

HOUSE No. 895

By Mr. Otis of Pittsfield, petition of Ralph E. Otis for legislation to authorize reinstatement of persons alleged to have been illegally removed from office or employment under civil service laws. Civil Service.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Thirty-Six.

An Act for the Reinstatement of Any Person alleged to have been Illegally removed from Office or Employment under Civil Service.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Chapter thirty-one of the General Laws is hereby
2 amended by striking out section forty-six A, as
3 appearing in the Tercentenary Edition, and inserting
4 in place thereof the following:—

5 Section 46A. The commissioner of civil service
6 shall have jurisdiction of any petition for reinstatement
7 of any person alleged to have been illegally
8 removed from office or employment. If the commissioner
9 finds that such removal is illegal the person
10 so removed shall be reinstated in his or her office
11 or employment without loss of compensation.

The Constitution of the State

As amended by the Legislature

Section 1. The Legislature shall have the honor to receive the Governor and the members of his family, and to receive the members of the Executive Council, the members of the Senate and the members of the House of Representatives.

Section 2. The Governor shall be elected by the people for a term of four years, and shall hold office until the first day of January following the year in which he is elected.

Section 3. The Governor shall have the honor to receive the members of the Executive Council, the members of the Senate and the members of the House of Representatives.

Section 4. The Governor shall have the honor to receive the members of the Executive Council, the members of the Senate and the members of the House of Representatives.

Section 5. The Governor shall have the honor to receive the members of the Executive Council, the members of the Senate and the members of the House of Representatives.

Section 6. The Governor shall have the honor to receive the members of the Executive Council, the members of the Senate and the members of the House of Representatives.
