In the Year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Sixty.

Resolutions on the death of J. Austin Peckham.

Whereas, The Senate has learned with deep sorrow of the death of one of its former members, J. Austin Peckham of Wellesley; and

Whereas, In a long and honored career in the public service, during which he served as a selectman in the town of Wellesley from nineteen hundred and thirty-five to nineteen hundred and thirty-eight, a member of the House of Representatives from nineteen hundred and thirty-seven to nineteen hundred and forty-two, and as a member of the Senate from nineteen hundred and forty-three to nineteen hundred and forty-six, J. Austin Peckham was distinguished as a public servant ever conscious of his obligations to the people he represented and always remarkable for his great capacity for work and unceasing energy in the discharge of his duties; and

Whereas, J. Austin Peckham, in giving of himself in many community endeavors and causes earned the respect and admiration of his neighbors and fellow citizens, and had been a president of the Wellesley Kiwanis Club, past commander of the Wellesley American Legion, and past master of Wellesley Lodge A.F. & A.M.; now therefore be it

Resolved, That the Massachusetts Senate hereby extends to the family of the late J. Austin Peckham its deepest sympathy and condolences in their bereavement; and be it further

Resolved, That these resolutions be spread upon the records and an engrossed copy thereof be forwarded to the widow of the late J. Austin Peckham by the Clerk of the Senate.
Adopted.

IRVING N. HAYDEN,
Clerk of the Senate.
