To accompany the petition of George N. Holden that provision be made to protect merchants and others from liability in dealings with minors who falsely represent themselves to be of legal age. Joint Judiciary.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts.

In the Year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Nineteen.

AN ACT

Relative to the Contracts of Minors.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Section 1. If a minor makes a false statement in writing that he is at least twenty-one years of age and any person or corporation relying on said statement and believing the same enters into a contract or sale of any kind with him, said minor shall not thereafter, either before or after coming of age have any rights to disaffirm said contract or sale on account of his minority, and said false statement shall be a defence to any action or suit by said minor based on a disaffirmance of said contract on account of said minority.

1 Section 2. This act shall take effect upon its passage.
