Policy:
Not to exceed 72 hours for
1) pre-release planning leave - for securing employment, and residence, obtaining licenses, registration for courses, and visiting family members - usually 63 days or less prior to parole (exceptions up to 90 days prior)
2) leave from community correctional centers - to work, attend school, seek work, or to attend leisure activities
   - 3rd month prior to parole - totaling not more than 60 hrs.
   - 2nd month prior to parole - totaling not more than 96 hrs.
   - last month prior to parole - totaling not more than 144 hrs.
   - for family or overnight visits no leave to exceed 36 hrs.
   All others are not to exceed 12 hours.
3) emergency leave - to attend funeral or make deathbed visit to member of immediate family, to participate in court hearing involving legal custody of inmate's dependent child if agency requested attendance
   Ineligible - condemned prisoners, those serving life w/out parole, any serious custody risk.
   If considered, escort will be required for menacing psychiatric cases; those with 7 yr or more minimum parole eligibility for funerals only; security segregation cases; those with detainers; those identified with large-scale organized crime, notorious crimes of violence; sex offenders; other than minimum custody.

Policy:
- Not to exceed 30 days
- 1) to finalize parole plans
- 2) for purpose consistent with public interest (as of 7/9/74 furloughs were being granted to curb serious shortage of bed space in Reformatory) - "extended furlough"
- 3) emergency reason - deathbed or funeral visit to relative

Reformatory has incentive program where inmates progress through four housing units according to demonstrated behavior. On reaching to top wing or unit, they are accorded 24 furlough hrs per month: 1) gate pass of 12 hours to go to town with friends or relatives or 2) a furlough beyond 12 hours for a weekend visit etc. This was used routinely up to 1971. The extended furlough implemented to make bed space. These last 5-30 days (average 26 days) for work/education. For a 90 day period, 55 residents released on extended furlough, 2 escaped, 1 in jail. (3.6% escape rate), all others returned.

Problem of overcrowding is forcing moving up residents through housing units even though don't deserve it.

Penitentiary - no formalized program due to recent rampage of 3 escapes to Texas - program in state of flux. As it stands is now allowed 30 days prior to release for job hunting and must be in minimum custody. Suggested programs allows furlough for resident within one year of release with a minimum or medium A security classification.

Eligibility: criteria and regulations up to institution

As of 9/12/74 there is an unofficial stoppage on all furloughs due to public outcry. In Chicago, inmates serving murder offenses were attending university without guard, newspapers got hold of information and began outcry. Involved violent murders with possibly little incarceration time served. May be just temporary stoppage until media calms down. Political maneuverings (per phone call)

As of 9/18/74 furlough program in operation, modified so that all candidates must have case personally reviewed by Director of Dept. of Corrections. In past, selection made through individual prison committees. (per letter)

As of 9/23/74 criticism of program considered minor and Adult's Division Advisory Board has unanimously backed program so the program will continue. Warden or Work-Release coordinator final approval for furloughs of Class 2+ below felons; Director of Dept. must give final approval for furloughs of Class 1 or more serious felons. (per letter)
