

HOUSE No. 3263

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, March 26, 1963.

The House Committee on Rules, to whom were referred the Resolutions (filed by Messrs. Bulger of Boston, Condon of Boston and Tynan of Boston) congratulating Raymond Flynn on being voted the most valuable player in the National Invitation Basketball Tournament (House, No. 3263), report that the same ought to be adopted.

For the committee,

ROBERT H. QUINN.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Sixty-Three.

RESOLUTIONS CONGRATULATING RAYMOND FLYNN ON BEING VOTED THE MOST VALUABLE PLAYER IN THE NATIONAL INVITATION BASKETBALL TOURNAMENT.

Whereas, On March 23, Raymond Flynn, a resident of Boston and captain of the Providence College basketball team, was named the most valuable player of the National Invitation Basketball Tournament held in Madison Square Garden; and

Whereas, During the basketball season and the tournament Raymond Flynn displayed outstanding leadership, ability and a keen knowledge of this highly competitive sport; and

Whereas, The ability, leadership and sportsmanship of Raymond Flynn contributed greatly to the victories of Providence College; and

Whereas, Raymond Flynn, a dean's list student, by his outstanding performance has brought honor and fame to Providence College, the city of Boston and the Commonwealth; therefore be it

Resolved, That the Massachusetts House of Representatives extends its sincere congratulations to Raymond Flynn on being voted the most valuable player in the National Invitation Basketball Tournament and for his other outstanding accomplishments; and be it further

Resolved, That copies of these resolutions be sent by the Secretary of the Commonwealth to Raymond Flynn and to Providence College.

HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES, March 26, 1963.

Adopted.

WILLIAM C. MAIERS,

Clerk.
