The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Thirty-One.

Resolve providing for the Appointment of a Special Commission to investigate and study into the Problems of the Proper Lighting of Highways, Public Reservations and Public Buildings.

1 Resolved, That the governor is hereby author-
2 ized and directed to appoint a special unpaid com-
3 mission, to be composed of five persons and to be 4 appointed for a term of two years. Said commis-
5 sion shall investigate and study into the problems
6 of public lighting of highways, public reservations
7 and public buildings to the end that modern 8 methods of lighting may be adopted. Said com-
9 mission shall expend such sum as may hereafter be 10 appropriated not exceeding fifty thousand dollars
11 and shall file with the clerk of the house of repre-
12 sentatives a preliminary report of its findings not 13 later than December first, in the year nineteen hun-
14 dred and thirty-two, and a final report not later
15 than December thirty-first, in the year nineteen
16 hundred and thirty-three, with such drafts of legis-
17 lation, if any, as may be necessary to carry its 18 recommendations into effect.
