
The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Fifty-Nine.

RESOLUTIONS ON THE DEATH OF NORMAN MACDONALD, EXECUTIVE DIRECTOR OF THE MASSACHUSETTS FEDERATION OF TAXPAYERS ASSOCIATION.

Whereas, It is with great sorrow that the House of Representatives has learned of the sudden death of Norman MacDonald, Executive Director of the Massachusetts Federation of Taxpayers Association; and

Whereas, He became interested in the Taxpayers Association at its inception some thirty years ago and became its guiding genius in 1935, when he accepted the position of Executive Director, and during all those years demonstrated such courage and intelligence in meeting economic problems besetting the Commonwealth that he built up his organization to the position of one of the strongest in the Nation; and

Whereas, Through the medium of this powerful organization he was able to render exemplary service to the taxpayers of the Commonwealth; and

Whereas, He served his country as a member of the Marine Corps during World War I, and was engaged in the newspaper business for many years, having risen to the post of city editor of the Springfield Union, and in these activities as well as in his many endeavors for the good of his fellow men, he exhibited a strong sense of dedicated service; therefore be it

Resolved, That the House of Representatives hereby extends to the members of his family, his friends and relatives its sincere condolences on their great loss; and be it further

Resolved, That an engrossed copy of these resolutions be forwarded by the Secretary of the Commonwealth to his family.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, June 9, 1959.

Adopted.

LAWRENCE R. GROVE,
Clerk.

The Employment of Government

In the Year One Thousand Eight Hundred and Twenty

The first part of the report is devoted to a general survey of the employment of government in the United States during the year 1921. It shows that the total number of persons employed by the government was 1,100,000, or about 1.5 per cent of the total population.

The second part of the report is devoted to a detailed study of the employment of government in the various States. It shows that the total number of persons employed by the government in the States was 800,000, or about 1.2 per cent of the total population.

The third part of the report is devoted to a detailed study of the employment of government in the Federal Government. It shows that the total number of persons employed by the Federal Government was 300,000, or about 0.4 per cent of the total population.

The fourth part of the report is devoted to a detailed study of the employment of government in the various departments of the Federal Government. It shows that the total number of persons employed by the various departments of the Federal Government was 250,000, or about 0.3 per cent of the total population.

The fifth part of the report is devoted to a detailed study of the employment of government in the various bureaus of the Federal Government. It shows that the total number of persons employed by the various bureaus of the Federal Government was 200,000, or about 0.3 per cent of the total population.

The sixth part of the report is devoted to a detailed study of the employment of government in the various offices of the Federal Government. It shows that the total number of persons employed by the various offices of the Federal Government was 150,000, or about 0.2 per cent of the total population.

Printed in the Government Printing Office, 1922