

By Mr. McKenna of Springfield, petition of Arthur J. McKenna for legislation to clarify the provisions of law relating to part-time employees serving on a probationary period. Public Service.

The Commonwealth of Massachusetts

In the Year One Thousand Nine Hundred and Seventy-Three.

AN ACT CLARIFYING THE SERVING OF A PROBATIONARY PERIOD IN THE CASE OF A PERSON EMPLOYED LESS THAN FULL TIME.

Be it enacted by the Senate and House of Representatives in General Court assembled, and by the authority of the same, as follows:

1 Section 20D of chapter 31 of the General Laws is hereby
2 amended by striking out the fourth paragraph, inserted by
3 section 2 of chapter 182 of the acts of 1971, and inserting in 4 place thereof the following paragraph: —

5 The provisions of this section relative to the termination of 6 service during a probationary period because the conduct or
7 capacity of a person or the character or quality of his work
8 was not satisfactory, shall apply to a person permanently
9 appointed on a less than full-time basis provided the person has 10 been employed for at least thirty days, or the equivalent
11 thereof, which employment need not be consecutive. If, prior
12 to the end of the eighteen month period following his appoint-
13 ment to employment which is less than full-time, a person has 14 been actually employed for the equivalent of either one
15 hundred and twenty-five days, if a six month probationary
16 period is required, or one hundred and eighty-seven days, if a
17 nine month probationary period is required, he shall be deemed
18 to have served his probationary period, provided, evidence
19 satisfactory to the director of such employment is filed with 20 the director. If a person subject to this paragraph has not been 21 employed by the appointing authority for a sufficient period of 22 service to have served a probationary period as indicated above
23 during the first eighteen months following his appointment, he 24 shall at the end of said period be deemed to be the holder of 25 the position as though he had served the required probationary
26 period.

IN SENATE, FEBRUARY 1, 1907.

REPORT OF THE COMMISSIONERS OF THE LAND OFFICE.

IN THE YEAR 1906.

ALBANY: JAMES BROWN, PRINTERS, 1907.

1. Section 15-16 of chapter 11 of the Laws of 1906, which provided for the sale of the lands of the State, was amended by chapter 11 of chapter 11 of the Laws of 1907, and the amended section reads as follows:

2. The provisions of the said section, as amended, shall apply to the lands of the State, and the provisions of the said section, as amended, shall apply to the lands of the State, and the provisions of the said section, as amended, shall apply to the lands of the State.

3. The provisions of the said section, as amended, shall apply to the lands of the State, and the provisions of the said section, as amended, shall apply to the lands of the State, and the provisions of the said section, as amended, shall apply to the lands of the State.

4. The provisions of the said section, as amended, shall apply to the lands of the State, and the provisions of the said section, as amended, shall apply to the lands of the State, and the provisions of the said section, as amended, shall apply to the lands of the State.

5. The provisions of the said section, as amended, shall apply to the lands of the State, and the provisions of the said section, as amended, shall apply to the lands of the State, and the provisions of the said section, as amended, shall apply to the lands of the State.

6. The provisions of the said section, as amended, shall apply to the lands of the State, and the provisions of the said section, as amended, shall apply to the lands of the State, and the provisions of the said section, as amended, shall apply to the lands of the State.