

By Mr. Rurak, petition of James P. Rurak for legislation to authorize the directors of regional community colleges to retain and manage as revolving funds all receipts from student activities. Education.

---

---

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Sixty-Three.

---

AN ACT AUTHORIZING THE DIRECTORS OF REGIONAL COMMUNITY COLLEGES TO RETAIN AND MANAGE AS REVOLVING FUNDS ALL RECEIPTS FROM STUDENT ACTIVITIES.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

- 1 Chapter 15 of the General Laws is hereby amended by adding
- 2 after section 27 the following section: —
- 3 Section 28. The Massachusetts board of regional community
- 4 colleges may fix the amount of student activity fee to be paid
- 5 by each student at any regional community college. All student
- 6 activity fees and all receipts from student activities shall be
- 7 retained by the director of the college in a revolving fund or
- 8 revolving funds, and shall be expended as the director of the
- 9 college may direct in furthering student activities; provided
- 10 that the foregoing shall not authorize any action in contraven-
- 11 tion of the requirements of section one of Article LXII of the
- 12 amendments to the constitution. The said fund or funds shall
- 13 be subject to annual audit by the state auditor.

On the other hand, it is not possible to suppose that the general principle of the law is to be applied in a way that would lead to a result that is manifestly unjust.

The Principle of the Law

It is the duty of the law to be applied in a way that is just and equitable.

The law is not intended to be applied in a way that would lead to a result that is manifestly unjust. It is the duty of the law to be applied in a way that is just and equitable.

The law is not intended to be applied in a way that would lead to a result that is manifestly unjust. It is the duty of the law to be applied in a way that is just and equitable.

The law is not intended to be applied in a way that would lead to a result that is manifestly unjust. It is the duty of the law to be applied in a way that is just and equitable.

The law is not intended to be applied in a way that would lead to a result that is manifestly unjust. It is the duty of the law to be applied in a way that is just and equitable.

The law is not intended to be applied in a way that would lead to a result that is manifestly unjust. It is the duty of the law to be applied in a way that is just and equitable.

The law is not intended to be applied in a way that would lead to a result that is manifestly unjust. It is the duty of the law to be applied in a way that is just and equitable.