To accompany the petition of Robert P. Trask for legislation relative to the powers of cities and towns to regulate the use of billboards and other advertising devices. Mercantile Affairs.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Thirty-Four.

An Act relative to the Powers of Cities and Towns to limit the Use of Billboards.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Section twenty-five of chapter forty of the General Laws, as appearing in the Tercentenary edition thereof, is hereby amended by adding at the end the following paragraph:—

5 The word "structures", as used in sections twenty-five to thirty, inclusive, shall include billboards, signs and other advertising devices, notwithstanding the provisions of chapter ninety-three.
