

By Mr. Farrell of Worcester (by request), petition of Harry Fay for legislation to authorize him to maintain an action against the city of Boston for damages for expenses incurred on account of injuries suffered by his daughter on a playground in said city. The Judiciary.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Sixty-Five.

AN ACT AUTHORIZING HARRY FAY OF BOSTON TO MAINTAIN AN ACTION AGAINST SAID CITY FOR INJURIES SUFFERED ON A PLAYGROUND OF SAID CITY.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Notwithstanding any provision of law to the contrary, Harry
2 Fay of the Dorchester district of the city of Boston may bring
3 an action against said city for damages for expenses incurred by 4 him and for injuries suffered by his minor daughter, Michelle
5 Fay, on or about August twenty-first, nineteen hundred and 6 sixty-four on a playground of said city of Boston. If a court or 7 jury finds that such injuries were sustained by reason of a defect
8 or want of repair in the equipment of said playground and such 9 injuries might have been prevented or such want of repair might 10 have been remedied by reasonable care and diligence on the 11 part of the city, and that such injuries were not sustained
12 through the contributory negligence of said Michelle Fay the 13 plaintiff shall recover such damages as the court or jury may 14 determine not exceeding four thousand dollars.

of the State of New York, the report of the Board of Regents of the University of the State of New York, in relation to the proposed amendments to the Constitution of the State of New York, and to the proposed amendments to the laws of the State of New York, in relation to the proposed amendments to the laws of the State of New York, in relation to the proposed amendments to the laws of the State of New York.

The Constitution of the State of New York

In the Year One Thousand Eight Hundred and Eighty

THE CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, AS AMENDED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, IN THE YEAR ONE THOUSAND EIGHT HUNDRED AND EIGHTY, IS HEREBY REPRODUCED IN FULL, AS THE SAME STANDS AT PRESENT.

THE CONSTITUTION OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, AS AMENDED BY THE PEOPLE OF THE STATE OF NEW YORK, IN THE YEAR ONE THOUSAND EIGHT HUNDRED AND EIGHTY, IS HEREBY REPRODUCED IN FULL, AS THE SAME STANDS AT PRESENT.

I. The Legislature shall have the sole and exclusive power of initiating bills and resolutions, except bills for the purpose of amending the Constitution or supplementary thereto, which may originate in either house. All bills shall pass both houses by a majority of the members elected to each house. No bill shall be passed which contains more than one subject, and that subject shall be expressed in the title thereof. No bill shall be passed which increases the salaries of any public officer or judicial officer, or which takes away or impairs the vested rights of any individual citizen, or which appropriates or appropriates to the use of any individual citizen any money which has been lawfully appropriated for the use of the public. No bill shall be passed which increases the salaries of any public officer or judicial officer, or which takes away or impairs the vested rights of any individual citizen, or which appropriates or appropriates to the use of any individual citizen any money which has been lawfully appropriated for the use of the public. No bill shall be passed which increases the salaries of any public officer or judicial officer, or which takes away or impairs the vested rights of any individual citizen, or which appropriates or appropriates to the use of any individual citizen any money which has been lawfully appropriated for the use of the public.