

HOUSE No. 311

By Mr. Campbell of Cambridge, petition of John A. Daly for legislation relative to pensions of certain judges of probate. Pensions and Old Age Assistance.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Fifty-Eight.

AN ACT RELATIVE TO PENSIONS OF CERTAIN JUDGES OF PROBATE.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Section 65A of chapter 32 of the General Laws, as most 2 recently amended by acts of 1956, chapter 670, is hereby further 3 amended by adding thereto the following sentence: — A judge of 4 probate who retires or resigns in accordance with this section and 5 who during his service has received compensation for sitting in 6 other counties under the provisions of section forty of chapter
7 two hundred and seventeen of the General Laws shall, in addition 8 to all other amounts received under the provisions of this section, 9 be entitled to receive a pension for life equal to three fourths of 10 the average annual compensation paid him under section forty 11 for service during the ten years next preceding such retirement 12 or resignation.
