIN PARCEL OF LAND IN THE CITY OR BOSTON TO THE UNITED STATES OF AMERICA.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

SECTION 1. The city of Boston, acting by and through its parks and recreation commission, is hereby authorized to convey a certain parcel of land, as hereinafter described, to the United States of America acting through the National Park Service of the Department of the Interior.

Said land is described as follows:

The land situated in that part of Boston called Dorchester, being shown as "Park Department (Dorchester Heights)" on a plan entitled: "City of Boston Public Works Department Engineering Division, Thomas Park, South Boston," dated April 20, 1979, by Angelo J. Ialuna, Division Engineer, and containing 237,371 square feet, according to said plan.

SECTION 2. The conveyance authorized by section one shall be on the condition that said land, designated by the ninety-fifth Congress of the United States as an addition to the Boston National Historical Park by Public Law 95-625, approved November tenth, nineteen hundred and seventy-eight, is to be preserved exclusively as a national historical park for the use and enjoyment of the people of the United States as the area possesses outstanding natural, historic and scenic values. In the event the United States of America ceases to use the hereinbefore described Dorchester Heights for Boston National Historical Park purposes, legal title to and equitable ownership of said Dorchester Heights shall revert to the city of Boston.

SECTION 3. The city of Boston shall retain concurrent jurisdiction with the United States of America in and over the hereinbefore described property for purposes of civil and criminal process.

Approved November 8, 1979.

Chap. 702. AN ACT TRANSFERRING THE CRIMINAL HISTORY SYSTEM BOARD TO THE EXECUTIVE OFFICE OF PUBLIC SAFETY.

Whereas, The deferred operation of this act would tend to defeat its purpose, which is to balance potential conflicts between the demands of individual rights of privacy and the need to make certain information available to the public, therefore it is hereby declared to be an emergency law, necessary for the immediate preservation of the public convenience.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 168 of chapter 6 of the General Laws is hereby amended, by striking out the first paragraph, as most recently amended by section 5 of chapter 478 of the acts of 1978, and inserting in place thereof the following paragraph:-

There shall be a criminal history systems board hereinafter called the board, consisting of the following persons: the attorney general, the secretary of public safety, the chairman of the Massachusetts defenders committee, the chairman of the parole board, the commissioner of the department of correction, the commissioner of the department of public safety, the commissioner of the department of youth services, the commissioner of probation, the executive director of the committee on criminal justice, and the police commissioner of the city of Boston, or their designees, all of whom shall serve ex officio; and three other persons to be appointed by the governor for a term of three years, one of whom shall represent the Massachusetts district attorneys association, one of whom shall represent the Massachusetts chiefs of police association, and one of whom shall represent the county commissioners and sheriffs association. Upon the expiration of the term of any appointive member, his successor shall be appointed in a like manner for a term of three years.

SECTION 2. Said section 168 of said chapter 6 is hereby further amended by striking out the third paragraph, as appearing in section 1 of chapter 805 of the acts of 1972, and inserting in place thereof the following paragraph:-

The board, after giving the security and privacy council an opportunity to present its advice and recommendations, shall, with the approval of two-thirds of the board members or their designees present and voting, promulgate regulations regarding
