

sultants to supervise the building, altering, furnishing or repairing of public buildings or the construction or repair of public works under contracts awarded under the provisions of this section. Said management consultants shall establish and implement a comprehensive management program including all direction, procedures, coordination, administration, review, expedition and counseling required to assist the counties and their consultants in accomplishing said contracts in a timely, economical and acceptable manner.

SECTION 2. Section 37A of chapter 35 of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking out the second sentence, as appearing in chapter 29 of the acts of 1933, and inserting in place thereof the following sentence: — The proceeds of any sale of bonds or notes, except premiums, shall be used only for the purposes specified in the original authorization of the loan; provided, that the proceeds of any sale of bonds or notes for building, altering, furnishing or repairing public buildings or the construction or repair of public works may be used to pay management consultants hired under the provisions of section seventeen of chapter thirty-four; and provided, further, that unexpended amounts may be applied to maturing annual payments of the same loan, and provided, further, that so much of such proceeds as has not been so applied at the expiration of two years from the completion of the project for which the loan was authorized shall become part of the next general unappropriated balance established under section twenty-nine or, if such loan was made on behalf of a district, shall be applied in reduction of assessments to be made upon it by the county.

Approved October 15, 1973.

Chap. 909. AN ACT AUTHORIZING CREDIT UNIONS TO ACCEPT TERM SHARE AND DEPOSIT ACCOUNTS.

Whereas, The deferred operation of this act would tend to defeat its purpose, which is, in part, to immediately allow credit unions to pay supplemental or variable rates of dividends or interest on certain share and deposit accounts in order that such credit unions continue to be placed on an equitable basis, therefore it is hereby declared to be an emergency law, necessary for the immediate preservation of the public convenience.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

Chapter 171 of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after section 10A the following section: —

Section 10B. Any of the shares or deposits authorized by section ten may, if the directors of the credit union so determine, be received as term shares or deposits, subject to the limits contained in said section ten and to the provisions of this section.

Any prior provisions of the law to the contrary notwithstanding, any such shares or deposits shall be received by a credit union subject to the terms of a written plan submitted to and approved by the commissioner, which plan shall specify (a) the proposed rates of dividends or interest to be paid on such term shares or deposits, including day-to-day dividends or interest if the plan so provides, (b) the minimum amount, which shall be not less than one thousand dollars, and the maximum amount of share or deposit balances and the minimum period, which shall be not less than six months, of maintenance of such balances to which such specified rates shall apply, (c) the additional reserves to be established for such rates of dividends, (d) the form and substance of the certificate or pass book which shall represent the shares or deposits to which such dividends may apply, and (e) such other provisions as are termed necessary or advisable to give effect to the purposes of such plan.

Approved October 15, 1973.

Chap. 910. AN ACT RELATING TO THE LICENSING AUTHORITY OF THE PESTICIDE BOARD.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

Section 21C of chapter 94B of the General Laws is hereby amended by striking out the first paragraph, as appearing in section 7 of chapter 521 of the acts of 1962, and inserting in place thereof the following paragraph: —

No person shall use any aircraft for the application of pesticides unless licensed by the board. Persons, including governmental agencies and municipal corporations, who apply pesticides, other than by aircraft, on the land of another may be required by the board to be licensed therefor, but the board shall not require a farmer who makes application of pesticides to land, or buildings reasonably related thereto, owned or controlled by him for his own agricultural purposes to be licensed, but the board may require that such farmer file with the board, on such form as it may require, a statement signed under the penalties of perjury that he shall use only such pesticides as are registered as required under section thirteen and that such pesticides shall be applied only in accordance with the directions as appear on the label of containers thereof. If a license is required under this section, it shall be issued on such conditions, rules and regulations as the board deems necessary but the annual fee for such license shall not exceed five dollars.

Approved October 15, 1973.

Chap. 911. AN ACT INCREASING WITNESS FEES.

Be it enacted, etc., as follows:

The first paragraph of section 29 of chapter 262 of the General Laws, as appearing in chapter 697 of the acts of 1949, is hereby amended by striking out, in line 11, the word "three" and inserting in place thereof the word: — six, — and by striking out, in line 12, the word "five" and inserting in place thereof the word: — ten.

Approved October 15, 1973.