SENATE, July 15, 1957.

The committee on Bills in the Third Reading to which was referred the House Bill relative to the pensions of certain superior court probation officers (House, No. 3233), reports recommending that the same be amended by substituting therefor a new draft entitled "An Act relative to the apportionment of the payment of pensions of probation officers in the superior court" (Senate, No. 746), and that, when so amended, the same will be correctly drawn.

For the committee,

CHARLES E. FERGUSON.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Fifty-Seven.

AN ACT RELATIVE TO THE APPORTIONMENT OF THE PAYMENT OF PENSIONS OF PROBATION OFFICERS IN THE SUPERIOR COURT.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 SECTION 1. Section 75 of chapter 32 of the General Laws,
2 as most recently amended by section 1 of chapter 323 of the 3 acts of 1938, is hereby further amended by inserting after the 4 word "approval", in line 5, the words: —, in the case of a
5 probation officer in a district court, the municipal court of the 6 city of Boston, or the Boston juvenile court, — so as to read
7 as follows: — Section 75. Any probation officer whose whole
8 time is given to the duties of his office shall, at his request, be 9 retired from active service and placed upon a pension roll by 10 the court upon which it is his duty to attend, with the ap-11 proval, in the case of a probation officer in a district court, the 12 municipal court of the city of Boston, or the Boston juvenile 13 court, of the county commissioners of the county in which the 14 court is situated; provided, that he is certified in writing by 15 a physician designated by such court to be permanently dis-
16 abled, mentally or physically, for further service by reason of 17 injuries or illness sustained or incurred through no fault of his 18 own in the actual performance of his duty as such officer. Any 19 such probation officer who has faithfully performed his duties
20 for not less than twenty consecutive years, and who is not 21 less than sixty years of age, shall be retired at his request with-22 out the aforesaid certification. Every probation officer shall 23 be retired upon attaining the age of seventy.

24 No probation officer whose employment begins after June
25 thirtieth, nineteen hundred and thirty-seven, shall be subject
26 to the provisions of this section.

1 SECTION 2. Said chapter 32 is hereby further amended by 2 striking out section 76, as most recently amended by chap-
3 ter 649 of the acts of 1956, and inserting in place thereof the 4 following two sections:—

5 Section 76. Every person retired under section seventy-6 five shall receive an annual pension equal to one half of the 7 compensation received by him at the time of his retirement,
8 to be paid by the county in which he has performed his duties,
9 or if he has performed such duties in more than one county,
10 it shall be apportioned by the superior court among such coun-
11 ties; provided, that no person so retired upon attaining the 12 age of seventy shall be entitled to such pension unless, dur-
13 ing the fifteen years immediately preceding retirement, he 14 has given his whole time to the duties of the office of proba-
15 tion officer and has faithfully performed such duties.

16 Section 76A. Any person retired under the provisions of 17 section seventy-five shall receive an annual pension equal to 18 one half of the regular annual compensation received by him
19 at the time of his retirement; provided, that any such person
20 who is retired upon attaining age seventy and who has given
21 his whole time to the duties of the office of probation officer
22 and has faithfully performed such duties for a period of not 23 less than twenty consecutive years immediately preceding his 24 retirement shall receive an annual pension equal to one half 25 of the regular annual compensation received by him at the 26 time of his retirement and an additional yearly amount equal 27 to one per cent of said compensation for each year after the 28 first twenty, the total yearly amount of his pension not to ex-
29 ceed sixty-five per cent of said regular annual compensation
30 or five thousand dollars, whichever is less. Such pension shall 31 be paid by the county in which such person has performed his 32 duties, or if he has performed such duties in more than one 33 county, it shall be apportioned by the superior court among 34 such counties. The provisions of this section shall become 35 effective in each county to which the provisions apply, upon 36 acceptance by the county commissioners thereof.
