

MassGrown and Fresher News – Fun Fall Events

Things may have cooled off and the leaves are changing, but our growers are still busy growing and preparing for the harvest; a time when we reap what we sow. We are pleased to see a bounty of pumpkins, apples, winter squash, fresh cranberries, cabbage, carrots, cauliflower, and hearty greens available. Most farmers' markets are still opened through mid-November, and many will then move indoors.

Be sure to check out our Agricultural Face of the Month, Chewy Pumpkin Cookie recipe and Pumpkin blog.

It's also a great time of the year to get out and about and visit a farm, festival or culinary event, especially over the long Columbus Day weekend.
