To accompany the petition of Thomas P. Conlan for legislation relative to warning signs to be placed on or attached to certain gasoline dispensing pumps. Public Safety.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Thirty-Four.

An Act relative to Warning Signs to be placed on or attached to Certain Gasoline Dispensing Pumps.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Chapter one hundred and forty-eight of the General Laws is hereby amended by inserting after section twenty-three, as appearing in the Tercentenary edition thereof, the following new section:

Section 23A. Every gasoline pump which is used for dispensing to the public gasoline containing any content whatsoever of any compound of lead, known as tetra-ethyl or otherwise, shall be plainly designated thereon or on a sign attached thereto, with the words: "DANGER — THIS GASOLINE CONTAINS LEAD — DO NOT EXPOSE OPEN CUTS — DO NOT USE FOR WASHING OR CLEANING." Said sign shall be at least eleven inches by nine inches in dimensions and said words shall be sufficiently large to be easily read at a distance of ten feet therefrom, and shall be illuminated at night.
