SENATE . . . . No. 321

To accompany the petition of the Plymouth County League of Sportsmen’s Clubs, by Donald W. Nicholson, that the taking of deer in the county of Plymouth be temporarily prohibited. Conservation.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Thirty-Four.

An Act prohibiting the Taking of Deer in the County of Plymouth until the Year Nineteen Hundred and Thirty-Six.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1. Notwithstanding the provisions of section one hundred and nine of chapter one hundred and thirty-one of the General Laws, whoever, before the beginning of the open season on deer throughout the commonwealth in the year nineteen hundred and thirty-six, hunts, pursues, wounds or kills a deer in the county of Plymouth, or sells or offers for sale, or has in possession, a deer or any part thereof, captured or killed in said county, shall be punished by a fine of one hundred dollars.
