The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Fifty-Six.

RESOLUTIONS ON THE DEATH OF FRED A. BLAKE.

Whereas, The Massachusetts Senate has learned with deep sorrow of the death of Fred A. Blake of Gardner, a member of the General Court of Massachusetts, who died on March 8, 1956, after a lingering illness, and while serving his twentieth year in the House of Representatives; and

Whereas, During his long and distinguished career in public life he was beloved and respected by those with whom he came in contact, both for his knowledge and understanding, his conscientious attention to the problems of his district and the commonwealth, his friendliness and gentlemanly manner and his willingness at all times to help, where aid was needed; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Massachusetts Senate hereby extends to the family of the deceased its deep sympathy and condolence in their bereavement, and that there be transmitted by the state secretary to the family of Fred A. Blake an engrossed copy of these resolutions.
