

10 shall cease. There shall be added to the payments
11 interest at the rate of six per cent per annum.

1 SECTION 3. In the case of deceased employees who 2 have contributed prior to death, the amount due
3 them shall be paid to their heirs or legatees, or may,
4 as an option, be part of any annuity being paid to 5 heirs or legatees. They may also be donated to 6 retirement funds, old-age pension funds, general wel-
7 fare and institutional funds.

1 SECTION 4. Beginning with April first, nineteen
2 hundred and thirty-four, each department shall render 3 a quarterly report of salary deductions. The first 4 report shall include the amount deducted during the 5 first quarter of demand or request for such welfare
6 donations, and continue quarterly thereafter until all
7 such obligations to public employees are liquidated.

1 SECTION 5. If the bonds issued under this act are 2 insufficient to meet this obligation the treasurer shall 3 cause to be issued a bond issue to care for the residue.
4 If the amount is more than enough the balance shall 5 be reserved as the nucleus of a permanent emergency
6 welfare fund, to be used for no other purpose.

1 SECTION 6. Upon receipt of the amount stated in 2 the quarterly reports each department shall pay
3 same to employees forthwith.

1 SECTION 7. This act shall be in effect January
2 first, nineteen hundred and thirty-four.
