
By Mr. Donahue, a petition of the University of Massachusetts, by Dean Leo F. Redfern, for legislation to further provide for activities at said university. Education.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Sixty-Six.

AN ACT FURTHER PROVIDING FOR ACTIVITIES AT THE UNIVERSITY OF MASSACHUSETTS.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Section 11 of Chapter 75 of the General Laws, as appearing 2 in section 1 of chapter 648 of the acts of 1962, is hereby 3 amended by adding the following three sentences: — The 4 trustees may determine that among the projects and activi-
5 ties for which trust funds may be established as aforesaid
6 shall be (1) the supplying of services and materials incidental
7 or ancillary to classes and courses offered by the university,
8 including supplies and equipment, lectures, programs and writ-
9 ten materials, and (2) the conduct of activities at the uni-
10 versity pertaining to regulating the use by members of the 11 professional and non-professional staff of the university and 12 persons enrolled in courses and classes thereat of any property 13 on the campus or on other land of the university. Fees and 14 other charges made for any of the foregoing, including over-
15 head on grants and contracts, shall be deemed to be trust fund
16 income and the trustees may designate any officer or office of 17 the university or agency or organization of the university or 18 operated by university personnel or students as the person or 19 agency to receive and disburse such trust fund income. Tuition
20 from degree courses, assessed by the trustees under this chap-
21 ter, shall be returned to the State Treasury.
