

HOUSE No. 1420

Substituted by the House, on motion of Mr. Lane of Lawrence, for a report of the committee on Labor and Industries, leave to withdraw, on the petition (accompanied by bill, House, No. 756) of Thomas J. Lane relative to furnishing specifications to employees in factories and workshops who are paid by the piece or job. May 10.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Thirty-Three.

An Act relative to the Employment of Persons in Factories and Workshops on Piece or Job Work.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Chapter one hundred and forty-nine of the General
2 Laws, as appearing in the Tercentenary edition
3 thereof, is hereby amended by inserting after section
4 one hundred and fifty-seven the following new sec-
5 tion:—

6 Section 157A. Every person, firm or corporation
7 operating a factory or workshop shall supply, either
8 at the time of starting work or before the particular
9 job assigned is completed, and in any event before
10 the next day on which the pay roll is calculated, to 11 each employee who is paid by the piece, a printed or 12 written ticket, or by posting stating the basis of 13 remuneration for the particular operation to be 14 performed.

The Committee on Education and the Arts has the honor to acknowledge the receipt of the report of the Commission on the Status of Women, dated June 1, 1953, and to express its appreciation for the valuable information contained therein.

THE COMMISSION ON THE STATUS OF WOMEN

The Commission on the Status of Women was established by Executive Order on June 1, 1951, to study and report on the status of women in the United States.

The Commission is composed of representatives from all major political parties and from various segments of the population, including labor, business, education, and the professions.

The Commission's report is a comprehensive study of the status of women in the United States, covering such areas as employment, education, health care, and family life. It provides a detailed analysis of the problems facing women and offers recommendations for their solution.

The Commission's report is a landmark document in the history of the women's movement in the United States. It has provided a valuable resource for policymakers, educators, and the general public alike. The Commission's findings and recommendations have been widely cited and have played a significant role in shaping public policy.

The Commission's report is a testament to the hard work and dedication of its members. It is a valuable resource for anyone interested in the status of women in the United States and is a must-read for all concerned with the well-being of our nation.

The Commission's report is a landmark document in the history of the women's movement in the United States. It has provided a valuable resource for policymakers, educators, and the general public alike. The Commission's findings and recommendations have been widely cited and have played a significant role in shaping public policy.

The Commission's report is a landmark document in the history of the women's movement in the United States. It has provided a valuable resource for policymakers, educators, and the general public alike. The Commission's findings and recommendations have been widely cited and have played a significant role in shaping public policy.