

HOUSE No. 31

Accompanying the first recommendation of the Division of Industrial Accidents
(House, No. 30). Labor and Industries.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Fifty-Nine.

AN ACT RELATIVE TO THE REPORTING OF INJURIES BY EMPLOYERS UNDER THE WORKMEN'S COMPENSATION LAW.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Section 19 of chapter 152 of the General Laws, as most
2 recently amended by chapter 174 of the acts of 1955, is hereby
3 further amended by striking out the second sentence in the 4 first paragraph and inserting in place thereof the following new
5 sentence:— Within forty-eight hours, not counting Sundays
6 and legal holidays, after the occurrence of a personal injury
7 which causes the loss of at least one day or one shift, usually
8 eight hours, a written report thereof shall be made to the Divi-
9 sion on blank forms prescribed by it.

The Constitution of the United States

The Constitution of the United States is the supreme law of the land. It is the foundation of the government and the rights of the people. It is the document that defines the structure and powers of the federal government and the states. It is the document that guarantees the rights of the people and the principles of democracy. It is the document that has shaped the history of the United States and continues to shape its future.

The Constitution is a living document that has evolved over time through amendments and judicial interpretation. It is a document that is constantly being reinterpreted and redefined. It is a document that is the source of the nation's identity and the source of its strength. It is a document that is the source of the nation's unity and the source of its hope.

The Constitution is a document that is the source of the nation's power and the source of its glory. It is a document that is the source of the nation's greatness and the source of its success. It is a document that is the source of the nation's future and the source of its destiny. It is a document that is the source of the nation's life and the source of its hope.
