

SENATE No. 453

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

SENATE, May 26, 1937.

The committee on Education, to whom was recommended the Senate Bill raising the age limit for compulsory school attendance for minors from fourteen to sixteen years (printed as House, No. 1419), report that the same ought to pass, with an amendment substituting therefor a resolve entitled "Resolve providing for an investigation by the special unpaid commission, established to investigate certain educational matters, relative to raising the age limit for compulsory school attendance for minors" (Senate, No. 453).

For the committee,

ALBERT COLE.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Thirty-Seven.

Resolve providing for an Investigation by the Special Unpaid Commission, established to investigate Certain Educational Matters, relative to raising the Age Limit for Compulsory School Attendance for Minors.

1 Resolved, That the special unpaid commission
2 established by chapter of the resolves of
3 the current year shall, in carrying out its work under
4 said resolve, consider the subject matter of current
5 house document numbered fourteen hundred and
6 nineteen, relative to raising the age limit for com-
7 pulsory school attendance for minors from fourteen
8 to sixteen years, and related matters.
