

HOUSE No. 294

By Mr. Levins of Boston, petition of Marcus J. Levins that the Attorney General be directed to appear as counsel for all persons prosecuting proceedings under the law providing for compensating persons injured in industrial accidents. Judiciary (Joint).

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Thirty-Two.

An Act authorizing and directing the Attorney General to appear as Counsel for Persons Prosecuting Proceedings under the Workmen's Compensation Law.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Chapter one hundred and fifty-two of the General
2 Laws is hereby amended by inserting after section
3 eight A, inserted by section one of chapter three
4 hundred and twenty of the acts of nineteen hundred
5 and thirty, the following new section: —

6 Section 8B. The attorney general shall appear as
7 counsel for all persons prosecuting proceedings under
8 this chapter.

H. 135

The Administration of the Department

1. The Department is organized as follows:

2. The Department is divided into three main sections: the first section is responsible for the general administration of the Department, the second section is responsible for the financial administration, and the third section is responsible for the technical administration.

3. The Department is headed by a Director, who is appointed by the Government. The Director is assisted by a Deputy Director, who is also appointed by the Government. The Director and Deputy Director are responsible for the overall management and administration of the Department. The Director is also responsible for the preparation and submission of the Department's annual report to the Government.

