SENATE, August 2, 1956.

The committees on Rules of the two branches, acting concurrently, to whom was referred the fourth report of the special commission (including members of the General Court) established (under chapter 100 of the Resolves of 1953 and most recently revived and continued under chapter 147 of the Resolves of 1955) to investigate the existence and extent of organized crime and gambling, and other related matters within the Commonwealth (Senate, No. 714); and the fifth report of the special commission (including members of the General Court) established (under chapter 100 of the Resolves of 1953 and most recently revived and continued under chapter 147 of the Resolves of 1955) to investigate the existence and extent of organized crime and gambling, and other related matters within the Commonwealth (duplicate of Senate, No. 714), report, in part, the accompanying Order (Senate, No. 770).

For the committee,

NEWLAND H. HOLMES.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

SENATE, August 2, 1956.

Whereas, The unpaid special commission, established by chapter 100 of the resolves of 1953 and most recently revived and continued by chapter 147 of the resolves of 1955, to investigate the existence of organized crime and gambling, and other related matters, within the commonwealth, having filed a report with the General Court (see duplicate of current Senate document numbered 714), wherein it is stated that on June 18, 1956, Albert A. Amoroso was duly served in hand with a summons of said commission directing him to appear in person and give testimony before said commission at room 402 at 20 Somerset street, Boston, Massachusetts, on June 27, 1956, at 11.00 A.M.; and that said Albert A. Amoroso did fail to appear at said place on said date at said time as set forth in the summons and did thereby wilfully make default; therefore be it

Ordered, That the Clerk of the Senate, pursuant to the provisions of section 28A of chapter 3 of the General Laws, transmit to the Attorney General of the Commonwealth a certified copy of this order, together with the report of the said special commission.
