The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Fifty-Eight.

AN ACT FURTHER PROVIDING FOR THE SEGREGATION AND TREATMENT OF SEX OFFENDERS, SO CALLED.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Section 8 of chapter 123A of the General Laws, as amended by 2 chapter 772 of the acts of 1957, is further amended by striking 3 out the words "twelve months" as appearing in line 4, — and 4 inserting in place thereof the words: — three years.

5 Section 8 of said chapter 123A of the General Laws, as amended
6 by chapter 772 of the acts of 1957, is further amended by insert-
7 ing after the word "petition", in line four of said section, 8 the following words: — approved by the parole board.

9 Section 8 of said chapter 123A of the General Laws, as amended 10 by chapter 772 of the acts of 1957, is hereby further amended by 11 adding at the end of said section the following: —

12 Any person discharged from the center under the provisions 13 of this section shall be under the control and supervision of the 14 parole board for a period of not less than five years from the 15 date of said discharge. The parole board shall have the power 16 and the duty to report any serious violation of the terms and 17 conditions of the parole to a justice of the superior court, who 18 may, if in his opinion he is still a sex offender as defined in 19 General Laws, chapter 123A, as amended, order his return to the 20 center for the segregation, care and treatment of sex offenders, 21 so called.

To accompany the bill of the Senate of the State of New York, passed at the session of 1901, and introduced in the Senate at the session of 1902.
